DEATH OF A NATION?

The Communists have found the way to conquer the United States, and while a lethargic people sit back and let the bloodless revolution go on without lifting a finger, their aims are gradually being accomplished and someday some of these people will wonder but will never know how it was accomplished.

First, there was the softening up — the government hand-out to its own people which produced a generation who looked to the government for their security — from the cradle to the grave.

Next was the ever more crushing weight of taxation to support an ever expanding big government, whose operations more and more extended into the fields of private enterprise to stifle and cripple the system under which America has grown great, and a worldwide give-away of taxpayers' dollars.

Fitting into the pattern were the laws which made a monopoly of labor for the unions and union bosses and created in this country the strange sight of a dictator of millions, protected under the law but responsible to nobody, not to their own people nor even to the government.

Communists in our government looked over shoulders as the United Nations charter was framed and this iniquitous organization was planted on American soil. Tiny streams of information leaked down the river, the Atomic secrets, that made their way to Moscow, the pull-back of American forces in mid-Europe at the end of World War II to create the impossible stalemate of Western and Russian occupation of that unhappy land, and, meanwhile the American communists became bolder.

Feeble voices like those of Martin Dies and Joseph R. McCarthy were raised and "red herring" talk came from the top man in the White House. These feeble protestants were promptly crucified as shallow thinkers in this nation responded to the "red herring" and "McCarthyism" brands burned by the Daily Worker.

The Supreme Court packing begun by Roosevelt to turn judicial interpretation from the letter of the law and constitution to the new sociological concept has persisted through two other presidents until the recent string of weird decisions by the presently constituted Supreme Court have aided the communist strategy and forecast its ultimate success. Mongrelization of the race was decreed in the desegregation ruling and the ultimate emasculation of the United States as a world power should its full effect be accepted by the people.

And, now, the last defense of the people against the communists in this country was stricken with the latest decision freeing outright five of fourteen California communist leaders convicted under the Smith Act and granting new trials to the other nine, contending that mere "preaching abstractly" the forcible overthrow of the government is no crime under the 1940 Anti-Communist Act. The court held that advocacy of the forcible overthrow of the government was all right as an abstract doctrine so long as there was not advocacy of action to that end. At the same time the court struck down the contempt of Congress conviction of a union official on the ground that the Un-American Activities Subcommittee of the House had dealt unfairly with him.

These and the other recent decisions of the high court must have created in the hearts of men who love this America of ours a deep feeling of sorrow — sorrow at the murder and rape of this great nation we have known, sorrow that men who have known its blessings should use its very system of freedoms to tear it apart for a foreign ideology. May God rest the restless Spirit of 1776.

A CHANGE IN THE POLIO PICTURE

With the introduction of the Salk vaccine the polio picture in this country has undergone a radical change. Since this change has a bearing on the health of your entire family, you ought to know about it.

Here's what has happened in the past few years:

Children from five to nine years old used to be one of the largest group of victims. In 1952 they accounted for 24 per cent of all paralytic cases. By now most of these school youngsters have been vaccinated and the proportion of cases among them is declining. In 1956 it dropped to 16 per cent of all cases. That's the bright side of the polio picture.

Of course, with a decline in one age group, there has been a corresponding rise in percentages among other age groups not yet protected by Salk vaccine.

Take pre-school youngsters under five years old, for instance. In 1952 they comprised 29 per cent of paralytic cases. In 1956 the proportion had climbed to 39 per cent. Infants one and two years old had the highest percentage of all. That's why polio authorities like the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis urge that they be first on the vaccination list.

The next most vulnerable group in the new polio picture are teenagers and young adults from 15 to 40 years. In 1952 they comprised 23 per cent of paralytic cases. In 1956 the percentage was 34 per cent. Since polio paralysis is especially disastrous to wage earners in a family, they need protection urgently.

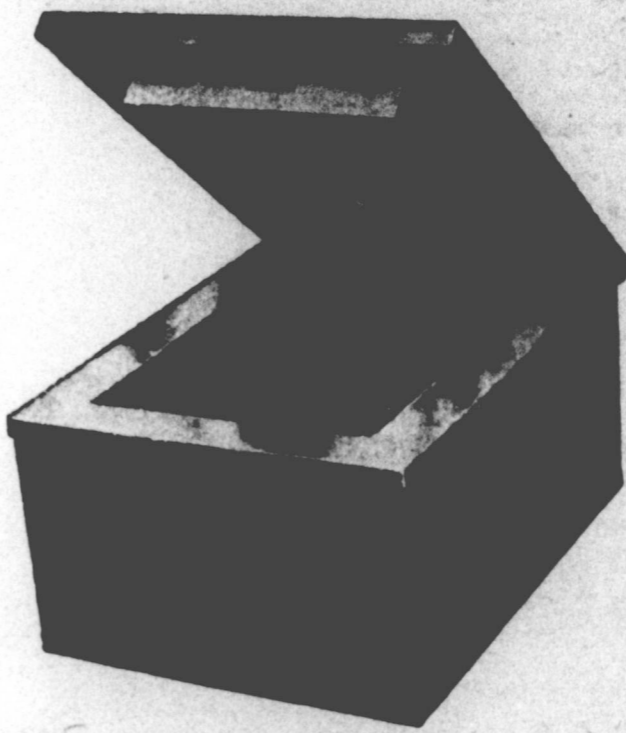

Think these figures over. If your school-age children have been vaccinated, that's fine. But don't forget the other members under 40 in your family, starting with the baby.

AND KHRUSHCHEV LAUGHS After what has been generally regarded as a three-and-a-half day speaking in Washington, Secretary of Peace Harold Stassen has returned to London and the Disarmament Conference which, he says, "making slow and careful progress."

It seems to be the attitude of Secretary of State Dulles, however, that while it may be "slow", it has been exactly "careful" so far as Mr. Stassen's cozy little chats with the Russian delegates are concerned.

The near-cabinet officer denied, as he took off from Washington airport, that he had been reprimanded, but admitted he was going back with new instructions. More disturbing is the fact that they let him go back.

BAD BUSINESS

After what you might call a Five Year Plan of throat-slitting, in which Mao Tse-tung admits 800,000 of his countrymen were "liquidated", Red China has now "substituted persuasion and education." But how long this sweetness and light can prevail is rather uncertain since Mao has also said China's population must be stabilized at its present level of about 600 million. And the population increase is reported at 18 to 16 millions a year! Perhaps the Oriental Stalin can "persuade" or "educate" that many of his devoted followers to cut their own throats annually.

A spokesman for Nationalist China has reported to the UN that Mao actually slaughtered 15 mil-tion, Chinese, but, since either figure represents more dead bodies than any civilized mind can comprehend, perhaps it makes little difference. What is more important today is that this is the "nation" with whom Britain has chosen to do business in defiance of allied embargo agreements, with Japan and various European nations expected to follow suit. That the American people will be softened up to accept trade with Red-China seemed implicit in President Eisenhower's recent expressions of sympathy with the idea. Once over the trade hurdle, the one-worlders had disciples of "coexistence" will press for UN membership for Mao — finally for US diplomatic recognition.

But there is a constructive alternative course. Britain, Japan and the low-wage countries, which are now drooling expectantly for Red China trade, have long threatened our own industries with goods dumped here under the ruinous GATT agreements. Let us simply cut off these agreements with each nation that chooses to play the Communist game.

We shall need to rebuild our own industrial strength — while Britain and the rest contribute to the power of Red China.

From State Capitol

Austin, Texas — It's vacation time in Texas. During the next three months millions of people will stream to every corner of the state in search of relaxation.

But a lot of home folks will stay home. They make a living catering to the tourists. Vacationing is big business in Texas. And it promises to get bigger.

Last year nearly 8 1/2 million out-of-staters visited Texas — only 12 per cent on business. They spent $350,000,000 for food, lodging, gasoline and entertainment.

Next year voters will decide whether to try to hustle in even more visitors and money through nationwide advertising. A proposed constitutional amendment to remove the ban on spending state funds for advertising was passed by the last Legislature. It will come to a vote at the November, 1958, general election.

Year's Water Supply — Without another drop of rain, Texas' 35 major reservoirs now have enough water stored to last a year.

Heavy spring rains poured 6 million acre feet of water into the reservoirs filling them to 92 per cent capacity, reports the State Board of Water Engineers.

Storage is about twice that of a year ago.

Flood Survey Sought — But the unprecedented rains brought problems. State Water Board wants money to make an emergency survey of what the floods did with a view to learning how to prevent future destruction.

Both the Board and Gov. Price Daniel requested an appropriation for this from the last Legislature. But it didn't go through, so now the Board has asked donations from the state's five water districts and river authorities.

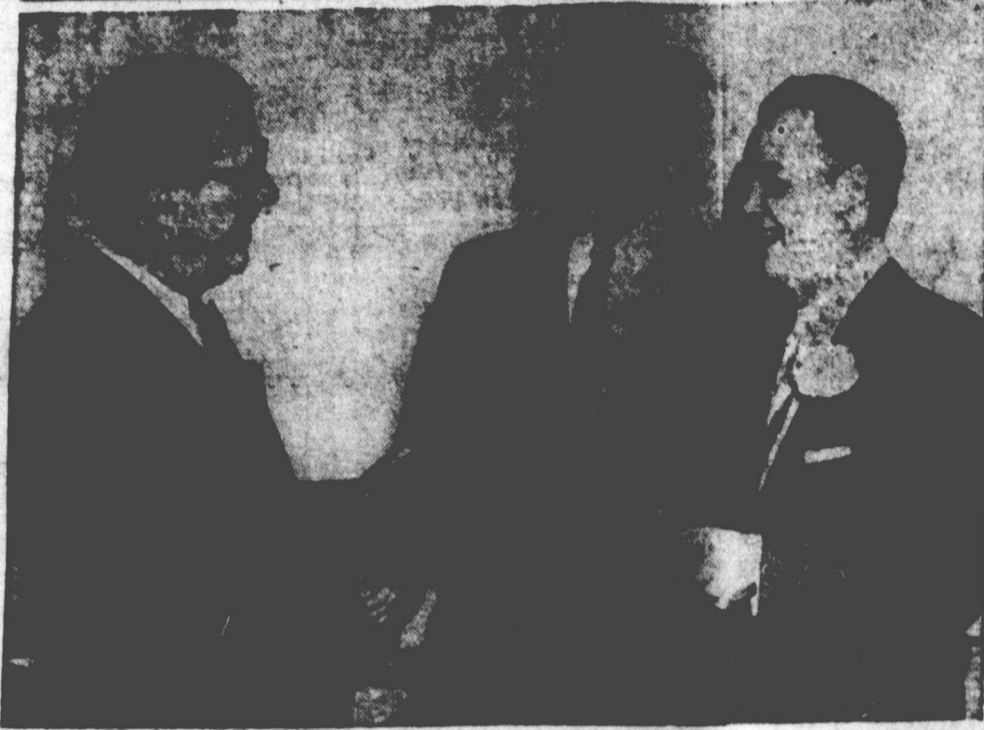

It wants several thousand dollars from each totaling $17,000.

New Insurance Commission — A district judge, a federal Justice Department attorney and a former commission member will take over reins of the reorganized Board of Insurance July 1.

As chairman for the new board Gov. Price Daniel appointed Dist. Judge Penn J. Jackson of Cleburne. Serving on the bench since 1944, Judge Jackson is former president of the State Bar of Texas judicial section.

Other new member will be David B. Irons of Fort Worth, former assistant attorney general under Daniel, now with the Justice Department in Washington. Joe P. Gibbs of Seguin, retired board member who returned last spring

Agency Honored for Best Newspaper Ads

The American Newspaper Publishers Association has selected Cadillac Motor Car Division as "Advertiser of the Year" for its outstanding and continuous newspaper campaign. Trophies were awarded both to Cadillac and to its advertising agency, MacManus, John & Adams, Inc., of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Here, proudly displaying their prize, are (l. to r.) W. A. P. John, a director of MJA, Charles F. Adams, vice president and Cadillac account supervisor, and Ernest A. Jones, agency president.

at the governor's request, fills out the new board.

An acting commissioner of insurance is to be named by the board to serve until Sept. 1 when legislation for a permanent commissioner takes effect. He will receive $20,000 a year, and be charged with administration of the department.

Present board members John Osorio and Mark Wentz will continue to serve until the new appointees take office.

Goodbye To Chips — Texas gambling has got to go, says Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. An all-out effort to shut down the multi-million-dollar empire in Galveston was called just the beginning.

Wilson and Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr., cooperated in planning a massive raid on Galveston's illegal establishments. But the gamblers got word, closed up and cleared out ahead of the raid.

Wilson's staff followed up by filling padlock suits — boxes full of them — to try to prevent the places from re-opening. Wilson and Garrison said they would follow the same pattern in other areas. First, local officials will be called on to suppress gambling and state cooperation offered. But, said Wilson, "If local officials fail to do this job, we will do it from the state level."

Gov. Daniel gave his full backing to the crackdown, hailed it as the "beginning of a new era in law enforcement."

More Science For Teens — More study, with emphasis on science, will be required of future high school graduates.

New standards set up by the State Board of Education direct that:

1. Graduates complete 16 units of study, rather than present 15, including two years of laboratory science.

2. Physical education cannot be counted in compiling the units.

3. Not more than one class period of the day may be used for competitive activities.

New rules will take effect during the 1959-60 school year, but are to be applied to sixth graders next fall.

Forty years ago, in June of 1917, the Humble Company received its charter from the State of Texas.

The Company was formed through a merger of the properties of a number of independent oil operators. Its founding brought together a remarkable group of men who occupy an important place in the annals of the oil industry:

R. S. Sterling and his brother, F. P. Sterling, the principal organizers of Humble Oil Company from which the present company acquired its name; W. S. Farish and R. L. Blesser composing Blesser and Farish; H. C. Wiess with assets from Paraffine and Reliance Oil Companies; Walter W. Fondron and C. B. Goddard, producers; and L. A. Carlson and E. E. Townes as lawyers.

All of these men contributed greatly in adopting the principles, in shaping the policies, and in laying out procedures that have guided the Company's progress through these forty years. Their influence will survive as long as the Company continues.

They possessed courage and business judgment. They established high standards of performance. They built a strong organization of competent men and women.

The Company, as it stands today, is a tribute to the leadership, the vision, and the work of its founders.

But it is doubtful that these men, with all their foresight, visualized the changes that have occurred in the oil industry since 1917, or the size and complexity of Humble's present operations, or the extent of the Company's contributions through the years to the progress of our society.

To all who have made those contributions possible—employees, customers, shareholders and the people of the states in which the Company operates—Humble extends its thanks.

o-o-o

The Legislative Stream in the 85th Congress has been clogged thus far by budget problems. Now that the House has acted on most of the items asked for in the budget, the way is being cleared for the flow of the legislative measures.

During the time the House was going into the budget matters, the various Committees held hearings and stacked up a great deal of legislation for Floor action. While the Senate now turns to budget considerations, the House will have an opportunity to begin work on the legislation cleared by Committees.

No Matter Whether A bill is of major or minor nature, as viewed from its Nationwide aspects, someone or some group of persons is vitally interested in it. Authors of legislation (and more than 9,000 bills have been introduced in the House alone to date) are often told by people supporting certain bills that the bill in which they are interested "is emergency legislation, and must be enacted without delay."

Fact of the matter is, many of these so-called "emergency" measures do not deserve to be so classified, but there was one bill considered in the House Interior Committee, of which I am a member, that did seem to qualify.

Owners of a cemetery in South Dakota need to expand, and the land that is adjacent to the cemetery is Government-owned. Therefore, the owners came to the Interior Committee, which has to do with public lands among other items, to ask for legislation permitting them to purchase portions of the Government tract. During the testimony, one of the Congressmen asked — "Is this bill emergency legislation?"

"I suppose you might say so", the cemetery owner said. "As a matter of fact, we have several bodies in cold storage awaiting burial until we are able to secure the additional land." The startled Committee members shuddered and voted to proceed with the legislation "with all haste and dispatch."

Once Again the Republicans and Democrats played baseball. Baseball lost. For a number of years now, Congressional Republicans and Democrats have played an annual game in big-league Griffith Stadium. The proceeds go to charity, and everyone pays to get in, including the players and managers.

The Democrats won for several years, but had suffered two straight losses going into this year's game. But they came from eight runs behind to win, 10 to 9.

From a professional standpoint, the game leaves something to be desired. For instance, this year a batter struck out on a wild pitch; a batter fell down unassisted while running out a perfect bunt, and after several ineffectual push-ups, staggered to first while the infield kicked the ball around; a third baseman fell over a photographer while trying to catch a pop fly; a runner stole second and took time out while a doctor with stethoscope checked his ability to continue playing. Outfielders raced away from easy fly balls, relays from the outfield changed hands four times before reaching second, and one man had such a tough time a newspaper man wrote that the player "failed to drop the ball for the first time" when going after his sixth fielding chance. After all the fun, good spirit and sportsmanship, a lot of kids will have a much happier summer at camp with the money raised from the ticket sale. And druggists in the Washington area "made a killing" on liniment sales the next day.

At This Writing, the so-called Civil Rights legislation had been debated in the House for some four days, and prospects were for two or three more days of the same.

Opponents of the bill contend, and some proponents admit, that while the purpose of the bill is supposedly for the enforcement of rights guaranteed in the Constitution it falls far short of that high-sounding goal and is, primarily, based on political appeal to minority groups for votes rather than on sincerity of purpose with hopes of real accomplishment. The Civil Rights bill digresses from normal legal proceedings in that actions may be taken against citizens without their having the Constitutionally-guaranteed trial by jury so precious to Americans. Most of the debate has centered around this point.

It appears the bill will pass in the House, in spite of strong, well organized opposition. However, the outlook in the Senate, where rules provide for unlimited debate not afforded in the House, makes it appear the measure will not pass that body.

The measure monopolized the entire House agenda during the past week. We should begin to get a little legislative variety in our Capitol Hill diets next week.

Livestock Receipts Moderate Monday

FORT WORTH — The movement of livestock to market at Fort Worth, and all around the major marketing circle, was of only moderate proportions. All species were in smaller numbers than last week, and well behind a year earlier.

Preoccupation of farmers with field work was given a major part of the credit for the moderate movement.

Cattle Trade Again Active And Strong, Demand Broad

Out-of-state demand for both stocker and slaughter cattle and calves enabled trade at Fort Worth to get away to favorable opening session Monday. The prices were fully steady.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $20 to $23.50, while common and medium slaughter kinds from $12 to $19. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $21.50 down, and feeder heifers sold from $20 downward.

Good and choice stocker steer calves cashed at $20 to $24, and heifer calves ranged mostly from $21 down. Good and choice slaughter calves cashed at $19 to $22, and cull, common and medium sorts sold from $10 to $19.

Fat cows from $13 to $15.50, and canners and cutters cashed at $9 to $13. Stocker cows drew $10 to $14. Bulls sold from $11 to $15.75.

Quality Off, Prices Firm On Sheep And Lambs

Trade was active and prices were fully steady at Fort Worth Monday in the sheep yards. The run included relatively small numbers of choice grades, and a good many of the lambs showed excessive fills due to the high temperature. Good and choice slaughter Spring lambs sold from $20 to $21.50, common and medium slaughter kinds sold from $14 to $19. Good grade feeder Spring lambs sold from $18 down.

Good and choice shorn slaughter lambs cashed at $16 to $18 and cull to medium shorn lambs sold from $10 to $15. Stocker shorn ewe lambs cashed at $18.50 downward. Slaughter ewes sold from $6 to $7. Two-year-olds were reported from $10 to $15, and aged wethers sold from $10 to $13. Old Luicks sold around $5 to $5.50.

The full sleeves were three quarter length. Her halo crown was of ice blue velvet with a circular maline veil. She carried a bride's bouquet of white carnations centered with a white purple throated orchid and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Rosalyn Walley was attired in a blue embroidered organza model with a bouffant skirt, her headdress was a crown of blue maline trimmed with matching roses. Her flowers were a nosegay of pink carnations.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Piner, Sr., Ozona, Texas, Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Walley, Miss Rosalyn Walley, Mrs. V. D. Townsend of Jackson, Mississippi; Ray Piner, Jr., of Big Springs, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, Larry and Chris Davis of Snyder, Texas.

Mrs. Piner is a member of the senior class of the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Piner was a member of the 1957 graduating class of North Texas State College where he was a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity and of the Management Club. He is in training in officer school of the U. S. Naval Air Force at Pensacola, Fla.
