A Letter To Ozona

It is not always easy to say "thanks", especially when it is meant not merely as a nicety but rather in all sincerity.

Yes, Red Cross has completed a job of assisting disaster stricken families over and above what they could do for themselves and what other resources in the community could do for them. But in order to do it, Red Cross had to depend to a large extent on the cooperation and help of individuals and the general community. ## TO VOTERS OF PRECINCT 4: A Sincere

THANK YOU

I am grateful for the confidence in me you expressed by your vote in Saturday's primary. I appreciate the support and encouragement I received and I earnestly solicit your continued support in the coming run-off election.

I have endeavored to see personally as many as possible of the voters and I shall continue the campaign by seeing as many as possible. If I miss any of you, I hope you will consider this a personal solicitation of your vote and support.

I have made no promise of single-handed action on behalf of any individual or group, nor will I make such promises, but I do promise, if I am elected, to work with the Commissioners Court in the best interests of all the people and of my precinct in particular. That's about all one man on a five-man court can promise.

TO SAY

THANKS

IS NOT ENOUGH to truly express my gratitude to all those who voted for me for Commissioner from Precinct No. 3 and to all my other friends throughout the county who supported and encouraged me in the Campaign.

I am extremely proud of the confidence you have placed in me by your vote and I shall continue the campaign in the run-off in the same spirit as before - that at the campaign's end, my opponent and those who support me and those who don't will still be my friends.

I will be grateful for your continued support in the run-off election and earnestly solicit the vote of all in Precinct 3 and the influence of all Crockett county citizens in my behalf.
