Ozona Cagers Win At Eldorado; Enter Big Lake Tourney

Coach Marshall Brown's Ozona Lion cagers showed marked improvement in the scoring department when they laced the Eldorado Eagles 37 to 31 in a district game on the Eldorado court Tuesday night. The win gave the locals a 500 rating in the district standings, having dropped their first district encounter to the Big Lake Owls last week-end.

Nat Read, Don Cook, Joe Ross Huffstедler, Don Hoover and Gordon Bufford, the starters, ran up a quick ten points in the opening quarter and burned up the court throughout the first half with quick breaking charges. The Eldorado defense stiffened and their attack became more formidable in the second half but not enough to overcome the continued fine basket shooting of the locals.

The Ozona B squad squeaked through with a 15 to 14 win over the Eagle B crew in the evening's curtain raiser. The Ozona Volleyball girls, however, were outclassed by the Eldorado gals and took a sound thrashing in their second game of the district season to come up with the same percentage rating as the boy cagers, having won the opener against the Big Lake girls last week.

Ozona cagers go to Big Lake this week-end to enter the Big Lake annual basketball tournament. The Ozonans play Odessa high school at 2:45 Friday afternoon in the Big Lake meet.

Next Tuesday night, the Lions will play their second district game with the Big Lake Owls in Big Lake, with three games slated for the evening, basketball between B teams of the two schools at 6 o'clock, girls volleyball at 7 and the A squads at basketball beginning at 8.

VISITORS HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Colwick of Stephenville spent the past week-end as guests of Mrs. Colwick's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Chandler. While here they were honored at dinner by M. and Mrs. Stephen Perner and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., and at a bridge party given for Mrs. Colwick by Mrs. Joe Pierce. Mrs. George Montgomery honored Mrs. Colwick at the regular meeting of the Friday Bridge Club. Mr. and Mrs. Colwick returned to their home in Stephenville Sunday.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Willie Goes to School at 23
Everybody's joshing Willie Wells about going back to school. They remember when Willie would hide out in the woodshed—scared to bring his report card home to Pa. But under the G.I. Bill of Rights, Willie (who has a wife and baby) is getting a free education at the Agricultural College. And Uncle Sam is giving him a fine report: "Depotment, excellent; Progress, above average."
That goes for all those undergraduate veterans. Like Willie, they appreciate an education more than ever now. They're industrious and well-behaved—their favorite beverage is milk, or a temperate glass of beer. For them the "three R's" seem to mean: Responsibility, Resourcefulness, Restraint.
From where I sit, cynical folks who thought veterans wouldn't want to return to school—wouldn't stick to steady habits of work and moderation—have their answer in "undergraduates" like Willie.

DEATONS MOV EHERE

Mrs. Willard Deaton and daughter, Jo Ann, have joined Mr. Deaton to make their home in Ozona. Mr. Deaton is mortician with the Ratliff Hardware & Furniture Co. The Deatons have leased the Mike Friend home here and will move in within the next few days. Mrs. Deaton remained in San Angelo until Jo Ann had completed the first semester's work in San Angelo schools and the latter has now enrolled in Ozona schools in the seventh grade.

SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Hogs led the upward price trend last week at most southwest farm markets with sheep, wheat, sorghums and eggs in tow, but prices of cotton, feeds, cattle and most vegetables declined, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Wheat and sorghums moved a little higher at southwest markets last week. Other grains were steady to weak. Food prices followed uneven trends with bran down and shorts up. Cottonseed and soybean meals were lower. Alfalfa hay moved better

Hogs gained 50 cents to $1.50 around the market circle. Top butchers sold at $21.50 to $22 per hundred at San Antonio; $23.25 to $23.50 at Ft. Worth, Oklahoma and Wichita.

Cattle declined at some southwest markets last week as trading grew dull. However, Denver reported firm to steady prices with medium to good steers bringing $18 to $24 a hundred and common to good cows $13 to $15.50. San Antonio prices were irregular with medium and good shortfed yearlings and steers selling at $17 to $22. Medium and good steers brought $20 to $22 at Oklahoma City $18 to $22 at Wichita and $16 to $22 at Ft. Worth. Common and medium steers and yearlings realized $11 to $16 at Houston.

Active trading at outwest sheep and lamb markets last week kept prices steady to strong. But some weakness showed up at Wichita where good and choice Texas lambs sold at $22.60 to $22.80 per hundred. Good and choice fat lambs brought $22.75 at Ft.

Worth; $22 to $22.50 at Oklahoma City; and mostly $22.50 at Denver. San Antonio's receipts were largely large enough to establish a market, but a few sales of medium fall shorn lambs went at $16.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Harwick having their house painted last week.

R. J. Cooke is reported seriously ill at his home here this week. Cooke suffered an attack of mumps.

LIONS ROAR STAFF

The Lions Roar Staff has been selected and we would like for you to meet the ones who make these pages possible. They are: Bob Cooper, editor, assistant, Lillian Heineemann, and reporters, Gordon Bufford, Corinne Phillips, Mary K. Flowers, Bernard Lemery, Betty Cooke, Chris Perner, Lou Lou Piner, Louise Wood and Marian Dryden. We would appreciate your helpful hints and hope that we can serve you with the latest news in the future.

VOLEYBALL JINX BROKEN

On Tuesday of last week, there was quite a surprise in store for the students of O.H.S. and the people. Big Lake had come here with the intention of winning an easy victory over Ozona, but we had them fooled. We didn't have any idea whatsoever that we were going to win that game. We just knew that we were going to play them one of the best games they'd have. It was the first game won by the volleyball team in two years, and we feel the credit goes to our coach, Mr. Gibson, who has worked so hard with us and has helped us to overcome our jinx. He is a wonderful coach, and without his help we never could've won. On Tuesday we are going to Eldorado to take them to a cleaning — if possible. We're all going to be out there trying our darndest, so wish us luck — we'll need it!

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

From the halls of O. H. S. we take a tall, blonde, senior girl for the student of the week. She is popular with both the boys and girls, but mainly on the volleyball court where she is considered a star player.

During football season the drum corps could not have done without their captain, Patsy Schwalbe.

So, Patsy, we take this opportunity to thank you for what you have contributed to our school, and to express our regret that you will not be with us next year.

CRACKS

By Nutcrackers

The nutcrackers wish to say no seriousness or hard feelings must be paid about these cracks to whom it may concern.

Mary K. (upon receiving a bouquet of flowers): "There's a little dew on them yet, isn't there?"

Gordon (flustered): "Oh! — Don't worry. I'll pay that next month."

Due to illness and other unknown reasons the high school perfect attendance has been cut to three: Ray Piner and Lin Hicks, sophomores and Bud Meinecke, senior. Certificates will be awarded them Thursday, January 23.

Armond took a long look at an old man and asked: "Were you in the ark when the flood came, Gramp?" "No, certainly not," replied the aged man. "Then why weren't you drowned?" asked J. G.

Birthday Club

Miss North formed a Birthday Club to create interest in the library by the student body and also to increase the size of the library by the addition of new books. To become a member, give the library a book on your birthday. Any person in or out of school may join this club since the membership is not limited. The books are to be selected by the High School standard catalogue. There are six members at the present time.

Rosalie: "You remind me of the ocean."

Bob: "Romantic, wild and restless?"

Rosalie: "No, you just make me sick."

Tom Ed sighs, "Girl of My Dreams," in Ann's ear and Ann says, "I'm Just a Prisoner of Love."

Joe Perry, Gordon and Max — these three seniors sing, "Because You Can't Break My Heart."

Frank Parr sings, "I Walk Alone" 'cause Marion is singing, "There's No One But You" to Tony nowadays.

Virginia sings, "I'll See You in My Dreams" to that certain someone.

J. G. is singing, "I'm Just a Sittin' and a Rockin'" " 'Cause It's My Lazy Day."

Red asks Sue, "How Come You Do Me Like You Do?" and Sue replies, "It's Just My Fickle Eye."

Sam to Jo Lou, "You Two Timed Me One Time Too Often." Jo Lou sighs, "Too Late to Worry, Too Late to Cry."

Dale to Newell, "Put that Ring on My Finger." Newell yodels, "Don't Fence Me in."

Bill croons to Lill, "Do You Love Me?" and Lill answers, "Oh, But I Do."

Bob whispers to Rosalie, "It Had to Be You." Rosalie hums, "Always."

Chris screams to Joan, "Divorce Me C. O. D." and Joan sadly sighs "I Guess I'll Get the Papers and Go Home."

Jack writes to Connie H. "Full Moon and Empty Arms."

Judy sings to Christoval, "Long Time No See Baby."

Nat to Corinne, "Til the End of

Time." Corinne coyly replies, "If I Lovedd You."

Don whispers to M. K. "I Love You for Sentimental Reasons," as M. K. swoons in answer, "I'd Be Lost without You."

Mary Ann to Buddy, "Have I Told You Lately that I Love You?"

Tortured Buddy sighs, "You're Driving Nails in My Coffin."

Charlie groans, "I Don't Know Why."

Joe Ross, Bill Hoover and Armond sing the "Wild and Woolly Women."

"And then It's Heaven," Jane hums "When Iraan comes over."

Bernard writes to Baby, "I'm Chained to a Memory of You." Baby writes "Who Told You that Lie?"

I'll be seeing you.

LION'S ROAR —
GOSSIP COLUMN

Armond, we're learning fast about your little trip to Dallas, picture shows, etc.

When Bernard was asked if he could keep some basketball boys during the tournament, he said, "No, but I can keep a couple of volleyball girls."

Jo Lou can't seem to make up her mind. She was with Jack Coates Sunday night.

Don, have you lost something? We thought so! Could it be Mary K. who found it?

Bill Melton felt kinda left out

Saturday night when Lillian had a date with Nat.

Why was Mary Ann so down-hearted Sunday night? Could it have been Iraan?

Judy, whom were you expecting Sunday night? Did you say Barnhart?

J. G., what's this you bet with Jane on two cokes?

Mary K. says Lin surely has a pretty coat — hint, hint!

Saturday night was quite a head ache for Buddy, Chris and Sam. Seems they had their share of girl trouble. What about that Mary Ann, Joan and Jo Lou?

Hey you all, that Bill Melton is quite a character isn't he? He's one of those that just can't make up his mind. Mark one up for Jo Lou, though. She never gives up.

Frank Parr has a new name. He is now called "Mortimer." Cute, isn't it?"

The one mile park seems to be pretty crowded nowadays. Just more people!

Bob, are you still having blonde trouble? Think of poor Sam.

Beecher Montgomery is about with his left leg in a cast this week. He suffered a break in the small bone in the leg Monday afternoon when a horse fell with him on the pavement while driving a small herd of horses through town. He was not injured other than the broken bone and a bruised foot.

Disabled Vet, Law Graduate, Wants Job On West Texas Ranch

There is something new under the sun after all!

An attorney at law, holder of LLE and BBA degrees from the University of Texas, and a veteran of four years of military service, wants a job on a West Texas ranch.

But the applicant does not want a "desk job" or a managerial position — he wants to do manual labor. The novel application for ranch work came in a letter received yesterday by county agent Joe Cowan.

"By way of introduction," the letter began, "I am a veteran of four years' military service, age 31, married, with wife and three-and-a-half-year-old daughter. I am interested in locating myself and, if possible, my family on a ranch where I could work during a period of from six to twelve months while recuperating from a service-connected nervous condition."

"I have no physical disability; and although I have never had any ranch experience, I feel that I am able to perform that type of work. Both my wife and I are University graduates; and I am an attorney by profession, holding LLE and BBA degrees from the University of Texas. However, I have been advised by the local Veterans Administration doctor to do physical work, preferably on a ranch, during a rehabilitation period of perhaps one year before attempting to follow my profession.

"It is for that reason and the intense desire personally to get back on my feet that I am writing you for assistance in securing work on a ranch in your territory. I shall greatly appreciate any advice about job openings you might be in a position to offer, or in supplying me with names and addresses of ranch owners or managers whom I might contact."

The veteran lives in Dallas and any ranchman who might be interested in his case is invited to contact the county agent.
