A Commercial Lamb Show Slated For Saturday

Feeders Show 111 Lambs In Grading Demonstration

The second annual Ozona FFA Commercial lamb show and grading demonstration will be held Saturday morning, Feb. 16, at the school building. Barber, VA instructor and advisor of the FFA, announced the show will begin at 9:15 a. m. Saturday at the agricultural building just north of the school building. The show will end with a benefit barbecue to be served by the FFA members, with the aid of parents and the boys.

This year 31 FFA boys will have graded 111 lambs, Mr. Barber said. The lambs will have been on feed from 105 to 115 days at the time of the grading market classification show. Nineteen of the 111 lambs were sheared prior to Nov. 1 and the other 92 crossbred and wool lambs were fed with the wool on them all during the feeding period.

A special award this year will be given to the boy who put the best wool on his lambs during the feeding season.

Norman Carter of San Angelo will judge the classification show. The lambs will be judged into slaughter market grades of Choice, Good and Feeder lambs. Each FFA member started feeding season with his lambs classified as feeder lambs and during the time the lambs have been on feed, the boys have tried to put them to the top three market grades.

The schedule for the show will be as follows:

- 8:15-9:30 — Showing for the best fitted crossbred and best fitted finewool lamb.
 - 9:30-9:45 — Showing of light-weight finewool lambs to slaughter market grades.
 - 9:45-10:00 — Showing of heavy-weight finewool lambs to market grades.
 - 10:00-10:15 — Showing of pen-three finewool lambs.
 - 10:15-10:30 — Showing of shorn finewool lambs to market grades.
 - 10:30-10:45 — Showing of pen-three shorn finewool lambs.
 - 10:45-11:00 — Showing of light-weight crossbreds to market grades.
 - 11:00-11:15 — Showing of heavy-weight crossbred lambs to market grades.
 - 11:15-11:30 — Showing of pen-three crossbreds.
 - 11:30-11:45 — Presentation of awards to FFA members:
1. Boy with best fitted crossbred lamb.
 2. Boy with best fitted finewool lamb.
 3. Junior showmanship award.
 4. Senior showmanship award.
 5. FFA boy the best lamb weight gain during feeding period.
 6. Champion and Reserve Champion Fine Commercial finewool, shorn finewool and crossbred lambs.
 - 12:00-1:00 — Benefit barbecue dinner.
- Everybody is invited to attend the show.

Rankin's Free Throw Progress Throws Lions In Non-District Tilt

By Ernie Boyd

The Rankin Red Devils used accuracy at the free throw line and poor shooting from the same spot on the part of the Ozona Lions Tuesday night to upset the Lions 66 to 58.

The Lions outscored the invaders from the field, hitting 25 field goals as compared to 20 for Rankin, but the invaders hit 26 of 33 free shots while the Lions blew 18 of 26 efforts not to mention some fifteen second shots they failed to get by missing the first effort.

Soph Jerry Jacobs poured in 13 field goals and two free throws for a total of 28 points to lead all scorers, but he was followed rather closely by Debbs Gamblin of Rankin who hit 25 points by cashing in on 15 of 17 free throw efforts.

Rankin jumped into an early lead and held it throughout the first quarter but the Lions closed fast and went into the lead early in the second period. A rash of foul shots put Rankin back in the lead to stay, however, with Rankin ahead only 31 to 30 at half.

A sparse crowd viewed the wide open contest which saw 38 fouls called on the two opponents.

In the opener the Ozona B team took a tight 67 to 65 win over the Rankin B team when Johnny Jones sank two free throws with just five seconds left to play.

Humberto Cervantes led the Cub attack with 20 points and was closely followed by Ronnie Paulk. The Cubs used 12 men in the contest which despite the closeness of the score never seemed out of the Ozonans' reach.

"Do You Know Your County" will be the subject of the program set for the Ozona Parent-Teachers Association when it meets Monday night in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Ira Carson, who has made a big collection of colored slide scenes of historic and scenic interest in Crockett county and will show these for the benefit of the P. T. A. at the Monday night program. The program will start at 7:30 p. m.

Hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hayes.

Miss Whitt will arrive here shortly before the style show, which starts at 3 p. m., and will model her coronation gown and also a coat and dress from her wool wardrobe.

District Leading Lion Cagers Face Eldorado Here Fri.

Final Two Home Games Will Decide '57 Dist. Championship

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions will be trying for a share of their 6th straight title Fri. night when they meet the tough Eldorado Eagles in the Ozona Gym.

Both A and B games are scheduled with the B game getting under way around 6:45 and the A game starting at 8 p. m. The Lions will wind up the district schedule here next Tuesday night against the Junction Eagles.

The Lions went into a double overtime in Eldorado before edging the big Eagle club 39 to 37 on Jerry Jacobs field goal and the Eagles will be looking for revenge when the two meet here.

The Lions will need the win to assure themselves of a share of the title and should Sonora falter again, the victory would give the Lions undisputed possession of first place.

Coach Swede Pelt's young cagers who were not supposed to be contenders this season managed to win three of their four district road games but managed to do so by a combined total of only five points.

The Lions have captured eleven of their last fifteen contests with two of the four losses in that group having been in the hands of the Big Lake Owls who appear to be the class of this section of the state.

Coach Swede Pelt will probably start Stanley Williams a junior, and Bobby Sutton a Soph, at guards with Jerry Jacobs a Soph at the post and Rodney Franklin and Jake Young both Juniors at the forward posts. Bobby Vargas a junior will be used at a guard slot.

Lions Eke Out 53-51 Decision Over Sonora In District Contest

By Ernie Boyd

A field goal by Tomas Lopez with less than a minute remaining gave the Ozona Lions a tight 53 to 51 decision over the Sonora Broncos in Sonora last Friday night and repelled Sonora's challenge for first place in district 8-A.

For the Lions the victory was a sweet one as it ended the Lions road games for the year, allowing them to close out district play with a game with Eldorado here Friday and with Junction here next Tuesday. Any combination of a win for Ozona and a loss for Sonora or two wins for Ozona will clinch the title.

Jerry Jacobs and Jake Young led the Ozona attack with 19 to 15 points, respectively, and along with Rodney Franklin the three boys collected an amazing 42 rebounds, 16 off the offensive boards and 26 off the defensive boards. As a team the Lions collected 49 rebounds.

The Lions hit 19 of 57 shots from the floor for a 33 percent shooting average, and hit 15 of 23 free throw attempts for a 65 percent average from the free throw line.

Sonora jumped into a 4 to 0 lead early in the first quarter on two quick goals by George Johnson, but the Lions took a 7 to 6 lead on Jake Young's free throw and went on to lead at the quarter 14 to 10.

The Broncos gained slightly in the second quarter as they out-

Ozona Cage Team Is Tops In District, Yet Opponents Outscore

Ozona High School basketball team, with a record of five wins and one loss, is in top position in District 8-A standings, yet the Lions have been outscored by their opponents in the six games they have played.

This unusual situation came about by reason of the fact that four of the games won by the Lions were won by margins of two or less points while their one loss was a margin of 18 points. In the six district games played so far, the Lions have scored 282 points while their opponents scored 286.

The season record in district: Ozona 58, Menard 56. Ozona 61, Sonora 43. Ozona 39, Eldorado 37. Ozona 44, Junction 43. Ozona 27, Menard 56. Ozona 53, Sonora 51.

Should the Lions win their next two and final games, with Eldorado here Friday night, and with Junction here Tuesday night, by margins of not more than two points in each game, they could come out at the top of the heap in standings and break even with their opponents in the scoring department.

Crockett Lamb Is Reserve Champ At San Antonio Show

Penn Baggett Shows Crossbred Winner; Mark Wins 8th

A crossbred lamb fed by Penn Baggett of Ozona was judged reserve champion of the San Antonio Livestock Show and Exposition at the week-end judging at the big show.

The Ozona 4-H Club had ten lambs entered in the San Antonio show. Mark Baggett, brother of Penn, showed his finewool entry to eighth place in the show. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baggett of Ozona.

A quartet of Crockett County 4-H Club members cashed in at the auction sale following the El Paso Livestock Show last week in which Ozona entries were judged to two fourth places and two fifth places in the lamb show and a second place and fourth place in the fat calf show.

Billy Troy Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Williams of Ozona, showed his Hereford calf to second place in his class at the show and just missed by only a flicker of the judge's eye being placed in reserve champion spot. This calf sold for 80 cents a pound in the auction following the sale and netted young Williams a total of $728. Sister Jacquelyn Williams, whose Hereford calf showed to fourth place in the same class, pocketed $554 for her calf which brought 60 cents a pound in the auction.

Penn Baggett, whose heavy-weight finewool lamb was judged in fourth place in that division, raked in $280 on sale of the lamb at auction and George Bunker, Jr., whose lightweight crossbred placed fourth, realized $122.50 for the animal in the sale.

Exhibitor Award To Ozona Girl; Pierce Miller Has Champ

Pam Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempster Jones of Ozona, won the annual Silver Shears trophy as outstanding Junior Rambouillet sheep exhibitor at the San Antonio Livestock Exhibition Tuesday.

Pam amassed a total of 59 points on that many dollars won in prize money to qualify for the award given by the Leo Richardson family in honor of the memory of Leonard Richardson.

The Ozona girl exhibited the 5th place ram lamb, 4th place yearling ram, 2nd place ewe lamb, 4th place yearling ewe, 6th place yearling ewe and 1st place get-of-sire group.

Another Ozona 4-H Club member, Pierce Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miller, showed his yearling Rambouillet yearling ram to first place in his class and on to the junior champion ram of the show. Reserve champion ram was shown by Jim Cauthorn of Del Rio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cauthorn.

Jay Miller, R. J. Everett and Joe Everett were other winners in the tough San Antonio show. Crockett County Agent Pete Jacoby reported from the show scene. Jay Miller placed his yearling ewe in 3rd place and a yearling ram in 9th place. R. J. Everett showed the 3rd place ram lamb, 4th place ewe lamb, 12th place yearling ewe and 13th place yearling ram. Joe Everett showed 8th place yearling ewe and 14th place yearling ram.

There were around 100 head of Rambouillet breeding sheep in the Junior show and it was "by far the strongest Junior breeding sheep show ever held at San Antonio," Mr. Jacoby reported.

It was an old story again that Miles Pierce of Alpine, former Ozonan, showed the champion ram and champion ewe in the adult Rambouillet division. He also had reserve champion ram. His top lamb was Uno Change, and reserve champion was Ozona Altuda. His top ewe was King Altuda IV.

A TOWN'S AMBITION

Ambitious town boosters, Chamber of Commerce promotions to bring publicity and progress to the community they serve, have been part and parcel of the American way since the nation was founded. It is a healthy part of American life, in the spirit of competition, which, in the business sense, has made America the greatest nation on earth.

But most towns seek their advancement through merit. The town boosters are not only busy telling the world about their town, they are at the same time trying to tell their own people what would be best in the way of making it a more attractive, a more modern, a more appealing town to the outsider seeking a new location, and thus seeking development at home that will give them more ammunition.

The town of Iraan, across the Pecos river in Pecos county, was born of an oil discovery, the Yates field, some thirty years ago. Many people concentrated in this fantastic discovery area to work the rich deposits of oil tapped by a drilling rig, and quite naturally men with an eye to turning a dollar business-wise moved in to serve these people with the goods they needed. Iraan experienced a phenomenal and rapid growth until the oil discovery area was defined and then things leveled off and Iraan remained a stable and sound town. But then the town promoters got an idea — why not carve us out a county around our town. That would add a courthouse, a jail and other county buildings to our town and at the same time give some of our citizens fat jobs as county judge, county commissioners, sheriff and deputies, county auditor, county treasurer, county clerk, county attorney, county road superintendent and a variety of other jobs which a flush county could provide.

All that new construction, all those extra jobs — well, so what, the oil companies and the ranchers in the area would be paying the bill, it wouldn't add much to the town taxes and Iraan would be a county seat. And that would be quite an accomplishment for a town.

The plan, which was being formulated for many months, was one of West Texas' best known secrets. It was finally "released" in an Odessa paper, with the advise that their own representative, Mr. Louis Anderson of Midland, would introduce the bill in the legislature to create the new county. Mr. Anderson later denied his intent to introduce the bill and said that in his opinion there were already enough local governmental units in Texas, that he was in favor of leaving Texas counties as they now are and that if anybody else introduced such a bill he would oppose it. Which is all to Mr. Anderson's credit for political bravery and good sense and no doubt among his economy minded constituents in the balance of his territory his action will make more friends than he will lose among the ambitious Iraan town boosters.

Mr. George Reynolds, Iraan attorney and motel owner, and president of the group desiring to secede from Pecos county and chop off a hunk of Crockett county to make room for a county seat, says that if the bill is not passed at this session of the legislature, they will be back at every session in the future.

There may be enough stupid legislators in Austin some day to open the flood gates by once creating a county around an ambitious town at the expense of adjoining counties, but we doubt that it will be during the present session. But should some legislature in the future do so, every little border town in Texas will get ambitious for a county around it and every town will want to be a county seat. And the presently overburdened taxpayer will throw up his hands and move to Timbuctoo.

But for Mr. Reynolds' information, powers that be in Pecos and Crockett counties had made a few inquiries as to how the land might lie in reference to the "secret" plan, and they and future officials, no doubt, will be keeping a wary eye on Iraan and future legislatures.

RISKY BUSINESS

The President's proposed budget will provide a surplus if Administration estimates prove correct. It is believed that revenues will be somewhat larger than expenditures.

This is highly desirable, of course an unbalanced budget now would really spur inflation. At the same time, we should not forget that the anticipated surplus will be the result of an extraordinarily high level of business activity — not of any major efforts to cut costs.

There is a serious danger here, and Senator Byrd has described it in clear words: "It is risky business to depend on an increase in revenues to balance the budget. The President has pointed out that we have peak prosperity now and evidently the Administration believes the business level is going even higher. We all hope it does. But when it comes to balancing the budget it would be much safer to reduce expenditures than to depend on an increase in receipts."

Even a comparatively small decline in general business activity and income, with the adverse effect that would have on the government's tax revenues, could throw the budget far out of balance.

Mrs. R. T. Hunnicutt of Del Rio was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Early Baggett of Ozona.

Mrs. James R. Day and son, Rusty, are here for a two-weeks visit with Mrs. Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bonn, and R. L. Hatton Mr. Day, with McCollum Exploration Co., is presently assigned to work the company is doing in Canada and expects to be there for two months. Mrs. Day and Rusty will return to their home in Houston in two weeks. Rusty is a great, great grandson of R. L. Hatton of Ozona.

ance, on the red ink side. We are depending on a boom of virtually unlimited dimensions — and no man can say that such a boom will go on indefinitely.

Good times are the times in which the most determined efforts to cut government costs should be made.

UN NO "CORNERSTONE"

In an address before the Women's Forum on National Security in Washington, D. C., and attended by nearly 1,000 delegates from fourteen of the nation's largest women's patriotic organizations, National Commander Dan Daniel, of The American Legion, urged the establishment of a Middle East NATO, international control for the Suez Canal and charged that seizure of the Canal and the "entire Suez crisis" were engineered by Moscow.

Further, Commander Daniel advocated for this country a "revitalized, realistic" foreign policy that recognizes: the UN as a "tool" of that policy "and not the cornerstone"; the Middle East as a part of the Communist conspiracy; Britain and France as the major powers on whom the United States could rely in a shooting war; Western economic strength as the basis of our security; and the ineffectiveness of foreign aid, and is based on power and strength.

Having heard all our lives "how women talk", we are sure Commander could not have had a better sounding

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

By Vera Sanford
Texas Press Association

San Antonio, Texas — Possibility of making the most ambitious program in state history without new money has been put forth by Gov. Dan Daniel.

In his budget message to the Legislature Governor Daniel recommended a $32,000,000 increase in state spending during the next two years. More money would go to public school teachers' salaries, hospital salaries, state hospitals, special schools, Prison System, Railroad Commission, State Highway, Public Safety and Insurance Departments, higher education, state employees' retirement, archives building, old age pensions, aid to handicapped, state printing, water conservation, right-of-way buying, legislative salaries and a state law enforcement commission.

Financing would be on a "little here, little bit there" basis. Daniel said he felt legislators should expect some increase in the comptroller's forecast of extended revenue. He also called on the oil industry to work out its own plan to allow for increased production. This could bring the state an additional $40,000,000 the next biennium.

A 10 per cent boost in auto license fees for right-of-way buying was proposed by the governor. He also recommended studying the possibility of part of the permanent school fund to the available to finance public schools, and higher tuition to help college teachers more.

and, if after all these, still more money is needed, he proposed a 1 cent per 1,000 cubic feet on gas reserves tied up in long-term contracts.

John Q. Speaks — Most of the significant legislation is in the committee stage. Committees are required to hold public hearings at which any interested person may appear to say why for or against the bill being considered.

In the course of a session congressional measures bring hundreds, even thousands, of citizens speak their minds at committee hearings.

Recent hearings of interest concerned:

1. Cutting firemen's hours to 60 in larger cities, 63 in smaller. Firefighters Association is pushing vigorously. Cities say they can't afford it, protest state interference in local affairs.

2. Giving more legal rights to women, another bi-annual bone of contention. Many women's groups backing bills to abolish the state's separate acknowledgement of property sales and allow women to convey their separate property without husband's consent.

3. Regulating handling and sale of eggs. House committee approved a bill which would require dealers and wholesalers to "properly label" eggs. Owners of small flocks, not claiming a specific grade for their eggs, would be exempt.

4. A bill requiring the admission of reporters to precinct, county and state political conventions. Approved by Senate Committee. A "Better Government" Bill.

5. More power for the State Highway Department in condemning land for road rights. Sought the department as necessary for the stepped-up building program.

gram. Opponents call it "arbitrary," say land owners wouldn't have time to get out of the way of bulldozers.

6. Licensing and regulating bail bondsmen. Proponents say it is necessary to stop "jail running" and "fee splitting" by lawyers and bondsmen.

7. Raising Legislative salaries to $7,500 a year. Backed by Texas Jaycees, opposed by economy-minded solons and others who saw a similar constitutional amendment vetoed at the polls several years ago. House committee, nevertheless, approved.

Feed regulation stayed — Both House and Senate have passed bills updating regulation of livestock feed sales.

Differences in the proposals by Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe and Rep. Grainger McIlhenny of Wheeler will have to be adjusted. Basic aim is to require labeling as to content of feeds and closer inspection of manufacturing.

Oil situation tense — Eyes of the world will be on the Texas Railroad Commission hearing Feb. 19 to decide the March allowable.

In the background is an implied threat of federal control if state agencies and industry fail to step up production to supply Western Europe.

Texas officials were sharply critical of the Washington attitude. Governor Daniel said the President should use his authority to cut crude oil imports and reduce refinery runs. These, plus pipeline connections for independents' wells, would make it possible for Texas to export more crude oil, he said.

Announce Telephone Credit Card Plan

Long distance calls may now be made on a credit card plan.

F. T. Maxwell, district manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, explained that telephone credit cards are now available making it possible for subscribers to call from any phone to any other phone in America and have the charges made to their regular monthly bills.

He pointed out that "credit cards" help calls go through faster and easier. All you have to do is give the operator your credit card number. This eliminates the annoyance of fumbling for change or getting a pocketful before placing a long distance call if you're away from your own residence or business telephone.

As an example of credit card convenience, he cited credit card use for businessmen who must use the telephone while at a customer's office or friend's home. Credit cards save possible embarrassment of asking to use another's phone and paying for the call.

Credit cards issued by General are honored by the Bell System and the country's 4,100 independent telephone companies.

Requests for telephone credit cards should be made to the local business office.

F. H. A. NEWS

The F. H. A. girls gave a Valentine Party honoring the F. H. A. beau, Diz Reeves, Monday night. The H. E. cottage carried the Valentine theme out with red hearts hanging from the ceiling and red and white crepe paper draped across the ceiling. The president, Marilee Dale, called the party to order and called on Becky Davidson to direct some games. After the games were over, refreshments of heart cakes, sandwiches, candy, and punch were served to the girls and their guest. The F. H. A. beau was recognized and presented a decorations-heart-shaped cake with tiny pink heart. 35 boys and girls attended the party.

I WONDER WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Rod sent Nonie a valentine with "Roses are red, violets are blue, sugar is sweet, and so are you" on it!

Jimmy B. brought Wanda A. a big box of candy — and the blue one yet!

Mr. Wimberly mailed Miss Moore a big valentine signed "Your secret admirer!"

Valentines were passed out as they are in North Elementary!

Mrs. McMullan found a valentine with the verse, "Time off is good, but better with pay — take a two weeks vacation!"

Don P. gave Beverly a beautiful valentine with a sweet inscription and in turn Dix sent Diane one!

Kent forgot Valentine's Day!

George remembered it but got around it — which shows tact!

Susie went through Valentine's Day without a single valentine!

Delma failed to receive a valentine postmarked Sonora!

Secret admirers are disclosed! Something exciting.

Mr. Hatley and Mr. Sikes took the day off and went fishing!!!!

The post office suddenly cut off all mail from California!

Mr. Moody insisted on reading Valentine's Day Poems every period!

Minnie went to A&M for the day!

Jerry J. signed his valentine to a certain girl "Jake" as most of us call him!

Pie bought Lit a ten-pound box of candy!

BEHIND THE BANDSTAND

What a banquet we had! Everything was marvelous and the Band Boosters really worked giving it for us. The clinic was very good, and we all feel that we accomplished a great deal.

Let us say "Congratulations, Sweetheart Gwynne!" in this column! You are a very deserving and wonderful "sweetie".

All-State Band started yesterday in Dallas and will last through Friday. Mr. Smith, Jimmy Carroll, Durwood Wylie, Becky Davidson, and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson are making the trip. Becky and Jimmy are in the All-State Band and are looking forward to many new things profited there. We are very anxious to hear about the trip.

VALENTINE'S DAY

By Jim Barton

Most months are nice, but few as nice as February! I like February for many reasons, but most of all it is a loving month. In case you are still in the dark let me tell you, February has one day, as has no other month, just for love.

Valentine's Day as it called can mean many things, but to a person in love it means that for one day the pink cloud you are walking on turns to solid gold, and the blare of a juke box into a heavenly choir becomes a reality.

It all started when a Christian martyr back in Nero's time wrote messages of love on parchment, and as the story goes had mourning doves carry them to his friends from where he was imprisoned.

This all still holds true even though the parchment has changed to paper and the doves to the United States Mail Service. This is not the only reason that people like February either, for it is a little month, and don't big things come in little packages, or do I mean good things come in little packages? Oh well, quies sabel!

I now dedicate this article to all steadies, near steadies, and with the help of Cupid, future steadies.

THE HISTORY OF THE PURPLE AND GOLD

By June Dinger

Each day we students come in contact with many things besides teachers and classes. They are not really important items from an educational standpoint but without them our school would be next to nothing. I am talking about senior rings, the school song, our name, the Lions and school colors. The sad thing about this is that no matter how much we see or hear about them we never really stop to think how or why they are there. There really are some interesting stories behind them you know. Especially our school colors. Let me tell you about it.

It seems that back when our school was young two boys began noticing that many of the schools around here had school colors. So not wanting to be different they thought that Ozona should have some, too. Their first step was to get permission from the principal and if he agreed, some advice. "Well," he told them, "I think it's a very good idea, but since I'm not very good at picking colors so why don't you boys appoint yourselves a committee of two and pick us out some pretty ones."

Though enthusiastic over it the boys were confronted by another problem. After all, they weren't such experts on color themselves. Then they had an idea. If anybody could help them it would be Mr. Mike Couch, the man who owned the grocery store. So as soon as school was out they started over to Mike's to present their problem to him. "I'd like to help you boys," he said, "but I'm not very good at selecting colors myself, but I tell you what. There's a new Sears and Roebuck catalogue just come in and its sure to have some pretty colors in it." It sounded like a pretty good idea so they all stretched out around the stove and began thumbing through the pages. Page and page went by and they still hadn't found any they liked. Then they saw it. A beautiful purple dress of the latest fashion with little flakes of gold here and there on it. This was just what they wanted. They thanked Mike very much for his help and started off to show them to their principal. He liked them very much too so purple and gold it was, and purple and gold it is now. Its really very interesting if you think about it. That the colors that are woven into our banners, seen at football dances, and worn by every athletic team representing Ozona High, really found its way into our school by way of a Sears and Roebuck catalogue.

F. F. A. NEWS

The Agriculture Student at Ozona High School are busy this week getting ready for the F. F. A. Commercial Lamb show to be Saturday morning at the agricultural building. The show will begin at 9:15 a. m. with the showing of 111 lambs that the boys have fed during this school term as part of their school class work. Several nice awards will be presented to the winners of each division. There will be an award given to the best lamb weight gains during the season. Also, to the best junior champion, and the best junior champion. There will be given to the best fitted fine wool lamb and the best fitted crested lamb. All ribbons and awards will be presented to the boys by Wanda Armstrong the champion sweetheart.

A benefit barbecue will be served at 12:00 o'clock noon. All the students are especially invited to attend the F. F. A. Commercial Lamb show and barbecue.

I think it is only right for me to give a few warnings to the students of O. H. S. this week. As I've walked down these halls recently I've noticed a little map running around shooting arrows madly! Now, if you happen to be one of his victims, don't get excited, the same thing has been happening in this school since Valentine's Day and Mr. Cupid began! Isn't that right, some of you parents? But, love is a fickle thing (so I was informed by some of our students and teachers), and it might be wise to run from Mr. Cupid's arrows and this springtime feeling of "When a young man's fancy turns to — well, you know!" So I've been advocating all week that it would be so much better if we'd all just quit having Valentine's Day and live a life of solitude! The only trouble is that when I told everyone this, they only laughed and said, "The harder one runs, the faster the arrows fly!" I guess they're right though so I'm going to join them and I'm off to buy a stog of Valentines!!

Report to the People

In addition to charging the United States a huge fee for establishing a defense outpost in the form of an airfield in Saudi Arabia, King Saud has placed other restrictions on us with relation to operating the base. Examples: No men of Jewish faith may be stationed there; no Catholic Mass may be held. In a recent hearing before a Congressional Committee, King Saud's representative, in answer to a direct question as to what would happen of "A Baptist, or any Protestant, or any member of the Christian faith" went into his country to seek converts, said: "I'm afraid he would be in trouble". One of the Committee members said: "Do you mean he would be locked up?" With a smile, Saud's representative said: "I'm afraid so."

Slavery, with persons in human bondage actually being bought and sold, still exists in King Saud's country. All Government monies are considered the property of the King, who recently bought 80 jeweled Cadillacs, at a cost of $2 million dollars, for his personal use. He had earlier bought 50 Cadillacs and has use of 200 miles of paved road in his country. However, if anyone tries to take over Saudi Arabia, American boys are now committed to protect this "freedom loving" territory of King Saud. In the event of trouble, Saud will have to ease some of his restrictions on the type of movement in by the United States, or expect a small combat force, since "combat ready" Muslims in our Army are extremely limited.

Treasury Secretary Humphrey, who received wide acclaim for his public statement that the national budget could and should be cut, and who made statements to the contrary before the House Appropriations Committee without getting much publicity, was of little help to the Committee members as they asked him where to start applying the knife to Government expenditures. The most Humphrey would say was that "some departments" should attempt to hold their spending levels down. I looked into Humphrey's own requests, to see how he has "practiced what he preached" and found some revealing figures. Treasury asked for 7 billion, 715 million, 986 thousand dollars in 1956, upped it to eight billion, 003 million, 243 thousand for 1957, and now requests 8 billion, 154 million, thirty-seven thousand dollars for 1958. The Secretary should remember that economy like charity, begins at home.

After Mrs. Charles Wilson, wife of the Secretary of Defense, took public issue with President Eisenhower's statements criticizing her husband, a reporter asked Texas Congressman Paul Kilday, a member of the Armed Services Committee, what he thought of the public "row". Kilday answered: "The President should know you can't win an argument with a woman." The reporter then asked: "May I quote you?" Replied Kilday: "I don't know . . . you'll have to ask my wife."

At a Banquet in Washington a few nights ago, a Kansas City man told me of a recent speech by a touring Frenchman, who represents the Veterans Organizations of France. Speaking to a similar group in Kansas City, the guest made a statement, which I believe you will find interesting, as follows:

"There is growing sentiment in the United States against countries and individuals who receive your foreign aid, and this can be understood due to the burden your tax-payers must shoulder. Your budget of 72 billion dollars would be fantastic in my country, but if you spent the entire amount on foreign aid, you could not, in many nations, raise the standard of living one percent.

"Foreign aid is not the answer. We would like to know, simply, where your Government stands. For instance, the U. S. encouraged and pressured Great Britain to get out of the Middle East, and this brought Nassar to power. England and France, original signers of the Suez pact, feeling they had a great investment and interest in the Canal, sent troops to protect their interests and were told by your country to get out. Now, the U. S. has turned around and voted to send its own troops into the same area, if the President thinks it necessary. No, keep your foreign aid, and just tell us where you stand."

The man emphasized that he did not represent the Government of France, but was giving "one man's opinion" as he found it among many of his countrymen.

Lions Win —

scored the Lions 17 to 15 to leave the Lions leading 31 to 20 at the half.

With Johnson and Ratliff hitting well, the Broncos pulled into the lead midway of the third period going ahead on Johnson's shot which brought the score to 39 to 37 in favor of Sonora.

The Broncos lead was short lived, however, as Jerry Jacobs hit a beautiful jump shot even though he was covered by three men, and Jake Young shot a perfect set from about 20 feet to recapture the lead.

The Lions were hurt by excessive fouling as starter Stan Williams was waved to the bench in the first half with five fouls and Rod Franklin joined him there with four minutes left in the fourth quarter and the Lions ahead by four points.

The Lions missed a chance to sew up the contest a minute later when a technical foul was called on Sonora following a two shot foul committed against Bobby Sutton.

Sutton missed both of the shots and then called on Jake Young who hit his seventh shot in seven tries for the night.

The Broncos, with Ratliff hitting three free throws and Johnson one field goal, quickly tied up the score at 49 to 49 but Tomas Lopez hit a field goal to send the Lions ahead again. Johnson came right back to score but so did Lopez and that was the ball game.

In the B game the Ozona B crushed the Sonora team 45 to 8. Ozona's freshmen played the half of the contest and held Sonora scoreless. Johnny Jones and Ronnie Paulk led the Ozona attack which sputtered quite a bit at the start but was never in any real trouble.
