Switchmen Might Strike

CHICAGO, May 18. (AP)—Ten mid-western and western railroads were threatened today with a strike Tuesday morning by 6,000 switchmen.

The walkout was called last night by the AFL Switchmen's Union of North America in a wage dispute.

It came less than 48 hours after settlement of the crippling six-day firemen's strike against five of the nation's carriers.

Navy To Let Freed Fliers Tell Own Story

PEARL HARBOR, May 18. (AP)—The Navy promised to lift its aloha curtains today and let two American airmen tell the story of their 18 months as Chinese Communist prisoners.

The airmen—Marine Master Sgt. Elmer C. Bender of Cincinnati and Navy Chief Electrician's Mate William C. Smith of Long Beach, Calif.—arrived here Tuesday night after a 5,000 mile rush flight from China.

For eight minutes the Navy permitted photographers' flashbulbs to pop. But it wouldn't allow newsmen close enough even to ask Smith where he got his Hawaiian shirt.

Then it dropped the aloha curtain. That's the Hawaiian style "iron curtain" but composed only of goodwill, the Navy said.

"What we're doing now is trying to untangle everything," a Navy spokesman explained. "So when they hit the mainland, we can tell them, 'boys, have a good time. You're on your own.'"

The Navy had to find uniforms and figure out how much back pay and leave was due. A spokesman said the pay would total between $3,000 and $4,000 each. And offers for their story—from magazines, television, movies and feature syndicates—swelled to $100,000.

LOAN ANNOUNCED

Hope For Additional Argentine Liberties

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—American officials expressed hope today a $125 million credit to Argentina will persuade President Peron to grant more civil liberties in his country.

The loan announced yesterday by the Export-Import Bank was labeled as strictly a business proposition to improve trade between the two countries.

But these authorities said it may also improve chances that the Argentine chief of state will institute some of the political reforms the United States would like to see.

Some support for this view came in a companion announcement issued by Asst. Sec. of State Edward G. Miller, Jr., indicating hope for an end to the strained U. S.-Argentine political relations which have existed since the war.

As far as trade is concerned, Miller said, the credit marks a "new era in economic collaboration" between the two nations.

President Herbert E. Gaston of the Export-Import Bank said the main purpose of the credit is to enable Argentina to repay a backlog of commercial debts owed for over a year to American exporters.

The deal was negotiated by Argentine Treasury Minister Ramon A. Cerejo during a recent two-month mission to Washington.

The Peron government started repayment of the debts about a year ago by setting aside 30 per cent of all her dollar income and severely restricting her imports.

The amount owed stood at $168 million as of March 1, but Gaston said it probably runs around $105 million now. In addition, the government itself is behind on between $25 million and $30 million of its commercial debts.

Headaches Pile Up Over Reorganization

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—New reorganization headaches piled up today for President Truman's Senate forces, already four-time losers in efforts to ward off attacks on his plans for revising federal agencies.

Sen. Holland (D-Mia.) disclosed that he might call up for a vote during the day a resolution to kill the controversial plan giving the secretary of agriculture power to reorganize his department.

And Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), who has led successful fights against two administration reorganization plans, indicated he might ask the Senate to disapprove two more, affecting the Federal Trade and Power Commissions.

Another plan calling for changes in the Labor Department was up for action in the House.

Johnson rolled up his double triumph yesterday when the Senate killed the Interstate Commerce and Federal Communication Commission plans. The votes were 86 to 13 and 59 to 23, respectively.

Two other plans—to eliminate the office of National Labor Relations Board general counsel, and to place the comptroller of currency under the secretary of treasury—were junked by the Senate last week.

Sen. Gull (R-Ill.) said he would introduce legislation to give the secretary of agriculture power to reorganize his department.

Sen. Gull's wife left for her Pampa home yesterday after seeing her husband take the oath of office Monday as the first Republican from Texas in the House in 23 years.

The threatened walkout is not directed against any of the recently struck lines.

Union President Arthur J. Blover said in Washington the strike was set to enforce demands for 48 hours pay for a 40-hour work week. The union one of the five operating brotherhoods, was not affected by the 1948 decision by presidential emergency boards giving the 40-hour work week to non-operating workers.

The strike action, Glover said, will be directed against the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; Davenport, Rock Island and North-western; Denver and Rio Grande Western; Great Northern; Minneapolis and St. Louis; Northern Pacific Terminal Co. of Oregon; St. Paul Union Depot Co.; Sioux City Terminal Railway Co.; and Western Pacific Railroad Co.

A spokesman for the Association of Western Railroads said switch tenders, yard foremen, yard brakemen and helpers would be affected by the strike. The union, he said, represents about 10 per cent of the men doing this class of work on the nation's carriers. The others—some 90,000—are members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

All mediation machinery under the National (Railway) Labor Act has been exhausted, Glover said, and the union was free to call a strike.

However, a presidential fact-finding board in a report to President Truman on April 19 had suggested the switchmen's case would be passed upon after hearing similar cases by two other operating unions, the trainmen and the order of railway conductors.

Senator in the state's primary election. (AP Wirephoto).

JOHN L. TROUBLES UMW Faces Unfair Labor Case By US

CHICAGO, May 18. (AP)—The government has decided to press unfair labor practices charges against John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and an Illinois coal company in the case of a Canton, Ill., miner.

The miner, Lloyd Sidener, 45, filed the charges under the Taft-Hartley Labor Law. He was ousted March 7 as UMW local president at Canton. The union fined him $50,000 and $25 for every day he might work in the future.

Sidener said the union fired him for trying to obey a federal court's back-to-work order. The union's state officers said he was ousted for trying to set up a "dual" or rival union.

Ross M. Madden, regional director of the National Labor Relations Board in Chicago, issued a complaint against the union and the United Electric Coal Companies yesterday.

The NLRB complaint says the Canton UMW local fined Sidener, a shovel engineer at the coal company's Buckheart Mine near Canton, when he tried to resume work during the coal strike last February. It states that the union later caused the company to fire Sidener March 13 by threatening to call a strike at the mine.

City Is Chosen 1951 Site For State KP Meet

Big Spring was chosen as site for the 1951 meeting of the grand lodge of Texas Knights of Pythias at the closing session in Mineral Wells on Wednesday.

At the same time, H. M. Rainbolt, veteran KP member, was elected grand master-at-arms, the fourth spot from the top of the state officials.

Jack Y. Smith, chairman of the chamber of commerce conventions committee, said that the Knights of Pythias state party here would be of major proportions. Ordinarily registration runs upwards of 800 delegates. Selection of Big Spring marks the furthest point west for the state meet.

With 250 members, the Big Spring Pythian lodge is now one of the largest and most active in the state. Already the castle hall at 1407 Lancaster is showing signs of being too small.

GIVES LIFE FOR HIS SON—Sidney Lawrence, 46, (right), gave his life for his son Robert (left), 72, in a cross transfusion, where the blood of the son and father mingled. The father's kidney was able to work for both bodies, allowing the son's diseased kidney to rest and recuperate. The father proved unusually sensitive to proteins in the blood he received from his son, thus causing his death. He is survived by his wife, Norma Gene Lawrence, (shown at left with Sidney), and three daughters, ranging in age from 9 to 16 years, all of Oakland, Calif. Doctors said they expect Robert to recover from his ailment. (AP Wirephoto).

House Disagrees Over Tax Cuts On Stock Profit

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—House members disagreed warmly today over whether a proposed tax cut on profits from stock and bond deals would help market speculators more than it would the nation's economy.

The proposal, approved by the House Ways and Means Committee yesterday, would apply to trading in real estate and commodities, as well as to stocks and bonds. The committee's action brought an immediate dispute among its members.

Rep. Combs (D-Tex.) called the suggested cut "grossly inequitable," and said its main benefits would go to a stock market speculators and high-bracket taxpayers while those in the lower brackets would suffer.

Rep. Lynch (D-N.Y.) countered by calling the committee action an "excellent" move which would stimulate business and add $100 million a year to the government's income.

If approved by Congress, the committee recommendation would have this effect:

1. The maximum tax on long-term capital gains would be slashed from the present 25 per cent to 16 per cent.
2. A capital asset would have to be held only three months—instead of six—in order for its sale to be considered as either a gain or a loss for income tax purposes.

The first provision would apply to transactions by individuals only; the second would apply to deals by both individuals and corporations.

By law, a gain or loss from the sale of such property held longer than six months may be computed along with other income and deductions for tax purposes. This means a savings to persons with incomes taxed less than 50 per cent.

Rearming Schedule Will Be Redrawn

LONDON, May 18. (AP)—Atlantic Pact foreign ministers set up a permanent high command tonight and ordered it to develop the armed forces necessary for the defense of western Europe.

Each of the 12 member foreign ministers will appoint a deputy to serve on the permanent committee.

The appointments will be made "with the least possible delay" so that the deputies can proceed to appoint a full-time chairman from among their members, the foreign ministers announced in a communique at the close of their four-day session.

This was in line with an agreement to set up a high command to develop the armed forces necessary for the defense of western Europe, whether it tries armed attack or "Trojan horse" conquest.

The communique said:

"A year's experience has shown that on the political side the meetings of the council have been too infrequent to permit a sufficient exchange of views on matters of common interest within the scope of the treaty.

"On the military side the strategic concept of the treaty has been adopted and a defense plan drawn up, and the corresponding estimate of the necessary forces is being established.

"The next step is to put these plans into effect by taking further measures in the direction of common defense, the division of financial responsibilities and the adaptation and development of the necessary forces."

The communique said the permanent high command will execute policies and be responsible "for formulating issues requiring decisions by the member governments."

The highest priority tasks of the permanent council will be:

1. To co-ordinate the work of the North Atlantic Council's defense committee, its defense financial and economic committee and all other agencies established under the treaty.
2. Recommend to governments the steps necessary to get co-ordinated plans into operation for the defense of the North Atlantic area.

Neither Side Speculating On FEPC Voting

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—Neither side was doing much advance speculating today about the size of the vote on the question of getting a Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) bill before the Senate.

For almost two weeks, the Senate has been carrying on a sporadic debate over the question of whether the civil rights measure should be taken up for action.

A petition to put a halt to the talk—a so-called cloture petition—has been signed by 40 senators—26 Republicans and 14 Democrats. To clamp a time limit on the debate will take the votes of 64 of the 96 senators.

The vote is scheduled for noon tomorrow.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), directing strategy for the southern forces fighting FEPC, wouldn't hazard a guess on the vote except to renew his prediction that opponents will fall short of the 64 they need.

Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois has refrained from making any victory claims. He said his side apparently will lose the vote of Sen. Murray (D-Mont) because of the death yesterday of Mrs. Murray.

Even if the southern bloc should lose their fight against Lucas' motion to bring the bill up for consideration, they could filibuster against the bill itself once it came before the Senate.

16 Killed As B-29 Crashes

PONTA DELGADA, Azores, May 18. (AP)—A B-29 bomber crashed off the runway at Lagens Field last night and burst into flames, killing all 16 persons aboard.

Unofficial reports said the U. S. Air Force plane hit an automobile parked off the field. The plane caught fire immediately and burned in a few minutes. Fourteen men were burned beyond recognition.

The plane, carrying a crew of 11 and five passengers, believed to be military personnel, was en route from Bermuda to England.

Its home was Barksdale Air Force Base at Shreveport, La. Capt. Salvadoro Pelle, public information officer at Barksdale, said the plane had been diverted to Lagens Field when it developed engine trouble. He said no high ranking officers were aboard.

FOR ANOTHER YEAR House Committee Votes Rent Control

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—The House Banking Committee voted 13 to 4 today for another year of federal rent control.

The bill provides, however, that controls will end Dec. 31 in cities that do not vote to continue them until June 30, 1951.

The present rent control law expires at the end of next month.

The committee's action sends its bill to the House. The measure, sponsored by Chairman Spence (D-Ky.), has these main provisions:

1. Continuation of the federal control powers to June 30, 1951.
2. Increased "local option" provisions whereby localities can determine whether they want further controls. A city would have the power at any time to vote out controls. Once taken off, no rent ceilings could be reimposed in a particular locality.
3. Rent controls to end automatically in December in all localities where the local governing body or the people in referendum do not decide to continue the controls to June 30, 1951.

Governors of the various states would have no authority to veto the action of cities taking themselves out from under the federal rent ceilings.

President Truman asked for a renewal of the rent law in a special message to Congress April 21. He said "a sudden and simultaneous removal of rent controls on a national scale would precipitate a wave of exorbitant rent increases."

Mr. Truman also argued that rent increases would mean the average family would have to cut its spending for food and clothing. He said that would lead to unemployment.

Labor groups also campaigned strongly for continuation of controls.

Give Evidence, McCarthy Told

WASHINGTON, May 18. (AP)—Senate Communist investigator Sen. McCarthy today for evidence backing up his charges that State Department loyalty files have been rifled.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, replied that before he can provide such evidence, Democratic members of a Senate inquiry committee will have to be convinced "that the rifling of the files should be exposed rather than covered up."

The files being examined by a Senate foreign relations subcommittee cover 81 persons accused by McCarthy of being Communists, Red sympathizers, or security risks for other reasons.

McCarthy has charged that the files were stripped of much material by the State Department before it turned them over to the committee. The department has denied it, and Deputy Undersecretary of State John E. Pendergast said he would testify under oath that there has been no rifling of the records.

One Of The Most Carefully Guarded Secrets Was Jap Floating Balloon

WASHINGTON — One of the most carefully guarded secrets of the war was the fact that Japan was floating balloons across the Pacific Ocean to Oregon, Washington and even as far east as Illinois and Texas.

U. S. censors gave strict orders to suppress all news of these balloons; and even when an Oregon family climbed into a tree to examine a balloon and was blown to bits, censors suppressed the information.

Reason for the strict censorship was that American commanders didn't want the Japs to know how successful their balloon campaign was. If the Japs realized their balloons were getting across, it was believed they would launch many more thousands.

After the war ended, cross-examination of the Jap military revealed that 60,000 of these balloons had been launched from the Kurile Islands and Formosa. They crossed the Pacific at an altitude of about 17,000 feet at a speed of over 100 miles an hour and were equipped with gadgets which made them descend after a certain distance. The prevailing winds across the Pacific made the flight relatively simple—despite the fact that the Pacific is the widest of all oceans.

The balloons were equipped as incendiary carriers to set fire to Northwest forests, and later they were to be equipped as carriers of bacteriological warfare.

Use of these same type balloons to carry propaganda into Russia was proposed in this column two years ago. The wind currents, from Germany, France, Austria, Turkey or even England make it easy to float balloons into Russia. In fact, they could be inflated so as to come down in certain planned areas, carrying not only propaganda, but bars of soap, candy, shortwave radio sets, etc.

The Weather Bureau, with whom I conferred at the time, confirmed the fact that floating balloons into Russia would be fairly easy. Secretary of Air Staff Symington and Chief of Staff Omar Bradley gave their enthusiastic approval. But at that time, the State Department said no.

However, with increasing Soviet jamming of the Voice of America, and with the increasing urgency of getting American ideas across to the Russian people, the State Department under live-wire assistant secretary Ed Barrett is re-examining the matter. A sincere effort is being made to put across the Acheson idea of "total diplomacy."

A CANDIDATE FORGETS Willis Smith, one of North Carolina's candidates for the Senate, has been stumping the state telling folks that he is the greatest friend of the working man. One of his full-page advertisements reads: "I believe in high wage scales for the American working man."

What Lawyer Smith has forgotten, however—or at least what he wants the people of North Carolina to forget—is that he actually opposed a 40-cent minimum wage for the working man as late as 1947. Despite the fact that the federal minimum wage is now fixed at 75 cents, Smith informed the North Carolina General Assembly that the 40-cent minimum was "harsh, unreasonable and unnecessary."

SOVIET EYES OKINAWA A Soviet plot to force the United States off its Pacific island bases is revealed in recent report to the joint chiefs of staff. The clue to Soviet plans is the massing of thousands of Chinese forced laborers to build giant air ports within bombing range of Okinawa. The airports are in China's Fukien province fronting on the East China Sea, and will have wide, long airstrips for planes much larger than anything operated by the Chinese Communists.

U. S. intelligence reports say that Soviet officers are directing the construction of these airfields. The Communists are also planning jet bases, one of them at Ninpo. This information fits into the chiefs' estimate of Soviet plans—diversionary moves in Europe to distract our attention, but with the main punch aimed at Southeast Asia and the Pacific. The Kremlin appears ready to take a chance that the American public would let Okinawa and even the Philippines fall rather than go to war.

LOUAY AND HARRY Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson's penchant for talking off the cuff is getting him in trouble with President Truman—who also talks off the cuff. The President complained to an old friend the other day, "Louay talks to Bernie Baruch and tells him things he doesn't tell me. I have to learn about them third hand."

The White House also learned that Secretary Johnson gave a Pentagon visitor some secrets regarding the Navy plane shot down over the Baltic. The visitor was J. Arthur Rank, the British film magnate.

Hemispheric Solidarity Shows Up On South American Stamps

Hop aboard, folks, we're taking a jaunt around Latin America via your easy chair in the living room. How, you may ask? By viewing the postage stamps of our friendly neighbors South of the Border.

Our first stop is Argentina, where we find an abundance of stamps honoring an early leader for Argentine independence, Jose De San Martin. He appears on almost every other stamp. From 1939 on, this nation began issuing stamps depicting peace and hemispheric solidarity, following in the footsteps of the other South American republics. Heroes were "stamped" less and economic and cultural development was encouraged by the postage stamp. Pan American conferences were also commemorated.

Early Brazilian stamps paid homage to explorers and men of leadership. Around 1930, the Pan American exposition received a good deal of attention, with emphasis on science and architecture. The Good Neighbor policy was in effect and Brazilians honored the New York World's Fair of 1939.

Cuba stamps, many large and colorful, pay tribute to progress and national heroes. The peace dove and Charles A. Lindbergh also are "stamped." Ecuadorian stamps, among the leaders in colorful issues, are large. Stamps noting George Washington alongside an American flag are noted. The New York Fair, Olympic games, and sugar production are among other pictures of these stamps.

Guatemala features flowers, parrots, archeological discoveries, Indians and pictures of public buildings and monuments. One notices, here, a distinct national pride. Haitian stamps are generally conservative, although large stamps were issued commemorating the bi-centennial of Port-Au-Prince. One of these stamps shows George Washington, Simon Bolivar and the Negro hero Dessalines.

Mexico notes progress in industry on its stamps, as well as science, agriculture, Indians, national heroes and monuments. Later issues are large, colorful, and pay homage to important events. Nicaragua has a five-cent stamp issue of Will Rogers, while Panama features scenes of the canal and sports events. Marie Curie and her husband are also depicted in a series.

Paraguay features international solidarity and flags of nations in its late issues, while Peru likes its heroes, states and monuments. The Statue of Liberty also comes in for recognition as do the Pan American conference and advancement in travel and communications. San Salvador stamps show a variety of national scenes, along with pictures of the U. S. flag alongside the San Salvador banner. Venezuela pays tribute to Bolivar, monuments, heroes and scientific progress.

In general, then, we can see that gradually these South of the Border nations are beginning to advance in all fields of science, and an era of recognition of our Good Neighbor policy is becoming more of a reality. These nations are beginning to see that the U. S. no longer casts imperialistic glances down South. Pan American and hemispheric solidarity is becoming a reality, and the peoples of Latin America appear to want peace in the world—despite internal revolts.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY, CHICAGO.—The hidden issue of this gathering of the Fair Deal clans is the McCarthy charges. Wherever two or three politicians foregather the question is put: what effect is McCarthy having in your part of the country?

The answers vary widely. A New Yorker or a Californian will privately admit to being worried. In those populous coastal states the Communists are more numerous and have been more successful at infiltrating liberal causes. Democrats from the west and far west show less concern. Their people read less about it, hear less about it and, they add, scare less easily. They are able to feel optimistic that it will all blow over.

There is unanimity on one score. Senator McCarthy is execrated universally as being without truth and without honor. This is rather unusual; politicians are generally tolerant of one another for beyond the bonds of normal christian charity. They play politics themselves and they are chary of a high moral tone about the tricks that other politicians play on them.

President Truman himself yields to no man in his contempt for McCarthy. That is why, paradoxically, he has been able to refrain from making him more important by mentioning him. Opposition often arouses Harry Truman's anger and he shoots sparks in defiance of discretion. He has humor about political play and has practically been a press agent for the G. O. P.'s Victor Johnston. But in all the great spate of bratery he has poured on the country for a week, pure contempt has saved him from the slip so eagerly watched for.

Nonetheless, the Democrats are scared of McCarthyism. They recognize it as an issue which has more or less caught on. They only hope the country will not love it in November as it does in May and they talk fondly of time, the great healer.

What scares them? It can be stated positively that they think the Truman administration and Secretary Acheson are clear. They don't believe that, as of now, the Communist issue has validity. But they have seen elections won and lost on emotional incidents like "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." They suggest that there is a kind of contest with a certain kind of animal that nobody can win. They know finally that some of their people fell for the "united front of liberals" line which the Communists peddled so assiduously during the war. An objective person re-creates in his mind's eye the thin climate of heroic Stalingrad with our Russian allies killing Nazis who might otherwise kill Americans but voters don't vote objectively.

An objective person re-creates in his mind's eye the thin climate of heroic Stalingrad with our Russian allies killing Nazis who might otherwise kill Americans but voters don't vote objectively. When the Democrats take down their hair, they admit a few of their number accepted Communist support cynically or from sheer expediency. Others thought they were acting from principle. Others were plain fuddy-duddies.

It is now said here that all of them are in trouble, whatever their reasons, and they will have to sweat it out. One Senator Pepper, was vulnerable, and an unscrupulous opponent triumphed. That result has not been lost on the trade. They say it's a shame, but there it is. Their solution is full and free disclosure of all the facts. The grass-roots message to the Tydings committee is that even the appearance of timidity or a whitewash must be avoided. Politicians are not normally very brave but the chips are down now and they want it played for the country. They still think they can win with some casualties here and there.

Boyer Doesn't Like His Role As 'Lover'

HOLLYWOOD—Charles Boyer, named one of the five greatest lovers of film history, would like to abdicate the title. A week ago, Clarence Brown celebrated 35 years of film directing by selecting the five great lovers of the screen. He chose Boyer, John Barrymore, Clark Gable, John Gilbert and Rudolph Valentino.

"I don't like the title," the French actor told me, "I have never liked it and have never been flattered by being known as such. I have never liked being typed in one particular role. In Paris, I always played a wide variety of roles and I have tried to do the same here. The trouble is that two or three performances always stick in the public mind."

This may come as a blow to hundreds of night club and amateur imitators, but Boyer added that he never uttered the words, "come widd me to the Casbah." Somebody else drained the line up.

The actor is going far afield from romance in his current movie. He is playing a priest in "The First Legion," which is being filmed almost entirely in the Mission Inn at Riverside, Calif.

Boyer's latest relearned picture was "Arch of Triumph" two years ago (although he made "A Woman's Vengeance" after that one). The laird Bergman co-

Stalin's Reception Of Lie Ostensibly An Amity Gesture

SO SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE Lie of the United Nations did see Marshal Stalin in Moscow after all, and with a certain amount of smugness your columnist notes in passing that he forecast the likelihood of this meeting.

After all, Stalin had nothing whatever to lose by such a private conversation. On the contrary, his reception of Lie was ostensibly a gesture of amity. The Red chief's reputation as a tactician would have fallen considerably if he had failed to take advantage of this opening.

We don't know the details of the hour-and-a-half conversation in the Kremlin. However, we may take it for granted that nothing has happened to affect materially the Russian cold war program. The ultimate goal of that offensive—world communism—is unchangeable.

SECRETARY LIE'S ANNOUNCED mission to Moscow was to "save the UN," which early in its existence came up against the studied obstruction of the Soviet and its satellite nations. One of the most troublesome bones of contention, of course, has been the question of Chinese membership in the peace organization since the Chinese Communists gained control of the country. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalists still retain their seats, and the Soviet bloc has boycotted every UN organ having Nationalist Chinese membership.

Therefore observers are taking it for granted that the Stalin-Lie conference must have discussed this knotty problem. However, there have been no signs in Moscow that the Russians have any intention of altering their refusal to participate in any UN commission on which Chiang's government is represented.

MEANTIME IN LONDON THE Foreign ministers of the 13-nation Atlantic Alliance continued to struggle with their tough problem of providing sufficient military defense to contain the Bolshevik offensive without wrecking the economy of western Europe. It is a task calling for the judgment of a Solomon.

Before them the foreign ministers have the cold, staggering figures produced by their countries' generals and defense ministers last month. The military folk laid plans for rearmament on a large scale. Among other things they proposed a total ground force of 30 divisions backed by British and American air power.

Well, now, when you translate that into cash you get a shock. Military experts estimate that during the war it required about $100 million to equip an armored division with primary equipment. It took from half to three quarters of this amount to equip an infantry division. These costs have gone much higher since the war.

The South Strings Along, Thus The South Is Taken For Granted

In Chicago, where Democratic hosts and gathered to hear him, Mr. Truman promised to fight for his program, and to renew his speaking campaign next fall against those "backward-looking senators and representatives who have tried to defeat every progressive measure they could, and to obstruct and delay those they could not defeat."

Listed as the heart of the Truman program re ten items — international cooperation, Taft-Hartley law repeal, improved social security laws, federal aid to education, middle income housing help from the government, health insurance, natural resources development, improved farm price supports, aid to small business and civil rights laws.

On some of these items, particularly Taft-Hartley repeal and civil rights, Southern members of Mr. Truman's own party stand almost solidly against him. If he meant to imply that he would make a fight on these Southerners, the question arises, What good would it do? He can not find in the South any candidate

Hearing Politicians Talk Is Price You Pay For Democracy

WASHINGTON, 08—IF YOU HAVE A slight feeling that you've heard it before, you're right. Listening to politicians repeat themselves is one of the prices you pay for democracy.

When President Truman set out on his cross-country speaking tour, he wanted to drum up votes for his Democrats running for Congress.

So no one expected him to say nice things about the Republicans running for Congress. He didn't disappoint anyone. The picture he painted was all whites and blacks: He bonned the Democrats, blasted the Republicans.

Of course, the element of surprise and newness was lacking in this Mr. Truman had done this before. So had all Democratic politicians before him.

THE ELEMENT OF SURPRISE AND newness was also lacking in what Senator Taft, Ohio Republican, had to say Tuesday night in reply to Mr. Truman.

No one expected Senator Taft to do otherwise. He's running for re-election himself, besides being one of the leaders of the Republicans.

He has also done the same thing before many times, speaking in blacks and whites. In fact, for years now, it seems, every time Mr. Truman has pet-shotted the Republicans, Senator Taft has promptly pet-shotted the Democrats, just to make things even.

All this gets accepted, as it always has been, as a legitimate part of American politics, although the voters know, being human beings, that life is not just blacks and whites but has various shadings.

Nevertheless, these political tactics make it a little tougher for the non-political voters who just want the best possible government and want to pick the best for representative or senator who would support his civil rights program, and few who would see eye to eye with him on Taft-Hartley repeal.

Southern Democrats have some rights in Democratic Party affairs. They kept the party alive when the rest of the country fought it tooth and nail. They kept the Jefferson-Jackson fires burning when all the Johnny-come-latelys were going off after false gods.

Mr. Truman has shown no disposition to heed the Southern revolt against his leadership—and by Southern revolt we are not speaking of the abortive and ineffectual Dixiecrat movement. He hammers away at the civil rights issue, much of which is inacceptable to Southern Democrats of whatever degree of devotion to the party.

As a shrewd politician, the President knows that the South, alas, will string along anyway. His Taft-Hartley repeal and civil rights gambits are aimed at the industrial centers and the big Northern and Eastern cities where the balance of power lies. The South he takes for granted.

Embassy Aides Can't Explain Slayer Release

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., May 18. (AP)—U. S. Embassy authorities say they are at a loss to explain the release of the confessed slayer of Texas Sheriff Otis W. (Blackie) Morrow from a Mexican jail. Jose Villalobos, 24, was ordered released here yesterday under a court action corresponding to a habeas corpus in the United States. A federal judge ruled that an order from Mexico City for his arrest was not sufficient to hold him. Villalobos had been held two months while extradition proceedings were underway. He was arrested by Mexican officers, accompanied by Texas officers, on March 16, four days after the Presidio County sheriff was found shot to death on a lonely road between Marfa and Presidio. The embassy said yesterday in Mexico City that extradition papers for the youth had been presented to the Mexican foreign office "two or three weeks ago."

WILL APPEAL DEPORTATION

German-Born War Bride Wins Reprieve From Supreme Court

NEW YORK, May 18. (AP)—An order from a U. S. Supreme Court justice halted the deportation of a German-born war bride yesterday just 20 minutes before her plane left for Europe. Signed by Justice Jackson in Washington, the order allows Mrs. Ellen Knauff to remain in this country pending the outcome of an appeal of her case to the high court. She was given until May 23 to file such an appeal. Jackson followed up his order with a bluntly-worded statement criticizing immigration and Justice Department officials for "bundling this woman onto an airplane to get her out of this country within hours" after the Circuit Court of Appeals had granted clearance to the deportation move. Such haste, Jackson said, "leaves no doubt that the purpose is to defeat the jurisdiction of this court as well as the determination of Congress." The House unanimously approved a bill last month to allow Mrs. Knauff to enter the United States. This measure is now pending before the Senate. Mrs. Knauff, 35, has been held on Ellis Island since 1948. She testified before a Congressional committee last month that she believed the expulsion order was instigated by a former girl friend of her husband, Kurt. He was a civilian employee of the U. S. Military Government in Germany. Jackson took pointed notice of the Justice Department's refusal to make public its reasons for barring Mrs. Knauff other than its report that "she would be a hazard to internal security." He said he would have refused to sign the delay order if the department "had at any time shown even probable grounds to believe that presence of this woman a few days more in this country might jeopardize national security, even infinitesimally." He added that neither Mrs. Knauff, the courts nor Congress had been able "to learn what the specific charges against her are." Asked by a reporter why the government wants to deport Mrs. Knauff and why she has not been informed of the reasons, U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol replied: "Our knowledge of the facts in this case is based on reports of the investigation not only of the Army Intelligence Division but also of the FBI. "From these the Attorney General made his decision that Mrs. Knauff should not be admitted. To disclose to her the reason for her exclusion would be inimicable to internal security." In Washington, the House Judiciary Committee, which initiated the move to grant Mrs. Knauff residence in this country sent a note of rebuke to Attorney General McGrath. Chairman Celler (D-N) wrote McGrath that if the woman is expelled before the Senate acts on the measure his committee would consider such a step "contemptuous of the House of Representatives." Mrs. Knauff was taken back to Ellis Island pending the outcome of her appeal to the higher court.

Unification Goes On Display With Joint Armed Forces 'Day'

WASHINGTON — The military services will pass through one more step in their somewhat painful unification process on Armed Forces Day, May 20. They'll be cheering for one another and jointly putting on parades, demonstrations and parties. But many of the celebrants will undoubtedly be sadly recalling the past, when each service had a day of its own. The last individual celebration was Army Day, April 8, 1948—the anniversary of America's entry into the first World War. That afternoon President Truman and Secretary of Defense Johnson watched a parade. That night Johnson spoke to the Military Order of World Wars, a civilian organization of ex-Army officers who had prompted and sponsored Army Day from its origin in 1928. Johnson took the occasion to announce to his hosts that they were celebrating their last Army Day. He and the President, he said, had decided that afternoon there would be no more individual "days," that in the interest of unification they'd all get together in 1950 on one day. His hosts received the announcement coldly. On Aug. 30, 1949, Johnson announced that Armed Forces Day would be celebrated on the third Saturday in May. When the time came for Air Forces Day, the second Saturday in September, the occasion passed unnoticed. It had been celebrated only once—in 1948 commemorating the founding of the Air Force Sept. 17, 1947.

Secretary of the Navy Matthews chose Navy Day, Oct. 27, 1949, as the occasion for dismissing the popular Chief of Naval Operations, Adm. Louis E. Denfeld. It was a double blow to many Navy men. They missed the old-time fanfare and public demonstrations. And many of them had warmly approved Denfeld's criticism of the cuts in Navy strength in hearings before Congress. The Navy had been celebrating its day since 1922. It had been sponsored by the Navy League, another civilian organization. It commemorated the founding of the Navy in October 1775 and the birth of President Theodore Roosevelt, a "big Navy" man. When the time came for the Marine Corps Birthday, Nov. 10, the corps fared better than its brother services. Johnson let the Marines continue to celebrate on their posts as long as it was just a family birthday party. They held formations of troops, gave parties, cut cakes—all on their own reservations. The Leathernecks had been making a big occasion of the birthday since 1921. The date is the anniversary of the founding of the corps at Tun Tavern, in Philadelphia, in 1775. Actually there had never been a "Marine Day." There had been only limited public participation in the birthday celebrations. The other services used to drum up public support—to interest Congressmen and recruits. Thus a unified Armed Forces Day does eliminate considerable competition among the services, both for appropriations and manpower. There are still anniversary celebrations within the various services. Some companies or squadrons holding distinguished unit citations celebrate privately on the date they were cited. And some branches of the Army, such as the Quartermaster, Signal or Engineers Corps, have annual parties. The Navy League intends to observe Navy Day hereafter by holding memorial services for sailors buried at sea. The services at sea had been a feature of the day's celebrations. When the league didn't hold them last year, it caught considerable criticism. Whether the Navy will be allowed to participate officially in the league's memorial services has not been announced.

Fireman Finds Car On Fire

READING PA., May 18. (AP)—With fellow members of the Liberty Fire Company, Walter Skroeki went in search of a blazing automobile. Responding to a telephone alarm, the firemen went to the spot where the car was supposed to be, yesterday. Unable to locate it, they returned to the fire house. There they learned the burning auto was on another street—where it had been left by its owner, Fireman Skroeki. Neighbors put the flames out before the firemen arrived.

Lie Says Stalin Hale And Hearty

MOSCOW, May 18. (AP)—United Nations Secy-Gen. Trygve Lie says Prime Minister Stalin is hale and hearty. Lie, who talked with Stalin for an hour and a half on Monday, told reporters the generalissimo "was as healthy and lively as he was in 1946." "All these rumors about his health are lies and false," Lie said. "Maybe they are wishful thinking on the part of some people." Lie last talked to the Russian leader when he was in Moscow four years ago.

Making Good Meals From Leftovers Is Challenge To Every Homemaker

HAM OR SALMON ROLLS WILL BE POPULAR AT SUPPERTIME
... perfect meal served with tossed green salad

"Five Hundred Delicious Dishes from Leftovers," the No. 2 cookbook in the Culinary Arts Institute series, is a challenge to every homemaker who has ever moaned "Oh, dear, where does the grocery money go?"

But the challenge is not to the over-strained budget alone. With such a guide as "Leftover," the most unimaginative cook can take the dare to make attractive meals from almost nothing.

Every morning, the accumulation of odds and ends in the way of food will start a chain of thought which will be entirely in keeping with nutrition as well as economy, and, in many cases, the ultimate result will be more appetizing meals and more attractive dishes.

Liquids from canned or cooked vegetables, full of minerals and vitamins, will go into cocktails and soups instead of down the drain. Never a piece of vegetable so small but that it can go into a salad, or be utilized as a garnish or added to the soup.

Any bit of fruit will suggest an idea, to garnish a chop plate, top a meringue or decorate a cake. The introduction of "Leftovers," continues the story: "Meat is not just something to be made into hash, but an adventure in ingenuity, with a choice as wide as the imagination, ranging from fluffy timbales to velvety mousses; and never are those two egg whites discarded, because they make a beautiful baked transform day old cake with custard Alaska or meringued fruit.

"With freezing trays and modern refrigeration, the homemaker may tarts and whipped cream into inspired desserts.

"She may even achieve colored ice cubes or her own special sherbets from those fruit juices that often go into the lemonade, and she may have frozen salads to her hearts content. And all made from leftovers with just a little something added.

"Then the snacks and appetizers! What colorful canapes can be made from just those last two olives in the bottle, those bits of ham or liver we didn't know what to do about, and the lone hard-cooked egg in the refrigerator."

It is suggested that it become a part of the design for menus to check up each morning on the leftover tidbits and fit them into the meal-planning pattern of the day.

Egg Yolks
Leftover egg yolks may be poached in boiling water until hard cooked, then forced through a sieve as a garnish for salads, canapes, spinach, creamed fish or thick soups.

Another of the egg yolk suggestions is to add these to white sauce or fish sauces for thickening and a richer color and flavor.

Then the leftover scrambled eggs

BELL PEPPERS ARE CUPS FOR MANY LEFTOVERS
... shrimp and rice are piquant filling and omelets. These broken up with a fork and added to soups give added nutrition. Another idea is to break up with a fork and combine with chopped bacon or hot minced ham for sandwiches.

The extra egg yolk goes well in mashed potato balls.

Mashed Potato Balls
2 cups cold mashed potatoes.
Salt and pepper
1 egg yolk
Butter

Mix seasoned mashed potatoes with egg yolk and shape into balls. Place in greased pan and make a depression in the top of each. Place a bit of butter in each hollow and brown in hot oven.

Two egg whites, the last of that drying piece of cheese and dry bread crumbs can be combined to cheese appetizers.

Cheese Appetizers
2 egg whites
1 cup grated American cheese
dash of cayenne
1-4 cup grated dry bread crumbs
Beat egg whites stiff, add cheese, cayenne and bread crumbs. Pat into small balls and fry in hot deep fat until light brown. Makes about 16 balls.

The 500 leftover recipes in the second book of the Culinary Arts Institute are listed under 35 divisions: bread, crackers, cake and crumbs, leftover cheese, leftover coffee and cocoa, cooked cereals, eggs, fish, fowl, fruits, jam, jellies and preserves, leftover meats, vegetables, sour milk and cream, and miscellaneous.

The last section suggests appetizing hors d'oeuvres of almost endless variety from the ice box tidbits, cheese, fish, ham, chicken or tongue, onion or other vegetables as filling for a more filling omelet or for complete meal scrambled eggs, and an almost endless variety of sauces and dressings.

Just a fourth cup of chopped mushrooms added to scrambled eggs makes a dish deluxe. Nor so often used, but delicious is a half cup of flaked lobster, crab meat or shrimp scrambled in the eggs. White pepper adds the right touch of seasoning.

Capers, celery, cheese, mushrooms, y-ters, chopped olives, pimiento and onion, and many other variations are possible with a medium white sauce as the base. Salads will taste ever different by a variety of additions to mayonnaise.

One fourth cup chopped cucumbers and 3 tablespoons chopped almonds is a far cry from the Thousand Island sauce made by adding a bit of chili sauce, 1 chopped green pepper and chopped stuffed olives to the salad dressing.

Green Pepper Cups
The satiny green pepper makes a crisp container for a macaroni salad, a cottage cheese salad or potato salad. Or green peppers steamed and filled with mixed r almost any one type of leftover vegetables look like a dish all new and one to tempt all the family.

A cup of rice, a few shrimp, a tasty sauce in ball pepper cups into the oven and out crisply brown on the edges may grace almost any main dish platter.

Leftover pinto beans, if the family has really tired of them, may go to the table as Mexican beans by the following recipe:

Mexican Beans
2 cups mashed pinto beans
2 teaspoons fat
2 cloves garlic, mashed
7 green onions, chopped
1 cup grated American cheese

The mere list looks like almost any day in the ice box. Heat the fat, add beans and onions and garlic, cooking until onions are tender. Stir in cheese, and serve quite hot.

Celery salt, lemon juice, onion juice and parsley give chicken croquettes a piquant appeal. Here is the recipe:

Chicken Croquettes
1 3-4 cups ground cooked chicken
1-4 teaspoon celery salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Few drops onion juice
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
salt and pepper
1 cup thick white sauce
fine crumbs
1 egg, beaten
Add chicken, celery salt, lemon juice, onion juice, parsley, salt and pepper to white sauce. Cool, shape into croquettes, dip into egg and again into crumbs. Fry in hot deep fat from 2 to 5 minutes.

The pastry cook of the family will have a good time making savory salmon rolls, ham rolls, or rolls filled with almost any tasty meat.

Salmon Rolls
1 recipe baking powder biscuits
1 1/2 cups flaked salmon
1 small onion chopped
1 green pepper chopped
1/2 teaspoon salt

Roll biscuit dough to 1/4 inch thick over on floured board. Combine other ingredients; moisten slightly with salmon liquid (try sour cream for minced ham), mix well and spread mixture on dough. Roll as for jelly roll and slice 1 1/2 inches thick. Bake in a greased pan in 400 degree oven about 30 minutes.

The quick one-egg cake can solve almost any dessert problem, and it may be varied by whatever fruit, icing, whipping cream or other idea the icebox may suggest.

One-Egg Cake
1/4 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg, unbeaten
2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream until fluffy. Add eggs and beat thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients together three times and add alternately with milk and vanilla. Bake in two greased nine inch layer pans, for 25 minutes in 350 degree oven.

BEE SWARM SLOWS MAIL

BALLSTON PARK, N. Y., May 18. (AP) - A swarm of bees delayed the mail yesterday. The bees gathered on the rear of a mail truck as John Luminack drove from the postoffice to the railroad station.

Fathia Loses Her Title, But Will Get Hitched

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18. (AP) - Any time now—maybe today, maybe tomorrow—the lovely princess is going to wed her commoner sweetheart before a Moslem Priest—and the furious King of Egypt can make the most of it.

Last night 19-year-old Fathia, beautiful brunette sister of King Farouk, at long last received official decrees from Cairo, confirming what she had read in the papers: Her title is lifted her fortune is impounded; so is the fortune of Queen Mother Nazli; both must return to Egypt within 60 days.

That did it. She promptly told her mother the Moslem wedding to 31-year-old Riad Ghali, secretary to Queen Nazli, is on. The quicker the better.

"Within a couple of days," was the assurance the youngest member passed out to all callers. While all Egypt talked about the romance of their Moslem "former princess" with a Coptic Christian, the princess and her mother discussed the wedding, the wedding dress and the honeymoon.

At end are plans to plead further with the king to retract his opposition because Ghali is a Christian and a commoner. The king phrased an additional objection "He is an adventurer."

"He can punish us no farther," Fathia said. "Fathia wants a real ceremony," said the Queen Mother. "With an Imam (Moslem Priest) and a few friends present. She says she will only be married once and she wants to remember it."

Afterward, "they will slip away together on their honeymoon." While waiting for the approval of the civil ceremony which never came, Princess Fathia has lived in her mother's hotel suite apart from the suite of Ghali. They had their first and only kiss at the civil ceremony. Since April 25 they have voiced their undying affection over the telephone between suites.

But in the background there were dark clouds. Ghali's diplomatic status was lited by the irate Egyptian officials. He has been approached by the U. S. Immigration Commissioner here on when he will have marital status arranged to leave the United States. He set May 25 as the tentative date.

"I don't know what the king will do to him in Egypt," reflected the worried princess.

PEAK IS REACHED Winnipeg Residents Hope River Drops

WINNIPEG, Man., May 18. (AP) - Winnipeg's flood-weary residents hopefully looked today for the first slow drop in the Red River's muddy waters that have driven 90,000 persons from their homes in the last three weeks.

The peak of Manitoba's worst flood in more than a century held steady at 30.2 feet, unchanged for more than 36 hours. One provincial official predicted the waters should begin to subside soon.

Flood control officials continued to keep a weary, wary eye on the area's weakening, over-strengthened dikes. They emphasized the surging Red and its tributary Assiniboine and Seine Rivers still could break through and bring new disaster to the water-logged greater Winnipeg area.

The forecast that a gradual drop was in sight came from D. M. Stephens, Manitoba's deputy minister of resources. He had anticipated a slight drop yesterday but it failed to materialize.

Stephens said last night that the river must fall five feet before further hazards to the area are eliminated. That would take at least 10 days after the waters definitely start receding, he added.

A different attitude prevailed in the city. The need for volunteer workers on the dikes appeared sharply cut, at least for the present. Radio stations no longer blared flood warnings and official notices. The noise of trucks and bulldozers was waning.

Talk of repair, rehabilitation and future flood control gained momentum.

McAllen Man Gets Suspended Sentence For Killing Rival EDINBURG, May 18. (AP)—Thomas Gomez of McAllen received a three-year suspended prison sentence yesterday after he pleaded guilty to murder without malice in the slaying of Manuel Garza Martinez in January, 1949.

Gomez told the court he hid in the luggage compartment of his car. He said his wife drove to Pharr, picked up Martinez, then parked on a road between Edinburg and Pharr.

Gomez said he got out of the compartment, found Martinez in the back seat of the car with his wife and shot him.

New Equipment Announced Here

One new piece of equipment and a major change in another of particular interest to West Texas farmers has been announced by the Big Spring Tractor Co., local distributor for Ford Tractors and Dearborn farm implements.

The 1950 Ford tractor with the new angle drive distributor has made its appearance here and is now on display at the local concern, which is located on the Lamesa highway. The distributor, which represents the first major change in the Ford tractor since 1948, is easily accessible for mounting on the side of the block. It is a completely new distributor and one in which farmers of this area have been particularly interested.

The Big Spring Tractor company also was selected to receive five of 24 new type planters allocated to Texas dealers by the Dearborn Implement Co. The manufacturer is anxious to get the early models in the hands of farmers and they are being sold on an absolute, money-back guarantee. The Dearborn Co. hopes to give the new planters a thorough test this year and then begin full-scale production next year. They are tool bar type implements and have proved highly satisfactory in early tests.

A good supply of rotary sand fighters also may be found at the Big Spring Tractor Co. Farmers are invited to visit the establishment whenever they need new tractors and implements, or repairs for equipment already in use.

Furniture Polish Adds A New Lustre

Ranking high among the list of products available for the home at the Big Spring Shell Service store, 407 W. 3rd, is the new Shell furniture polish.

The polish is compounded to add lustre to even the dullest furniture finish.

Something New In Car Polishing And Waxing Steel Casement Windows Added

Something special in the way of polishing and waxing automobiles is available at the Big Spring Shell Service store, 407 W. 3rd street.

The Shell Service station has installed special equipment for polishing and waxing automobile finishes. The complete job, done by machine, is fast, efficient, and enduring.

Residential steel casement windows have been added to the store of materials provided by Western Glass and Mirror company, 909 Johnson.

More and more home owners are specifying steel windows when they build their homes. They are as permanent as anything can be. There's no warping or shrinking or swelling. They will lock up just as snugly a generation from now as today.

The steel casement windows come in a variety of standard sizes, or in picture window sizes. Various unusual types of combinations may be achieved.

For those who prefer, Western Glass & Mirror has the double-hung steel window. This is the counterpart of the conventional up and down window. It has the advantage, in addition to total permanence, of having its weather-stripping built into the window. This window always will possess a precision fit.

Western is finding a mounting demand for glass of all types and sizes. From a wide area orders are received from customers who have found that Western Mirror can give quick service, can cut an order to exact size. It makes no difference if the order is a small window pane or a large plate glass. Employees give courteous attention.

Services include not only a wide range of "tinted" glass, but it also embraces expert mirror work—a specialty. Any shape or size may

Power Plus In Gas

Added power plus all the superior qualities found in the best grade of gasoline is yours when you burn the new activated Shell premium gasoline, now being featured at the Big Spring Shell Service station, 407 W. 3rd.

Activated Shell premium has a 93-octane rating, Red Isaacs, manager of the Shell Service station, points out. "It is the most powerful gasoline your car can burn," he states.

Extra power packed into each gallon of the new gasoline assures peak automotive performance, as well as gives extra mileage as each cylinder receives an "added punch" every time a charge of activated Shell is exploded inside your engine.

In addition to the extra pep and power, the new gasoline also contains the popular tetra ethyl lead compound for smooth anti-knock performance.

The Big Spring Shell Service station is also featuring two famous grades of motor oil. The Gold Shell oil is a non-detergent type lubricant scientifically engineered to cut out a large percentage of friction-wear.

Shell X-10, containing a detergent, is designed to eliminate corrosive action of engine acids which are often blamed for as much as 85 per cent of engine wear.

Actually, friction usually is responsible for only about 15 per cent of the normal "wear" that takes place inside an engine, Isaacs declared.

Safe-Aire Provides Faster Stops And More Blowout Zone Strength

The new 1950 Seiberling Safe-Aire tire, boasting the exclusive Flex-Arc design, is available to motorists here through the Creighton Tire company, located at 203 West Third street.

The Seiberling Safe-Aire casing is 45 per cent stronger in the blow-out zone, boasts patented heat-resists that give added blow-out protection, claw grip treads that asured 23 percent faster stops than other tires plus full-size whitewalls that add to the beauty and the glamour of any make machine.

Safe-Aire is a tire that will withstand high-speed driving, hard turns and smashing impacts that would break down ordinary tires of convention design.

Seiberling's new sealed-air tube is another accessory stocked by the Creighton concern. The tube is built for triple-puncture protection. When a nail or any other sharp object enters the tube, the soft plastic gum inside the tube seals the hole. Bulkheads hold the plastic gum in place at all times.

Tires and tubes to fit any car or truck on the road are handled by the Creighton establishment. In addition, the concern keeps in stock casing for tractors and other heavy equipment used on the farm or in construction work.

Phillips 66 gasoline and oils are distributed by the Creighton station. Motorists will also find they can get any kind of automobile service at the concern, including oil changes and lubrication jobs.

Business telephone number of the Creighton company is 101.
