Cities Service Owens Tests Ellenburger Show

Top of Formation Reportedly Showed Signs of Oil

The first drillstem test of the Ellenburger by Cities Service and Owens No. 1-B J. W. Owens, west-Crockett County wildcat, was reported scheduled Monday. It was had been drilled from 7-1/2 casing cemented at about the top of the Ellenburger—variously reported between 6,760 and 6,780 feet—and the hole had been conditioned to the bottom, 6,820 feet. The top 50 feet of the Ellenburger was found fractured with some signs of stain, odor and fluorescence, according to earlier information that was unofficial and unverified but considered reliable. The No. 1-B Owens drilled directly into the Pennsylvanian into the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, the top of which was eroded. The top sections of the Ordovician, Silurian and Simpson, upper and middle sections of the Pennsylvanian, respectively, also were cut out. On a two-hour drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian from 5,789-5,838 feet, a recovery was 1,164 feet of highly oil and gas-cut mud and 80 feet of sulphur water, according to a report also lacking confirmation.

The wildcat has been operating "bright" since it blew out March 22 when reportedly bottomed at 6,820 feet in the crinoidal of the Pennsylvanian and flowed wild for three days before it could be shut in. It flowed oil, gas and some water at higher zones believed to be Wolfcamp, basal Permian and continued to explore the Ellenburger, the original objective.

The project is in the C SW NW 36-40B 1/4 miles south of the Olson pool and the same distance north of the Clara Couch field, both shallow, and 5 3/4 miles east of the Pecos River. The Ellenburger and Plymouth have a one-day interest each in No. 1-B and the 40.9-acre lease on which it is located. Plymouth has 14 miles east-northeast of the Ellenburger on the same physical high in northeastern Crockett County. C SW SW 12-29 had reached 8,797 feet in dolomite and lime.

Humble No. 7-C fee on the southeast side of the Todd Ellenburger field, 14 miles east-northeast of Cities Service and others, No. 1-B was, was drilling at 6,085 feet. It had not reached the Ellenburger, which will be cored. Location is near the C SE NW 65-7G&SF.

Shell No. 1 University, most westerly of three wildcats drilled the Ellenburger on the same physical high in northeastern Crockett County. C SW SW 12-29 had reached 8,797 feet in dolomite and lime.

Humble No. 1 Mrs. Grady Mitchell, scheduled 8,500-foot wildcat on the C NE NE 12-AB-D&SE, three miles south and three-quarters of a mile east of Shell No. 1 University, was standing at 614 feet in shale with 12 3/8-inch casing cemented at 611 with 100 feet.

In Austin the Seniors will visit the State Capitol and sit in on a session of the legislature if it is in session that day. They will visit other government departments, the University of Texas, institutes for the blind and deaf, enjoy a swim in Barton Springs and a picture show, before returning to Kerrville.

In San Antonio the group will visit the Alamo, the old Buckhorn Saloon, Kelly Field, Breckenridge park and other points of interest as time permits.

Junior Fete Seniors At Annual Banquet

Ozonia High Schools class of '47 was honored by the Junior class at the annual Junior-Senior banquet Friday evening at the First Baptist Church. A nautical theme was carried out in keeping with the Senior motto: "We have crossed the bay, the ocean lies ahead."

Skipper Lillian Schneemann, toastmaster, gave a toast to the Seniors. Boatswain's Mate Joe Perry had the Seniors response and Captain L. B. T. Sikes read the invocation. Other speeches were "Pages from the Log Book," by Shipmate Ann West; "Shirting Our Course," by Shipmate Geraldine Leatherwood and "Bill of Lading," by Max Word. The ship's orchestra played several selections and the "Sailorettes," Darrine and Jeannene Thompson, Gwendolyn Earnest and Frances Stark, sang some nautical numbers.

Decorations, too, were in keeping with the nautical theme. As guests entered they went up a gang plank to the dining room, where the Juniors and their sponsor, Miss Frances Willms, had covered the base of the walls with blue crepe paper to represent the ocean, with silver fish and silver anchors at intervals. Large white lifesavers painted with "SS Ozonia" fish nets, and rope helped to carry out the theme. On the large table, centerpieces were miniature sea scenes, tiny sailboats floated in trays with flowers in the class colors, green and white. Small green and white lighthouses lighted the tables and favors were miniature sea shells, boats and sailors. On the wall behind the speaker's table was a picture of two seniors in a ship going from the bay into the ocean, illustrating class motto.

The Senior Class presented their sponsor, Miss Mildred North with a gold clip as a farewell gift. Sophomore girls dressed in sailor suits served the fried chicken dinner. Miss Jacqueline Theis, Miss Shirley Cannon and G. A. Rhoads were in charge of musical selections. After the banquet, parents honored the Seniors with a dance in the courthouse.

Clean-Up Drive In Ozonia Is Set For Next Week

County Will Furnish Trucks To Remove All Rubbish

Originally scheduled for this week but postponed to complete arrangements, the city-wide clean-up campaign is scheduled to get under way throughout Ozonia Monday of next week and continue until a thorough Spring community house-cleaning is accomplished. Committees in charge of plans reported this week.

Residents are urged to begin the clean-up of their own premises at once and to arrange all trash and rubbish so that it will be convenient for truck operators to load.

Through the cooperation of the Commissioners Court, the county will employ trucks to do the trash hauling and the trucks will be kept at the job until all trash piles have been removed to the dump ground.

The city has been divided into seven sections and a supervisor, named by the civic committee of the Ozonia Woman's Club sponsors of the clean-up campaign, will be in charge of the drive in each section. Residents will be notified by these zone supervisors of the clean-up plans and their cooperation will be asked in making it a complete success.

Mrs. Lowell Littleton will be in charge of the clean-up in the Mexican draw and the Mexican settlement. The northeast quarter of the town will be under the supervision of Mrs. John Bailey. Mrs. Lee Childress in the southeast section. Mrs. Hubert Baker in the northwest area and Mrs. S. M. Harvick the southwest sector. Mrs. Ashby McMullan will be responsible for the clean-up in the section of the city west of Johnson Draw and T. J. Bailey will see to the clean-up of the Powell Field baseball park area.

Although no announcement of plans for spraying the city with DDT have been made, civic leaders have discussed the benefits derived from last year's spraying and are considering the possibility of a concerted effort to spread the insecticide over as much of the city as possible.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER!

What Is Management?

Management is as old as the hills. There is nothing complicated about it at all. It is a natural function of human society.

A man and a woman marry, set up housekeeping, and raise a family. Both are managers.

They manage as they buy a home, educate the children, plant a garden, pick out a car, a refrigerator, a piano. A hundred decisions a day around the house are management decisions.

Management occurs at all levels in government, charity, education, lodge. It is the plumber with his helper, the elevator starter, the superintendent of schools, the master of the grange.

But in America, management probably has had its most scientific application in business.

Business management, even before World War I, helped build up a volume of production surpassing that of any other nation.
In World War II, the results were even more spectacular.
America outproduced all other countries combined.

By 1941, the value of an hour of work in terms of the staple necessities of life, bread and butter, had so been raised that an American could buy from two to eight times as much as a man in Europe. This didn't just happen. Neither the men and women in industry nor the money in industry can be effective without good management. Nothing else is so important to the workers' welfare, the investors' welfare or the public welfare.

EQUINE SLEEPING SICKNESS

Experts tell us that sleeping

1947 is the year in which we should be careful.

Since there are many fine horses good insurance to vaccinate your While vaccinating this month to cut down the number of cases this

OVER THE TRANSOMS
BY "THE LOOKERS"

F. it seems that blondes brunettes don't mix so well, they? Patsy seems to think that Olds cars are sure low. Wonder if she's right?

The park seems crowded lately. There were Dale and Newell, and Mary K., Jackie Sharp, Ann, "Warty" Allen and Mak! People these days! Attention! Please refer to Brewer from now on as "Brewer"!

White — you had better be these brothers. Especially Parr brothers!

Lou received a note from Max (the bird told me) Reckon he'll try it again? Poor Sikes — what do you say to Gordon, maybe you should ask Ann where you lost your ring? She might find it — can't tell.

Ann H., and Edith Lou had a time with some Sonora boys Friday night — right, Mak? You hear that there is a new one (really, its more like a bond in O. H. S. you don't have to look long to guess that its Jane Don. They make a cute couple don't they?

What have you got to say about Armond having a date with... ?

!!! When last seen she floating on clouds. Reason — function was here. If found use notify Jack Coates.

Mary Ann, did you have a good time week-end?

Buddy then Sonora and Gordon really get around!

Lou screams "Love at first sight, but what's his name?" "Grado isn't it?"

Virginia seemed to be having a ole time at the dance — did it have been because Bill's hand took her? Could be?

Sosie's luck must be holding on. No blonde hair in that locker and his blondes! Has Jo got worried Corrine?

Ann, did Friday night make up the time Chris was gone this weekend?

Lin, why is Sue mad at you? Could it be about Sunday night?

FLASH — The most unusual thing ever to happen happened Sunday night. Patsy S. was with "Shorty Bill" That gal sure travels fast, specially in Buicks.

Frank Parr had better watch out! A certain sub-fish gets jealous when he writes notes to Ann.

Ann H. sure does have a good time with boys she doesn't even know.

Lee and Patsy really had a good time Friday night after Betty Jo drove the car.

The Junior — Senior Banquet was a huge success Friday night even after Kerry ate two plates of dessert and wanted more.

Charlie Boy, how come you ditch cars so easily? Have you had lots of experience?

It seems Betty Jane has quite an attraction for maroon colored Chevroleets, especially when Jimmy C. is in the car.

Mary K. is now a magician. One minute she is with Charlie Boy; the next she is with Jack.

Edith Lou seems to have trouble jitterbugging in an evening dress on a slick floor. Who was the guy?

Roslie went to the dance with Lin Friday. What's happened to Bob?

"Boots" has a habit of erasing names from books. Especially if the name is Bob and he's from McCamey. What happened to all the letters that used to fly back and forth?

Joe King is spending lonely nights now. Is the black Studen-baker Betty C.'s excuse? ??

Merle and Gene are seen together constanly these days. Watch out!

Joan kinda missed Chris Monday. Wonder where he was? ??

We guess Charles M. is suffering from a broken heart because Merle is Gene's steady now. Anyway, he hasn't been coming to school!

Gordon sure does write Sweet notes, doesn't he, Mary Ann? ??

THANKS, JUNIORS!

To the junior class of O. H. S., the seniors of '47 extend heartfelt thanks for the wonderful banquet. It is an event which will take its place among the most pleasant memories of our high school days. It is our sincere hope that the junior class of '48 can give you a banquet as good as the one you gave us. If they do, you can be sure you'll remember it all your lives!

CLASS HISTORY

In 1935 the Ozona Kindergarden opened for the most elite class ever to attend — us.

At that time we weren't mean and stubborn like we are now, we were merely scared! All that first year we got along real well—We only had a few small spats like the time Joe Ross hit Sue over the head with a hammer, or when Joe Perry turned our little house over on the teacher—things like that that don't add up too much. When we graduated into the 1st grade, in came one of our most prominent members — Max. That year we played around at being farmers and raised some baby chickens — or started to—Max brought his pet coon up to see them and he ate each and every one! Patsy and Joe Ross were our champion spellers, and the rule was that everytime anyone made 100 they got a jelly-bean—you can see the results—they're both quite plump — In the 2nd grade we played post office—no—not the kind you're thinking of, but really and truly post office. Well, the years were passing and we were becoming older and wiser—. On came Jr. High and we began our preparations for high school. We put glue in our math teachers seat—and tacks in our geography teacher's — they didn't get such a kick out of it—but we did. Corinne and Mike started the note writing for which we are famous as well as the tacks. They only stayed in about two weeks —. It seems they were discussing one of the teachers and she got the note —. ok, now we were Freshmen — really the remembered class — not a day passed that half the class didn't get invited down for a chat with Mr. Denham. And now we're preparing for college —and other things—We just hope there is no one there to take the wind out of our sails as fast as Mr. Sikes—. Seriously tho; our school years and the things we remember of them mean more to all of us than I could tell you—. So this is thanks to all of you who helped give us these memories — thanks and good-bye.

and loads of luck for the 1947-48 athletic season.

Corinne Phillips leaves her "go-get-em" ability to anyone that wants it. She hopes it doesn't get the lucky one in too much trouble. And I, Max Word, will my ability to look at the world through rose-colored glasses to the entire faculty because if O. H. S. ever has another class like us, it might be disastrous.

P. T. A. PARTY

The P. T. A. furnished refreshments and recreation in the form of dancing and games last Saturday night from 8 to 11 in the courthouse. Proceeds from the refreshments, taxi dance, and raffle, will go to the band uniform fund.

DEFINITION OF A BOY

After a male baby has grown out of long clothes and tringles and has acquired pants freckles, and so much dirt that all the relatives do not dare to kiss it between meals, it becomes a Boy. A boy is nature's answer to that false belief that there is no such thing as perpetual motion. A boy can swim like a fish, run like a deer, climb like a squirrel balk like a mule, bellow like a bull, eat like a pig, or act like a donkey, according to climatic conditions. He is a piece of skin stretched over an appetite, noise covered with smudges. He is called a tornado because he comes at the most unexpected times, hits most unexpected places and leaves everything a wreck behind him. He is a growing animal of superlative promise, to be fed, watered and kept warm a joy forever, a periodic nuisance, the problem of our times, the hope of a nation. Every boy born is evidence that God is not yet discouraged of men.

SENIOR PROHECY BY JERRY LEATHERWOOD

My husband and I were spending the week end with a couple of friends at their summer cottage near the coast. Although for the past week the weather had been pretty, it was cold misty day; the air was quite chilly, but I insisted on taking a walk down on the beach. About 30 minutes later when I arrived there the fog was low and heavy, I could hardly pick my way along. After walking for about a 1-4 mile I lost the path and realized I was lost, but behold the fog parted like a curtain —revealing an old, haggard man staring off at sea. He just sat there for awhile with that far away dreamy look in his eyes; I was beginning to think he was not going to notice me, when he looked up and asked me what I was doing there. I explained that I was out walking and wandered off my course. He just sat there staring at me as if he knew me. I was becoming quite frightened and to make conversation I asked him if I hadn't seen him around the beach before. He answered me by saying no but he knew me. I must have looked surprised because he said, Yes, I know you, and I remember your friends. You were the class of '47. Some kids ye were. Always getting into trouble." At this I became anxious to know more and asked him what had happened to them. "Yea, they were mischievous all right, but they turned out to be fine men and women.

Take Ann West for example: fine wife she is. Always giving some kind of entertainment at her ranch home near El Paso.

And then I remember an old attractive lady concentrating over her latest novel. This novel is Corinne Phillips tenth best seller.

Ah, what's this. Some kind of a contest. Now I remember. It is Patsy Schwalbe breaking the world's record in typing. 250 words a minute.

And then there was another one. I didn't get a good look at her the last time—just a streak of lightning it was, but I know it was Dale speeding down the street in her latest, most fashionable 1967 Ford.

He paused at this and I was beginning to think he wasn't going to tell me about the boys. When that peculiar bleam came into his eyes

CLASS WILL BY MAX WORD

The State of Texas County of Crockett Know All men By These Presents:

That We, the members of the most brilliant class of graduates, being of sound body (as for our minds, we ain't talkin') do hereby bequeath and will our noted accomplishments and our outstanding claims to the less fortunate. We hope they will be appreciated!

Dale (by special request leaves her good luck in the Melton family to Lillian—that is, if she still needs it.

Joe Ross wills his athletic ability (on the dance floor as well as on the gridiron to Don Cooke—with the conditions that he will stay out of Menard!

To Bud Mienke—Kerry Tandy bequeaths his Romeo appearance and lazy nature.

Gordon leaves the teacher's good opinion of him to Ted Mankin who is getting tired of Detention these warm spring days.

Patsy Schwalbe bequeaths her crave for out-of-town boys to Jane Augustine—if she will promise to care for them as faithfully as she does her own.

Jack Coates has the privilege of having Jack Brewer's way with the women because our Senior boy has been havin to brush em off like flies.

Bill Hoover leaves his gift of gab and also those funny wise cracks—to Bob B. and warns him to beware of—English Class!

Jerry Leatherwood wills her magnetic and sincere personality to Sam Perner with the wish that he has as much luck with the charm as she did.

Joe Perry bequeaths his creative ability, note paper, and wide vocabulary to Scot Smith—with his old textbook—"How to Write Love Letters" included.

Ann West wills her highly publicized figure to Mary K. providing she will not go swimming when Tom Ed is around.

To Nat and Bernard Bob Cooper bequeaths his true school spirit again and he said —

The boys have turned out to be fine men too — look at Bill Hoover for instance—has a ranch now. Fine land, stock and water.

That's where I saw Max Word last—doctoring one of Bill's fine Angus calves. Max is one of the best veterinarians in the county.

Let's travel north now he said. It is late at night—the telephone is ringing, the presses clamoring, and Bob Cooper, Editor in Chief totally exhausted from the work on the morning edition.

And in this large city one will find Joe Ross Hufstedler, the manager of a large real estate office. And in this same office is seen one of the smartest accountants in New York City, Jack Brewer working on Mr. Hufstedler's books.

And not far away in a small college town one will find the greatest of scientists, Professor Perry.

"Now lets go back west," he said. Lots of people thought it was Sherlock Holmes and his spy glass, but alas it was just the great geologist, Gordon Bufford. Studying the earth.

Now we are on the highways and byways following the most outstanding, out-talking salesman, Bud Meinecke.

At this he stopped again and I knew that was all. As that same far-away starry look came into his eyes I decided he would be of no more help so I turned and began to walk away. Again the fog became heavy but before me was the path that led to the beach.

NEW FIRES, EXPLOSIONS ADD TO HAVOC . . . With new fires and explosions adding to the carnage of the Texas City, Tex., tremendous explosion, early reports proved to fall far short of final damages to this industrial city, located on Galveston bay. Photo shows later blazes in the waterfront area. With the leveled Monsanto chemical plant in the background, wrecked cars, all blasted in the original explosion, are shown in the water-soaked area as agencies of cities, states and federal government sought to bring relief.

WEEKLY SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

(USDA)—Weak spots showed up all through the farm markets the past few days; but many items strengthened, and only hogs, feeds and corn registered sharp declines according to Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Butcher hogs dropped $1.25 to $2.50 per hundred for the week, and sows $1.50 to $3.00.

Cattle moved higher at Houston and San Antonio; and vealers and calves gained at Oklahoma City. Other southwest cattle prices receded to slightly lower levels last week. Common to medium steers and yearlings cleared at $13.50 to $17.50 at Houston; and $14 to $19.50 at Fort Worth. Medium to low good kinds moved at $19 to $21 at San Antonio; $18 to $23 at Oklahoma City; and mostly $19 to $22 at Wichita. Numerous load of good and choice steers cashed at $23.75 to $24 at Denver.

Spring lambs climbed mostly 50 cents to $1.50 during the week; while old crop lamb and aged sheep held generally steady to strong. Good and choice spring lambs brought $18.50 to $21 at San Antonio, and mostly $20.50 to $22.50 at other southwest markets.

Feeds registered moderate to drastic declines, as new crops harvest approached. Rapidly diminishing supplies of hay failed to meet daily needs at firm prices. Peanuts sold around 21 cents per pound, and farmers' stock about 15. Some well grown Texas Delaine wools sold at 46 to 46 1-2 cents per pound to the grower.

BOYCE HOUSE "GIVES YOU TEXAS"

Probably the shortest railroad in Texas, and maybe in the whole United States, was the Eastland, Wichita Falls and Gulf, better known as the "Ringling Road" because it was built by the circus king during the Eastland County oil boom of 1919-21.

The line ran from Mangum through Eastland to Breckwalker—(now do you know any more than you did before?) Some one said, "It runs from no place to nowhere." Anyway, Mangum is 10 miles south of Eastland and Breckwalker a little farther than that north of Eastland.

Natural gasoline plants provided the bulk of the freight—(there was practically no passenger business). G. J. Rhodes—wouldn't you know his nickname was "Dusty"—was general manager. The train went north in the morning and south in the afternoon—or maybe it was the other way around.

Odd thing about the little line was that it was one of the few railroads in the Country that went through the depression without having to have government aid in some form.

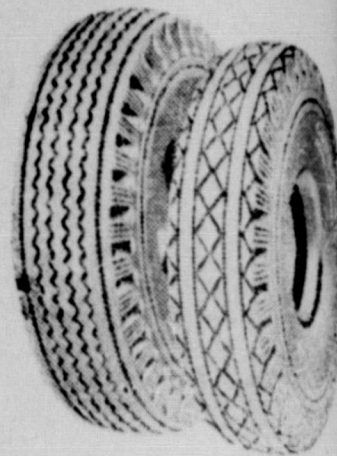

But it is no more. The tracks have been taken up. The dump remains; but in a few years, rains will wash away the last visible signs of the "littlest railroad."

We Got to the Fish Fry After All

That community fish fry was sure a great success. There were plenty of appetizing extras, and Will Dudley did a right wonderful job of frying the fish—soft and flaky inside—brown and crisp around the edges.

But we didn't get to go. The missus was tired after working in the yard, and we just didn't want to leave her.

Then how did we know the fish was so good? Because the folks didn't forget us. They sent Skippy Henderson over with two steaming covered plates of fish, and a pitcher of cool, sparkling beer. And we finished them off in front of our own fire.

From where I sit, that's one of the things that makes our town so nice a place to live in: a spirit of share and share alike. That plate of fish and glass of beer weren't just great eating, they were symbols of the thoughtfulness that makes for better living!

San Angelo Pastor Addresses Rotarians On Happiness Pattern

The A. E. C.'s of happiness was the theme of an interesting lecture given for the Ozona Rotary club at its session Tuesday by the Rev. M. D. Goldston, pastor of the First Christian Church in San Angelo.

A person's "Attitude" toward life, the speaker said, is the A of the ABC's of happiness, the heart, like the echo getting back only what it puts out. Behavior grows out of attitude and forms the B and Character, the result of attitude and behavior, the C of the pattern of happiness. "No true happiness comes to man from the outside," the speaker said.

CARD OF THANKS

We find words inadequate to express the gratitude that we feel in our hearts for the many expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness and helpfulness during the illness and at the death of our loved one. Finding sanctuary in your sympathetic hearts made it possible for us to bear our burden of grief and we shall always remember and love you all.

Methodist Workers Conference Held

The Workers Conference of the Ozona Methodist Church School met in regular session at the Methodist Parsonage Thursday evening. Age group leaders with their co-workers grouped together for a period of counselling in regard to particular needs and problems. Mrs. Floyd Henderson, Superintendent of the Adult Division lead the discussion in the area of adult leadership and opportunities. Mrs. Scott Peters, Mrs. Vic Pierce, Mrs. B. B. Ingham and Mrs. Paul Perner shared in formulating plans to be promoted by the Adults.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy, superintendent of the Youth Division, with her counsellors, Mrs. Jack Holt, Mrs. Lindsey Hicks, L. B. T. Sikes and Rev. Horace King, gave their time to the plans for the youth of our church and community. Work in the Children's Division with Mrs. Madden Read as Superintendent was given thoughtful consideration. Parents and teachers sharing with Mrs. Read were Mrs. L.

T. Patterson, Mrs. Truman Mullen, Mrs. Eddie Bower, Mrs. Bill Cooper, Mrs. Alvin Harrell and Mrs. Horace King.

In the general session following the group study period, L. B. T. Sikes reviewed an article "CHRISTIAN LIVING BEGINS AT HOME" in a most convincing way. Mrs. Tandy helped members of the group to see new values in "Teacher — Parent" cooperation. Highlights of the reports from the superintendents are: A functioning committee on houses, homes, and personnel placement; church-wide picnic to be held an church lot membership committee and follow-up committee for all classes in the church school; parent-teacher night to be observed during National Family Week, May 4-11; Portrayal of the possibilities and plans for the Youth Retreat of the Methodist Youth Fellowship to be held at the Hick's Ranch, May 21-22; Youth Caravan scheduled for July 12-19; magnify the need for and the values of the "Family Council"; the recommendation that the Family Council be an established policy and be made weekly practice in every home. Dates for camps and assemblies for youths: Oslo, Norway, July 10-15; Cleveland, Ohio, December 30-January 3; Kerrville Work Camp, June 2-7. Assembly 24-29; Assembly 21-25. Vacation Church School plans move forward on the basis of full cooperation on the part of teachers and parents for the days June 16-27. Letters enlisting the help of parents go immediately to homes of children to be enrolled in the vacation church school and registration be made a vital part of the school set-up.

Two junior children are to be named from that department to go to the Methodist Kerrville Assembly for the period of July 7-12. Workers in the Children's Division have the privilege of attending a vacation church school institute held in Sonora May 9. Further training opportunities were announced — Camp Conference and the Laboratory School for the first eight days in August.

From the three groups collaborating the recommendation that consistent and persistent effort be made to make of National Family Week a truly significant experience. Sunday, May 4, and the evening of Sunday May 11 are given to displays of helpful materials for use with age group, emphases, and special services appropriate to "Family Week" and "Mothers' Day".

Final Appeal Made For Rendition Of Property For Taxes

With the deadline already in hand, an appeal is issued from the sheriff's office to all property owners who have not yet rendered their property for taxes for the year to do so at once.

All property was to have been rendered before May 1 but the local rolls are being held open a few days longer to give opportunity to those who have not signed rendition blanks to do so. All who have not rendered their property or who are not certain their status are urged to call on the sheriff's office at once.

Omar F. Gathout, a former Ozonan, has returned to make his home here. Gathout, employed by Joe Oberkampf as plumber and gas man for several years, has accepted a position with the Rattler Furniture and Hardware Co. successors to Oberkampf.
