Dangers Of Electric Lines To Kite Flyers Cited By Utilities Co.

March is kite flying time and with the warm weather and March winds comes a warning to youngsters on the dangers they may encounter from electric lines in the city should their kites become entangled in the lines.

The warning comes from officials of the West Texas Utilities Co., who lay down a lot of "don'ts" that youngsters should observe for their own safety.

Don't climb electric light poles or guy wires to retrieve stranded kites, is one of these "don'ts." T. J. Bailey, local manager for the West Texas Utilities Co., urges that children whose kites become entangled in electric wires or poles call the local utilities office and either he or Mr. Tarvin, the service man, will be glad to retrieve the kites for them.

Don't use a copper or other metal wire as a kite string is another important "don't" for flyers, Mr. Bailey said. A fine copper wire makes a splendid kite string but should it come in contact with a high voltage line while a child is holding the string it would mean instant death for the child. Use only cotton string for kite flying is the safest policy, the Utilities manager said.

MYSTERY FIZZLES!

Only Spare Tire—Not A Body—Greets Probers Who Visioned Murder Mystery When Stray Cats Swarmed Locked Trunk of Abandoned Car

A setting which had the makings of a first class murder mystery—with the dismembered body of the victim stuffed in the trunk of a car found abandoned on the highway—was faced the week-end by the Crockett county sheriff's department.

A Chevrolet coupe, bearing a California license, was found abandoned on the highway west of Ozona, near the Texas-New Mexico Pipeline Co. pump station. Residents at the pump station, noticing the car in the right-of-way for several days, notified Sheriff Bruce Harp of Ozona.

The ignition keys had been removed from the car and it was towed to town by a wrecker and parked near the county jail. Unable to unlock the trunk compartment, or turn the ignition, the glove compartment lock was removed and sent to a key maker for a duplicate key.

While the car was parked near the jail awaiting the key with which the officers might search for clues to identity of the car owner, it was noticed that the trunk compartment was an attraction to cats. Cats gathered on the car trunk in numbers. There was no apparent odor, it is true, but then, who knows maybe cats have a keener sense of smell than human beings.

There was some tenseness among law men until the trunk was finally opened, and instead of a body there was only a spare tire, some sundry tools and other items that collect in that part of most any automobile.

Meanwhile, the state Department of Public Safety had been notified and an investigation of papers found in the car led to the identify of the owner—a former inmate of a California insane asylum. The man was found later in Sonora and brought back here by officers pending an investigation. He did not recall leaving his car and had no memory of how he got from the spot on the highway where he left his car to Sonora. He still had the keys to his car in his pockets.

San Antonio Fiesta Plans Being Shaped

SAN ANTONIO—Colorful and gay national holidays will be depicted in the lavish spectacle marking the coronation of the queen Fiesta de San Jacinto in San Antonio on April 24, one of the most spectacular events in the week-long fiesta program.
"The Court of Holidays" will be the theme of this year's coronation. An in-town court of 12 duchesses, made up of local debutantes, will symbolize the most colorful of American holidays and an out-of-town court, composed of duchesses from other Texas cities, will portray outstanding foreign holidays.

The name of the fiesta queen is a carefully guarded secret until the night of the coronation.
The queen and her court portray leading roles in the famed Battle of Flowers parade, which takes place on Friday, the day after the coronation.

Mystery of the Rocking Chair

Ma Hoskins has a favorite rocking chair that's worn and shabby, with a noisy creak. Pa Hoskins has listened to that squeak for thirty years . . . and he decided to do something about it. So he bought a new rocker, and hid the other in the barn.

Ma allowed as how grateful she was . . . but when Pa missed her one afternoon, he heard a familiar sound that led him to the barn. There was Ma rocking happily in her old chair—squeak . . . squeak. No need to tell you how Pa felt.

Quick as a wink he hid the new rocker and then brought Ma's old chair back to the house. Now when he hears that squeak, he looks at the mellow glass of beer he's drinking and says to himself: "She's just as entitled to her small pleasures as I am."
From where I sit, that's one of the reasons the Hoskinses are the happiest, oldest-married, peace-fulest folks in our town.

Are you using these "hired hands"?

It often seems as though a farmer or rancher never has enough help. But did you ever stop to think that there are literally thousands of people who work for you that you seldom, if ever, see?
These unseen "hired hands" are the scientists of agriculture, who work for you the year 'round in agricultural experiment stations of the nation. Their accomplishments are many—and can benefit you directly in proportion to the advantage you take of their services. They've helped increase productivity of the land, helped develop better-yielding crops, better livestock and poultry. Yet, never satisfied that perfection has been reached, the experiment stations continue to explore the possibilities of further aid to agriculture.
The experiment stations in the 48 states are to the business of agriculture what our research laboratories are to Swift & Company. It is in the research laboratory that we put science to work for us, to improve our products and our business. It costs us money—but we consider it money well spent. Farmers and ranchers are indeed fortunate to have much of their research work done for them—and paid for out of public funds derived from taxes.
We like to think of these agricultural experiment stations as a vast bank of valuable scientific knowledge. To maintain the assets of this bank, millions of dollars from this year's $1,235,055,000 budget of the United States Department of Agriculture go to the various state experiment stations, to conduct experiments sponsored by the U. S. D. A. In addition, about $12,000,000 is provided by the states to staff and maintain the stations. Remember, this is your bank from which you can make withdrawals of real value any time you wish. Information is available on any subject relating to farming or ranching. Direct your request either to the Dept. of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or to your own state college, state experiment station or extension service. If you do not have the address, ask your county agent or vocational agriculture teacher. Or write to us at Swift & Company, Department A-5, Chicago 9, Illinois.

Two Different Things

There seems to be a good deal of misunderstanding about two factors which are important in the marketing of livestock—grade and price.
Simply defined, the purpose of grading is to provide a convenient but necessary means for comparing qualities of the meat animals in a market, or for comparing the animals in one market with those offered for sale in another market. However, grading is not an exact science because it depends to quite an extent on the judgment of the person doing the buying or selling. Grades are standards which take into consideration the sex, weight, quality, conformation and finish of animals.
Now, let's have a look at price. Price is not a factor in determining grade. Just because some animals are in a higher grade does not mean that they always will sell for a higher price than animals in a lower grade. For example, it happens at times that a medium grade of cattle sells for as much or more than a good grade. Such a condition may come about when there is a heavy demand for, but only a light supply of, medium cattle; while on the same day a big supply and a light demand of good grade cattle will not bring so high a price.
The same situation may exist in the case of lambs. In communities where racial customs affect eating habits, there are times when carcasses of lightweight, thin, lean lambs sell for as much as the fat, well-finished, choice type. Again the law of supply and demand is in action.
Always remember that price and grade are two different things. Try to think of each separately, and we believe you will have a much clearer and truer picture of grading and marketing of livestock.

CARE OF FEEDER LAMBS
by T. D. Watkins, Jr.
Montana State College

Feeder lambs, thrifty, growthy, healthy, ready for the feed lot, are generally a product of the grassy western rangelands. Because the gain of a lamb is closely correlated with its mother's conditioning, the ewe must be well nourished prior to lambing time, and thereafter, until the two of them go on green pasture. Newly born lambs thrive when clean lambing facilities are supplemented by fresh green grass. During lambing time, and the first few days afterwards, individual attention on the part of the breeder means dollars in his pocket.
Range lambing excepted, as soon as lambs are born, the parent and her offspring should be placed together in a small enclosure, until the lamb is strong. As ewes and their lambs are grouped together, the numbers should be gradually increased in order that each lamb may learn to find its mother in the band. Those ewes bearing twins should be separated from those bearing singles. The former should receive additional supplemental feed and the best pasture. From the time lambs and ewes go on pasture until marketing time, the less the disturbance the greater the gains. The key to good feeder lambs lies in adequate nourishment of the ewe, good sanitation, and personal attention and management.

A Big Market of Little People
A new outlet for meat has been developed! Hundreds of thousands of "little people" in America, the babies of the nation, are now eating meat. Swift's Meats for Babies and Juniors are specially prepared for them. These new products give today's babies a better chance than ever before for robust health and full physical development.
The better the food, the better the baby! That's why doctors are so enthusiastic about Swift's Meats for Babies. They know that meat provides complete, high-quality proteins, the essential body-builders—iron, the blood-builder—and needed vitamins in natural form. They know, too, that these vital food elements in meat are most important when babies are young—actually building their bodies. And so, many doctors are recommending Swift's Meats for Babies and Juniors—strained for the very young and diced for older children.
This is but one example of the many ways Swift's research, distribution and promotion contribute to the nation's nutrition and build new markets for the products of your farm and ranch.
Mothers: if you'd like a free copy of a new informative booklet, "Meat in Your Baby's Diet," write Swift & Company, Dept. B, Chicago 9, Illinois.

Martha Logan's Recipe for BEEF GOULASH

2 pounds beef chuck	1 dove garlic
¼ cup flour	1 teaspoon dry mustard
3 tablespoons fat	2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1½ cups water	¼ teaspoon sage
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce	1 teaspoon caraway seed (optional)
½ cup celery leaves	1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Cut beef into chunks and roll in flour. Melt fat in skillet. Brown meat well. Add remaining ingredients. Cover skillet and cook slowly for 3½ hours, or until tender. (Yield: 6 servings.)

Things are NOT always as they seem

Which of the two shapes shown at left is the larger? The white one or the black one? The white one certainly appears to be bigger. But actually they are exactly the same size.
In the livestock-meat industry, too, things are not always as they seem. For example, sometimes people think of Swift's total profits as being large. Yet the actual fact is that in 1946 dividend payments to shareholders were less than 4% on the shareholders' investment; the company's net earnings from all sources were 1½¢ per dollar of sales . . . only a fraction of a cent per pound of product handled. That seems to be doing business on a mighty narrow margin—and it is!

SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Grain prices spiraled upward, and most other farm markets continued steady to strong last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Hogs eased back from record prices of recent days.

Tone of the wool market improved despite higher Commodity Credit Corporation prices. Texas fall mohair jumped up to 65 cents for adult and 85 for choice kid. Feed prices moved up to sharply higher levels, reflecting the upward surge of grains. Good quality alfalfa hay showed strength, but inferior grades slowed. Weather retarded rice planting, but Louisiana farmers are ready to begin. Scarce holdings of peanuts sold higher. Sales of shelled No. 1 Spanish were made in the southwest at 161-2 cents per pound; and farmers' stock in the Virginia-Carolina area went at 10 to 11 1-2.

Bulk of hog sales at the close of the week went at $26.50 for medium weight good and choice grades at Fort Worth; and $28 to $28.25 at Wichita. The late-week top was $26 at San Antonio; $28 at Oklahoma City; and $28.40 at Denver.

Sheep ruled steady to around 50 cents per hundred higher at most southwest markets. Good and choice slaughter lambs brought $19.50 to $21.50 at San Antonio; $22 to $23 at Fort Worth; $23 at Oklahoma City; and $23.50 at Denver. Cattle advanced to new all-time high levels in practically all classes at Fort Worth, and sold at steady to strong prices at most other terminals. Cows gained at Oklahoma City, but other classes netted losses for the week at that market. Common and medium cows moved at $10.50 to $13.50 at Houston; and $12 to $14.50 at Wichita.

Medium and good kinds turned at $13 to $15 at San Antonio; and $12.50 to $15 at Fort Worth. Common to good beef cows cashed upward to $17 at Oklahoma City; and $12.50 to $16.50 at Denver.

Dear Customers:

We should like to discuss with you a matter which you, as producers and traders of livestock in the trade territory are materially affected; however, before going into the subject, let us express our sincere appreciation for the patronage we have received since announcing the change in management. Your consignments are our only source of revenue from this business and it is only through the increase in them that we are able to register your approval, with which we are encouraged.

From the beginning there have been many problems, each of which we have tried to study thoroughly and deliberately before making any change that would affect, first, our customers; second, our system and the personnel responsible for its efficiency and third, our policy, which is to maintain a livestock market, comparable to none, which you can have unlimited confidence in.

The problem of our Thursday sale is now before us and after having given this our deepest consideration, we have decided to abandon it as of March 6th. Our consignors as well as our buyers fully recognize the fact that there are fewer livestock in the trade territory and with your cooperation we can concentrate both on the Monday and Saturday sales to a greater mutual advantage.

Being dependent upon you, in the matters of maintaining the facts as stated above, we trust that this change meets with the approval of all our customers and that we will continue to enjoy a steady increase in our now growing volume.

Again assuring you of our sincere appreciation for the way you are receiving us and trusting that we may continue to serve you in ever increasing volume, we remain

Yours truly,
Oscar Wyatt

have that you're wise to choose Chevrolet, the only cars giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST, and the only trucks rating as THRIFT-CARRIERS FOR THE NATION! Ozona To Participate In Dist. Track Meet

The time of the year has rolled around for track, and Ozona will give some stiff competition in the District Track Meet, held in Sonora, this coming Saturday. Last year, as you all know, Ozona went to Sonora, just to have some fun. They all had a lot of fun, but only totaled 3 and 1-2 points in the meet. Junction won the District track meet last year with a total of around 60 points.

This year though, Ozona will go to the meet with 3 weeks training behind them. All of the boys have worked hard, and by Saturday will be in good condition for running.

The list of the following boys will comprise the team, and after each boy, will be the event in which he participates.

Bob Bissett—220 yd. dash, 440 yd. dash, broad jump.

Jack Coates—100 yd. dash, 440 relay, pole vault.

Bob Cooper—discuss, shot put.

Bill Forehand—880 yd. dash.

Bud Hoover—mile, 120 high hurdles.

Joe Ross Hufstetler—220 yd. dash, 220 low hurdles, discus, high jump.

Red Harrison—high jump 120 low hurdles, high jump, pole vault.

Ben Lemmons—100 yd. dash, 440 relay, 220 low hurdles.

Nat Read—100 yd. dash, 440 relay, 220 low hurdle.

Max Ward—440 yd. dash.

Those 17 boys will compete in the District meet. Also Ralph Carden will travel with the boys, but will not run because of a sprained ankle.

GOSSIP

Virginia was pretty happy this week end—Was it cause you had a date all three nights with Sam, Virginia?

Chris and Joan are being seen around together again.

Mary K. and Lil what time did you get home Saturday night? We've heard you had battery troubles. Is that right Bill and Jack?

Well Gordon, we're glad to have you back. How did you leave the little wife?

Ann are you floating on any particular cloud or is it just any of them. When will he be here.—Tom Ed we mean—of course!

Whats this we hear about a convertible full of beautiful girls in Austin this week end Joe Ross and Don?

Bob C. seems sorta down hearted this week. It seems every time he makes a week-end trip Mr. Sikes and the other teachers give poor Bob a test or two the day after he gets back. Really you shouldn't be so hard on him Mr. Sikes!

Jane and Mary Ann must have had a good time Sunday. Well at least it wasn't Iraan's fault if they didn't.

Scout, did Doris Williams come down just to see you?

We think she's cute too!

SENIOR PLAY

The Seniors this week are all very enthusiastic. They are trying to tear themselves from their studies and try to learn the play. The stage managers are to begin work this week on the set which will be difficult but add to the play.

We hope to have cooperation from the student body in selling reserved seat tickets. Go home and talk your Mothers and Dads and big brothers and even sister into buying tickets early for better seats. Thank you.

Mary K: "Dad I need a new riding habit."

Dad: "Can't afford it."

Mary K: "But, Dad, what am I to do without a new riding habit."

Dad: "Get the walking habit."

OZONA'S DUCHESS

Mary Kathryn Flowers, was elected by popular vote to represent Ozona at the Sonora track meet on March 15, 1947.

The student body voted Thursday of last week for the duchess and the run off was between Mary Kathryn and Betty Jo Thompson. The run-off was held on Friday. The student body elected Mary Kathryn.

Mary Kathryn — we extend our congratulations!

Attention Seniors !! Keep the week-end of April 25th open for the Junior — Senior banquet!

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

This time we pick a boy from the junior class. He is about five feet six and has curly hair and blue eyes. He is well liked by the girls and not only that but among the boys too. He is turning out to be quite a star in track. He can do the eight-eighty in six minutes and that's not bad. His name is Bill Forehand.

QUIZ CORNER

This week the press box won't over-flowing but the findings were:

1. Best looking brunette—Don C.
2. Best Athletes—Nat R.
3. Most easy-going—Gordon

Mr. Sikes: "Well, I've got to take the teachers word for it."

Bill Forehand: "I don't see why, the teachers new here, and I've been here for three years."

It's a picture in a lot of ways, this big-'n'-beautiful Buick —

The picture of things-to-come in automobile styling — long, follow-through fenders, sleek lines, broad and solid look.

The picture of dynamic action, with its bonnet jam-packed with Fireball power, equally ready, equally willing for creep-speed jaunt or quick-paced emergency call.

The picture of perfect poise — with plenty of roadweight for solidity — cushioned all around on soft coil springs for jarless ease.

The picture of precise and exacting manufacture, with engine tolerances often closer than in airplane practice — bodies floated on new Silent Zone mountings for tautness and quiet — everything from rear-axle strut rods to water pump seal all tidily buttoned up to give you the best to be had today.

You don't have to be told how eyes follow you when you're behind this wheel. You can sample for yourself the great ease of this gallant traveler, the comfort, the room, the thrill-of-a-lifetime lift that answers every nudge of your foot on the treadle.

You've probably even told yourself, "Well, someday..."

Why wait for someday — when that someday may have to be followed by more waiting between order and delivery?

Why not call your shots now — and make sure your future will be bright and happy?

We'll take your order any time — what's wrong with right now?

Survivors of War II
May Be Eligible for Social Security Pay

Recent amendments to the Social Security Act provide for old-age survivors insurance payments to thousands of formerly ineligible survivors of discharged World War II veterans. George D. Clark, manager of the Social Security Administration field office at San Antonio, Texas, pointed out that this protection is based entirely on military service, it is not necessary for the veteran to have a social security card or to have normally been covered by the Social Security Act. Among those groups which normally are not covered by social security but who are protected by this amendment are professional and business men and other employees.

This legislation provides protection to survivors if:
The veteran dies within three years after discharge;
He had at least 90 days of service in the armed forces on or after September 16, 1940.
He was not dishonorably discharged, and

The survivors are not eligible for payments from the Veterans Administration. Proceeds from Social Security Life Insurance are not counted as payments from Veterans Administration.

The amendment does not provide for benefits to survivors of servicemen who died while on active duty. However, the survivors of servicemen who died while on active duty and who had work-employment covered by the Social Security Administration are eligible for benefits under

"I'll be fired for that fool story!"
The managing editor of the New York Herald took a day off on December 21, 1879. So this headline in his paper hit him without warning.
EDISON'S LIGHT— IT MAKES A LIGHT, WITHOUT GAS OR FLAME!
The public promptly shouted "hoax!" Scientists called Edison crazy. And our shocked, angry editor expected to be fired.
But he wasn't. Eleven days later, Thomas Edison held a unique New Year's party in his laboratory at Menlo Park, New Jersey, and invited the world to see his "flameless light." Thousands came and were convinced. The incandescent lamp was real.
Soon small private companies were bringing the benefits of Edison's newfangled lamp to the people. Engineers and business men poured in their energy and time... risked their own savings... overcame all kinds of obstacles... broadened and improved the service.
Government didn't do the job. Individuals did. And in the process, they created jobs for many thousands of Americans, as well as a great new service for many millions more.
When Edison opened the first power-plant in 1882, electricity cost 25¢ a kilowatt-hour. This year, as we mark the 100th anniversary of the great inventor's birth, the average price of household electricity across the country is only 3 1/2¢ per kilowatt-hour.
Thanks to Edison's imagination and enterprise—thanks to the courage and initiative of many men and women, working under the American business system—this country enjoys the most and the best electric service in the world. And all our lives are richer, safer, more productive.
