

Assassins Cut Down Old Capone Associate

Gang-Style Killing Third In 17 Months

CHICAGO (AP)—Assassins' bullets killed another associate of the old Capone crime syndicate last night. Alex Louis Greenberg, wealthy 64-year-old brewer and reputed sometime mob financial adviser, was the victim of the third gang-style rubout of syndicate buddies in 17 months.

Greenberg was slain on a South Side street as he and his wife prepared to enter their car after dining at a restaurant. Mrs. Greenberg said she knew of no reason why her husband was killed, but Police Capt. Thomas McLaughlin said, "It appears as though he was paying someone and might have muffed a payment."

Police began rounding up known hoodlums for questioning. Mrs. Greenberg, 43, told investigators she and her husband had just walked out of the Glass Dome Hickory Pit, a restaurant at 2724 S. Union Ave., and were standing at the door of their car when two men whose faces she did not see walked up.

She first related that the men engaged her husband in a brief conversation, then: "I heard several shots and saw flashes." Later, however, she signed a statement in which she said no words were exchanged before the men opened fire.

She said Greenberg staggered after the men as they fled on foot, then collapsed in the street about 12 feet from the curb. Mrs. Greenberg ran back into the cafe, screaming, "Call the police. A man's been shot."

The first officer to arrive found her lying across her husband's body, sobbing. Capt. McLaughlin said he based his belief that Greenberg had been paying money to someone on entries found in his checkbook. The police captain said they totaled $4,627.83 between May 26 and Oct. 4.

He theorized that the slaying was not the work of professional killers, explaining: "This guy would not have been chasing professionals after they shot him. He would have been dead on the spot."

Greenberg was shot four times—in the abdomen, the left eye, the left arm and the groin. A card found in his wallet identified him as president of the board of the Canadian Ace Brewing Co., with which he admittedly had been connected since 1922.

Greenberg had minor scrapes with the law during prohibition. Then, in 1943, he was called as a witness in a New York City trial to identify Capone hoodlums, four of whom were convicted of extorting money from the movie industry. They were Charles (Cherry Nussy) Gioe, Louis (Little New York) Campagna, Paul DeLucia and Phillip D'Andrea.

U. S. marshals remove chains and handcuffs before they enter court in San Francisco with Caryl Chessman, best-selling convict-author who has been fighting to escape the gas chamber since 1948. EXPANDING UNIVERSE

Stars Flee Earth At 37,000 M.P.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Great clusters of stars, similar to our Milky Way, are hurtling through space—but a way from the earth—at speeds up to at least 37,000 miles a second.

The Carnegie Institution of Washington reported today this new detail on the velocities involved in the "expanding universe." The institution's annual report described findings made at Mt. Wilson and Palomar observatories, which are operated by Carnegie Technology.

With the aid of the giant 200-inch telescope at Palomar, and also a 100-inch telescope, the report said, "recession velocities" of a total of 626 galaxies have now been measured. These include velocities up to approximately a fifth the speed of light, which is some 186,000 miles a second.

Among other highlights of the report: 1. Astronomers of the two observatories are now carrying out systematic studies of the andromeda nebula which is two million light years, or about 12 million billion miles, distant from the earth. A light year is the distance that light would travel in a year's time.

2. The 200-inch "big eye" telescope has picked up rather detailed evidence of a collision of gaseous galaxies which the report said started some 500,000 years ago—and will be in progress for still another 500,000 years, although "the effects of the collision should now be past their maximum."

3. Studies of rock magnetism suggest the possibility that the geographic axis of the earth, two hundred million years ago, was about 45 degrees away from its present position.

"On the basis of this picture," says the report, "it can be said that about 200 million years ago the Equator crossed Lower California, West Texas, Massachusetts, Gibraltar, Kenya and Tasmania."

Sainburg Heads For Longview

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP)—Dr. Frank Sainburg was en route today by auto to Longview, where he faces at least two court actions, after his arrest Wednesday at Yuma, Ariz., with his 4-year-old son and his stepdaughter of the same age.

Dr. Sainburg, who left Big Spring one week ago with the children was released under $1,500 bond yesterday and his attorney gained permission for him to return to Texas.

The boy, Phillip, and the girl, Mary Jean Nance, arrived in Longview yesterday. The doctor faces charges of flight to avoid prosecution at both Yuma and Longview, where he also has posted bond. A hearing on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus had been set earlier at Yuma.

She visited her parents briefly yesterday accompanied by a deputy sheriff and a jail matron. Sainburg took the children from Big Spring after being cited for contempt at Longview for refusing to give up his son. The girl was born to Mrs. Sainburg by a previous marriage.

Sainburg formerly was a practicing physician at Longview. He faces a New York state charge of kidnaping the boy in Ithaca, N.Y., on Jan. 19, 1954. The child was returned but the state charges Sainburg took the boy again on Nov. 14.

A Navy sent five helicopters and a Beachcraft plane to the area. The Beachcraft pilot sighted the swimmers and dropped a life raft. "The five people got into the raft, waved and started paddling for shore," he reported.

Scientist Says Help Needed In Desegregation

WACO (AP)—Scientists should come out of their seclusion and help the nation solve problems brought on by desegregation of public schools, the Texas Academy of Science was told today.

"There is little evidence that Negroes as a group are by nature less intelligent than white people as a group," Dr. Joseph U. Yarbrough of Dallas said in a report prepared for the academy.

But erasure of the color lines in schools presents problems of fear, anxiety and adjustment on the part of the children so important that scientists must help, said Dr. Yarbrough.

"At no time has there been a greater need for the application of the scientific method to the behavior of man in relation to other men," the Dallas industrial psychologist declared. "Scientists... must abandon their position of seclusion and safety and make a frontal attack upon contemporary social problems."

"Any plan of desegregation must give careful consideration to the dynamic nature of fear in the learning situation. If possible, the element of fear must be kept out of the school if its normal functions are to be carried on with little or no impairment."

Another speaker, Dr. John R. Mayor of Washington, D.C., said in a prepared report that the nation's schools are not turning out nearly enough scientists and engineers.

"Available statistics indicate there have been serious decreases in college enrollments in engineering and the natural sciences since 1950," said Dr. Mayor, who is director of the American Assn. for Advance of Science's program for science teacher improvement.

"At the same time conservative estimates... are that more than 50,000 new engineers and scientists are needed annually. About one-half of the 200 major corporations surveyed by the National Science Foundation reported grave shortages.... There is no immediate prospect for an improvement in the situation."

Dr. Mayor urged that college and university scientists deliberately make of themselves a pressure group to improve science-teaching in the schools. He said the most serious problem is that secondary school students do not have "a desire for knowledge, an ambition to increase the fund of the world's knowledge through their own study and research, and least of all a genuine pleasure from concentrated effort in academic areas."

U.N. Presses Vote On Ike Arms Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U. N. Political Committee pressed for a vote today on a four-power arms plan to give priority to disarmament negotiations to President Eisenhower's "open sky" inspection proposals.

Indications were the resolution, submitted by the United States, France, Canada and Britain, would win strong approval despite Soviet objections. But unless the Soviets give in, the Eisenhower plan can't operate.

The Western plan would have the big-power U.N. Disarmament subcommittee begin a new round of discussions concentrating on the Eisenhower plan and Soviet pre-negotiation inspection team.

The Russians have put in an amendment which would instruct the subcommittee to give priority instead to the over-all Soviet disarmament plan of which the ground inspection proposal is only a part. The plan also calls for cuts in standing forces and a ban on nuclear weapons.

The arms debate through the past week showed no relaxing of the adamantly opposed East-West positions spelled out at the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting in Geneva.

The Russians contended the Eisenhower plan has no bearing on reduction of arms or cutting taxes levied for military purposes. They argued that, instead of freeing people from the fear of surprise attack, it would increase international mistrust.

Washburn Trial Near Jury Stage

WACO, Tex. (AP)—A defense attorney today directly accused Harry Weaver of killing his wife, for whose car-bomb death Harry L. Washburn is on trial.

In final arguments before the sensational televised case against the 39-year-old Houston businessman went to the jury, Defense Attorney C. S. Farmer declared: "Old man Weaver has already committed one murder and now through this jury he is seeking to commit another.... Old man Weaver was the guilty man in this case."

Leading off final arguments for the state, Earl Smith, special prosecutor from San Angelo where Mrs. Helen Harris Weaver was killed by a car bomb last Jan. 19, declared: "The horrible nature of the crime demands only one punishment—death."

"Nothing was to stop him (Washburn) from profiting from the Weaver family." He said Washburn tried at first to hire others to kill, then decided "if I can't hire somebody to do it, I'll do it myself."

Dist. Judge D. W. Bartlett, in his charge to the jury, said whether Washburn was personally present at the explosion scene was not material. He also said Washburn's failure to take the stand in his own defense must not be held against him. He also said that whether Washburn killed the "wrong persons"—whether, as the state contends, he intended to kill Weaver instead of Mrs. Weaver—was not to be taken into consideration by the jury.

The defense had not offered testimony connecting Weaver with the killing. But defense attorneys' questions had raised this implication at times. In final arguments today they said Weaver had declined to take a lie detector test.

Also arguing for the state were Asst. Dist. Atty. Burney Walker, Waco, and Dist. Atty. Tom Moore Jr., Waco. Cliff Tupper, San Angelo, was to close for the defense.

The defense was expected to argue that the state never did establish that Washburn was in San Angelo when Mrs. Helen Harris Weaver was killed. The defense had sought to establish that the bespectacled defendant was in Houston until at least 4 p.m. the day before and also at 8 a.m. the day of the blast.

Both sides rested after the defense produced a document signed by Washburn and the Weavers for Washburn to accept $5,000 for withdrawing all claims against the West Texas ranch couple.

the Weavers had interfered with Washburn's marriage to their daughter and had damaged his character by claiming he broke into their ranch home and threatened them. Washburn and the daughter were divorced and he gained custody of their two children.

The defense put 16 witnesses on the stand in an attempt to cast doubt on the state's circumstantial case.

The defense sought to establish these two main doubts: 1. That the tires on Washburn's car were too old and worn for him to have dared to make an extremely fast trip to San Angelo, Tex., site of the murder, and back to his Houston home the night before Mrs. Weaver was killed.

2. That a dog which barked at strangers was at the home where the Weavers were staying and would have warned of any tampering with the automobile.

Mrs. H. P. Swisher Jr., of Houston testified that Washburn's tires were so worn that she and her husband switched them to their car before trading it to a dealer.

Milton Ragsdale of San Angelo said he often had observed the dog, penned in the back yard, usually barked when strangers approached.

County Judge Glenn Jenkins of San Angelo told of taking Mrs. Weaver's will from a bank safe deposit box and testified that he would have warned of any tampering with the will out of the box. No codicil was found, he said. Weaver was willed only a small portion of his wife's estimated $330,000 estate.

Judge D. W. Bartlett refused a defense motion for an instructed verdict.

Waco television station KWXX-TV continued its live coverage of the trial, the first such in this country.

Burning Victim

Earl R. Fryman, 17, Cleveland, Ohio, is near death from burns he claimed were inflicted by three youths who set upon him, tied him to a tree and doused him with turpentine and set it afire. Police officials, however, have called his story a hoax.

Both Sides Rest In Chapo Theft Case

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Both defense and state rested today in the D. C. Chapo case and it appeared the Duval County case would go to the jury before nightfall.

Dist. Judge Otis T. Dunagan began preparing his charge to the jury and gave opposing sides two hours each for final arguments.

Pacey Eaganman, Houston criminal lawyer defending Chapo against charges of converting $1,400 in school district funds to his own use, announced he would ask that Dist. Atty. Harry Loftis be written expert, examined tax receipts and signatures and identified them as Chapo's.

Foreman said he was basing his request on the claim Loftis was not in court to hear all of the testimony. That is a federal court rule that has never been raised in state courts, Foreman told reporters.

There were two witnesses in the 18th day of the trial and the 13th day of testimony. Harold Stringer, vice president of the Tyler Bank and Trust Co., identified by the state as a handwriting expert, examined tax receipts and signatures and identified them as Chapo's.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Sam Ratliff, put on the stand by Foreman, described papers giving immunity to Diego Heras. The defense claims Heras burglarized the Benavides School District tax office of money and tax records.

Been Reading Comic Books?

ROSEMEAD, Calif. (AP)—Sheriff's deputies went through the motions today of investigating a threatening letter that was dropped into the mailbox of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doviak.

The note read: "To your husband, if this is his wife: Dear Sir, I wanted you to give me $2 cash by Friday morning at 5 minutes to 9 o'clock am. If you don't give me the money by then your wife will be gone by the time you get home. Don't call the police or go to them. You are being followed by my min. Put the money in the grass." (signed) The Dart.

"The Dart," Mrs. Doviak told officers, is an unidentified boy about 6 or 7 years old. She said she saw him drop the letter in the box.

Cold Grips Texas Areas

Two-thirds of the state had freezing or sub-freezing temperatures around daybreak Friday. Friday morning freezing temperatures ranged from 15 degrees at Dalhart to 32 degrees at Cotulla and College Station.

Leadership Fight Promises To Split Labor Party

LONDON (AP)—Three bitter political rivals—Hugh Gaitskell, Herbert Morrison and Aneurin Bevan—today formally entered the race for leader of Britain's Labor party.

The winner will become a potential prime minister and director of the opposition to Prime Minister Eden's Conservative government in the House of Commons.

The leadership contest threatened to strain the frail fabric of unity the party had maintained in recent months. Basic political philosophy also was involved. Gaitskell and Morrison are party moderates. Bevan, who often denounces U. S. policies, is a left-winger.

Kidnap Figure Leaves Prison

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—An auto carrying a former policeman who was charged with the kidnaping of Dolan was released at 12:30 a.m. (CST) today.

A prison attendant, who declined to identify himself, said that Elmer Dolan, former St. Louis patrolman, was released at 12:30 a.m. after serving a 3-year sentence with the customary time off for good behavior. Warden J. O. Kearney previously had announced that Dolan would be released.

An unidentified attendant at the Federal Correction Institute told Wick Temple of the Texarkana Gazette and other newsmen that Dolan would be met by his wife. He also said Dolan had received 144 days off of his sentence for good behavior.

Temple said guards forced reporters and photographers to wait outside the prison gate until the tan Cadillac roared away at what he estimated at 70 miles per hour. It headed south toward Dallas instead of north toward St. Louis with a man driving and a couple in the rear seat.

Something He Picked Up At Work, No Doubt

TOKYO (AP)—In a downtown department store yesterday, police arrested a pickpocket, discovered he was an off-duty policeman.

Dolan and a veteran St. Louis police lieutenant, Louis Shouder, were convicted at separate trials in the spring of 1954 of giving perjured testimony before a federal grand jury.

The two officers arrested Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady in St. Louis Oct. 6, 1953. The couple was executed for murdering Bobby Greenlease, 6, who was lured from a Kansas City private school and shot to death Sept. 28, 1953.

When arrested, Hall had some of the $600,000 ransom money in two suit cases and a brief case. He died insisting that the amount was nearly all of the money paid him by Bobby's millionaire father, Robert C. Greenlease.

Postal Money Order Takes Long Route

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has taken the postman 36 years to deliver a $7.67 postal money order to Rep. Robert W. Kean (R-N.J.).

The post office went into belated action today. It notified Kean to come and get the money order, dated June 6, 1919. Kean at that time was an Army lieutenant just out of the trenches in France.

The order was issued at Trier, France, and signed by Lt. R. J. Topton, otherwise unidentified in the temporary absence of the congressman.

Kean's office staff had no explanation from the Post Office Department for the 36-year delay.

Hunt Reports On SAC Action At Trustees Meet

Reports from various meetings, including the Southern Association of Colleges which voted Howard County Junior College into membership, featured the regular monthly meeting of trustees of the college Thursday.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, told the board he felt the Southern Association action was important not so much for whatever prestige it would add, but because it meant HCJC had attained and would have to continue to achieve high standards in every realm of activity.

He also said emphasis at the associational meeting in Miami, Fla. was on the increasing role of business in support of education.

He also reported on the adult education conference at Texas Tech and predicted this phase of activity for HCJC would expand and would prove a means for enriching community life.

Date for the first homecoming of HCJC has been set for Dec. 31 at the college and will include a barbecue. Dr. Hunt let it be known that the administration would be receptive toward gifts of meat.

Request of College Park Development Association for $2,200 participation by the college in an 8-inch water main and $500 toward a sewer line was taken under advisement. Trustees, in general, were cool toward the suggestion.

Purchase of a motion picture projector with special shutter and power for distance projection (such as in the auditorium) was approved. Cost will approximate $586. The machine is adaptable for classroom use and trustees felt it was more practical than other models which were permanent installations in the auditorium and would have cost around four times as much.

Financial statement was approved, and Earl Bryant, business manager reported that actually the college had on hand $136,000 in current taxes. The report of Nov. 30 showed only about $75,000 at that time.

The board will meet next Thursday at 2 p.m. to receive bids on the new building program.

Suggs Gets Kent Courthouse Job

Suggs Construction Company of Big Spring has been awarded the contract for the building of a new courthouse for Kent County.

The structure, to be erected at Jayton, will cost $338,257. It will contain approximately 20,000 square feet of floor space, according to Curtis Fish, superintendent for A. E. Suggs. Most of the masonry will be Leuders stone and Arizona stone with some granite base for paneling. There is comparatively little brick.

Contract calls for beginning work in about 10 days and completing within 210 days.

Suggs recently started work on two new jobs, telephone exchange buildings in Alpine and Marfa for Southwestern Bell Telephone. Together they will cost around $136,000.

The concern has about completed one Snyder elementary school building and is in the middle of construction on a shops and band building for the Snyder High School.

Negro Sent Son Away After Threats In Integration Case

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—An elderly Negro says he ordered his teenage son to leave Arkansas because the boy's life was threatened anonymously during the bitter dispute over racial integration in public schools at Hoxie, Ark.

Clarence Braxton, a 73-year-old farmer, yesterday testified in U.S. District Court here that he sent 16-year-old Joseph Braxton to live with a brother in Washington State because, "I didn't want my boy to get what that whistling boy got."

Braxton was referring to the recent murder of Louis Emmet Till, a Chicago Negro youth, who was killed in Mississippi after allegedly "wolf-whistling" at a white woman.

Attorneys for the Hoxie School Board, which integrated schools in the small East Arkansas town last July, called Braxton to the witness stand in an attempt to prove that three pro-segregation organizations created a "reign of terror" in Hoxie during a campaign to force revocation of the board's integration order.

The board is seeking a permanent injunction to prohibit White America, Inc., the White Citizens Councils of Arkansas, and the Hoxie Committee for Integration from interfering with operating of the racially mixed classes. The proposed injunction would prevent the segregationists from boycotting or picketing the schools, trespassing on school property, or threatening school officials.

Two school board members and Supt. K. E. Vance testified yesterday that they had been threatened with bodily harm if segregation was not returned to the schools. Mrs. Marion Boardman told the court that attendance dropped 50 to 60 per cent after the segregationists started their drive against the integrated classes.

U.S. Judge Thomas C. Trimble already has issued a preliminary injunction on the basis of a school board suit. Federal Judge Albert Reeves of Kansas City is conducting the current hearing to determine if Trimble's order shall be made permanent.

Woman Finds New Type Plane Is Easy To Handle

Editor's Note: The manufacturers of Cessna airplanes have recently marketed a new civilian craft. They are conducting experiments to determine just how easily a novice pilot can learn to fly this plane. Gerry Smith, of the Tarentum Valley Daily News, Tarentum, Pa., tried yesterday. Here is her account of what happened.

By GERRY SMITH

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP)—The first time I ever sat in the pilot's seat of an airplane I took off, flew at 1,000 feet, 120 miles per hour and landed—without aid.

Until yesterday I didn't know an airplane instrument panel from a hole in the ground. I had been in an airplane only twice before—both times as a commercial air passenger.

I have very little mechanical aptitude—even can openers talk back to me occasionally. I have the world's worst sense of direction and I flunked my first driver's test. In addition, I'm a woman.

But a new civilian airplane (Cessna 172) is so simple to operate that even I can fly it. Maybe that's why my editor assigned me to the job—to see how simple it was.

One of the first craft off the production line was delivered just recently in the Pittsburgh area dealer, Alfred E. Bennett. He accompanied me on the flight, since the law requires that a licensed pilot accompany anyone without a license. But I was able to handle the controls alone after just a few minutes instruction.

I simply turned the ignition key, gradually opened the throttle and when the speedometer read 40, raised the nose. And there I was, flying!

I leveled off at 1,000 feet, pushed the throttle wide open and reached 120 miles per hour. By pressing either of the foot pedals I could bank to the right or left. To land, I headed toward the field and gradually lowered the nose. I must admit that more gentle contact has probably been made between airplane wheels and landing field but I did land alone, without mishap.

Union Charts Giant Organizing Drive To Enlist 'Millions'

NEW YORK (AP)—The AFL-CIO today charted a giant organizing drive to enlist "millions" of new members in the two years before the next AFL-CIO convention.

Both George Meany, former AFL president and new AFL-CIO chief, and Walter Reuther, former head of the CIO, now a vice president in the merged organization, pledged an all-out recruiting campaign.

Stepped-up organizing was the major theme of the final session of the AFL-CIO founding convention yesterday. Reuther reported that former CIO unions have already pledged four million dollars as an organizing fund. Former AFL unions are also expected to contribute.

The chemical, textile, and paper industries were mentioned as initial targets for union organizers as well as office and building industry workers.

"I am sure for the spirit I have seen at this convention, that we can do this job," Meany told delegates. "We can do it in a way that will warm the hearts of the veterans of our movement."

Reuther said that by organizing and obtaining higher wages for presently nonunion workers, the AFL-CIO could turn them into "first-class citizens," increase purchasing power and raise living standards.

"This is the greatest opportunity we ever had," he said. "It's an opportunity to demonstrate that labor unity is not just a pious slogan, but that we can apply that slogan to the practical task of carrying forth an organizational drive into every section of America."

Meany, meanwhile, was due to speak at a meeting today of the National Assn. of Manufacturers on "What Labor Expects From Industry." He was to be followed on the same program by Charles R. Sligh Jr., the NAM's board chairman, whose subject was "What Industry Expects From Labor."

Their speeches may clarify a dispute over whether the NAM had accepted a suggestion made a few days ago that the AFL-CIO and NAM representatives seek to work out a labor-management pact.

Meany told newsmen Wednesday that an unnamed NAM representative had contacted him and arranged for "staff level" talks to see what areas of agreement between the AFL-CIO and NAM could be worked out.

Sligh afterward denied there were any such arrangements.

Later Meany said that apparently, based on Sligh's denial, the NAM representative with whom he said he spoke had not been authorized to talk for the business group.

It was more cold weather today from the Rockies to the Appalachians with the mid-South getting another touch of wintry blasts.

The arctic air extended over the Gulf of Mexico and temperatures in the lower Mississippi Valley and Texas dropped some 20 degrees during the night. Snow flurries were reported as far south as Tennessee. It was below freezing from New Jersey southwestward into southern Oklahoma, into west central Texas and westward over the Rockies and the Great Basin area.

But the coldest weather continued in the Dakotas, Nebraska and Minnesota, with below-zero readings. It was -20 this morning in Aberdeen, S. D.

The cold air had not reached the East Coast and generally mild December weather prevailed.

2 Children Die In Fire Holding Mother's Hands

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP)—Two small Negro children perished yesterday in a fire which destroyed their home while their mother held their hands through a barred but partly opened door.

The mother, 30-year-old Mrs. Ira Gett, said she had left the children, Bera, 4, and Billy Ray, 2, in the house here while she went to a neighbor's home. She said that by the time she noticed the fire, the front part of the house had collapsed. She ran to a back door, but it was bolted from the inside.

She managed to force the door enough to get her hands inside, but could open it no further. She said that she held hands with the children until the house crumbled.

She suffered burns on the hands and wrists.

27 Paratyphoid Cases Reported

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Twenty-seven new cases of paratyphoid were reported in Lancaster County yesterday, raising to 81 the number of persons known to have been stricken.

Health authorities said they could not predict when the outbreak would reach its peak. The majority of the victims were children.

A program of mass inoculations against the disease and of treatment with antibiotics was being continued by family physicians under state aid.

Paratyphoid is a communicable bacterial disease with symptoms similar to typhoid.

GM Debate Faces Overtime As More Testimony Readied

WASHINGTON (AP)—A debate about the effects of the bigness of General Motors and other powerful corporations is apparently going to run overtime.

Yesterday Henry M. Hogan, GM general counsel, asked for a chance "to rebut the chairman" because he said he has been making statements that amount to testimony.

Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) of the Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee promised him the chance.

So far much of the time has been used by O'Mahoney and GM President Harlowe Curtice in brisk but friendly clashes about GM policies.

Last night, O'Mahoney and Subcommittee Counsel Joseph W. Burns were asking if GM was trying "to squeeze out" independent manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers in replacement parts for the more than 24 million GM cars now on the road.

No, said Curtice, Vice President William F. Huistader and other GM executives. As they pictured it, GM—properly—was trying to get its share of this offshoot of the motor industry that is a big business in itself.

Although GM has been selling half of all new cars and trucks recently, they said, it now has only about 20 per cent of the parts business and is trying to get more.

O'Mahoney said this is the trend that he and many others question. Continual concentration of business he said, finds the small operators getting a lower profit and the larger units a bigger one.

Curtice disputed O'Mahoney's contention that expansion of GM had crowded out other business.

He said GM gets 68 per cent of its goods from some 21,000 suppliers and they, including many small businesses, had all grown and prospered along with General Motors.

French Politicos Jockey Hard For Position

PARIS (AP)—With less than 48 hours until final filing time, political leaders throughout France jockeyed feverishly today for alliances to improve their chances in the election of a new National Assembly Jan. 2.

The legal period for posting electoral alliances expires at midnight tomorrow in each of the nation's department (provinces) capitals. In many cases leaders held back until the last moment for local tactical reasons.

Two main currents already are visible, however.

One is based on a "Republican Front" grouping unveiled yesterday by Guy Mollet, secretary general of the French Socialist party, and former Premier Pierre Mendes-France, leader of the leftist wing of the Radical Socialist party.

The Socialists had 104 seats in the Assembly dissolved Nov. 30 by Premier Edgar Faure's Cabinet. The Radical Socialists had 70 members, with about half of them controlled by Mendes-France.

The left wing of the Social Republican (Gaullist) party and the Union of Democratic and Socialist Resistance (UDSR) also are considered part of the "Republican Front."

Another lineup in the works is expected to include the followers of Faure, leader of the rightist wing of the Radical Socialists; the rightist Independent Republicans led by Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay; and the slightly left-of-center Catholic party, the Populaire Republican Movement (MRP).

The Independent Republicans had 54 seats in the last Assembly and the MRP controlled 85. The independent peasant groups, which had 28 seats, also may line up in the alliance.

Alliances are important under the present French election law. If an alliance receives more than 50 per cent of the vote in any department, it gets all the seats for that department. Otherwise, the seats are divided among the parties on a proportional basis.

The Communist party, which had 98 members in the last Assembly, made a bid to the Socialists for a "popular front" electoral coalition, but the Socialists turned it down.

The splinter parties of the extreme right also are expected to be isolated in the alliance maneuvering.

The bitter political feud between Faure and Mendes-France is leading the Radical Socialists to an outright split. Mendes-France now dominates the party machinery, but Faure has been tightening his grip on the Rally of the Republican Left (RGR), a loose grouping of several political parties, including the Radical Socialists.

Leaves Mock War Behind

Army Sgt.-1C John N. Digiovanni is back with his German wife, Rosa Maria, 21, and their daughter, Joann, 3, in New York. When his wife and daughter arrived from Germany en route to his station at Ft. Hood, she learned he was "missing" in "Operation Sagebrush" in Louisiana. A farmer showed Digiovanni a newspaper story of his wife's plight. He made his way through "enemy" territory to his own lines and the Army sped him on to the reunion.

MORE DRILLING

Dawson Has 400 Irrigation Wells

LAMESA — Dawson County's young irrigation industry has already reached a total of 400 wells, with prospects for another frenzy of drilling during the winter and spring.

Orders are coming in steadily for sprinkler pipe, said Babe Palmer, salesman for a sprinkler irrigation company. The only lull his company has had this year was during the late summer and fall when farmers were harvesting crops.

County Agent Leroy Colgan thinks 100 new wells will be drilled between now and planting time. He said the wells were not concentrated in any one area, but seem to be spreading throughout the county where water is available. Several new ones are now being drilled in the Key community east of Lamesa.

A few years ago a well capable of pumping only 200 gallons a minute was considered too small for operation. Now hardly any of them are too small. Near Akerley there is one that pumps only 40 gallons per minute, but has made the owner a nice profit every season for the last five years.

Colgan said most of the wells south of Lamesa were small, though a few will make up to 500 or 600 gallons. The best wells are in the north part of the county where the record breakers make as much as 1,400 gallons.

The irrigated cotton this year accounted for about half the county's cotton yield. Most farmers concentrated their water on cotton and did not irrigate grain sorghums, said Colgan.

Cotton yields have gradually been increasing the last two or three years, though the early freeze this last October cut production by several thousand bales. The best cotton on a field-wide average was in the Key community where several fields produced around two bales per acre.

Yields have been substantially increased by the use of fertilizer. One fertilizer dealer in Lamesa said farmers were using liquid fertilizer in larger quantities. Some of them are also turning to dry fertilizer containing both nitrogen and phosphates.

Two or three farmers have made more cotton by planting it on land previously planted to vetch. However, most farmers rely upon commercial fertilizer and have not generally accepted soil-improving crops.

C'Mon, Miuts, Let's Paint The Nunat Red

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Any miuts from other nunapiks in this territory who want to sound off about what to name populated areas in the future state of Alaska are invited to show up in this Nunapuk tomorrow.

But don't be coming around here talking like you're from some big metropolitan area, see. That'll be strictly passe. Other suggestions will be listened to with interest by the Committee on Local Government at the constitutional convention now in session on the University of Alaska campus.

The committee members are in a quandary, facing a real crisis in deciding what words to use to designate their populated areas. Ordinary states call them towns, shires, parishes, boroughs, bergs, even cities.

But the committee members think this isn't suitable for this land of the Aleut and the Eskimo, the Indian and the white man. So they have tentatively dreamed up some words with native derivatives and just a dash of the white man's tongue.

These include "nuna," "nunapuk," "munipuk" and "nunat" for areas, and "miut" for people in the areas.

Nuna means inhabited areas, nunapuk is big inhabited area and nunat means fixed area in this jargon. A suggestion added "puk," which means big, to miut to make munipuk or a big municipality.

None of it is final yet and anyone with ideas is invited to express them in convention hall on the campus tomorrow morning.

Words from the Tchuktchee (Siberian Eskimos) are taboo.

Organ Students Guild Is Formed

Formation of a Student Guild, the first in this part of the state, had been authorized by the American Guild of Organists for Howard County Junior College.

The AGO is the official organization for organists of the country and most of the leading organists are Guild members in local chapters throughout the States and Canada.

Charter members of the Guild Student Group here are Mrs. J. L. Adams, Mary Lou Garcia, Alice Ann Martin, Mrs. Dorothy Kenner, Mrs. Dolores Lillard, Nelson Milstead, Julie Rainwater. The supervisor will be Jack Hendrix, director of piano and organ at HCJC.

Janie Craig, state chairman for Texas, said that the student group here would be the first in this region. Formal installation will take place early in January and Miss Craig may be present to assist. Officers will include a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

The American Guild of Organists was chartered in 1896 by the board of regents of the University of New York. One purpose of the Guild is to advance the cause of worthy religious music; to elevate the status of church musicians; to increase their appreciation of duties and responsibilities. Another purpose is to raise standards of efficiency of organists and choir-masters by examinations in practical organ playing, choir-training, theory and general music knowledge. Much of the work is accomplished through discussion groups.

The support of columnist Leigh Mitchell Hodges and the Philadelphia North American newspaper made a success of the first American Christmas Seal Sale in Wilmington.

McKay Says He Doesn't Recall 'Goon' Remark

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Secretary of Interior McKay said last night he didn't remember making the "goon" statement credited to him by Adlai Stevenson, but he immediately adopted it.

"I certainly never said it in any major speech. But what of it? I don't go along with some of the goons in labor—and there are goons—we have had them right here in Oregon," McKay said on a stopover at Portland while flying to Honolulu.

Stevenson's remark in a New York speech had been: "A member of the Cabinet has said he doesn't happen to go along with some of the 'goons' who are 'running things.'" An aide said Stevenson was referring to McKay.

McKay had other comments on Stevenson:

"He's just a little man looking for a job—somewhat shopworn, but still looking for a job."

"He's a fine one to talk of Cabinet members splitting the nation. The Democrats did more to make this nation class conscious and divide it with their New Deal than has anything else in the country's history."

"Stevenson needn't worry about the country splitting into classes. There will be none of that under President Eisenhower's leadership."

"There are only a couple of men who don't want Eisenhower to run again. One of them is (New York Gov. Averell) Harriman and the other is Stevenson."

Officers Quote Suspect As Admitting Slaying Of Couple

CARLYLE, Ill. (AP)—Clinton County authorities said early today a 34-year-old Carlyle man admitted killing a Lebanon, Ill., couple missing from their home since Nov. 27.

Sheriff's deputies identified the man as Philmore Young. He was held without charge. They said he gave no reason for the double killing.

The missing couple is Harold Smith, 30, a carpenter, and his wife Arlene, 35. They were reported missing Nov. 29 after relatives noticed bullet holes in windows and a door of their blood-spattered home.

The deputies said they investigated a report several days ago that Young had been acting strangely on a country road near Carlyle early Nov. 28, several hours after the Smiths were believed to have been taken from their home. A bloody rag was found alongside the road. The blood was the same type as that in the Smith home.

No Situation To Sniff At

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Sniffing moonshine whisky in the line of duty has given Capt. Raymond H. Brock of the Miami Police Department an early retirement and a pension of $339 a month.

The officer headed a squad cracking down on illegal liquor in 1952. His policemen brought him a bottle after bottle of moonshine and Brock did a lot of sniffing. Finally he was stricken with toxic neuritis, sent to a hospital and told to take a long rest. The Miami Retirement Board reported Brock suffered general muscular weakness, lack of coordination in walking and neurological damage.

Brock, employed by the department 19 years, retired at 47. The usual retirement age is 55.

Sec. Dulles Urges 'Selective Power'

CHICAGO (AP)—Western countries, to meet Russia's new challenge to their security, must bolster their alliances and maintain "selective retaliatory power," says Secretary of State Dulles.

Stating that the Russians have had no change in purpose but "merely in tactics," Dulles said last night, "Our capacity to retaliate must be, and is, massive in order to deter all forms of aggression."

"But if we have to use that capacity," he added, "such use would be selective and adapted to the occasion."

The secretary of state repeated his massive retaliation theme in a major foreign policy address at a dinner meeting of the Illinois Manufacturers Assn. When it was first advanced some two years ago it frightened some Europeans but Dulles stressed it was "a firm foundation for peace."

He asserted last night the policy of collective security—backed by an "arsenal of retaliation"—will form "the ultimate deterrent" against the possibility of full-scale attack by the Soviet Union.

"What I have just been saying is what I said five years ago," he said.

Dulles, who helped form the collective security program under the Truman administration, added: "That program has now become a reality."

The massive retaliation theme was first advanced by Dulles in a speech Jan. 12, 1954. He said the United States would depend primarily on "a great capacity to retaliate instantly by means and at places of our own choosing" to any Communist attack.

Fears were voiced that this might touch off World War III if the United States reacted in such a way to a minor Communist assault.

Dulles later clarified, qualified and expanded his statements. In substance, he said the United States had no intention of depending merely on its capacity for massive atomic retaliation to scare off possible Communist aggressors.

Instead, the United States would deal separately with each case in the most appropriate manner and would make full use of local defense forces.

In answer to reporter's questions, Dulles asserted there is no change in the redefined policy of massive retaliation. He told newsmen it was a theme that needed repeating and that his speech was basically one of "reiteration."

Dulles, dressed in a pin-striped suit and wearing a green and white striped tie, sat between tuxedo-garbed guests at the speaker's table. Some 2,000 guests attended the dinner in the Conrad Hilton Hotel's grand ballroom.

Dulles said free Asiatic leaders will not be "easily duped" by a Russian campaign of promises of aid to underdeveloped areas in the world. He said they are aware of the danger of communism.

The secretary said Russia's leaders, thwarted in their drive to expand by force, have picked these underdeveloped areas "as targets for their guile."

He added that a big pool of Russian technicians is now available for Kremlin leaders to send into underdeveloped regions "as a symbol of promises which are alluring."

Because of this, he said, "we need not become panicky" at Russia playing the role of benefactor. The Soviet's "false promises," he said, "fool" no one.

In his applause-sprinkled speech, Dulles said the administration has "no doubt" that Congress will "patriotically respond" with appropriations for giving aid to less developed lands. He said appropriate ations would be on the "same order of magnitude as last year."

Dulles recently reported that the level of over-all foreign aid to friendly countries is $2,700,000,000 annually.

He said that "we shall seek somewhat more flexibility than heretofore."

Asked to detail this flexibility, Dulles told a newsmen that it "would give us more choices in where we will spend the money, and the places where it will be spent will not be decided beforehand."

He said he had no specific countries in mind which would receive increased aid.

In his speech he said Western European nations must bolster their alliances and find "unity on a more intimate basis."

He said a greater unity eventually would increase pressure on Russia to loosen its grip on its satellite countries, and added:

"This may speed the day when the Soviet rulers will come to realize that to hold these Eastern European nations in subjection involves an obsolete reactionary practice, entailing costs, moral and material, far outweighing the seeming advantages."

Olson In 4th Title Defense This Evening

By JERRY LISKA CHICAGO (AP) — Champion Carl (Bobo) Olson, a 3-1 favorite, makes his fourth middleweight title defense tonight against a man who has whipped him twice, aging Sugar Ray Robinson, at the Chicago Stadium.

This scheduled 15-round battle brings together a 27-year-old Olson who was flattened last summer by Archie Moore trying an upward climb and a 35-year-old Robinson at the peak of a questionable comeback.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Studying the tea leaves for the football winners: GARLAND 20, Texarkana 7. Garland beat the team (Snyder) that should have proceeded to the state championship in AAA. The Owls are lucky but they're also pretty good and evidently they have a great halfback in Bobby Dean Boyd.

PORT NECHES 14, Alice 6. This one may be closer than everyone thinks. Alice has come up with a rare good club and Port Neches doesn't have the bench strength it has had in years past. However, the Indians are battle wise, because they've been there before.

ABILENE 33, Sunset 7. No team is going to stop Abilene now, unless it would be Tyler in the finals. Coach Chuck Moser figured this to be an "off" year for his Eagles. He was building for 1956. But, apparently, schoolboy teams in Texas (in any class) are not as tough as they were in 1953 and 1954.

TYLER 20, Baytown 13. Tyler could come a cropper here but the Lions handled Corpus Christi Miller with astonishing ease last week. This Tyler club must be a great 'pressure' club.

BRECKENRIDGE 13, Stamford 0. Some one said that the Buckies didn't have a great club this year, that they're just long on desire. Well, they're too close to another State title now to be caught napping. Stamford won't roll over and play dead, however.

Skipping over the others: OLNEY 14, New London 7. HILLSBORO 20, Lockhart 6. NEDERLAND 27, Westlaco 1. RANGER 14, Stinnett 0. CHILLICOTHE 21, Leverett's Chapel 8. LULING 26, Crosby 7. DEER PARK 34, Hebronville 0.

The promoters in professional baseball are groping for straws. Big Spring was voted a franchise in the new Southwestern League, although it didn't have a representative at the organizational meeting in Lubbock several weeks ago.

Last week, Minor League Prexy George Trautman okayed the ten-team circuit, with Big Spring as a member, even though the city had no delegate attending the minor league convention at Columbus, Ohio. Not a hand has been turned here to give Big Spring a team next year. Apparently, none will be.

It's pretty obvious that Big Spring would have no trouble fielding a team, if it had a new park. But it doesn't have.

The new league looks good on paper but it lacks a long way from being really organized. It's going to take some vigorous leadership to ever get it off the ground.

It may be too widespread to last very long. The league officials might be spending their time more effectively by trying to rally support for a club in Odessa, although that city doesn't even have a ball park.

CHOSEN BY COACHES

Chicago Peddles Frank Baumholtz

CHICAGO (M)—The Chicago Cubs, who failed in an attempt to peddle him out of the National League last year, today sold veteran outfielder Frankie Baumholtz to the Philadelphia Phils.

The Cubs declined to reveal the price tag for the 36-year-old Baumholtz, whose "sale" to the Chicago White Sox a year ago collapsed when the Cubs failed to ask proper waivers.

Baumholtz last season completed his fifth full Cup campaign by batting .289 in 105 games and hitting .405 as a pinch-hitter with 15 late-clinics in 37 AB's.

A Cub spokesman said Baumholtz "just doesn't figure" in Cub future plans with eight other outfielders, most of them much younger, on the roster.

Roy Campanella Is Named National's MV Player

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK (M)—Roy Campanella, baseball's Comeback Man of the year, today joined one of the sport's most exclusive clubs when he was named the National League's Most Valuable Player for the third time.

Only five players have won the coveted Most Valuable trophy as many as three times. The 34-year-old Brooklyn catcher and Stan (The Man) Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals are the only National Leaguers.

Jimmy Fox, that great slugger who played for the Athletics and Red Sox; Joe DiMaggio of Yankee fame; and Yogi Berra, New York catcher are the three in the American League. Berra received his third MVP award a week ago.

One might think that Campanella, who is used to hanging up Kennesaw Mountain Landis plaques (the official trophy given by the league) in his St. Albans, N.Y., home, would be a little blasé about receiving another. But not so. "I get a bigger kick out of this one than I did the other two (1951-53)," said the big Negro catcher who beat out teammate Duke Snider by five votes. "I didn't look forward to this one and it is a wonderful surprise."

But immediately Campy said he has no intention of resting on his laurels. "I think I've got a few good seasons left," he said. "The worst has happened," referring to an in-

Rice Topples OU, 62 To 47

The Associated Press

One Southwest Conference basketball team, Rice, won over Oklahoma, 62-47, Thursday night while another, Arkansas, lost to the Oklahoma Aggies, 70-66.

It was the fourth straight for Rice as Joe Durrenberger, with 20 points, led the Owls to victory at Houston.

The Oklahoma Aggies fought an uphill battle at Stillwater to beat the Razorbacks in an overtime thriller.

Baylor plays Washington at Seattle. Southern Methodist meets Iowa at Iowa City and Texas Christian takes on Alabama at Tuscaloosa Friday night.

Oklahoma, hitting only 9 out of 20 free throws, led only once against Rice. That was when a basket by Joe King gave the Sooners a 10-9 advantage. Durrenberger teamed with Fred Woods, who got 16 points, to jump the Owls to a 50-36 lead shortly after Ed Abbey, Sooner forward, fouled out in the opening seconds of the second half. Cente-Leroy Bacher led Oklahoma with 23 points.

The Oklahoma Aggies tied the score at 64-64 when center Ron Peier made a free throw with 8 seconds left. Then the Oklahoma Aggies scored three field goals in the overtime period to gain their second victory of the season.

Guard V. R. Barnhouse of the Aggies was high scorer for the night with 19 points. The Porkers were paced by forward Manuel Whitley, who got 18 points. Arkansas appeared on its way to its first victory of the season as it held a 24-11 lead at half time.

First SWC Member In 33 Years May Be Enlisted

DALLAS (M)—The Southwest Conference faculty committee opens a session today that may bring in the league's first new member in 33 years.

Texas Tech is up for a vote once more and its backers are exceedingly optimistic that the big West Texas college will crack the tight barrier. Athletic Director DeWitt Weaver of Tech said he thought the school had its best chance yet of making it.

Five votes are needed and Tech expects to start out with three known backers—Texas Christian, Baylor and Texas. Arkansas and Texas A&M are considered the pivotal points, with Rice and Southern Methodist not likely to come over.

The faculty committee meets this afternoon, tonight and tomorrow morning and its deliberations will be revealed at a press conference about noon tomorrow.

Athletic directors and head football coaches met yesterday afternoon and recommended two things:

A fifth official in football and moving up the period for signing letters of intent (athletic contracts) to April 1. The date has been April 15.

Several other conferences already have the fifth official. The Southwest Conference has been talking about it for a year but this is the first time for the coaches to recommend it.

Moving up the letter of intent period will mean an earlier start on getting hot college prospects. High school athletes participating in spring sports still cannot be signed, however.

The faculty committee opens its meeting with the question of expansion most prominent on the agenda. There already are two motions on the table: 1. To invite Texas Tech; 2. To invite Tech and Oklahoma. Three votes are necessary to get them off the table but apparently Tech has enough votes for that already.

In an editorial entitled "The Case For Texas Tech," the Dallas News

today says it "hopes the Southwest Conference will admit Texas Technological College to its membership."

The News says it "does not presume to direct conference action, but Tech's case has outstanding merits." The News adds: "Texas Tech is serving efficiently the fastest-growing section of Texas. Its logical area is larger than that of many states. It has come to maturity in the Texas family of institutions of higher learning and is entitled to participate in the activities of that family, including athletics."

Jim Swink Leads Nation's Scorers

The Associated Press

Jim Swink of Texas Christian University Thursday officially was named the 1955 major college football scoring champion through the NCAA service bureau statistics.

These figures showed that the Rusk, Tex., speedster, who entered TCU on a basketball scholarship and was converted to football, collected 125 points on 20 touchdowns and 5 conversions. He led the way in both scoring and "touch-down responsibility."

Swink is the first Southwest Conference player to win the scoring title since Joel Hunt in 1927 and thus joins an illustrious list of 20-touchdown scorers.

The only players in 35 years to make more than 20 were Ken Strong, Gene McEver, Bobby Reynolds, Wilton (Whizzer) White (Arizona State, 1950), Ollie Matson and Art Luppino.

Hugh Pollard of TCU, the mop-up man after most of Swink's scoring spurges, made the most conversions, 25 of 31 attempts.

the Steers have been showing steady improvement and could make it tough on the Bulldogs.

Probable starters for the Longhorns are LeRoy LeFevre, Jan Loudermilk, Jimmy Bice, Donald Lovelady and Mike Musgrove.

Semi-final championship action in the tournament starts at 10 a.m. Saturday. If the Steers win, they take on the Poly-Levelland survivor at that hour.

Should they lose tonight, the locals clash with the loser of that engagement at 8:45 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Consolation finals are down for 6:45 p.m. Saturday. The game for third place while the title game goes on at 9:15 p.m.

Sweetwater replaced Avoca in the tournament and could emerge as the titlist, without causing too much of a surprise.

Borger defeated Birdville in last year's finals, 37-47. Childress capped third place by sidelining Abilene, 73-62.

San Angelo Loses To Ponies, 63-35

SWEETWATER (SC) — Sweetwater's Mustangs won their second game of the season over San Angelo here Thursday night. Final tally was 63-35.

Dale McKeethan made 22 points and Jerry Lamm 18 for Sweetwater. Don Abbott led San Angelo with 19.

Christmas Seal Money Used For Many Things

By ANNE LE FEVER Did you ever wonder what is done with the 82 cents kept in Howard County out of every dollar paid for the Christmas seals sent by the Tuberculosis Association? Just spend half an hour with county health nurse, Jewel Barton, at the City-County Health Unit, and she can tell you.

During the past year, the association has furnished medicine for 12 tuberculosis patients at an average of ten dollars per patient per month. There are three principal drugs used in the fight against this disease, some of which are taken from two to three times a week, with some being taken every day.

Miss Barton stressed the fact that the disease is different from other illnesses in that it requires prolonged treatment to effect a cure. These treatments are supplied with money from the seal sales.

Mass x-rays, which are sponsored each year by the association, are financed through the sale of seals. This year the x-rays showed 45 cases of TB. 54 heart conditions not previously suspected and 13 other conditions which needed attention.

One patient, who was discovered to have a tumor in a lung, was sent by the organization to the M. A. Anderson Cancer Research Hospital in Houston.

"Three cases of tuberculosis were found in one family by the use of the mass x-ray, and two cases were found in another family. These, along with all other cases are followed up and checked regularly.

Members of the patients' families are x-rayed every three months for two years after the patient is admitted to a sanatorium, in the case of home treatments.

Altrusans and members of the Kiwanis Club met at the Settles in joint session to hear the speaker. Though the legal status of women has in the past been limited, they have shown that they have the ability to do a good job in voting and taking part in the affairs of government, the clubs were told.

Sen. Ratliff compared the state governing bodies to the directors of a giant business concern, and remarked that too few people take enough interest in the workings of the legislature. He then gave the group's procedure in passing of a law.

Verdict Entered In Dyess Death

Justice of the Peace Walter Grice has ruled death as a result of a heart attack in the case of William G. Dyess, who died early Thursday morning in Coahoma.

Traveling from his home in Santa Ana, Calif., with a couple from there, Dyess complained of being sick as they passed through Coahoma.

When he failed to return to the car after a short while, his companions investigated and found him a short ways from the car. After taking him to the police station, they called an ambulance. He died while on the way to the hospital.

Dyess, 51, was on the way to Brownwood to visit his sister, Mrs. Susie Haynie.

When Dyess was found by the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noble, he had been scratched and slightly bruised, but an investigation by Grice and Bob West, investigator for the district attorney, revealed the man had stumbled against a barbed-wire fence.

Mr. Dyess leaves two sons, Hobson Dyess and W. G. Dyess Jr., Vals, Ariz.; two daughters, Mrs. Pauline Kellum, Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Flora Lyon, Orange, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Hudson, Anaheim, Calif., and Mrs. Sue Haynie, Brownwood.

The remains are due to be returned to Santa Ana, Calif., for final rites and interment.

Johnson Seen As Candidate

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune says Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) expects to be a favorite son candidate at next summer's convention.

A Washington dispatch by Walter Kerr added, however, that Johnson had made it clear he will be no more than a favorite son candidate.

"He (Johnson) maintains this is the only way of heading off a bitter factional fight within the state party next spring," the story said.

Either face to face or by telephone, the newspaper said, Johnson contacted Adlai E. Stevenson, the only announced Democratic candidate; Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, and Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) and told them of his plans.

Johnson suffered a heart attack last July.

In his talks with the three men, the story continued, Johnson "explained his intention of becoming Texas' favorite son as a move to prevent rival delegations from his state from showing up at the Democratic nominating convention...."

"Privately, he (Johnson) says that after the first ballot he himself will support Mr. Stevenson if at the time Mr. Stevenson still holds a commanding lead for the nomination."

GOP Hopefuls Fear Ike Squeeze Play

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility that a squeeze play might sideline them for weeks while President Eisenhower delayed a second term decision apparently plagued some Republican presidential hopefuls today.

They would want to run only if the President doesn't. But they were said to feel that if Eisenhower doesn't act before early 1956 filing deadlines, they might find themselves boxed out of GOP delegate and preferential primaries.

This possibility apparently was behind reports that Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate's Republican leader, might take the plunge into the April 10 Illinois primary if there is no word on the President's intentions before Jan. 23. That is the end of the filing period in that state.

Knowland himself declined to discuss the reports.

In Illinois and in New Hampshire, where the primary is March 13, the consent of the presidential candidate is not required.

Knowland and others apparently have visualized a situation in which, before any Eisenhower announcement, their names and the President's might be entered without their consent.

Neither the California senator

Gentry Lashes Johnson Tactics

KILGORE, Tex. (AP)—U.S. Rep. Brady Gentry (D-Tex) spoke out yesterday against what he called "vote getting" legislation proposed by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex), Senate majority leader.

Gentry named four of the proposals in a Lions Club luncheon speech as federal aid to schools, federal housing, liberalization of immigration and abolition of the poll tax.

He called the program: "One which will appeal to everyone whether it is best for the nation or not. It reads of aid to the farmer, tax cuts for the lower income groups, gives the west hope for its power situation, joy to groups fighting for easier immigration laws and happiness for Negroes and northern liberals seeking abolition of the poll tax."

GOP Leader Continues Tour

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.), preaching the strong likelihood that President Eisenhower will run again, brought his speaking tour for Florida Republicans to Bradenton today.

In talks yesterday at St. Petersburg and Sarasota, the House minority leader predicted Eisenhower will be unable to refuse the demand that he run.

At one point, he said the Democratic nomination "is not worth much if President Eisenhower is going to be nominated and even the Democrats admit it."

He added, however, he thinks the Republicans can win "with any good candidate" and a program attacking "state socialism."

Discussing his reason for believing Eisenhower will run again, despite his recent heart attack, Martin said:

"I have been 31 years in Congress. I have that Yankee intuition and some ability to foretell what will happen. I think definitely the President will be a candidate again and will be nominated and elected."

Publishers Group To Honor President

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower has been chosen to receive the Franklin Award for distinguished service at the annual Printing Week Dinner here Jan. 16, it was announced yesterday. It was not known whether the President would attend personally. The dinner is sponsored by the Printing Industry of America, the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. and 59 other organizations.

More Than 16 Million Belong To Newly-Merged AFL-CIO

By NORMAN WALKER
NEW YORK (AP)—Here are some questions and answers on the new united labor organization, the AFL-CIO.

What is it?
The AFL with 108 national unions and the CIO with 30 have banded together in a single association of unions.

How big is it?
The Labor Department, in a recent official report, estimated AFL membership at 10,900,000, the CIO's at 5,800,000, for a total of over 16 million. But officials of the new AFL-CIO claim only 15 million.

Why have they merged?
Union leaders say pooling resources and strength will give organized labor more power in bargaining with employers, organizing more workers in unions, and influencing state and national politics.

There is room for argument here. Some students of labor affairs feel the natural competition between two organizations tended to keep both more on their toes. Will it actually increase labor's power?

It will to some extent. Affiliated unions will have the same autonomy as under the separate AFL and CIO. Any one of them can pull out at any time.

But AFL-CIO officials at the local, state and national level naturally will speak with more authority and influence than was true when there were two such officials.

A similar situation would be if the two main business associations combined, the National Assn. of Manufacturers and U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The fusion would not necessarily mean increased power but it would certainly point that way.

Will union labor be more radical or more conservative?
Traditionally the AFL has been more conservative than the CIO. It appears likely that in the blending of the two a middle ground will be reached with the organization inclined to a bit more moderate course.

This has already been indicated in resolutions adopted by the AFL-CIO convention and in suggestions that the AFL-CIO should work out a "live-and-let-live" arrangement with American industry.

Who are the top active AFL-CIO officers?
George Meany, 61-year-old ex-plumber, has been elected president and William Schnitzler, one-time bakery worker, secretary-treasurer. Both held similar posts in the AFL. Meany will get $35,000 annual salary, Schnitzler $33,000, the same pay they drew with the AFL.

What has happened to Walter Reuther, the former CIO chief?
Reuther, stepping aside for Meany to become one of 27 AFL-CIO vice presidents will still head 1,200,000-member United Auto Workers union and continue to be a very powerful influence, possibly second only to Meany. Reuther was well received in initial AFL-CIO convention appearances.

Where will the AFL-CIO have its headquarters?
A new, four-million-dollar building is being made ready for occupancy in Washington. It's just across a park from the White House. All employees of both organizations are being retained and merged into one staff.

What about John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and other unions now out of the AFL-CIO?
The 75-year-old Lewis, founder of the now-merged CIO, has at one time or another been a power in both the AFL and CIO. He has held aloof of the AFL-CIO and said the merger can't endure. Nevertheless, the miners someday may join up.

Independent railroad unions are actively considering entering the AFL-CIO. They are the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, with a combined membership of nearly 300,000. The Labor Department estimates the aggregate membership of unions outside the AFL-CIO at 1,800,000.

What is the new organization's official name?
"It's the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations. The separate AFL and CIO couldn't agree on a new name so to get around what was a real quarrel they just kept both. Eventually, they may trim down this cumbersome title.

How about mergers within the merger?
A good deal of this is expected. For instance, the two textile workers unions are talking of a consolidation. Separate paper workers units and meat industry unions have similar plans.

Where are the areas of possible disagreement in the merged setup?
The old feud among union leaders about craft vs. industrial organization still lies smoldering. This is the issue that led to the secession two decades ago to the CIO.

Basically, it's this. Some unions such as the carpenters and plumbers feel that anyone in their craft should belong to their union. In industrial organization all workers in a particular establishment are organized in a single union, even whatever plumbers or carpenters are among them.

This is going to be a continuing problem which Meany, in the final analysis, is going to have to referee. About 70 of the former AFL unions and all of the former CIO unions belong to an internal pact known as the "no raiding" agreement. It binds signatory unions to submit all jurisdictional disputes to a neutral's binding decision.

Air Hero's Kin To Follow In Dad's Footsteps

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Colin P. Kelly III says he wants to follow in the footsteps of his famed father, one of the first air heroes of World War II, by going to West Point—or perhaps to the new U. S. Air Academy.

The 15-year-old preparatory school student told The Associated Press last night, "The only doubt I might have is whether I ought to go to West Point or to the new air academy out in Colorado. It would be one or the other.

President Roosevelt recommended young Colin for a 1956 appointment to West Point shortly after his father Capt. Colin Kelly was shot down in the Pacific by Japanese fighter planes three days after Pearl Harbor. Capt. Kelly kept his B17 airborne long enough to order several of his crew to parachute to safety.

Young Colin said he wished to correct reports from New York yesterday that he was in doubt whether to accept the West Point appointment—which Roosevelt recommended he make in 1956.

"I've never seriously thought of anything but the appointment, either to West Point or to the new air academy maybe," Kelly said. He said that because of his age he "couldn't accept the appointment until 1957, and we're agreed at home that a year of college first would be best. That's usually done, I think."

The boy lives in suburban Chester Heights with his mother and stepfather J. Watson Pedlow, former Navy officer and now a chemical engineer. Colin is president of his school class, an outstanding athlete and is to get his Eagle Scout award Dec. 15.

Uncle Roy: 'True' Indians Are Natives Of India

By RAMON COFFMAN

Only one country in the world (China) has more people than India. According to the census made four years ago, India was the home of 356 million people, despite the loss of many millions when Pakistan was formed as a new country.

Q. How many people does Pakistan have?
A. It contained almost 76 million when the 1951 census was taken.

Q. Do the people of India belong to the white race?
A. Many of their ancestors were members of the Indo-European race, and some of the present natives have light-colored skins. The majority of the natives, however, range from medium brown to dark brown, owing to mixture of dark races in India with the whites who entered the country long ago.

Q. What are the natives of India called?
A. It is common to call them Indians. They are regarded as the "true" Indians, and differ in several ways from American Indians.

Q. What is the chief religion of India?
A. Hinduism. The Hindus pray to many gods, including Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva. About 85 per cent of India's present population are Hindus.

Q. Is India a rich country, and does it have a big supply of precious stones?
A. The old-time princes of India gave the outside world the impression that the country was filled with rubies, pearls, emeralds and other gems. Despite the change to a republic, India still has wealthy men, and many of them keep their riches largely in the form of jewels.

Q. What is the most valuable mineral in India?
A. Coal. Mines in India yield precious stones, but the coal production there has more value.

Daughter Admits She Left Home Of Her Own Accord

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—A minister's daughter whose disappearance caused a statewide police alert has admitted she left home Tuesday of her own accord, Police Chief Roy F. Harper said last night.

"I'll tell you where I went, but not why," he quoted pretty 19-year-old Donna May Upton.

She was found walking along a highway near La Junta, Colo., 64 miles east of here, early Wednesday.

The girl, a student laboratory technician at a state hospital here, was wearing men's clothing and had shorn her Auburn hair.

First to think of using a special Christmas stamp to raise money to fight poverty and disease was a Danish post-office clerk, Einar Holboell.

Christian Pilgrims To Find One-Way Israeli Border

JERUSALEM (AP)—Foreign tourists entering Jordan from Israel to celebrate Christmas at Bethlehem will not be allowed to return directly to Israeli territory this year.

The move, announced yesterday by the Jordan government, is intended to induce tourists to travel through Jordan instead of via Israel. The Holy Land is preparing for its busiest Christmas season since the end of the Palestine War. Hotel owners in Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Jericho and other areas report accommodations fully booked for the season. Private homes and convents also will be used to house visitors.

Who Is My Neighbor?

JESUS ANSWERS THE LAWYER'S QUESTION IN A PARABLE

Scripture—Luke 10:25-37.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL.
JESUS, like every reformer since His time, was criticized by those in authority in the religion prevailing at that time. He had told the chief priests, Pharisees, scribes and other church bigwigs that they were hypocritical in their insistence upon observing all the forms of religion, while ignoring the necessity for virtues such as love, pity for the poor and suffering, etc.

They hated Him for it, and were determined to catch Him in some saying that they could claim as blasphemy or other criminal offense.

A certain lawyer, we read, came to Him asking an apparently innocent question, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "What is written in the law? How readest thou?" The man answered, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."

by, looked at the suffering man, and also went on his way. These two should have been the poor man's helpers, but they were not willing to risk going to his aid, possibly for fear the robbers might return.

Then came a Samaritan (a race despised by the Jews), and he interrupted his journey, went to the man, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, recognized household remedies. He set the man on his own steed and took him to the nearest inn. He gave the inn keeper money to care for the man, promising that if the landlord paid out more than he left with him, he would repay him on his return journey.

"Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among thieves?" Jesus asked the lawyer. He answered, "He that showed mercy on him." Jesus said to him, "Go all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."

Jesus said he had answered correctly, then added: "This do, and thou shalt live."

The lawyer was not satisfied, and asked, to justify himself in Christ's eyes, "And who is my neighbor?"

Then Jesus told the beautiful parable of the Good Samaritan, saying that a certain man going from Jerusalem to Jericho, a desolate place honeycombed by a labyrinth of caves.—Henry B. Tristram.

You will notice that the lawyer, in answering the question, who was neighbor to the wounded man, ignored the hated word Samaritan, merely saying, "He that showed mercy." Christ answered the question, "Who is thy neighbor?" for us all.

No matter who is in trouble—his (or her) race, color, creed, when we are kind and helpful, filled with love and pity, we are following in our Lord's footsteps, and His command to the lawyer, "Go thou and do likewise," applies to all of us who believe in Him.

Cashword Puzzle No. 44

Explanation of More Difficult Clues

- CLUES ACROSS:
- A Bad man may have to be restrained "for the good of the community." A Mad man is a sick man (mentally) and not necessarily violent and may have to be restrained for his own good.
 - Raided is best. Raided is not particularly apt, since cattle breeders will have regular markets and will not have to "look around" for buyers. Furthermore, the plural "men" points to a group. This favors Raiders rather than a breeder. Raiders, anxious to get rid of the cattle they have stolen, may well look around for buyers.
 - "Sportsman" links up better with Leaving. "Runner" or "athlete" would be more accurate where Leaving is concerned. A sportsman is usually regarded today as a keen follower, rather than an active participant, in active sport.
 - "A lover of the theatre" implies a lover of the legitimate theatre, making Shaw a stronger answer than Show. Shaw embraces quality performance which such a person seeks. A Show could be any kind of Show.
 - A Pest might be described as a nuisance or "a trial." A Test is "a trial."
 - Omens are always described in one of two ways: good Omens or bad Omens as stipulated in the clue. Omens don't have to be just good or bad; they can be "fairly good," "not so bad," etc., etc.
 - Area is best. Given the measure of one Area it may well help you judge the measure of another Area. In an opera, an Aria has to be judged upon its own merits, not by comparison with other Arias.
 - Shy is best. Being cheerful and hearty, means that he is full of good spirits and sincere. Therefore, he is rarely Shy; He is never Sly. It is just possible for him to be a little Shy perhaps when first meeting people. Spy is not favored.
 - Fumble is a surer answer. One definition of "to Tumble" is "to perform as a dancer or an acrobat." Therefore, to Tumble is what many a circus performer has to do. A juggler, by Fumbling, may well ruin his act. Mumble is weak.
- CLUES DOWN:
- True of a Callow, or inexperienced, youth. But Sallow merely means "pale yellow" and there is no reason at all why a youth with a pale yellow complexion shouldn't play the handsome hero, particularly with the help of make-up.
 - Wheat, of course, may quite possibly be yellow. There is no reason at all to assume that because a man is a Cheat he is likely to be a coward, or "yellow," as well.
 - Age can do so, of course. It is a man, with the help of an Axe, who could cause a tree to come crashing down.
 - The word "urgency" makes Crises a stronger answer. There are thousands of Crimes committed every day, and dealing with them is a matter of routine rather than of urgency.
 - Shave is best. A man might well grumble if he gets a poor Shave. Share is too vague. What sort of Share is it? Furthermore, the fact that it doesn't please him doesn't say it is not fair, and if fair, he has no right to grumble.
 - Foes is best. Woes definitely do make men utterly miserable. Foes "have been known" to do so.
 - Farm is best. Why necessarily a Warm house? It may be mildsummer, or you may not be cold; but a nice Farm house would certainly be welcome.

Santa Claus may be hopelessly old fashioned with his sleigh and reindeer, but the toys in his pack are designed strictly for the kids of our modern, up-to-date atomic age. NOT BY ACCIDENT

A baby doesn't "just happen." He is created through a slow and intricate process designed by God. Neither does a delinquent "just happen." He, too, is created—gradually—by little wrongs and big, all human-caused.

Insecurity, improper associates or environment and lack of love often push a child into developing criminal tendencies.

Neglect, lack of guidance, lack of education and religious training will cause him to weaken and become sick morally and spiritually.

Responsible mothers and fathers will endeavor to protect their children from these evils. They will love a child. They will supervise his activities, and see that he has adequate religious education.

They will see that he goes regularly to Sunday School and Church, and they'll go along with him.

As a responsible parent, be sure that you create a Christian—not a criminal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DATE DATA

By Beverly Brandow

Keep Self-Confidence

Dear Miss Brandow: Can you help me make friends with my steady's mother? Recently I found out she doesn't like me, although I don't know why. While I was at the beauty parlor I heard a friend of his mother say that his mother objected to his going steady and wished he would "play the field."

Gloria

Teen-agers seem naturally to put all older people in a category marked "foes." There is a great desire to be friends and an equally great fear that you can't make the grade. In an especially fearful category are parents of dates. You keenly realize that their attitudes can be an asset or a hindrance and strongly affect the attitudes of your date. Hence: they terrify you, destroy your self-confidence, and cause you strongly to suspect they consider you inferior. The unspoken in-law jokes don't help either.

Medal Of Honor Winner Gets Jail Sentence

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Medal of Honor winner of World War II faced six months in jail today, convicted of shooting at a woman in an argument about a former girl friend.

Junior J. Spurrier, winner of the Medal of Honor and the Distinguished Service Cross, the nation's two highest awards for courage, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

He fired a pistol shot into the floor near Mrs. Josephine Neece, who was trying to prevent him from seeing Mrs. Mary Murphy, a resident of the same house.

Spurrier told Magistrate Simon Schonfeld he pulled the gun when Mrs. Neece wouldn't let him talk. "I didn't think it was loaded," he said. "I just pulled the trigger. It went into the floor, not even near her."

Mrs. Neece, however, said, "He shot at me."

Mrs. Murphy, who told police Spurrier had been drinking, said she was afraid he would kill someone, so she went with him. She said she escaped when he agreed to let her pawn her watch to get him money.

A former staff sergeant with the 39th Infantry Division, Spurrier was awarded the Medal of Honor for personally liberating the town of Achain, France. He was credited with killing 25 Germans and capturing 16. For that, he earned the nickname "One-Man Army."

Mrs. Murphy said she and Spurrier met years ago in Bluefield, W. Va., their hometown, and they recently had been keeping company.

Judge Indicted For Alleged Part In Baby-Selling Plot

MOREHEAD, Ky. (AP)—Rowan County Judge William T. McClain has been indicted on separate charges of misfeasance in office and aiding in an alleged baby-selling plot.

Two misfeasance indictments by a grand jury yesterday charged McClain with taking fines which he collected and refusing to turn them over to the state and destroying records of bonds taken by him by removing them from the bond record books.

The indictment—returned Wednesday—linked McClain with an alleged baby-selling scheme charged the judge with aiding and abetting Mrs. Zella Brown McPherson in the alleged procurement of babies for sale to rich, childless women in Texas.

The judge said yesterday he would have a statement to make later, adding: "There's nothing to this like they (the grand jury) claim. I ask the people to hold their judgment until all the facts are presented."

Mrs. McPherson, 32, former draft board clerk in Morehead, was charged with taking away two children and accepting money for the procurement of a third.

The woman was charged Oct. 6 with procuring babies from underprivileged homes after state police conducted a two-month investigation.

Records show Judge McClain dismissed the charge Oct. 10 and released her bondsmen. Shortly thereafter, she and her husband moved to Texas.

Research On Tornado Damage Is Planned

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—The Oklahoma A&M Research Foundation and the Weather Bureau yesterday announced a program for tornado damage research. A 5-man team will make on the scene investigations should a tornado do damage in Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and northern Arkansas.

Russians To Resume Return Of Prisoners

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Russians have promised to resume sending home German war prisoners, the Foreign Office announced today.

Judge Upholds Anti-Union Law

DALLAS (AP)—Two ordinances that expressly forbid city employees from belonging to a union were upheld yesterday by Dist. Judge D. A. Blankenship.

The ruling was in a suit brought by Fire Dept. Capt. Joe B. Beverly, 24-year veteran of the department, and firemen E. D. Gilliam, with the department 14 years. They asked the court to decide on their right to join a union.

The International Assn. of Fire Fighters (AFL) was a party to the suit which Beverly and Gilliam brought on behalf of themselves and other firemen.

Their attorneys gave notice of appeal.

Neighborly Move Convicts 2 Men, Court Frees Them

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Describing the case as "almost fantastic," the Indiana Supreme Court yesterday freed two men whose effort to help a woman in distress had led to 10-year sentences for auto banditry.

Arnie Rank, 28, disabled World War II veteran, and Jay Holcomb, 19, both of Lawrenceburg, Ind., were ordered freed immediately. In its decision the high court went beyond its customary practice of ordering a new trial.

The two had been at liberty on $5,000 bond since Feb. 17, ten days after they were committed to 10-year terms in the Indiana Reformatory by the Dearborn Circuit Court.

This chain of events, as related in testimony before the Supreme Court, led to their arrest:

While driving past the farm of Charles and Zolla Wiesham, the two were stopped by Mrs. Wiesham, who asked them for $5 bus money to visit her sick husband at Indianapolis. They could, she said, get the money back by taking two sacks of wheat from the Wiesham barn and selling them.

While getting the wheat, Roark, Holcomb and a companion, Ed Cornett, were wounded by shotgun blasts fired by Joseph Dall, 32, a tenant, who told the court he thought they were thieves.

Roark and Holcomb, critically wounded, crawled to a neighbor's Cornett, the court decision noted, has not been seen subsequently and it is theorized by police he may have died in the hilly brush country.

Mrs. Wiesham testified in the first trial she had sent the men into the barn for petty larceny, which might have brought them no more than a fine.

Judge Frederick Landis, who wrote the unanimous supreme court decision, said no testimony to show the men had planned to use their car in removing stolen property, a requisite to an auto burglary conviction. Even if they had been guilty of stealing, Landis' decision said, their conviction should have been for petty larceny, which might have brought them no more than a fine.

Princess Jokes Bothering Hope

LONDON (AP)—Bob Hope says he is anxious to find out whether Princess Margaret is angry with him for cracking wise about her broken romance with Peter Townsend.

If so, the American comedian told reporters, he is ready to apologize.

Hope said he is enlisting the help of Sherman Douglas, daughter of former U.S. Ambassador to London Lewis Douglas and an old friend of the princess.

The jokes which brought adverse comment in England and Canada were tossed off during an American television show. One crack said "Townsend should have known better than to try to play the palace—I never could." Another: "The next time I'm in London I expect to see the princess' wet handkerchief hanging out the window to dry."

Hope arrived from the United States yesterday to make a movie.

Businessman Lashes Trend To Security

NEW YORK (U-P)—The man who will head the National Assn. of Manufacturers in 1956 declared today that the United States "has gone completely overboard on security."

"Everything has to be secured—jobs, wages, hours," said Cola G. Parker, NAM president-designate, in an address prepared for delivery at the association's annual convention.

Parker called on the 3,000 industrial leaders attending the convention to set an example for the country by insisting that their communities refuse to accept federal government help wherever possible.

"We have no right to criticize the farmer or the laborer for his reliance on government unless we stop doing it ourselves," he said.

"Let us stop relying on the Great White Father, who has nothing to give us except what he took away from us in the first place."

Parker declared that "in the 41 years from 1913 to 1954 our taxes were multiplied 45 times—from two billion dollars a year to more than 90 billions. Even more importantly, Uncle Sam's bite of this total widened from 33 per cent in 1913 to 75 per cent last year."

Parker, retired board chairman of Kimberly-Clark Corp., Neenah, Wis., will be formally elected president of the NAM at a meeting of the Board of Directors tonight. He will succeed Henry G. Riter III, president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., West Orange, N. J.

Convict Who May Be Innocent In Slaying Is Paroled

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U-P)—A 61-year-old Negro convict who may be innocent of the murder for which he has served 20 years imprisonment was paroled yesterday.

Last month, Gov. Orval Faubus reduced Weaver Bauknight's life sentence to 60 years to make possible his parole.

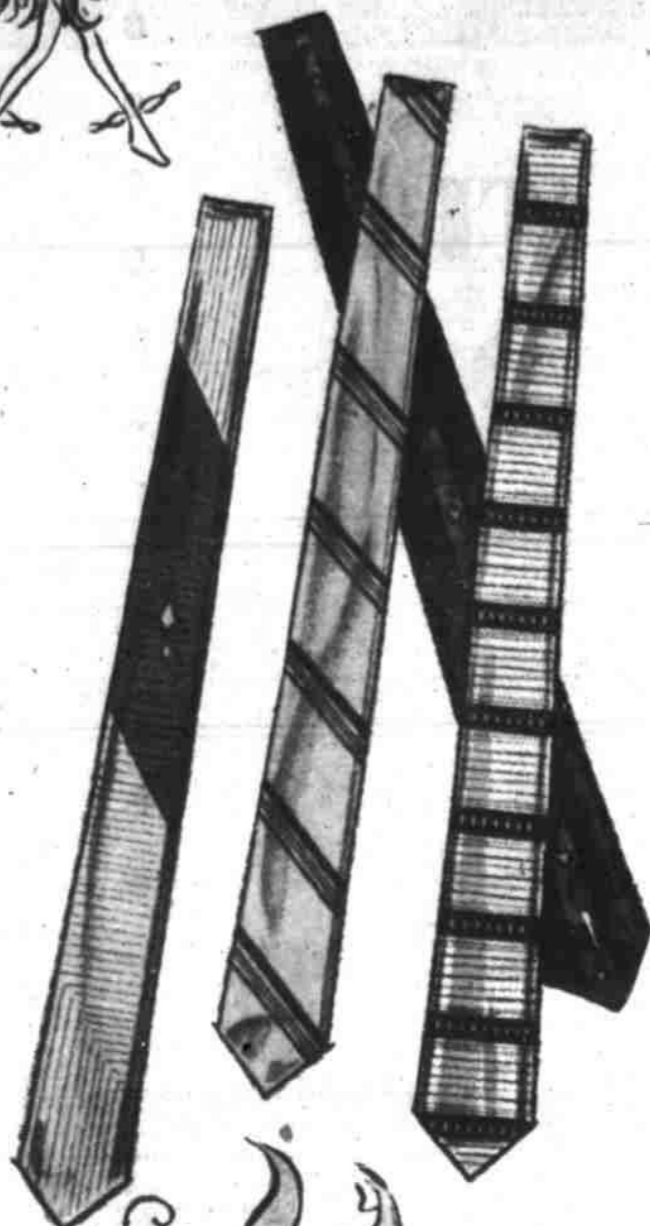

Bauknight was arrested in California in 1935, returned to Arkansas, tried, convicted and sentenced to life in prison for the 1918 fatal shooting of Sank Wosden.

The parole board has affidavits from 10 of Bauknight's friends who swear he was in Atlanta in 1918 and never came to Arkansas that year.
