South Texas Tops League For Half Honors

Franklin Motors Close Behind In Finish of Season

The league entry sponsored by the South Texas Lumber Co., a team sponsored by Franklin Motors by one game to win first half title in the 1956 Little League schedule. The season ended with games last Thursday night. The team had last record and standing at the end of the first half of the split season play following.

Team	W	L	Pct.
South Texas	7	2	.773
Franklin Motors	6	3	.667
Kyle Kleaners	3	6	.334
Ozono Oil Co.	2	7	.223

The league play to determine the second half winners, and the contender for the South Texas team in playoff for the league championship, got under way Monday night. A prognosis of things to come in the way of continued and nail contention for the spot is given in the Monday night results when the second half title holders and Kyle Kleaners started off on even terms. The first half winners leaned heavily on the good right arm of Les Dimery, ace pitcher for the team. Up there with Dimery in the top were Van Miller and Ed Montgomery, leading hurlers in the second place Franklin Motors. Indicative of the improvement in team play as the season progresses, the Kyle Kleaners team finished in third place, behind the last three out of four teams. The Ozono Oilers are play-short handed, having lost two players when their parents recruited from the roster of original signers. Their roster will limit the signing of one boy 11 or old and one 12, but if any promising talent in the younger age brackets shows up, manager Dick Webster will pick on ability. Byron Stuart is manager of the South Texas Lumber Co. team, Buster Miller and Elmore of the Franklin Motors, Beecher Montgomery directs Kyle Kleaners and Dick Webster the Ozono Oilers.

Below is the balance of the second half schedule, which opened Monday night with South Texas Lumber Co. and Kyle Kleaners riding the top with opening round as:

- June 21 — Ozono Oil Co. vs. South Texas Lumber Co.; Kyle Kleaners vs. Franklin Motors.
- June 25 — Franklin Motors vs. Ozono Oil Co.; South Texas Lumber Co. vs. Kyle Kleaners.
- June 28 — Ozono Oil Co. vs. Kyle Kleaners; South Texas Lumber Co. vs. Franklin Motors.
- July 2 — Kyle Kleaners vs. Franklin Motors; Ozono Oil Co. vs. South Texas Lumber Co.
- July 5 — South Texas Lumber Co. vs. Kyle Kleaners; Franklin Motors vs. Ozono Oil Co.
- July 9 — South Texas Lumber Co. vs. Franklin Motors; Ozono Oil Co. vs. Kyle Kleaners.
- July 12 — Ozono Oil Co. vs. South Texas Lumber Co.; Kyle Kleaners vs. Franklin Motors.
- July 16 — Franklin Motors vs. Ozono Oil Co.; South Texas Lumber Co. vs. Kyle Kleaners.

AWOL Sailor, Ex-Con Companion Arrested Here For Military

An AWOL sailor and a companion, the latter an ex-convict were arrested here early this week by Sheriff V. O. Earnest. The sailor was turned over to military authorities at Goodfellow AFB, San Angelo, and the other man was ordered to leave town after a check of his record.

The sailor, Robert Vernon Harris of Ottawa, Illinois, was driving his father's car. Sheriff Earnest contacted the father and was advised that the boy had taken the car without his permission and suggested that the sheriff turn the lad over to military authorities. Harris was to have reported to a naval station on the east coast.

Ozono Judging Teams Compete In Sonora Wool Show

Livestock, Wool, Mohair, Range, Grass Teams In Contests

Fresh from a record of four state championships in judging, Crockett county 4-H Club judging teams are competing today in the annual Sonora Wool & Mohair Show contests at Sonora Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The Ozono team members will judge livestock, the contests in this division consisting of six classes of sheep and two classes of goats; they will classify 20 fleeces each of wool and mohair, and place two classes each of wool and mohair; they will be called on to identify 50 native grasses, forbs and shrubs, and place and check their reasons for such placing on four selected range plots.

The Crockett teams this year will be defending champions, a team from here composed of Carl Conklin, Erby Chandler and Johnny Jones, having won the Sonora contest last year. This trio will be ineligible to compete this year by reason of having previously won the contest.

Senior team members who will compete in the Sonora contests this year include Jacquelyn Williams, George Bunker, Pierce Miller and Bob Childress. Junior team members are Frank Childress, Bill Jacoby, Jay Miller and Herbie Noelke. The group was accompanied by County Agent Pete Jacoby, coach and sponsor of 4-H Club judging teams and 4-H activities in the county, who led his teams to a phenomenal record of success this year.

Last week at A&M College, the Grass and Range judging teams won the state title. Roy Mann and Carl Conklin tied for second high individual honors with identical scores, Mr. Jacoby revealed. The tie was broken by judging neatness of the boys' papers. Roy Mann was awarded second place and Carl Conklin third. Conklin was working under a handicap because of an infected thumb which hindered his writing. Johnny Jones was the other team member. The team had no alternate member, which really put the pressure on the trio, the county agent explained. But the three members came through and didn't miss an alternate member.

This was the team's third try at winning the state championship and hard work and determination finally paid off. Jacoby declared the team had placed 9th, 5th and 2nd in previous state contests.

Four state championship teams in one year is probably a state record for any county to achieve. Nine teams have competed in 4-H contests so far this year, winning eight firsts and a tie for second in the nine contests — a pretty fair country record.

The Sonora Wool Show contests will complete the judging tour for this year and members hope to make a good showing there, to complete an outstanding year in judging competition.

Committee Named To Negotiate On Telephone Rates

Citizen Group, Commissioners Court Ready To Meet Company

In accordance with an agreement reached at the recent conference of a group of Ozono citizens and the County Commissioners Court with officials of the General Telephone Co. relatives to plans of that company to make certain changes in its service to this community, County Judge Houston Smith this week announced appointment of a nine-man committee of citizens to meet with the Court and General officials in a second conference in the near future.

In the first meeting, attended by nearly 100 citizens, the Commissioners Court invited officials of the telephone company to meet with the group and explain its plans for the local exchange, now in process of expansion and with a dial system about a year away. John E. Robbins of the San Angelo office of General Telephone, met with the group and presented figures on the company's alleged earnings on the local exchange, outlined its plans for converting the local exchange to an unattended dial system, which he explained as a completely automatic system with no operator in attendance, the most economical plan of operation for the company, and a projected raise in rates when such money-saving system is put into operation.

Ranchmen attending the meeting were told that their present rural lines will have to be rebuilt to have telephone service with the new unattended dial system. This cost was estimated at $200 to $300 a mile if done by the ranchmen with their own labor or $700 to $800 a mile if done by the telephone company. Several questions in connection with just how far the company will build its own lines, etc. remained unanswered in the conference and these and other matters will be threatened out in the coming meeting with the committee and Commissioners Court.

Judge Smith named to the committee to meet with the telephone company officials and the court at a later date, (three weeks from the first meeting was suggested as a probable date) the following: Lowell Littleton, John W. Childress, Boyd Clayton, Ira Carson, Bill Seahorn, Jack Williams, Charlie Black, Joe Tom Davidson and Jack Wilkins.

This committee, with the Commissioners Court, will make some study on the subject and in the coming conference with company officials seek to induce the company to provide the best service possible without further raises in rates.

A tire blow-out on the trailer caused the driver to lose control of the car and it overturned in a bar ditch. Mr. McGilvary suffered minor injuries. He and the baby received emergency treatment in the Crockett County hospital. Mr. McGilvary was released and the baby transferred to a Colorado City hospital. Mrs. Motley was unhurt.

Truck Driver Is Arrested Here On Kidnap-Rape Count

Father Of 4 Charged With Abducting 14- Year-Old Girl

A 33-year-old 190-pound truck driver, father of four children, was arrested in Ozono Sunday morning by Sheriff V. O. Earnest and his deputies and turned over to Sheriff Douglas Kuebel of Boerne to face charges of kidnaping and raping a 14-year-old Dallas girl.

The sheriff's department was alerted here early Sunday morning to be on the look-out for a gray refrigerator truck, meagerly described by the girl after she was ejected from the truck at Comfort, Kendall county. The girl told Sheriff Kuebel she was forced into the truck by the driver at Luling, Texas, and that the man had raped her three times in the course of the night of terror in the truck.

The girl had described her attacker as about six feet tall, weighing about 190 and dressed in gray trousers and gray shirt. The only identifying mark on the truck which she could recall were the words "You All" painted on the back of the vehicle. The wanted man and vehicle reached Ozono about 11 o'clock Sunday morning after successfully evading officers who were presumably on watch in Junction and Sonora. The girl told officers the man made her lie down on the seat as the truck passed through each town.

The big truck driver fainted a few minutes after being taken to the sheriff's office here for questioning, after being told the girl's age. He was quickly revived and was turned over to the Kendall county sheriff late Sunday afternoon.

Sheriff Kuebel told Sheriff Earnest that the Dallas girl had been visiting an aunt and uncle in Luling. She told Sheriff and Mrs. Kuebel that she was forced into the truck shortly before midnight in Luling and was ejected at Comfort at about 5 a. m. There she boarded a bus headed east but not before bus station official had notified the sheriff at Boerne. Sheriff Kuebel took the girl off the bus at Boerne for investigation and when he learned her story, sent out a pick-up order via the radio, resulting in the truck driver's arrest here.

When the girl first disappeared, the aunt presumed that she was with her uncle, resulting in a delay of several hours in notifying authorities. The girl's mother was on her way from Dallas when Sheriff Kuebel was here. The sheriff said he understood her father was dead. The girl was resting at the sheriff's home at the time, he said. She apparently was not seriously hurt but was "very distraught and tired."

The Ozono Department voted to sponsor the local organization of a woman's auxiliary. Other departments in the Hill Country Firemen's Assn. all have organized auxiliaries, but the Ozono department has never been organized.

TOWARD A NEW DESPOTISM

"Liberal" is a grand old word. But its true meaning and its significance have been tragically distorted in recent times.

Henry Hazlitt describes what has happened in the introduction to his new book, "The Free Man's Library." He writes: "One of the crowning ironies of the present era... is that it is precisely, especially in America, the people who flatteringly refer to themselves as 'liberals' who have forgotten or repudiated the essence of the true liberal tradition... Historically, the liberals fought against government tyranny; against governmental abridgment of freedom of speech and action; against governmental restrictions on agriculture, manufacture, and trade; against constant detailed governmental regulation, interference and harassment at a hundred points; against (to use the phrases of the Declaration of Independence) 'a multitude of new offices' and 'swarms of officers'; against concentration of governmental power, particularly in the person of one man; against government by whim and favoritism.

"Historic liberalism called, on the other hand, for the Rule of Law, and for equality before the law."

Today's self-styled liberals are enthusiastically in favor of just about everything the historic liberals opposed. Their goal is to concentrate more and more power — over business, agriculture, labor, everyone — in the hands of the government. They are, for the most part, contemptuous of state's rights, and believe in a solidly concentrated central government, in which all major decisions are made in Washington. The result is what Mr. Hazlitt accurately terms "a trend toward a new despotism."

Real liberalism stands for maximum freedom for all. It is pre-

MILLIONS OF CAPITALISTS

The New York Stock Exchange has just issued a "Fact Book" designed to present a brief look into that institution's activities. All kinds of information is included—how the Exchange is organized, the dividend records of listed stocks, why stock prices fluctuate, how the monthly investment plan operates, and on and so on. The book is designed for the use of the press, educators, writers, government officials — and for any member of the general public interested in the Exchange's services.

This book provides some surprises for those who still think that the stock exchange is cloaked in mystery, that it exists to serve a comparatively small group of financial experts, and that it is of little significance to the masses of people. The fact is that without such an institution there could be no free enterprise system as we know it. It provides the means by which individuals and groups, voluntarily and according to the dictates of their own judgment can invest money in the tools that provide us with our staggering wealth of goods and services — and which create jobs and maintain and improve our living standards.

At the end of 1954, some 7.5 million individuals owned stock in public corporations, and an estimated 76 per cent were in families

HIGHLIGHTS AND DELIGHTS from State Capitol

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — Next month, for the first time in 24 years, voters will be asked to vote — not on men — but directly on issues.

The Democrat Executive Committee members have approved the agenda of three questions on the primary ballot. Voters can express their desires for or against: legislation exempting a child from compulsory attendance at ungraded schools.

Legislation "perfecting" laws against intermarriage of Negroes and whites, and; use of interposition to halt federal encroachment on states' rights.

A majority approval presumably would constitute a mandate for action by the next legislature. Historically, such voter referendums seldom have been used. And too successfully. Present proposals, still substantially ungraded, were set up with the passage of the Terrell Election Law in 1907.

In the nearly 50 years since the referendums were held only a few times. And failed to pass. In 1908 a prohibition proposal was voted down more than two to one. In 1919 the people voted three to one a proposal for a constitutional convention.

But, in 1932 Texans voted overwhelmingly in favor of repealing the federal prohibition amendment. A year later the legislature followed suit and ratified the repeal.

This was the last referendum submitted until this year.

GOP Chooses Corpus — Texas Republicans will hold their August state convention in Corpus Christi. GOP nominees for state, presidential electors, a new state chairman and a general platform will be decided upon at that time.

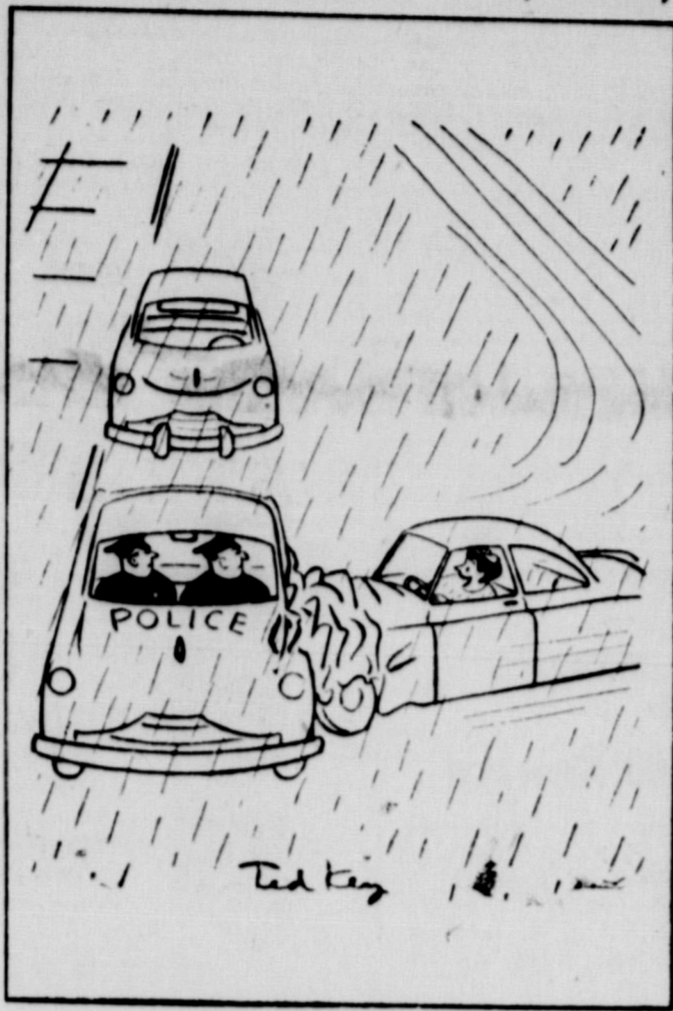

Selection of the convention site was made at the party's state executive committee meeting in Austin.

Committee members sent President Dwight D. Eisenhower a telegram asserting their confidence that he will carry Texas and be reelected in November.

Pearson Blamed Again — In a report made public by the Insurance Commission, TVman Drew Pearson received the brunt of the blame for luring Texans into investing money in the now defunct S Trust & Guaranty Co. The report was based on answers to questionnaires sent draft purchasers by the state liquidator's office.

Fatal Fallacies

chased by the state liquidator's office.

Questionnaires were answered by 3,608 purchasers. They represented investments of $4,711,132. Nearly half of them charged Pearson with influencing them into buying. This because of his personal, oft-repeated statement that "You can put your trust in U. S. Trust."

Because Pearson personally recommended the purchase, the TV broadcaster several months ago pledged to refund all "profits" made on his commercials. As of this writing the Insurance Commission's records do not reveal any such repayments by Pearson.

Parr Trial Delay Expected — Another six months delay seems likely before the trial of George B.

Parr on income tax evasion charges takes place. Parr's plea to have the trial in Laredo, rather than Austin, was rejected by the US Supreme Court. U. S. Attorneys promptly asked Judge Ben H. Rice of Austin for an early setting, preferably in July. But Parr's attorneys said they will file a rehearing before the Supreme Court. Such action could keep the case from coming up until January of 1957.

Parr was first indicted in 1954. He is charged with filing false returns in 1949, 1950 and 1951 and failing to pay the government $86,000.

Report to the People
by Congressman J.T. RUTHERFORD

A few days ago in the House Interior Committee we were discussing respecting of local and state game laws by Military personnel on Military Reservations. A representative of an organization dedicated to the preservation of wildlife was appearing to urge passage of a bill restricting military personnel from ignoring state game laws. He said his organization's attorneys had briefed many cases and found in all courts the power to regulate game law is the right of the individual states. At this point, I introduced to say: "I'm glad to hear that, but I wouldn't say it too loudly. The Supreme Court is not far away you know, and it might take that right away from the states as it has taken others."

Weather is warming up in Washington, and so is activity in Congress. Leaders of the House and Senate are shooting for an adjournment date of July 10th to 15th, but I recall the same goal was attempted last session, but Congress did not recess until August 2nd. At any rate, these controversial items are being discussed thusly: Postal Rate — House Majority Leader, John McCormack (D-Mass) says he intends to block the bill which would raise postal rates by more than $400 million. Author of the bill is pushing for action, with future of the measure in doubt. Education — House Rules Committee has voted 7-3, to consider the federal-aid-to-education measure. Action has thus far been help up because of an amendment by Rep. Powell (D-NY) to bar funds to segregated schools. Supporters of the federal aid bill say they have enough votes lined up to pass the measure in the House, but a bitter battle is seen. Civil Rights — House Rules Committee has decided, 6-4 to vote on Administration's Civil Rights bill. Hearings are due within a few days, with Chairman Smith (D-Va) saying it is "no secret" he intends to do everything he legitimately can to block the bill.

The treasury Department has announced it is opposed to pending bills favoring proposed Constitutional amendments which would require balanced federal budgets. Comment the Treasury officials: "Such method of balancing the budget is relatively inflexible."

The amendment would require the President to submit a balanced budget to Congress. If Congress should appropriate more than the President requested, then Congress would be required to stay in session until it had raised taxes to meet the additional spending. The requirements would not apply in time of national emergency.

The Navy has a problem. Of course, all our Armed Forces are concerned with defense of the nation, development of weapons, the arms race with the Russians, etc.; but the Navy's problem is of such magnitude the Board of Policy has submitted it to Secretary of Navy Thomas. The problem, Should the Navy "go modern" and use zippers on the traditionally multi-buttoned trousers of Navy enlisted men? The Secretary has promised to take the matter "under immediate advisement".

Many comments come in about this Report, and some of the subjects remarked upon is surprising. Recently I mentioned that my daughter Cleo Ann, was sweating out "graduation" from the first grade. To those who inquired if she made it, the answer is yes. Now she's interested in returning to West Texas to relate her scholastic accomplishments to her little friends and asks every day when we'll be returning. I told her that I would like to visit with many of my friends too, but that with several important bills yet to come before the Congress "school isn't out" for me.

For example, broiling is smoke-proof. Only flame consumes rising food vapors. And, you have fewer boilovers with gas because flame is instantly flexible — no hang-over heat. Little wonder more people than ever before cook with gas.

Big Torque of the Best Sellers

IT would stand to reason that automobiles selling in the same league, so to speak, would be pretty close in their engineering specifications.

Like in "torque multiplication"—the twisting force a transmission delivers to the drive shaft. (The greater the torque multiplication, the greater the performance).

But what do you find?

You find that any '56 Buick with advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* delivers a higher torque ratio than any standard-production car, in America.

And you find that this high-torque performance is one reason for Buick's best-seller standing. For Buick is now more strongly positioned in the Top 3 of the nation's biggest-selling automobiles.

That's news — and there's plenty more where that came from. For the '56 Buick is jam-packed with new engineering and styling advances to make it the best Buick yet, by far.

That new Dynaflo, for example, brings you the world's only switch-pitch performance in cars—plus a new part-throttle getaway response that's swifter, surer, and a gas-saver to boot.

The new V8 engine is 322-cubic-inches big, and packed with the highest horsepowers, the highest compressions in all Buick annals.

There's a joyous new ride, too—a new steering magic—a new "sense of direction" in your every handling maneuver.

Thing to do is come see for yourself. That way you can also look at the prices that have helped move Buick to a new sales success—outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

Will you do that, this week?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Indian Theme To Be Featured In '56 Fort Stockton Water Show

Fort Stockton. — "Pow-Wow on Comanche" is title of an Indian theme water and stage show which makes up the major entertainment for the 1956 Fort Stockton Water Carnival.

Held successfully since 1936, the Fort Stockton Show is sponsored by the Lions Club, with assistance from many other organizations and with support from towns all over the Southwest. Mrs. Fleeter Eason is director of the stage and water spectacle which will combine precision swimming, diving, exhibitions, dances, music, and novelty comedy acts.

The beautiful Comanche Springs pool is the setting for the show, which also features a bathing revue each of the three nights — Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 21, 22 and 23.

Smaller beauties from Ft. Stockton will parade Friday night, with the senior entrance competing Friday night for the "Miss Fort Stockton" title. Saturday night will feature the annual "All-Southwest Revue," with entries from a wide area of West Texas and New Mexico expected.

The annual Water Carnival Parade will be staged Saturday afternoon at 4:30, and contestants in the "Miss Southwest" will be invited to ride on the Queen's Float.

Elaborate stage scenery represents the Fort Stockton-Comanche Springs area of the Indian Times, and special lighting equipment is being rented to heighten the water and stage effects.

FORD sets 500-mile record at Indianapolis Speedway

Again proves nobody outperforms Ford

... dramatic demonstration of the kind of performance and roadability that makes all your driving more fun in a Ford!

Ford's record was heard and verified by the United States Auto Club

A Ford V-8 hurtled across the brick and asphalt surface of tough and testing Indianapolis Speedway . . . whirling through the tight turns and flashing over the straight stretches . . . to set a mark that no stock car ever reached before!

Previous to Ford's record run, no other stock car had gone even one lap at Indianapolis at 100 m.p.h., but one of Ford's laps was timed at the electrifying speed of 113.7 m.p.h.! And Ford averaged over 107 m.p.h. for the full five hundred miles . . . close to the average set by the extremely costly, specially-built racer which won the Memorial Day "500"!

Ford fully realizes that the welter of claims and counter claims about "racing victories" (many of them completely contradictory) must be confusing and disillusioning to the public. Ford ran this race against time, over the true "Classic" distance and at the most famous track in America, in order to dispel this cloud of doubt and disbelief and prove that no one outperforms Ford!

Peter de Paolo, leader of the team of drivers that piloted the winning Ford, states flatly: "No other stock car could have equalled this performance!" And Pete de Paolo should know, for he was the first driver to win the "500" Classic with a better than 100 m.p.h. average. And now he comes back with a group of drivers to establish a stock car record with the great '56 Ford!

Ford wrote this new mark large and bold in the record books. And the whole Ford did the trick. From the hood-full of throbbing horsepower to the road-hugging rear end, Ford demonstrated that it has what it takes to make your driving more enjoyable. Convince yourself that driving a Ford can be real fun. Test drive a '56 Ford. There's a set of keys waiting for you, so come in and see us soon.

Supporting Your Town

Merchants who do not advertise are invited to read the following from the American Bankers Magazine, as it might give you a new slant on business, your own business, as well as the matter of building your town.

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."
