HEADLINE SERVICE

Of course, it is the season for politicians to want off on any subject that might raise a headline in the newspaper or a spot in the eye of the radio news audience.

One Texas politician, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, a candidate for re-election, has waded off in a wading manner a couple of times in the past week.

First Commissioner White recently warned the public that it is being fooled by inaccurate filling station pumps and grocery store scales. Five out of five such pumps and scales are inaccurate, the Commissioner charged, thus making the headline — and that's always good for an advertiser who is running for election. But it wasn't good for the thousands of honest filling station operators and grocery store proprietors. The finger of suspicion points to all these businesses when such broad statements are made.

Next the Commissioner makes the headlines with another broad charge of "public groping" — this time against the book-handlers again. He said the groping results from the sale of "inferior wares at exorbitant prices, inflated by exorbitant profits and advertising costs" and he makes with his usual vigor an effort to discredit advertising which is attacked as "sensational, pseudo-scientific jargon, and outright fraud." Advertising as a free enterprise American system of economic selling is too well established and proven to need even to be defended against such an attack, framed in ignorance and aimed for its headline value.

There may be some unscrupulous book-handlers who are selling "inferior wares" at exorbitant prices, but again such broad statements cast suspicion on all dealers. Food prices are high, to be sure, but so are prices of many everything else the average family has to pay these days, and not all of the high prices are the result of "groping" by unscrupulous merchants — much of it can be charged to inflation resulting from the pressure of a free operating government.

Fine Arts Program Held by Woman's Club

A fine arts program led by Mrs. E. E. Huffman, Sr., was enjoyed when the Ozona Woman's Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. A. J. Hoover. Mrs. P. T. Johnson assisted Mrs. Hoover as hostess.

Richard Miller, Jr., played several selections on the accordion and Mrs. Neal Hammit played three piano numbers, The Butter-Cup-Gravy, The Music Box-Gebirt and a little girl number by Richard.

After a talk by Mrs. Hoover on her collection of paintings by noted artists, a short business session was conducted by Mrs. A. M. Harwick, president. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. E. E. Huffman, Sr., E. M. Harwick, J. A. Fassel, Jim Henderson, Charles Williams, Jr., E. W. Baker, Walter Augustine, W. E. Baggitt, Sherman Taylor, W. M. Graham, Stephen Parker, G. L. Sims, John E. Bailey and L. E. Cox, Jr., and Mr. Richard Miller, Jr.

Scott Peters

Supper was served buffet style and guests lingered long as they participated in an informal and long and hot wait. The hosts presented Mr. and Mrs. Peters with an "Ozona Scrapbook," in which guests inscribed their remarks and some parting messages for the future. The presentation was preserved in pictures, both written and still shots.

Membership of the Ozona Methodist Church, which both Mr. and Mrs. Peters have been faithful members and workers, honored the couple with a farewell supper in the following hall of the church Thursday night. Food was prepared by the membership and some 250 guests, including members of other churches in the community gathered to honor the departing couple. A set of eight sterling silver teardrop knives was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Peters as a gift from the Methodist congregation.

At Arlington, Mr. Peters will return to the banking business after a brief lapse in which he was engaged in buying and selling oil leases and royalties here. He resigned last year as active vice president of the Ozona National Bank after some 20 years with that institution.

Carlisle Crovins, prominent Fort Worth attorney and Arlington native, is president of the new bank, but will not be active in the operation of the institution. The "Arlington Citizen," weekly newspaper, is announcing the new bank and Mr. Peters as its active head, declared in part:

"When preliminary plans for the formation of the new Arlington bank were being drawn, the interested parties began a search to locate a man who would serve as executive vice president actively in charge of the bank's affairs. When they learned of Peters and found him about ready to again enter the banking business, their search was ended." The Arlington newspaper described Peters as "the postal, portly financier."

The new bank is to be housed in a renovated building which formerly housed the Texas Theatre on West Main Street in Arlington, established by W. V. Adair, owner of the Ozona Bank Theatre. The bank purchased the structure and has let contract for its complete renovation and refinishing to house the new financial institution. Mr. Peters will represent the bank in watching the progress of this work. The bank is expected to be ready for opening in the next three or four months.

March 31 Deadline For POW Pay Claims

WASHINGTON — U. S. War Veterans are reminded that the deadline for filing claims for the $200 a day payments to prisoners of war or their survivors is March 31, 1952. The final date, March 31, was fixed by law and cannot be changed by the War Claims Commission. If you or a member of your family was held a prisoner of war during World War II, you may be entitled to these special POW payments. As of September 30, 1951, $200 claims from the state of Texas had been paid, totaling $1,800,000. It is believed that the great majority of claims have been filed but the War Claims Commission is hopeful of hearing from all eligible claimants before the deadline of March 31, 1952.

Ex-Prisoners With Honors Received at Banquet

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church honored members of the 1952 honor class of Ozona High School and their guests at the Society's annual luncheon banquet on Wednesday evening.

The class colors of green and white and the class flower, white carnation, were used to decorate the hall.

The Madrigal Singers of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, provided the program following the luncheon. Speeches of the evening were by Dr. Sam Truitt, professor of Bible at Howard Payne. There were 42 Sentara and guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggitt attended funeral services in Temple Monday for V. E. Farmer, 66, who died Saturday morning at his home in Temple. Mrs. Farmer is a sister of the late Mrs. Kate Baggitt of Ozona. The couple had no children.

All wear cotton skirts and sleeveless shirts to school to we heard someone say afternoons. But the cold Monday dawn was sprinkling snow. Instead of starched cotton there were levis and slacks. Some of the shirts had the levis! Jeannene's red sweat shirt with a "MM" on the back Pat Mellon one pulled over a blue shirt of big checks. "M Childress" and Kenneth were very red, very thick. And below the levis were some unusual ways of socks. Vivian Trotter a pair of levis almost to her knees, then pulled a pair of athletic socks up to her knees.

The E. department is getting dark and atmosphere it gets dark about this time. Girls wearing the dresses they are "I'm going to make it across the top (or "It's to have a high neck," with beads and scads of net (or maybe taffeta) in the Beautiful material wrap tissue paper and kept on in the living room instead of stuffed in a box and in a locker. And Mrs. Hull said we can wear the eventually to emerge a flurry of excited words, work and textiles before the fashion show, that is really BIG event like the Senior banquet. Thank you, Hull— for being so un-living.

Just The One, Girls

OHS Volleyball girls lost their district game to Eldorado Tuesday night, 39-20. It was high point getter for with 8, while Jones of Eldorado served over 14 to boost her to the top. In basketball, the OHS girls started last week. On the team is Vivian Trotter, San-Anna, Sophie Reina, Ann Allena Powers, Jeannene Ramos, Nina Ramos, Ann Rattley Walley, Charlene Perks, Tody Cunningham, Shirley Kost. Their manager for this season is Barbara Fields.

TOO MUCH TALK

By Doris West

Well here again is Snoopy Sue trying to catch you up on the nose news. Because of so much snow, I was snow bound and, therefore, unable to gather much. It is said to be true that Kay Kirby and Bobby Womack set out for the dance Friday night and were side tracked by the snow. Did you all enjoy the movie?

Poor Joe! It shouldn't happen to anyone. Mama made him stay home from the dance Friday night because he wouldn't get a date.

Mary Beth wasn't at school Monday morning. Wonder why! Could it be that Pat Mellon, Pat's "husband to be," Kenny Phillips and she went horseback riding or could it be the after effects of the Sunday night show? Of course not, it was all the snow's fault.

It's getting close to the time for Reta Sue to graduate! What's going to become of Bill?

Thumbail Sketches Of the Champions

With a district win under their belts OHS round ballers will be going to Lubbock this week. During the whole season the boys made themselves known by their unconscious habits, which made them personalities on the court. The grandstanders got together; to them the "mighty spry fellows" look something like this:

Garlitz: Always pulling at his shirt and yelling.

Piner: Round shoulders before a free throw and his whistling!

Kuykendall: Hands stuck out behind him when dribbling.

Hickman: Feet get ahead of his head.

Schneemann: Hope he doesn't bite that tongue when he dribbles — "human windmill."

Womack: "Get your feet off the floor!"

Maness: Ducks head; wrinkles brow.

Machado: Doubles as a bench warmer when not on the go.

Conklin: Guards with ears instead of hands.

Cooper: Wonder his eyes don't get crossed, hair is always in them.

Bailey: Watching clock, and we're beginning to wonder if his nose gets cold.

Last, but not least is Pete, the fellow who doesn't do anything but put down the points. He hasn't been very busy this season, has he?

oOo

What a Team in '52! Says Coach Wilkins

What a team! What a team Ozona will have next football season. Coach Wilkins attended the coaches school held at Baylor last week. While there he watched one of Baylor's intra-squad scrimmages, went to lectures and saw films of last year's games to help him with next season's players. He probably will still have in mind some of the plays discussed when spring training starts come spring. Beware the Lions!

Champs of 6-A Leave For Lubbock Today; Play Dimmitt Friday

The Ozona Lions downed the Junction Eagles to take over the undisputed championship of Class 6-A. The home bunch went through their regular season without a tie or defeat. Sonora finished second with two losses and six wins.

The boys play the Dimmitt Tigers at the regional meet at Lubbock Friday morning. Although the Dimmitt team is favored to go all the way to state, the boys may put a pretty big scare into them. Anything can happen in a basketball game, you know.

The boys will leave Thursday evening at 3 o'clock and will spend the night in the Lubbock hotel. If the boys should lose the first game they will return to Ozona after the game. If not — look out.

On the Beam, Juniors

The Juniors are right on the beam — yes-siree. They've already started casting their play.

Would you really think of Scott as a flirtatious person? Well, you will have a revelation in "Everybody's Crazy."

Can you think of anyone giving a better portrayal of a flirt, unless you would mention that dreadful Bill Schneemann?

What part do they have? Who has the other parts? Well, I'm afraid you'll have to wait until next month to find out?

Bobby Robertson Makes Hit with Studes

"If you don't practice, you can't do anything; if you do practice, there is nothing you can't do." At least that's what Bobby Robertson advocated last Monday when he gave a demonstration on how to play the drums, vibraphone and marimba here at OHS.

Not only did Mr. Robertson keep the students occupied with his melodies and rhythms, but he had a line of patter that couldn't be equaled. He was so fast at times that the audience was about "six laps" behind him. But his satire was incomparable.

His version of how the instruments had their beginnings was related above the hilarious laughter of the students. By the way, if you lived back during the days when drums were made of skulls, what kind of drum do you suppose you'd be best suited for — G-skull or C-skull? Mr. Robertson, when telling how drums got their start in the United States, said they were brought over from England. There they are royal instruments, but here anyone could play them, and anyone did! We wonder if that's the way Mr. Smith feels when he hears some of the drummers of the band go through their routines! Who knows though, we might have another Robertson in our midst.

POGUE'S PIDDINGS

Tell me, has someone left a bomb under your hood yet? No! Then you just haven't lived.

These bombs are the cleverest little things that somebody whipped up out of 3 cases of dynamite and four gallons of nitro. And when they go off they're loads of fun. Usually a car can go in only one direction but with one of these bombs it goes in every direction and still, when all the fun's over it's very useful as junk.

That stuff which you thought was snow Monday wasn't because snow is a relative of rain and we gave that up because it just was not nice. It's wet and makes dirty old mud.

If you were at the dance Friday you were the only one, it seems. The band played to an almost empty house.

One of our brilliant students said this line the other day, "A dollar doesn't do as much for the man any more, but then, the man doesn't do as much for the dollar, either."

The difference between OHS and an insane asylum is that you have to show improvement to get out of the asylum.

Lettermen Announced In Girls Basketball

Wednesday morning Mrs. Womack announced to the press her lettermen in girls basketball for 1952.

They are Allena Powers, Pat Cooper, Kay Simmons, Vivian Trotter, Marion Mock, Shirley Kost, Pat Ward and Manager Murtie Mae Everett.

This was the girls' first year to play basketball and although they didn't have a very successful season, they are looking forward to next year with great hopes.

Dance Etiquette Is Reviewed by Junior Business Students

(This is the first of a series of articles on manners contributed by the Junior Business Classes after their study on the subject. This is not their opinions, but the result of research. The poetry is quoted from Your Manners Are Showing, by Betty Betz. Another book, Behave Yourself, by Allen & Briggs, was used for most of the papers, also.)

— Etta Kette Goes Dancing —
Etta Kette is going to take you on a tour through dancing manners so that you can be sure you are always doing the right things at dances.

Always arrive on time, and if you have a date, be ready when he comes for you. Do not keep your date, host, or hostess waiting. Go by and tell your chaperones hello, and if a reception line is waiting, don't try to dodge them — go on through and greet them.

YOU DO BUSINESS BY THE TRUCKLOAD...

that's why this message about America's first

2½-ton Diesel may be the most important you've ever read!

If yours is like most businesses today, medium-weight transportation enters many times into the cost of your product — from procurement of raw materials to delivery of the finished product.

For the first time, these "average" loads can be moved at spectacular savings—at a cost far below anything you've ever paid for medium-weight transportation in the past!

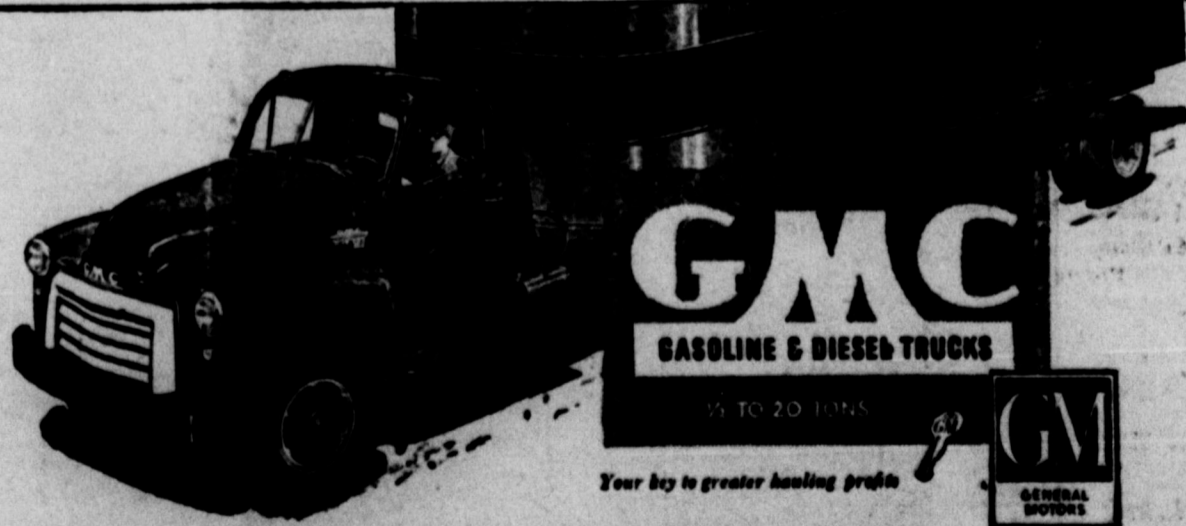

The efficiency and economy of Diesel power become available to every user of trucks rated as low as 2½ tons (19,500 GVW — 35,000 GCW). It's the latest advance from the world's largest producer of Diesel trucks.

It's an entirely new kind of GMC truck-tractor — powered by a revolutionary, lighter-weight, more compact model of the famous General Motors two-cycle engine that is first choice among Diesel truck users today. It offers the advantages of more miles per gallon and lower maintenance in hauling operations where there has been no choice but gasoline power in the past.

Before you waste another cent in your largest hidden cost of doing business — transportation — check the important role this new GMC 2½-ton Diesel truck-tractor stands ready to play in your own operation.

As your GMC dealer, we extend this invitation: if you are a processor, manufacturer, retailer, distributor, farmer or commercial hauler using 2½-ton equipment — come in and see why this new GMC Diesel will mean extra profits to you every mile of the way.

WHAT ABOUT CHORAL?

Many people in the Junior High Choral have told Mr. Hatley that they wish to quit Choral. There are various reasons for this — need a study hall, tired of Choral and other reasons. One making a survey this was found:

Number that want to quit 72%
Number that want to stay in 24%

Number undecided 4%

Should the subject be dropped? Why do so many of these students dislike choral? We hope the faculty will think about this when the subject of Junior High Choral comes up next year. — A. Choral Member.

How to get what you want and need in a truck

"Dodge 'Job-Rated' Trucks are the best we've ever used!"

... says PAUL CRUCE, Cruce Butane Co., Tulsa, Okla.

"We do a lot of driving on narrow roads, in and out of driveways, in small yards and other tight spots. We need trucks that are real easy to handle, so we switched to Dodge. They'll turn on a dime!"

"We service oil wells, too, and that's the toughest off-the-road hauling there is. We need plenty of pulling power. For mud and heavy pulling, Dodge 'Job-Rated' trucks are dependable and economical to operate."

SUPPOSE that you need a 1 1/2- or 2-ton truck. Naturally, you'll want one that costs less to run. You'll want one that's engineered to last for years and years. Above all, you'll want a truck that fits your job to a "T."

That calls for a truck in which every unit that moves the load is engineered to meet the most severe operating conditions — one in which every unit that supports the load is engineered to provide the strength and capacity needed. What's more, both load-moving and load-supporting units must be engineered to work together.

The way to get such a truck is to see us about a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck — one that's factory-engineered to your kind of work!

Yes... when it comes to your hauling job, you'll find everything you want and need in a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck!

Power with economy. The big high-compression engine of a Dodge "Job-Rated" 1 1/2- or 2-ton truck operates with outstanding economy. You get chrome-plated top piston rings, and exhaust valve seat inserts.

Time-saving performance. Low loading height on 1 1/2- and 2-ton models and hinged center sections on stake bodies make loading easier. 5-speed transmission available on most models for more power, speed.

Easy handling. Exceptional handling and steering ease is made possible by wide front tread and short wheelbase. Thanks to shorter turning diameter, you can turn sharper either right or left — back into tight places easier.

W. E. (Bill) West, Pioneer Crockett County Ranchman and Banker, Is Honored on 90th Birthday with Family Reunion in San Angelo

When W. E. (Bill) West, pioneer Crockett county ranchman and banker turned 90 the other day, he was honored at a family reunion held at the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo where Mr. and Mrs. West have made their home for the past several years. The following account of the event and highlights of Mr. West's life appeared in the San Angelo Standard Times:

W. E. (Bill) West, pioneer Crockett county ranchman and banker, has turned 90. Twenty-three of his 39 children, grand children, and great grandchildren gathered at Hotel Cactus Thursday to help him celebrate his 90th birthday.

Bill West is one of those pioneers who came to West Texas with hardly more than the horse he rode and the clothes he wore but stuck with the country until it made him wealthy. There were no relatives to help him — no one to back him up.

He was born on a farm at Dresden, near Corsicana, Feb. 21, 1862. His father, Calvin West, was a soldier for the Confederacy. He was killed in the closing months of the Civil War. Mrs. West died of tuberculosis a little later.

The boy had no relatives in Texas except one uncle, a brother of his mother. His mother's father had been a cousin of Sam Houston.

West stayed with the uncle and went to school at Dresden. He used to sit on a fence and watch herds of cattle go by. As a boy the only ambition he ever had was to be boss of a cow outfit.

Even today, West finds it hard to understand why a boy of 12 doesn't know what he wants to make of himself, West knew.

He was a lanky boy six feet-two and in his late teens when he came west with a friend, Pat Collins. Neither boy had any assurance of a job, but Collins had a sister living near San Angelo.

Owning nothing but his horse and saddle, a cotton blanket, and less than $5 cash, West rode out to Sam Henderson's ranch on the Kickapoo. He found Henderson working cattle and asked for a job. Scratching his chin, the ranchman commented that the boy looked awfully young. But he would give him a try.

West made a hand. It was the only time in his life he ever worked for someone else. He and Henderson's younger brother, Will, hatched together in a dugout on the place now being run by Dr. H. Wimberly of San Angelo.

West worked there six years. He didn't take his wages in cash. He took them in old cattle.

In 1888 he and Will Henderson went to what is now Crockett county. West put his cattle on the John Henderson ranch, working for Henderson enough to pay pasturage.

In time West was able to get a two-section lease to drill a well on, as well as some free range around the lease. That was the only time he ever went into partnership with anybody. He teamed up with the late J. M. Shannon to drill the well.

West always loved to travel, but he never had itchy feet as far as the place he lived was concerned. He liked the country and stayed there. He helped vote the organization of Crockett county in 1891 and voted on the present site of Ozona as the place for the county seat.

Little by little he accumulated more land and built up his herd.

When someone got ready to sell out, West was usually on hand to make him a bid.

In 1897 he was married to Miss Alma Smith. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith. Her father, a contractor, had built most of the earlier houses in Ozona. Mrs. West, incidentally, was the first girl born in Junction.

West never stopped building up his land and cattle. By the time he was ready to divide his holdings among his children about 25 years ago, he had 107 sections of land and 3,000 cattle, as well as a good many horses.

But he never got over-sentimental about life in the old days. When Mrs. West once suggested that they build a sleeping porch on their Ozona home, he emphatically turned thumbs down.

"I slept outdoors on a saddle blanket for 45 years," he declared. "From now on, I'm sleeping in a house."

West had been associated with the Ozona National Bank almost since its organization. He was offered the presidency many times but wouldn't take it. One son, Wayne, has been president 16 years. West, himself has been chairman of the board of directors since 1936. Another son, Massie, is a director.

West's main hobby has always been travel. When the time came that he felt safe in turning the ranch over to his children a few months, he and Mrs. West started making annual trips that were the talk of West Texas.

They crossed the Atlantic 13 times. The last time was on the final leg of a round-the-world cruise in 1937, which accounted for its being a one-way trip. The Wests were in Peking, China, in 1937, when the Japanese came. The Wests got out all right, but not without hearing the rattle of gunfire. They were in the last tourist party to visit the Great Wall of China before the Japanese swarmed over it.

That was their last trip abroad. They planned an all-Southern trip to take in South America and Australia, but the war ended that. They never did get to Russia. That was one place they had little interest in visiting.

No matter where he was, West always wore a Stetson hat. Mrs. West tried to make him leave it home, but the only success she ever had was in getting him to buy one with a little smaller brim. Even so, she says, they visited many places where he could not have attracted more attention if he had worn a washtub over his head.

Although they still maintain their Ozona home on the site where they set up housekeeping 55 years ago, the Wests spend most of their time in San Angelo at Hotel Cactus.

The party last week was a combination birthday and anniversary celebration. The Wests had their 55th anniversary Valentine's Day.

On hand for the party were their four children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne West, Mr. and Mrs. Massie West, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carson, and Mrs. Alice West Baker.

Also present were grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. West, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Albers, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carson and children, Billy and Bohny, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. James Childress and Bobby and Carmen. All are at Ozona but the Hayes family.

The family presented West a big dinner, a hat, and a box of cigars.

Elkhorn Field Is Defined on NE Side; Two More Tests Slated

Continental Oil Co. slated two Elkhorn (Ellenburger) field tests Friday.

At the same time, the field was defined on the northeast side by the plugging of Continental No. 9-A J. M. Shannon.

The projected tests are: Continental No. 16-A J. M. Shannon, 2,003 feet from south and 690 feet from east lines of section 22-UV-GC&SF.

Continental No. 13-A J. M. Shannon, 1,990 feet from south and 2,069 feet from west lines of section 22-UV-GC&SF.

Both projects will drill to contract depth of 7,600 feet with rotary.

The dry hole is the Continental No. 9-A Shannon, 667 feet from north and 690 feet from west lines of section 22-UV-GC&SF. It was abandoned at total depth of 8,730 feet in sandy lime, dolomite and chert.

Abercrombie No. 1 Phelps, Crockett wildcat, recovered 10 feet of drilling mud, no shows, on a 30-minute drillstem test between 5,740-5,800 feet and was drilling ahead at 5,828 feet in dolomite.

Accurate and Complete RANCH RECORDS Are More Important Today Than Ever

Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return.

Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.

Graves-Hufstedler Wedding Vows Read in Uvalde Rites Feb. 15

Miss Mary Louise Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Graves, became the bride of Joe Ross Hufstedler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hufstedler of Ozona, in a double ring ceremony performed at two o'clock Friday afternoon, February 15, in the First Baptist Church in Uvalde. Rev. M. M. Fulmer officiated at the rites, read in the presence of the immediate families.

An arch of stock, gladioli and ferns formed the background for the exchange of vows. Mrs. M. M. Fulmer was organist and accompanied Ross Hufstedler, father of the groom, as he sang "Oh, Promise Me."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an orchid suit worn with dark blue accessories. Her corsage was gardenias and white hyacinths.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue crepe dress with blue accessories and pink sweet pea corsage. Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents at their home, 1907 Hood.

White stock and gladioli centered the bride's table. It was laid with an Italian handmade lace cloth which had been brought from South America by the bride's sister, Mrs. E. E. Capt. Jr. Mrs. Terry Reynolds, another sister of the bride, served the white, tiered cake, and Mrs. George Graves poured the punch.

The couple left later for a wedding trip to North Texas. The groom will leave for overseas duty in the near future, and Mrs. Hufstedler will return to Uvalde while he is away.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hufstedler, parents of the groom; Mrs. Birdie Estes, grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Johnny Hokit and Mrs. Bud Harrison, all of Ozona; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Reynolds, Montell; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fowler, Sabinal; and Bill Graves, University of Texas.

The former Miss Graves is a graduate of Uvalde High School and attended Texas State College for Women, Denton, for three years. Mr. Hufstedler was graduated from Ozona High School, attended Abilene Christian College, Abilene, for one year and North Texas State College, Denton, for three years where he received a

B. A. degree. He is at present serving in the U. S. Army, stationed at Camp Roberts, California.

Ozona Breeder Has Colt Nominee in Big Spring 'Futurity'

BIG SPRING. — With 72 nominees in the three divisions the "Texas Futurity" is pointing toward the biggest purse offered in Texas since the ban on pari-mutuals in 1936.

Elimination trials which will cut the fields in each division, to a final gate of starters, are to be held in San Angelo's Fair Grounds May 10. Final stakes will be reeled off the following Saturday. The event is sponsored by the Texas Horse Breeders Association.

Owners of the two year olds eligible for the Futurity are from 41 different cities in three states.

Nominating from Ozona is Fred Hagelstein whose entry is in the 300 yard division. The colt is by Barney Troutman, Jr., - Sorrell Betty and has not been assigned a name as yet by the registering association.

Most nominees came from Del Rio, where six were named. Sonora and Odem had five each.

Nominating from Sonora were James Hunt 2, Nancy Hunt, Andrew Moore and D. W. Young.

The "Texas Futurity" with its early nominating date, Feb. 15; is a breeders race in that at the time of nomination more reliance must be placed on bloodlines than on known ability of the two year olds. Supplemental races for older horses will complete the program on both Futurity days.

Pilot Training Open To High School Grads

High school graduates who enlist for four years in the Air Force will be eligible immediately to apply for pilot or observer training, the Air Force has announced.

Formerly, high school graduates were required to serve 18 months of the four-year enlistment period before they could apply for such training.

Applicants will be chosen for flying training on a competitive basis.

steadily, even though we are not in a major war. As if this were not enough, the administration calls for more money.

Seventh, we are pouring lives and dollars into a rat-hole in Korea and no one knows why. We can neither win nor lose there. It is a perpetual draw. It is supposed to have something to do with freedom or something; but we have fought all over the world twice for that, and have less of it than ever before.

Eighth, the administration is suppressing vital information not of a true defense type, because it reflects unfavorably upon the administration. Without this information, which belongs to the people, it is impossible to know what goes on, or to make wise political choices.

Ninth, the corruption and graft, recently uncovered, has forced the administration to make a gesture of doing something about it. The President showed his contempt for the whole thing, and the principles involved, by appointing as referee a man who is himself under investigation for unethical profiting at the expense of the war effort.

Tenth, the wall of separation between the church and the state has been slowly but steadily breached by the last two administrations. In order to win Catholic applause, Truman is proposing further to weaken the wall by sending an official government envoy to the Vatican at Rome.

Eleventh, the administration is backing a bill for Universal Military Training, which they admit will not even work now, but which they hope to use in the future to put every 18-year-old American boy under military orders for the most vital eight years of his life, whether there is war or not. The cost of this program will be astronomical. The effect on our morale will be the same as it was in Europe.

Both major parties have long ago abandoned any traditional principles and are playing the field. Each is throwing together a hodge-podge of painted lures to catch the largest number of votes. Either party will promise, say, or do anything to keep in power.

If there was ever a time when honest anger is a virtue, that time is now. If the above recital of follies doesn't make you mad, you can't be made mad. People who forget how to get mad are ripe for slavery. And unless several millions of Americans get good and mad and stay that way through election day and do something about it, we will have another term of Harry. God forbid!

If we expect to pull out of the slump we are in, we must strike hard while the iron is hot. And it is hot now!

STARTING NEW VOGUE FOR IKE . . . In Philadelphia, Pa., pretty Ann Fiero, of that city, goes all out for her choice as president of the United States in the coming election—General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Ann is wearing on her head a new creation, an "I like Ike" beany and a bow tie to match. A smiling portrait of General Eisenhower is a fitting backdrop.

check on the color of her dress so you'll end up getting exactly the right flowers for it.

And now you're dancing. Don't chatter all the time, girls, but just say a few words now and then to let your escort know you are enjoying the evening. When the music stops, the boy applauds—but not the girl. She just smiles as if she's really pleased about everything.

If you stumble or bump into another couple, the boy apologizes even if were the girl's fault. And boys, please don't leave the girl stranded in the middle of the floor—walk her back to her escort if she isn't your date.

Always let the boy get your refreshments. A piece of cake and a glass of punch will always be welcomed by those who dance a lot.

If a boy cuts in, the boy with whom the girl is dancing should thank the girl for the dance and let her go with the other chap. A slight tap on the shoulder always indicates a "cut in." The boy should dance with his date at the beginning and end of the dance and just before and after the intermission.

When at a dance be sure and go. And bid the chaperone "hello." It's not difficult to do.

Remember they're human, too. At program balls this is the way. When you've had your dance with May, Return her to her date once more. Don't leave her stranded on the floor.

While you are dancing, do not chat incessantly of this and that.

Such conversation soon will pall. And leave you manless by the wall.

Remember these few simple rules, and let's go to the next dance with Etta Kette. If you do, I'll bet things will really turn out swell!!!

Robison Takes Honors At Pen of the Joker

One of the greatest desires of a senior is to see a long list of honors after his name in the annual. Well, it seems as if some "joker" has an idea what will be found under Louis Robison's picture in the 1952 annual.

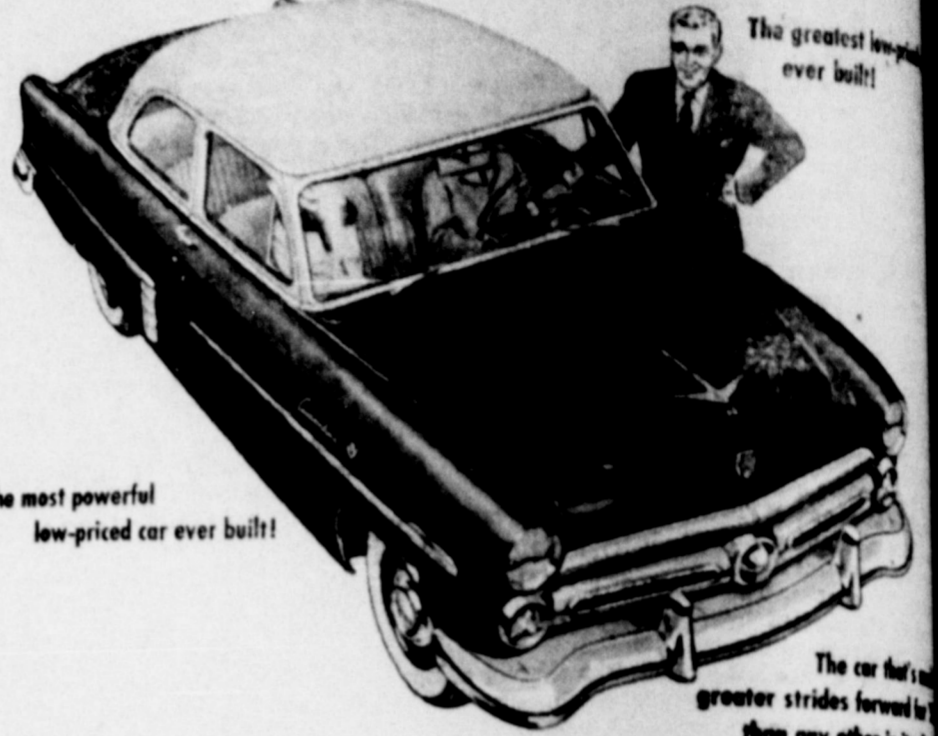

- Here it is:
- President of class, 1, 2, 3, 4;
 - Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Track, 1, 2, 3, 4; President of Student Council, 4; Tennis, 1, 2, 3, 4; Valedictorian, 2, 3, 4; Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Favorite, 1, 2, 3, 4; Mr. Personality, 1, 2, 3, 4; Most Popular, 1, 2, 3, 4; All State Football and Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Regional Tennis Champion, State Debate Team (Shared with Carden); Citizenship Award, 3, 4; Leadership Award, 1, 2, 3, 4; One Act Play; Declamation; Most Likely to Succeed; Class Fireman, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Friendly Freshman

"I'll go with any girl," says our outstanding freshman, Ronnie McMullan. At least that they way he started out that bright remark. Guess it should be finished with his preference, though, and that would be "a girl with blonde hair, about five feet tall and who weighs 105 pounds." A frosh who's five feet seven with green eyes, brown hair, weighs 155 pounds and who is fourteen years old would describe Ronnie. Like most OHS males, he haunts the "Snook" hall. Football will shine as his second choice of "sports."

Chicken — not a favorite food. Can you guess why? Since he is just a bit of our "Friendly Freshman" during the next few weeks. Interested in membership in Ozona? See 2. Have several choices
