Cyclone Wrecks Windmills Near Ozona Sat. Night

Twister Hit Eight Miles North City; Lightning Hits Here

A small cyclone dipped down to the ground about eight miles north of Ozona during the severe electrical disturbance and wind storm which visited this city early Saturday night.

The twister, estimated at about a quarter mile wide, wrecked a windmill on the W. R. Baggett ranch and another on the Childress ranch. Trees were uprooted but no further property damage was reported in the wake of the storm.

The severe electrical storm which accompanied a heavy shower of rain "blacked out" Ozona temporarily as lightning struck light wires in the city. Service was restored in a few minutes, however. West Texas Utilities Co. employees reported that every street light save one was burned out by the charge.

The lightning coursed down wires and into a radio at the home of Jim Smith, completely demolishing the instrument but injuring no members of the family. The fire department made a run to the Smith home, but the blaze had not spread from the radio.

Buzze's orchestra furnished music for the dances last year and crowds were highly pleased with the performance. For that reason, an early contract was made with the organization for this year's celebration.

ONE THING and THEN ANOTHER

By FRED GIPSON

SAN ANGELO. — Once again the European diplomats are making a poker game of destiny. And the dealer is slipping the cards fast from the bottom of the deck, aiming to take the greenhorn player, America, for her roll.

What I'm wondering is whether or not America is still the greenhorn she was in 1917, when she watched her youth swept from the table by card sharps who'd stacked the deck against her.

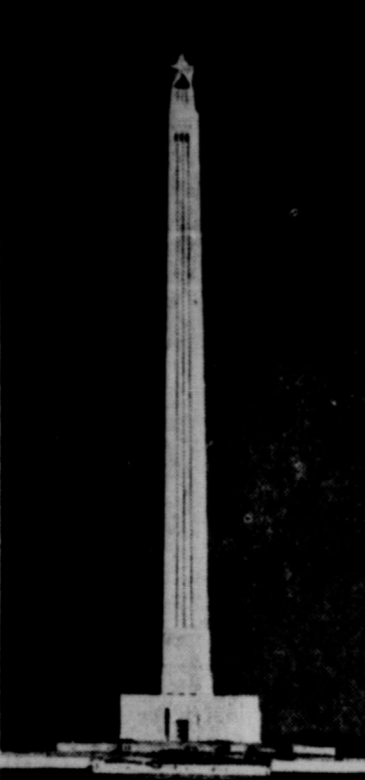

Looks to me like it's about time each and every one of us went off by ourselves and sat down on a quiet creek bank somewhere and tried to figure out what's going to happen here in America.

There's no use in trying to figure out what's going to happen in Europe.

When I get to thinking of war, I can't help but get mighty personal about the matter. Me—I don't want to get into any mess like that. I'm just here once. And in spite of how lonely and frustrated I get some times, I'd still rather hang on, getting what little bits of enjoyment that come my way in life, than be shot through the middle and left to fertilize some war-torn foreign soil.

Yes, in one way you look at it, that's selfish. And I do have the greatest sympathy for the European nations invaded and the people that are oppressed, made homeless and slaughtered. Sometimes, reading about it all, I get so mad that I'm ready for the moment to go over and join the army (Continued on Page Four)

Houston Memorial

Dedication ceremonies for the new San Jacinto museum and memorial shaft will be held today (Thursday) and tomorrow at Houston. The museum stands at the base of the 567-foot tower—12 feet higher than the Washington monument—which is located on the old battlefield of San Jacinto. April 21 is a Texas state holiday commemorating the battle, in 1836, which established Texas' independence from Mexico.

Clean-Up Drive Gets Cooperation From Citizenship

Committees Report Effective Work Being Done In City

Members of committees in charge of the Ozona Woman's club city-wide cleanup campaign now in progress, this week expressed appreciation for the splendid cooperation being given by citizens throughout the town in making the clean-up.

Since no trucks are available this year for free hauling of all accumulated trash and rubbish, the club's committee, through its chairman, Mrs. Scott Peters, is making an effort to induce citizens to make their own clean-up and have trash hauled away, and to make arrangements for frequent hauling of such trash in order that the town may be kept clean the year round.

However, in order that the campaign might be city-wide, the club has arranged for a limited amount of free hauling, in the case of persons who are not able to have the trash hauled themselves. Residents of the Mexican community are furnishing their own trucks for trash hauling.

A new appeal was issued this week by the clean-up committee to those who have not yet cleaned up their premises, to do so at once, in order that the town might appear in its best dress for the spring and summer months.

Dallas Minister To Hold Revival For Methodists

Rev. Marshall Steel To Be Here Monday For 5-Day Series

Rev. Marshall T. Steel, pastor of the Highland Park Methodist church in Dallas, will be the preacher at a brief revival meeting series at the Ozona Methodist church starting next Monday, it was announced this week by the Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor.

Rev. Allen G. Roe, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church in San Angelo, will direct the song services. The meeting will get under way at opening services Monday evening at 8 o'clock and continue through Friday evening, April 28. Morning services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday through Friday.

Rev. Steel will be remembered by many Ozonans for his brilliant sermons delivered during the district conference held in Ozona last April. He was the conference preacher on that occasion and his splendid sermons highlighted the conference sessions.

"I feel that the church is extremely fortunate in being able to secure the services of Rev. Steel for the spring revival," Rev. Slater declared. "The series of meetings will be all too short, but I am hopeful that the people will realize that fact and take full advantage of Rev. Steel's messages from the opening service to the final one, and thus realize maximum benefit from what little time we will have to enjoy this outstanding speaker."

Rev. Steel is a graduate of Hendrix college at Conway, Ark., and of Union Theological Seminary at New York. Before coming to Texas he was pastor of Winfield Memorial church in Little Rock, Ark. He is in his second year at Highland Park church in Dallas.

Rev. Roe is in his fifth year at Trinity church in San Angelo. He is a gifted song leader and is expected to make a worthwhile contribution to the revival series. Mrs. Bryan McDonald will be at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Ele Hagelstein plan to leave today for San Antonio to attend the San Jacinto Fiesta and Battle of Flowers.

Nearly 100 Per Cent Sign-Up Reported For Range Program

Nearly a 100 per cent sign-up of operators who participated in the 1938 program is reported by County Agent C. J. Van Zandt for the 1939 range improvement program of the AAA. Last Saturday, April 15, was the deadline for signing up under the 1939 program.

Practically all ranch lands that were included in last year's program will be back for participation in this year's work, the agent said. The provision that only ranch operators may sign up this year has brought some new names on the agent's records, but most of these are operators of lands that were included last year.

A number of ranchers in this county have already started prickly pear and cedar eradication work and others are drilling water wells and building header and dirt tanks for additional water storage.

Players Seek Lighted Field For Softball

Committee Investigating Possibilities Of Night Play

The fate of a local softball league hung by a thin thread this week as interested players awaited the outcome of an investigation into the cost of installing a lighting system for night play.

Approximately a dozen leaders in the agitation for formation of a number of local teams met Monday afternoon in the Stockman office to discuss possibilities of the pastime here this spring and summer.

It was agreed that little interest would be manifested unless lights can be obtained for night play. A committee is at work investigating the possibility of obtaining sufficient poles for mounting reflectors and if these can be secured at a reasonable cost, a canvass will be made locally in the near future to raise funds with which to light the field.

Mrs. Boyd Cox of Rankin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Perner and other relatives.

Body Of Early Ozona Settler Is Buried Here

C. W. Gurley, 70, Died At Ranch Home Near Pumpville.

Funeral services were held here at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Clay Montgomery home for Charles William Gurley, 70, one of the early day settlers of Crockett County, who died at his ranch home north of Pumpville at 9 o'clock last Wednesday night.

Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted funeral services, with burial following in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

The Gurley family settled on a ranch east of Ozona in 1890 and were residents here when Crockett county was organized. Joe T. Gurley, father of C. W. Gurley, was the county's second sheriff.

Mr. Gurley left Ozona in about 1900 to ranch along the Pecos river. In about 1907 the family moved to the Del Rio area and have ranched in that sector since. He is survived by the widow, two sons, Joe T. Gurley and William B. Gurley, one daughter, Miss Jessie Lee Gurley, all of Pumpville, and one sister, Mrs. E. S. Briant of San Angelo. Also surviving are three nieces, Mrs. Myrtle B. Berquist of San Angelo, Miss Josephine Nolen of Midland and Mrs. Raymond Jones of San Angelo.

Evans Sentenced To Two Years On Robbery Charge

Man Who Pilfered $62 From Garage Pleads Guilty

Delbert Evans was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the state penitentiary by Judge W. C. Jackson of 112th district court when his case was heard before the court here Saturday afternoon.

Evans was charged with rifling the cash register at the North Motor Co. late last Wednesday afternoon and theft of $62.50 in cash. He entered a plea of guilty to an indictment, returned by the grand jury, called back into its third session of the term shortly after noon Saturday, waived trial by jury and placed his fate in the hands of Judge Jackson.

Judge Jackson also heard a motion for a new trial in the cases of Raul Hernandez, Isaac Fabela and Manuel Arzola, convicted early last week on charges of forgery and passing forged instruments. The motion was presented by a young Mexican attorney from Del Rio, who contended that the court erred in failing to appoint counsel to represent the Mexicans in the trial. The trio pleaded guilty to the charges, waived a jury trial and accepted sentence, it was developed at the hearing. The court overruled the motion and the defendants gave notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

A number of Ozona Baptists are planning to go to Big Spring this week to attend revival services being conducted in the Big Spring Baptist church by the Rev. Hoover and Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Childers have already made plans to go today or tomorrow and others may make the trip. While there, the delegation from the Ozona church will make an effort to engage Rev. Appleman for a revival here in the fall of 1941 or spring of 1942.

GOVERNMENT BY BUREAUS

Comes to hand a lengthy harangue from the Texas department of public safety decrying action of the Senate finance committee in slashing $650,000 from the appropriation for the department. The publicity article, aimed to stir public sentiment in behalf of a larger appropriation for the department, calls the committee's action a "staggering blow" and lists the services which will be curtailed or eliminated if the cut is allowed to stand.

This highly colored picture of the "disastrous" effect of a move for economy in this particular bureau of government is typical of the howl to high heaven that goes up from every department whose appropriation is threatened. Every year the demands of the myriad bureaus grow larger, and the same howl goes up if the increases are not granted and a merry uproar is created should a cut be threatened.

Of course, these job holders are not particularly concerned about the effects of appropriation cuts in the service to the people, but their main concern is the possibility that some of their friends might lose their lucrative public jobs, and that some votes might be estranged. But it would seem that it is time for the people to speak their piece on the matter and demand some retrenchment in government costs—including the favorite political football, pensions for the aged. The people can do with less government, and certainly they can stand a healthy cut in the cost of government.

A BILLION FOR INTEREST

The annual interest charge on the public debt of the United States is now more than a billion dollars. This sum is only slightly less than the total national indebtedness prior to the World War.

"The savage tribes of the desert have no taxes to pay. Why, then, are they savage?"—Enka Voice.

LOCK THE STABLE BEFORE THE HORSE IS STOLEN

A HISTORIC DECISION

The historic supreme court decision of March 27, which held, in the words of Justice Stone, that there is no constitutional immunity "from income taxation of officers or employees of the national or a state government or their instrumentalities," apparently removes all legal obstacles in the way of a reform that has long been advocated.

It has been generally believed that it would be unconstitutional for any branch of government to tax the workers of another, and it has been argued that an amendment to the constitution would be necessary to make that possible. This decision, in deciding that the federal government and the states would not hamper or burden each other by extending their taxing power to government workers, now makes that argument completely invalid.

The president of the United States, other high government officials, business leaders, newspapers, and a large number of economists have all pointed to the unfairness of tax freedom for government workers. In a great many cases these workers receive higher salaries than they would be paid for comparable work in private business. During recent years especially, thousands upon thousands of additional persons have been placed on the public payrolls, and a good proportion of them receive salaries ranging from $5,000 to $12,000 a year. Certainly there is no justice or reason in permitting these people to go tax free—while persons in private industry with incomes as low as $1,000 are taxed to maintain them.

There are about 3,800,000 persons now employed by government. A large number of them, of course, have salaries which fall below the exemptions allowed in income tax laws. But many enjoy salaries above those limits and they should be taxed precisely as anyone else in the same income bracket is taxed. This will bring in substantial additional revenue to government—and at the same time it should have an excellent moral effect on the government officials and employees who control the spending.

An advertisement is a guarantee of quality.

SHOT IN THE ARM

It is reported that government economists view the immediate business future with optimism—largely because the Treasury's monthly deficits are increasing.

One wonders just how much longer these "shot in the arm" tactics will meet with any success. It may temporarily invigorate industry, to pour out money without worrying where more money is coming from to meet the deficit. But it certainly doesn't build a sound foundation, for a nation to keep on piling up debt for future generations to pay.

Some day we'll learn that the only honest and permanent prosperity must come from productive, expanding industry, under a stable government which makes both ends meet. Let's hope we don't learn that too late.

"People can fight a foe whom they can see; nations can guard themselves against physical threats to their safety. But it is immensely more difficult to protect ideals, beliefs and principles against the onslaught of ideas.

"There is always the danger, especially in times of economic distress, that great numbers of people will be deceived into believing that the new idea is better than the old one, and that somehow they will fare better by discarding the ancient beliefs in such things as freedom of thought, the rights of individuals as superior to those of the state, the privilege of religious liberty, and the right to speak and preach one's opinions."—Canby (Oregon) Herald.

CREAMED POTATO RING WITH LAMB STEW

A few minutes before time to serve, turn onto a platter—sprinkle generously with grated Kraft's cheese. Bake until hot thru—350 degrees F.

Fill Center With Stew*

*Take 1 1/2 pounds of lamb for stew, roll in seasoned flour. In frying pan, put 2 or 3 tbsp. of Mrs. Tucker's shortening. When hot, fry lamb to golden brown—when browned, lay in your stew boiler. Then fry one large onion minced and 1 1/2 cup celery chopped to the Mrs. Tucker's shortening that the lamb was browned in and cook until soft. Then add to lamb with 1 1/2 cup hot water. Cover closely and cook until tender, about 30 minutes before serving, add a bit of parsley, bay leaf, salt and pepper, thicken the sauce to the consistency of thick cream. Pour over lamb and serve.

"World Of Tomorrow" Viewed By Seniors As Guests Of Juniors At Annual Banquet

Utilizing the World's Fair idea in decorations and program, Juniors of Ozona high school gave the seniors of 1939 a look into "The World of Tomorrow" at the annual Junior-Senior banquet in the ballroom of the Hotel Ozona Tuesday night.

Gay colored balloons with the wording "Ozona High School, Junior-Senior Banquet, 1939," hung at the back of each chair and from the lights.

C. E. Nelson gave thanks at the banquet opening, with Jim Dudley, Junior class president, as master of ceremonies. Posey Baggett gave a reading, "Pa's New Car," and Noma V. Miller read "Back Home from the Fair."

C. S. Denham, superintendent, spoke on "The World's Fair," in which he called attention to the "fare" that one has to pay for his way through life, the things that it takes to "get along" in the world.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, April 19.—BUSINESS—For many business men last week the stoppage of bituminous coal output in the Appalachian area was overshadowing in seriousness the war preparations of Europe. Railroad carloadings dropped 11.4 per cent from the preceding week largely because coal shipments declined from 104,235 cars to 46,451. West Virginia merchants, who are in the very heart of the eastern bituminous region, viewed with alarm the dwindling purchasing power of 20,000 coal miners. Industrial users of bituminous coal were facing higher fuel prices, dealers who still had coal for sale quoting about 50 cents a ton higher. Interruption of regular supplies were especially inconvenient to smaller concerns that do not stock coal, since a change in quality of coal used often affects operations adversely. The shutdown, which operators called a strike, miners' lockout, resulted from inability to agree on wage hour terms of a new contract with the United Mine Workers.

WASHINGTON—A good start toward reduction of America's record cotton surplus was made last week in arrangement for barter deals between this country, Great Britain, Holland and Belgium. Exchange of as much as 5,000,000 bales of cotton for rubber and tin, two strategic raw materials produced in abundance by colonies of the European countries, was viewed in informed circles here as possible. This would be close to half the 11,000,000 bales the Commodity Credit Corporation now has stored in southern warehouses. Just how much cotton is 11,000,000 bales? Well, statisticians have estimated it would be sufficient to supply the entire requirements of domestic textile operators at the present rate of consumption for 20 months.

BRIGHT SPOT—Heavy sales of sporting goods and other recreational items are a bright spot in the current retail sales outlook. A recent survey among 1,700 business men in all but the lowest income bracket showed that golf is the favorite pastime of 13.9 per cent, heading the list of 15 leading hobbies. Other preferred sports are fishing, hunting, tennis and bowling. With golf and tennis equipment thus constituting the sales "backbone" of most sporting goods dealers, a good many of them this spring are installing large glass mirrors in their shops so that golf and tennis-playing customers may be entranced by "first-hand" observation of their own form. Inspiration for this idea seems to have come from the increasing use of mirrors by college swimmers and oarsmen to improve their strokes. Pros say their pupils can "multiply" the benefits of instruction by frequent check-ups before mirrors in their own homes.

STEADIER WORK—For every man with a job he feels is proof against depression, there are probably ten who speculate occasionally about their security of employment. An example of the industry deliberately creating greater job security appeared last week after the Aluminum Company of America issued its annual report.

Musical Bleats Win Prize for Pet

While Victor Angerame, New York city, holds the musical instrument, "Bum," his pet lamb, sounds off a tune on the harmonica to win first prize as the most artistic pet in the Kip's Boys club's fifteenth annual pet show recently. "Bum," according to his owner, did not pull the wool over the judges' eyes.

Sales of aluminum ingot in 1938, the company reported, dropped 42 per cent from 1937. Yet the bureau of mines' annual report issued recently shows that aluminum ingot production in the U. S. last year declined only two per cent. In an effort to smooth out the valleys and peaks in employment, the company seeks to keep its raw aluminum production on an even keel over a period of years. In slack times aluminum is stored, to be sold in busy times. This maintenance of ingot production—and therefore employment—is possible because a bar of aluminum is as good one year as the next, whereas manufactured items such as cooking utensils and airplanes cannot be stored in quantity because of design changes.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR—Paper plates with metal edges for baking pies, said to do the job 15 per cent faster than will the time-honored pie tin... A new ammonia-sugar compound which when added in small amounts to dairy products, fruit juices, bakery goods and coffee is said to keep these perishables fresh for two months... A new artificial bait which looks like a fish swallowing a smaller fish with plenty of hooks for the real fish to bite on... A combination comb and nail file with the file partially embedded in the back of the comb... A new chemical for preservation of wood to enable the lumber industry to meet competition developing from other types of construction materials... A new slow acting poison for roaches that does not need to be scattered; it's left in the can with the end punched in so the pests may eat.

HEADLINES IN NEW YORK—Aircraft output in second quarter may set record... First quarter net profits of chemical industry well above 1938... 10-year high in building activity expected to aid employment... Federal government works on plan to keep American securities and commodity markets open in event of war... Factory sales of autos rise 63 per cent during March... General Motors Corp. earnings for first quarter of 1939 estimated at $1.20 a share, best for this period since 1929... Government crop report showed a marked improvement for bodies wasted away with disease, skinny, hollow-eyed children, pilfering garbage cans for food.

And they're not all in the cities, either. You can find them in tumbled-down tenant shacks all over the country. The banks of the Rio Grande river are lined with their kind. So are those of the Mississippi.

Those are human beings, just like us. And but for the kindness of the gods, might have been us.

No, they're not being slaughtered by bullets and bombs. But they're dying just the same, or living in such miserable squalor that death comes as a relief.

Looks to me like, if we've just got to the point where we must spend a lot of money and effort saving people from suffering and death we could do mighty well starting in right here at home.

The expenditure of human life and money wouldn't be half what a war would cost.

And, along with it, we could do more toward preserving our natural resources, so our progeny can enjoy life at least as we have.

Of course, being human and somewhat selfish, I'm not likely to do a whole lot of good for these poor unfortunates here at home. I tend to shun them, just as you do.

Yet, now and then I try to help a little. And now and then, you try to help a little. And if both of us stay alive, we'll eventually do some good.

But I don't figure we can help any by going over to Europe and getting ourselves shot.

Me—I want to stay out of that European poker game. I believe the cards are marked.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation to the many true friends in Crockett county and surrounding territory for their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy on the occasion of the death of our husband and father, C. W. Gurley. Your comforting words, the beautiful flowers and your friendly interest lightened our burden immeasurably in this our greatest hour of trial.

of the oppressed.

Then I get in a line. We ran the Indians from their lands here in America. We needed room. We took it.

The over-populated nations of Europe are needing room. They're taking it.

Where's the difference? Maybe I'm wrong, but it looks to me like we've got plenty to do right here at home. We've exploited our resources shamefully, wasted our timber, cleared land for farming, then let it wash and blow away, slaughtered the wild game that once abounded in the woods until there's little left.

We've got cities full of slums where disease and starvation are sapping the life out of human beings almost as fast as Hitler and Mussolini are blasting it out.

I see people like that almost every day. Just walk down the streets of any of our cities, and you can see them, too, pitiful creatures, men and women, their

Think First—
It Won't Be Long Now—
At some time or another, we have done things that we think are very amusing, but that when that thing is done to us, it isn't so amusing.

Only yesterday I heard some one remark: "It won't be long now until school is out." That is true, in fact, more true now than we may realize.

At the last of school the work seems very difficult, because it comes in such large quantities. Also, there are many parties and other activities that can keep you from studying.

GOOD MANNERS

One of the first steps to a happy life is what we call good manners. Good manners are not a system of behaving that may be learned from an etiquette book.

Some people acquire the best manners in the world by simply being self-possessed, and by knowing what to say or do at the right time.

Good manners are very essential to a boy or a girl. They win friends and play an important part in his or her future career.

Band Gets Class A Rating On Neat Uniforms

The Ozona band is already thinking about the contest for next year. The director, Mr. Norman Heath, received the criticisms from the judges in Abilene.

The members of the band are working hard trying to improve their playing. The main thing wrong with the band was it played too loud. The members are working now to learn how to play softly.

The band is practicing mainly on sight reading and scales. The scales will help the members develop better tone quality and to learn better the mechanism of their horns.

There were many nice looking uniforms at the state contest but some of the most colorful, neat and outstanding uniforms were those worn by the Ozona High School band.

There will be two more band appearances in this school term. The main numbers on this program will be some overtures that the band is working on now.

There will be a complete write up about these programs as they are given several weeks from now.

JUNIORS RECEIVE PINS

The Junior class pins that were ordered several weeks ago from the Star Engraving Co., Houston, were received Monday, April 17.

The pins were designed to match the senior rings that will be ordered in May. The pins have red stones which are encircled in a gold band with "Ozona High School—1940" engraved on them.

The rings which will be ordered in May and will be received in September also contain a red stone encircled in a gold band with "Ozona High School, 1940" engraved on it.

Possibilities Seen In Tennis Team

Fine Showing Made At Fort Stockton

The tennis team of Ozona high school has been making impressive showings for the last few weeks under the capable direction of Mr. C. E. Nelson. Last Wednesday the team went to Sonora and came back with two wins to the opponent's one.

Saturday the team journeyed to the district meet at Fort Stockton to participate in the tennis contests. Although no one came out a district champion the team made a good showing against the stiff competition.

Well, the senior events have started. Several people who were expecting dates to one or the two events over the weekend were sadly disappointed. Better luck next time, gals.

Phillip, now you will be able to have all the dates you want to with Shorty. Some people surely make dumb bets.

The co-editor of this column certainly has her nerve. Saturday a certain boy asked her for a date to the dance, and she said that she already had one (but she didn't).

It happened to be her good fortune to get another one.

Bess did the same thing to a certain sophomore boy, but her good fortune wasn't so hot. She didn't get another one. Ha! Ha!

Jeff, what happened to you at Fort Stockton? I never was so surprised in my life at anyone as I was at you. Jeff, did you ever kiss the fair maidens adieu.

Beecher, under a false pretense acting as captain of the basketball squad, got to see the beautiful girls from Barstow. Beecher, why didn't you bring them home?

Walter Escue was also cutting 'em rusty at the district meet. Bobby, you should have had your mother along to see that you got dressed allright in Fort Stockton! No es verdad?

Noma, did you have a good time last weekend? What is his name, Noma?

Opal, Helen, whom have you all been sitting with in the cars every morning and noon?

I don't know which was the worst, Crystelle's tears or the rain Saturday night.

Frances, who were your boy friends from out of town? Ella, you should give Miles a talk on slang. You should have heard him Friday evening!

Bess, could you tell us how to live over a shock? I wonder how may girls west riding in a white car last weekend!

Large Windows Give Light To Dark Basement

It is no longer necessary to tolerate dark drab basements when at comparatively little cost areas can be developed and large windows installed.

Most basements of older houses have tiny little square windows that fall far short of lighting the basement. The new game rooms which now are included in many basements have increased the necessity for sunlight and good ventilation, and enlarging the window space is the only way to obtain this.

Attic Fan Is Used to Keep Warm Air Out

There are several methods by which stifling summer heat may be kept out of the home, and one of the least expensive of these is a ventilating opening in the attic.

These ventilating louvres exhaust the heat which is reflected from the underside of the roof and keep a current of air moving above the insulation.

REPORTER'S AUTO STOLEN IN POLICE STATION YARD

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—The police headquarters yard where the prowling cars are parked, would seem about the safest place to leave an auto.

But a Springfield Republican news man who parked a coupe, and bearing the newspaper's name on both doors, has learned differently. Parking it under the detective bureau's windows about midnight, the reporter found the car gone half an hour later.

The machine was found abandoned several hours later at Hartford, Conn.

March FHA Home Building In Texas Sets New Record

Home financing activities during March established a new monthly high in FHA records for Texas, William H. Clark, Jr., state director, announced yesterday.

Small home mortgages selected for appraisal during the month totaled $7,500,000, approximately $1 per cent, of which represents homes to be constructed. The previous high $5,864,000, was reported in August, last year.

The average amount of these mortgages are approximately $3,427, and the maximum interest rate is 5 per cent, plus the insurance premium, not exceeding one-half of 1 per cent; the term of the mortgages may run from 20 to 25 years.

Premium-paying mortgages recorded in March totaled $3,520,500, compared with $2,888,800 for February, and $796,000 for March last year. This brings the grand total of small homes, premium-paying mortgages for Texas up to $57,463,300.

The number of new homes started under FHA inspection during March also set a new monthly record exceeding the number at the peak of the building season last year, averaging more than 289 a week during the month.

The cost of the federal government has increased 288 per cent since 1926.

Heavy Clothes Closet Luxury To Home Owner

In a few more weeks the problem of finding a safe storage space for heavy clothes will confront home owners who do not have moth-proof closets or chests.

A built-in clothes closet, moth-proofed with cedar or other insect repellent, is the most practical solution, as it affords more convenience than other devices.

Entire Family Finds Comfort in Coat Closet

A coat closet in the main entrance hall of a home will be found to contribute much in convenience to the entire family.

The size of the closet will necessarily depend on the individual requirements and the space available. The floor should be of material that is easily cleaned, as the closet will also be a storeroom for overshoes and dripping umbrellas.

TOY CLOSET

Spring brings an annual exodus to the outdoors and with it the problem of storage space for toys, bicycles, skates and other items which are likely to annoy members of the household when not in use.

A closet made especially for such equipment is practically the only practical solution to the problem. There are many possible designs, but the ideal one should contain a separate cupboard for larger and more cumbersome toys, as well as space for bicycles, roller skates, and other items.

RESULTS GUARANTEED

Three little skunks and an old mother skunk were walking leisurely through the woods. Suddenly one of the little skunks shouted: "Mother, yonder comes a big black bear. What shall we do?" "Let us spray!" commanded the old mother skunk.

This country, with only 6 per cent of the world's population, carries on 50 per cent of the business activity.

Clean, Cool Kitchens To Be Theme For Classes

Women today are entitled to greater comfort and convenience in the home, believes Miss Jewell Taylor, widely known educator and cooking expert, who will conduct the two-day cooking school, opening in Ozona May 4, for the West Texas Utilities Co.

Miss Taylor, a native of Fort Worth but now connected with the home economics department of the Hotpoint electric range manufacturers in Chicago, will outline a program of "better living" for women at the school.

Following her graduation from Texas State College for Women at Denton, Miss Taylor continued her home economics study at the University of Colorado. She then returned to Texas State College to become home demonstration agent. Her work was so outstanding that she was selected to direct the Fort Worth Food and Dairy Council where she worked with women in developing home economy and kitchen styles. Her success led to a continuation of the work in Miami, Fla., and Knoxville, Tenn., from whence she went to Chicago to serve as demonstrator and advisor for the Hotpoint range company.

Miss Taylor says her career has been devoted to "making life easier for women." She has concentrated on "taking heat and dirt out of the kitchen" and giving the homemaker more time to do "the things she really wants to do."

"No woman," she declares, "really likes kitchen drudgery. Every woman dreams of a kitchen that operates with a minimum of effort on her part and allows time to enjoy other things in life. Electric cookery comes nearer making this dream a reality than anything else in the world today. That is why I recommend the electric range. It is cool and clean and present low electric rates make it economical in just average homes."

Miss Taylor urged that every woman in Ozona, regardless of the type of cookery she now uses, attend the school. Food prepared during the demonstrations will be awarded to those present and free recipes will be distributed.
