Wallace Says Demos Scared

NEW YORK, Feb. 16. UP-Henry A. Wallace, facing a test of strength at a special congressional election in the Bronx tomorrow, says "the Democratic high command in Washington is scared to death" over his presidential candidacy.

Wallace told an American Labor party rally yesterday that fear in Washington led to Mayor William O'Dwyer's recent appeal to him to abandon his third party candidacy for the White House and return to the Democratic party.

miner. Too much money is good

There are Congressional committees working on the problem of what caused high prices, and now some of the members of that body are demanding one to find out what caused the prices to drop. What these inquirers expect to do about either is something they have not disclosed. What they want now is investigation. What they will do with it after they get it is evidently not yet decided.

Not only the Congress but many individuals, some of them in high repute with the public, are insisting that they can cure all our ills if they can find the cause. They propose to diagnose the economic diseases and then cure them. This, despite their failure to do anything of the sort through past years, but perhaps they think persistence will bring results. It probably will bring some, but they may not be the results the investigators and forecasters hope for.

There are some basic principles that have never yet been set aside, nor even modified, though many men have worked long and arduously to substitute their theories for the facts. Supply and demand are still at work, as they have always been and always will be. Human control over the forces of nature is just as far from being attained as ever. But the statesmen insist that the government can do all that it desires, and so we have investigations and reports and recommendations and still we have confusion.

Good Fire Record Is Money In Bank

Big Spring managed to hold her own in' 1947, in the way of a fire record, having been handed another 10 per cent credit for holding down fire losses. That is as good as it was in 1946, but of course does not reflect any improvement:

Ten per cent off your fire insurance bill is something, in these days of high costs, but 25 per cent off the bill would be considerably better. It's something for us to shoot at. The scoring system on fire losses is something that cannot be tampered with. A city suffers a fire loss, and it's there to be recorded. And when the harsh facts of a fire loss are added up, that figure goes. down on the town's fire report card. The way of scoring is basically simple.

much each year for insurance against fire. If losses equal or exceed this amount, the insurance bill has to be hiked. Certainly, we have not suffered such a catastrophe as to make the loss ratio $1 for $1 of insurance. But there have been years when our fire loss ratio was so great that we drew penalties instead of receiving credits. The base of fire insurance rate remains steady, but the rate must be adjusted upward or downward by penalties or credits, or the insurance companies are out of busi-

Big Spring could achieve a full 25 per cent credit, the maximum allowed. Many other towns have such a rating. It takes team work on the part of every citizen who buys insurance. The stake is high enough to make us eternally vigilant and vigorous Big Spring property owners pay out so in our fight against fire loss.

ABC On Cost Of Marshall Plan

(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, UP-This will bring you up to date on the arguments about how much the Marshall Plan should cost the United States.

The most recent set of figures came yesterday from the Senate Foreign Relations committee. Members of that group all agreed that the program should last four years and that it should cost $5,300,000,000 for the first

The U. S. Senate Foreign Re-

They met at Paris and decided they needed a four-year program which-after they had helped each other-still would cost about $22,400,000,000. American officials took that estimate and whittled it down. They talked of asking Congress for about $17,000,000,000 for the four-year recovery plan.

When President Truman presented the Marshall Plan request to Congress he didn't mention that figure-or any other fouryear figure.

He said the European recovery program should get $6,800,000,000 for the first 15 months. Congress and the Administra tion could decide later, he said, how much to spend for the rest of the program. Both he and Marshall insisted that the figure should not be cut any deeper. That didn't stop congressmen from talking about cutting it.

Some of them talked of slicing it by as much as $2,000,000,000. That's the way it stood until yesterday, when the Senate committee came up with a still dif-

"YOU MEAN SOME PEOPLE HAVE HEATING PROBLEMS?"

WASHINGTON .- During the war, mysterious reports leaked out of Stockholm that the Germans and the Russians were holding secret conversations in 1943 with a view to patching up a separate peace. U. S. military intelligence did its best to get full details of these conversations, and it was known that the talks were held between Nazi Ambassador Hans Thomsen and Soviet Ambassadress Madame Alexandra Kollontay at a villa just outside of Stockholm.

Since the war, however, the U. S. Army has captured the detailed account of these talks, and it can now be revealed that during the summer of 1943, shortly after the battle of Stalingrad, Hitler and Stalin came near patching up a separate peace which would have left the United States and Great Britain fighting the war alone.

The state department has already released the secret talks between Foreign Minister Ribbentrop and Foreign Minister Molotov in Nov. 1940 by which Russia and Germany tried to concoct an alliance, but the documents regarding the second peace attempt in 1943 are still considered confidential.

In the summer of 1943, continued Soviet pressure for a U. S .-British second front across the English channel finally resulted in a secret conference on Manitoulin island in Lake Huron. Roosevelt visited the island on an alleged fishing trip, where he was joined by Churchill and later by Molotov, who flew via Siberia and Alaska to the island.

Molotov was extremely bitter. He complained that allied delay in establishing a second front meant the loss of thousands of Russian lives. The Red army had suffered terrific punishment at Stalingrad. The German army was still far advanced in the Caucasus. Therefore, Molotov demanded that the American and British armies divert the strength of the Nazi military machine by starting a second front at once.

Roosevelt and Churchill replied that to start a second front before the U.S. Army was properly prepared might result in a setback which would prolong the war even longer. They also ar-favor that season of the year when the leaves of their many trees turn golden brown and the rich, intoxicating smell of Autumn lingers everywhere.

With natives of the Far North, it must be mid-summer, that time when the snow has vanished and Mother Nature pas painted the countryside a verdant and abundant green. To us, the most enchanting moment comes when the ancient earth, which has experienced the thrill countless times, unlocks the grip of winter and embraces spring with open arms. Perhaps it is all the more beautiful and enduring because of the fleeting briefness of the moment. Suddenly the chill goes out of the air, the wild creatures venture

New Englanders, legend has it, forth to utter their song of spring and something fresh and good is born again.

The severity of a long winter may have a lot to do with the time's deliciousness. Whatever it possesses that transfuses man with new spirit and vigor, that quality seems to affect all mankind. It can be seen in the briskness of his walk, noted in his mood and reflected in his smile. It is that time when one can look ahead to the good things in life, to evening walks, picnies, baseball and afternoon swims. All that is in front of him and so close he is already going through the motions. Winter clothes go into retirement. Sports shirt and slacks become the order of the day, and regardless of his age, he is young

NEW YORK, &-Wilbur Peeble thought there was something unusual Saturday morning when his wife, Trellis Mae, set a plate of chipped beef and carrots before him-his favorite breakfast.

But after ten years a married man learns to take in silence any small bonus that comes his way. So Wilbur munched on until he noticed something strange about the breakfast table. A bowl in the center contained a dozen fresh

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

Even Gossip Super

NEW YORK-Broadway, being just an overgrown hometown neighborhood, heaves its backfence gossip with the same exaggeration as hometown conversational repetition. But when a Broadway story is repeated, it grows with atomic speed

Thus with a nice young guy named Bob Shaw, a radio script writer who scribbles two of the better radio whodunit programs. "Mr. District Attorney" "Christopher Wells," There-I did it myself! He's just the coauthor of these scripts; the producer, Eddie Byron, ex-Army officer, owns and co-scribbles

So-a few months ago I was startled off my chair in the Radio City drugstore, the Stork Club of the megacycle mob, when my next-seat acquaintance asked, "Didja hear about Bob Shaw?" No, I hadn't. "Well, he just inherited two million bucks." H-m-m. What do you know. Couldn't happen to a nicer guy. Present company excluded, of course.

Later, at Louis and Armand's bar, another center of radio gossip. Hear about Bob Shaw? Yes, I had. Three million smackers, said my martini-toting neighbor. I said I'd heard it was only two and a half. No, more than three, I was assured. To Shor's, where agency executives rub elbows with radio actors, just as if they were equals. Bob Shaw? Three and a half million.

So I met Bob's boss, Eddie Byron. What's with Bob Shaw. How much?

Quite a hunk, Eddie assured me. "About a hundred thousand, Maybe a little more." Yes, he'd heard about the two and three millions.

"Nice idea, though," said Eddie. "But so is $100,000. Bob's been pestered by the usual yacht salesman, real estate executives and glib promoters. "I can't convince anybody it it isn't true," he says resignedly. Sure I inherited some money. I'll get a much smaller sum than a.r. body has mentioned so far when I'm 45. (He's in his early 30's now.)

"But three million dollars! It's fantastic! And it's still growing! Ed Byron and I thought about weaving it into a crime story for 'Mr. District Attorney,' or 'Christopher Wells,' but every time we talk about it we have the guy who's supposed to inherit all the money killed off.

"It gives me tile shudders, so I don't think we'll do it." Meanwhile, even if the inheritance should be considerably less than Eddie Byron's estimate, Shaw won't starve. He's considered one of the better young script writers, is said to make $1,500 for his labors on Byron's two crime shows, which is better than six per cent interest on a million dollars. And what ever happened to six per cent interest? Come to think of it, what ever happened to money?

name the trend in Hollywood films for the new year, I would spin the compass, turn the wheel and point to the semi-documentary. In fact, I might even hazard a guess that this picture technique will have the same effect on the movies that Ernest Hemingway did on American writing. I don't mean that all pictures will be semi-documentary no more than all novels are Hemingway-like. But both influences contribute a new freshness and vitality.

All over town you can see the upswing in the semi-documentary (wish the darned thing had an easier handle!) Recently, three of them were previewed in the same week and each had a realism that makes studio made films seem pale in comparison.

This week, MGM announced that it will make a series of semidocs (let's be brief). Louis De Rochemont, who pioneered the field, was signed to direct.

De Rochemont, formerly of March of Time, made the first of the semi-docs (you'll get used

Columbia's "To the Ends of the Earth" and Hellinger's "The Naked City." Several more are in the works. All of the above profited by being filmed in actual surroundings. There was none of the painted backdrops and fake shrubbery of Hollywood sets; this was the real thing. All right, so the actors' faces weren't brilliantly lighted and their voices sometimes sounded hollow. Such imperfections of sight and sound merely add reality to the film.

Hollywood has long bragged that its films are technically perfect. But it has sometimes over looked the fact that the perfect picture is that which entertains.

ZAVADA QUADRUPLETS SURPRISE DOCTORS BY ARRIVING EARLY

LATROBE, Pa., Feb. 16. UP-The Zavada quadruplets - three girls and a boy whose coming was forecast by X-ray last November-entered their second day of life today, apparently "doing just fine.

The babies, not expected until April, were delivered by caesarean section yesterday to Mrs. Barbara Wagner Zavada, wife of a metal works inspector.

The four infants, weighing a total of 131/2 pounds, were born within five minutes while their father, Andrew, 35, mopped his brow in the waiting room of the Latrobe general hospital. Dr. J. Wiley Hartman, chief obstetrician, who attended Mrs. Zavada aided by four other doctors, said the boy was delivered first, just 15 minutes after Mrs. Zavada had been wheeled into the operating room. A half hour after the babies' birth, father Theodore Hodobay of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church came to the hospital to christen the children John Michael, Bernadette Elizabeth, Barbara Rose and Anna Mary. The only disappointed person in Latrobe today apparently was five-year-old Larry Dale McBryer, Mrs. Zavada's son by a pre-vious marriage, who had expected his mother to bring him two brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Zavada's first husband, Harold McBryer, was killed in the Normandy invasion in 1944. She married Zavada in August, Herschel "Mule" Stockton, Big Spring high school track coach, says the Big Spring Relays will probably be held again this spring, though he doesn't yet know which local organization will appear the Company. Abilene polled two votes at yes- he doesn't yet know which local organization will sponsor the games. terday's meeting of the athletic The Big Spring Athletic association has financed the invitational meet in the past. There has been talk of the American Business club assuming the job of backing the show.

Stock states emphatically he is in favor of moving the date of the event back three weeks to a month. In years past; the Relays have two in the money-winning parade been staged the first and second Saturdays in March. However, Mule of golf this year, meet today for says that is much too early, that very few of the athletes can begin to attain the peak of condition by that time.

There may be a possibility the local show will be unreeled the same weekend as the Texas Relays, which come off in early April. Very few First place pays $2,000 and second spot with Abilene by defeating track teams in this area ever make the classic in Austin but are gen- $1,400.

Ramsey was accused by parties present at Sunday's session of "brother-in-lawing" the Abilene delegation but Red said he was helpless to vote otherwise. He added his school was not interested in holding the show.

Only last week Kiick reportedly told friends he would rather forfeit to Abilene than play there. But the story drifted in that he was afraid a par on the 18th to take the title. of the Oressa 'jinx' in the Brone gymnasium and thought the local But his second shot hit on a down-

Kiick's decision caught the local coach, Johnny Malaise, quite by surprise but the Odessans, Joe Coleman et al, were more or less prepared for any eventuality.

They proferred to combine their voting strength with Big Spring missed a 12-foot putt. He went and flip a coin for the site.

TWO ODESSA REGULARS BACK NEXT SEASON

Gail Smith, Odessa's capable cage coach, says he'll have two starters from this year's Bronc team back in 1948-49. They are Jimmy Patterson, who'll probably rate the all-state football team next fall, and Kenneth Griffin, a capable floor man.

Gail, incidentally, told this reporter that Harry Pace, an ace guard on Odessa's football team last fall, has already enrolled at Oklahoma university. He may be joined by Ed Rowland, all-district tackle.

Paul Matejowski, crackerjack quarterback of last fall's Odessa grid team, tried to land an appointment to the United States Naval academy but his grades didn't quite meet the requirements.

WORK MAY START SOON ON ODESSA STADIUM

Coleman says he's expecting plans for the new Odessa football stadium back within the immediate future and construction will be started as soon as possible. He's looking forward to using it this fall.

The stadium will be horseshoe shaped and will probably seat around 20,000. Needless to relate, it will be one of the finest of its kind in Texas.

BENSON AND PEACOCK MAY RETURN TO SPORTS

Sweetwater sources say Earl Benson, Kenny Peacock, Calien Mc-Pike, Homer Garner, Bill Zeigler and Mac Dunlap will all be back with

Russian, Fenton In AC Collision

Leon Kirilenko of Moscow, Russia, who put Our Town's wrestler promoter, Pat O'Dowdy, on the shelf in a match at San Angelo last week, stalks big game again this evening when he tackles Rod

Fenton of Montreal, Canada, at the Big Spring Athletic club. The Mad Muscovite gave O'Dowdy such a going-over that the Irishman will be out of action for at least three weeks. That means Pat's wife, Ruth, will be in the drivers seat for tonight's Kirilenko and Fenton met last week and settled exactly nothing. Fact of the matter is, Referee George Lopez counted both of them out while they were outside the ring, taking air on one another. They were still grimacing when the fans departed. At any rate, they climb through the ropes again tonight for the second and final match on the program.

The 8:15 o'clock preliminary pits Dory Funk of Hammond, Ind., against Pierre LaBelle, Paris France.

Funk is aces with the local folks but no more popular than La-Belle, who has made a lot of friends in his short stay here. The match should be a corker.

No. 1 Foster Drilling Will Be Resumed

After flowing steadily and con-tinuously for 49 hours, and making a total of 1,360.4 barrels of 28.5 gravity oil from lower Permian pay at 4,252-4,345 feet, natural, Anderson-Prichard Oil corporation and the Vickers Petroleum Co., Inc. No. 1 Foster, southeast Sterling county wildcat discovery, is preparing to resume drilling toward the Ellenburger.

The flowing on the 49 hour test was through a 34 inch tubing choke During the last five hours of the period the hourly oil yields were: 21.9, 16.6, 18, 18 and 17 barrels. That was a total of 91.5 barrels of oil for the five hours.

On the basis of the total flow of .360.4 barrels of oil produced during the entire 49 hours of testing from the lower Permian zone, the well averaged 27.7 barrels per hour over the full time of the investigation. No water was déveloped Gas-oil ratio averaged around 140-1. This well is about seven miles south of Sterling City and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block 15, H&TC survey. It is thought that the project may have to go to about 8,500 feet to find and test the Ellenburger.

Opportunities In AAF Told

Veterans of any of the Armed Services who wish to join the new US Army Air Force have three special enlistment opportunities, Lt. O. L. McFadin, local recruiting officer, stated today.

They are former servicemen who have had experience and possess skill in certain of some 300 specialties; those who apply for training as Aviation Cadets; and those who seek additional education under the Army Career plan.

Among those sought in the first category are persons experienced in radar, electronics, photography, mechanics, drafting and repairing, and aircraft maintenance. Those graduating as Aviation Cadets will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force reserve. An initial clothing allowance of $250 is given each Cadet upon graduation. A Second Lieutenant's pay, if single, is $336 and, if married, $372. During training, cadets receive $75 monthly, plus food, housing, clothing and medical and dental care.
