Top Of Coffee Crop Bought For Texas' Admiration Brand

Good coffee begins hundreds, even thousands, of miles away from the cup in which it is served. It begins, as a matter of fact, where the green coffees are selected, and each successive step contributes to the goodness of the finished product.

Frequently, certain types of green coffees are known by the name of the buyer who always selects them. For instance, a certain very high-grade quality of green coffee is known in the market as the "Duncan" type. It is green coffee of this characteristic quality that is bought for Admiration Coffee by the Duncan Coffee company. In fact, the Duncan Coffee company is noted among grading and testing experts for buying only the top of the crop, the finest green coffees that the market affords.

Mr. Jules E. Cathalogue, a highly respected coffee authority who has earned the reputation of an expert through many years of experience, is associated with one of the world's largest coffee export organizations. Being so associated, he is in a position to know which coffees buy the finest coffees.

"Throughout the past twenty years," says Mr. Cathalogue, "we coffee men have watched with keen interest the rapid growth of the Duncan Coffee Company. The reason for the ever-increasing popularity of their product, Admiration Coffee, is no secret to men of the coffee trade. For we know the Duncan Coffee company has always purchased the finest coffees. They always buy the top of the crop."

These fine, high-grade green coffees are blended under the supervision of Mr. H. M. Duncan, president and general manager of the company, to produce the distinctive rich, winey and full-bodied flavor for which Admiration coffee is famous. This blend, which was accepted wholeheartedly when it was introduced in 1918, has not been changed since its popularity was first established.

Success In Baking Assured By Proper Use of K-C Powder

Mrs. Gertrude Burbank, our cooking school lecturer, demonstrates a combination type baking powder in her baking. There are several distinct types manufactured. Extensive experiments by flour millers and others have proven there is a variation in the leavening efficiency of different types and proper care should be exercised to insure best results. Some even indicate in their recipes the amount to use of each type.

The combination type, representing over 75 per cent of the baking powder consumed, is the most efficient. Because of the difference in efficiency, all brands should be used as directed by the manufacturers.

Manufacturers issuing recipe books, feature carefully tested recipes. They specify, on the label, and in the recipes, the correct amount of their type of baking powder to use to insure successful baking. Using more than they recommend will not produce cakes of the desired texture and volume. Coarse-grained cakes that dry out quickly generally result from the use of too much baking powder.

You will find the following rules helpful in bringing about desired results:

First, always use the amount specified on your baking powder can. Tests have shown this proportion to be best for that particular type. With KC, one level teaspoonful to a cup of sifted flour is sufficient for most recipes.

Second, measure carefully—remember that an excess amount of baking powder does not produce best results. For a level teaspoon-

Crockett Sculptor Cuts Bas-Relief Of James Stephen Hogg

AUSTIN, April 17.—A large bas-relief of former governor James Stephen Hogg has been presented to the University of Texas by his daughter, Miss Ima Hogg of Houston, and is now displayed in the Archives collection here.

Framed in ebony and gold, the bas-relief is the work of William M. McVey of the University's department of art. Widely known as the "sculptor of Texas heroes," McVey did the bas-relief work on the San Jacinto Museum near Houston; the Texas Memorial Museum here, and the statues of James Bowie, Texarkana, and David Crockett at Ozona.

Author Of "Eyes Of Texas" Visits U. T.

AUSTIN, April 17.—John Lang Sinclair, author of the "Eyes of Texas," was back on the University of Texas campus here recently, where he wrote out the first copy of the official University song on wrapping paper 37 years ago.

A resident of New York, Sinclair, class '04, returned here after 25 years for the eleventh annual Round-Up.

A national favorite in college melodies, the "Eyes of Texas" is virtually a state song in Texas but actually is copyrighted by the University Students' Association.

More than a million volumes were circulated among students last year by the University of Texas library, largest in the South and thirteenth in size in the United States.

Household Hints

By Mrs. Gertrude Burbank Conducting the Stockman Cooking School

If paper sticks to package of raisins, place in over for few minutes and the wrapping may be removed easily. It will also cause the raisins to separate and fall apart.

Add a little KC Baking Powder to the flour in which you roll your chicken or other meats before frying. This insures a fine crisp outer covering.

To reheat rolls or biscuits, put them in a wet paper bag, tie up tightly and heat in oven.

To keep a loaf or layer cake fresh after cutting, wrap a large slice of fresh bread in with it before putting away. The bread will dry out, but the cake will remain moist and tasty.

Apple sauce placed on biscuit dough, baked and served with cream, is a hearty dessert and one suitable for children.

A delicious salad can be made by stuffing peeled, chilled tomatoes with crab or shrimp salad.

To prevent vegetables, macaroni or rice from boiling over, add a small piece of butter to the water.

Top of Coffee—

The great coffee came the all-important process of roasting. Administration coffee is roasted the most modern process known to the coffee industry — Thermo-Roasting. Thermo-Roasted coffee never comes in contact with charring flames, being gently and uniformly roasted clear to the center of the bean by indirect heat.

When Administration coffee is roasted, it is not ground with razor-edged steel knives in stone mills, but is cut every type of coffee maker. This cut is intended for percolators and pots and dripsters for companies.

Administration is the only coffee on the Southwestern market which has a cut prepared especially for glass coffee makers. Good Administration is, in fact, recommended by the manufacturers of both Cory and Blue coffee makers.

Vacuum-packed Administration, in either the blue tin or the glass jar, affords a superlatively fine, rich coffee guaranteed to give satisfaction. It is also packed in an economical, Cellophane-sealed paper bag.

Letter Reveals Sam Houston Sought To Smash Slave Racket

AUSTIN, April 11.—Smashing of the Texas slavery racket of a century ago was urged by Sam Houston—twice president and once governor of Texas—in a letter obtained recently by University of Texas historians.

Written to Isaac Van Zandt, charge d'affaires of Texas at Washington, in 1843, the letter asked for appointment of a consul at the Port, Dr. Eugene C. Barker and Amelia Williams said today.

"Houston's main argument for the appointment is that a great deal of smuggling was carried on through the Port, the smugglers bringing goods both into Texas and into the United States," Dr. Barker said. "Among other smuggled commodities he mentions African negroes smuggled into both countries, which violated both the laws of Texas and the United States."

To fill the post, Houston asked for the appointment of Rev. Stewart Newell of New Orleans, who had written a history of Texas bringing it down through 1836.

This letter and a second introducing Van Zandt to Andrew Jackson, were sent to the historians, who are now compiling and editing all the available writings of Houston, by Albert Williams, Jr., of Houston.

Dr. Barker, who said the third volume of the writings will be released soon by the University of Texas Press, asserted that Houston's writings are widely scattered over the nation and are found in collectors' hands throughout the United States. Dr. Barker and Miss Williams are trying to bring together all these items.

STONINGTON, Conn. — Fire Chief Frank J. Shannon impressed his men with the urgency of speed in answering alarms. He found out how well they heeded his instructions when one night he rang in an alarm and then dashed off to fire headquarters to ride to the house on the pumper.

He found the station absolutely deserted and the apparatus on its way to the fire without him. Shannon then had to go home after his own automobile before he could join them.

NOELKE WELL CONTROLLED; PREPARE TEST

Crockett Wildcat Flowed Wild Three Days; 1,039 Feet Deep

OPEN NEW FIELD?

Estimates Initial Flow 600 Bbls. Hourly; Drop to 100 Bbls.

With 7-inch casing set and cemented to around 1,000 feet after the well had been killed with over sixty tons of mud and fibrotex, Soma Oil and Gas Co.'s huge gushing wildcat, which drilled itself in shortly before noon last Friday and ran wild for over three days, shooting oil and gas several hundred feet into the air and spraying the surrounding canyon walls on the W. T. Noelke ranch on the Pecos river in Crockett county, prepared yesterday to drill plugs for a controlled test of production.

Indicating the opening of a new oil pool rivaling the Yates field, 4 miles west across the Pecos river, the well blew in from a depth of 1,039 feet Friday morning, gushing a solid stream of oil through 8-inch casing several hundred feet into the air, spraying the canyon walls around and sending a river of oil to within a mile of the Pecos river, where hastily assembled county grading machinery threw up a dam to hold back the oil.

Experienced oil men estimated the initial flow of the well at from 500 to 600 barrels hourly, with an estimated 50 million cubic feet of gas daily. However, as the well blew itself out estimates were re-

Willis has been informed. Terry was arrested by Kerrville officers while attempting to steal a car in that city.

Billie Barnes, Terry's woman companion while the two were employed on the A. C. Hoover ranch in this county, is charged here with forging and passing a forged check. When Terry was discharged from the Hoover ranch he was given a check for $20 in payment of wages. Here this check was cashed and a second one for the same amount, made to Billie Barnes, to which the name of A. C. Hoover had been forged, was also cashed, the couple disappearing shortly after. The woman has not yet been apprehended.

Trio Of Felons Taken To Pen By Local Officers

Deputy Sheriff Marion McBee and Justice of the Peace W. M. Schnigan served as prison agents last week to transport three felons from Crockett county to the state penitentiary at Huntsville. The three, two men and a woman, were convicted at the last term of district court on charges of burglary and theft. Betty Worrell and Ramon Ramirez each drew seven years in the penitentiary, and Victor Jones two years in connection with burglary of the Andres Tigrina dry goods store in the Mexican settlement.

After delivering the prisoners, the Crockett officers were taken on a tour of the Huntsville prison.

A SPECTACULAR SHOW was put on by this big gusher, which blew in on the W. T. Noelke ranch in western Crockett county shortly before noon last Friday, indicating a new field on the east side of the Pecos river about 4 miles from the huge Yates field. The well was estimated flowing 500 to 600 barrels hourly with 50 million cubic feet of gas. It was brought under control Monday afternoon. (Cut courtesy San Angelo Standard-Times.)

Parent-Teachers Elect Officers For Coming Year

Mrs. Stephen Perner Is Named Head Of Organization

Mrs. Stephen Perner was elected president of the Ozona Parent-Teachers' Association for the 1940-41 year when the association met for a program and annual election of officers Monday.

Other officers of the association were named as follows: first vice president, Mrs. Evart White; second vice president, Mrs. S. M. Harvick; third vice president, Mrs. Bill Hoover; secretary, Mrs. Madden Read; treasurer, Mrs. Taylor Word; parliamentarian, Miss Bess Terry; historian, Mrs. Bryan McDonald.

New officers of the association will be installed at the final meeting of the present year, Monday afternoon, May 6. At that meeting the annual grade school exhibit will be held, starting at 3 o'clock in the grade school building.

The program at the Monday afternoon meeting included a concert of three numbers by the high school band and interesting talks on "Our Youth and the International Situation" by Eugene Holton and Mrs. Evart White.

Trustees Examine Building Plans At Meeting This Week

Tentative floor plans and elevations of the proposed new Mexican school building to be erected here are to be examined by members of the board of trustees at a meeting to be held the latter part of this week.

W. T. Strange, a member of the architect firm of Haynes and Strange of Lubbock, is to meet with the board, the meeting to be set when Mr. Strange is able to be here.

Two elevations, or drawings of the outside appearance of the building, and a floor plan have been prepared by the architects. These will be discussed in detail and a decision probably reached as to the general type of construction to be followed and the material from which the building is to be constructed will also be up for discussion.

Monday Holiday In Ozona School System

Monday will be a holiday in Ozona schools, it was announced this week by Supt. C. S. Denham. The holiday will be in observance of San Jacinto day which falls this year on Sunday. A Texas-day program at the assembly hour today will observe the coming holiday. Miss Zelma Scott is in charge of the program.

Preventing Disastrous Fire . . .

Drillers Douse Campfire Before Fleeing Wild Well

Presence of mind on the part of members of the drilling crew and a great deal of luck probably prevented a major disaster when the Soma Oil and Gas Co. wildcat on the W. T. Noelke ranch in western Crockett county roared in to shoot a solid stream of oil and gas through 8-inch casing several hundred feet into the air shortly before noon last Friday.

Drillers were proceeding cautiously, drilling a few inches and pulling tools to clean. The tools had just been pulled and the crew was preparing to run the bailer when they heard the rumbling from the bottom of the hole. It took them but a second to realize what was about to happen and they threw down everything and "left out."

A campfire was burning near the rig and one member of the crew hesitated long enough to dash a bucket of water on the fire. The crew's bunkhouse nearby was on wheels and the men started away from the rig pulling the trailer. But as the well roared in, spraying oil over them and the surrounding countryside, they dropped the trailer house and put on an unhampered burst of speed up the mountain sides to safety. Continued careful management prevented igniting the oil-soaked countryside and the clouds of gas emitted by the well.

Meet April 25 To Decide 1940 Stock Show Plan

Citizens Urged To Meet With Assn. Members To Plan Fete

Final decision on whether or not Crockett county is to stage its annual rodeo, race meet, stock show and sale will be reached at a mass meeting of citizens with officers, directors and stockholders of the Crockett County Fair Association Thursday afternoon of next week, according to announcement made this week by Wayne West, president of the association.

An appeal for 100 per cent cooperation of the entire citizenship in laying plans for the annual show is made by the association directorate, and everybody interested in perpetuating the Ozona celebration is urgently requested to be present for the meeting next week.

The meeting is to be held at the Hotel Ozona, starting at 2:30 o'clock. All association stockholders, committee members and workers are especially urged to be present and any citizen interested in the show is cordially invited.

The time is short for staging the show, Mr. West pointed out, and the cooperation of the entire community will be necessary for its successful planning. If you are interested in staging the 1940 rodeo and stock show, be present at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, April 25.

Game Dept. Seeks To Trap Javelina On Mitchell Ranch

"Bring 'em back alive" not only applies to Frank Buck but to several men of the state game, fish and oyster department who have been sent to the John Mitchell ranch west of Ozona in hopes of capturing from three to five thousand javelinas.

The javelinas will be distributed throughout Texas in order to have the animals more evenly divided. Game wardens visiting the Mitchell ranch several weeks ago estimated that from three to five thousand javelinas were making their home on the Mitchell land. District Game Warden O. Z. Fenley is in charge of the drive.

$6 IN PRIZES TO WINNERS IN CAKE CONTEST

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening Again Sponsors Contest Among Ozona Cake Baking Experts

Attention, cake bakers of Ozona!

Two cash prizes, totalling $6, are being offered for the best cakes baked and exhibited on the second day of the Stockman's sixth annual free cooking school in the basement of the Methodist Church next Monday and Tuesday afternoons.

Mrs. Taylor Word, president of the Ozona Parent-Teachers' Association, announced this week that that organization will have several cakes entered in the contest and that it will seek to have a number of the contest cakes auctioned off for the benefit of the P.-T. A. funds. Any cake makers who choose may enter their cakes on behalf of the P.-T. A. or any other organization they choose.

The contest is again sponsored by the makers of Mrs. Tucker's shortening, the multi-creamed shortening, and the only requirement is that the cakes be baked with this shortening, with KC baking powder, and with Gold Chain flour.

First prize will be $4 in cash and second prize will be $2 in cash. Additional merchandise prizes will be given. A committee of judges will be selected from among women attending the cooking school and their decision will be final.

In years past, an auction sale of cakes entered in the contest has been held for the benefit of some local organization. However, cakes that are entered in the contest belong to the makers and can be disposed of as they see fit. Should they desire that the cakes be auctioned for the benefit of any organization, such a sale will be arranged.

Cakes should be baked in time to be placed on exhibit at the opening of the second day's cooking school session. Judging will be done during the school and awards made after the day's program.

Ozona Students Make Good College Record

Grade reports for the first semester of 24 former students of Ozona high school now attending institutions of higher learning received by high school officials here indicate the Ozona students are making above average grades.

The 24 students turned in a total of 124 grades of which 13 were A's, 33 B's, 40 C's, 23 D's and 13 F's. In English, the Ozona students had 4 A's, 4 B's, 5 C's, 6 D's, and 2 F's. Math proved the most difficult for Ozona students, five failing in this subject. Two failed in English and two in biology and one each in physics, chemistry, social science, and accounting.

Mrs. Burbank To Demonstrate New Kitchen Methods

Many Prizes, Refreshments Assure Good Time For All

Two days of entertainment and instruction in the newest methods of cooking and home management are promised the women of Ozona and surrounding territory next Monday and Tuesday afternoon's when Mrs. Gertrude Burbank, widely known home economist and cooking expert, directs the Stockman's sixth annual free cooking school in the basement of the Methodist church. Sessions begin each afternoon promptly at 2:30 o'clock and continue about two hours.

There will be the usual array of free prizes to be given each afternoon, there will be free drinks, free ice cream and other refreshments in addition to the entertaining and instructive lectures and demonstrations to be given by Mrs. Burbank.

A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of this area to attend each day's sessions of the cooking school, and if perchance some of the men of the community are interested, they are included in the invitation. The annual spring cooking school is being brought to Ozona for the benefit and entertainment of women of the community by the Stockman in cooperation with various food manufacturers and distributors and local merchants. Firms cooperating with the Stockman in bringing Mrs. Burbank to Ozona this year include the West Texas Utilities Co., K. C. Guy Burton, buying for Forte, Dupee and Sawyer, paid 45 and 55 cents for 25,000 pounds of mohair stored in the Menard Wool and Mohair Co. warehouse. Burton also took 46,000 pounds from the Sanderson Wool Commission Co. at 41 and 55 cents.

A Swimming Pool—When?

Another summer is near and despite an almost unanimous agitation on the part of the people of Ozona a year ago, a swimming pool seems no nearer now than it did when the town was built around the old liveoak tree that formed the first courthouse.

To build and equip a modern swimming pool and provide a source for sufficient water would cost some money—but not any exorbitant sum, in the opinion of many who are familiar with such work. But even so, Ozona needs a swimming pool so much that any reasonable expenditure would be one of the best investments the community could make.

Construction work has just begun on a new swimming pool being built in Sonora. Water from the pool is to be used in developing an attractive park just south of the Ozona highway entering the town. Many other West Texas towns have provided swimming pools, regarding such improvements as essential for a full community life and enjoyment, especially for young people.

Water from a swimming pool in Ozona could be profitably used in irrigating the school grounds and other public parks and grounds. Certainly there would be no waste of water and it is highly probable that fees would take care of ordinary operating costs. But if not, the benefits would be sufficient to warrant a small tax for its support until such time as it would be self-supporting. If it takes a bond issue to get it done, let the people decide whether they want to spend their money that way.

The "Tax Racket"

A recent survey, reported to be among the most accurate ever made, concerned the proportion of income paid in taxes by a typical workingman earning $20 a week.

The survey found that $4 of this modest wage went to the tax collector.

That $4 was not paid directly, of course—it is probable that the average worker doesn't know he is taxed at all. He isn't concerned with income tax blanks and the other myriad and involved tax reports required by government of those in higher income brackets. His $4 was paid indirectly, through the entire week. High taxes make a loaf of bread cost a penny more than it would otherwise, a pair of shoes cost 50 cents more, a ticket to a movie a dime more, the monthly electric bill 60 cents more. So it goes, down the endless list of purchases and payments we all make. The tax collector is always at your elbow—a highly expensive if unseen companion.

And here is the living proof of the fact that the real burden of taxation falls more heavily on the man of small means than the man of large. Four dollars a week taken out of a $20 paycheck means that this typical worker's family must go without needed clothes, medical attention, entertainment etc. It means less money for insurance or savings. It means poorer housing, poorer meals.

We've heard much of that proportion of the population which is "ill fed, ill housed, and ill clothed." What we don't hear often enough is that the burden of debt and taxation is largely responsible for that, and in two ways. First, it takes a percentage of the small wage earner's income which he obviously cannot afford if he is to maintain a decent standard of living. Second, it deprives him of jobs and opportunities and the chance for better pay. An over-taxed business doesn't expand and hire more men. Nor, when it is being drained to the limit by government, can it increase wages.

So the "little man" is getting it in the neck—as a result of those suicidal fiscal policies pursued by a group of politicians who weep copious crocodile tears on behalf of the people. It's time the "little man" woke up to the racket.

Economic Suicide

Competition is the life-blood of trade, and the salvation of the consumer. Especially is this true of retail distribution. Merchants who encourage adoption of laws that tend to fix prices at arbitrary levels which they feel will give them a "fair" profit and protect them against "unfair" competition, are courting economic suicide.

The first result of such a course, if carried far enough, is to arouse resentment of consumers whose ideas of "fair" prices may differ radically from those of the average merchant. The second result, sooner or later, is the establishment of a different system of merchandising under the pressure of consumer demand, a system with greater price flexibility and room for gradual price reduction as the technique and efficiency of distribution improves.

The American distribution system, at present, embodies the essentials of continued survival. Free competition gives the consumer flexible prices as well as the benefits of increased distributive efficiency. However, there are strong minority groups insistently seeking to curb competition by various means. Only recently, a three-judge federal statutory court, in holding a certain price fixing law illegal, expressed the opinion that: "The effect upon competition of differences in prices honestly based on differences in selling costs, is the normal and natural result of fair competition between merchants whose overhead expenses differ. This type of competition is to be encouraged in the public interest, rather than restrained."

Retail merchants, independent and chain, should fight every legislative effort to curb legitimate competition, whether it be in the guise of taxation, fair trade or any other of numerous unsighted shams that, if adopted on a large enough scale, will ultimately end their economic usefulness as retail merchants.

Behind The Scenes
In American Business
By John Craddock

NEW YORK, April 15.—BUSINESS—All eyes and ears, of course, have turned Europe-ward with the extension of the war into Scandinavia and the greatly increased threats of its further extension to the Balkans, and to Holland and Belgium. Probable effects on business are by no means clear, but most likely are: Chief increases in Allied purchases here will be in aircraft, and steel and other semi-finished metal products. The terribly stepped-up rate of destruction of naval vessels and consumption of munitions iron steel. British orders for cotton textiles may rise later in the year, but meantime the barring of American shipping to the northern European countries will further restrict the outlets for our cotton. The latter action means stoppage of at least 4 per cent of our total foreign trade. On the import side, our principal loss is stoppage of Scandinavian wood pulp and paper, particularly newsprint. The domestic pulp industry can make the kind of pulp used in rayon, but may have to make some hasty additions in order to order to supply it in sufficient volume.

WASHINGTON. — House Ways and Means subcommittee, conducting hearings on the proposed federal anti-chain store tax bill, are listening to new assurances daily that Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace spoke the minds of farmers generally when he told them that the chains' integrated mass-marketing facilities are so essential that it would be unwise and unnecessary to give them up. Two apple growers, with orchards on opposite sides of the continent, described the chains as vital outlets for fresh fruits.

Both, speaking for themselves and other leaders in their industry, cited the chain organizations' frequent actions in saving fruit growers from ruin by moving surplus crops.

BITS O' BUSINESS. — Cotton goods must be moving rapidly in early spring sales, for reports from all major southern points last week told of better demand for "spot" cotton, that is, needed for immediate delivery to mills. Wheat prices soared on news of the European war's spread. Charles F. Kettering, vice president and research head of General Motors, told TNEC hearings in Washington that air conditioning and Diesel engine were two industries he felt capable of providing, in the future, the same sort of industrial progress that the automobile and radio have provided in the years since the turn of the century. Chemical industry keeps bouncing along in high, the constant spreading out into new products being hailed as responsible for a fine record of business for the first three months of the year—very close to the record levels of the last quarter of '39. A new American gasoline, named triptan, has been developed—said to give 50 per cent more power than the best military fuels known in the world, according to bench tests.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR—A carpeting material that glows brightly in a darkened room when subjected to special ultra-violet rays. Designed particularly for theaters. New type cotton full-fashioned stockings, developed in cooperation with department of agriculture. Good enough to sell for 99 cents in some styles. A mid-get air-conditioning unit, called odor-absorber, for eliminating unpleasant gases, fumes and smoke. Useful in the kitchen when you're frying onions and fearful some guests might drop in afterward. Nylon, the much-discussed synthetic hosiery fabric, being tried out for a line of men's socks, and also, in combination with latex for women's girdles. Guest towels that are made of disposable tissue, but printed in colors and quaint designs fully as attractive as the cloth versions, and with extra little pockets to hold special lip-stick wiper-offers.

OIL RAN IN RIVERS down a canyon in western Crockett county Friday when the Soma Oil and Gas Co. No. 1 W. T. Noelke blew in to shoot a stream of oil several hundred feet into the air through 8-inch casing. A group of inquisitive oil men are pictured above dipping into what appears to be a good fishing hole to get samples of the oil for testing. This pool 30 feet long, 10 feet wide and 3 feet deep, was a half mile from the gusher. In the picture are, left to right, A. W. Billingsley, San Angelo; Ralph Deem, J. D. Daugherty, Larry Loggins of Iran. (Cut courtesy San Angelo Standard Times.)

PRESENCE OF MIND on the part of these members of the drilling crew on the Soma Oil & Gas Co. Gusher on the W. T. Noelke ranch in western Crockett county probably saved their lives and prevented a major disaster when the well blew in Friday morning. They doused a campfire near the rig before "leaving out" for the nearby hills. Pictured are Allie Thompson, driller, extreme right; Ralph Harris, tool dresser, second from right, and J. L. AROUND THE WATERINGS

By C. MAYE DUNLAP

John Bailey returned from Fredericksburg Wednesday afternoon and reports a rather optimistic outlook in wool prices. He states that a sign hanging on the Fredericksburg Wool and Mohair house reads, "Twelve months wool—30c; eight months wool—27c; and fall wool—23c." Mr. Bailey marked a 98 1/2 per cent lamb crop this year and almost hates to admit the good percentage for fear of depressing the market.

George Bean reports the lamb crop wasn't as large in his section of the county as in others and at the present time another rain was in order.

Spring marking got under way on Mrs. A. W. Clayton's ranch Monday. Z. H. Eppler, foreman on the Clayton ranch, was filling a pick-up with cowboys to help make the round-up.

Several losses from milk colic have been found on the Max Schneemann ranch north of Ozona. It was reported by Max Jr. The Schneemanns will begin marking today.

Hudson Mayes reported a slight loss in lambs when the rain and cold wave came last week. He didn't begin lambing until the first of April.

Roy Miller says he marked an 88 per cent lamb crop this spring. He hasn't had any milk colic on his place, but fed his stuff salt and soda.

Mrs. Mark Garver of Baton Rouge, La., arrived Friday to visit friends and her parents. Judge and Mrs. C. E. Davidson, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Bryan McDonald met Mrs. Garver in San Antonio and drove her to Ozona. She plans to be here about two weeks.

Henry Potthast left Wednesday for a week's visit in San Antonio.

SORORITY INITIATE

Miss Ora Louise Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox of Ozona, last week was initiated into the SMU chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She is a freshman student at SMU. Ora Louise sang a part in a trio as a part of the entertainment program when the freshman class presented its annual play last week.

BEGIN MISSION STUDY

A missionary study, "Homeland and Harvest," was begun by the Woman's Society for Christian Service when the group met Wednesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Evert White is conducting the study, which will be continued at next week's meeting. Present were Mrs. Carl Colwick, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Tom Harris, Mrs. J. A. Fussell, Mrs. Madden Read, Mrs. O. D. Busby, Mrs. Stephen Perner, Mrs. Early Baggett, Mrs. J. R. Bailey, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Mrs. Mary Flowers, Mrs. L. B. Townsend, Mrs. S. M. Harvick, Mrs. Hilary Phillips, Mrs. Taylor Word, Mrs. W. R. Cabaness and Mrs. V. I. Pierce.

Mrs. A. C. Hoover and Miss Elizabeth Fussell left Sunday for Brackenridge to attend a Woman's club convention.

Junior Business Builder Club Is Organized Here

Organization of a Junior Business Builders club was perfected this week at the Ozona Drug store with a group of children under 15 years of age working for a list of valuable prizes.

The Junior Business Builders is a national organization and has been used in cities all over the nation. Boys and girls participating in the club's activities are given certificates for all sales made to adults whose names they secure on their lists, the contest winners to be decided on the basis of the largest number of such certificates.

A selection of prizes has been assembled at the store and those are to be awarded contest winners, the first place winner getting a choice of all the prizes, the second place winner getting second choice and so on until all prizes are exhausted. The club membership goal has been set here at fifty.

Side Saddle Used By Belles of 1900 Presented Museum

A side saddle made shortly after the turn of the century and ridden by Crockett county belles of the early 1900's has been placed on display in the Ozona high school museum for the benefit of many of the present slacks-and-shorts generation who never even saw one of the rigs that were so essential in the ankle length, multi-skirt era when a protruding cotton-stockinged feminine ankle was a neighborhood scandal.

The side saddle was loaned to the museum by Mrs. Chris Meinecke. It was made in about 1902 by Arthur Williams, who operated one of the first saddle shops in Ozona. It was made originally for Miss Maude Parker, a daughter of Dave Parker, early-day Crockett sheriff. Mrs. Meinecke bought it two years later for her own use.

"I was about the only one who ever rode it," Ms. Meinecke says, "because the girls were all beginning to ride astride about that time."

NOELKE WELL—

vised down to upwards of 100 barrels hourly, with gas volume remaining the same. Eight-inch casing had been set to 847 feet, leaving 192 feet of open hole in the wild gusher.

Halliburton and Otis company of Hobbs, N. M., brought the well under control about 4:30 Monday afternoon after pumping more than eight tons of mud and fibrotex into the hole. The flow was diverted aside through several joints of eight-inch casing after a T connection was made Sunday, allowing crew to work around the roaring hole. After the mud had halted the flow, 7-inch casing was run and cemented, an additional 52 tons of mud and fibrotex being pumped in for safety. When the cement has set, probably today or tomorrow, plugs will be drilled and the well put in condition for testing. Gravity of the oil was reported 29.7.

The wild well attracted hundreds of spectators from Iraan, Ozona and from other towns in the area. Danger from fire, with the millions of cubic feet of gas boiling out of the well and the surrounding countryside for hundreds of yards in all directions oil soaked, led officials of the company to keep spectators a mile or more away from the well.

Feverish activity among oil men of the area followed the important strike, and leaseholders and landowners in the vicinity of the producer were the object of attention of scouts and land division representatives of oil companies and individual operators. Two sales of leases on the section on which the well is located were reported here yesterday. Boyd Cox, Porter Johnson and Clay Taylor, all of Rankin, are reported to have sold lease on 80 acres for $120,000, of which $40,000 was in cash and $80,000 in oil, and Dave Elder of Rankin reportedly sold a part of his holdings around the well, a 40-acre tract, for $90,000, with $30,000 in cash and $60,000 in oil.

Soma Oil and Gas Co. has only 200 acres around the well, turned by Dave Elder in return for the drilling. The Noelke ranch of 16,000 acres, which recently was incorporated as the Noelke Live-stock Co. still has considerable unleased acreage. Moore Brothers of Midland recently started a test on section 10 of the same block, about five miles south of the producer.

The big well is located 2,500 feet from the north, 2,310 from the west line of section 30, block GG, HE&WT. Ry. Co. survey, about a half mile southeast of a 2,006-foot dry hole in the same section drilled by A. R. Eppenaue, between Soma No. 1 Noelke well and the Yates field are a number of failures on both sides of the river. James Gouras of Chicago, Soma president, has been making headquarters in Rankin while drilling was in progress. Pete Karnegis, vice president, and two associates, Dr. J. M. Amberson, a surgeon, and George Brahos, cafeteria owner in Chicago, came by plane to see the producer. The company recently drilled a dry hole on the O. W. Parker ranch.

Henry Schooler of Big Lake was the drilling contractor on the well, with Harry Yoakum in charge of drilling and Allie Thompson, driller and Ralph Harris, tool dresser.

Mrs. Burbank is being brought to Ozona for a series of lectures and demonstrations on the art of homemaking and the preparation of dishes out of the ordinary, and housewives will have a treat in store for them by attending the cooking school.

Her solutions are practical and based on economy and utility. The saving that the housewife will be able to accomplish by attending the school with its scientific and modern ideas, will more than repay her for the time spent there. How to use leftovers and how to purchase in a scientific manner will be shown by the lecturer.

New suggestions, new recipes, new dishes and many new ideas on the kitchen will be presented. Here the young housewife will be taught many valuable things and the experienced housewife will also find a veritable storehouse of knowledge for her use. No longer need she complain of cooking "the same old thing."

Missionary To Brazil Speaks To Ozona Group

An interesting description of life in the Amazon Valley region of Brazil, South America, was given members of the congregation of the Ozona Baptist church Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Clem D. Hardy, Baptist missionary to that region, who is preparing to return to the field soon after spending a year's furlough in the United States.

Rev. Hardy is making a tour of churches in this area, accompanied by the Rev. J. A. Kidd of Alpine, district missionary. The missionary to the Amazon river region described his work among the natives along the river, and showed a group of stereopticon slides of native scenes, and also exhibited a number of curios from the land.

Ozonans were particularly interested in Rev. Hardy's talk because the local church maintained the late Rev. E. A. Nelson as missionary to the Amazon valley region for nearly ten years. Rev. Hardy succeeded Rev. Nelson, who died about a year ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Hardy and their two daughters will sail on May 4 to return to their South American post.

THE LION'S ROAR

Published Weekly by the Student Body of Ozona High School

OZONA, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1940

NUMBER 30

Job Members Chose Editor For New Term of '40

George B. Armentrout Elected Staff Head Of Lion's Roar

Succeeding Miles Pierce, George B. Armentrout was elected editor-in-chief for the Lion's Roar in 1941. This selection was based on several points which are important. His skill and originality in writing, his ability to find news, his being a good English student, and his dependability were the factors that influenced the selection of George B. as editor. He has been in the Press club for the past year.

Some of the responsibilities of the editor are to check the paper, to see that the news gets in, to write the editorial, to have charge of the Press club meetings, and to keep the organization running smoothly.

The former editor-in-chief, Miles Pierce, assisted by his capable staff, has made a number of visible changes for the better in the Lion's Roar, but there is still room for improvement, which it is hoped, will be made by George B. Armentrout and his new staff.

To assist the editor, Adele Keeton, a very efficient 1941 junior, was elected assistant editor.

A responsibility which is very difficult and requires a person who is very dependable is to be filled by Mary Faye Lucas, new make-up editor, who will be a junior next year.

An interesting position which requires a wide awake person is the sports editor. This position was given to Ed Leatherwood, 1940 football manager.

It always takes a person to type the paper who is an efficient typist and who will give his time willingly; hence, Helen Mayes, a senior next year, was elected to this position.

"A quiet person hears more, consequently, knows more." This statement may be applied to our new gossip editor, a sophomore of 1941, Ethel Mayes.

Also, another very important assignment is that of secretary and treasurer. For this position Charles McDonald, another sophomore of 1941, was chosen. It will be Charles' responsibility to write the minutes for each Press club meeting and to report them to the paper.

General reporters are Sybil Luther, Dorothy Capps, Bland Tandy, Mary Perner, Lottie Owens and Florence Luther.

This is a very industrious group and they should put out a paper better even than the present one. More success to them is the wish of the seniors of 1940, who place with confidence their responsibilities into new hands.

New Leaders for Pep Squad Elected Thurs.

A pep squad meeting for the purpose of electing the pep leaders was called in the auditorium, Thursday, April 11, directly following the band reception.

Mary Faye Lucas was elected leader and Gem Ella Dudley was elected assistant leader. The girls have been friends since their grade school days. Faye and Gem Ella were the pep squad leaders when they were in the seventh grade. Upon entering high school, the girls were elected twirlers for the band. Gem Ella plays the baritone in the band, and Faye formerly played the bass drum.

Speeches from the former leaders, Jean Drake and Johnny Boyd, and speeches from the new leaders, Mary Faye and Gem Ella, concluded the meeting.

Grade School News

Junior High Glee Club Picnic
The Glee club had their last meeting Wednesday. Mrs. Tandy gave a talk, and the group selected Benny Gail Phillips as delegate to Waco. When someone brought up that every other year we have a picnic, we decided to have one today. President Alyene Hokit assigned what to take. I am sure that every one will enjoy the picnic.—Myrtastine Hokit.

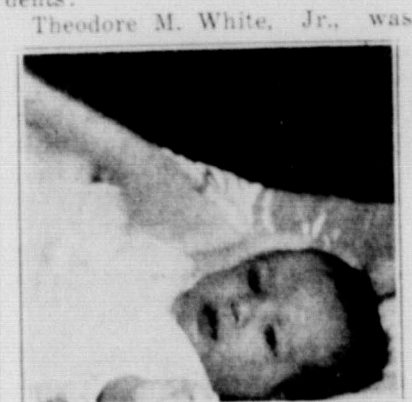

The highest ranking pupils in seventh grade were as follows:

Here He Is, Folks, The Faculty Baby, Ted White, Junior

A number of people have requested that a picture of Theodore Mark White, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted M. White, be printed in the Lion's Roar, since he is the only child of a faculty member. At right, the proud father and below a picture of the son in his crib.

Following are some answers to questions concerning Theodore, Jr., that have been frequently asked by students:

Theodore M. White, Jr. was born December, 1939. Height when born, 19 inches. Height at 14 weeks, 25 inches. Color of hair when born, light brown. Color of hair at 14 weeks, light brown with reddish tinge. Color of eyes, blue. Weight when born, 6 pounds and 30 ounces. Weight April 9, 12 pounds, 11 ounces. Can barely crawl. Ambition for present, to eat and sleep. Ambitions for future, quarterback on the OHS football team. Girl friends, Mrs. Ted M. White is the only one—so far.

4-Casting

At the district meet held last Friday in Fort Stockton, the bacon of second and third place was brought home. In the typing contest, in which 14 contestants participated, Tincy Kirby and Floyd Hokit won second and fifth places, respectively. Next week they will attend the regional meet at Marfa.

The Senior Press club members met last week to elect the new staff to fill vacant positions! 4-Casting: There will be some disappointment; but, remember, dears, there is such a thing as too much vitamin "T".

4-Casting: A senior girl is going to catch the measles, if she doesn't be careful.

Many senior functions will begin soon. Some boys can't stand to be put with some girls. Well, if you boys would ask some girls to go places with you, there wouldn't be any date fixing!

4-Casting: May 2, it has been learned, is the date of the publication of the Senior Lion's Roar. This edition will be published only by the senior members of the Press club.

FLASH! It's the truth that hurts! For three years I've wanted to say this and now, because this is my last edition, I shall tell the "terrible truth." Ozona will never have an outstanding football team, basketball team, band, scout troop, or any such club, because the students are too spoiled and will not work hard enough at any task!

First Wall Street Broker: "Let's flip a coin to see who stays in the office today."

Second Wall Street Broker: "All right. Send the office boy out and see if he can borrow a coin somewhere."

Judith Williams, first; Jim Ad Harvick, second; Billy Laxson, third, and Mary E. Gray, fourth. We went to the band Tuesday morning and stayed about an hour and a half. Miss Scott gave us our parts on the seventh grade commencement program, and we also picked our ushers. They are Chapo Morrison, Jayce West, Jimmy Reed, Arthur Phillips, Barbara White and Chareene Williams.

Ozona Band Presents Assembly Program

The band presented the assembly program of five numbers on April 11. "La Golendrina," "His Honor," "Cossack Invocation and Dance," "Some of These Days," and "School Song" were numbers presented.

It seems as if "Some of These Days" were the "Cream of the Crop," because all our "Jitterbugs" were "goin' to town." It certainly pays to be in the band. While the band members were enjoying ice cream and cake, the other members of the student body sat around wishing they had a "bite or two." And to make it much worse, the band members would go around saying: "Don't you wish you were in the band," or "Gee! this is really good, and I would give you a bit, but, well—you know the rules."

But getting back to the band—the members played their program very well considering the fact that they had no time to prepare a concert because of the contest the week before.

SENIOR MERITS OF 1940

You know there are two kinds of students. One kind is the student who just sits and drifts; the other is the ambitious student.

The student that sits and drifts with the current of life is going to end up digging a ditch somewhere.

"The seniors of OHS have never been a better, neater group of boys and girls than the students of the senior class of '40 as a whole," states Mr. Guinn Caruthers.

The above statement is the exact description of the seniors of '40. The class as a whole is ambitious; they are ready, I believe, to enter some college or university. Of course, I'm no judge or anything like that, but my statements are "backed-up" by all of the high school teachers, including, of course, Miss Terry. Therefore, I believe I can say that they are ready for future schooling at colleges or universities.

There are many talented students in the senior class this year. A few of them are:

"Dot" Hannah, baton twirling and drum-majoring; Howard, Jim, Harold, W. C., Joe C., and J. K., talented in athletics of all kinds; Miles Pierce, talented in business affairs (he runs the Lion's Roar); Billie Jo, an accomplished typist; Roy H., talented in cornet playing; Tincy Kirby, talented in nearly everything, including tennis; Ella C., talented in speech; Johnny, in athletics; Gladys, talented in acting on the stage; "Dub", talented as a baritone player; Naomi, talented in music, and Oleta, talented in music.

I believe there are a few others, but I can't think of them at this moment.

Let's wish the seniors a very happy future, anyway!

Scotchman's Wife (two weeks after wedding): "What shall we have for dinner tonight, dear?" Scotchman: "What! Are we out of rice, already?"

Tincy Kirby and Floyd Hokit Place In Typing at Dist.

At the annual district meet in Fort Stockton, April 12 and 13, Tincy Kirby and Floyd Hokit placed second and fifth respectively in typing. This rating entitles both of them to go to Marfa for the regional meet on April 19.

Tincy Kirby wrote 2,900 strokes, making three errors; her final score was 131.

Floyd Hokit wrote 3,100 strokes, making 12 errors. He had a final score of 112.

A Monahans girl won the first place at the typing meet.

Ozona also had two singles players in Fort Stockton, Billy Jo West and Vernon Wilson. Billy Jo was defeated by a Monahans girl with a score of 6-0, 6-0. Vernon Wilson was defeated by a Sander-son boy with a score of 5-7, 4-6.

The one-act play was well liked by the audience, but other plays were better.

Tom Ed Montgomery and Mary Elizabeth Gray represented Ozona in declamations, but neither placed high enough to go to Marfa.

THE Prowler

By Howard Lemmons

Helen, can you tell me how the oil well looks, or did you pay much attention to the well? After a hint from the senior sponsor about missing school Jean missed all of Friday afternoon just to go to a ranch.

Miles and Billy Jo certainly did have Miss North scared Friday night. Miss North didn't notice Miles filling the car with gas at a gas station. She drove out of Fort Stockton thinking they were buggy. She was really pushing that baggy of hers, until Miles drove up behind her.

Boothie, from what is rumored around, you must be a pretty good woo-pitcher. Several girls say that some of these boys need a few lessons. Why don't you give them instructions?

Gem Ella, did you enjoy the shows over the weekend? That was the first show you and J. K. missed being together in for quite a while, wasn't it?

A green convertible and Bess. What a pair! You never see one unless you see the other, except in school; Bess, it would be pretty hard to bring it to school, don't you think?

Noma V. and Johnnie were seen in Sonora Sunday night. Girls, are you extending your territory, too? Shorty, I see you have some followers.

"Rastus, don't you know that it is bad form to sop up your gravy with your bread?"

"Liza, it might be bad form, but it sho' am good taste."

Cromwell Rebuked for Canadian Speech

An official rebuke to James H. R. Cromwell, right, United States minister to Canada, was administered by Secretary of State Cordell Hull recently when Cromwell, in a Canadian speech, lauded the war aims of the allies. Hull informed Cromwell that he had "contravened instructions" in his talk. Pictured with Cromwell are his wife, the former Doris Duke, and H. G. Hengstler, United States consul-general. Cromwell's speech was made before the Empire and Canadian clubs.

The Senses

By Kirby-West

HEARD—

Jean's telling one girl one thing and that girl's friend another. She can't keep her stories straight. Frances Bean's accusing certain people of blackmail. One or two knows, does one?

New words: "Spreck" and "snark." Thanks, Mr. Denham and Miles.

Good playing in assembly. The band is OK—even if it didn't place first division at the contest. Johnny's calling chippendale furniture "chickendale."

Pitter-patter pitter-patter. Not raindrops. It was three mischievous children running in the hotel.

SEEN—

Mysterious things. Birch really learned in the "magical" business. We still wonder how he got out of the box.

Johnny's catching Shorty when he started to fall. Her deed for the day!

Oil on the road. Well, an Ozona car didn't lose it, as Miles stopped Miss North while she was on her way to Fort Stockton to tell her.

The "Ozona Horror" strewn down the road—flying in the air while trying to catch Miss North.

Johnny's riding in Noma's car Sunday afternoon.

Bland and Leslie swiping tennis balls Saturday.

TASTED—

Raw okra. Gladys felt sick when she wanted something "filling." Delicious lemonade and coffee and raw sandwich meat.

Did you enjoy that good "bean soup" in Fort Stockton Miles?

Enchiladas. Surprise guests for supper are always welcome at homes where enchiladas are served—so two seniors demonstrated.

Good food. The Press club served a very good supper at Charles McDonald's home last week.

FELT—

Gem Ella and Faye were very happy when they were elected pep squad leaders. Good luck to you.

Billy Hannah felt rather queasy when he was told to play ping-pong with sandwich meat.

Very weak. Billy and Donald couldn't chin just once at the party in Fort Stockton.

Measly. Roy would have to wait until he was a senior to catch the measles.

Worried. Vernon, Billy and Floyd were wondering what they would do if the raft were to break loose from the tree to which it was tied.

Strange. Mr. Denham didn't know whether to eat his soup or not after the dignified (?) representatives of Ozona finished talking about it.

Cold. The day was just SLIGHTLY cool in Fort Stockton.

Sleepy. Eighteen hours without sleep would make anyone sleep.

Disgusted. Term themes are a reality no fun to write.

SMEILED—

A rat, Johnny and Noma heard from out-of-town boy friends last night.

Oil. Baker's Field isn't any petroleum shop.

Annual Banquet Is Discussion at Press Club Meet

The Press club met at the home of Charles McDonald on April 11. Before the regular business meeting, a supper was served to the members of the organization by Mrs. Bryan McDonald and Mr. Arthur Kyle.

The roll was called by the president, since the secretary was unable to be at the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were related by the acting secretary.

Under old business, the members discussed the Press club banquet. It was decided that the banquet would be held in the basement of the Methodist church with the dinner being served by Mr. Hancock. Each senior member will be asked to pay for an extra plate for one of the new members. His compensation is the same as memory of a free plate last year.

The discussion about the banquet edition, to be published May 1, was brought before the house.

"In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."—Tennyson.

When spring comes, what man's heart doesn't turn to the great outdoors, where the trees are budding, the grass is growing green, the birds are singing, there is an odor of sweet flowers, the air is clear, and the radiant sun is shining down on "a heaven upon earth." And when those conditions exist, there is a lure for sports and exercise. Nowhere can sports be enjoyed more than in tennis.

A few years ago, the school, realizing a need for a more general sport, set aside a sum of money to be used in the building of two tennis courts. These courts were topped with caliche. Last week the cementing of those courts were completed and the lines have been painted. So that more people might play at the same time, two other courts will be constructed.

The tennis courts are a real asset to the community. Not only do they provide a person with means of developing physically and mentally, but they also provide a wholesome pastime for those who have nothing to do. An asset, in this case, is something of value to the public. The tennis courts are assets because:

1. They provide a place for recreation, fun, and clean sport.

2. Tennis is a game that, because it is not too strenuous and rough, can be played by all.

3. The courts are a meeting place of school students who, if not occupied, would be riding up one street and down another after school hours.

4. They provide a place for the town people to gather.

5. And, they provide a place and means of developing sportsmanship, understanding the "other fellow," and creating new friends.

*BAND

*DISTRICT MEET

As evidenced by the rating the Ozona high school band received two weeks ago at the contest in Odessa, the band is sadly in need of members who will take it upon themselves to do some individual practice at home. This not only applies to the few weeks immediately preceding the contest but all through the year. The old saying "Practice makes perfect" is very true if a school is going to have a first division band. A few weeks prior to the contest, some of the band members realized that they need additional practice, and some actually practiced, but their improvements were hidden by the rest of the band. I hope that the band members who will continue to be in the band next year, as a lesson received by the contest this year, will encourage the newer members and themselves to try to improve our band. Our band is handicapped by the limited number of students to choose from, but it is possible and probable for Ozona to have a first division band in the near future.

Congratulations are in order for Tincy Kirby, Floyd Hokit, and the other Ozona students who participated in the district meet last Friday. Tincy and Floyd, who typed in the typing contest, placed second and fifth respectively. As the first five winners in the typing contest at the District meet go to the Regional meet, they will represent Ozona in Marfa, Saturday, April 20. The first three winners in the Regional Meet go to the state meet, so here's wishing them good luck.

"A friend," said Uncle Eben, "is a man date laughs at yoh funny stories, even if dey ain't so good, an' sympathizes wif yoh misfortunes, even if dey ain't so bad."

Electric Cookery Gives More Freedom Says Kitchen Expert

The advent of the electric range makes it as old fashioned for the home maker of today to stand over a piping hot stove morning to night as it would be for her to broom-sweep her rugs instead of using a vacuum cleaner, says Mrs. Gertrude Burbank, who will conduct the cooking school opening here Monday, April 22 and continuing through Tuesday.

"Hours of extra freedom can be had nowadays, making days longer with time saved for better things than cooking drudgery," she declared.

The electric range, now used in one out of every seven homes served by the West Texas Utilities company, will be the only type of range used by her during the cooking school. Special low rates for electric cookery users, installed in recent years, make electric service more practical than ever before, this in addition to unexcelled safety, coolness, and cleanliness.

"Cooking is a fine art," Mrs. Burbank said, "and it is through the electric range that it can be done efficiently without the wearying details that have often made it impossible for a good cook to have the energy and enthusiasm left with which to enjoy a meal of her own preparation."

Henry Ellege, who has been in a San Angelo hospital receiving treatment for complications resulting from an old back injury, was returned to his home here Sunday. He is reported showing improvement.

Hines Denounces Texas Sales Tax

SAN ANTONIO, April 15.—Harry Hines, state highway commissioner and candidate for governor, in a speech broadcast from here Monday night over a state-wide hookup, strongly denounced a transaction or sales tax for Texas and pledged himself to work cooperatively with the next legislature, if elected, for a fair tax and revenue raising plan "that is not a tax on the working people and the poor."

Discussing the old age pension question and state assistance for the needy blind, dependent children and matching money for the Teacher Retirement Fund, Mr. Hines scored "the present state of confusion" and said "the present state leadership has brought about the confusion existing and its failure sticks up like a sore thumb."

As governor, he said he would, at the outset of the next legislative session the first of the year, sit down and work with the legislature to "actually find out just how much additional revenue really is needed and then get something done as quickly as possible in that next session to pay these just state debts, voted by the people."

A full evening of dramatic and vaudeville entertainment is promised patrons. An outstanding feature of the company will be Henry, world famous artist and magician, who traveled with Harley Sadler's shows as a featured vaudeville attraction. The company boasts a high class orchestra under the direction of Robert Siler.

Was His Face Red?

In a small church a child was brought to be baptized. The young minister, taking the child in his arms said: "Beloved hearers, no one can foretell the future of this little child. He may grow up to be a great business man, or a great labor leader, or he might become the prime minister of England." Turning to the mother he inquired "What is the name of the child?"

"Mary Ann," was the reply.

Lion Cub Chokes To Death On West Texas Jackrabbitt Carcass

An item in last week's issue of the McCamey News tells of the victory of a West Texas jackrabbitt over a Nubian lion cub weighing about 200 pounds.

The lion cub was the property of the Honest Bill circus which showed here last week. The lion choked to death on the rabbit carcass which was given it at feeding time, the McCamey newspaper reported.
 "It was a fine specimen," the news item continued, "having been given to Mr. Newton, owner of the circus, by Frank Buck, noted animal trapper, and had been ed on a bottle. The dead lion was given to P. L. Brown of city, who has it skinned and sent the hide off to have it ned."
