Ozona Cowboy, Anxious to Fight in Korea, Begins Training As Marine in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. Dec. 22.—A Texas-born Latin - American boy who speaks about 200 words of English begins boot training at the Marine Corps recruit Depot here today.

It's a dream come true for 18 year old Daniel (Pancho) Leal, who until about a month ago was a bronc-buster in West Texas.

And that job takes nerve and stamina, not languages.

"I wanna be a Marine and fight in Korea," he told recruiting Sergeant W. E. Norton in Abilene.

The husky cowboy was born in Ozona, Tex., and he never got beyond the fifth grade in school.

Sergeant Norton wasn't fully aware of Pancho's inability to speak or read English until the eye test.

"Read the first line," The first line was f-l-o-t-d-e-x-c "Floddex," is the word Pancho said.

Norton rejected Pancho, but promised the anxious and disappointed cowpoke he'd "see what he could do."

Pancho's problem finally reached Marine Corps Headquarters in Washington, which granted him an individual and special waiver.

The order went out to find Pancho and sign him up.

When Norton saw the youth the second time the cowboy was told he'd have to shave off his mustache.

"But it's not mine. It belongs to my girl."

He shaved it off.

New Blood Test Period Planned For Next Month

To Announce Dates For Complete Round-Up of Community

A week during the month of January, dates to be decided later, is to be set aside for resumption of the testing of blood samples from Ozona citizens for the purpose of building up a local "Walking Blood Bank."

In a two-weeks period recently in which citizens were invited to have their blood typed as a means of compiling a file for the Walking Blood Bank, a total of 345 persons responded at the Ozona Hospital laboratory.

Mrs. Valentine Melvin, hospital manager, announced this week that another period will be set aside in January, possibly about the middle of the month, in which citizens again may visit the laboratory and have blood tests made.

Particular emphasis is to be placed on adults in the coming campaign, Mrs. Melvin said, since most of the children were typed during the first period, thanks to cooperation in the schools.

The Walking Blood Bank idea was developed as a substitute for the usual type of blood banks maintained in the larger hospitals. With every citizen in the community in the blood bank file, with blood type and RH factor determined in advance, in case of accident or other emergency requiring transfusions, valuable time required to make such tests after the emergency had arisen would be saved. Such a file of blood types would serve in most cases as well as the conventional type of blood bank, which is impractical in a hospital as small as the one here.

Each individual, too, is given a pocket card showing his own blood type and RH factor, which would be information needed in case the individual himself were the victim of an accident, and with this information already obtained, transfusions could be made immediately, at any hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Perner had as holiday guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Allen and Michael from San Angelo, and Mrs. Perner's brother, Willie Odom, and Mrs. Odom, who live in California. The Odoms also visited another of his sisters, Mrs. Bright Baggett.

Hundreds Pay Tribute To Mrs. C. E. Davidson

Body of Pioneer Mother Laid to Rest in Services Friday

Hundreds of friends of Mrs. C. E. Davidson, 78, pioneer Crockett county mother, and widow of the late Judge Chas. E. Davidson who served for more than 50 years as this county's judge from its organization, packed the Ozona Methodist Church Friday afternoon to pay last respects to her memory.

Impressive funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. Troy Hickman, pastor, at the church after which the long funeral cortege followed to the cemetery for the final brief services. Cody Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Davidson died at 6:25 o'clock Wednesday morning at her ranch home 7 miles south of Ozona after suffering a stroke Monday as she was starting to town to mail her Christmas cards and Christmas gift packages. She never regained consciousness.

All of Mrs. Davidson's children were here for the funeral. Last to arrive were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meybin of Roanoke, Va., who were delayed by snow and heavy traffic through Tennessee. Also encountering heavy weather were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Grimmer who came from Winfield, Iowa. The other children were Mrs. Frank McMullan of Big Lake, Mrs. Bryan McDonald of Canyon, Mrs. Mark Garver of Houston, Joe T. Davidson and Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., of Ozona. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. W. P. Seahorn of Ozona, three brothers, Frank and Ned Friend of San Angelo and Harry J. Friend of Ozona, 18 grand children and 6 great grand children.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Junction for Bob Bissett, 70, retired ranchman, who died at 1:30 Sunday afternoon in San Angelo. Burial was in the Junction cemetery beside the grave of his wife who preceded him in death several years ago.

Mr. Bissett entered the ranching business in West Texas some forty years ago, but for the last two years had resided at the St. Angelus Hotel in San Angelo, having retired from active management of ranching interests in Crockett county between Ozona and Barnhart. Prior to ranching he had engaged in paint and paper contracting work. He ranched in the Junction area for some 15 years before moving west to the ranch he operated for about 25 years north of Ozona.

Mr. Bissett raised Rambouillet sheep and Hereford cattle and his interest extended to good cutting horses and Walker hounds. He still had some of the dogs at the time of his death.

Surviving are one son, Bill Bissett, now operating the Bissett ranch in this county with his son, Bob, but now making his home in San Angelo, the mother, Mrs. A. E. Bissett of Junction, two brothers, Frank and Joe Bissett of Junction, and the grandson, Bob Bissett.

Pallbearers were Boyd Clayton of Ozona, Clyde Parry, Gene Linticum and Bode Owens of Barnhart, Paul Campbell of San Angelo, and Johnnie Graham, Cleve Stephen and Odie Wright of Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tallafiero plan to see the Cotton Bowl game Monday in Dallas.

50 Million Goal Set In March Of Dimes Campaign

Beecher Montgomery To Head Local Drive Beginning Jan. 15

Three devastating years of the worst polio epidemic in history have wiped out patient care funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and left unpaid bills of $5,000,000.

Facing the prospect of a continued high rate of incidence of the dread disease, the 1951 March of Dimes campaign is geared to reach a national goal of $50,000,000.

Beecher Montgomery of Ozona has been named Crockett county chairman of the March of Dimes campaign and has announced that plans have been shaped for an intensive local campaign during the official period of the 1951 drive starting January 15 and continuing through the balance of the month of January.

If there are any who wish to make contributions to the March of Dimes out of 1950 incomes, such contributions will be accepted at this time. Mr. Montgomery said.

In the past three years more than 100,000 Americans have been polio victims. This is almost as many as the total for all previous years since the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was started in 1938.

In the past three years more than $58,000,000 in March of Dimes funds have been spent for patient care. At least 25,000 polio cases annually must be expected in the immediate future, as compared to an earlier average of 10,000. National Foundation Chapters help any polio patient in need.

The enormous cost of patient care, in addition to professional training and polio research, is so great that the National Foundation today is $5,000,000 in debt. It is essential that $50,000,000 be raised in the coming campaign, the Foundation has announced.

Bob Bissett, 70, Laid To Rest In Junction Rites

Veteran Rancher Died Sunday Afternoon in San Angelo

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Junction for Bob Bissett, 70, retired ranchman, who died at 1:30 Sunday afternoon in San Angelo. Burial was in the Junction cemetery beside the grave of his wife who preceded him in death several years ago.

Mr. Bissett entered the ranching business in West Texas some forty years ago, but for the last two years had resided at the St. Angelus Hotel in San Angelo, having retired from active management of ranching interests in Crockett county between Ozona and Barnhart. Prior to ranching he had engaged in paint and paper contracting work. He ranched in the Junction area for some 15 years before moving west to the ranch he operated for about 25 years north of Ozona.

Mr. Bissett raised Rambouillet sheep and Hereford cattle and his interest extended to good cutting horses and Walker hounds. He still had some of the dogs at the time of his death.

Surviving are one son, Bill Bissett, now operating the Bissett ranch in this county with his son, Bob, but now making his home in San Angelo, the mother, Mrs. A. E. Bissett of Junction, two brothers, Frank and Joe Bissett of Junction, and the grandson, Bob Bissett.

Pallbearers were Boyd Clayton of Ozona, Clyde Parry, Gene Linticum and Bode Owens of Barnhart, Paul Campbell of San Angelo, and Johnnie Graham, Cleve Stephen and Odie Wright of Junction.

Double Funeral Held For Two Boys Killed In Truck-Bike Crash

Double funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon from the Catholic church in the Latin-American community here for two youths who were killed late Wednesday afternoon when the bicycle on which both were riding was struck by a truck on Highway 163 at the south edge of Ozona.

Claudio Gonzales, Jr., 10, son of Claudio Gonzales, was killed instantly in the mishap and Veda Rivera Ramirez, 12, step-son of Teofilo Alvarez, died a few minutes after reaching the Ozona hospital where he was rushed following the accident.

J. E. Griggs, 41, Odessa scrap iron dealer, driver of the truck, was released on bond following the filing of negligent homicide charges by State Highway Patrolman Hugh Shaw. Griggs told officers that he was driving north into Ozona and did not see the boys on the bicycle. When he felt the impact of the crash he set the brakes on his truck which skidded to a stop nearly 200 feet from the point of the crash. The boys are believed to have been riding on the edge of the pavement going in the same direction as the truck.

A Denver, Colo., rainmaker has inquired if his services might be needed in the Ozona area.

"I am a Colorado geologist who has investigated all the various so-called 'rain-making' processes in use and am therefore better informed on the subject than most people," he declares.

"The people at Cortez (Colo.) are now having the southwest corner of Colorado analyzed to see what can be expected, and they expect to have a project under way covering 5,000,000 acres by the end of January."

"There are possibilities in this process of controlling the precipitation pattern of entire farm regions," the writer declared at another point in his letter.

If the process will produce rain without the presence of clouds, it might have possibilities in West Texas at this time.

Humble to Climax 1950 Broadcasts with Cotton Bowl Game

Climaxing its seventeenth year of Southwest Conference football radio coverage, Humble Oil & Refining Company will broadcast the Cotton Bowl game on January 1, with Kern Tips and Alec Chesser at the microphones.

The description of this fifteenth Cotton Bowl Classic, its prestige at a new high with top-ranked Texas and Tennessee as opponents will be carried over a comprehensive radio network that crisscrosses the state. Twenty-eight stations are listed, including outlets from Waco to Amarillo, and from Texarkana to Orange.

The veteran announcing team for the Cotton Bowl, Tips and Chesser, represent a total of 35 reports between them during the 1950 season alone. Tips will handle the play-by-play account of the contrasting styles of the single-wing Vols and T-formation Steers, and Chesser will describe pregame and half-time pageantry.

Broadcast time for the January 1 game is 1:01 p.m., with the kickoff set for 1:15 p.m.

The list of stations includes, among others, WFAA-WBAP, Dallas-Fort Worth; WOAI, San Antonio; KPRC, Houston; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KGNC, Amarillo; KRBC, Abilene; KGKL, San Angelo; KBST, Big Spring; KCRS, Midland; KBWD, Brownwood; KVKM, Monahans; KRIG, Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Jr., and Tom spent Christmas in San Angelo with Mrs. Kincaid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McDonald. The Kincaids have as guest for the rest of the holiday period, Mrs. Kincaid's niece, Becky Baxter from Comanche.

Premium List For 4th Annual 4-H Show Announced

Plans Perfected for Show and Sale on January 13

Premium lists, classes and exhibitors for the Fourth Annual Crockett County 4-H Club county livestock show were announced this week by County Agent Wm. A. Bergfeld, Jr., 4-H Club sponsor.

Material for the show catalogue has been assembled by Mrs. Frankie Jones and printing of the books will begin this week.

The fourth annual show and sale will be held this year at the Ozona Wool and Mohair Co. on Saturday, January 13.

Around twenty youthful club members will exhibit 106 head of fat lambs and three fat steers in the county show. They will be competing for $106 in prize money distributed over seven classes and engraved trophies and ribbons.

The Ozona Lions Club recently voted a gift of $300 to the 4-H Club for use in purchasing trophies and ribbons and providing the prize money. Each of the handsome trophies will be engraved with the class in which the winner competed and the words, "Presented by the Lions Club, 1951."

Nelson Johnson of San Angelo, one of the best known auctioneers in West Texas, has again consented to cry the auction sale of livestock to be offered for sale by the club boys. A limit of one lamb for each boy has been placed on the number of animals to be offered in the auction sale.

Cash prizes of $15 for first place, $10 for second and $5 for third place are offered in the fat steer division. Trophies are to be awarded winners of the grand champion and reserve champion.

In the lamb division, six classes are listed, fat fine wool lambs, pen of three fat fine wool lambs, fat crossbred lambs, pen of three crossbred lambs, the grand champion and reserve champion of the pens of three, and grand champion and reserve champion individual.

Prizes for the fat fine wool and crossbred lamb individuals are a trophy for first place and $5 each for second, $4 for third, $3 for fourth, $2 for fifth and $1 each for places 6 through 10, and ribbons for all other exhibitors. For the pen of three classes the prize awards will be the same and trophies are to be given for the grand and reserve championships. James Baggett is to be superintendent of the lamb show.

Exhibitors in the fat steer division will be Carl Conklin, showing an Angus steer bred by Abe Caruthers of Ozona; Frankie Jones, showing a Hereford steer bred by Mrs. Milton Gillette of Marfa, and Carroll Stratton, showing a Hereford steer bred by Paul Perner of Ozona.

In the sheep division, exhibitors, with the number of head to be shown by each, are as follows:

Fat Fine Wool Lamb—Gail Garlitz, 3; George Bunger, Jr., 3; Sonny Henderson, 5; Jimmy McMullan, 5; Bill Schneemann, 4; Tom Kincaid, 5; Graham Childress, 9; Carl Conklin, 3; Erby Chandler, 7.

Pen of 3 Fine Wool Lambs — Gail Garlitz, George Bunger, Jr., Jimmy McMullan, Sonny Henderson, Bill Schneemann, Graham Childress, Carl Conklin and Erby Chandler.

Fat Crossbred Lambs — Charlie Black, 3; Erby Chandler, 6; Ronnie McMullan, 8; Frankie Jones, 3; Mike Clayton, 5; Carl Conklin, 3; Brock Jones, Jr., 5; Tom Robinson, 3; Tom Kincaid, 3; Jimmy McMullan, 4; Bill Schneemann, 4; Charles Garlitz, 8; Sonny Henderson, 4; Joe McMullan, 3; Carroll Stratton, 3; George Bunger, 3; and Gail Garlitz, 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pace and Sue and Baggett, of Austin, spent the Christmas holidays here with Mrs. Pace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett.

BRING IN THE BEST BRAINS

Robert Kazmayer, well known lecturer and writer on national and international affairs, recently said, "While there is yet time, the U. S. public ought to clamor for an equivalent of the Hoover Commission to study U. S. foreign situation, to bring the best brains of the nation into one group, Hoover, Baruch, MacArthur, Eisenhower, Taft, six or eight men, to pool their knowledge and experience, decide on what the U. S. must do, what it can do, limits beyond which it probably can't go, what it will take to get out of this drifting, improvising to meet emergencies, to get over onto offensive, with Russia on the defensive."

In more or less normal, peaceful times, it is all very well for the country to be run on the old political basis. But when we are faced with the awful question of actual survival, the party label a man wears is as unimportant as the color of his tie. All that matters is whether he has the intelligence and experience to help save his country and its freedoms during one of the most crucial periods in its history.

It is evident to everyone that Russia has been gradually attaining her world objectives — which is tantamount to saying that she is winning a war, whether it be hot or cold — with almost no expenditure of her own manpower and resources.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Nothing Strange About It, Lefty

The problems we face are incredibly difficult. Yet some sort of solution to all the unanswered questions must be found — and Mr. Kazmayer's suggestion is a fine one. A commission of the best brains we have, regardless of politics or other minor considerations, was never more sorely needed by our beleaguered country.

ADVICE FROM THE ARABIAN

"My son," said Hakeem the Wise to a young man of Baghdad centuries ago, "The Priceless Ingredent of every product in the market place is the honor and integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

Hakeem, the Sage of Baghdad, thus delivered a pronouncement which has rung through the ages, and rightly so. For since the dawn of civilization, cunning men have made themselves prosperous and powerful by bilking their fellows with shoddy and spurious goods, with no thought of the consequences.

In this connection, while the guns were crashing on the ice-sheathed ridges of Korea, the city of Breckenridge, Texas, was offered a federal grant of $700,000 for a 75-unit public housing project. Breckenridge, the seat of Stephens county, has a population of 10,000.

The city council and the city housing authority declined to accept the money. Well, perhaps that is not too unusual, because many other cities have turned down federal housing projects.

But in refusing the project,

Breckenridge gave the government of the United States some advice that would surely have won the commendation of Hakeem the Wise. It asked the government to use that money to "train our citizens and arm our men to fight and protect the freedom of our people against communism and world aggression."

Housing, of course, is very nice to have—and $700,000 isn't much of the U. S. budget. But maybe it could buy a tank or two, maybe a fighter plane or so. In such times as these, a row of apartments would look sort of shoddy by comparison with a Pershing tank or a Shooting Star plane. The Priceless Ingredient was missing in the federal government's offer. And when the government takes a cue from Breckenridge and other patriotic Americans, a lot of other things missing—planes, tanks, ships, freedom . . . missing is also missing in the federal government's offer. Remington adding another to the Stockman's offer.

... so some gentlemen wore dirty shirts!

Daring California's Gold Rush, a clean shirt was worth its weight in gold. Forty-niners gladly paid $1.50 to have a shirt washed . . . and waited weeks for delivery!

Nowadays, you can wash two tubfuls of shirts—or anything else—for one penny. And in minutes! Easier washdays are just one of the many benefits of electric living.

Think about it for a moment. How many jobs has electricity helped you with during the last 24 hours? How many comforts, conveniences, and pleasures has it made possible?

And yet your electric service is today's biggest bargain! It costs the average West Texas family less than a pack of cigarettes a day! Only experienced employees and sound business management can make such a value possible!

Demand Growing for Geology Graduates

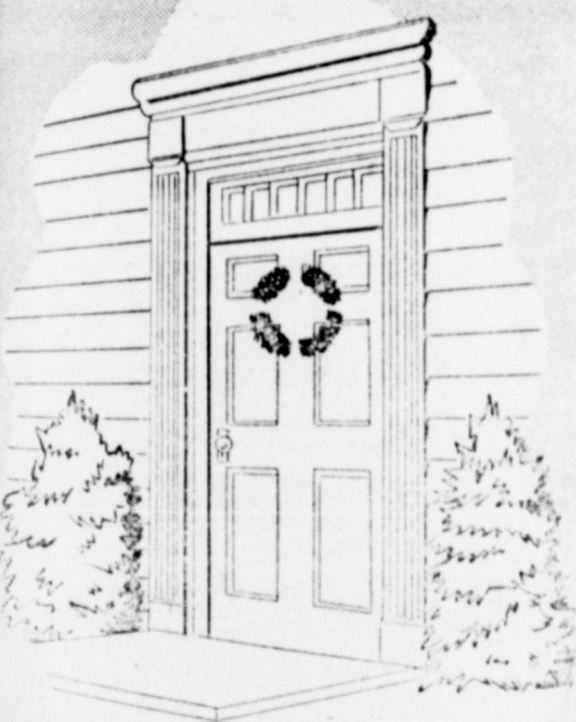

AUSTIN. — Petroleum industry demand for geology graduates is increasing sharply, Arthur H. Deen, chairman of the University of Texas Geology Department, reports. "Since December 1, representatives of three major oil companies have visited the University, interviewing 30 to 50 students, and smaller companies have called in, seeking to fill individual jobs," Deen said. Demand for geologists dropped sharply after World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boothe and two small sons were here from Sweetwater to spend Christmas with Mrs. Boothe's mother, Mrs. B. E. Ingham.

Mrs. T. J. Bailey and Mr. Bailey's brother, football coach at University, left today for North where they will attend family reunion. They will attend the state high school AA football championship game between Austin and Wichita Falls in Dallas Saturday and the Texas-Tennessee Cotton Bowl game Monday.

What Others Say - CAN YOU READ SPORTS? PLEA FOR PLAIN TALK

We have about decided to give up trying to master the sports pages. We conquered T formation, unbalanced line, and a few other relatively simple elements of football jargon, and did it proudly. But, alas, when we pick up the Sunday paper and read that the Longhorns plowed a bloody furrow to eliminate the Ponies, we get completely derailed and confused. By way of explanation, however, we note that Texas is nurtured on loco weed and has a suicidal line; that S. M. U. lost on a faltering hoop to lads with redly flaring nostrils and S. M. U. pitcher Fred Benners often passed while balanced on his ear. Reeling from this verbal barrage we transferred to the M. S. C. Louisiana game, where we discovered that the Tigers operated through the airplanes to chew up yardage; San Francisco exploded to defeat Denver. Southside overcame a deficit and defeated Humes (all in one game); and Notre Dame seamstress-like, took a tuck in its slipping gridiron prestige to defeat Navy. Elsewhere on the gridiron front we saw that Tulsa roared to victory over Oklahoma A.&M.; Army ground out a victory over Boston College; Duke stunned Georgia Tech; and a couple of unknowns huffed and puffed to a tie. Apparently the time is past when two teams ran onto a football field and played four quarters in a contest so uncomplicated that the winning team could merely be said to have beaten. — Lake County (Tiptonville, Tenn.) Accurate and Complete RANCH RECORDS Are More Important Today Than Ever. Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations. The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return. Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume. last call for these bargains!

We think we ought to warn you—time's running out on your chance to buy a Buick at 1950 prices.

So you'd better take a careful look at our prices—and what they'll buy.

They'll buy the thrill of swift, smooth, spirited travel—and trigger-quick power so mighty that few Buick owners have ever pressed it to the limit.

They'll buy sparkling style, spacious comfort and the durable, dependable, time-tested quality for which Buicks are famous.

And when you check what you get for what you pay, you'll make this discovery.

On a pounds-per-dollar basis—which is the engineers' yardstick of bedrock value—no other cars of comparable dimensions can beat a Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER.

Or to be more specific — Buick's straight-eight SPECIAL is priced like a six—and in the ROADMASTER "price class" you can pay 23% or more than you'll pay for this great automobile.

But remember: Our supply of these bargains is limited—so you'd better come in now and see what we have on hand.

Only BUICK has Dynaflow—Drive® and with it goes: HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.)
NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Agricultural Draft from Draft Authorized by Law

Emphasizing that law provides no blanket for farm workers, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, Selective Service director, declared that local boards are authorized by law and regulations to consider each agricultural registrant individually, just as in other cases are considered. Wakefield said that regulations authorized by the President provide for a deferred classification for farm workers only when the following conditions are met to the satisfaction of the local board:

1. The man must be "employed in the production for market of a substantial quantity of those agricultural commodities which are necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest."
2. "The production for market of a substantial quantity of agricultural commodities should be measured in terms of the average annual production per farm worker which is marketed from a local average farm of the type under consideration. The production of agricultural commodities for consumption by the worker and his family, or traded for subsistence purposes, should not be considered as production for market. Production which is in excess of that required for the subsistence of the farm families on the farm under consideration should be considered as production for market." The state draft director observed that "this still doesn't give the complete picture," and added that a man, to be eligible for farm deferment, must also meet the requirements in the section of the Selective Service regulations defining necessary employment. He quoted as follows: "A registrant's employment in industry or other occupation, service in office, or activity in study, research, or medical, scientific or other endeavor shall be considered necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest only when all of the following conditions exist:

- "1. The registrant is, or but for

- a seasonal or temporary interruption would be, engaged in such activity;
- "2. The registrant cannot be replaced because of a shortage of persons with his qualifications or skill in such activity; and
- "3. The removal of the registrant would cause a material loss of effectiveness in such activity."

General Wakefield stressed that deferments based on agricultural and other civilian occupations are not permanent. "They are issued for one year or less," he said, "and local boards have instructions to classify a registrant as available for service whenever the cause for his deferment ceases to exist." He explained that the designation Class II-C is used to indicate those deferred because of agricultural occupation.

No "cheep" sentiment...
We just want to wish you a Happy New Year.

It's a great big dizzy world we live in with more wonderful things happening than any dreamer could possibly conjure in his adventurous mind. And then, too, there are many, many sad happenings . . . sometimes more than we think we can bear. But here in youthful, optimistic, smiling America we're sure that tomorrow will keep its promise of a bright, shiny new world. So here we are waiting for the New Year, wishing all of you the very best in the days to come.

Austin Adds Special Classes for Mentally Deficient Children

Austin Public Schools this week added their link in the chain of school systems organizing special classes for the 35,000 school-age kids in Texas who are not provided for by Gilmer-Aiken laws because of mental deficiency.

G. A. laws provide for "children of educable minds..." and define these as children with an IQ above 70. The Texas Legislative Council Report says there are 35,000 children in Texas who cannot qualify. Yet, educators say that even though these boys and girls cannot achieve the success of the average child, they can be educated. Special classes and teachers are needed for this.

School systems with special classes are found in Brownwood, Dalhart, Decatur, Edinburg, El Paso, Houston, Fort Worth, Marshall, Mineral Wells, Waco and other progressive Texas towns. These regular daily classes for mentally retarded children in Austin came into full swing this week under the direction of the special education department of the public schools.

Army Sends Urgent Plea for Nurses

AUSTIN. — In response to the Army's urgent call for nurses last week, Lt. Col. Augusta L. Short, Fourth Army's Chief Nurse, said today that the headquarters hoped to be able to provide more than 200 from this area within the next two months. An estimated 115 of these women will be Texans.

The nurse shortage, already of grave concern to both military and civilian medical men, was brought into sharp focus last Friday when Brig. Gen. Paul L. Robinson, Army Medical Service Chief of Personnel, told a Washington nursing conference that 3,000 nurses must be obtained at once for service with the Army Nurse Corps.

Army Nurse Corps procurement has averaged 175 nurses per month for the last four months," General Robinson told the nursing officials. "This is unusually high procurement — but it is not enough. Without your immediate assistance, I hesitate to predict how we will be able to provide nursing care for the thousands of casualties returned to the U. S."
