Lower Insurance Rates Granted to Ozona Next Year

Fire Insurance Commission Gives Maximum 25 Per Cent Credit

Fire insurance protection for Ozona property owners will cost less after March 1, under action of the State Fire Insurance commission recently in granting this city the maximum good-fire-record credit of 25 per cent. Ozona was listed among 50 Texas towns receiving the maximum 25 per cent credit.

Ozona had heretofore enjoyed a 15 per cent good-fire-record credit. The additional credit, which becomes effective with policies written on and after March 1, will mean an estimated saving in annual premiums for Ozonans of approximately $2,500.

Each year the insurance credit or penalty of each town is figured by the Fire Insurance commission on the basis of average insured fire losses in the town for the preceding three years. The new credit rating granted Ozona will mean an additional saving of approximately 10 per cent of the premium cost.

Ozona's fire insurance key rate is 47 cents. This rate is set by commission and is affected by the fire protection facilities provided by the town, available water supplies, fire fighting equipment, organized fire fighters, fire prevention teaching in the schools and other factors.

El Paso College Band and Singers In Concert Here

Mines College Group To Play In Auditorium March 6

EL PASO, Feb. 28.—The Texas College of Mines Band and Varsity Singers will appear in concert in Ozona at the high school auditorium on March 6.

Recognized as among the outstanding collegiate musical organizations in the Southwest, the touring groups will present a program of classical, semi-classical and popular numbers.

Conducted by Glen R. Johnson, the concert band is composed of forty of the college's crack musicians. Twenty students are included in the Varsity Singers which is conducted by Miss Jackie Roe.

The band will feature numbers to be played by high schools in the annual contests and festivals this spring. Requests are already being received from towns in which the band is to play, and the numbers will be included in the program, Johnson said.

Unlike most touring musical groups, the band and Varsity Singers will present different programs at each concert, varying the selections according to the requests received.

Busby Brings Copy Of Davy Crockett's Signature to Ozona

Tracing of a photostatic copy of the original signature of David Crockett, taken from a bill of sale given by Crockett on a seven-year-old negro slave at Lawrenceville, Tenn., in 1819 has been brought to Ozona by Horace W. Busby, Fort Worth evangelist, now conducting a gospel meeting at the Church of Christ.

The copy of the signature was secured by Mr. Busby on a recent visit to Lawrenceville. In looking over court records there, he came across the signature, summoned a photographer and had the signature copied. Further perusing the records, Mr. Busby found an entry regarding the election of his grandfather, S. Busby, as justice of the peace in 1870.

El Paso Collegiate Band In Concert Here

Pictured above is the Texas College of Mines Concert Band which will appear in concert in Ozona at the High School auditorium Wednesday afternoon, March 6, beginning at 3 o'clock. The band will be under the direction of Glen R. Johnson, music director of the college, declared by critics one of the nation's outstanding young conductors. Appearing with the band will be the College of Mines Varsity Singers. There will be no admission charge for the concert.

Mrs. W. F. Coates, Resident of Crockett County a Half Century, Will Celebrate Eighty-Second Birthday Friday, Mar. 1

Pioneer Family Came Here In Covered Wagon In 1890

Eighty-two years of active life, and fifty years of residence in Ozona will have been completed Friday, March 1, by Mrs. W. F. Coates, one of Crockett county's oldest citizens, known to old timers and close friends as Aunt Fanny.

Illness will dampen somewhat the celebration of the birthday event, which last year took the form of a big family reunion and dinner at which Mother Coates was the honored guest. She has been ill for the past several days, but yesterday was reported improved and may be able to be up again in time for the anniversary observance.

A three-months trip behind a team of oxen, traveling from Mississippi to Texas, Civil War and the rigors of Reconstruction days, pioneering in the Old West as a young bride in the roaring eighties, covered wagons, six-guns and an ever expanding frontier are rich memories of this pioneer whose life has spanned the transition from the days of the buffalo and wild Indian to today's net wire fenced and well improved ranches and the bustling modern cities.

Born in Madison county, Miss., March 1, 1858, Mrs. Coates was but eleven years old when she moved with her family to Texas, the family making the three-

Alpine Evangelist Conducts Spanish Revival Meet Here

Evangelist Frank Traylor of Alpine is conducting a meeting at the Mexican Church of Christ in Ozona this week and next week. He reports a splendid crowd and much interest at the opening meetings. The American Church of Christ and its minister, Clem W. Hoover, are cooperating in the effort.

Evangelist Traylor has been very successful in evangelistic work among the Mexican people because of his knowledge of their language. He reads, writes and speaks Spanish, German and English, and also reads Greek. In this section he has recently conducted meetings in Spanish in Sanderson, Alpine, Marfa and Ozona and east at Abilene, Hamlin, Fort Worth and Austin. Persons interested in the Spanish services here are cordially invited to attend.

Youth Problem Speaker's Topic At Masonic Meet

Masons From 3 Lodges Hear Alan Fraser at Gathering Here

The future of its young people is the greatest problem of this nation, Alan R. Fraser of Alpine, district attorney of the 83rd judicial district, told about eighty Masons gathered in a tri-city meeting here Saturday night. Ozona lodge was host to lodges of Sonora and Eldorado, the occasion being for celebration of Washington's birthday and to welcome the Sonora and Eldorado lodges into the district formerly embracing only the Ozona lodge.

Mr. Fraser, who has made extensive study of the growth of crime among youth of the land, laid the program squarely in the laps of the nation's mothers and fathers.

"Are you giving the time to your child that your father gave to you?" he asked. "You can't expect the schools, Boy Scout troop and churches to do it all."

The speaker referred to the recent action of the National Youth Congress in Washington, deprecating a situation in which the misguided youth of the nation would bow and hiss the President of the United States and condone the brutal invasion of Finland by Russia.

"George Washington left this nation weak in money but strong in principle," Mr. Fraser declared. "I wonder if the situation has not now been reversed. Today three times more money is spent on crime than for education. Today there is an army of three to four million criminals in this country, several times the number that could be recruited by flag waving and patriotic fervor a little over 20 years ago in what was then described in defense of the nation."

Mr. Fraser was introduced by C. S. Denham, master of ceremonies, after the Worshipful Master, W. E. Friend, Jr., had opened

Big Crowds Are Attending 21st Busby Meeting

Mounting Interest Apparent As Meeting Progresses

Evidence that his messages are still fresh and that he is capable of still holding the interest of his hearers even after 21 years of preaching to essentially the same group in an annual ten-day meeting is apparent as Horace W. Busby, Fort Worth evangelist, unfolds his 21st annual sermon series at the Church of Christ here this week.

Splendid crowds are reported by church leaders for the twice daily services, at 3:15 each afternoon and 7:30 each evening. A cordial invitation is extended by the church and its minister, Clem W. Hoover, to all Ozonans to attend all or part of the Busby services.

Song services are being directed at the daily services by Ross Huffstetler and Neal Hannah. The meeting will continue through next Thursday, March 6.

Drunken Driving, Failing To Give Aid Charged Here

L. Armentrout Held After Mexican Hurt Sunday Night

Leonard Armentrout of Ozona faces charges in justice court of driving while intoxicated and failing to stop and render aid as a result of an accident on the outskirts of the Mexican settlement here Sunday night in which Salama Luna, local Mexican, was seriously injured.

Armentrout is at liberty under $500 bond pending action of the grand jury at the April term of district court. Hearing was held before Justice of the Peace W. M. Johnigan Monday morning.

Luna had stopped his car and was at the rear inspecting a faulty tail light when he was struck by the car allegedly driven by Armentrout. Luna was knocked to the ground, his own car hurtled several feet down the road, the oncoming car passing over his body.

Armentrout is charged with having left the scene of the crash and was arrested several hours later at his home by Sheriff W. S. Willis. Luna escaped with two broken ribs and several severe bruises.

Youth Has Its Eyes Open

"American young people have confidence in themselves, place real value in their talents, and have faith in the future of their country."

In these encouraging words, "Scholastic Magazine" announces the results of a survey it took recently among more than six thousand representative high school young people throughout the country.

The conclusion should be heartening, but not genuinely surprising to anyone who has observed the American spirit in operation before.

Some of the answers, indeed, point to a courageousness and belief in the future that we older folk would do well to emulate.

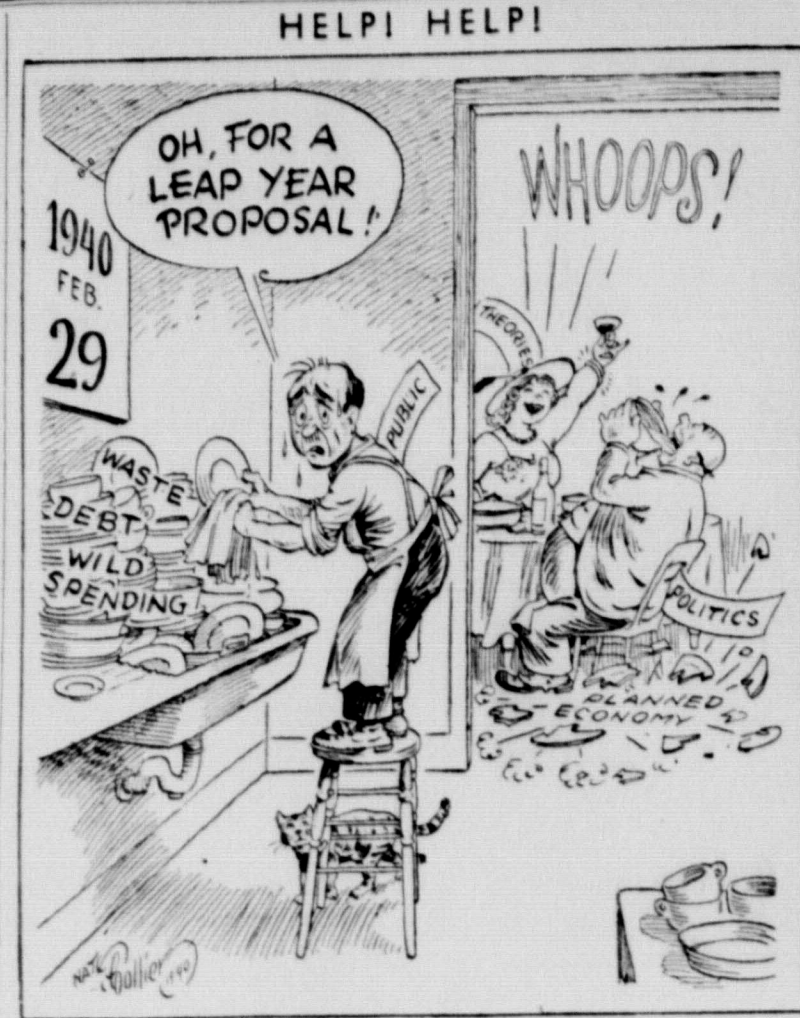

As a further comment, 90 per cent of the young men and women questioned believe that the best cure for unemployment among youth and for young people in jobs they don't fit is more preparation for specialized jobs.

This note of encouragement comes at an apt moment. For with industry once again on the move and already reporting serious shortages among the applicants for skilled jobs in some brackets, youth is shown displaying a confidence that will take advantage of these new opportunities, and that augurs well for the future of America.

Billions for Nothing

One of the stock alibis for our enormous federal debt is that much of the money has gone to create valuable assets—that, in other words, it has been invested in things which will pay out in the future.

That makes a good story until you go beneath the surface. There is no denying the fact that the federal debt has increased over $24,000,000,000 in the past few years. The National Economy League now publishes a statement showing that only $3,336,000,000, or 13.4 per cent of that vast sum, was spent for purposes which increased the nation's assets.

The rest of the money has simply disappeared, leaving behind it only a gigantic burden for the taxpayers of today and tomorrow to meet.

This shouldn't surprise anyone who has given even passing attention to the financial conduct of the federal government in recent years. Billions of dollars have been appropriated for relief, to be spent as soon as received by the beneficiaries. This money created nothing permanent.

This country has spent all those billions and about all it has gained is the knowledge that you can't spend yourself into prosperity any more than you can drink yourself sober. And now, if the spenders have their way, more billions will be spent in an identical manner, thus throwing good money after bad.

erty." Commenting on this, the Wall Street Journal observed: "It is discouraging to find that Mr. Hoover can be surprised. It is particularly so when by merely following the news reports he could find that industrial companies which took steps against sabotage in a good many instances have been accused of trying to suppress legitimate union activities. And if they dared to defend themselves by mentioning Communists or sabotage, they were smeared with that devastating appellation, "red-baiter."

A new and revolutionary principle seems to have come into effect in this country. Under it, the employer is always wrong and the agitator always right. A labor organizer can actually wreck an industry by the strike, sit-down, slow-up or coercive technique used today, and the law will protect him. An employer who dares to express to his employees even mild disapproval of such methods may be hauled up before the National Labor Relations Board and charged with coercing defenseless workers.

The fact that we need employers to supply labor with jobs and opportunities, is disregarded. So is the fact that invested savings of millions of citizens have been responsible for giving the American workmen the best jobs, the highest wages, the best working conditions and the finest standard of living in the world.

Another Business Killer

The bright boys down in Washington, in their desperation to find new sources to tax to stave off the day of reckoning when the heavy hand of taxation will fall "directly" on the working man and average citizen to save this country from bankruptcy, have hit upon a new idea—namely, a tax upon income taxes paid.

In other words, if you pay $100 income tax, you would be assessed another $10 on that tax. It is reported that promoters of this tax believe a super-tax is desirable because it would not affect consumption.

Commenting on the hypocrisy of such wishful reasoning, Raymond Moley, in Newsweek of January 22, says: "Increasing the amount a man pays for taxes presumably will take away from either what he saves or what he spends. . . . It will pry loose private savings and route them into the Treasury. To the extent that it does, it will prevent them from flowing into the capital investment market. It will be of a piece with those very spending policies that have acted as business deterrents. It will impede investment in private enterprise and impede re-employment. If, on the other hand, this tax is not in large part paid out of savings, it will be paid out of what would otherwise be spent, consumed. It must therefore directly affect consumption."

ROBERT MASSIE COMPANY Superior Ambulance Service San Angelo, Texas Phone 4444 Day or Night

sumed. It must therefore directly affect consumption."

The tax spenders are coming to the end of their rope when they argue that $10 added tax on each $100 in taxes a man pays, will not affect consumption. Take $10 out of your pocket, and see if you have it to spend for shoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bower Crane spent Saturday and Sunday in Ozona visiting Mrs. Bower's mother, Mrs. Vera Baker, and friends.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—BUSINESS—Has the European war done much to American prices? It's pretty hard for John Q. Public to tell, just by examining the price tags on shirts or socks, or hefting a 10-cent loaf of bread, or seeing how big a cauliflower he can get for 15 cents. But we do find that wholesale commodity prices zoomed 27.2 per cent between late August and September 22—when the war was 19 days old. By now, about 40 per cent of that increase has settled down—as has the war—though the general level of such prices is still 16.5 per cent higher than August.

The natural expectation is that, sooner or later, this will be reflected in retail prices, too. But actually it's almost impossible for the layman to spot these results, because the retail price levels of almost all staple merchandise remain the same—except in very drastic situations—and the differential is made up by putting a little less material in the shirt-tail, or fewer buttons, or shorter thread-count. As one merchandising expert puts it: "There'll always be a dollar shirt and a two-fifty shirt—always a dollar sock and a three-for-a-dollar sock."

WASHINGTON.—It looks as though another flying squadron of streamlined modern "revenooers" will be combing the business and industrial woods soon — looking for wages-and-hours act violators. An early speed-up of enforcement of the Fair Labor Standards Act is indicated in the current expansion of the legal and inspecting personnel in regional offices of the W. and H. division. The 16 regional offices are setting up branch offices to speed investigation of complaints. In the New York office, for instance, the staff has grown from two to 30 in the last year, with 20 or 25 more to be added by summer. Officials say larger concerns generally are complying, but that there is fairly widespread non-compliance among smaller employers in some industries, for the most part arising from misunderstanding, but partly from the hitherto lax enforcement.

BITS O' BUSINESS.—U. S. cigar production hit a new all-time January peak last month—14½ billions of the little cylinders—but more notable was increase in output of higher-priced cigars, two classes of these showing larger gains than the nickel or "twofer" varieties. . . . American youth, said by some to be going to the dogs, bought 20 per cent more Bibles during the last Christmas season than ever before—that's the Good Word. . . . Consumption of domestic wines is expected to top 90,000,000 gallons this year, bettering the 1939 record by 15 per cent—and that year was 13 per cent over the previous one. . . . Private engineering construction awards for the first week of 1939 totaling $114,630,000, are up 21 per cent over the figure for the same period last year.

Romance A Modern Linerider on the Range. We're on guard day and night! THIS MODERN LINERIDER—so like the old-time cowboy—has a mortal enemy too. The cowboy waged a continuous battle against the rustler. The lineman's big fight is against depreciation—and the ravages of wind and rain, heat and cold. Just as the soil is worn away by erosion... just as a herd of cattle or sheep can be depleted by theft or disease, so does the electric line suffer from depreciation and the elements. The lineman is constantly at work on the lines entrusted to his guardianship. Repairing and replacing old poles. Repairing and replacing old wires. Destruction by a sudden storm—or damage by a run-away car or truck—must be repaired in as short a time as possible. Day or night—the lineman is subject to call. The light of a flashlight may be his only illumination while atop a 50-foot pole, working on high voltage lines. He is one of the hundreds of men and women, working "behind the scenes," who help make Electric Service efficient, dependable and economical here. On him we bestow a title of honor—"A Modern Linerider." West Texas Utilities Company

TATTLING

By C. MAYE DUNLAP

To have a good dance in West Texas is to send out plenty of invitations to everybody within 200 miles, and that is just what the Sonora's Fling Ding club did Saturday night when they entertained with a dance in the wool warehouse with that "Come on children, let's dance" music of Ray Alderson.

Attending the affair from Ozona were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Friend, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Doug Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Millsbaugh, Jr., Carolyn Montgomery, Jean Drake, Lib Coose, Dorothy Drake, Conley Cox, Kirby Moore, Vic Montgomery, Poncey Coates, Spot Friend, and Joe Friend.

Phil Sheridan spent the weekend in Midland visiting relatives and friends. His brother, Jack Sheridan has been in the hospital there receiving medical treatment for the past few days.

Miss Jo Demmer and Miss Dorothy Spain were weekend visitors in Ballinger with Miss Demmer's parents. They returned Sunday with L. D. Kirby and Gene Hollon.

Bob Neal visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Neal in Junction the first of the week.

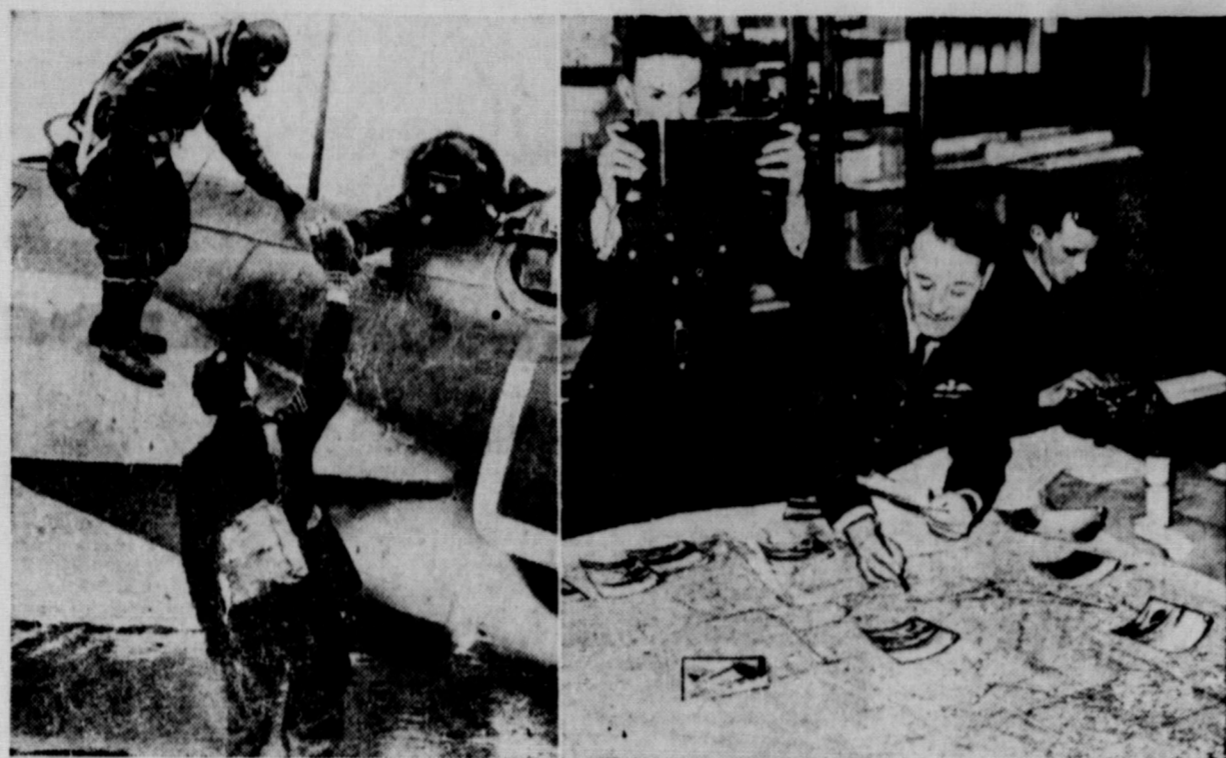

M. F. Kirby, who is a student in Daniel Baker at Brownwood, arrived Friday to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Kirby. He returned Monday.

Marvin Rape was elected recorder at a business meeting of his frat last Wednesday night. This is the best thing that they have to offer a freshman and some of the class leaders were nominated along with Marvin.

During the crucial moment, when people all over the United States are sitting near the telephone waiting for it to ring and hear the man on the Pot of Gold program announce them the winner of $1000, Howard Lemmons was summoned to his telephone Tuesday night and told that he was the winner. Howard swooned and swayed several times but finally the practical joker saved him from fainting.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baggett had as their guests Friday, Mrs. Baggett's aunt, Mrs. George Demere of Water Valley and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Perry Demere of Mertzon.

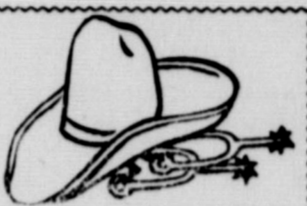

Reconnaissance Flights Probe Enemy Territory

AROUND the WATERINGS

By C. MAYE DUNLAP

Goat shearing is getting up steam with the warm weather of the past few days. Good clips are being reported from ranchmen who have sheared.

Jeff Owens, whose famous flock of registered stock is well known throughout the United States, took 12 of his registered Rambouillet rams to San Angelo today to enter them in the livestock sales during the fat stock show.

Ben Robertson is shearing goats at his ranch this week and is expecting a much better clip this year than last. A crew from Utopia is shearing for him.

V. I. Pierce trucked 14 cows and four bulls to his Alpine ranch Wednesday from his place south of Ozona.

Will Baggett, James Baggett, C. J. Van Zandt and S. L. Butler left Tuesday morning for a few days fishing on the Rio Grande.

Miss Margaret Owens left this morning for San Angelo, taking her horse, Buster, with her. Miss Owens is not planning to rope in the rodeo but will ride in the parade Friday morning and the grand entry in the afternoon. She has had a windbreak put on her horse trailer this week before taking Buster to San Angelo.

Johnny Henderson, Jr. has recently completed reroofing the ranch houses at headquarters and Howard Wells ranches.

MISSISS ALLISON AND SCOTT PARTY HOSTESSES

Miss Zelma Scott and Miss Norine Allison were hostesses Saturday night with a bridge and forty-two party at the Rex Russell home.

Bridge was played at three tables at the conclusion of which Mrs. Jimmy Blaylock won the high award, while forty-two was played at one table with Mrs. Ray Dunlap taking the trophy for high score.

Denham, Mrs. Richard Adams, Miss Beas Terry, Miss Ruth Graydon, Miss Elizabeth Fussell, Miss Connor Maddox, Miss Margaret Martin and Miss Mildred North.

Mrs. H. B. Tandy and sons, Bland and Keriy, and R. L. Bland, Jr., spent the weekend in Abilene visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bland. Miss Rebecca Anderson accompanied them to Abilene and went from there to Weatherford where she visited her parents. The group spent Friday night in San Angelo where they heard Muriel Dickson in concert. Nan Tandy, who rode as far as San Angelo with them, visited friends there until Sunday.

Misses Iris and Irene Green of Del Rio, former Ozonans, were here Friday visiting friends.

A Budget of Time

One would meet with great difficulty attempting to locate a well organized, corporation, particularly family or individual that, in the spending of money, does not have a budget or a definite plan for the disbursement of cash.

There are 24 hours in a day, and that is time. The greatest asset important because they use their time correctly. Everyone lives the same number of hours each day, what one makes of himself, he makes while others are wasting time.

The older always wants to be busy, but he can never find time to do anything, although he gets up, dresses, eats, wastes time all day, and goes to bed, he can find nothing to do.

A "budget of time" plus a little initiative will do him. Let him get up and dress the same as usual, but that is the time the budget come in. A plan for the "spending of time" is a time budget. Now this "time budget" doesn't have to be written in a certain form.

In fact, there is no need to write it. The idea is simply to map out every hour of the day and be sure it is used correctly.

Money is so important that it has a definite use. Time is as important in the building of character, it should have a definite use also.

- 4-END OF SEASON
4-BAND CONCERT
4-ONE ACT PLAY
4-SECOND SIX WEEKS

Another highly successful basketball season has come and gone.
The team has proved itself to be worthy of all the praise that has been given it. For the third successive time, Ozona has won the Ranch League trophy. This is another credit to the team because, since the Ranch League was organized three years ago, the Lions have won the cup each season.

Participating in basketball is an indefatigable aid to the boys as well as the school. Let me say, on behalf of the rest of the school, "Congratulations to the basketball boys of 1939-40!"

Next week, the band of the College of Mines in El Paso will present a program in the auditorium on Wednesday afternoon. The program promises to be interesting and everyone interested in band work should attend.

Practice for one act play will begin next Monday. To select the character, a small part of the play will be enacted, and some judges will select the persons best suited for the parts. Two casts will be selected and the winner of the two at the county meet will go to the district meet in Fort Stockton in April.

This week is the beginning of the second six-week period. I wonder how many students realize that there are only twelve more weeks of school, and that perhaps the whole term work depends upon the work done this second six weeks.

Lions Drop
Two Games
At Dist. Meet

Mentone and Brian Get Winning Count By Hard Play

Showing an astonishing atten-dence, the Ozona high school basketball team ended its season by dropping a couple of thrillers in Fort Stockton Friday and Saturday nights. For the first time this season, the Lions showed some trouble at ringing the basket, managing up 54 points in two games.

In the district opener Friday night when the Lions engaged a near team, Mentone, the Mentone team came out with a 43-42 de-feet. This bunch of boys was amir-ing the shots from any position on the floor with regular consistency. They had run up a ten-point lead early in the first quarter before the Lions went to work and snatched the count at 23-22. Another spur by the Loving country boys, and they again had a good margin. It looked as if the Ozona team were whipped, but the Lions found the basket once more and led the score again at 38-36. But the Mentone team couldn't be held out and a three-point lead as the game ended. Whistler said a couple of baskets that he had coming to him, leaving the Lions only one point shy of a tie.

The real heart-breaker for the Lions was the game that they lost to the Brian Braves 34-32. They had scored to win this one for their coach, Ted White, who was convinced his last game for OHS.

Addition to Equipment

A new portable Remington Rand adding machine arrived on Feb.
24 for use in the commercial department of the high school. The machine is one of the newest models, electrically run.

Before students will be allowed to use the new machine, they must pass a special test of adding by the touch system. If a student fails this test, he must continue adding in his head for the remainder of the school term. For several years to come, the students taking bookkeeping will be required to pass the test to determine the usage of the machine.

The Remington Rand adding machine is like a machine gun, easy to start and hard to stop.

To travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive.

4-Casting

4-Casting: Plastic! It has just been heard by your sewing reporter (then the keynote), that the big event of the year, the Junior-Senior banquet will be held April 23.

The Press club banquet, we predict, will be held in April, instead of March, when it is usually held.
This delay is due to the numerous events that will fill the month of March; however, the new staff members will be selected earlier than usual, though not being affected of their position, until the banquet.

It is expected that on March 3, the Historical Association will go discovering. At least, some boys and girls have already discovered new discoveries to discover with.

As your reporter talked to some of the faculty, they discovered that all "look swell" for the "long awaited for" semester tennis courts. They say "swell" because this has been a rather prolonged project.

A new couple, it is thought, will spring into being this last six weeks of school, "Guess who?" as boy home would say.

The senior play, your reporter thinks, is going to be a success, if March 7 doesn't come too soon.
Anyhow, the characters certainly are suited for the parts in the "Valley of Ghosts."

4-Casting: Plastic: "Old Sol," as it was called in a past issue of the L. R., will still be the lighting for the rest of this year. The seniors aren't expecting to see any senescent blinds in their high school days.

Dorothy Hammit and Billy De West, who have won the tennis cup for the past two consecutive years, are expecting to carry off that honor again this year. Unexpected competition may come into their path.

Odds and Ends

From 9:30 until 12 o'clock, and from 1:30 until 5 o'clock last Saturday the seniors in the old high school auditorium, were sitting over their lines and settings of the first two acts of the senior play. Finding that the play needed further practice before Monday, when the work on the third act began, the cast met Sunday afternoon. On every school day of the week the seniors practiced after school.

The senior class plans to present the play on the night of March 3. As has been the custom, the proceeds will go to the cause of the school, in the form of a gift.

All last week the students
"crunched" for their six weeks tests. There will be two more six weeks tests before this school year closes.

On Tuesday the students received their report cards, finding out the result of their crumming and finding out how much real work they had done the past six weeks.

For a number of years Horace W. Bundy, Fort Worth evangelist, has held an annual meeting at the Church of Christ. During each visit to Ozona he attends the Ozona high school and there addresses the students with a most educational and interesting talk.

Monday morning, Feb. 26, his subject topic was "An Individual's Character and Reputation." This was enjoyed throughout the entire school. Compliments were plentiful, and, of course, they made everyone feel as if he were "sitting on top of the world."

We sincerely hope that Mr. Bundy will be back with us next year for a more enjoyable visit in the "Biggest Little Town in the World."

Junior Historical Club Plans Hunting Trip With Cameras at Fort Lancaster

The Junior Historical club has of the club is allowed to make a several objectives, of which one is to make trips to nearby historical spots in order to find information or relics valuable to the Ozona high school library and museum.

With this objective in mind, the club has planned to make a trip of the famous old forts near Ozawill be included in this trip are the old wagon trail and the

Ozona Again Wins
Ranch District
League Contest

Last Wednesday evening the Ozona basketball team played the game with Junction that decided the winner of the ranch district championship. Did the boys let Ozona down at the last minute?
NO! Their spirits were high and they put in there and fought—and won. This is the third time in succession that Ozona has carried away the honor of the Ranch district championship.

When football season had ended and basketball season had begun, most of the Ozona citizens were rather discouraged, because of the hard luck the football boys had had. But were the boys discouraged? No sir, they were more determined than ever to have a winning basketball team; so they began to work. The time soon came when they met their first rival, Big Lake, and were defeated by the Owls. Did the boys fret and whine, and give up? Certainly not, because those boys were still determined to have that winning team. So, every afternoon and it might be said, part of the night, the boys practiced and practiced.
In this way they put in many hard afternoon's practice, but they said it would be well worth that time.

Finally, as the season rolled around, the Ozona team had played many rivals. They had gone to the Big Lake, Barhart, Rock-springs, Sonora, and their own towns, each time making a good representation for Ozona.
Some of the boys won all-tournament basketballs and various other awards; but their chief victory was over pessimism and admitted defeat, for which they deserve real congratulations.

SECOND GRADE NEWS

I went to Fort Lancaster last Sunday and looked all around the old fort. I looked at the chimneys and saw three that were still standing. I picked up a few rocks that had been used in the buildings. The old fort was used a long time ago as a place for soldiers to stay so that they could protect the travelers and protect the mail as it was carried through this country.

While looking around the ruins, I found some old iron nails that had been used in the buildings.
These nails were square instead of round, like the one we use today.—Ralph Cabaness.

When a man dies, the last thing that moves is his heart; in a woman, her tongue.

The probability that we may fail in the struggle ought not to deter us from the support of a cause we believe to be just.

There is no defeat, in truth, save from within; unless you're beaten there, you're bound to win.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—As a result of the one-deer-at-a-time traps being tested in the Hill Country by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission proving highly successful it will be possible for the game department to stock more lands with bucks and does in the future.

The traps, similar to those used in the Pisgah National Forest of North Carolina, differ greatly from the old-tyle trap used by the commission and proved so successful in operation that 21 deer were caught the first night the 22 devices were used. Federal game experts who were following the experiment with considerable interest were highly elated at the success of the project, they reported to the executive secretary of the Texas game department.

It is hoped to catch more than 300 deer during the present trapping season. Those added to 200 other deer the department has been able to obtain will restock a good many areas which formerly had deer on them, but from which the supply was depleted due to over-shooting. Next year the game department plans to have 200 of the new traps in operation.

Four Texas bass fishermen and one tarpon angler won prizes in a nationally-circulated magazine's annual fishing contest. Cliff Burgess of Gladewater was a prize winner with a 7 3/4 pound bass caught at Burns lake near Center. James M. Young of San Angelo and Ben F. Brooks of Bagwell each scored with a 7 1/4 pound bass. Young's came from Lake Nasworthy near San Angelo and Brooks' fish was caught in Lake Brooks near Bagwell. Wade E. Fitzgerald of Fort Bliss was the fourth Texas bass fisherman to win, his 6 pound, 13 ounce bass being caught in New Mexico.

A 154-pound tarpon taken by Harry B. Falconer of Dallas off Port Isabel, won the deep sea fisherman a prize.

Here's one deer which liked his "home" so well that he was killed within 400 yards of the place where he had been released three years previously. Ex-Mayor Fonville of Houston killed the six-point buck on the Foote Ranch in Colorado county during the closing days of the hunting season. It had been marked in June 1936.

Oratory, Modern Jazz Bombard China's Air Lanes

With the radio industry on the verge of a boom in China, young talent is being trained to occupy an important position in the Chinese entertainment world. Left: A Chinese student orator broadcasts from one of the small stations in Shanghai. His speech is non-political due to censorship. Center: Darling of listeners is this oriental imitation of Shirley Temple. She's singing "My Own" in Chinese. Right: Two most popular torch singers are Yo Li, in the flowered dress, and Mei Ping. Both come from well-to-do middle class families. Jazz—something startlingly new in China—has swept the country by storm. The beginning of the Sino-Japanese war ended the first radio boom in that country.

reports of two elk in the Panhandle have been received recently by the game department. A cow elk was sighted east of Wellington and the game warden captain of that region has in his possession the head and antlers of a bull elk killed by a Knox county rancher. These big game animals are believed to have drifted into Texas from the Wichita game preserve in Oklahoma.

Despite the fact the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission is carrying on an extensive educational campaign in an effort to familiarize hunters and fishermen with the numerous laws governing field and stream activities and with the necessity of saving the Lone Star State's game and fish, wardens were forced to make 201 arrests during last December, it is announced by the executive secretary of the game department. Convictions were obtained in 179 cases, 19 being dismissed and one being appealed. One is still pending.

The class in wildlife conservation being taught in CCC camps of Brown county by a state game warden is reported to be one of the most popular provided CCC enrollees.

Texas Scientists Study New Uses For Wasted Natural Gas

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—Wasted natural gas—a great Texas natural resource blown and burned away at the rate of a billion and one-half cubic feet per day—is still a problem of concern to geologists and the natural gas industry, points out a University of Texas chemist.

Speaking recently in a broadcast of the University's industrial radio series, "Frontiers of Progress," Dr. E. P. Schoch, director of the bureau of industrial chemistry here, said that control of natural gas waste is assuming more satisfactory proportions, however. "The only absolute certainty," he said, "that it will not be wasted lies in setting a value on it so as to transform the natural resource into something industry wants."

He pointed to a possible solution in the production of synthetic and useful by-products from the gas itself. One of the nation's outstanding authorities on natural gas, he has directed a University chemical search for those synthetic by-products for several years. "Our nearest approach, to transforming gas into something that industry wants," Dr. Schoch said, "is the process of transforming the methane in the gas to acetylene—which is used in the production of synthetic rubber."

The broadcasts originate from Radio house on the University campus via Texas State Network, each Monday night from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

was amazed recently when, upon going to his barn, he found that his female setter was not only mothering five baby dogs, but a litter of foxes, supposedly left in the barn by a wild mother fox.

Latest reports are that foster mother and children are doing well.

Wymon O. McInnis of the Cox & McInnis ranch near Brownwood didn't waste a great deal of bait in catching two fish recently. He snagged a 27 1/2 pound catfish and saw protruding from its mouth the tail of another fish. It proved to be a one and a half pounder the cat had caught just before it greedily snapped up McInnis' bait.

theme in 1939 was that of a huge southern garden, the feature this year will be a Holland garden with an actual size cottage in the background. Leading up to the cottage will be tulip and hyacinth lined walks. An improvised canal with water flowing through it will add to the authenticity of the arrangement. The Dutch garden will occupy 3,000 square feet of space. This elaborate garden is co-sponsored by American interests and the Holland Bulb Growers Association.

In addition to the 25,000 tulips and hyacinths imported from Holland, in an exotic profusion of color, there will be orchids of rarest beauty, the world's most beautiful carnations, azaleas four to six feet tall, rhododendrons, hydrangeas, wisteria and other subjects in brilliant array of colors and foliage will add their share of delight.

The National Flower and Garden show is conducted under auspices of the Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists as a cultural and educational contribution to the betterment of mankind.
