Delegation Gets Information On Road Bond Fund

County Officials Told Payments Expected In Sept. 1940

Distribution of state funds for assumption of county bonds for lateral roads, as provided in H. B. 688, passed by the last legislature probably will not be made until September, 1940, members of a delegation from the Crockett county Commissioners Court were told in an interview with state officials in Austin last week.

Judge Charles E. Davidson, Commissioner E. R. Kinser and Assessor Bill Littleton composed the local delegation making the trip to Austin for a conference with members of the state highway commission and the board of county and district road indebtedness in an effort to gain some information on benefits to accrue to this county under the terms of H. B. 688.

No information is yet available as to the definite amounts to be allocated to the various counties, the local officials were told, but the amount will be based on the miles of lateral roads in the county, the population, area, number of motor vehicles registered in the county and the amount of indebtedness.

All information from this county which the board will need to compute its share was prepared by the Commissioners Court and presented by the Crockett officials on their visit to Austin. This information consisted of a detailed road map of the county prepared by Surveyor Bill Conklin and a statement of facts relative to population, area, miles of lateral roads, motor vehicle registration, etc., prepared by the court.

This statement showed the county's area at 3,215 square miles, population at the last census (1930) of 2,590, a total of 1067 motor vehicles registered and 415.8 miles of lateral roads. No bonds have been issued for construction of lateral roads, the statement recited, but warrants in the sum of $149,030 have been issued and paid off. The monthly cost of maintenance of lateral roads in Crockett county is given as $3,000.

On designated highways in this county, bonds totalling $331,000 have been issued, all being paid off except $170,000 outstanding 3 per cent road bonds dated April 10, 1936, due serially in ten years. Of such bonds paid off, the statement declared, the state, through the board of county and district road bond indebtedness has paid on the principal $61,678 and interest of $41,109.48. There are no delinquent payments, it was further recited, and the treasurer now has to the credit of the sinking fund for retirement of these bonds a total of $9,278.70.

ONE THING and THEN ANOTHER

By FRED GIPSON

CORPUS CHRISTI. — Adventure! It calls to each of us. As we follow down the groove that we've laid, our lives slip into, day after day, doing the same thing over and over again in the same way and at the same time, meeting the same people in the same places, greeting them in the same old way—deep down in our hearts we're always dreaming, if not hoping, for a high adventure of some kind.

Evidence the remarkable sale of cheap and not-so-cheap adventure magazines from the news stands of the nation each day.

We want to get away, to seek something new.

And we spend so much time wanting and dreaming that we're blinded to the adventure about us, can't recognize an adventure when

Dr. W. P. Webb, University Professor, Famed Historian, Writer, To Lecture To Ozona Group At Banquet Oct. 10

DR. W. P. WEBB

Crockett Historical Society To Be Hosts To Austin Educator

Dr. Walter Precott Webb, professor of history at the University of Texas, will speak before the Crockett County Historical and Scientific society Tuesday night, October 10 at 7 o'clock. A banquet in the ball room of the Hotel Ozona is being given by the society in the speaker's honor, and the general public, as well as members of the society, are invited to attend.

Dr. Webb comes to Ozona in behalf of the Texas Historical Association. He is editor of the Texas State Historical Association's Southwestern Quarterly and an outstanding writer and lecturer. The topic of his address will be "The Crisis of Democracy."

The most widely known book that has been written by Dr. Webb is "The Great Plains," which won several awards in 1931 as the outstanding contribution on western history in the past several decades. In 1936 his "Texas Ranger," written after 17 years of intensive research, was adapted to the screen, starring Fred McMurray and Jean Parker. Besides these two outstanding books, Dr. Webb has written a book on the corporations and corporate wealth of America, "Divided We Stand," which came off the press in the latter part of 1937.

Dr. Webb spent eight months in England in 1938 doing research work at the British Museum and lecturing on Western History at the Universities of London, Oxford and Cambridge. He has a very keen insight into European affairs as well as being considered the outstanding authority in America today on western history. He has also collaborated with Dr. Dodd, former ambassador to Germany, and Dr. Barker, head of the department of history at the University of Texas for a quarter of a century, on several text books which have been used in Texas schools for the past ten or fifteen years.

Arrangements for Dr. Webb to address the group were made by Gene Hollon, principal of the grade school. Mr. Hollon has had several classes under Dr. Webb in the university.

This will be the third meeting of the Crockett County Historical and Scientific society. It was organized in April, 1939. Houston Smith was elected president with C. S. Denham, vice president, and Miss Wanda Watson, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors is composed of Joe Davidson, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, A. C. Hoover, Evert White, Houston Smith, C. S. Denham and Miss Wanda Watson.

Woman's Club Makes Donation To Band For New Instrument

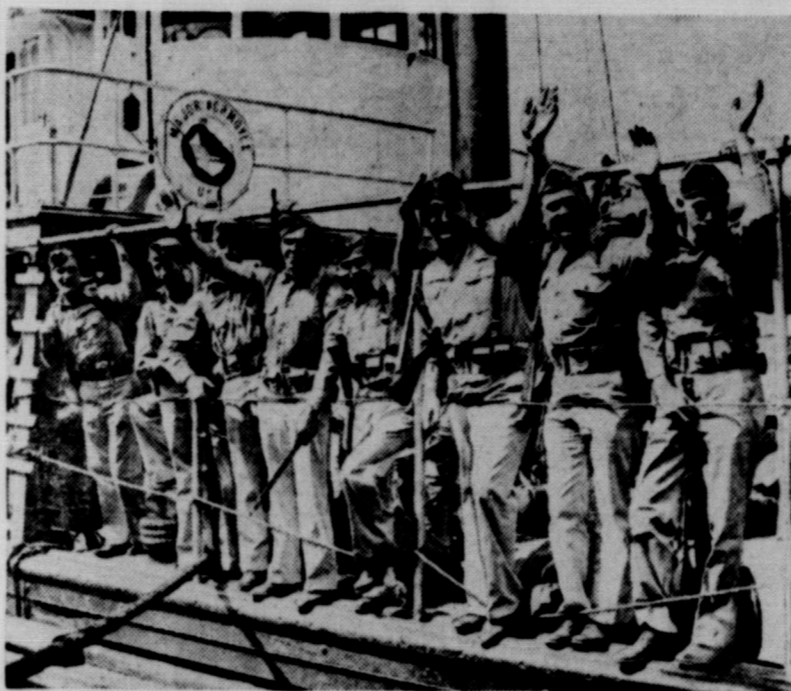

Mrs. W. R. Baggett and Mrs. B. B. Ingham were hostesses to the Ozona Woman's club Tuesday at the Baggett ranch home.

Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, president, presided during the business meeting. The club voted 100 per cent subscribers to the Federated News, and $10 was donated to the school for the new band horn that is to be given the band and orchestra department. Mrs. Kate Baggett, an honorary member, presented a book on club reporting to the club and Mrs. Stephen Perner led the round table discussion. "New Aims for One Club" was given by Mrs. Ira Carson.

Present were Mrs. Joe Oberkamp, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. Ira Carson, Mrs. A. C. Hoover, Mrs. A. E. Deland, Mrs. W. R. Baggett, Mrs. A. W. Jones, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Mrs. P. T. Robison and Mrs. Carl Colwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Robison were in from their Terrell county ranch this week.

U. S. Gunners Bolster Canal Defenses

Anti-aircraft troops of the Sixty-second coast artillery on board the army tug "Major Normoyle" on the first leg of their trip to the Panama Canal Zone, where they will bolster this country's defenses. The troops later transferred to a U. S. army transport off the Brooklyn army-base.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Meinecke To Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Friday; All Of Their Eight Children To Be Present

With all their children and grandchildren gathered in the family home here, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Meinecke, pioneer residents of Crockett county, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Friday, September 29.

Memory will race back over a half century to that September day in 1889 in the neighboring town of Sonora when a young German immigrant, who had come West from Baltimore, Md., where he first settled on American soil, married Miss Ada Hurst of Sonora. It was two years later that the young couple, with their first child, a boy, moved to Ozona to help organize Crockett county and establish the town of Ozona. They have made their home here since that date, 48 years ago.

Mr. Meinecke had a big part in pioneering the western cattle country, that of drilling water wells so essential to the use of the virgin rangelands for livestock production. He was in that business in Sonora and for a time here. But he soon established a general merchandise establishment in Ozona which he operated until his retirement a few years ago. He was born in Bremen, Germany, August 28, 1866. Mrs. Meinecke is a native Texan, born in Milam.

Baptists Plan 3-Day Series Of Mission Studies

All-Church Week Of Prayer Monday Thru Wednesday Evenings

An all-church Week of Prayer for church missions will be observed in a series of three nightly meetings at the Baptist church here beginning Monday night. The meetings, to which all members and friends of the church are invited, are arranged under auspices of the Woman's Missionary Union of the church.

Men of the church will be in charge of the program at the opening meeting Monday night. At that service, a survey of missionary work among the negro and Mexican population of the state will be given.

New officers of the Woman's Missionary Union will be installed at the Wednesday night service. New officers of the organization were elected at a recent meeting. They are, Mrs. Lowell Littleton, president; Mrs. George Neersta, secretary, and Mrs. S. L. Butler, treasurer. Chairmen of the various committees and departments are expected to be appointed in time for installation at the Wednesday evening program.

Miss Dixie Davidson, Mrs. Mark Garver, Mrs. C. E. Davidson, Sr., and Mrs. Bryan McDonald were San Angelo visitors Monday.

Ozona Lions Journey To Junction Saturday For District Opener

After dropping the season's opener the previous week at Big Lake and being mowed down Saturday in their first appearance on the home ground against the Mertzon Hornets, Coach Ted White's Ozona Lions figure their experience in these two non-district warmers will stand them in good stead when they meet the Junction Eagles in their own nest Saturday for the first district loop contest.

A far superior Mertzon team smothered the Lions 18 to 2 here Saturday afternoon. The services of Howard Lemmons to lug the ball from fullback position and Bobby Lemmons in the center slot were sorely missed in that fracas, but Coach Thurman Saxon of Mertzon had by far the best team Mertzon has ever produced on the field here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe North left Friday for a few days visit in Dallas.

DR. MOORE MARRIED

Friends here have received announcements of the wedding September 2 in Kenedy of Dr. I. Sellers Moore, who formerly practiced medicine in Ozona, and Miss Chrystine Mueller of Kenedy. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Henry A. Mueller. Dr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Midland, where Dr. Moore is now practicing.

55,000 Pounds Of Mohair Sold Here Brings Top Price

52, 60 and 80-cent Price Tags Hung On Hair Of 31 Growers

Thirty-one Crockett county ranchers were jingling approximately $30,000 in their pockets yesterday representing proceeds from sale of their fall clips of mohair after Tom Richey, buyer for A. W. Hilliard & Son, had departed with 55,000 pounds of hair, purchased on order from Boston.

The sale, first of the fall season made by the local warehouse, was in line with the best prices so far paid for mohair, 52 cents for grown hair, 60 cents for yearling and 80 cents for kid.

The limited order took less than half of the amount of mohair in storage in the Ozona warehouse. Apparent strength of market demand for mohair leads observers to the belief that further buying will take the balance of local supplies before the end of the week.

Nearly 300,000 pounds of the new fall wool clip had been stored in the Ozona Wool and Mohair company warehouse the middle of the week, according to Melvin Brown, manager, and additional tonnage is arriving daily. The temporary lull in wool buying set in before shearing got well under way here. Growers in this area, however, are confident of a strong market and possible advances when buying resumes, and are not anxious to sell just now, it is reported.

Ozona Music Club To Buy Bass Horn For School Band

Mrs. Pleas Childress was hostess to the Ozona Music club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bascomb Cox, Jr.

Mrs. Hillery Phillips presided as the leader of the musical program. "Getting Acquainted With Music" was the title of the talk given by Mrs. Paul Perner, with Bill Hannah, Junior club guest, singing a baritone solo. "The Story of the Band" was given by Mrs. Eugene Slater. Mrs. Elton Smith played a cornet solo and a playlet, "Betty and the Brass Choir" was presented.

Mrs. V. J. Pierce arranged a brass ensemble by the Junior club and a "professor quiz" was given by Mrs. H. B. Tandy.

During the business session the members of the club voted to sponsor the buying of a bass horn for the band. They asked the Senior and Junior Woman's club to cooperate with them in the buying of the horn. Miss Ruth Graydon was elected to represent the club on the Fine Arts Program in Brady.

Fall flowers were used in decorations and ice cream and cookies were served.

Present were Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Childers, Miss Dixie Davidson, Miss Ruth Graydon, Miss Rada Anderson, Mrs. Neal Hannah, Mrs. S. M. Harvick, Mrs. G. L. Neersta, Mrs. Victor Pierce, Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mrs. Paul Perner, Mrs. Madden Read, Mrs. Eugene Slater, Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. H. B. Tandy, Mrs. Charlie Williams, Mrs. W. S. Willis and Mrs. R. J. Adams.

TEX STUART RETURNS AFTER A SUCCESSFUL BASEBALL SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Stuart and daughter, Carolyn Rae, returned Friday from Welch, West Virginia, where Stuart has been playing baseball with the Welch Miners for the past few months. They made a tour through the southern states on their way home and visited in San Antonio for several days before returning here.

Andy Trull and J. P. Pogue were in Abilene Monday to attend a meeting of Buick service managers.

An Inclusive "Peace Bloc"

"Let no group assume the exclusive label of the peace 'bloc,'" said President Roosevelt in his address to Congress. "We all belong to it."

He was speaking of Americans and their varying judgments as to the best way of achieving the objective which all desire—namely, avoiding war—but the membership in this peace bloc may be extended to include countless citizens of the belligerent nations. At least as earnestly as Americans desire to prevent involvement must millions of those involved be praying not simply for victory but for peace with justice.

The President's message was temperate and conciliatory, yet firm in tone. It was excellently gauged to inaugurate the atmosphere in which revision of the so-called Neutrality Act of 1935 ought to be considered. It bespoke renunciation of political partisanship. And by conceding the sincerity of the extreme isolationists who defend the arms embargo, it justified similar confidence in the motives of those who believe that lifting the embargo and selling all goods "cash-and-carry" would make for surer maintenance of American neutrality.

On this point Mr. Roosevelt has taken up the burden of essential proof. He has declared it as his deep conviction "that by repeal of the embargo the United States will more probably remain at peace than if the law remains as it stands today." This closer return to the traditions of international law would be accompanied by legislation or executive action insuring that American citizens and American ships keep away from the war zones.

By requiring that belligerents take title to goods before they leave American shores and carry them away in their own vessels, the Administration would avoid claiming those neutral rights which in the past have tended to embroil the United States with warring nations.

Senator Borah and Colonel Lindbergh in their appeals to stay out of foreign wars have painted a picture of the United States as a haven or citadel where civilization may be kept alive. Mr. Roosevelt adopts that picture in his avowal that America must and can be kept at peace. The precise manner in which America keeps that peace will determine in some degree how much of a moral and cultural torch the United States will hold aloft. If either partisan dissension or a false dictatorial unity develops, the light will be dim. And if America's conception of safety becomes so short-sighted or selfish as to facilitate the destruction of civilized institutions the torch will flicker in the winds of violence and world anarchy.

Americans can help the more effectually to forestall such a period and to lift the apparent grip of war from other parts of the world if in their prayers for the wisdom of Congress now meeting and for the safety of their nation from war they will join also in thought the many elsewhere who pray for the earliest possible peace with justice. — Christian Science Monitor.

MANY A "BAMBINO"

Summer statistics point that the campaign of Il Duce to increase the Italian population by encouraging the stork to visit all homes, has been very effective and completely satisfactory. Since it is a patriotic duty to achieve military force and expansion, the Italian parents gave 85 thousand new babies to the army, during June and July. Italy had a declining birthrate these last few years of one million future soldiers. The recent figures indicate that Italy will make up for those million lost "sons of force and might."

Neutrality—A Practical Necessity

Now that Europe is again at war, the question in the minds of every American is, Can America stay out? Or must she join in the chaotic debacle as she did in 1917? Some feel that this country should enter wholeheartedly in a united effort to maintain tolerance and freedom the world over, even if such a course leads to war. They believe that saving the world for Democracy on foreign shores will forestall possible attack in the Western Hemisphere. But actually we have reached the point where American neutrality is a practical as well as an idealistic necessity.

If this nation goes to war, freedom and representative government will automatically end, perhaps permanently. Brief study of "M Day" (mobilization day) recently drawn up by military officials, encompassing the entire economic life of the nation, is sufficient proof of this fact. We will have one-man government in this country from the instant war is declared, just as completely as Germany has been subjugated to the will of one man. Likewise, in view of the present Federal debt, a war would mean ultimate financial chaos—which alone is sufficient to destroy freedom.

The greatest service that this country can render the world today is through maintenance of representative government, tolerance and individual liberty within its own borders. Only by doing that can the arts of peace be preserved and a toehold saved for the rebuilding of world civilization after chaos has had its day abroad.

WE KNEW IT!

The mellow or tart, red or yellow or green apple, whatever be its name, has been proven by a western medical college to "keep the doctor away." It helps to build up resistance against disease and supplies acids necessary to the fighting of germs. Our grandmothers maintained this all along, though perhaps grandma didn't know a vitamin from a New Deal. Pleasant it is to know there is something besides spinach that is good for us.

A Fashion Note

Leave it to the French to give us a stylish note, even in gas masks! The contour of a mask may be business-like and unattractive but the French are making cloth covers to carry their masks to harmonize with the garments of the women. The cases vary for each outfit and no doubt very fanciful in design, as are many French creations. The seriousness of gas masks is rather offset by making their necessity into an occasion for technique in costuming. A serious angle of war broken up with notes of fuss and feathers, fashions and fancy.

Worth Waiting For

A movie comedy showed a bevy of shapely girls disrobing for a plunge in the "old swimming hole." They had just taken off their shoes, hats, coats and were beginning to—a passing freight train dashed across the screen. When it had passed, the girls were frolicking in the water.

An old railroader sat through the show again and again. At length an usher tapped him on the shoulder.

"Aren't you ever going home?"
"Oh, Ill wait awhile longer. One of these times that train's going to be late."

Belgian Astronomer Makes New Study At M'Donald Observatory

AUSTIN, Sept. 27.—One of Europe's leading astronomers has been drawn to McDonald Observatory to probe the heavens for a new form of an old element—"doubly ionized" iron—in collaboration with McDonald's director, Dr. Otto Struve, University of Texas officials have been informed.

Attached to the University of Liege, Belgium, Prof. P. Swings, visiting scientist, recently completed a physical study of the new element in his Belgium laboratory.

Dr. Struve told officials here that his own recent work has indicated that this form of iron is widely distributed in the atmosphere of the stars.

"Professor Swings' study disclosed a special modification of the chemical element, iron, not previously known," Dr. Struve said. "It is designated as doubly-ionized iron, or Fe III.

The two scientists will spend the next few weeks working with the university's giant telescope atop Mt. Locke, Dr. Struve said.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—BUSINESS—Once again the "profit motive" has begun to assert itself strongly, counteracting that "lack of confidence" which has been the chief scapegoat in recent years for failure of U. S. business to blossom forth into full recovery. Risks are present in the stock market as usual, but eagerness for profit has caused investors to pour millions of dollars into it, bidding up the total value of shares listed on the N. Y. exchange a billion dollars in three weeks. The rise was brought about with cash on the line, not borrowed money, bank figures show. This is cash that's long been in "hiding."

August Accident Deaths Drop 58 From July Total

The state highway engineer said today that the month of August reflected a considerable decrease in traffic accidents and fatalities over the previous deadly month of July. July, with its holiday, tourist and vacation travel, had 159 fatalities in traffic accidents, 9 of which were chargeable to previous months, as compared to 112 traffic deaths in August, ten of which are chargeable to July; this, therefore, makes the July figure actually 169 deaths and August 102, as of this date, a reduction of 58 fatalities for August over July. Of the 102 traffic deaths 29 were the drivers of the vehicles, 50 were the passengers in those vehicles, and 23 were pedestrians.

YOU see pictured here the magnificent automobile that valuable is next year's No. 1 car.

That's absolute net. We who dreamed it, built it, tested it, tell you cold-turkey it is Buick at its unbeatable best.

Every one of its 12,000 parts is a better part than we've been able to make before.

Every one of its 44 different types of steel is the finest for its job that money can buy—five of its special alloys were not even in existence 10 years ago.

When this uncatchable smoothie went foxfooting through its paces on the General Motors proving ground, a ripple of wonder ran like quicksilver through the men who watched its going.

You'll feel it—you'll marvel, too—when you feel this incredibly active, staunch, exciting mechanism come alive under your hands—this car that brings to flower the best that Buick knows.

From the velvet velocity of its straight-eight Dynaflex engine to the superb way it handles and answers controls, it's as full of new-day features as an egg is full of meat.

Go see this beauty, drive this dream-come-true! All fire and sparkling spirit, it's a glory of gallantry-and-obedience on wheels.

It's yours for very little more per pound than you pay for a good cookstove.

It's a honey, it's a bearcat, it's a lamb!

Texan Wins Movie Lead

Six years ago a 17-year-old girl walked into the offices of the dramatics department of Texas State College for Women and announced her intentions of becoming a movie actress. Her name was Ardis Ankersen; her home town San Antonio. In a few weeks now Warner Brothers will release "Espionage Agent." The feminine lead will be played by Brenda Marshall, the Ardis Ankersen who has insisted that she would be a movie actress since she was eight years old. Joel McCrea will play opposite her. In college Miss Ankersen was permitted to take advanced dramatics courses while she was yet an underclassman, and she was the only underclassman ever admitted to the College Little Theater.

Methodist Young Peoples Missionary Society Organized

Mrs. Carl Colwick entertained members of the Methodist Young People Society Thursday afternoon with a covered dish luncheon at her ranch home.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ele Hagelstein; vice president, Mrs. Bill Littleton, secretary-treasurer Mrs. Joe Clayton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bill Conklin. Mrs. Colwick is the sponsor.

An agreement to meet on the first and third Thursdays was made among the group. "Weaving Friendship Around the World" is the topic for study during the coming year.

Present were Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. Dempster Jones, Mrs. Ele Hagelstein, Mrs. Richard Flowers, Mrs. J. A. Barrow, Mrs. Bill Littleton, Mrs. Ted White, Mrs. Buddy Moore, Mrs. Bill Conklin, Miss Dorothy Drake, Mrs. Eddie Bower, Mrs. James Baggett, Mrs. Paul Phillips, Mrs. Bill Smith and Miss Johnson.

Lee Wilson and Slim Craven, of the Wilson Motor Co., returned early in the week from Dallas, where they went to get a new Pontiac sedan. They were accompanied home by Mr. Wilson's daughter, Miss Melba Wilson, bookkeeper for Montgomery-Ward's in Beaumont, who will spend a few days here visiting.

Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor of the Ozona Baptist church, who has been holding a revival meeting at Buenavista this week, will return to Ozona the end of the week and will hold regular services at the church Sunday.

Elmo Burman and Troy Stevens of the Stevens Motor Co., local Ford agency, were in San Angelo Wednesday to attend a meeting of Ford salesmen in preparation for announcement of the 1940 model Fords.

New Model Chevrolet To Make Its Bow To Public October 14

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—Chevrolet's new 1940 models will make their public bow on October 14. W. E. Holler, general sales manager, announced here today. The cars, he said, will be shown simultaneously at the national automobile show in Grand Central Palace—where, as volume leader in the industry, Chevrolet again had first choice of space—at the General Motors special showing in the Waldorf-Astoria, at several important local auto shows, and in dealers' salesrooms throughout the country.

In line with the company's experience in recent years, Mr. Holler said, an important part of Chevrolet's announcement advertising has been scheduled in newspapers. Some 6,800 daily and weekly papers from coast to coast are on the schedule, other media being used to supplement and round out this effort. Pre-announcement advertising has already begun to appear, and space will be increased as the new car introduction date approaches.

Formal presentation of its new product, and the selling program for 1940, will be made to Chevrolet's wholesale field organization and the central office sales department staff at the annual national sales convention sched-

Humble Again To Broadcast Games

SW Conference Tentative List Calls For Broadcast Of 35 Games

Humble Oil and Refining Co. today announced that it has again contracted with the Southwest Conference for the exclusive privilege of broadcasting conference football games. This is the fifth consecutive season in which the Humble company has undertaken to bring play-by-play descriptions of outstanding conference contests to radio followers of the game.

In its broadcasts, it was explained, are designed to broaden the interest in Southwestern football and attendance at games, to enable the 14,000 Humble employees to follow the conference as it develops.

Plans for the broadcasting of conference games are thus far only tentative, as actual games to be broadcast are decided on from week to week as the season progresses. These tentative plans, however, call for broadcasting approximately 36 games.

Extensive networks of Texas stations will be used to bring the games to interested listeners. Stations which will carry specific games will be announced on Friday preceding the broadcasts.

A capable staff of play-by-play announcers has been retained to handle the broadcasts. All are familiar with Texas radio football and all are thoroughly acquainted with the Southwest conference teams, the players, the various styles of play.

Among the list in Kern Tips, the name of whose play-by-play descriptions of exciting Southwestern conference football has spread from coast to coast. Tips are known to broadcasting a keen knowledge of football, an ability to describe what he sees on the field, a sharp reportorial pen, a ready wit, five years of play-by-play experience. He is acknowledged to be the peer of any ball broadcaster in the land.

Other popular, active radio personalities.

Hal Thompson and Eddie Dunn, both of Dallas, complete the basic list of play-by-play men. Both are popular, active radio personalities.

STARS OF STATE FAIR SHOWS

Among the attractions which will be seen at the 51st Annual State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7 to 22, are the Holy Land Exhibit, Folies Bergere, the Southern Select Circus and the Rubin and Cherry Shows.

TEXAS OUT-DOORS

JUSTIN. — Despite a drought which reduced the range, deer are beginning to be plentiful and in shape when the hunting season rolls around November 16, reports to the executive secretary of the Texas game, fish and fur commission indicate.

Deer are increasing annually in Lone Star state. In fact, their numbers are so large in some sections that there would have been a shortage of food for them even had there been no drought. This condition has existed over a period of several years and game department biologists, after considerable research, have reached the conclusion that the deficiency of food has brought about smaller deer. Many persons had expressed belief that inbreeding was the cause.

Deer are afflicted with several diseases and are victims of ticks, investigations being carried on by the game department biologists indicate that malnutrition is the cause of most of the deaths of deer, although it was believed by many that ticks were the cause of fatalities.

All in all, and in spite of the drought, deer appear to be in excellent health this fall and are spreading into several counties in the state which had not raised deer for many, many years.

How'd you like to catch a 208-pound gar? That is the thrill of the Children of San Augustine recently while fishing in the Angelina river. The gar, according to the game department's chief aquatic biologist, is the largest reported in Texas.

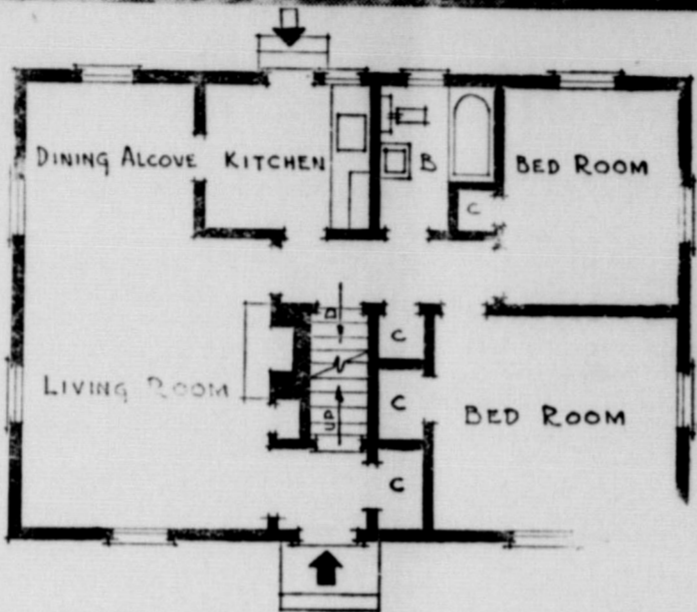

Fighting to keep the waters of the state as free from pollution as possible and having limited facilities, the game department collected a total of $4,385 in fines during the 1938-39 fiscal year as compared to a total of $2,600 during 1937-38, it is reported by the department's director of anti-pollution.

The department's campaign to get oil companies to return the salt water their wells produce to the ground is gaining steady headway, the director announced.

Commendably Simple

The plan for this one-story house is excellent. Both bathroom and kitchen are located in the rear of the home, with plumbing centralized; the two bedrooms each have light entry on two sides as well as complete privacy. The modern trend toward joining the living room and dining alcove is carried out here in conformance with good space-saving requirements. A traditional yet simple exterior completes this well-designed home which was built in Ohio.

• FLOOR PLAN •

More than a dozen companies are now following that practice. When all of them adopt the plan, Texas will have more fish in its streams, the director pointed out.

Sportsmen in most regions of Texas are taking advantage of a bumper crop of doves this season and early indications are that the Lone Star State's nimrods who thrill at following a good dog are going to have better quail hunting than in a number of years.

Reports to the executive secretary of the game department from many sections bear out that statement. As an example, a warden whose headquarters are at Waco, reported he had counted 207 quail in the country roads of his district during a four-day period. Practically all of them were grown except one bunch of 16. Each bird in that covey was about the size of an English sparrow. Farmers are reporting more quail than in years.

Albinos continue to show up in Texas. The latest is a snow-white skunk which has been seen by several persons in Crockett county, the state game warden for that region reports. Several persons have been within two yards of the animal and they believe it does not boast a single black hair. As yet, no one has been venturesome enough to catch the unusual little animal.

Dame Nature has many unusual ways of aiding her children, but one of the most unique is reported by the game department's chief aquatic biologist. The alligator snapping turtle gets part of its food through subterfuge. It sinks to the bottom of a stream or lake and while remaining perfectly quiet, extends its tongue, which has an appendage closely resembling both in size and color an earthworm. Fish swim along, spot the "worm" and seize it, being in turn grabbed by the turtle, which makes a meal of it.

Wasted Effort

Husband (feeling a twinge in the back while he is tuning in the radio): "I believe I'm getting lumbago."
Wife: "Well, tune it out. You won't be able to understand a word they say."

Fred Gipson—

For real adventure, the sort that stimulates a man's mind, makes him feel at peace with the world and his life, does not necessarily require long journeys or entail great risks. It requires only an active mind and a watchful eye.

I know a couple who live cooped up in a small apartment that would smother most of us to death. But they have a fishbowl. And in it are fish and moss and snails. And the snail eats the moss and produces younger snails. And the female fish gives birth to her young, instead of laying eggs. And the male is cannibalistic by nature and must be removed from the bowl, else he'll eat his offspring.

And learning of these things and what to do about them makes for a great adventure in the lives of the couple. Studying the inhabitants of their fish bowl gives them something besides themselves to worry about, provides them with interesting conversation.

I know an old man barely able to hobble out to the barn and back each day. But he does it. Because that trip is an adventure. With constant care and work, he's tamed a bunch of bobwhite quail to come out of the brush back of the barn at a certain time each day for the handful of grain he feeds them. And each day, the old man has a new report to make on his quail. Today, one's missing. Maybe a fox is preying on the flock. Tomorrow, the quail are beginning to pair off. They'll be nesting. Soon, the third day, the crops of the quail are extra full and they're not much hungry for his handout. They've fed well that day.

That old man can tell you more about quail and their habits than most of us know about ourselves.

For each of us there are dozens of adventures to be experienced each day. There's the newsboy overcharged by us and comes running to pay back the penny. There's the early-morning sun glinting on the back of a pesky coyote, just licking his chops after a night's kill and making ready to fade into the brush. There's the old man next door who sits on his apple box, day after day, contemplating his pen of domesticated ducks.

There's the adventure of making coffee for the first time in the new-fangled coffee pot.

There're the wind waves on the pasture grass, running wildly, one after another, one after another, the long grass bowing.

There is the white rainstorm, ripping and roaring and crashing, moving down out of the hills.

There are the white rain lilies, coming afterwards, and the purple-pink ceniza, blooming, then the lacy white of the bee brush, flowering also after each rain.

Adventure! It's all around us, in our homes, on the streets, in the woods. And the man too lazy and too inattentive to see and experience it can expect nothing but to travel the rest of his time right on down the narrow groove he's let his life slip into.

Mrs. Ray Dunlap and Mrs. W. S. Willis were San Angelo visitors Thursday. They were met in Barnhart by Mrs. Dunlap's sisters from Rankin, Mrs. J. T. Dameron and Miss Maggie Taylor, and Mrs. Jasper Edwards.

Tarleton And Tech Claim These

New War Brings Recounting Of Jokes That Relieved Tension In First World Conflict

By BOYCE HOUSE

Even when men's hearts are heavy, they must have their jest—and so the jokes that were told during the first World War are again heard. Thus does the wheel of fate spin about.

One of the classics was the tale of the negro soldier who crept out into No-Man's-Land with a keep-edged razor as his only weapon. Encountering an enemy, the darkey swung at him with the razor. The other smiled and said, "Missed me," to which the negro replied, "You just think I did; wait till you turns your head."

Then there was the Mississippi merchant who told a group of negroes that Uncle Sam was going to put 200,000 colored soldiers in the front line trenches and 100,000 white soldiers in the second line trenches. One of the colored listeners spoke up, "Yes, sah, and 100,000 white soldiers is gwine to be trampled to death."

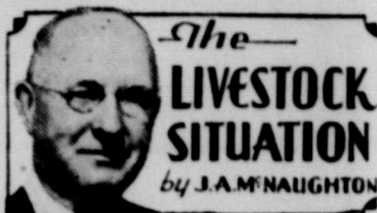

And do you recall the negro who defined "T.N.T." (the high explosive) as standing for "Travel, niggah, travel"?

Then there was an American soldier in Paris who wanted to buy a bottle of eau de cologne but he couldn't think of the French name for it.

Soon after the outbreak of the World War in 1914, a mountaineer rode into an East Tennessee village. The storekeeper told him the news: "Germany and Austria are at war with England and France; Belgium has been invaded; Rumania is in it; so is Russia; it is the biggest war in history."

Then the merchant stopped to hear the mountaineer's reaction. Feeling the eye of everyone in the store on him, the new arrival said: "Well, they got a purty day for it, ain't they?"

P. E. Burlison of Johnson City, was convicted in justice court of giving a bogus check to Richard Miller the first of the week. The fine and check have been paid.

LOS ANGELES UNION STOCK YARDS, Sept. 27 — California livestock markets were temporarily weakened during the past week by a prolonged spell of high temperatures. The meat business is sensitive to changes in weather. During extremely high temperatures, meat sales are inclined to fall off, at least for a few days. With colder weather, the public eats more meat. Thus there has been some temporary decline in cattle and hog prices, but members of the meat trade generally are of the opinion that the livestock markets are definitely on firm ground.

Greatly improved business and industrial conditions, brought on partly by war in Europe, may be expected to stimulate demand for meats. As buying power improves, it is believed likely that the demand for better quality meats will increase, although so far, retail meat demand appears to be centered on the lower costing meats.

Higher prices for hides, wool, tallow, lard and other by-products of the meat packing business are a decided strengthening factor in livestock markets. Livestock producers are carefully watching developments. For the most part, they are hopeful that present prices will be maintained, and many believe that war conditions may tend to cause improvement in the price structure.

On the other hand, livestock feeders are faced with higher costs of production, which may tend to restrict livestock feeding in some areas where feedstuffs have advanced sharply. However, since the first sharp advance in grains and other livestock feeds, the market has reacted somewhat as the realization grows that there is an abundance of most grains and feeds in the country.

Lige Armentrout was fined $1 and costs in justice court on a charge of drunkenness Saturday.

A. W. Jones spent Sunday in San Angelo where he visited a sister.

Jose Diaz, Seferino Fierro, and Jesus Pico paid fines of $1 and costs in justice court this week on charges of drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Miss Alberta Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kay of Fort Stockton, former Ozona residents, is spending the week visiting friends here.

R. F. Powell, who recently underwent an operation in a Temple hospital, is reported much improved. He is expected to be able to return to his home here the end of the week.

Gangster bombings in U. S. leave off while European politicians carry on.

England has a campaign against highway advertising of hospitals.

Over 70 American films were released for exhibition in Japan this year.

Membership Lists Drawn For Circles Of Baptist W.M.U.

Names were drawn for membership in the three circles of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union following the regular program of the organization at the church Wednesday afternoon. One of the circles, the Annie Sallee, completed organization following the drawing, while the other two will organize at meetings Friday afternoon.

The Wednesday meeting's study topic was "Enlistment in Personal Service," with the Annie Sallee circle in charge. Mrs. J. P. Pogue was leader. Mrs. J. W. Keeton conducted the devotional on "Soul Winning."

Mrs. R. J. Adams discussed "The Great Commission and Enlistment." Mrs. Charles Powell talked on the "Three Women," and Mrs. H. C. Townley on the "W. M. U. and the Enlistment Plan." Mrs. Cleophus Cooke's topic was "Ways That Win." Mrs. J. P. Pogue told of enlistment experiences, and Mrs. Childers spoke on "Obeying the Great Commission Through Personal Service." Mrs. R. J. Adams read "Awareness" by Marian Teichner.

Present were Mrs. R. J. Adams, Mrs. J. P. Pogue, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. R. K. James, Mrs. J. M. Cox, Mrs. James Flynt, Mrs. Clyde Childers, Mrs. J. T.
