THE JUNIPER

the Wasatches of Utah, lives a rugged giant, estimated years old and still a hundred years is considered time for a juniper. Within 500 years. But man has seen thirty pass by.

The Juniper was discovered in 1923 by a student of a college in the town of Logan. The trunk of the tree is now with only a few remaining pieces of evidence of life. The tree looks like a Hercules with ropes of a torso of tough wood reaching up 44 feet. Four average men outstretched could not reach the trunk at the base.

It is probably as hard as anything made of wood. Most of the wood in the world took time in the first century of its life. It is attained only a sapling perhaps as big around

A small seed sprouted from a big rock, 7,300 feet above sea level, in a spot where the average rainfall is a few inches. The rock was just from the edge of a cliff. An unlikely spot for a tree to grow. The impossibility of it was probably saved the tree from being cleared away or chopped down for a firewood. Hard rocks sometimes provide shelter and protection which are present if conditions are more normal. When a sprout first bent its neck to the force of the mountain King David was playing in Israel. It was some centuries before the Babe was to be born unto the Roman legions of the world not begun to march mightily empire of the Assyrians casting its shadows over civilized earth.

In the years of the seedling struggle. Only a little soil and soil found their way to the small crevice where roots groped and pushed downward. Sun and wind bent the first uncertain carbon dioxide given off by struggling roots dissolved in the limestone and froze in the winter. The crack a little wider three centuries had the fighting juniper had a foothold and built up a stem big enough to take moisture and food. It was an inch or more now each year.

Without anybody knowing it — for big changes occur without warning and usually to be noticed, — man to nest in the twisted cause it was the biggest sight.

A creature which had right to live after such a long struggle should be allowed to live at ease. So for the Jardine Juniper at the time the boys in the forests at Gettysburg some mighty blow struck. Some botanists say a bolt of lightning. Others forest fire swept it, and a view is supported by a stump of many another in the neighborhood. The probably started a fire which added to the mistle scars of the ancient Logan Canyon.

Even juniper never fulfired, although it did cling to the leaf output was reduced. Only a thin wood was added thereafter. Growth since then less than half an inch, become slower.

Nine New Trash Cans Installed In Business Area

Woman's Forum, Sponsor Urges Use of New Facilities

With a plea that Ozonans "please use them," officers of the Ozona Woman's Forum yesterday completed the distribution through the downtown business area of nine new trash receptacles.

The placing of the trash cans represents realization of the Forum's principal project adopted at the opening of the club year last fall.

Five other organizations assisted the Forum in providing the trash receivers. The Ozona Woman's Club provided two, the Woman's Forum three and one each by the Ozona Literary Club, the Sheriff's Posse, the Rotary Club and the Lions Club. Each trash can is appropriately lettered with credit to the organization providing it.

Members of the Forum hope that by placing the trash receivers at strategic spots throughout the business area, that Ozona business section will present a neater appearance. But to accomplish that aim, it will be necessary that citizens make use of the cans to dispose of waste paper, gum wrappers, empty cigarette packages, and the like, rather than throwing such trash on the sidewalks and in the gutters. That was the hope of the sponsors, that the citizens would cooperate in the ultimate plan of the project — a cleaner and neater appearing Ozona.

Summer Program for Youth Starts June 3

Coach Larry Wilkins, director of the summer youth recreation program in Ozona, announced this week that the program will get under way Tuesday morning in the girls' gymnasium in the high school, starting at 7:30 a. m. The morning programs will last through 11 o'clock.

The recreational program will continue through the summer. Mondays through Fridays, with tennis, basketball shooting, badminton, horseshoe pitching table tennis, croquet, softball and any other games the youngsters may wish to play.

Coach Wilkins plans to get some interesting moving pictures which will be shown at intervals through the summer and a story telling hour will be arranged later. A teenage square dancing club, with dances set for one night a week on the tennis courts, is also in the summer activities plan.

The summer recreation program being tried for the first time here this summer, is being sponsored by the Ozona Lions Club and other interested groups as a means of providing the youngsters with something to hold their interest and provide them with "something to do" in vacation months. Full cooperation of parents is urged to make it a success.

Entries Pour In For Third Annual Ozona Horse Show

Bluebloods of Horse- dom to Crowd Show Stables May 31

Almost every mail brings in another batch of entries in some of the classes in the third annual Ozona Registered Quarter Horse Show and Cutting Horse and Reining Contest, to be staged at the Ozona fair grounds, Saturday, May 31.

Secretary Pete W. Jacoby reported this week that prospects are fine for a record showing of the bluebloods of West Texas horsemanship in the coming show's halter and performance classes. Many of the area's leading horse fanciers have entered one or more animals, Mr. Jacoby said, and an outstanding show is assured again this year.

From the spectator standpoint, the week-end event will be kicked off with a giant western parade in downtown Ozona Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Western classes for both boys and girls will be judged in the parade, with judging of final selections at the night performance Saturday night. All girls and boys of school age are eligible to enter. They will be judged on riding ability and general western appearance.

The horse show proper will be presaged by a roping program Friday night at the fair park arena, with jackpot roping and special matched events. The show's outstanding matched roping will be tapped off Friday night between John D. Holleyman and Buddy Groff. Each roper will rope six calves Friday night and complete the match by roping six more calves at the Saturday night show.

The opening performance in the horse show will be at 10 a.m. Saturday when the first go-round in the cutting horse contest will be staged. Judging of halter classes will begin at 1 p.m. and final judging of champions will be a part of the evening show. The Saturday night features, of course, will be the cutting horse and reining horse contests.

Vesper Service Sunday To Close Church Year For Ozona Methodists

This series began, according to Mr. Hickman, some months ago with the Book of Genesis and will eventually cover the entire Bible.

There will be no morning worship service on this date, but the local Methodist congregation will participate in the baccalaureate service for the graduating class of The Ozona High School in the high school auditorium. Church School, however, will meet on the usual schedule, beginning at 9:45

Lions, Exes Tie 7-7 In Grid Match to Wind Up Spring Training

Ozona High School Lions, 1952 gridiron aggregation, and the exes, recruited from squads of the last three years, including this year's seniors, came out all even last Thursday night when they staged a full time football game at Lions Field to wind up the Lions 1952 Spring practice stint.

It was a 7-7 tie, with the Lions pulling the game out of the fire in the waning minutes on a long gainer pass play. The exes pretty much had the game their way through most of the contest, with superior weight and experience, powering over for their touchdown and running the ball for the extra point. Senior Joe Bailey, erstwhile Lion quarterback, was piloting the exes from the qb slot.

The Lions' score was from enemy territory, a long heave by Tom Piner being gathered in by Charles Garlitz who went all the way. A true placekick, square down the middle, by Wilburn Conklin got the vital extra point to tie up the ball game.

The 1952 Lion squad will include eight seniors, four juniors, seven sophomores and twelve freshmen. The roster will include Tom Piner, HB; Charles Garlitz, FB; Charles Hale, HB; Wilburn Conklin, QB; Ronnie McMullan, C; Jimmie McMullan, G; Baldomero Ramon, G; Bill Schenemann, T; Scott Hickman, T; Bill Maness, E; Don Cooper, E; Kenneth Phillips, C; Jodie Jones, T; Graham Childress, T; Donald Taylor, QB; Sammy Martinez, HB; Leandro Flores, FB; Antonio Rodriguez, E; Mike Clayton, HB; Brock Jones T; Bennie Friend, HB; Lloyd West, HB; Ramon Perez, G; Bobby Martinez, HB; Arturo Gonzalez, FB; Johnny Ramirez, E; Luis Vela, G; Santiago Gomez, E; Albino Sanchez, QB; Jerry Beasley, E; Serafin Maskill, G.

MARINES ROCKED BY ENEMY MORTAR FIRE... You may think all the noise and fuss these days coming out of Korea come from the armistice tents at Panmunjom, but things are still a bit warm on the front, although not as hot as formerly, as this scene testifies. Somewhere on the Korean front the explosion of an enemy 82MM mortar shell rocks the ground with a shattering "whoomp!" and sends the marines deeper into their trenches to escape the hard concussion and the flying shrapnel. Despite this missile of enmity, the word from Korea is that the Reds are in a mood to grant concessions for the sake of peace if they can save face.

THE LION'S ROAR

STUDENTS OF THE JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT—OZONA HIGH SCHOOL

Adios —

Yes, it has been a wonderful year. And with the printing of this paper the 1951-'52 season comes to a close.

Each of us on the staff of the Lions Roar want to express our thanks to you, the student body of OHS, for helping us to make this year's paper a success.

I would also like to take this time to thank Doris West, better known as Snoopy Sue, Norris Pogue almost run out of town for Pogue's Piddlings, and Kenneth Bledsoe, Wayne Kuykendall, and Bill Gillit for all of the work they have done to make this year's paper go over.

From this year's staff to next year's, whoever it might be, we want to wish you luck. And I speak for all of us on this year's staff when I say — "Thanks to you, students of OHS."

Your editor,
Marion Mock

Class Picnics Wind Up OHS School Year

Last week plans were made for an all school picnic. But there was a sudden change because all the holidays have been used this year. Because of no more holidays we will have to take class picnics.

The sophomores are going to Fort Stockton, the juniors and freshmen to Ben Ficklin Park at San Angelo. All three classes are going Saturday, May 24. After that, so long, OHS, until next September.

The Trip to the River

By Scott Hickman

By 7:45 all the boys who were supposed to be at the McMullans' at 7:00 staggered up. The trip got off to a normal start. Only the minor incident of everybody's equipment getting soaked in kerosene which dripped from Mustard's little 20-gallon kerosene can, occurred in the morning.

By afternoon every normal person was toasted to a medium rare and had fallen into the river at least twice. Mustard was gently from heaven was falling in rath-boat. It was sunk only once during the day.

After a delicious meal of mesquite ashes and stewed gnats, we settled down for the night, with the beautiful strumming of Ramon's two string guitar drifting across the water.

Around 3:00 in the morning, I was awakened rather ruthlessly by Piner stepping in my face. It seems that some of that wet stuff from heaven was falling in rather large quantities and we were in danger of being washed away. By morning those who had not sought shelter were using bedrolls for lifeboats. There was some concern over the disappearance of Brock Jones. It was first thought that he was floating down the river toward Cuna, but he was later discovered under Phillip's car.

The next day we were cheered considerably by Mustard's high spirits. It seems he slept in a house on a steel cot with an inner spring mattress. At noon we ate Mustard's fish and left for home.

P. S. — We are very grateful to Mustard Williams and also Coach

Wilkins and Coach Womack for this fine trip. We're still alive.

Final Band Concert Enjoyed by Students

"Si — Si — Ugh — Ha!" What are we talking about? Surely nothing. Oh, sure, — we're talking about the band program Friday morning. It was quite obvious that Si, Trocadero stole the show. Other numbers played were Legionnaires on Parade, Hilltoppers, Scimitar and other similar selections.

With this program Friday, the band under the direction of Corbett Smith, finished its Spring work. One of the best of the past few years, it has won acclaim for itself in San Angelo, Abilene and Del Rio this year.

4-H Club Members Receive Awards

During the assembly in the auditorium last Friday eight awards were given to the 4-H boys of Crockett county.

Awards were given to first year feeders, Jerry Gilliam and Bobby Sutton. Second year feeder awards went to Tom Robison and Gail Garlitz. Fourth year feeder awards were given to Graham Childress and Erby Chandler. Tom Kincaid and Jimmie McMullan received medals for fifth years feeders. Tom Robison was honored by receiving the best all around 4-H boy medal. Good work, Tom.

POGUE'S PIDDLINGS

As the sun sinks behind old OHS shining for a moment on the old Guard Tower; glittering for just a moment on the machine gun there, we say farewell to our old school. We don't wish our school bad luck. We don't hope it will burn down; nor do we hope for a flood, tornado or earthquake. We are still holding out for an atom bomb.

This is the last Pogue's Piddlings. I have enjoyed writing this column for all my rabid readers. Bless both your pointed little heads.

With these immortal words, I leave these solemn halls.

As soon as these events take place and the pictures are developed the last pages of the annual will be complete.

The annual staff would like to remind you once again that you will receive your annuals when school starts September. Anyone who will not be here when school starts is urged to get in touch with Miss North and give her the address where you want your annual sent.

When asked about the success of the fall publication plan Miss North answered, "We have been very pleased with the way the fall publication plan has worked. When ever anything happens we just add another page."

Fads and Fashions

By Jane Adams

Another school year is just this side of the line from being completely over.

First, fall that had very summery weather for awhile, Fall and football games, crest jewelry, handsome belts, corduroy shirts on boys and girls, too; corduroy skirts, classic and un-classic sweaters, suede loafers, leather loafers trimmed with suede, beautiful boots that were stiched with lots of stitching and soled with bouncy rubber.

Winter, that was very dry, and everyone hoped for rain. Winter and the end of the football season, the football banquet, the fairyl-land decorations and dresses at the Christmas dance, the beginning of basketball season; the fad of girls wearing boys' levis pulled low below their axwists, a fad that has become a fashion; corduroy skirts gathered with the lines going around, frontier shirts patterned big or bold or bright or all three, carved leather belts with color sometimes, always buckled with a sometimes small, always square buckle.

Spring and rain at last. Spring and gathered skirts, quilted skirts patterned like calico, skirts with just one color, skirts splashed with color. The fad for pull over, turtle necked, middy shirts.

Boys' shirts, sometimes silk or shantung, sometimes cotton, always with short sleeves, or sleeves rolled short.

New fad in glasses: Half shell rims, half metal. Boys look less like owls than in horn rimmed ones.

Now summer. Summer . . . sun tanned bodies and sun bleached hair. Long lazy days and days full of fun. Toreador pants and old faithful levis. Full skirted dresses floating over crinolines and flower scented colognes. Pony tails and hair out very short.

Have you ever noticed how the fads and fashions of a year are always connected with the big, always-to-be-remembered things that makes a year what it is? Bye till Fall comes again.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Wrong Spouts Plugged

ETTA KETTE ON GIRLS' CLOTHES

Clothes not only add to our appearance; they are our appearance. The first impression that we make upon others depends entirely upon what we wear and how we wear it.

The woman who knows how to wear clothes is a stage director who skillfully presents herself.

The sense of what is becoming and the knack of putting clothes on well, are the two greatest assets of smartness. And both are acquirable by anyone willing to look at herself as she really is.

Vulgar clothes are those which, no matter what the fashion of the moment may be, are always too elaborate for the occasion. They are too exaggerated in style, or have accessories out of harmony with the dress and the wearer.

A woman may be stared at because she is ill-behaved, or because she looks like a freak of the circus or because she is enchanting to behold.

Girls should be inconspicuously dressed at all times. This simple rule is not so simple as it seems nor is it easy to follow. Some people think that, at all costs, one must be dressed in the prevailing fashion. To be sure, if we were all made exactly on the same pattern, and if we all dress exactly in the same style, it would be easy to be inconspicuous. In fact, almost impossible to be anything else.

We are not the same. In consequence, the style of dress that is becoming to one may make the other wearer ridiculous. The tall slim girl may look well in a very short and narrow skirt, but no short fat girl would ever be tempted to wear one if she could see herself from the rear. If you wish, therefore, to be inconspicuously dressed, you should consult your mirror rather than the fashion books for many details.

In choosing the costume for school, one must consider its suitability for the occasion. It should not be so elaborate that it requires constant care. No girl can do her best work if she must at the same time be careful that a delicate dress is not being soiled or torn. Fabrics that tear easily, ruffles that muss and soon look untidy, and velvets that catch the dust are not practical for school wear.

"Don't poke malicious fun at Jane, it's true her clothes are odd and plain. But only think — if you were she How hurt, left out, and sad you'd be."

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

White sidewalls optional at extra cost.

It gives this old familiar sign new meaning

WOULD you be interested in getting
-one gallon free with each tankful
-of gasoline you buy?

Then we can tell you this: It will cer-
-tainly be worth your while to read this
-brief story of Buick's new Airpower
-carburetor.

Truth is—a skillful driver can just about
-double the bonus we mention, if he
-makes the most of what this year's
-ROADMASTER has to offer.

The reason you can get such a bonus
-traces to a pair of simple facts:

- (1) It's a mixture of gasoline and air
-that gives you power.
- (2) Buick engineers have come up with
-a four-barrel automatic carburetor
-that lets you use more gallons of
-air per gallon of fuel.

Most of the time, only two of these
-barrels are needed—and they feed such
-a thrifty mixture that you use less gaso-
-line at 40 mph than you'd formerly use
-at 30.

But — when you want a quick burst of
-eager power — you can double the air
-supply as well as the gasoline feed—and
-come up with the highest horsepower
-that Buick's Fireball 8 Engine ever
-delivered.

Of course, any man who's buying a
-car as fine as a ROADMASTER wants a
-lot more than extra miles from a tank-
-ful of gas.

He wants the distinction of extra room,
-extra comfort, richer fabrics and all
-the other refinements that make a car
-truly fine.

He wants to ride with solid security,
-confident poise and lordly silence.

And, while he may not admit it, he
-yearns for a car that's full of fun.

All this, we promise you, and more will
-be yours when you take the responsive
-wheel of a ROADMASTER.

How about doing that — soon?

of a philosopher to see the obvious point in this life of this monarch of the ridges, to admire it for the stubborn fight it made to live; for the courage with which it stood against the blasting winds; for the tenacity with which the roots clung to the barren cliff; to the silent majesty with which it holds up its blasted body; for the frank, unashamed way it holds out its gnarled limbs to bird and beast; for the silence in which it suffers the indignities of chance and fate; for the way in which it accepts all blows without a creaking quarter; for the infinite patience with which it has looked out upon thirty-five centuries of time; for the majestic witness it makes to the dignity and worthwhileness of life.

Donkey Ball Game At Lions Club Park Thurs. Night, May 29

Members of the Ozona Lions Club have issued a challenge to Ozona High School boys to a softball game Thursday night, May 29. The game will be played with players aboard trained donkeys, that is, donkeys that are trained to do everything but assist a baseball player to field a ball or run a base.

Anyway, as such games have proven before, it promises loads of fun and proceeds will go to a charitable purpose. The receipts above expenses will go to the major project of the Lions Clubs of Texas, the camp for crippled children in Kerrville. This camp provides special facilities for crippled children to spend some time in summer camp.

Life of Missionary To Brazil Reviewed For WMU Next Wed.

Members of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church presented Mrs. Henry Witcher with a far-well gift when the organization met Wednesday for its regular program. Mrs. Witcher, who is moving from Ozona, has been the Bible teacher for the Society for the past several months.

The WMU will hear a review at its meeting next Wednesday morning of "Apostle of the Amazon," by Mrs. Sherman Taylor. The book recounts the life and missionary service of the Rev. Erik Nelson in Brazil, written by E. M. Bratcher. The book is of especial interest to Ozona because the local Baptist church assumed support of Rev. Nelson's missionary work in Brazil, and the missionary, now deceased, once visited Ozona on a vacation stay in the United States. The meeting will open at 9 o'clock and everybody is invited to hear the review.

Present for this week's meeting were Mes. H. A. Gustavus, Ben Williams, J. T. Patrick, J. T. Keeton, O. C. Webb, S. L. Butler, Mrs. Henry Witcher and her mother, Mrs. Stein, and Mrs. Pleas Childress.

Eighteen Models of Other Makes of Cars Cost More!

Official price lists show that there are eighteen different models of American motor cars, produced by five separate automotive manufacturers, which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac—when similarly equipped.

If you find this difficult to believe—then you're in good company!

For the record also shows that, during the past few years, literally hundreds of thousands of motorists have taken title to these costlier models. And there can be little doubt that many of them did so simply because they failed to realize how relatively modest the cost of a Cadillac can be.

They simply assumed that exclusive in quality means exclusive in price! And it is doubtful if a single misunderstanding ever cost so many motorists so much!

It cost them, first of all, the satisfaction of owning a Cadillac! For there is no substitute for the sense of pride and well-being that comes from owning a motor car that is universally recognized as the "Standard of the World."

It cost them, too, the pleasure of driving a Cadillac! And this, beyond any question, is the greatest penalty of all! For in missing out on the many thrills to be found behind its wheel—they're missing out on motoring's finest rewards.

And, of course, it also cost them Cadillac's many long-range economies—its almost unbelievable gasoline mileage, its unsurpassed dependability, and its legendary long life.

We know that you wouldn't want to make such a costly mistake in the selection of your next car. But you'd better be careful—because there are eighteen different ways to make it!

So when the time comes—investigate! And if you pay the price of a Cadillac—be sure that you get one!
