Off Races Commissioner Precincts

Ed Earnest, Mahones Win Re-Election To Office
A count of voters after Saturday's primary election left a record for county commissioners in Crockett county. Run-offs will be necessary in all but Precinct 1 where Ralph Jones, incumbent, won re-election. Precinct 1 was won by three opponents.

Bill V. O. Earnest repeated performance of two years ago by winning re-nomination in Precinct 1 primary, this time over opponents. County Judge Houston Smith won the nomination easily over Ted M. White.

In the closest race in the county was that for county attorney. Bill Miller, incumbent, and Paul Gibbs, second primary, in the August primary. Miller led with 65 votes over Howard Lemmons. The unofficial but total vote was 206 for Miller and 206 for Gibbs.

In Precinct 3, U. S. (Rusty) Jones, 50; L. D. Kirby, 47; Ted Coates, 47; and Cecil Laxson, 33. Precinct 4, it will be Jake Parker, whose total was 66. In that precinct Joe Parker, 48 votes and Roger Jones, Jr., 33.

In Precinct 5, Ralph Jones won re-election with 206 votes over Bill Seaborn, 53 for James Langdon and 42 for Frank James. Uncontested but interesting in the county voting was that for county and district clerk. A vote for the office had been set for early in the year to operate as clerk George Russell. Mr. Russell's death from a heart attack at the height of the flood here, however, ended the picture.

In Precinct 6, Leta Powell, long-time defendant in the court case, won re-election with 206 votes over Bill Seaborn, 53 for James Langdon and 42 for Frank James. Uncontested but interesting in the county voting was that for county and district clerk. A vote for the office had been set for early in the year to operate as clerk George Russell. Mr. Russell's death from a heart attack at the height of the flood here, however, ended the picture.

A Letter To Ozona

It is not always easy to say "thanks", especially when it is meant not merely as a nicety but rather in all sincerity.
Yes, Red Cross has completed a job of assisting disaster stricken families over and above what they could do for themselves and what other resources in the community could do for them. But in order to do it, Red Cross had to depend to a large extent on the cooperation and help of individuals and the general community. After all, Red Cross is first a philosophy of helping people in emergencies and secondly, an organization of people of all communities to carry out that philosophy or principle. A team of trained national staff was assigned to assist Ozona, but the job was made easier and smoother with the cooperation received from the people of Ozona.

Businessmen, utilities, school people, government workers, ranchers, housewives, churches, civic and social groups, contractors and builders, and individuals with no particular group connections,— all helped to make the Red Cross work more effective.
Those of us who have worked on many disasters in other communities have marveled at the way Ozona went to work immediately to erase the scars of the flood in a spirit for which Ozona can always be proud. And disaster sufferers themselves cooperated well so that assistance could be given as rapidly and effectively as possible.

Like in many other communities, when a disaster strikes, individuals and businesses contributed goods and money to help in the rehabilitation of families. Like other communities Ozona wanted to do what it could for itself while other cities across the nation sent in aid in addition, either directly or through Red Cross. Who can total the contributions of meat, milk, groceries, clothing, household furnishings? The monetary contributions can be totaled.
Through the disaster fund the people of Ozona, San Angelo, and other Texas cities contributed $40,000 through Red Cross to help in the rehabilitation of families. This was applied to a total cost for the Red Cross work which amounts to over $200,000, the balance of which was contributed through all 3700 Red Cross chapters throughout the nation from their March fund campaigns. In addition the local fund paid directly canteen costs of over $3,000 and another sum was expended to relocate the Negro settlement. This is democracy in action.

Last, but not least, one must mention the seemingly little things, which, taken together, are not small or simple at all. The firm handshake, the cheerful greeting on the street, the pleasant smile, friendly small-talk, offers of help, willingness to volunteer for unpleasant dirty work, provisions for social relaxation,— these are not just the ways of any small town, but they are the friendly marks of Ozona.

Thanks, Ozona.

Red Cross And Citizens Confer On Organization

Disaster Planning And Chapter Strengthening Discussed
Disaster-wise Red Cross workers, professional people who have worked in disaster relief all over the nation, conferred with a local citizen group with a view to strengthening the local Red Cross chapter organization and setting up a trained local group in case disaster should strike again, at a meeting Tuesday night in the Junior High School building.
Present for the meeting were Fred Laise, deputy manager for the Midwest Area, American Red Cross, with headquarters in St. Louis; Jack Bassett, also from St. Louis office, assigned by the Midwest Area headquarters as disaster relief director here following the June 28 flood; Jim Hamilton, Red Cross field representative for this area, and Mrs. Loretta Webb, case worker who has been assigned to work in the rehabilitation program here. Some fifteen Ozona citizens interested in the Red Cross organization and future disaster planning, attended.

Bill Cooper, Ozona chapter chairman presided. Mr. Bassett reviewed the events immediately following the flood and in a round table discussion, the disaster was discussed with a view to improving local preparedness for such an event. Red Cross workers were loud in their praise of the spontaneous response by Ozona people to the emergency needs and the fine spirit of cooperation which has continued through all phases of the relief and rehabilitation work.
The disaster workers suggested that the local Red Cross chapter take the lead in organizing and training a disaster committee, make advance plans for warning service, rescue work, evacuation, shelter, feeding and medical assistance. Alternate plans were suggested as a means of being prepared for any type disaster.

31 Flood Disaster Victims Apply For Small Business Loans

Thirty-one Ozonans who suffered loss or damage in the recent disastrous flood here, have applied to the local field office of the Small Business Administration for rehabilitation loans. J. C. Smith, representative of the Administration stationed here, said this week.
Fourteen loans, all for home building or repair, have already been processed and approved. In the applications still pending are both business and home loans, Mr. Smith said.
In addition to the 31 applications filed, application blanks have been passed out to 14 others but have not been completed and returned.
Mr. Smith urges that Ozonans who are contemplating filling out applications for Small Business loans do so as soon as possible. The length of time during which Mr. Smith will be assigned to the local office is uncertain, he said, and those who plan to apply should do so without further delay. Mr. Smith has an office on the second floor of the courthouse. (Continued on Last Page)

South Elementary 7-8 Grades To Be Moved To Jr. High

Board Responds To Petition For Action; Program Changes
Responding to a letter of request from the Civic Committee of Lima community and a petition signed by parents of students, the district school board has ordered that pupils in the seventh and eighth grades be transferred from the South Elementary school to the Junior High School, effective with the opening of the 1954-55 term in September.
At the same time, the board adopted three other changes in the school program for next year which seek to equalize facilities and training program in all schools of the system.
One of these changes will be the discontinuance of band training in the fifth grade effective with the next school term. So that pupils of last year's fifth grade who had band training may have the benefit of an uninterrupted program, band training will begin in the sixth grade in the 1954-55 term but after next year, band training will start in the seventh grade.
Another change was the designation of the seventh and eighth grades only for Junior High athletic program. This does not mean that there will be no athletics or physical training in the lower grades, but Junior High intra-city competition will be confined to the seventh and eighth grade pupils.
Employment of a public school music teacher for the South Elementary school was another action taken by the board. This new course will be added in the coming school year.
Transfer of the seventh and eighth grade classes from the South Elementary school will put pupils of junior high grades in the Junior High building and will leave ample room in the South Elementary building to accommodate a growing enrollment in the lower grades.

J. T. Rutherford Unseats Regan By 189 Vote Margin

Unofficial Count Gave Odessa Slim Margin Of Victory
By the bare margin of 189 votes based on the unofficial count in the 19-county 16th Congressional district, State Senator J. T. Rutherford of Odessa unseated Congressman Ken Regan of Midland in Saturday's Democratic primary.
The Texas Election Bureau at Dallas, election reporting agency of Texas newspaper and radio stations, gave the complete but unofficial count from the nineteen counties in the district at 25,241 votes for Rutherford and 25,052 for Regan. Rutherford claimed victory but Congressman Regan announced that he would await the official returns to be canvassed by county committees.
Congressman Regan was elected in 1947 to fill unexpired term of Rep. R. E. Thompson of El Paso, who was appointed to a federal judgeship. He was re-elected in 1948, 1950 and 1952. He is a former state senator from the Midland district.
Mr. Rutherford is an outdoor advertising man living at Odessa. He is serving at present as State Senator.
Congressman Regan, who visited Ozona just after the flood and started the machinery of government to get the area declared in disaster and was influential in bringing the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, here to look into the possibilities of building a flood control dam on Johnson draw above Ozona, was a heavy favorite of voters here in Saturday's election. Regan received 796 votes to 231 for Rutherford.

August 14th New Date For Water Carnival

Originally Set For July 10, Flood Disrupted Plans
August 14 is the new date set for the Water Carnival sponsored by the Ozona Lion Club, officers of the club announced this week.
The Water Carnival and beauty contest was originally set for July 10 but plans were disrupted by the recent flood.
The program will include a bathing beauty contest, with local beauties sponsored by business firms. The contestants have already been lined up and assigned to sponsors. In addition to this contest, there will be a beauty contest for tiny tots, girls from six years down. Those who wish to enter this contest are asked to register with Mrs. Martin Harvick.
A diving team and a water ballet, performed by a team of local girls, is in the plan for entertainment as features of the water carnival to be held at the north pool. (Continued on Last Page)

Editorially Speaking —

THE REAL ISSUE

Under the above heading, a paid political advertisement appeared in a Texas daily newspaper during the campaign prior to the primary election last Saturday. It refers to the race for governor between Governor Allan Shivers and New Deal liberalist Ralph Yarborough. We think it is a fine editorial in itself and points up some real dangers to Texas. We invite you to read it and remember it on August 28 when you will be called upon to decide at the polls between these two men:

The real issue that we face in Saturday's election is not Tideland, public roads, insurance companies, segregation, or George Parr, but creeping socialism.

To explain my reason for this, you need to look back and decide just what is a democrat, and what does he stand for. Actually, at the time the Republican and Democratic parties became the dominant parties of the nation, the main difference was this: The Republican party believed in strong federal control, high tariffs to protect our products from other countries' exports, and that the states were under the complete control of the federal government. Thus, the Civil War, where the states that seceded were forced back into the Union by force of arms.

The Democratic party believed in low tariffs to encourage world trade, and the paramount rights of the states to handle their own affairs, since they were afraid that a strong central government could be controlled by the states in the East where a majority of the people lived at that time.

Now look at the whole picture as it is today, and the way it has developed over the last 20 years.

The old Democratic party of the South has been taken over by a party in the East which calls itself Democratic, but which actually is a Liberal-Socialist party, merely using the name Democrat to carry the people by the real Democratic party along. This party is controlled by the big city bosses, the labor union bosses and the bureaucrats. These men have completely turned the ideals of the Democratic party around to where it stands for Federal control of all states rights, inflation of the dollar, high taxes, giveaways programs to certain groups in order to buy their votes, and a giveaway program to other countries of billions of dollars of the taxpayers' money without any requirements as to how it should be spent, so that most of it was pocketed by the politicians in control. Does that sound like the party that Jefferson and Jackson started, the party that most people who say they have always voted Democratic think they are voting for? We have been duped and used.

This program is the same that England went through and it led them to Socialism, the nationalization of their heavy industry, and up to the point where they were talking of nationalizing the land. We loaned (gave) them the money to keep going on this program until the people of England saw it was wrong and turned back to a conservative government where enterprise and initiative are rewarded instead of being penalized by higher and higher taxes. They are now getting back on their feet after being on the verge of bankruptcy.

This is the road the Liberals have laid out for us — continued inflation of the dollar, more giveaways to hold the vote, complete control of all prices, crops, products, and finally the nationalization of industry. The end result of the above is national bankruptcy, for, unlike England, we don't have anyone standing by to bail us out.

Keeping the above in mind, we come to the real issue. Judge Yarborough has promised to support the nominees of the National Democratic Party, no matter who they may be. Therefore, if he is elected Governor, he will control the Texas delegates to the National Convention, and his promise to support the nominees of that convention automatically binds him to support a Liberal-Socialist. The Eastern faction of the party, being in control of the party, will not allow anyone to be nominated unless he accedes to their views, and if, in the national election in 1956, these people get back in power, this country will go down the road to Socialism at a fast gallop.

Think of this when you vote Saturday, for this state election can have grave effects on the national scene two years from now.

Personally, I want a governor who will stand up and fight either party if he thinks it is acting contrary to the interest of Texas. You won't get that kind of fight out of Judge Yarborough, who has already promised to follow wherever they lead. Allan Shivers has demonstrated he will fight. Yours truly, JOHN A. MATTHEW Abilene, Texas

Wool Growers Urged to Back Promotion Plan

FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. — Although consumer appreciation for wool has risen sharply during the last year, intensified promotion is needed to strengthen wool's market, Max F. Schmitt, President of The Wool Bureau, has told the annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Wool Council.

The program of wool promotion, which this year for the first time includes consumer advertising, should have the wholehearted support of the nation's wool growers, Mr. Schmitt said.

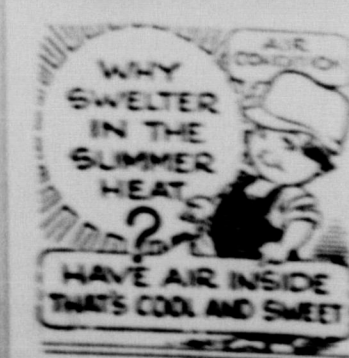

In this increasingly competitive era, he explained, not only does wool compete with other fibers, but wool products vie with an ever-widening range of consumer goods for their share of the consumer dollar. Wool growers must accept promotion as essential to the job of marketing their products, he added.

Wool promotion efforts to date represent a "solid beginning" to a carefully planned, long-range program, Mr. Schmitt stated. Noting that the consumer's respect for wool is currently at a high level, Mr. Schmitt said:

"Basic performance qualities long valued, but granted in wool are now eagerly sought by the consumer, who has found—sometimes from bitter experience—that nothing measures up to wool in service and value."

Mr. Schmitt told the committee that careful planning and judicious spending are helping to stretch the wool promotion dollar. It will go still further, and produce even more, if the nation's wool growers give the wool promotion program their determined, day-to-day support, he added.

In addition to consumer advertising, the intensive wool promotion program will include expanded operations of The Wool Bureau's Pacific Coast office in Los Angeles, Mr. Schmitt reported.

SCS Makes Study Of Flood Damage In Crockett Co.

Local District Compiling Figures On Ranch Damage

The Crockett Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors held their monthly meeting on July 22, at the Hotel Ozona.

Those present were Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., R. A. Harrell, L. B. Cox, and Troy Williams. Bob Scott, SCS, and Pete Jacoby, County Agent, were also present.

The main topic of discussion for the day was the recent flood disaster and the effect it had on the district's agricultural lands.

In view of the recent disaster the board has agreed to buy a post hole digger, as requested by several ranchmen, to aid in the rebuilding of fences. The digger can be used on the district's tractor and will be available this week.

Contact any of the board members or Gene Williams for further information concerning the equipment.

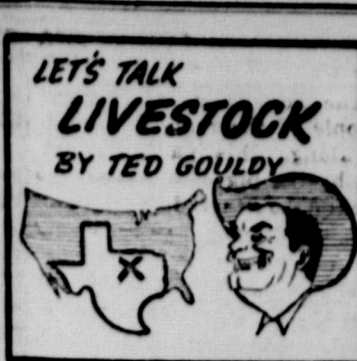

The only damage to district equipment during the flood was a tilt-bed trailer, that was twisted out of shape and one new Ford tractor that was under water. The tractor will be taken apart and cleaned up. The damage will probably not be too serious.

Shipment on two new tilt-bed trailers is expected this week for use in hauling the district's tractor and equipment.

The Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Crockett Soil Conservation District, will continue its survey of flood damage to ranch property. It will take time before all livestock losses are known. The Service will appreciate it if ranchers will continue to report losses as they are found. Call Bob Scott at 33-J or any of the local supervisors.

Members of the Engineering and Planning Division of the SCS from Fort Worth, made a preliminary survey of the flood damages of the area, and of the watershed above Ozona. They will make a report on their findings in view of possible flood control measures for the area.

Forth Worth — Again the week opened with moderate offerings of cattle and calves on hand at Fort Worth and the buying side was forced to pay strong to higher prices for virtually all cattle and calves.

Packer buyers furnished the major impetus in the trade and indications were that most of them needed supplies. Prices ranged from fully steady to strong, to as much as 50 cents higher on cattle and calves as a result of this situation.

There was reliable demand for stocker and feeder cattle and calves which had some quality to recommend them, and some sales of these kinds shared the better market.

It has become obvious this month that despite the high temperatures and the fact that some sections of the Southwest are in critically dry shape, that the major part of the region is still in good enough position for grass and water to be able to market their cattle when they want to, instead of when they have to.

This situation, of course, does not always apply in those areas now classed as distress drouth regions, however, it is significant that the first designation included only 23 counties, whereas a year ago the Western two-thirds of Texas was set in the "Drouth" distress area on the first go-around.

Good fat steers and yearlings, $18 to $22, and plain to medium grassers drew $19 to $17, some cull kinds under $10.

Fat cows sold readily from $9 to $12, a few heiferish kinds higher; and canners and cutters drew mostly $6 to $9, few emaciated canners under $6.

Best weighty bulls $12 to $13, with lighter and plainer kinds $8 to $11.50.

Good and choice fat calves $14 to $17, few fancy heavyweights around 600 pounds, above that.

Good to choice stocker steer calves $15 to $19, with some load lots above that range. Stocker steer yearlings of good and choice kinds $14 to $17, few lightweights higher. Stocker heifers and heifer calves usually $2 or more under comparable steers.

Lambs topped at $20 at Fort Worth Monday, the best prices in some weeks. Yearling wethers shared the advance and topped at $13, a new high for several weeks on that class. Stocker and feeder trade was slow, about steady. Old sheep sold in line with a week ago.

Good and choice fat lambs drew $17 to $20, with common and medium sorts $10 to $15, and culls around $8 to $10, a few below that. Stocker and feeder lambs bulked at $10 to $13, with the higher price representing just medium kinds. Fat yearlings sold from $10 to $13, with culls down to $7. Old wethers drew $6 to $9. Slaughter ewes sold from $3 to $5. Old bucks sold around $3.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Is This Equality?

Mother Goose In Texas

By Ray Wood

What you got there?
The King's embryo.
What's it for?
Bread and cheese.
Where's my share?
The cat's got it.
Where's the cat?
In the woods.

What reader can finish this one? Authentically a part of the Mother Goose legend, this question and answer game has been a part of American childhood as far back as the earliest memory of the oldest person I have questioned.

It sets the pattern for the "Trade-out" which is usually a series of rhymes that can run as long as the teller can think of things to rhyme about.

One wisely enough known as to how many variables is the following. I wish readers would give me the answers they recall of this one.

Quadrant
Jumped in the fire.
The fire was so hot
He jumped in the pot.
The pot was so little
He jumped in the kittle.

Let the reader take it from there.
Next Week: "My Pretty Little Pink".

THANK YOU!

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to all who voted for me in the recent election, and to all who supported me in the campaign. The majority of the voters have expressed their preference and it is my hope that we in Precinct 2 will all join in giving our whole-hearted support to Commissioner Ralph Jones during the balance of the present term and in the new term starting January 1.

Sincerely,
JAMES BAGGETT

Highway 290 Assn. Formed In Sonora

A meeting to organize and promote travel over U. S. Highway 290 was held in the basement of the Sonora Methodist Church Tuesday night.

Traffic has been routed over U. S. 90 for the last four or five years because of construction of highways in this area. Now most of the construction has been completed, but U. S. 290 has failed to get its share of traffic back. Plans were made at the meeting to contact the Travel Bureau to show that U. S. 290 is no longer under construction, and it is the better of the two highways. According to a resolution adopted by the organization, U. S. 290 offers better highways, better accommodations, and is said to be the cooler of the two routes. It was decided to name the organization the National Old Spanish Trail-290 Association.

At the Tuesday meeting, Pat Lyles was named president of the organization by acclamation. Wray Campbell was named secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Elaine Ellingson was named secretary and treasurer. Greenville Barker, and Alton Egbert were appointed to the board of directors.

DAUGHTER TO EVANS

Mr. and Mrs. Louise Evans are the parents of a daughter born July 17. The baby was named Catherine and weighed 6 pounds 4 ounces.

County Attorney

Yarborough Lost His Own Precinct

Gov. Allan Shivers carried both his and Ralph Yarborough's home voting boxes in Saturday's Democratic primary.

The governor carried his own home box in Port Arthur, 366-78. The official canvass of Yarborough's home box in Austin showed the governor beat him, 893-367.

In Port Arthur, Shivers backers also dominated the precinct convention for the first time. They named the governor and his wife to head the precinct's 150 delegates to the county convention Saturday. Shivers also carried all of Port Arthur's boxes, 5,810-5,895, which he had lost by several hundred votes in 1952.

Barnhart Man Wins Sharpshooter Medal

4th Div., Germany — Pvt. Calvin Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs.

George Newman of Barnhart, Tex. recently won a sharpshooter's medal for firing the highest score among 50 members of his Army unit in Germany.

Newman, a mechanic in Service Battery of the 4th Infantry Division's 20th Field Artillery Battalion, used the M-1 (Garand) rifle to amass his medal winning score. Last stationed at Fort Hood, Texas, he entered the Army in March 1953 and arrived in Germany last January.

Meetings Set On 1955 Agricultural Program

College Station July — The first four, in a series of 12 district meetings have been scheduled to commence work on the 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program.

According to Lester Young of the Texas ASC office, meetings are set for the Amarillo Hotel on August 2; District Court Room, Lubbock on August 3; Texas Electric Auditorium, Wichita Falls on August 4 and Hotel Brownwood, Brown, August 5. Each meeting will begin at 9:30 a. m.

County ASC committeemen and representatives of state and federal agencies are expected to attend the meetings. Young will head the representatives from the State ASC office. One or more members of the Texas ASC committee are also planning to be present.

Young says the purpose of the meetings is to get from the county committees suggestions on the practices which should be included in the 1955 program. From the district meetings will then come the recommended practices and practice specifications which later in the month will be considered for inclusion in the state program.

UNDER ADVISEMENT

The telephone company's request for double rates has been taken under advisement by the city council. Of course we all realize this is a very serious matter and the council must consider all aspects to the case. This could take quite a while. We suggest at least 30 years. Meanwhile you might be interested to know that last week's Big Lake paper carried a story about a new $26,000 switchboard being installed in Big Lake. Who installed it? The poverty-stricken General Telephone Co. of the Southwest did. Who's going to pay for it? Good little question, that. Time will tell. (Son-of-a-gun in Sonora news.)

TO VOTERS OF PRECINCT 4:

A Sincere

THANK YOU

I am grateful for the confidence in me you expressed by your vote in Saturday's primary. I appreciate the support and encouragement I received and I earnestly solicit your continued support in the coming run-off election.

I have endeavored to see personally as many as possible of the voters and I shall continue the campaign by seeing as many as possible. If I miss any of you, I hope you will consider this a personal solicitation of your vote and support.

I have made no promise of single-handed action on behalf of any individual or group, nor will I make such promises, but I do promise, if I am elected, to work with the Commissioners Court in the best interests of all the people and of my precinct in particular. That's about all one man on a five-man court can promise.

THANKS, FRIENDS!

From the bottom of my heart I want to thank the people of Crockett County, and especially the voters of Precinct 3, for the nice vote I received in Saturday's primary.

It was a clean, fair race among friends and for my part I intend to make the same kind of race in the run-off as in the one just finished.

I ask the vote of every person in Precinct 3 and the support and confidence of each and every one in Crockett County.

Drouth Aid

Twenty-three Texas counties, hard hit by one of the state's worst drouths, have been made eligible for relief by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, with help to be forthcoming immediately.

All in the Central and Western parts of Texas, the counties were among 54 to be listed for federal aid. The others were in Colorado and Wyoming.

Texas counties to receive benefits were Bastrop, Bell Bexar, Blanco, Bosque, Brown, Burnet, Comal, Comanche, Coryell, Erath, Hamilton, Hays, Kendall, Lampasas, Lee, Llano, McCullouch, Mason, Mills, San Saba, Travis and Williamson.

No details as to the nature of the relief program were made public by the Department of Agriculture.

Natural Gas

Two Texas officials have tabled the Federal Power Commission order freezing natural gas prices on gas sold to interstate pipelines as "serious" to the state's natural gas industry.

Railroad Commision Chairman Ernest O. Thompson and Attorney General Shepperd expressed dismay at the mandate, which was considered to be an initial step by the federal government to take over regulation of natural gas traffic.

Shepperd said that the move means "financial ruin for a large segment of the Texas natural gas industry."

Thompson called the ruling a "tragic blow" to the state treasury. Texas levies taxes on natural gas according to market value.

A SINCERE 'THANK YOU'

I want to express my appreciation to the people who supported me in my race for commissioner. Even the ones who said no did it in such a nice way that I fell in love with them and really enjoyed visiting in their homes. I met a lot of nice people that I would not have otherwise met and I had lots of fun. Thank you for being so nice.

I have written a little poetry, all in fun, dedicated to the losing candidates.

Since Pappy took up politics he ain't the same no more.

Why his folks they hardly know him when he comes in thru the door

His steps is light and springy and his grin is very wide.

And he really loves the kiddies when their folks are on his side.

He's good at ringing doorbells "Is your mother in" He'll say

Although she's nearing forty and her temples almost gray

The old oil flows real freely while he talks of mumps or school

Or brags on little Johnny while quotes the Golden Rule.

"Why these cream puffs are delicious." or "that jelly roll is swell

What's the secret of those muffins though I know you wouldn't tell

Or The manners of these children, wish you'd train mine for a while

That dress is just a darling, and what a winning smile"

But when the campaign's over and you come out second best

And you lie down on the sofa for that long neglected rest

You've made a lot of errors but you've had a lot of fun

And you've built a lot of friendships so you're really glad you run.

Red Cross —

this area in late September and plans are being made to enlist as many Ozona workers as possible to take this training.

Following the emergency phase of any disaster is the rehabilitation phase, a primary function of Red Cross, performed with the cooperation and approval of a local advisory committee. The Red Cross, Mr. Bassett explained, is charged by law with two functions, disaster relief and service to men in the United States armed forces, veterans and their families. Other programs of Red Cross are water safety, the blood donor program, Junior Red Cross training, nursing, first aid and other familiar programs of Red Cross.

Mr. Laise traced the organization of Red Cross in Switzerland as an international organization, told of some of its international services. Touching on some of the criticisms of Red Cross heard in recent years, Mr. Laise said that investigators have traced some of these criticisms to a rumor factory on the east coast in a strong hold of the Communist party, and investigations in Korea revealed a studied effort to discredit the Red Cross and cause confusion.

Red Cross works solely for the individual, Mr. Laise said. It has never helped a government, nor a group as such, nor any political party or theory. Red Cross is people helping people and a strong Red Cross chapter organization in Ozona is important not only for Ozona but for all the rest of the country.

Appointment of a nominating committee to nominate chapter officers and a board of governors was approved by the group and the annual meeting of the Ozona chapter was set for the first Tuesday in September, at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. George Crocker and daughter, Margaret, 6 months old, are here for a year's stay with Mrs. Crocker's mother, Mrs. E. C. Alford, and Mr. Alford, while her husband, Airman First Class George Crocker, is assigned to an airbase in Newfoundland. Airman Crocker came with his wife and baby for a week's visit before leaving for Camp Kilmer in New Jersey from where he will embark for Newfoundland. He had been stationed at Maxwell Army Air Station, Montgomery, Ala.

TO SAY

THANKS

IS NOT ENOUGH to truly express my gratitude to all those who voted for me for Commissioner from Precinct No. 3 and to all my other friends throughout the county who supported and encouraged me in the Campaign.

I am extremely proud of the confidence you have placed in me by your vote and I shall continue the campaign in the run-off in the same spirit as before — that at the campaign's end, my opponent and those who support me and those who don't will still be my friends.

I will be grateful for your continued support in the run-off election and earnestly solicit the vote of all in Precinct 3 and the influence of all Crockett county citizens in my behalf.
