A PATRIOTIC VACATION AT HOME

Wartime travel has convinced most West Texans that the only place to get a real vacation is at home. Creeks and lakes in this vicinity are full of fish and some of us are learning for the first time the beauties of our own immediate outdoors. A few days out in the country doesn't disrupt the household as it did some years ago. You don't have to throw out all the food in the house. Now folks just leave their electric refrigerator on "medium" and when they get back-day or night-cold and inviting foods await them.

Servicemen need every bit of traveling space available for the next ninety days, and by your staying at home this summer a little extra room will be left for these returning heroes.

Rediscover the vacation spots in our vicinity. Reddy Kilowatt guarantees that you'll write to your friends, "Having a wonderful time-wish you were here."

worst fat shortage since the war began. To make up for this staggering loss, the government is depending on the women of America-and particularly women on farms and in smaller cities.

Every spoonful, every drop of fat is needed to help make battlefield and homefront essentials. So roll up your sleeves and do an all-out job, won't you? Clip this checklist and pin it up in your kitchen as a reminder.

yields so much grease, you won't need it all for gravy. Pour the rest into the salvage can. 2. DEEP FAT FRYING -use the fat over and over, but when it's too dark and smelly to use any more, don't forget Uncle Sam wants it! 3. BOASTS AND CHOPS - save all trimmings (scraps from plates, too.) Keep them in a small bowl; once a week melt them down. SAUSAGIS-they're better if you parboil them first. Skim the fat off the cooking water scrape the fat from the frying pan. 5. CHICKEN SOUP - chill it before you use it. Scoop off the hardened grease (soup tastes better, too!) When the salvage can is full, take it to your butcher promptly. He will give you 2 red points and up to 4c for every pound of used fat you turn in. 100.000.000 More Pounds of Used Fats Are Needed This Year Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.
