WE DIDN'T KNOW ANY BETTER

Boys used to look forward to summer vacation long before school was out. Usually school let out at noon on the last day. We went straight to the barber shop and had our heads clipped. Twenty-cents. Then to the general store (of which there was never one) and paid fifteen cents for a straw hat. We put a shoestring in the base of the crown to draw it down to size, and we were set for summer.

Afternoon, there would be splashing in the creek. Why mudholes didn't make us I don't know. But never have I seen a real swimming pool we didn't know any better. We went in twice a day morning and evening. Now and then when you could get hold of a watermelon, look it in with us. There would be a lot of ducking each other, hanging out over the pool by a tree, and a lot of puffing and blowing.

When the summer wore on, the project was to get hold of a little money. Allowances had not been given of then in our part of the world. If you were a kid you waited until you needed something and then you couldn't do without it any longer. Then got it for you.

When the only paying jobs were in the fields. Dad would give me a couple or three dollars. I'd buy myself a hoe, a little jug which mother covered with a piece of tow sack, and a pair of overalls. I was then in a mess. By wetting the sack, the jug was supposed to be cooler. Then I struck out and went from farm to farm. Some one hired me to chop wood. Usually it was so much wood. The row sure did seem long. I'd look back to the starting point, then down to the other end. I try to estimate whether I had done half way. If there were two more of us in the same field, I had a pretty good time, even if it did make less money.

I began early in the morning and stayed with it about all day. I don't remember making much more than a dollar in any day. Some families had a delightful custom of bringing a snack down the field hands in the middle of the mornings and afternoons. I lived in, the midmorning and afternoon snacks were a sort of ritual, as sure as sunup and as substantial as a brick building and welcome, too. They had coffee in big slabs, gobs of homemade butter, and gallons of butter. It just churned. We ate more of those snacks than we could possibly handle now at a regular meal. But it never had any effect on our appetites at regular meals, for after washing up in a pan on the back porch we sat down and filled up with home-made ham from hogs killed on the place. The water before, a big platter of fried eggs, plenty of hot butter, sweet and buttermilk, then a bowl of home made pie or bowl of water.

Construction Set To Start Jan. 1 On Radar Station

Washington Info Says Bids Asked Nov. 15; 8 Months to Build

Inquiry of the Air Defense Command in Washington by Congressman J. T. Rutherford of the 16th Texas district, has brought an estimate from the Pentagon that construction is expected to start about January 1, 1956, on the aircraft control and warning station to be built four miles east of Ozona on a 28-acre plot acquired recently by the government out of the Davidson ranch.

"Construction on this aircraft control and warning station will probably start about the first of January, 1956, and it is anticipated that some eight months will be required to finish the project," Congressman Rutherford wrote The Stockman after making inquiry concerning the proposed installation. "Bids will be called for on November 15, 1955, and the opening of bids will be conducted in the office of the District Engineer in Fort Worth on 15 December 1955."

"The project calls for the construction of radio receiver and transmitter buildings, housing and administration facilities, utilities and the necessary roads," the Congressman revealed.

"I have contacted General Partridge, Commander of the Air Defense Command, and have asked him for information concerning the appropriate strength of this unit and other information relative to its establishment. As soon as a report is received, I will pass the information to you, and in the meantime please let me know if I may help you further."

In the meantime, a crew from the Army Engineers office in Ft. Worth were here recently making core tests taking off right-of-way for the road and otherwise marking various installations at the site. Unofficially information is that there are to be two dormitories, a mess hall, recreation hall, administrative building, utilities and the structures and installations for the electronic equipment.

The installation is estimated to cost in the one million dollars.

Ozona Teenagers Play In Odessa Tourney Tonight

Undefeated, Locals In Try For Chance At State Title

Ozona and Days Drive Inn of Odessa will meet in the first round of the Junior Teenage Tournament in Odessa tonight at 8 p. m.

The winner will then take on Reading-Bates, also of Odessa, Friday at 8 p. m. for the championship. The tourney winner will play the champion of the Brownwood tourney for the right to enter the state meet in Texarkana next week. Ozona is undefeated this season and is coached by Pete Hickman. Bobby Sutton, ace of the staff, already has thrown two no-hitters this season and when he isn't on the mound, he's behind the plate.

Ronnie Paulk also sees action on the mound. While the left-hander isn't hurling, he plays first base. Billy Bob Holden is the top batter on the club and can play first and catcher.

Other members of the team are David Sikes, Johnny Jones, Gary Moore, George Ybarra, John Hickman, Jim Burton, Dicky Flannigan and Muggins Good.

T-Sgt. Jack Deaton, U. S. Marine Corps recruiter from San Angelo will be in Ozona at the post office next Monday, August 8, from 2:30 to 3 p. m. Anyone interested in joining the Marines is asked to contact Sgt. Deaton in the Marine car at the post-office Monday.

Two Jailed For DWI In First Session Of New County Court Here

County Judge Houston Smith, presided at the first session of the newly created Crockett County Court Monday and heard pleas of guilty from two defendants charged with first offense driving while intoxicated.

Manuel Herrera of Ozona and Lem F. Johnson of Andrews each received sentences of three days in the county jail and fines of $50 on pleas of guilty to the DWI charges.

Johnson was charged following a highway crash 23 miles south of Ozona on July 23. A car driven by Johnson was in collision with one in which Mr. and Mrs. Lee Simmons of Philadelphia, Pa., were riding. Both cars were badly damaged but nobody was injured.

Herrera was arrested east of Ozona on Highway 290 by Highway Patrolman Moore.

Young Admirer Of Davy Crockett Writes From Portland, Ore.

"Could you send me some information about the David Crockett monument. I am interested in the history of David Crockett."

Thus reads a letter written in a childish hand from Portland, Oregon, addressed to the Chamber of Commerce in Ozona.

Another letter comes from a young lady in Smithville who wants to know why the monument was placed here. She and her family had stopped to look at it on their way through here on a vacation trip to New Mexico.

Meanwhile, Davy's granite likeness in the Ozona city park, fronting on Highway 290, is the victim of several dozen daily "shots" from cameras of tourists. Most of the time Davy has members of the touring families, most often the children, pose with him for the camera bombardment.

Bud Harrison Opens Garage In Williams Magnolia Station

Bud Harrison, for many years a mechanic at the James Motor Co., has opened a garage and service center in the Williams Magnolia Service Station on Highway 290.

Granddaughter Of J. A. Marley, Ozona, Named Nation's Top Cowgirl

Sherry Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Price of Addington, Okla., and a granddaughter of J. A. Marley of Ozona, has received the nation's highest honors as an all-round cowgirl in the National High School Rodeo, according to an item in the Waurika (Okla.) News-Democrat of July 28.

"The contest at Harrison, Neb., July 24 lasted three days, during which the high schoolers were put through some gruelling tests," the newspaper's account said. "These included not only tests of strength and endurance but of wit and skill and to Sherry went top honors for girls."

"Sherry won first in the barrel race, first in breakaway roping; second in cutting and also in pole bending. Twenty states were entered with 193 contestants."

"Sherry wins these events with two ponies, Mona and Pokey. It takes a trailer to transport them and a small sized one to bring home Sherry's prizes this year. These included four trophies, two lovely buckles, a wrist watch, a pair of chaps, a Miley pickup trailer and two jackets."

Mr. Marley and grandson, Jesse Carl Marley, are in Oklahoma this week visiting Mr. Marley's three daughters, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Oley Snipes, of Walters, Okla., and Mrs. Frank Elkins of Waurika, and their families.

Raymond Bennett, a former Ozonan now living in Stanton, was a visitor here last week.

Sheffield Man Dead, Three Hurt In Highway Crash

Estevan Florez Dies, Midland Family Injured Fri. Night

Estevan Florez, 51, Sheffield shearing captain, died here about midnight Friday night from injuries suffered four hours before in a pickup-car crash three miles south of Juno in which two women were injured, one critically, and three children were slightly hurt.

Florez, a resident of Sheffield about 20 years, was on his way from Del Rio. At a curve in the highway, Florez' pickup failed to make the curve on the left side and as he swung the vehicle back across the highway, a car driven by Mrs. Gaston Kitts of Midland, headed toward Del Rio, crashed into the pickup broadside.

Mrs. Kitts was in critical condition for a time in the Crockett County Hospital where she was brought in a Cody ambulance following the accident. She suffered a punctured lung and other injuries. An operation early this week removed damaged tissue of the lower lobe of her right lung and attending physician described her condition yesterday as satisfactory.

Mrs. E. E. Kitts, mother-in-law of Mrs. Gaston Kitts, suffered a broken arm and finger and multiple cuts and bruises and Patricia Kitts, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Kitts, was treated for a slight brain concussion at the hospital here. The baby has been dismissed from the hospital and Mrs. E. E. Kitts was expected to be dismissed this week. Two other of the Kitts children who were passengers in the car were only slightly hurt.

Gaston Kitts and his father, E. E. Kitts, were in a pickup behind the family in the car. They had stopped in Juno to have a tire repaired and while there heard that an accident had occurred down the road. They rushed to the scene and cared for the injured until the ambulance arrived.

Funeral services for Florez were held here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Catholic church with burial following in the Latin-American cemetery.

Total of 140 Out Of 180 Ozona Children Get Second Salk Shots

In a mop-up operation last week, some 25 additional Salk polio vaccine shots were administered by Dr. H. B. Tandy, county health officer, making a total of around 140 first and second grade children who received the second or booster shot of the vaccine after receiving the initial shot in May.

A total of approximately 180 children received the first shot. Dr. Tandy estimated that 90 percent of the Anglo American children who received the first shot reported for the second and 100 percent of the Negro children were vaccinated. The biggest drop in response was among the Latin-American children.

Dr. Tandy was still holding the balance of the Salk vaccine yesterday in the hope that more children would report for the free shots before it became necessary to return the unused portion to the State Health Department.

SCS SURVEY OF JOHNSON DRAW WATERSHED CONTROL PROJECT TO BEGIN SEPT. 1

County To Advance Funds For Survey To Gain Year In Time For Beginning of Construction On Dam System

Speedy action toward the earliest possible start on a flood control project on Johnson Draw watershed was taken here Friday afternoon by a group of Crockett county citizens following a conference with H. N. Smith of Temple, State Soil Conservationist.

As a result of the conference, steps have been taken toward the start of the survey and work plan for the watershed control program to begin about September 1, with hopes that the project will be ready to let the first contracts early next year.

Mexican Burned By High Voltage Arc Is On Way To Recovery

Satisfactory progress toward recovery was reported from the Crockett County Hospital this week for Antonio Capatillo, Mexican national ranch hand, who missed death by a few inches as an arc from a 66,000-volt highline crossing the B. B. Ingham Jr., ranch where Capatillo was employed, killed the horse he was riding and inflicted severe burns over nearly half of the man's body.

The high voltage line licked out its tongue of death when Capatillo and a companion, both horseback, rode too close to a sagging line, dropped when a crossarm burned in two from some cause. The horse, wet with sweat, took the full electric charge and died instantly. Capatillo was burned from the intense heat of the electric arc from the line to the horse's body, but saved by the insulation of his clothing and the saddle and pad on the horse's back.

Capatillo's companion used good judgment in roping the injured man, who was felled beneath the sagging line, and dragged him to safety.

Wildcat Attempts To Link Farmer, Block 47 Fields In Crockett

E. V. Mitchell will attempt to link the Farmers (San Andres) and the Block 47 fields of Crockett County with staking of his No. 1-P University, eight miles south of Big Lake. The project is 3/8 miles west-northwest of the Block 47 field and 3/8 miles northeast of the Farmers (San Andres) field.

It will be drilled with cable tools to 2,800 feet, with operations beginning August 15.

Location, on an estimated 174-acre lease, is 990 feet from the south and 330 feet from the west lines of 9-47-University.

Both fields produce from the San Andres.

A DEMAND

It's always refreshing when a top man in government champions a principle that is strictly in accord with American traditions.

Director of the Budget Hughes did that when he said: "We remain convinced that the best interests of the nation as a whole do demand the termination of unwarranted government competition with business."

In plain language, government in business is socialism — and socialism, carried far enough, always ends in tyranny and the death of liberty and human dignity.

GOVERNMENT BY MINORITY

As everyone should know by now, excessively big government is excessively expensive government. Equally bad, it degenerates into government by minority.

Economic Intelligence points out that there are now 230 Congressional committees and subcommittees and adds: "It is becoming progressively more and more impossible for a newspaperman or anyone else to keep track of what is going on in Washington. Almost no one can see the process as a whole. This makes for government by minority — vocal, articulate, self-seeking minorities — This is the stuff of which dictatorship is made."

Cutting government down to proper size would save billions of dollars. It also can save the institution of representative government itself.

By PRICE DANIEL
U. S. Senator

Congress has adjourned and this will be our last column until we meet again in January. It has been a pleasure to report to you and other readers of several hundred Texas weekly newspapers during the session just closed, and I appreciate the comments and suggestions which have come from you as a result of this column.

In general, this session of Congress was very successful, both for the Nation and for the State of Texas. We did not complete several important items of legislation, but they will remain in status quo until Congress reconvenes in January. The natural gas bill passed the House without enough time left for action in the Senate. Every member of the Texas delegation is to be complimented for his work on this important bill. This bill will be one of the first orders of business in the Senate next January, and I feel sure that the bill will be passed by the Senate and signed by the President.

Highway Program

All the highway bills were killed in the House, but you may be sure that this important legislation will be revived next year. There is great need for additional highway improvements throughout the land, and the Federal government should bear its just share of the interstate and regional highway construction or surrender its gasoline taxation to the States so they can do the job.

New Federal Judge

Texas has a new United States District Judge for the Northern District, Joe Estes, who was born and reared at Commerce and has been practicing law in Dallas. Mr. Estes was nominated by the President, and in the record time of one week and two days later, the Senate had confirmed this nomination. He is an outstanding lawyer and will make an excellent judge.

In a visit at the White House last week, President Eisenhower told Estes that he liked what he had heard about the new judge's legal ability and, added the President, "I am also impressed by the fact that you part your hair the same as I do." Both men are practically bald.

Finishing touches are being made on the new home for Mr. and Mrs. U. S. (Rusty) Smith in the Owens addition in west Ozona.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — First conviction in the 319 indictments shrouding the veterans' land program came last week.

A three-year penitentiary sentence fixed by a 98th district court jury for the program's founding father, Bascom Giles.

Surprised, Giles promised to use all his legal rights to fight the conviction. Motion for new trial was quickly overruled, clearing the way for appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Conviction was on a charge the former land commissioner aided and abetted Brady land dealer B. R. Sheffield in the theft of $6,800. Sheffield was jointly indicted with Giles and still awaits trial.

Free on a $2,000 appeal bond, Giles awaits trial again August 15 in San Antonio. He is charged there with accepting a bribe in another program deal. Other indictment are still pending in Travis and Zavala Counties.

State Recovers Land Money

In the second of many civil suits resulting from the veterans' land scandals the state last week recovered $89,868.

Byrd Cattle Co. of Dallas was ordered by 53rd district court to repay that amount plus three per cent interest.

Action was initiated by the cattle company. It offered to buy back at the purchase price the 700 acres of Dimmit County land sold to 15 veterans. Court judgment was necessary, however, to rescind the transaction.

Integration Committee Formed

A statewide advisory committee on public school integration problems is meeting here this week. Governor Shivers invited 33 men and women, both white and colored to serve on the committee. Additional legislative members were named by Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Speaker Jim Lindsey.

Shivers said the committee was needed to study critical desegregation problems and prevent "hasty, ill-advised action."

He urged school districts to appoint similar committees. They would study local level problems and serve as liaison with the state group.

Anti-Crime Group Formed

A non-profit corporation pledged to fight crime on a statewide basis will set up headquarters in Austin.

Called the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation, it grew out of recommendations of the attorney general's Citizens Advisory Committee on Law Enforcement. Its aim is to provide a broad program of education in scientific crime-fighting techniques.

It will provide libraries on criminology, make awards to outstanding officers, publish bulletins on new crime-combatting tactics, assist training schools, sponsor additional schools.

"Purina Steer Fatena did a better job, because it stimulated bacterial activity in the rumen... used grain and roughage to better advantage. The Steer Fatena steers carried more weight, better finish... brought more money."

TEXAS DELEGATION to put forth its most unified effort in the session late last week. The result was the passage of the Harris Natural Gas bill, which will give the gas industry from the Federal Power Commission a vote.

Extremely close-knit on the basis, the Texas group recently divides on roll call but with the important roll call up, it was a unified Texas delegation.

The Texas group is "bunched up" on the roll call as it comes to seating arrangements; but as the Harris Bill debate started, one member of the delegation remarked: "Let's fan out and get to work, as one may vote could kill us all."

And so it was that veterans and freshmen alike — including Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas' 4th District, and Bruce Alger, the "maverick" Republican from Dallas — moved about the Floor of the House in an effort to gain votes for the gas measure.

A friend of mine in the visitors' gallery later told me "it looked like 22 Floor leaders in operation as the Texas delegation swarmed over the House and used every spell in the book to induce support of the bill. Even during the final roll call Texans flitted from man to man trying to turn the tide at the last minute — for remember, this bill was given little, if any, chance of passage."

As the roll call approached the end, the Texans gathered in a body near the back of the House and kept a vote-by-vote tabulation of the results. Suspense hung heavy in the air. Finally, the results: the bill carried by a vote of 209 to 203.

The Texans, who to a man had worked for the passage of the bill since the beginning of the 84th Congress, even in the face of strong opposition from congressmen representing the big eastern city areas, breathed a collective sigh of relief. Then before returning to their offices as the clock raced toward 9 p. m. the Texas delegation engaged in a round of hand-pumping, back-slapping and an exchange of very happy grins.

RUMORS ARE FLYING that Martin Dies, Texas Congressman-at-large, will be a candidate for the Governorship of our state. Dies admits "a lot of folks have asked me to run" but has given no indication how serious he is about the matter.

OTHER ACTION taken by the Congress during the past week is revealed thusly in the Legislative Roundup: Both House and Senate cleared for President mutual security appropriations bill; Senate cleared Reserve Forces bill for President's signature; House defeated proposed Highway Construction bill; Upper Colorado River bill was "shelved" until next session.

AS THIS REPORT was being written the House was only hours away from considering the FHA-Public Housing bill. It also appeared likely action would be taken on the Sugar Act and State Department organization plan. And it was touch-and-go as to whether bills concerning retirement and classification of Post Office, Civil Service workers would be considered or carried over until January.

INCIDENTALLY, next week my Report will deal with the major action taken by the 84th Congress during the first session and will go into the matters due to be considered early next session.

HOT SUMMER WEATHER

sure keeps me busy!

Hot summer weather means longer and longer working hours for me... and added jobs. For when the temperature soars there's much, much more work for me to do in addition to my regular chores... work that I'm glad to do so long as it's helping you.

My hours and wages, as shown on your electric service bill, may be larger during this hot weather, but I believe you'll agree that a few extra pennies a day for the extra hours I've worked is a real bargain in more comfortable summer living.

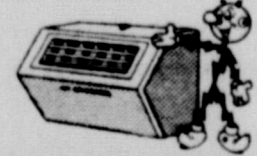

Reddy Kilowatt
Your Electric Servant

P. S. I like to work for you!

West Texas Utilities Company

I operated your refrigerator longer hours supplying extra ice cubes, cold drinks, and keeping your food fresh and wholesome.

To keep you cool and comfortable, you've had me on the run operating your room coolers and air conditioners.

To keep food frozen and frozen storage units safe through the hot, hot days, I've worked more hours day and night.

And your fans, big and little, kept me breezing, bringing you cooling breezes 'round the clock.

Under Public Law 566, the small watershed control act, local participation is required to the extent of local benefit to be derived from a project and the project remains a locally owned and managed one, with the federal government contributing a part of the construction cost, Mr. Smith explained to the group.

The seven requirements of local participation as given by Mr. Smith are: 1. Complete conservation land treatment of the watershed area. 2. Furnish easements and rights of way to the local sponsoring body. (The local Soil Conservation District in this case.) 3. Obtain state water rights if necessary. 4. Bear operating and maintenance costs, (estimated as nominal.) 5. Bear all costs of water storage not for flood prevention purposes. 6. Award and administer contracts. 7. Bear a share of the contract costs of any structures.

As one of the first steps to be taken by the local group toward final approval of the project, Mr. Smith asked that a letter be written to the SCS stating the sponsors' willingness to proceed with the project, declaring the maximum part of the cost which the local community can and will bear, how the money is to be obtained and a frank statement of opinion of the interest of local people and the chances of success of local financing. This letter was being prepared this week.

Cattle Prices Above 1954 Level

Fort Worth — Several people recently have inquired of us as to how prices as we turn into the month of August compare with a year ago. Going back to our Weekly Livestock Reporter files we find most cattle enjoy considerable advantage over a year ago.

The market at Fort Worth Monday on most cattle and calves was around steady despite the offering here being 1,500 above a year ago, and the run around the 12 major markets being about 30,000 cattle and calves above the previous Monday.

We can credit improved pasture and feed conditions for the strength of the market at Fort Worth at this time in the opinion of observers here.

Comparative Prices

A year ago at Fort Worth choice grainfed cattle were quoted $20 to $22, few $23; common, plain and medium kinds $10 to $18. Recent sales of choice cattle at $21 to $23.50, and common, plain and medium sorts from $11 to $18, show a little better prices for top cattle than a year ago.

Other classes:

1954 — Fat cows $9.00 to $12.00, canners and cutters $6.00 to $9.00, a few under $6.00. 1955 — Fat cows $10.00 to $13.00; canners and cutters $7.00 to $10.50.

1954 — Bulls $8.00 to $13.00. 1955 — Bulls $10.00 to $14.00.

1954 — Good and choice slaughter calves $16.00 to $19.00; common and medium $9.00 to $15.00; culls $7.00 to $9.00. 1955 — Good and choice slaughter calves $16.50 to $19.00; common and medium $12.00 to $15.50; culls $9.00 to $11.00.

1954 — Stocker steer calves, medium to choice, $15.00 to $19.00; steer yearlings $18.50 down; heifer calves and yearlings $15.00 down; stocker cows $8.50 to $10.00. 1955 — Medium, good and choice stocker steer calves $16.00 to $21.00; steer yearlings $19.50 down; heifers $16.00 down. Stocker cows $8.00 to $12.00.

Sheep and Lambs Above 1954

Slaughter Spring lambs were 50 cents to $1 lower at Fort Worth Monday, and other classes of sheep and lambs ruled about steady. Top lambs scored $19, and feeders sold at $15.50 downward. Comparison of the various classes with 1954 shows:

1954 — Good and choice slaughter Spring lambs $16.50 to $18.50; common and medium killers $10.00 to $15.50; culls down to $8.00. Feeder lambs $10.00 to $15.00; slaughter yearlings $8.00 to $12.00; aged wethers $6.00 to $9.00; slaughter ewes $3.00 to $4.50; old bucks $2.00 to $3.00; breeding ewes $5.00 to $10.00.

1955 — Good and choice Spring lambs $17.50 to $19.00; common and medium $12.00 to $16.50; culls $10.00 to $12.00; feeder lambs $13.00 to $15.00; slaughter yearlings $9.00 to $15.00; aged wethers $7.00 to $12.00; slaughter ewes $4.00 to $5.00; old bucks $3.00 to $4.00; stocker ewes $7.00 to $12.00.

Here and There
By J. Troy Hickman

young people now. Of course, we boys preferred post office, but we'll not go into that now.

A play party was when someone sent word out, "Come over to my house tonight." That's about all there was to it, except that the host's mother would usually have some lemonade and cookies to hand around just before we went home.

Summer play parties were always out in the yard. The boy took his girl by the hand and the couples went around and around in various patterns and routines, and as we went we made our own "music". Some of it must have been pretty weird, that with half the boys singing off key because their voices were changing, and the other half unable to carry the tune. But if you had the girl by the hand, the artistic considerations didn't matter too much. Besides, as I said a moment ago, we didn't know any better, so we enjoyed them. We would just start shuffling around and making a noise. Around eleven o'clock we went home, hoping someone else would give another play party pretty soon.

About all the society we had on Sunday was the Epworth League. A lot of us went not only because we loved the Lord, but because we wanted to be where others were. The programs were made up so each of several persons had a piece to do. That way had not yet gone out of date, so we were sort of proud when one of us could do his piece without looking at the paper. It was an honor to be the leader for the night.

Considerable courting of a light type went on, mostly furtive glances. But some of us managed to make a little progress in courtship, even under the stringent limitations of the Epworth League atmosphere.

The best things we ever had were the ice cream suppers. That was in the sharecropper community. Their families seldom made more than $500 a year on their cash crops, but they ate pretty well. They lived mostly on what they raised. Cream was the main cash crop. They had separators. The women knew how to put a little separated cream back into the bluejohn milk and make a wonderful ice cream. It was wonderful because you could eat all you wanted and not get overstuffed. It had plenty of eggs in it. We used to come together, several families at someone's house. Some brought cream, some ice and salt and some freezers. One night we had fifty gallons of the stuff frozen up and less than fifty people there to eat it. We froze it by hand, stored it in bigger cans surrounded by salted ice, and dipped it out with big tin cups. When you got a bowl of cream it was a real bowl. It might have a full quart in it. And you kept going back as long as you could walk or crawl to where it was.

A half dozen big country cakes reposed on a table nearby, and every woman there would be mad at you if you didn't eat a big slab of her cake. And if you went back for a second, that woman was your friend for life.

Well, those were the days. Most of it sounds tame now. But nobody told us. We didn't know any better. We thought we were having a pretty good time.

Bill Carson was taken to the Crockett county hospital last night after suffering a fractured pelvic bone. The injury occurred during a Palmetto polo practice game at the local field.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Smith visited in San Antonio this week with Mrs. Smith's brother, S. Sgt. Robt. L. Saunders and with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith of Sanderson. Carlton Smith, head coach at Sanderson High School is attending coaching school in San Antonio. The Ozonans brought back their grandchildren, Susan and Carlton Smith, Jr., for a few days visit.
