SPEED IS A DISEASE

A few days ago one of the most promising young actors in Hollywood, James Dean of "The Giant", was killed while driving his German sport car toward a race track at Paso Robles, California. Why? Probably, because he enjoyed the sensation of driving a car at a high speed.

Speed costs more lives than heart-disease, polio or cancer. We organize campaigns against all these diseases, except the disease of speed. The 1954 Ozona flood was said to have cost 17 lives and 12 million dollars in property damage. We are planning to build a dam above town to prevent another flood. Yet every year more than 17 people are killed on the highways of our region and we do nothing effective about it. What is the difference?

The difference may be that speed is a symptom of our way of living, a part of our age. We do everything faster than we used to. We go down the road in a hurry, even when we have nothing to hurry about. Some of us, like Jimmy Dean, love the sensation of fast driving. But not all speedsters are seeking thrills.

Some of us are business speedsters. We live on tight schedules. Having an appointment 100 miles away, instead of taking the day off for it, we allow ourselves a half an hour and a half, then late to step on it.

Another kind of speeder is the vacationist. He wants to see as much country as he can in two weeks. When he gets to the open spaces of West Texas, he figures that this is the place to make up some lost time. He comes through in a hurry, sometimes has trouble, and nearly always gets hurt. West Texas wrecks are usually bad ones, for they are speed wrecks.

Many factors enter into an accident: the condition of the car, the road, the weather, the time of the day, the state of the driver's health, his temperament, his anxieties, and a lot of other incalculable factors. But one item crops up more often than any other — speed. When something happens to a car or its driver, at a normal speed there is the chance of coming out of it alive. But if the speed is excessive, injury or death usually follow.

Other factors are in the picture. Drinking figures in many accidents. Big trucks on the road are becoming an increasing problem, and are figuring in more and more accidents. In a truck-car accident, the car is always at a disadvantage because of difference in size and weight. Some of these things you and I as individuals cannot control.

Perhaps you or I may be doomed to be statistical fatalities. But there are a few simple and practical things each of us can try to do, and which may make the statistical probabilities a little more favorable.

First, we can stay at home when we have no real business on the road. Crowding of highways is one of our problems today. It seems reasonable that the less one is on the road the fewer his chances of being hurt.

Second, we can stay off the road on holidays and weekends, and at peak traffic hours.

Third, we can pick a route to our destination which will use the least-traveled roads. We have today a network of farm-to-market roads, many of which are as good as main highways.

Fourth, when on vacation we can set an average daily mileage which permits enough rest to keep us in prime driving condition. Why work hard at having a vacation?

Fifth, in keeping business appointments, we can make a schedule which permits cruising to our destination, instead of speeding.

Sixth, when making long drives, we can change drivers every 50 to 100 miles. If one is driving alone, he can stop frequently for a breather, if nothing more than to

Radar Squadron To Bring $30,000 Monthly Payroll

Additional Operating Cost Of $100,000 Per Month

SAN ANTONIO, Texas. — Increased radar detection in the greater Southwest as part of the Air Defense system was announced here today by Brig. General Wm. P. Nuckols, Commander of the 33rd Air Defense Division.

Speaking to the San Antonio Rotary Club, General Nuckols outlined detailed plans for the establishment of some 18 additional early warning and auxiliary air defense radar stations throughout Texas and part of Louisiana. The units are scheduled to be in operation by next summer.

"With the addition of eight new Aircraft Control and Warning (A-C&W) Squadrons, and the ten new automatic auxiliary radar sites, our effective coverage of southern Texas, the gulf area and northern Mexico will be more than doubled," the General said.

"For the first time we will have 100 percent coverage of the southern approaches to the 33rd Air Division area," he continued. "And we will have the capability to guide our fighters to pin-point interception of any hostile planes at much greater distances from population centers and industrial-military targets than we have had heretofore."

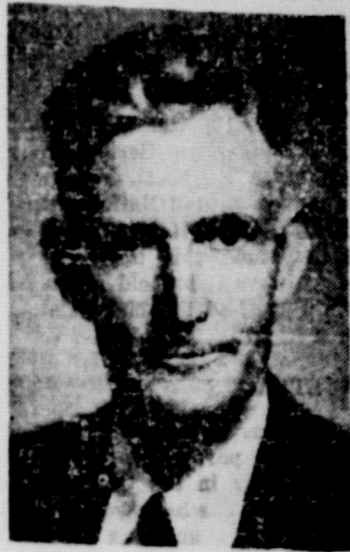

General Nuckols directs the aerial defenses of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana from his Division Command Post near Oklahoma City.

The new radar squadrons will be manned by an average of 15 officers and 155 airmen each. The new squadrons are to be located at Ozona, Eagles Pass, Zapata, Rockport, Fort Isabel, Killeen and Lufkin in Texas. One will be located at Lake Charles Air Force Base in Louisiana.

The ten automatic radar sites which will be unmanned, except for regular maintenance visits, are to be located near Fannett, Van Vleck, McCamey, Carrizo Springs, Comstock, Delmita, Laredo, Riviera and Palacios all in Texas. In addition, a unit will be established on Weeks Island, La.

"The new radar screen which pierces deep into Mexico and the gulf area will be extremely valuable in detecting any hostile air-

1955 Lions Make History With 58-0 Win Over Iraan

First Ozona Team To Conquer Braves; 4th Straight Win

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions, stymied by penalties and mistakes exploded in the last three quarters to rout the Iraan Braves 58 to 0 in Iraan last Friday night.

The victory for the Lions was the first over Iraan as well as making the Lions fourth victory of the year.

While the Ozona offense sputtered during the first quarter, the defense headed by Juan Delgado, one of the finest guards in Ozona's football history, halted every Iraan effort in such an effective manner that the Braves ended up the game with a minus 32 yards from scrimmage.

The game was one of long runs and brilliant downfield blocking for the Lions as the Ozona defense turned the Iraan pass offense into one of its most potent weapons. In all, the Lions intercepted six aeriels and returned them for a total of 302 yards which was, incidentally almost the exact amount of rushing and passing yardage the Lions made during the contest.

Johnny Ramirez returned two interceptions for a total of 100 yards. Bobby Martinez took one back 15 yards. Bobby Sutton returned a stolen pass 77 yards. Lloyd West took one back 80 yards for a score and Jimmy Martinez returned one 39 yards on the game's last play.

Despite the stolen aeriels, it was the lightning like thrusts of fullback Mike Clayton that first brought the Lions into the lead and led to Clayton sitting out most of the last half in an effort to keep the score down. The Lions fullback lugged the ball eleven times in picking up 181 yards and three touchdowns.

Delay Cafeteria Opening Pending Building Details

Hope To Be Able To Serve First Meals By Oct. 17

Because many construction details remain to be completed, plans for holding open house at the new school cafeteria during Homecoming celebration here Saturday and opening the cafeteria to students next week have been postponed, it was announced by the school board following a meeting with the contractor Herman Krevit of Midland, Wednesday afternoon.

School officials hope builders will have the structure ready for student use in serving the first meals by Monday, October 17. Supt. L. E. T. Sikes said. Many minor adjustments and repairs and a general clean-up of the premises yet to be done made the postponement of the opening necessary, the board announced.

Homecoming open house site will be transferred to the North Elementary auditorium.

The new cafeteria, when it is finally opened, will be one of the finest of its size in the state. The airy, inviting dining area is 46 by 60 feet in size enclosed with glass on all sides. The kitchen is on the north side and is equipped with the latest cooking, refrigerating and cleaning equipment, including a huge gas stove, a four-oven bake oven, electric potato peeler, mechanical dishwasher and lots of counter space and storage room. Two steam tables behind the serving bar will facilitate the serving of students. High school and junior high students will enter through separate doors and each group will form a line and both will be served simultaneously.

The kitchen has a walk-in refrigerator and an enclosed quick-freezer compartment for handling huge quantities of food. The heating unit for the building is located in an enclosed area in the southeast corner of the dining area and rest rooms for boys and girls are available off the dining room and others for cafeteria employees in the rear.

The cafeteria will be under the management of Mrs. Gus Maxwell, who for the past several years has been manager of a school cafeteria in Abilene.

Negro Confesses Fatally Shooting Woman Companion

Raymond Phillips Held In $7,500 Bond On Murder Charge

Raymond Henderson Phillips, 28, Negro ranch hand, signed a statement he made to investigating officers confessing the fatal shooting of Robbie Lou Roseman, 22, whose lifeless body he brought in a ranch pickup truck to the Crockett County hospital Saturday morning.

With a .22 calibre bullet hole in the chest, Robbie Lou Roseman, who, Phillips said, had been his "common law" wife for three years was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. An x-ray examination of the body showed that the bullet had entered the right chest, ranged downward and lodged in the body at about waist level on the left side. She had lived but a few minutes after the fatal shot, doctors said.

Phillips first told officers that he had returned home and found the Roseman woman lying in the backyard of their home on the John Dublin ranch, 29 miles north of Ozona. She had been shot in the chest and a .22 calibre rifle was near the body, he said. She was still alive, he said, and he loaded her in the pickup and brought her to town.

In a later statement to officers, Phillips said he had shot the woman but that the shooting was accidental. He was taken to Austin Sunday night where he took a lie detector test at the state laboratory.

Monday, Sheriff V. O. Earnest called in Ranger Gulley Cowser and after several hours of questioning, Phillips finally admitted that he shot the woman after an argument which started when he returned home from work and complained because she did not have his meal ready. An argument and "cuss fight" started and ended up in the backyard shooting.

Phillips claimed self-defense in the shooting, claiming that the Roseman woman had been him up several times on previous occasions. He admitted throwing a stick at her just before the shooting, Sheriff Earnest said.

Charges of murder with malice were filed in Justice of the Peace Bill Johnson's court following the investigation. Bond was set at $7,500 which Phillips had not furnished Wednesday morning. The shooting will come in for investigation by the grand jury when it next convenes.

Investigation by officers has disclosed that Phillips served four years of a ten-year sentence imposed at Bracketville on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with a knife attack on a Mexican.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to bring or carry into any enclosure, field or stadium, where athletic events, sponsored or participated in by the public schools of this State, are being held, any intoxicating beverage or to have any intoxicating beverage in his possession while in or on said enclosure, field or stadium.

Section 2. Provided that if any officer of this State sees any person or persons violating the terms of Section 1 of this Act, he shall immediately seize such intoxicating beverage and shall within a reasonable time thereafter deliver same to the County or District Attorney who shall hold same as evidence until the trial of the accused party and shall thereafter dispose of same.

Section 3. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined any sum not less than Twenty-five ($25) Dollars and not more than Two Hundred ($200) Dollars.

Welcome Exes! From each and every student now at O. H. S. comes a very hearty welcome to each and every one of you!

We admire you for the standards and goals you set for us to strive toward in high school and for the examples you are setting for us when we get out in the world. We realize that you helped give "Our School" the fine reputation that is has and we only hope that as we attend school every day; go here and there to football games, basket ball games, meets, etc., that we can maintain the rating that you gave O. H. S. This week, we hope we can show our appreciation by displaying a good football game, lots of school spirit, and giving you a wonderful time!

COMIN' AND GOIN'

Saturday night, at 9:00, the Ozona Country Club, will be the scene of a Homecoming dance. Its scheduled to be semi-formal, no admission charge, and the public is invited.

Again, we'd like to remind you that Saturday, the Seniors will sell sweets in the park and the Juniors will sell mums for the Friday night football game.

The airplane, the atomic bomb, and the zipper have cured me of any tendency to state that a thing can't be done.

Arturo Gonzales, one of the "rearin' Lions" suffered a shoulder separation last week, while practicing — we wish him a speedy recovery.

No woman objects to being called intelligent provided she is assured that it has done no harm to her looks.

JUNIOR PLAY

Mr. Leath has announced that readings for parts in the Junior Play will begin just as soon as the play books arrive, which should be sometime this week. The play, Adam's Night Out, has been made into a movie starring Edward Horton and seem to be a hit.

Mr. Leath urges all Juniors to report for the readings and that further notice will be given concerning the time and place of the readings.

The cast consists of 10 people, 5 men and 5 women.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Do you think Ozona will win the ten games on their schedule? Mr. Leath — If we beat Sonora we will go all the way.

Martha Flowers — of course we will!

Carol Friend — Yes, I think we will.

Martha Bailey — We've got the coaches, team, and school spirit. I don't see why we can't beat everybody we play.

Wanda Armstrong — Sure!

Lloyd West — I think we are going to win them all.

Carl Conklin — If we get by Sonora we will.

Luis Vela — if we beat Sonora we will and I think we can!

Roy Mann — Undoubtedly Earl Deland — Maybe! Anyway I sure hope so.

FADS AND FASHIONS

It seems that our newest style is changing the hair. Elizabeth Pearson has gone from one extreme to the other. She has cut her long horses tail off into a three inch poodle. Carol Blackstone has converted her sophisticated bun into a sweet little horse's tail with the touch of spit (or they might be called kiss) curls. Carolyn Stuart seems to be letting her hair grow out long to please some male close to her heart and I don't think it is her new brother only five days old. Remember girls if its up, let it down, and if its long, cut it or viceversa.

A STUDENT CHANT

He is my teacher; I shall not pass. He maketh me to go to the board. He compelleth me to write difficult problems. He maketh me to sit down for my class sake. Yea, though I study until midnight I gain no knowledge. For my formules sorely bother me. He giveth me "F". Surely factors and radicals shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the Algebra Class forever.

SOUTHERN ASSEMBLY

Tuesday, October 4, a magician and escape artist, presented our program. This was the first of our Southern Assemblies. When asked for help, Louie Mock and Mary Baggett, both 7th graders volunteered.

When he got ready for his escape act, Benny Friend, Juan Delgado, Brock Jones and Jerry Beasley volunteered to help him. He escaped from a stock that was used for punishment in the olden days. This outstanding trick was one of the many used by the magician, "Houdini". Our guest also owns some of the material used by "Houdini".

A few jokes here and there completed the enjoyable program.

Blackstone Wins Essay Contest On Industry In Ozona

Enthusiasm in the 1955 Essay Contest sponsored by the Oil Information Committee, peaked Wednesday with announcement of the winners. The contest was called for the purchase of a CFC, presented first prize of $20 to Carol Blackstone, second place, and a $10 prize to Susie Schneemann. R. Haldyler took third and five dollars. Mr. Kirby and Mr. Harlan, senior English students, were eligible to participate in the contest. The contestants were praised for their good work. Both might go to Carol or higher competition. The prize is for $500, $300, payable to the winners upon entry into college. It is hoped that everyone may see the quality of the essays this year, permission received to print Carol's essay considered among the best submitted from Ozona.

Oil Industry — Friend and Citizen

In the middle of the year "Ozona Biggest Little Town in the World," and the fact it is to be true. They are justifiably proud of their lit-erary, civic-minded early days had striven to prohibit and had built a whole atmosphere around town. Naturally, they are proud of all newcomers who proved themselves. Rumors persisted that the town was preparing to move and began to wonder what would have on their lives. Most of retired ranchmen, in the woolhouse, dis-tributed problems in distressed. Our way of life is ended," moaned. "Our little town is the same." Mothers learned about their children only knows what kind of people they may be associating with!" The school trustees were wondering, "How can we accommodate all the extra students?"

Same locale, a decade later: A gain a glum atmosphere pervades. As oldtimers meet in the same woolhouse today, they ponder the effects of the latest rumors. The news has been circulating that the oil companies may leave. After observing Ozona's all but miracu-lous growth and improvement these past ten years, they realize how the town would suffer from such a loss. Women of the church and literary organizations ask, "How will we do without so many of our most active members?" The County Commissioners puzzle over a budget that has become dependent upon taxes paid by the oil companies. The children think sadly of losing some of their dearest friends.

And so "The Old Order changeth." Actual experience has taught the citizens of this small West Texas town how valuable the oil industry has become to their way of life.

Today Ozonans enjoy many im-provements that would have been impossible without the taxes paid by the oil companies. Certainly the citizens are grateful. In the past ten years we have obtained paved streets, two beautiful swimming pools, and adequate fire depart-ment, and a hospital. So success-ful has the hospital proved that bonds have been voted for the construction of a larger one. Dur-ing this same period the schools have carried on an extensive build-ing program including an eighteen-classroom elementary school, a football stadium, a homemaking cottage, a gymnasium, a band hall, and fourteen teacherages. A new cafeteria is scheduled to open within the next two weeks. These achievements, made possible by the oil development, have given Ozonans even more reason to take pride in their community.

During the recent drouth large numbers of people have relied upon the oil industry to tide them over until better times. The land-owners, who objected most stren-uously to the "oilers" at first, have been among these. Lease money paid them by the oil companies has often constituted their principal source of income.

The smaller ranchers were hard-est hit by the long dry spell. By taking jobs with the oil companies, many of them have managed to support their families while their ranges are recovering.

With finances at such a low ebb, many of the younger boys work for oil companies to earn their college tuition. The companies help them plan their education and guarantee them better jobs when they complete college.

This additional money in the town, plus the trade brought in by the oil company employees, boosted the merchants at a time when many might have been forced to close their doors. The oil in-dustry has actually held the town together with its financial aid.

Perhaps the best example of the extent to which the oil companies and their employees have become friends and citizens in our com-munity is shown by the way they helped the victims of the 1954 flood. They proved to be anything but fair-weather friends! The com-panies contributed generously to help the people rehabilitate them-selves. One company in particular sent a truckload of sixty men to help clear the debris. These men were paid by the company. Many of the employees worked during their off hours helping their friends. When disaster struck they were all ready and willing to help the town of which they have be-come such an integral part.

Here is an example of the way the oil industry has become vital to the welfare of a town. Through-out the nation the citizens of countless communities who have experienced similar benefits must surely join the people of Ozona in a sincere hope that the oil industry is here to stay.

SPORTS

The Lions looked sharp last Fri-day night against the Iraan Braves and if they pick up as much steam the next few weeks as they have the last month, someone will have to play very good football to beat them. This may be the year for another District Championship team for Ozona.

Coaches Hickman and Cleere are polishing a few pointers for the Rankin game this Friday night which will be seen not only by the usual local fans, but also by former students of Ozona High who will be here for the Home-coming Celebration. For such an occasion the Lions hope to be at their best.

Miss Nancy Ann Perdue became the bride of Billy A. Hall in a single-ring ceremony Sunday, October 2, at 10 a. m. in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Perdue.

The ceremony was performed before an embankment of green fern with large white baskets of Fuji mums on either side. Rev. Fill G. The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman OCTOBER 7, 1926

An election to decide whether or not the town of Ozona should be incorporated will be held here Saturday, October 16, according to notices posted this week by County Judge Chas. E. Davidson. The election call was issued by Judge Davidson in response to a petition filed with him by a group of approximately 75 residents of this area.

Visitors from the districts included in the Del Rio-Uvalde Baptist Association are expected to be in Ozona for the annual session to be held here beginning Wednesday, October 13. Rev. H. C. Slaughter pastor of the First Baptist Church announced. Anyone who wishes to assist in taking care of the visitors are asked to call Mrs. Roy Parker who is in charge of this feature.

Fish stories have had their day, but to Morris Dudley goes the hand painted prize snake story. It happened at the Rogers sheep camp near the Childress tank. According to Mr. Dudley a four foot coachwhip snake came cruising by under a near-by bush. A little rattler, two feet long, also came nosing about and sighted the same shelter. Instead of scrouging, the coachwhip shot out, bent the rattler's head back, and swallowed him bodily. The rattler did some mighty rattling, but he couldn't back out. It was a good snake story, but when one of the listeners ventured one about a three foot coachwhip swallowing a four foot rattler, the party got rough.

Chris Meinecke, Ozona merchant was seriously injured and his adopted son, Buster, 12, was slightly hurt early Monday morning when an automobile in which they were returning from a ranch south of town, crashed into one of the heavy concrete light posts in the middle of the street near Meinecke's store.

The sale of about 9000 old ewes during the week end at a price in line with those that have obtained through the season from $2.50 to $6.50 featured the livestock activities of the last few days.

The goat business could not be better than it is now, according to J. A. Ward, breeder of registered goats in this section. He points out that goats are now bred to the point that they shear almost as much as sheep. He sheared a spring kid this week and got five pounds off him, and only recently he sheared a billie, getting 23 pounds off a less than twelve months fleece.

M. J. Read, a former resident of Ozona, son of Rev. and Mrs. Nat Read, has purchased land from Harry Friend, 15 miles southeast of Ozona. He and Mrs. Read are moving here to make their home. Rev. Read was a former pastor of the Ozona Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nolen and daughters, Misses Josephine and Lois Nolen, are moving to San Angelo to make their home. Mr. Nolen has been County clerk here for many years.

Miss Claflin Cooke, daughter of R. J. Cooke, proprietor of the Ozona Meat Market, became the bride of Robert Elledge, clerk at Flowers Grocery, in the home of her bride's parents at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. C. Slaughter, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Ozona high school gridsters in their second game of the season, bit the dust before the onslaught of a heavier and much more seasoned Eldorado team to the tune of 24 to 0. The locals showed considerable improvement in form over their initial performance against Winters last week.

Mrs. Lee Wilson took her young son, Woodrow, to San Angelo the first of this week, for the purpose of having his tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox are returning from their trip to Utah and other points. They are now in Clovis, New Mexico, visiting Mrs. Cox's sister, Mrs. Dan Shipley.

Following the kickoff the Braves tried the air route again but Bobby Martinez grabbed the ball and returned 15 yards to the 22. Orville Paulk, playing for the first time since the Coahoma game just took two efforts to cover the distance. Again the extra point try was no good.

Jerry Beasley recovered Lyles fumble and after a penalty Paulk went over from the seven. The extra point try was no good.

As the fourth quarter came on everyone suited out was in the game for the Lions. Jimmy Martinez had taken over at quarterback with Robert Martinez at full and George Bunger and Bobby Sutton at halves.

Iraan still trying for a quick Bobby Sutton taking the ball and one in the air this time found the fleet Ozona freshman scampers 77 yards before being hauled in. Martinez crunched into the end zone and Sutton kicked the extra point.

Lloyd West became the next Lion interceptor, and this time the hard hitting Lion wingman outdid his cohorts by going all the way even though he was in trouble most of the time. The play covered 81 yards.

The final tally was set up by freshman Jerry Jacobs who rushed into the Iraan backfield and recovered a wild lateral 35 yards behind the line of scrimmage on the Brave 22. Robert Martinez covered the distance in two plays and Sutton converted, the massacre was over except for a few more plays.

The Lions in rolling up their biggest total in some years picked up only 6 first downs as compared to 7 for Iraan and gained only 9 yards on passing where the Braves picked up 93. On the ground the Lions had 205 as compared to a minus 32 for Iraan. In addition to Claytons 181 yards rushing Sutton had 44 in 11 tries, Martinez had 43 on 9 attempts, Paulk had 29 on three carries and Babb had 5 on two tries. Bobby Martinez had 3 on two tries. In all the Lions ran only 38 running plays during the contest.

Seventh, although one may feel that he is in fine fettle himself, remember the other fellow may not be. Try to drive for two people, yourself and the other fellow.

Finally, we might think of it as a wager. Speed is like betting a dime against a fortune. For the sake of a few minutes or a few hours, one risks the rest of his life.

Once on a fishing trip to the coast, I took some foolish chances following and passing a slow driver. Around him at last, I sped on to the next town some fifty miles ahead. There I stopped to drink a coke. While drinking, I saw him roll by. I had been foolish enough to risk my neck to gain less than enough time to drink a coke. And for what?

craft attempting to enter the United States from the south or southwest," the General said.

General Nuckols further stated "The potential air invasion routes from the south have become increasingly significant because of the jet stream which sweeps over this area at high altitudes. During certain times of the year, especially the winter months, a jet bomber, taking advantage of the jet stream could leave Siberia, fly an over water route well off the Calif. coast and then across northern Mexico, penetrating in to the heart of the United States in less time than it would take the same bomber to fly an over water route from northern Europe to New York. Enemy bombers flying in the jet stream could reach speeds as great as 1,000 miles per hour."

In addition to bringing increased radar protection to residents of the southwest, General Nuckols pointed out the economic benefits to the communities where the new installations are to be located.

For communities near the eight radar squadron locations, it will be like a new "family" moving in to town, whose monthly income would be at least $30,000 per month. This amount represents the monthly military payroll of the 170-man squadrons. Add to this the $100,000 plus, monthly operating cost of each of the radar squadrons, and it becomes obvious that the new installations are a definite financial asset to the community. While not all of this money will flow into the local economy, a goodly portion will be spent nearby. All of this is in addition to the added comfort of greater protection from enemy air attack. Total value of the eight Air

Defense Direction Centers, including land, buildings and equipment will be approximately $16,250,000 and the total value of the ten auxiliary sites will be approximately $2,250,000. Adding machines at the Sta-
