Plan Red Cross Roll Call Drive Opening Nov. 13

Rev. Slater Head Of Mercy Organization Member Canvass

Preliminary plans for the annual Red Cross Roll Call drive here were made this week in a meeting of local chapter officials with C. E. Heaton of Austin, special Roll Call representative for the American Red Cross, who is visiting towns in this area to go over plans with chapter officials for the annual membership campaign.

Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Methodist church and Roll Call chairman for the past two years, will again act in the capacity. A. W. Jones is chapter chairman.

Approximately the same corps of workers volunteering for solicitation work in past years will be employed in this year's campaign, Rev. Slater indicated. A meeting of workers will be called within the next few days, the chairman said, to organize the work and divide the territory for the most efficient canvass by the workers.

Anticipated heavier demands on the world-wide Red Cross organization this year, due to the call from warring nations abroad, has spurred American directors of the organization to issue a call for a 100 per cent enrollment this year. The American Red Cross has already made an appropriation of a million dollars for aid to the war suffering and seasonal needs of the winter months in the home field will make new funds sorely needed.

Workers this year will be asked to concentrate their efforts toward a 100 per cent enrollment of every community, rather than the solicitation of large donations. Memberships of $1 each are divided half and half between the national organization and the local chapter. Larger donations go largely to the local chapter, 50 cents from each membership of whatever amount going to the national body.

ONE THING and THEN ANOTHER

By FRED GIPSON

SAN ANGELO.—I step around the corner, just in time for a running school kid to drive straight into me, bang his head against my hip, lose his balance and fall spinning, to land flat on his back. I hear a definite crack when his head hits the hard pavement.

Yet, before I can reach down to pick up a badly hurt child, the little rascal's bounded to his feet and, with an apologetic "Didn't aim to hit yuh, Mister," scampered on up the street.

I stand and stare at him in amazement for a moment, then walk on, wondering what it is that takes care of harum scarum boys until they get old enough to take care of themselves.

And I get to thinking back over my own life. And suddenly, right off, I can remember a dozen times that I ought to have died as the result of the fool stunts I've pulled, yet didn't.

There's that day I was coming home from Sunday school and some boys were swinging on a long chain swing hanging from a tall pecan tree and they bet me I couldn't swing and jump as far out into the creek as they could.

And I showed them. I got way back up on the bank, took a good run, and soared out over the creek bed. On out and up I went, until I was over the road crossing. Then I turned loose. And I landed farther out than anybody—but flat on my stomach.

That fall would kill me today. But then, I merely walked half-

Winged 'Wooden Horse' Carries Soviet Gunners

The wooden horse of Troy has a modern counterpart in this military transport plane of the mighty red army of Soviet Russia. Carrying 16 men armed with machine guns in wing compartments, these planes fly to a point behind enemy lines, where the gunners are dropped by parachute. A fleet of these planes can land a sizable army in a very short time.

Committee Plans Revival Of Boy Scout Activity

New Leader To Be Selected At Meeting Here Today

Stimulation of renewed interest in Boy Scout activities will be the objective when members of the local Boy Scout committee meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Ozona National Bank for the purpose of selection of new Scout leaders and discussing plans for the new season's activities.

A new Scoutmaster is expected to be named at the committee meeting to succeed Gene Hollon, who has been the sparkplug of the local troop activities for the past two years. Mr. Hollon is not severing his connections with the local Scout movement, it was explained by committee heads, but his school duties and extra studies will not permit him to give the time to Scout work necessary for such leadership. He will continue to assist in the work, it was explained, and will give as much time as possible in helping out the new leader to be selected by the committee.

Several suitable Scout leaders have been under consideration by committee heads, and several have indicated that they will assist in the work.

Friends Eulogize Father Of Ozonan In Funeral Rites

Funeral services were held in Mount Vernon, Texas, Wednesday afternoon of last week for A. L. Mahaffey, 84, father of Mrs. I. G. Rape of Ozona, who died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. M. A. Bolin in Dallas at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Services were held with Rev. Witt, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. A number of friends spoke during the funeral service, one of these being George McCalley, a life long friend of Mr. Mahaffey. Burial followed under an oak tree in the family burial plot.

Mr. Mahaffey had been ill for about five weeks. He was the last of his immediate family to die. Mr. and Mrs. Rape attended funeral services.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. A. L. Mahaffey, Dallas; five daughters, Mrs. N. B. Talley of Mount Vernon, Mrs. M. A. Bolin of Dallas, Mrs. W. E. Williams of Nacogdoches, and Mrs. Rape of Ozona; Wright Mahaffey of Houston, G. W. Mahaffey of Dallas, Morris Mahaffey of Dallas and Ruell Mahaffey of Mount Vernon, his sons.

Mr. Mahaffey was well known to many Ozonans.

Hollon's Cubs Beat Sonora In Spirited Contest Here Tues.

Coach Gene Hollon's Ozona Cubs larrupped the Eldorado Eaglets, 13-0 Tuesday afternoon on the local field.

Tom Ed Montgomery scored in the second quarter from a fake pass. In the third quarter Tom Ed scored again on a pass from G. W. McDonough and the extra point was made by J. H. Stevens. Outstanding players on the line were Dick Lee McDonald and Jimmy Read with Tom Ed Montgomery and G. W. McDonough holding the back field and J. H. Stevens being exceptionally strong in defense. Several good lateral plays were made with three out of six passes being completed.

The pep squad leaders and their squad deserve credit in urging their team on in the fight.

The Cubs have won three out of four games played during the season.

Lions Seek To Stem Invasion From Mason Sat.

Locals Still Courting Victory Goddess In Current Season

Ozona High School's luckless Lions, still looking forward to a win this season and three sturdy rivals coming up from which to extract such a win, face the first of the remaining trio on the home field next Saturday afternoon.

At 2:30 next Saturday afternoon, the Lions will make another bid for the favors of the elusive goddess of victory when they tangle with the reputedly tough Mason brigade. The Lions will go into this tussle with a long rest. They battled to a 6-6 tie with the Menard Yellowjackets two weeks ago, once more losing this time on penetrations. They enjoyed an off-day last Saturday and should be in fine trim for Saturday's game with Mason.

After the Mason game, only one more home contest remains on the Lion calendar, the Armistice day game with the traditional rivals, the Sonora Bronchos. The Lions will close the season November 18 with the strong Eldorado Eagles at Eldorado.

Game Tournament Planned To Aid Band Horn Fund

Plans were announced this week by the Ozona Music club for a game tournament to be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Ozona Tuesday evening, Nov. 14. Proceeds from the evening's entertainment will go toward paying for the bass horn to be purchased for the high school band.

Bridge, forty-two, ching chess, rummy and other games will be played. Admission charges will be 25 cents per person. Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

Soldiers Swell Sunday Evening Church Crowds

Sunday evening churchgoers in Ozona found unusually large crowds at the various churches Sunday night. The reason was that the Army had come to town again, and again some 1700 strong. Dozens of the young soldiers, just returning to San Antonio camps from army maneuvers in the Balmorea area, made their way into the three churches of the city for the evening services Sunday night.

The troops were on the move again before daylight Monday morning.

J. P. Bats Over 1000 With 32 Defendants In 31 Days Of Oct.

Justice of the Peace W. M. Johnigan batted better than 1,000 during the month of October, with one more than a defendant a day filing through his tribunal for judgment on misdemeanor charges.

During the 31 days of October, Justice Johnigan assessed fines against a total of 32 defendants on a variety of charges, ranging from vagrancy to drunkenness and assault, with some speeders in the list.

The last fine recorded in October was Buck Barker of Junction, who drew a fine of $1 and costs on a charge of drunkenness.

Formal Opening Of Enlarged Store Is Planned by Williams

An enlarged store, swelled to almost twice its former size by acquisition of additional floor space formerly occupied by the Corner Barber Shop, will be thrown open to customers and friends in a formal opening by the J. H. Williams & Son grocery in the L. B. Cox building Saturday.

In celebration of the enlarged quarters, the management is throwing a "party" Saturday morning to which everybody is invited, with refreshments planned for all who call. In further celebration of the expansion, a store-wide "Expansion Sale" has been announced for the weekend with prices unusually low on hundreds of items as a special inducement to get customers in to see the new arrangement and enlarged stock of merchandise.

The store, which now occupies the entire area of the big Cox building, has been completely refinished inside, with new flooring in the newly acquired floor space and walls, ceiling and woodwork repainted.

Schools Join In Statewide Safety Week Observance

In line with a state-wide program of safety education being sponsored by the department of public safety at Austin and various safety organizations over the state, Ozona public schools are this week observing Safety Week, with special attention being paid in all classrooms to safety information.

This announcement was made this week by Supt. C. S. Denham. Classroom talks are being given throughout the school on various phases of the safety campaign, with particular emphasis being placed here on highway safety and rules of safe conduct about the town and on town streets. In the lower grades, safety posters are being made and safety rules studied.

Many Ozonans See Angelo-Sweetwater Grid Game Friday

Football games and cold weather naturally go together and both were prominent features in San Angelo Friday night when almost 40 people of Ozona journeyed up to see the San Angelo Bobcats mauled by the Sweetwater Mustangs.

Among those going to the game from here were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ted M. White, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dudley and children, Jim and Gem Ella; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan C. Townley, Mr. and Mrs. Marbury Morrison and son, Chappo; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Trull, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Jones, Haskell Leath, Miss Thelma Dobbs, Elmo Burman, L. D. Kirby, Vic Montgomery, Bud Kincaid, Joe Couch, Vernon Donald Wilson, Charlie Coates, Lloyd Coates, Jack Collins Coates, Elizabeth Coose, Mary Bess Parker, and Betty Lou Coates.

Discount Brings Record Tax Here For First Month

Taxpayers Of Crockett Hand In $76,471.37 During October

Crockett county taxpayers broke all records for prompt payment of taxes this year when they handed in a total of $76,471.37 in state, county and school property taxes during October, the first month of the tax paying period, according to totals compiled yesterday in the office of W. S. Willis, sheriff and tax collector.

A discount of 3 per cent on the total tax bill of each taxpayer, granted by state, county and schools for payments made during the first month, accounted for the unusual spurt in October payments. By taking advantage of this discount, the taxpayers who paid in the $76,471 realized a saving of more than $2,000 on the year's tax bill.

An idea of the popularity of the discount plan may be gained by a comparison of payments during the first month this year and total collections at the end of October last year. Last year, when no discount was offered, October payments totalled only $2,950.57, Claude Russell, deputy in the office of Sheriff Willis, declared.

In fact, the month of October brought in approximately half of the anticipated year's collection, which will amount to $140,789.52 if 100 per cent collection is made on total assessments.

In the opening month period, a total of 55 poll taxes were paid this year against only 13 last year.

The total property tax collection represents payments of 180 taxpayers.

The discount plan will be carried through the first three months of the taxpaying period, with the discount being lowered each month. A saving of 2 per cent of the tax bill can be realized by those who pay during November and in December the discount will be 1 per cent. Payments after December 31 will earn no discount. Taxes must be paid on or before January 31 or become delinquent, unless paid on the split payment plan, under which half of the tax can be paid in the fall and the second half before June 30.

Interest High As Dr. Carver Opens Revival

Harlingen Minister Is Holding Services at Baptist Church

With interest already built up to a high pitch through a series of services which began Monday, Dr. Douglas Carver of Harlingen spoke to a large congregation in the Ozona Baptist church Wednesday night in his first sermon in the current revival meeting series here.

"The Heart of the Gospel" was Dr. Carver's opening sermon topic, in which he used the parable of the Prodigal Son as exemplifying God.

Rev. Clyde Childers, pastor, who with Rev. Taft Holloway of Sanderson, has been doing the preaching during the opening days pending Dr. Carver's arrival, declared Wednesday that prospects were good for one of the best meetings in the history of the local church, with interest and attendance unusually good for the opening services.

Dr. Carver yesterday announced a few of the subjects on which he will speak during the first few services of the revival. Tonight's (Thursday) subject will be "Spending a Night With Jesus." Friday night, the minister will speak on "The Young Man Who Forgot." The subject for the Saturday evening service will be "A (Continued on Last Page)

Russia the Winner

One school of thought holds that the war in Europe inevitably becomes a stalemate—that British seapower and German airpower will just about offset each other in effectiveness, and that neither Germans nor Allies will be able to make important gains through the great lines of fortifications on the Western Front.

It has long been said that the only winner in a protracted European war will be Russia. And during the brief time this war has been fought, it is apparent that Stalin has achieved the only major victories.

Today it seems certain that Russia holds the balance of power. She can stop Hitler cold in his northern advance—she holds Germany at her mercy when it comes to many essential supplies.

Also of great importance is the current attitude of Italy. No longer does the controlled Italian press heap Hitler at every opportunity and revile the French and British.

YEAHI MANI

Patriotic Partisanship

Raymond J. Kelly, national commander of the American Legion, recently gave the nation fine advice when he said: "If you must become partisan, let it be solely an aggressive partisanship for the American way of life."

There is one great issue in the world today—an issue which transcends partisan politics, ethnological differences and geographical boundaries. That issue is freedom. Of all the great nations on this troubled earth, we alone still possess that freedom for which our forefathers fought and bled and died.

There are those in this nation who would use the world emergency to place lasting shackles upon the American people. They work by devious means—a clear and knowing eye is needed to detect them.

Texas Tax Bill Greater Than Its Cash Crop Value

DALLAS.—Total amount of taxes paid by the people of Texas during the fiscal year 1938 was equivalent to more than the value of all the field and non-field crops produced in the state that year.

The new tax publication for Texans, published by The Taxpayers Research Bureau, Dallas, and edited by Peter Molyneux, widely known journalist, author, and economist, with Booth Mooney as associate editor, points out these facts in its first regular issue, dated Nov. 1.

The total tax bill of Texans for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1938, was not less than $454,000,000. The Taxpayers Digest explains, while the combined value of all state crops, all wool and mohair, and all cash income from cattle and calves amounted in 1938 to $452,200,000.

"The revenue of the state government of Texas raised by taxation during that period amounted to $111,650,527," the paper says, "and that of all the local governments of the state amounted to $120,283,286. The Taxpayers Research bureau estimates the federal taxes paid by the people of Texas during that year as not less than $221,600,000, an extremely conservative estimate. The total of these figures is $454,000,000, and certainly the 1938 tax bill of the people of Texas was not below that sum."

Value of all the crops produced in Texas in 1938 was $324,400,000, that of all the wool produced that year was $19,100,000, that of all the mohair was $6,750,000, and cash income from cattle and calves amounted to $101,950,000.

"The total of these figures," The Taxpayers Digest concludes, "is $452,200,000. That is $1,800,000 less than the tax bill paid by Texans during the 1938 fiscal year."

"The average man, we are told, works one day a week for the government—unless, of course, he is on the government payroll."

Chevrolet Reports Lively Demand For Its 1940 Model Car

DETROIT, Nov. 1.—Public demand for the new 1940 Chevrolet, introduced in the company's 8,600 dealerships throughout the country Oct. 14, has hit a record high for immediate post-announcement orders, it was announced here today by W. E. Holler, general sales manager.

Mr. Holler reported that the new cars have won instant approval of the car-buying public, interest being expressed not only in the offerings as a whole, but in individual models of the most comprehensive line ever introduced by Chevrolet.

"Never before in my experience have I seen such a heavy demand for all models of the new car," Mr. Holler said. "The unusually strong backlog of orders built up during the pre-announcement activities has been further bolstered by purchasers who were simply waiting to get a glimpse of the new car before selecting model and color."

Ozona Store Expanded to One of Largest In West Texas

Expansion Sale Announced For This Week-End

Management Offers Special Prices To Show Stock

Painting, new flooring, and moving has been the work taking place in the L. B. Cox building during the past three weeks when J. H. Williams and son, Troy, leased the south side of the building and removed the partition to expand their grocery store to almost twice its former size.

In celebration of the enlargement of the store, an Expansion Sale has been announced for this weekend in connection with the formal opening of the greater store. In order to induce friends and customers of the firm to visit the enlarged quarters and see what improvements have been made, special prices on a large number of items are offered in this sale.

J. H. Williams and his family moved to Ozona from East Texas eight years ago and opened a small, one-room grocery store and filling station where the Frank James home is now located. A year later he rented the north half of the Cox building and operated both places until Christmas, 1934, when the south store burned. Since then he has had all his stock at the present location.

The main division of the new store contains the groceries with the back being given entirely to the meat department. A basement measuring the same floor space is used to store excess quantities of food stuff while another section of the building in the rear is occupied with feeds, grains and hay.

Employees have increased from Mr. Williams, Troy and Ben Williams, the latter now operating a store of his own in Alpine at the present, to seven. These men are S. A. Coose, James Evridge (Slim) Davidson, Sid Petty, Leonard Boyd, Horace Lee Richey, Damon McClarey and Griffin Miller, meat cutter. The formal opening will be Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Coffee and sandwiches will be served to all visitors.

Home Products Or Packing House Meats Offered By Williams

Home products or factory products—which do you prefer? The meat department of the J. H. Williams and Son grocery store provides both. Troy Williams and Griffin Miller butcher livestock and buy eggs, milk and butter from people in this county for those who like home materials in addition to that bought from the Swift and Amour packing houses in Fort Worth and Chicago. These food stuffs are well kept in the 8x7 foot self-serving Frederick Air Refrigerator that was installed almost 17 months ago. Meat cuts are shown in a 16-foot display case.

TATTLING

By C. MAYE DUNLAP

Spooks and goblins paraded the streets and highways until the wee hours Halloween night haunting homes, and leaving their futuristic designs all over the windows over the town.

Another group, girls this time, were seen on the main street rolling a barrel and singing "Beer Barrel Polka."

Even the park signs were missing until the following morning when one of them was found on church steps, and one away off in Barnhart.

It was told that Gene Drake, Tommy Kirby and Johnny Boyd enjoyed a nice, quiet walk, not even chaperoned with spirits, from the three mile bridge east of town.

Axel grease, mud, eggs and rotten tomato slinging was in order for quite a little time but was soon given up for letting air out of tires and door bell ringing.

But it was all in fun and spooks only have one night a year so everyone can live happily until next October 31.

September Livestock Shipments Increase; 10,509 Cars Moved

AUSTIN, Nov. 1.—Texas ranchers shipped nearly a fourth more livestock on a carload basis during the same month last year, The University of Texas bureau of business research reports.

All classes of livestock gained substantially as the equivalent of 10,509 rail cars moved to both interstate and intrastate points last month. Only 949 cars were shipped to Texas points.

Largest out-of-state shipments of cattle went to Illinois and Iowa; calves to Illinois and Kansas; swine to California and sheep to Kansas and Missouri.

On a rail car basis, 72,570 cars of livestock have moved from Texas during the first nine months of 1939 as against 70,504 during the corresponding period last year.

OPEN LETTER TO A BOOR ON WHEELS

Some day, my ill-mannered friend, you are going to go too far. Some day, when you swerve around a street corner, you are going to clip the buttons off the wrong pedestrian's vest, and he is going to catch up with you, haul you off your comfy upholstery and deal you the smacking-down you deserve.

And what's the reason for this breakneck rush of yours, anyway? You're in an automobile. You'll arrive at your destination 10, 15 or 20 times quicker than the pedestrian you're crowding back onto the curb.

The automobile, it seems, is the devil's gift to the Little Man. Put him in control of a motor car and he's cock o' the crosswalks. But if you suddenly yank that ton or two of iron and steel out from under him, you'd find him just a measly nonentity with the mental setup of a grammar school bully.

A Piece of BALING WIRE and a "GREASE GUN"

Time was, when an automobile owner could keep his car chugging right along if he used a "grease gun" at fairly regular intervals and kept a coil of baling wire under the front seat... But then days, as the saying goes, is gone forever... Today's automobiles are too complex in their requirements to run right and look good unless they get an expert's care... And that's why Humble Service Stations are so completely equipped and Humble Station salesmen are so carefully trained. The salesman, using the equipment at his disposal, can give your car expert attention. He knows, in other words, which kind of lubricant to use where, he knows the right grade of motor oil for your car, he can tell you things about spark plugs and batteries, he can supply you with a gasoline that's second to none in performance... It will pay you to shift the care of your car to his shoulders. Begin today; stop for service at the nearest Humble sign.

way home before I could get back the wind that was knocked out of me. But I didn't mind. I'd shown them.

There was the day Rosal Sanders and I dared each other to drop from the old swinging bridge across that same creek, just down a ways from the swing. We dropped. I hit my chin on my knees when I landed—and bit completely through my tongue.

There's the time I undertook to show the Little Brother how Tom Mix could swing off his horse onto an over-hanging tree branch and swing himself right upon top of it, all in one motion.

I'd tried it twice, from the back of a little flea-bitten grey mare I used to ride. And it worked fine. But when I called the Little Brother to watch the act, something went wrong. I landed flat of my back on the rock-littered ground below.

The Little Brother had to run, squalling, to the house and get Mama to come pour water on me and bring me around. But the next morning, the only effect of my fall that was evident was a knot on my head about the size of a hen egg. It was very painful, but it soon went down.

Then there's the time I tried to ride Shorty in from the pasture without the bridle. I'd forgotten it. Shorty was an old roping horse of some renown in those parts. But he was gentle. I could catch and ride him anywhere. That morning I walked up to him, got a fistful of his mane, set my bare toes against his knee, and swung up.

All went fine for awhile. I could slap Shorty on the neck and turn him. Then the rest of the horses I was driving took a notion to run. And Shorty got the same notion. And I had no way to hold him.

I stayed with him on that mad run about half the way home. But finally the mesquites got to whipping me too fast and too hard. I had to quit him. I landed square in a grassburr patch, rolling. I was trying to pick grassburrs out of myself for better than two weeks afterwards.

These are just a few incidents, characteristic of those in the life of any live-wire kid. Yet only once did I really get hurt. That was the time I was chasing a calf and the calf turned and I tried to wheel the pony I was riding on a flat rock that was slick with rain.

And I came out of that spill with only a broken leg.

As a religious man, I don't reckon I rate very high. But I find myself firmly convinced that there's a Guardian Angel or something that watches over fool kids.

THE LAMENESS OF AN EXCUSE

Now and then everyone has to make excuses, some necessary excuses and some unnecessary ones, most of them being unnecessary. No sooner does little Johnnie walk into the band house, that is, if he is late, than he begins excuses with the words flowing from his mouth with the gracefulness of a cow chewing her cud! "Well, mama couldn't awake me; er—that is, I could not be awakened. Anyhow, when I finally jumped out of bed (well, I didn't exactly jump, I kinda-sorta-fell out), there was no hot water to wash in, so I went down to the cellar—" and at this point little Johnnie takes another deep breath so that he can make his entire speech out of one sentence. Then he continues, "well, when I got that water heater fixed, it wouldn't no more heat water than a ten-year-old teakettle, and so I ate breakfast, and I got ready to come to school, but my coat had a hole in it, so mama couldn't find the thread. Honest, it wasn't my fault, dear teacher, and I bet you can see it my way just as easy as pie."

Of course, this is rather a childish example of the lameness of an excuse, but the point is made clear. Now, let's proceed to help little Johnnie next time he is late. When he is late, he should come in with a grin on his face, because everyone will be grinning at him. He should show the other students that it doesn't hurt him to be late, and that he realizes his being late is his own fault. If this is to be prevented he must prevent it himself. No one cares whether or not he is late. No one will help him. He must, and probably will, do it himself.

PECANS
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
NEW LIBRARY MATERIAL
Have you pecan-eaters stopped to think how much trouble a small piece of a pecan can make to the custodian of OSH? For example, if a piece of a pecan is dropped on the floor, it becomes a greasy spot. In order to remove the spot, the custodian must rub the spot with naptha and, in doing so, the wax from the floor is also removed. He must then re-wax the floor to conceal the one small spot. This consumes much of his time and gets expensive after so long a time. All this trouble to the custodian and expense to the school can be avoided by eating your pecans outside.

A meeting to organize a high school chapter of the Texas Historical Society in Ozona will be held Tuesday, Nov. 7. Any student who is interested in history or civics is eligible for membership. The Ozona chapter will be one of the first groups to organize in Texas. Such an association would be a step in organizing high school students for historical research. The officers to be elected are president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer. The major purpose of the chapter is to promote the collecting and preserving of materials of historical significance in Crockett county.

The high school library had about 130 back numbers of the National Geographic Magazine. As the material in these magazines was not readily accessible, the magazines are being sent to the Stockman office, where the backs are cut from them. The articles are being placed in manila folders and will be stapled to the folders. Some 750 of these articles are to be placed in a steel file cabinet in the high school library. The work is being done by Elizabeth Coose, office secretary.

Pecan Hulls Produce Work For Custodian

Greasy Pecans Make New Varnish Job Necessary

When asked what the worst habits the students had that messed up the building, Musty Casbeer named several, and said that these could be lessened with a little co-operation from the student body. Pecan hulls cut the linoleum on the floor and leave a greasy spot that, when removed, makes a new coat of wax necessary. Chewing gum sticks to the chairs, the floor, the wall, or almost anywhere else that a frantic pupil decides to hide it. Musty said that when the naptha takes up the gum that it also takes up the varnish, and another waxing job is in order. Ink is not such a work-producing thing. If it is noticed soon enough, water will take it up. Very little ink is spilled over the building. Greasy hands placed on the glasses and walls leave marks that have to be taken off. Since the school grounds also have to be taken care of, Musty asked that students throw no more paper out of the windows. Climbing over fences tears up plants, weakens fences, and makes a new paint job necessary. When someone swings the gym door, the hinges are loosened. Please notice these little things that make the job of custodian harder, and that take so little care to eliminate.

Masked Figures Lurk On Corners Hallowe'en Night

Hallowe'en! A night on which witches, with black cats, ride swiftly across the moonlit sky. A night when skeletons rattle their bones and place their icy fingers around the warm necks of people who are alone. A time when the ghosts of the people long dead, rise from their graves to lurk on dark corners to victimize any unsuspecting person. On this night weird sounds fill the air and horrible faces appear at windows to send cold shivers scurrying down the backs of people. This is the younger generation's idea of Hallowe'en. The "grown up" consider Hallowe'en as being only for children, but years ago they thought differently. In that time Hallowe'en was called the Vigil of Hallowmas of All Saint's Day. The people lit huge bonfires and donned weird masks and costumes in order to scare away the demons and ghosts that Saman, the lord of death, was supposed to send out. As people grew older they found that their beliefs were but silly superstitions. Even though they gave up these superstitions, they still wore masks and costumes. They have added to this parties and the playing of pranks. You might not have seen real ghosts, witches and goblins on previous Hallowe'ens, but you better beware, for they might come back.

DRIVER'S LICENSES

The sophomores and freshmen seem to have had a driver's license craze last week, contacting Mr. Willis, and applying for their driver's licenses. Tuesday, Oct. 24, they received permission from Mr. Denham to leave school and go to the court house. Applications with name, age, weight, height, etc., were filled out. First, the applicant's father or guardian had to sign, if the applicant was under 18 years of age. The pupils from 12 to 18 had to have a written statement from the judge before they could apply for their licenses. Patrolmen Shaw and Crowe, after checking the applications, gave the pupils the test. Some questions, which all drivers must know, were asked. After passing this, the applicant took the main test. Each had to drive Patrolman Shaw around town or out a road to test his own driving. If one passed all of these tests, then he was given his driver's license, which meant he was a full pledged driver. Facts every driver should know: (Continued on Page Seven)

HUNTERS CHASE BLACK CATS FOR PRIZE

The H. E. girls and their dates were entertained with a scavenger hunt, last Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The guests met at the home of Margaret Russell. Among the hunters' list were to be found two needles (one threaded with black and one with orange thread), a wedding ring, 1938 license plate, horseshoe, rabbit's foot, negro doll, Mr. Hubert Baker's signature, seventh grade diploma, white chicken feather, picture of a bride from a magazine, milk bottle top "Grade A", one raw carrot, two red apples, thimble full of ashes and a live black cat. The hunters were given one hour to get 16 items. The first to get back with everything were Rozelle Pharr and Leslie Nance. Jr. The prize package was then given to the winners; when Rozelle opened the package, beautifully wrapped and tied, she found only two penny suckers for all her trouble. The guests were then served doughnuts and the two apples that they got from the hunt. Those present for the event were Jean Drake and Howard Lemmons, Johnny Boyd and J. K. Colquitt, Dorothy Hannah and Jim Dudley, Ella Carson and Miles Pierce, Gladys Jean Willis and Joe Couch, Helen Mayes and Roy Henderson, Jr., Billy Jo West and W. B. Robertson, Mary Louise Perner and L. B. Cox, III, Lottie Jo Owens and Dick Henderson, Joy Coates and Tom Ed Montgomery, Rozelle Pharr and Leslie Nance, Jr., Priscilla Jean Baker and Bobby Lemmons, Ethel Mayes and Roy Coates, Margaret Russell and Bill Carson and Eddy Cooke.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

There was a football game Monday afternoon between the Ozona Cubs and the Sonora Mustangs. The ball game started at 3:30. The pep squad was 100 per cent in attendance. The touchdowns were made by Tom Ed Montgomery and G. W. McDonough. Junior high and high school pupils from Mrs. Hannah's class in piano have organized into groups. Two clubs have been organized of pupils from the piano class of Mrs. Hannah for the purpose of the study of harmony and music theory. In the high school group are W. B. Gray, Aleane Hokit, Rosalie Lemmons and Freda Sarguy. The Junior High Glee club met last Wednesday in Mrs. Adams' studio in the basement of the grammar school. There were 39 present. Odds and Ends

The third year H. E. girls gave a, Hallwoe'en buffet luncheon Tuesday in the home economics department. Hallowe'en colors, orange and black, and ideas were carried out in the menu and decorations. The menu consisted of Dixie ham, sweet potatoes, string beans, celery broomsticks, peach salad, hot rolls, ginger bread and whipped cream, and iced tea. Yellow chrysanthemums were used as the centerpiece, while the place cards were black cats. The guests were Naomi Collard, Eula Mae Stevens, Peggy Dobbs, Willie Louise Luther, Eloise Carson, Johnnie Boyd, Noma Miller, Gladys Willis, Jean Drake, Tincy Kirby, Dot Hannah, Mrs. Rex Russell, Donald Wilson, Joe Couch, Elton Smith, Miles Pierce, J. K. Colquitt, W. B. Robertson, Bobby Lemmons, Howard Lemmons and Roy Henderson. Last Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the freshmen and sophomores of the OHS football team left Ozona to match their ability with that of Eldorado's freshmen and sophomores. When the football boys arrived, they suited out and went to the field. Neither side made a score during the first half, but during the last half, F. Hokit kicked a 60-yard punt, and one of the Eldorado Eagles ran it back for a touchdown. Their next touchdown came by intercepting a pass. Ozona made more first downs than Eldorado, most gains being made off tackle. Ozona's team was not outplayed; it was overrun. Oranges, oranges, everywhere. Santa came early and left a bushel of oranges in the dirty socks of the Ozona football team. More fun—more oranges! When the football boys came in from their daily practice Tuesday, they were presented with a bushel of oranges, which were sent to school Monday afternoon. Every year some one sends the football team some fruit to eat after practice. This year Mrs. Morris Dudley was the one who decided to keep our poor (?) little (?) team from starving to death after their gruelling work. Thank you, Mrs. Dudley!

Senior Class Makes Best Grade Sheet

"The grades this six weeks were very much on the bright side, and I am hoping they will continue to be ever better," reports Superintendent Denham. So—all youse gals and guys get down to work and burn a little of the West Texas Utility oil instead of that auto gas. The seventh grade won the largest percentage of A's by the colossal margin of 2 per cent. A close race was run between the fifth and sixth grades, with the fifth grade the winner. There were 28.6 per cent A's in the Fifth grade, and the Sixth grade reached the goal of 28 per cent A's. In the sixth grade, the largest number of F's were found. This grade received 16 of these frightful failures, while the fifth grade earned second place by having 11 F's. The seventh grade, with 5 F's won over some of the high school. The best average was found in the senior class (as it should be), which had 35 per cent A's with only one F. The Juniors more than cut the A percentage in half with a 12.8 per cent rating. This class rated third in the Ozona schools with 8 F's. Hurrah for the Sophomores! Not only did they run the Juniors a close race for the A percentage, but also they made fewer F's—13.2 per cent A's was made in this class, and 7 F's were earned—by taking the short cut on all lessons. The freshman class made the fewest number of A's in the school, 5.8 per cent, but this class rated second in high school in the F's—only 6 were presented these Fish. Nice work! All the faculty asks is that this be kept up, if possible, and improved, if possible.

Press Club Stresses Impersonal Articles

The Lions Roar staff met at the home of Billie Jo West last Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The house was called to order by the president and the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. Each of the members answered the roll call with a current news item. The editor stressed these points: 1. The rights of copy-readers to "cut" items that would demoralize the standards of the paper. 2. The importance of writing impersonally and save opinions for the editorials. 3. The importance of writing news on interesting holidays. As there was no further business to come before the house, the program chairman presented the following program: Talk—"Features"—Gem Ella Dudley. Talk—"Copy-Reader at Work"—W. B. Robertson. Piano solo, "Spanish Dance"—Margaret Russell. Talk, "Humor in News"—Billie Jo West. Sing-song—Membership. After the program, lime punch and date-roll with whipped cream was served to the membership of the club.

Lion Emblems To Be Sold; Benefit Athletic Fund

Purpose to Create More Enthusiasm From Public

The Ozona Lion's emblem was ordered September 28 by Supt. C. S. Denham. They are made of tin, which is about a foot long and six inches high. There is a hemisphere added on top of the tin rectangle in order to cut the lion's head are the following word: "Ozona Lions." Under the lion's head the following words are printed: "The Biggest Little Town in the World." "These emblems will cost about 35 to 50 cents each," stated Lib Coose, secretary of the Ozona high school. "The emblems are supposed to arrive this weekend. The school will sell them for a profit, and the proceeds will be spent for athletic goods and equipment. The purpose of these emblems is to create public enthusiasm.

"The grades this six weeks were very much on the bright side, and I am hoping they will continue to be ever better," reports Superintendent Denham. So—all youse gals and guys get down to work and burn a little of the West Texas Utility oil instead of that auto gas. The seventh grade won the largest percentage of A's by the colossal margin of 2 per cent. A close race was run between the fifth and sixth grades, with the fifth grade the winner. There were 28.6 per cent A's in the Fifth grade, and the Sixth grade reached the goal of 28 per cent A's. In the sixth grade, the largest number of F's were found. This grade received 16 of these frightful failures, while the fifth grade earned second place by having 11 F's. The seventh grade, with 5 F's won over some of the high school. The best average was found in the senior class (as it should be), which had 35 per cent A's with only one F. The Juniors more than cut the A percentage in half with a 12.8 per cent rating. This class rated third in the Ozona schools with 8 F's. Hurrah for the Sophomores! Not only did they run the Juniors a close race for the A percentage, but also they made fewer F's—13.2 per cent A's was made in this class, and 7 F's were earned—by taking the short cut on all lessons. The freshman class made the fewest number of A's in the school, 5.8 per cent, but this class rated second in high school in the F's—only 6 were presented these Fish. Nice work! All the faculty asks is that this be kept up, if possible, and improved, if possible.

Press Club Stresses Impersonal Articles

The Lions Roar staff met at the home of Billie Jo West last Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The house was called to order by the president and the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. Each of the members answered the roll call with a current news item. The editor stressed these points: 1. The rights of copy-readers to "cut" items that would demoralize the standards of the paper. 2. The importance of writing impersonally and save opinions for the editorials. 3. The importance of writing news on interesting holidays. As there was no further business to come before the house, the program chairman presented the following program: Talk—"Features"—Gem Ella Dudley. Talk—"Copy-Reader at Work"—W. B. Robertson. Piano solo, "Spanish Dance"—Margaret Russell. Talk, "Humor in News"—Billie Jo West. Sing-song—Membership. After the program, lime punch and date-roll with whipped cream was served to the membership of the club.

THE Prowler

By Bobby Lemmons

Wonder why J. K. and Howard took Bobby to the dormitory, where he slept Saturday night in Austin, and where they went after that? Shorty, several of us boys don't understand why you broke your date Thursday night with Tincy. Could you tell us? How about you, Oleta? Aren't the red heads good enough in Ozona for you, Peewee? If they are, why is it that you were seen with one in John Tarleton Junior college in Stephenville? J. K., have you lost a hold in San Angelo, or is your brother beating you time? Gem Ella, since you have been running around with J. K., do you know of any of his trouble? Claudie, is it right that you said that all you had to do to make passing grades in geometry was to flirt with the teacher? Roy, have you lost your foot-hold with the girls? You must have, because there is a certain junior girl who doesn't think much of your talent. Is that right, Peewee? Jim, don't let the girls make you break football rules. After all, you still are the captain. (Be in bed by 10 o'clock.) Mustard, do you remember seeing Peewee in San Angelo Saturday night? "In case you don't remember it, you did," said Peewee.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—BUSINESS—Denoting a brighter outlook for the business future are indications that a boom is beginning in what retailers call "luxury merchandise," furs, jewelry, silverware and the like. In various parts of the country jewelry sales are running from 32 to 73 per cent ahead of last year. Fur sales are up 28 per cent and 18 per cent more silverware is being sold. All this spells returning confidence with a capital C. For merchandise of this sort requires greater than average outlay of cash, or else purchase on the installment plan. And most people are reluctant to commit themselves financially to such an extent unless they have a pretty secure feeling that their jobs and earning power will not slack off for some time.

WASHINGTON—About 500,000 men and women found jobs during September, payroll information reported to the departments of commerce and labor indicates. On the heels of August's rise in employment of 440,000, it's the best showing in many a year. For the next few months, however, further gains in employment will depend largely upon the retail trade. Factory employment, accounting for about one-quarter of all jobs, has about reached its peak, since most industries now are operating near capacity. Farm work, which accounts for another 25 per cent of the nation's jobs, has passed its peak for this year. But in retailing, the heavy employment month is November, and December when extra help is needed to handle the Christmas shopping rush.

BABES UNARMED—The American people want peace and so does business. The toy manufacturers of the U. S. are doing their part, for less than one per cent of Christmas playthings will be warlike. This shows the difference between feeling today and in 1914-18 when 25 per cent of American toys were of a military nature. In Europe 50 per cent of Santa's pack will be given over to uniformed dolls and small mechanized armies, but American toys deal with peaceful arts, sciences and industries.

WASP WAIST—Reluctantly in some cases, but nevertheless dutifully, American women are taking to the wasp waist trend. Only a week after the Mainbocher corset (price $40), arrived from Europe, leading department stores the country over were advertising American versions at typical mass production prices. And in the town of Worcester, Mass., business started humming—for that's a corset-making center. Wholesale value of corsets made there last year was $1,190,000. In 1939, due to the wasp, output is expected to reach $1,700,000, a 50 per cent increase. That shows how fast business in this country can boom when something new comes along and "catches" with consumers.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR.—Cans lined with silver instead of tin—if the war creates a tin shortage. The U. S. bureau of standards has found that a thin coating of silver can be applied successfully to ordinary rolled steel, at only slightly higher cost. Per-

Threat of Soviet Expansion Rushes Preparedness

Fear of direct aggression on the part of Soviet Russia has led three nations—Turkey, Finland and Rumania—to speed up military preparations to an all-time high. Bottom picture shows a battery of Turkish artillery entering the zone of the Dardanelles, only water passage from the Mediterranean to the Black sea and the back door to Rumania. Upper left: Rumanian troops on the march, ready to defend their border against any possible Russian threat. Upper right: Ready for action is this machine gun crew of Finland's small but efficient army. Finland's position is most precarious because of Russia's westward movements and reported demands for Finnish islands.

As Germany Faces Self-Encirclement

Fear of encirclement by foes self-avowedly led Adolf Hitler to his policy of aggression. Now he himself has completed an iron ring around the Reich. Figures 1, 2 and 3 show the new sphere of Soviet influence; (4) Jugoslavia friendly to allies and close to Italy; (5) Italy has chilled toward Berlin; (6) Switzerland is ready to fight to maintain neutrality; (7, 8, 9 and 10) the western front, with Belgium and the Netherlands rigidly neutral; (11) North sea blockade by Britain; (12) Scandinavian countries neutral but friendly to allies.

Driver's License—

1. You must always have your operator's license with you when driving a motor vehicle, and produce it when called upon to do so by any peace officer.
2. Do not loan your driver's license to another, as it will not only get your friend in trouble, but may cause you to have your license suspended or revoked.
3. State and city laws do not always cover all that is necessary for you to practice to be a safe driver. Practice using recognized standard driving rules as other safe drivers have done.

4. Arm signals are not required in the laws of some states.
5. It is just as important to have your automobile checked regularly as it is to see your doctor, your dentist, or your optician as a well person can lose by driving a faulty automobile.

Finland to Safeguard Hold on Aaland Islands

Thousands of tiny islands, some of them no more than reefs, make up the Baltic archipelago that shows on the map as the Finnish-controlled Aaland islands. Though Russia has not formally voiced demands that it be allowed to establish a naval base on the islands, it is expected the request, when it comes, will be rejected flatly by Finland. Rulers of the other three Nordic powers, Sweden, Denmark and Norway, met in London recently to study mutual war problems.

We had 134 persons in Sunday school last Sunday, an excellent morning congregation, and a fair evening group. A number of people have promised the pastor to place "Church attendance" high in their lives throughout this year. Let everyone open his life to the enthusiasm, insight and strength that regular church attendance supplies.

Our people are invited to attend the services of the Baptist church through these days of revival emphasis. We will dismiss our Sunday evening services this week that we may all attend the meeting.

The service of the Holy Communion will be a part of this Sunday's worship. All of us are invited to prepare ourselves for this service.

Will R. Baggett, chairman of the board of stewards, urges all members of the board to be present at the initial meeting of the new year—Tuesday evening, November 7 at 7:30 o'clock, at the church.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS READY

THIS striking painting of a Red Cross nurse keeping the symbol of mercy flying is the keynote of the 1934 appeal for membership in the American Red Cross. Faced with the need for strengthening daily Red Cross services in 3,700 Chapters, and with its chartered obligation to aid in some measure in meeting the distress of the men, women and children refugees in war-torn countries across the sea, the Red Cross asks every man and woman in the nation, able to do so, to join as a member this year and support America's official voluntary relief agency. Ruskin Williams, a distinguished artist, is creator of this ideal conception of the nurse heroine. The roll call for members will be held November 11 to 30—join through your local Chapter. Help your Red Cross help others by becoming one of the millions who will add their names to the roll of mercy.

Four sales of 1940 model Buicks and Pontiacs were reported this week by the Wilson Motor Co., local dealers. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, we celebrated our ninth birthday in OZONA!

IT WAS November 1, 1930, that the present management of this store bought the interests of the Orange Cross stores and took over operation of the Ozona store under home ownership.

AS WE look back over these nine years, we are conscious of a sense of gratitude for the many pleasant associations and friendships that have developed in that time. It has been a pleasure to serve the people of this county and we hope that these pleasant associations and business relations will stretch on and on into many more birthdays.
