France To Protest Priest Expulsion

Withdrawal Of Troops Is Also Refused

Priest Expelled For His 'Demonstrations' Against Italy

PARIS, May 21. (AP)—Joseph Paul-Boncour, acting foreign minister, declared tonight that Italy's expulsion of a French priest from Ethiopia was "unacceptable," and an authoritative source said France would protest vigorously.

The sudden development of the Franco-Italian situation followed the French refusal to withdraw colonial troops from Direndwa, strategic center on the railroad from Addis Ababa to the sea.

Cause of Monsignor Andre Jarosseau, leader of the Roman Catholic missions in Ethiopia, aroused intense official interest.

The prelate was ordered out on charges of having made "hostile demonstrations against Italy."

Withdrawal of colonial troops would be tantamount to recognition of the Italian regime in Ethiopia.

Authoritative London reports said that British and French were in consultation after Italian "hints" that guards in Addis Ababa would be withdrawn.

The impression was gained that the Italians considered themselves in control of the situation and able to protect foreigners.

Knott Pupils Start Series Of Centennial Year School Tours

Knott students Wednesday started a series of school tours which will feature the summer activities of Howard county schools during the Centennial year.

Twenty-three pupils and teachers from the school left Wednesday afternoon for Austin and San Antonio with Miss Floy McGregor, principal, in charge.

The party plans to be gone for approximately a week and will touch on points of historic interest in south and central Texas before returning home.

By far the most pretentious of all the trips is that of Foran which will probably start around June 6. An annual affair, the trip will include thousands of miles over the mountain country to the upper-western coast, back through California, and to national parks along the way.

Highway school is holding a play at the school Friday evening, the proceeds of which will go toward financing a trip for high school students to the Centennial. The fund already had more than $50 in it.

Death Penalty Is Given Abston For Slaying Spinster

Companion To Go On Trial For Crime Today

HASKELL, May 21. (AP)—Clarence Abston was assessed the death penalty here today for the slaying of Rebecca Coursey, aged spinster, on May 8. It was the first death sentence given in Haskell county.

The case was given to the jury shortly before 4 p. m. Wednesday after four hours of attorney's arguments.

Judge Dennis P. Ratliff read the jury a lengthy charge before it retired. He asked the body to give consideration to Abston's testimony that a statement he made regarding the case was given under duress, and to consider the most damaging evidence against the defendant was that of an accused accomplice.

He had reference to C. Matura, also charged with murder in the woman's death, chief witness in the trial. He implicated Abston in the brutal beating which left Miss Coursey unconscious and mortally hurt on the floor of her little house.

Miss Coursey remained alive for 10 days after the beating but never recovered sufficiently to name her attacker.

Matura, 65 year-old farmer who has admitted to the beating of Miss Coursey, with an iron hammer the night of May 6, was scheduled to go to trial here Thursday. W. H. Jurichson, Jr., and Bill Ratliff, defense attorneys, are expected to ask for a change of venue.

Townsend Denies Mails Used To Defraud Patrons

WASHINGTON, May 21. (AP)—The assertion, immediately denied, that the Townsend pension organization used the mails to defraud was made today before the house investigating committee.

James R. Sullivan, committee counsel, declared that $11,490 was raised for a "congressional fund" through an appeal to Townsend clubs sent through the mails in the form of "Townsendgrams."

Dr. F. E. Townsend, founder of the movement, denied knowledge of the appeal "until after it was out."

He added he did not believe that the mails were "used to defraud." Sullivan said that on a prior "Townsendgram" appeal, the organization raised $23,490 to defray expenses of seven men brought to Washington January of last year to draft the McGroarty bill, embodying the form of the Townsend plan and to urge its passage.

Irritated by sharp questioning regarding his knowledge of the Townsend old age pension movement, the founder snapped back at the house investigating committee Wednesday with a blunt, "Oh, why all this nonsense?"

Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich) shot back: "As a matter of fact you don't know much about the Townsend movement except the collection of money, do you?"

Dr. Townsend retorted that he refused to answer a question of that kind.

During questioning Wednesday he readily admitted that the Townsend club members had contributed "in the neighborhood of a million dollars since the inception of the movement."

Asked what the contributors got in return for their investment, Dr. Townsend said that "they got exactly what they paid for."

To reporters he boldly predicted that congress would have at least 200 house members pledged to his plan and boasted that "we will sweep the country west of the Mississippi. He contemplated no third party alliance at this time."

Thomas Blanton, veteran congressman from Abilene (Tex) was branded as "our worst enemy" in a letter from Frank Peterson a Townsend press agent, to Dr. Frank Dyer, Townsend west coast organizer. The letter recommended organizing clubs in his district and circulation of a petition calling for his resignation.

"We should," said the letter, "if possible, have his district organized 100 per cent with Townsend clubs and should start a petition in his district asking him to resign. If we can get from 80 to 90 per cent of his constituents to sign such a petition, and have another congressman present on the house floor, it should be a highly effective and spectacular thing to do. It would have a very chastening effect upon the other congressmen."

Proposal To Raise Income Rate Beaten

Harrison Estimates Bill To Raise Half Million Dollars

WASHINGTON, May 21. (UP)—The senate finance committee today agreed on a compromise plan for increasing corporation taxes but scuttled the proposal, at the loss of considerable revenue, for boosting the normal income tax rate.

The compromise calls for a flat 15 per cent tax on corporation income, seven per cent tax for corporations making no more than $20,000 yearly.

Chairman Harrison said the compromise would raise "somewhere over $500,000,000," adding that the treasury had been asked to submit the exact estimates to be yielded.

He indicated the measure will fall permanently short of the $625,000,000 permanent revenue. President Roosevelt sought to meet the cost of the farm program and the soldiers' bonus.

Senator Harrison said the committee had made "very good progress" and he expected it to be able to report out the bill early next week.

Previously in its first real action, designed to get past the less troublesome aspects of the measure and clear the way for the scrap over corporation taxes, the committee approved the house provision for an 80 per cent tax on persons or firms "unjustly enriched" by non-payment of the old AAA processing taxes. But details were so altered as to ease up the tax to some degree.

Other modifications also were offered on for sections dealing with refunds or taxes on floor stocks on hand when the AAA was held invalid, and, tentatively, for provision for taxing foreigners.

The latter included an amendment by which non-resident aliens of Mexico or Canada, not engaged in business or trade or having offices or places of business in this country, would be given a five instead of a 10 per cent tax, withheld at the source, on income derived from American sources.

Similarly, for such aliens as do have places of business or are engaged in business in the United States, who would be taxed like Americans, a $400 credit would be allowed for dependents.

The highest estimate from the treasury was on an arrangement for a 30 per cent corporation tax with a credit against taxable income of 50 per cent of the amount distributed as dividends. This plan also would repeal excess profits and capital stock taxes and apply the normal income tax to dividends.

The average individual was vitally interested in the committee's action in refusing to hike the income tax rate from four per cent to five per cent.

Many Sports Traced From Chance Origin

Historical Research Made By University Of Michigan

By HENRY SUPER United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—A few facts from "Sports for Recreation," a highly informative athletic treatise prepared by the University of Michigan intramural sports department:

Archery is one of the oldest of sports, yet one of the most popular of its type in modern times. It is one sport that had its inception as a means of self-preservation rather than amusement.

Baseball, originated in 1839, was on the upswing as a national sport until the start of the Civil War, then interest was expected to decline when the young men were called to war.

Games Started By Chance Here's how indoor baseball started: One Thanksgiving day, a group of men were assembled in a gymnasium and, just for fun, one of them threw a boxing glove which was struck with a broom by another in the group.

Lacrosse is the oldest native American game. The American Indians originated it, and next to war, the game was their chief interest.

King Canby Bowler Charles I. St. Francis Drake and the entire Stuart family were capable bowlers. The Greeks were the first to use boxing gloves—long, thin things wound around the hand.

When he first saw Louis work out in a gymnasium, Bronson pronounced him a great fighter.

Rhythm Is Secret Of Joe Louis' Power

Experts Study Brown Bomber

NEW YORK, May 21—"Rhythm!" That's what James Bronson says is the secret of Joe Louis' punching power.

Bronson, familiarly known to boxing circles as "Bow-tie Jimmy," because of his penchant for neckties tied in neat little bows, has been following the manly art for 30 years or more.

He is originally out of Joplin, Mo., but has made his home in New York a long time.

When he first saw Louis work out in a gymnasium, Bronson pronounced him a great fighter.

"When I say that the secret of his punching power is rhythm, I mean just that," Bronson says. "I mean that all his muscles, and his faculties are in perfect tune. He is like a perfectly adjusted orchestra, if you'll permit me to go a little far afield for a comparison."

"He has an amazing sense of timing, like a musician. He never hits a false note. I've seen many good punchers who couldn't make their punches effective because they lacked the sense of rhythm, of timing. Joe's got it."

"What about Tunney?" we asked. Jimmy Bronson was Gene's chief second in his two fights with Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship.

"Well," Jimmy said, "Tunney was an extremely smart boxer, but he didn't have Louis' sense of rhythm. Gene applied a fine intelligence to the boxing game, and learned about all that any man could possibly learn about it, but he was more mechanical in some respects than Louis. He wasn't as smooth, he wasn't as rhythmic."

Now, if They Had Met "Tunney and Louis would have made a great fight. Louis is a harder puncher than Gene, perhaps, but I doubt that he is as good a boxer. He would have had a tough time hitting Gene with any effect. Gene rose to the title by infinite study of his business and by hard work. He was seven long years getting there, and a man doesn't go to school that long without learning something."

"Louis has never yet met an opponent even close to Tunney in the matter of boxing class. Tunney knew all the answers. He was a game fellow, as he proved time and again in the ring. I don't want to get into an argument that can never be settled, but it's my private opinion that Tunney's style was the style to beat Louis, and that isn't taking a thing from Joe. He's a great fighter. He's like music. He's got rhythm!"

"I don't say Louis wouldn't be a good fighter even if he was an awkward fellow. He has a lot of natural assets that would make him a good fighter in any event. James J. Jeffries was an awkward chap in many respects, but he was a great fighter, none the less. Tom Sharkey was awkward, but good."

The Visible Foe "Terry McGovern, a great puncher among the little fellows years ago, wasn't especially graceful, but I guess anybody in my business would like to have a McGovern now. Old Fitz was shambling and awkward. Berinbach, a terrific puncher, lacked grace. It didn't keep him from being a champion of the world."

"But with everything else in the world, Joe Louis also has rhythm, and that's why he is a great puncher, because it tells him when to punch and where. After all, a fellow might be the greatest puncher in all history, but we wouldn't know it if we couldn't see the result of his punching, would we?"

SCOTCH FOURSOME MATCHES AT COUNTRY CLUB SUNDAY

Chas. Worley, who took over the management of the Big Spring Country club this week, has not wanted any time in starting a general clean-up campaign around the course.

Worley has ordered sand for work on the greens, and expects to have the dust screened out and the greens in top shape for the women's invitation tournament starting early in June.

Some novel golf events will be played every Sunday afternoon. Scotch foursomes are scheduled for this week, play starting at 1:30 Sunday afternoon.

Local feminine golfers will also start safe Sunday at Calcutta Pool tickets for their tournament.

Golfers Make Race Track Changes Made

INDIANAPOLIS, May 20 (AP)—They're trying to make this year's 500-mile automobile race the safest of them all and at the same time keep the thrills.

It looks as though the racing authorities might succeed, for the safer the track, and the better the equipment, the faster the helmeted madmen will go.

The record for the May 30 classic is 106.240 miles per hour, made by Kelly Pettin, the California Italian-American, last year. He will be back for more this May-end.

Since the running of the last race, the old 3.1-3 mile course of brick has had its faced lifted and its curves modified to meet modern demands.

The sharp uplifts in the curves at the top of the track have been smoothed down, new walls have been built to prevent so many of the boys from dashing over them.

An inner track, almost as wide as the race course, has been built around the turns, providing havens of safety for the pilot, whose car goes into a spin or gets out of control. It is of gravel construction.

Drivers' "License" Tests Not content with those changes, racing authorities have put a stop to sophomore drivers risking their own and others' lives on the treacherous track.

The newcomer will not be permitted to drive his racer faster than 20 miles an hour for the first 25 miles. For the next 10 he must not go faster than 25, and from then on, by 10-lap jumps, he will be required to gradually work up to 110 miles an hour.

A committee of veteran drivers, meanwhile, will watch the driving performance, and if, in its judgment, the man does not have the stuff it takes in a 500-mile race, he will be turned down.

Still another safety measure has been taken. All equipment, such as steering connections, and other vital moving parts, must be examined by X-ray for mechanical flaws before the cars will be permitted on the track. That has never been done before.

It's going to take fine carburetion this year, for the 500 miles must be run on 37.5 gallons of gasoline. The amount allowed last year was 42 gallons.

That means an average of better than 13 miles per gallon of gasoline must be obtained. Some of the fast boys are worried that they will run out of fuel toward the end of the race. Only six gallons and two quarts of oil will be allowed, too.

Require 100 M.P.H. Qualifying trials for the race began May 16 and continued the following day. They will be resumed May 23 and from then on until May 28 opportunity will be given every driver to qualify his mount.

The 33 fastest cars will start, being lined up in accordance with their speed. The qualifying test is for 25 miles and the speed must be at least 100 miles per hour.

The chances are that it will take an average speed of close to 112 miles per hour this year to get a starting position. Drivers say the course is faster than it was before the asphalt was laid on the turns, and they predict that the contest itself will be won at 110 miles per hour or better.

All of the nation's greatest dare-devils of the roaring road are in Indianapolis preparing for the race. Among them are four former winners—Louis Meyer, victor in 1928 and 1933; Fred Frame, 1932; Wild Bill Cummings, 1934.

It's a race for daring men—fellows willing to gamble their lives on the strength of a cotter pin. Twenty-seven of them have died in accidents at the track since the race first was run in 1909. They say they get as much thrill out of it as do the thousands who cheer them on their chance-taking way.

FROST FREEZERS GAIN SECOND VICTORY IN FIVE STARTS

SETTLES WINS GAME BY FORFEIT

(By HANK HART)

The Frost Freezers made all their hits come Wednesday evening in the Muncy League's only softball game as they defeated the Continental Oilers, 10-3, to gain their second victory in five starts this season.

The Settlers Roadrunners received a forfeit from the Taylor Electricians in what was to be the second game. The Lamplighters were dropped out of the league.

Jim Wilson gave up only nine hits to the Druggists while his mates got to Roland Swatzy for that total plus an additional one, but the Soda Squeets confined their hitting to three innings and managed to clinch the game in the first two stanzas by counting seven runs.

For five innings, Swatzy was stung with his runs, despite the fact that three safe hits were recorded against him in the third. However, the Continental aggregation was not to be stopped. In the sixth, a single by T. Peary, a double by L. Peary, and a triple by Wilson netted two runs.

Livian Harris hit safely in his first three appearances to take timber honors for the victors, but the stride was matched by L. Peary of the Oilers who recorded a double and two singles in four trips. His war club managed to put him aboard in his other attempt but the try was recorded as a fielder's choice.

Cards Score Or Get Fined

Redbird Pilot Says Main Idea Is Getting Runs Across

NEW YORK, May 21.—Getting runs across the plate is the main idea in baseball, and the ever-alert St. Louis Cardinals are seeing to it that the pressure is on in that all-important department of play.

If a Redbird goes to bat with less than two out and a runner on third base and fails to bat in a run he is automatically fined $5.

If first and third are occupied with one out and the batter hits into a double play the man who hits the ball has to pay $10.

If runners are on first and third with less than two out and the batter hits into a double play on which the man on third scores, the batter escapes being fined.

"Many players may not consider these rules good for a team, but I do," says Frankie Frisch. "The runner is on third base, and he's there to be driven home. All my players are in favor of the rules."

The Cardinals have done everything else in order to win games. That is why they have copied five National League pennants and three world championships in ten years. Now they're fining themselves for failure to deliver in the clinches. This is helping to keep them in front of the senior loop pack at this time.

Assessments go into a penalty pool, which is to be divided equally among the athletes at the conclusion of the campaign.

The Detroit club operates along the same general lines. Makes them throw you out. Get those runs over the plate. This is a large measure accounts for the Battling Bengals, as Mickey Cochrane calls them.

Them, dominating the American League scene for the past two campaigns.

An opposing infielder cannot afford to juggle the ball or hesitate when deployed against the Cardinals or Tigers. An enemy fly-catcher cannot be thinking of anything else when in the field, for Cards and Tigers require no second invitation to take an extra base.

This also accounts for their being such tremendous attractions. It makes them the most pleasing clubs in the game to watch.

The New Feather Champ
Petey Sarron, who dethroned Freddie Miller as feather-weight champion in Washington, not only is the first Birmingham boxer to ascend a world throne, but the first Syrian to achieve the honor.

Sarron started as an amateur in the boys' club of Birmingham more than a dozen years ago. He is small for a feather, standing only 5 feet 3. He has dark eyes and straight black hair, like most members of his race.

The Syrian reached his pugilistic peak at an age when nearly all fighters are on the shide. He has had his full share of tough breaks. He must have been tempted to give up at times, something he could well afford to do, since he has saved his money.

Sarron came very near achieving a world title a year or two after he started. He went to the final of the Olympic trials in 1924, losing to Fidel LaBarba in a match so close that the judges called for an extra round. The Syrian went abroad with the Olympic team, but did not get to compete. The title went to LaBarba.

The ex-newboy's fists are broken, bent and twisted. He is a hard hitter with an awkward style—one who hurls leather from all angles. Sarron made the grade the hard way—from fly to feather. He required four meetings to catch up with Miller.

Those Qualifying Trials
Missing from the list of starters who hope to be among the leading 60 after 96 holes of the United States Open over the Baltusrol club course on June 6 will be several players whose names are familiar wherever golf is played in this country.

There are one former Open champion and two former amateur champions who have been prominent tournament figures for years among those who failed to qualify.

With Willie MacFarlane, who beat Bobby Jones in a playoff for the open title in 1925, among the non-combatants will be George Von Elm, who tied Billy Burke and lost the open championship in a playoff in 1931; Lawson Little, who won both the British and American-amateur on successive years; Leo Diegel, Joe Kirkwood, Jimmy Hines, Bill Mehlhorn and Abe Esplanosa.

Their failure to qualify again has stirred the agitation for exempting more of the leading players from the qualifying rounds. This has been an annual complaint since 1924, the first year of sectional qualifying trials.

But the United States Golf association isn't now and probably never will be ready to exempt a long list of stars at the expense of other players just to increase the size of the gallery and revenue.

Miss Gertrude McIntyre is leaving for Dallas where she will be guests of friends for several days.

GIANTS HOLD TO NATIONAL LEAD

(By The Associated Press)

The American and National leagues:

The New York Giants won their ninth successive game and took the lead in the National league yesterday as they shoved the St. Louis Cardinals into second place with a 10-7 decision. Mel Ott hit his seventh home run for the Giants and Terry Moore and Pepper Martin got circuit blows for the Cards, the latter connecting in the ninth with two on.

The Cincinnati Reds hammered three Boston pitchers during a wild eighth inning rally that netted seven runs and enabled them to overcome the Bees, 10-8.

Van Mungo blanked the Chicago Cubs for eight innings as the Brooklyn Dodgers pounded out 13 hits for an 11-12 victory over the National league champions.

The Pittsburgh Pirates knocked their old jinx Tom Zachary, out of the box to beat the Phillies, 9-3. Pep Young hit two homers for the Pirates and Pinky Whitney one for the Phils.

Marvin Owen's tenth inning home run gave the Detroit Tigers a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees and broke up a pitching duel between Schoolboy Rowe and Red Ruffing. Each hurler allowed six hits while Rowe fanned 10, and Ruffing six. Joe DiMaggio hit a homer for the Yanks in the sixth.

Seven Boston pitchers failed to stop Rogers Hornsby's rejuvenated bat and the Browns won a free-hitting series opener from the Red Sox, 13 to 8. It was the third straight victory for St. Louis.

The Washington Senators drove two pitchers from the mound with a barrage of base hits to defeat the Cleveland Indians, 7 to 6.

Sugar Cain shut out the Athletics, 4 to 0 yesterday, and the White Sox snapped out of a four straight game losing streak. It was Cain's second victory of the season for the Sox. He beat Lee Ross in a pitchers' duel, allowing seven hits.

BRITISH WOULD BATTLE OFTEN

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—British boxing circles are talking with enthusiasm about an annual Anglo-American amateur boxing tournament equal in importance to the Walker Cup for golf, following the "Golden Gloves" fights just held here.

The enthusiasm is the outcome of a series of encounters which gave 10,000 of London's boxing fans the best evening's entertainment they could remember, and set aristocratic Sir Noel Curtis-Bennett of the British Olympic committee sheering as wildly as the shouting, stamping, program-waving East end newboys in the gallery.

Few in London had ever seen better boxing or more continuous piston-rod slugging than that which the British and New York amateurs gave as they fought for the "Golden Gloves" at Wembley Pool.

The Londoners won by seven bouts to four, as they won in New

US-Canadian Peace Garden Work Rushed

Sites Marked For Buildings On North Dakota Border Area

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 21. (UP)—The century-long cooperation between the United States and Canada soon will be symbolized by an International Peace Garden, bridging North Dakota and Manitoba. Plans for completion of the project are being advanced rapidly.

The Peace Garden plan was conceived in 1929 by Harry J. Moore, of Islington, Ont. It has been sponsored through its preliminary stages by the governments of the two countries. Completion of the work and maintenance will be carried on through private subscription, according to J. A. Danielson, of Minot, N. D., a member of the committee in charge.

A temporary Canadian customs house has been completed and preliminary roads laid out. Architects have made final drawings of the buildings, grounds and the "peace tower," the hub of the entire plan. Workmen are clearing sites for the various structures.

Roads To Be Straightened
No unusual twisting of roads will be necessary to bring an international road through the site, Danielson said. The Canal-to-Canada international highway already runs through the area and will be straightened to cross the border at the site of the two customs houses.

The garden is in approximately the geographic center of the North American continent. In all, it covers 2,200 acres, of which 1,300 are in Manitoba and 900 in the Turtle mountains of North Dakota.

The peace tower will be built directly over the international boundary line with a formal avenue connecting it with the customs buildings which lie to the east. The tower itself, officials say, will be "straight and sweeping in lines," to carry out its "conception as a symbol of international peace."

Other Nations Interested
Primarily to show the friendship of the two great nations, sponsoring officials revealed that other countries, hearing of the plan, have indicated they would like to participate. Holland officially notified authorities that it desires to cooperate in erection of the tower. It was suggested Holland might send stones or other material for construction. Australia also has indicated a desire to be affiliated with the peace symbolism.

A secondary feature of the area has been pointed out by several northwest sportsmen. Lying in the Turtle mountains, where many migratory waterfowl nest, and with present excellent stands of trees scheduled to be improved, some outdoor men believe the garden also will demonstrate the unity of the United States and Canada in the fight to preserve and increase wild life.

An artificial lake lies in the United States area and rains already have filled in behind the earthen work dam. This lake will be planted with suitable water plants and fish will be introduced. "It then will be suitable as a nesting place for water fowl."

Remaining that the garden will be a tourist attraction, planners are providing numerous camping sites and cabin plots.
Direct supervision of the tract is vested in officers of the International Peace Garden, Inc., organized under the sponsorship of the National Association of Gardeners. It was created after Moore laid his original plan before the group's convention seven years ago but only in the past year and a half have intensive efforts brought the project toward completion.

NEGRO'S SENTENCE COMMUTED TO LIFE

HOUSTON, May 21. (UP)—The death sentence assessed Theo Mitchell, Houston negro who was scheduled to die in the Texas electric chair Wednesday, was commuted by Gov. James V. Alfred here yesterday to life imprisonment. Alfred said the commutation had the unanimous approval of the state pardon board. Papers in the case were brought from Austin for the governor's signature. Mitchell was convicted for killing his wife here in 1934. He escaped and shot himself when cornered by officers in Dallas. Later, a Harrison county constable was killed while hunting the negro and Mitchell was questioned in the slaying.

Alfred last month gave Mitchell a 30-day reprieve to allow officers time to complete the Harrison county investigation, and said he would follow the pardon board's recommendation if the negro were exonerated.

YOUTH IS ARRESTED IN EXTORTION PLOT

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21. (UP)—United States postal inspectors and city police Wednesday announced arrest of a youth who, they said, sought to carry out a crude extortion plot against Mrs. Wirt Franklin, wife of the prominent independent oil operator. The youth, who gave the name of Manning Bull, 18, demanded $200 in a threatening letter addressed to Mrs. Franklin, officers announced. They asserted that the youth signed a full confession warranting the details of the plot. He was arrested as he accepted Mrs. Franklin on a downtown street, according to instructions given in the extortion letter, and asked her, "are you Mrs. Walker?" This was to be the signal for her to hand over the package of money. He was charged with using the mails with intent to extort.

EXAMS ANNOUNCED FOR CIVIL SERVICE

Open competitive examinations for two government positions have been announced by the U.S. civil service commission. The tests are for tobacco inspectors, various grades, paying from $2,000 to $3,000 per year, with the department of agriculture; and procurement inspectors for aircraft, various grades, paying from $1,500 to $2,000, in the air corps, war department.

Full information on the examination may be obtained from 507-Sey Marchbanks at the local post office.

Richard Dix Star Of Thrilling Air Picture At Lyric

The test pilots, unsmiling heroes of aviation, are held up for recognition for their valorous deeds in a film that plays for the last time Thursday at the Lyric theatre. It is called "Devil's Squadron" and stars the square-jawed Richard Dix.

Dick Grace, one of the world's foremost aviators, known as one of Hollywood's leading stunt pilots, wrote the story which tells how test pilots risk their lives in death-defying stunts to give every part of a ship a rigid test.

Featured with Dix in the film are Karen Morley, Lloyd Nolan, Billy Burrud, Shirley Ross, Henry Mollison, Gene Morgan and Gordon Jones. In the story Dix and Nolan, two test pilots, fall in love with Miss Morley, Dix, because of an unjust blot on his name and because he refuses to hurt Nolan, superintendent of the port who gave Dix his chance to make good again, is unable to tell the girl that he loves her. But close association with death amid flaming planes and strained nerves changes much, and the story goes on in thrilling fashion to a satisfactory climax.

GUARDSMEN WANTED TO HANDLE TRAFFIC AT THE CENTENNIAL

DALLAS, May 21 (UP)—Gov. James V. Alford will be asked to send 2,800 militiamen of the Texas national guard to Dallas June 6, to aid in handling crowds at the opening of the centennial exposition.

The parade committee, headed by Maj. Gen. John A. Hulen, decided to ask military aid at a conference. The national guardsmen would be stationed at 10-foot intervals along the 14,000-foot right-of-way down which the parade will pass.

Individual guards-of-honor for participants in the parade will be furnished from the Dallas reserve officers training corps.

HIGHER DUTIES ON OIL IMPORTS URGED BY INDEPENDENTS

WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—The Independent Petroleum association, represented by Russell Brown, endorsed at a house ways and means committee hearing Wednesday the Disney bill to double import duties on petroleum and its products.

Brown said the legislation should not increase "appreciable" costs of petroleum products to consumers and a "check on imports" would aid in conserving petroleum conservation in the United States.

The measure would make permanent new duties on petroleum. Present rates expire a year from this June. In addition, it would limit imports to 4.5 per cent of the estimated American demand and place a $2 a ton duty on imported asphalt.

RANGER FORCE NOT THROUGH IN TEXAS, NEW CHIEF STATES

AUSTIN, May 21 (UP)—The new chief of the department of public safety H. H. Carmichael, said Wednesday that the Texas rangers were far from "through" and with a touch of modernization here and there—the famous old machine would run like new.

He voiced the opinion that the rangers were "very willing" to fit into their place in the department, created by the last legislature, and new chapters in their history of achievement would be written.

One possible need at this time, he said, is for trucks to transport the rangers' horses rapidly from place to place in the wild Big Bend area of the Rio Grande.

PRESIDENT'S MOTHER INJURES HIP IN FALL

WASHINGTON, May 21 (UP)—The White House announced Wednesday that Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, the president's mother, was confined to her home with an impacted hip and a cracked bone caused by a fall a week ago. The president plans to visit her Friday night.

Constipated 30 Years

"For thirty years I had chronic constipation. Sometimes I did not go for four or five days. I also had awful gas bloating, headaches and pain in the back. Adierika helped right away. Now I eat bananas, bananas, pie, anything I want and never feel better. I sleep soundly all night and enjoy life."—Mrs. Mabel Scholtz.

If you are suffering from constipation, sleeplessness, sour stomach, and gas bloating, there is quick relief for you in Adierika. Many report action in thirty minutes after taking just one dose. Adierika gives complete action, cleaning your bowel tract where ordinary laxatives do not even reach. Dr. H. L. Shoup, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adierika checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and colon bacilli." Give your stomach and bowels a real cleansing with Adierika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and chronic constipation. Sold by all druggists and drug departments. Callus Bros. Druggists and Cunningham & Phillips, Druggists.

Picnic Menus Recommended By Head Dietician At C. I. A.

Food never tastes better than when eaten in the open. When early summer comes the desire to enjoy a picnic once more becomes urgent. Picnics may be of two kinds, the one cooked on the campfire and the one taken prepared in a basket. Either may be fully enjoyed with proper preparations.

The Camp-Fire Supper
 Mexican Beef Rolls: Cook 1-2 pound bacon in a hot frying pan and set aside to drain on a paper plate. Drain off about 1-2 the fat, and in the remainder brown 1 small jar shredded dried beef. Then fry together in a frying pan, in 2 table-spoons of fat, 4 tablespoons of chopped green pepper, 2 table-spoons grated yellow cheese, and 1 tablespoon of tomato catchup. Cook for a few minutes, and then turn in the beaten eggs. Stir to keep them from sticking to the bottom of the pan. When the right consistency serves on buttered rolls or slices of bread.

Picnic Drinks: Evaporated and condensed milk, grape juice, ginger ale, other fruit juices, and one of the powdered chocolates or chocolate syrups. Make a hot or cold drink possible at a moments notice. For cold drinks the ice may be carried in a vacuum bottle and the drinks combined on the picnic ground.

The Basket Supper
 Suggested meat items are fried chicken, glazed picnic ham, or cold roast beef.

Beach Salad: Wash and boil until done 6 new potatoes. Peel and cut in cubes. Marinate, while hot, for 1 hour in French dressing to which a little mustard has been added. Combine with 1 cup cooked peas, 1 tablespoon onion, 2 table-spoons chopped apple, and 1 tea-spoon shredded parsley. Drain, and when thoroughly chilled pack in a vacuum container. Serve on hearts of lettuce, which have been washed, chilled and wrapped in oil paper.

Triangle Tarts: Roll pie paste to 1-8 inch thick and cut in 4 inch squares with a pastry jagger. Fill with jam or a filling made with 1-2 package dates stoned and chopped, add 3 table-spoons brown sugar and 2 table-spoons shredded coconut; moisten with 2 tea-spoons orange juice, spread on half of each square. Fold over diagonally and press the edges together with a fork which has been dipped in flour. Chill and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) until golden brown.

Baked Bean Sandwich: 2 cups baked beans with tomato sauce; salt, sweet pickles, mayonnaise, stuffed olives. Put beans through sieve or wash. Add chopped sweet pickles, olives and mayonnaise to make a smooth filling. Spread between slices of brown bread.

NO DISSATISFACTION
The public spirited citizen actively interested in the affairs of his local government might find some cause for dismay in the fact that when "public" budget hearings are held, they elicit practically no response from the public.

What competent observers and experts elsewhere think is an important item. No more could be said for Big Spring's financial standing than to point out that its bonds are selling on the market at from 105 to 107, and have reached as high as 110. Security buyers don't pay premiums for bonds of dubious yield.

NEW YORK—Those of you who believe in the infallibility of Sherlock Holmes should consider the mystery of Richard Gordon's true canine.
Finding his dog gone, the actor advertised in the Connecticut papers where his estate is located. Promptly there came a reply from William Gillette, who wrote the play and created the part of the famous sleuth in the original production of "Sherlock Holmes." Now past 80, the venerable star reported that the dog had turned up on his place but for the life of him he couldn't solve the mystery of how the dog arrived.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—Those of you who believe in the infallibility of Sherlock Holmes should consider the mystery of Richard Gordon's true canine.
Finding his dog gone, the actor advertised in the Connecticut papers where his estate is located. Promptly there came a reply from William Gillette, who wrote the play and created the part of the famous sleuth in the original production of "Sherlock Holmes." Now past 80, the venerable star reported that the dog had turned up on his place but for the life of him he couldn't solve the mystery of how the dog arrived.

WASHINGTON—On the surface the Tennessee Valley Authority has been as serene as the hills which tower behind Norris dam. Underneath, however, a bitter feud has been raging between two members of the three-man authority. They are Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, chairman, and David E. Lillenthal, his associate. Policies are not involved. The two men just can't get along together.

Young, brilliant, dynamic, Lillenthal has many strong admirers in the administration and congress, also. He is the most publicized of the three authority members. Friends of Morgan say that Lillenthal is "aggressive and pushing." He has been recently trying to "undermine" the chairman, wants the place for himself.

Senator Norris of Nebraska, as he does on all TVA problems, Norris urged the reappointment of Lillenthal regardless of anything Morgan said or did. If it were a choice between the two men, he told the president, he considered Lillenthal the more desirable.

Senator McAdoo wears a happy grin these days as he fits from place to place with his get-bride. The senator, now 74 years old, affects nobby youthful clothes, tosses his hat halfway across hotel lobbies to checkroom girls, kicks waitresses, and mingles with cocktail sippers as capriciously as a college boy. It must be real love.

Administrator Morris L. Cooke has transformed the third floor of the Blaine mansion into a drafting room. There his engineers sit at their drawing boards in shirt sleeves, sometimes working late at night.

Publicly, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg is still maintaining an attitude of good will toward rival republican presidential candidates. But privately it is a different matter. Following Gov. Alf Landon's recent radio interview, Vandenberg told friends he thought "a veritable... The six-weeks delay in getting approval for the resettlement administration's widely acclaimed movie, 'The Flow That Broke the Plains' was not the fault of Comptroller General J. R. McCarr, but one of resettlement's own lawyers, who tried to place the film in the hands of professional friends in Hollywood...

Wheeler-Woolsey At The Ritz In Fun Film Of West

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey have poked fun at about everything and the latest to get its share of kidding in the western thriller, "Bully Billie," their current bit of satire, which plays at the Ritz theater Thursday, includes all the thrills that commonly provide the smash climaxes of sage-brush sagas, but no western was ever quite like this.

Forty six herds and a total of 29,239 sheep or cattle were inspected or dipped, in the livestock sanitary commission's work in the Midland district during the month of April, a report issued Wednesday showed. No head were classed as exposed or infected.

Two men, one employed by the state and one by Midland county, spent their time in the inspection work. The sanitary commission will continue the work in this district, it was said, in an effort to protect the livestock in the area from imported infection, and affording to the necessary scabies certificates demanded by other states on livestock moving from Texas.

HOME TRUTH
Rupert nodded. "Congratulations," he said. "I'm not surprised, of course. Seymour's one man who's held on to his money."
Her head lifted. Again that icy break in her voice.
"I'm marrying him because he's clean and fine, and because he will make me happy."
Rupert answered.
"No doubt. I believe his habits are quite aqueous. Who could ask more, even average intelligence? Four centuries ago Sir Philip Sid-

Rupert looked at her, smiling, lifting his dark brows, sardonic, mocking. "Love?" he said.
"Love," she repeated on a higher note. And then, whiter than ever, speaking very slowly, "I never really. No girl could love you. No decent girl."
She rose with the quiet of those who have stabbed to kill, stood for a moment erect and silent in the flame-colored shawl. Dirk had risen simultaneously, thankful that the scene was over and that they would go. Rupert's eyes followed them somberly as they left the Dirk felt himself flush. Seymour was no intellectual, and he must seem colorless enough after Rupert, but Elinor was going to marry him. Having been told this, why couldn't Rupert keep still and let her go?

"Physics have not changed," repeated Rupert. "Nor have women." Elinor said whitely.
"If you were sober you would not have said that of the man I love."

GOP Session Due To Clear Up 'Mystery'

Many Perplexing Elements In Campaign Yet To Be Untangled

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of AF Bureau, Washington)
Politics is a perplexing business under any circumstances, but seldom does it bring together so many bewildering elements as now are heading for the republican convention at Cleveland. If half that is being whispered comes true, the party's June show will deserve high rank among the mystery dramas of all time.

This can be said without reflecting in the least on the claims and predictions of any candidate or his managers. Whatever the final outcome, a surprising array of submerged elements exist, and only the convention can clear the situation.

Claims And Counter-Claims
There is the candidacy of Gov. Alf Landon, which he himself never has conceded to be a candidacy at all, but for which great strength is claimed among delegates who publicly are saying nothing.

There are the counter-claims of the managers of Colonel Knox, who predict a sudden emergence of "Knox sentiment among these same non-committal delegates."
There is the case of Senator Borah, whose supporters see him as the spokesman of the masses of republican voters and whose real intentions with respect to the convention have been a subject of wide-spread and earnest conjecture.

There is the problem of former President Hoover, talked of mysteriously among his friends as having a silent following in many state delegations, ready to carry out his wishes, whatever they may turn out to be.
There is the extraordinarily mysterious string of dark rumors, ranging from one or two who have been whispered of nationally for many months as real prospects, to others who scarcely have been heard of outside their own states and still others whose friends claim no dele-

GUIDES TRAINED TO SHOW VISITORS HOW HUDSONS ARE MADE

DETROIT, May 21.—When anyone visits Detroit, he usually wants to know how automobiles are made. He has heard all sorts of stories about the marvelous processes of speed and precision, and naturally he wants to see for himself.

Recognizing the interest of the visitors, the Hudson Motor Car company maintains a special course for its guides so that they may be continually up to date on the latest improvements that are being made and thus be able to give the visitors an accurate and interesting picture of what they see on a tour of inspection.

With an average of more than twelve million persons visiting Detroit annually, with some 500 conventions being conducted in the city during 1936, drawing an attendance of half a million, a large number of these visitors find their way eventually to the motor car plants and a large proportion of them go to the Hudson plant.

MARTINS FERRY, O. (UP)—Visitors here are surprised by the courtesy of motormen and conductors on the street cars. The reason is that the street railway line is cooperative, the operators owning equal shares in the business.

INDIGESTION—GET QUICK RELIEF

Millions of men and women are suffering from disturbances of their digestive systems, due to acidity, and this is often the real cause of ill health, tired-out, run-down feeling, loss of "pep" and zest for living. If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. Take Gasa Tablets, the Doctor's Prescription, which are intended to soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach," and to help convert the starchy foods into dextrose. Because of this remarkable success in many cases of acidity and digestive troubles resulting from acid conditions, Gasa Tablets are offered to sufferers under a guarantee that the first bottle must produce results or money back. Weight Shift Is Discussed Little Approves Advocates Of Equal Distribution Of Weight

This line for the center of gravity in a vertical plane about which I spoke earlier, is a line drawn to the ground from the center of the head passing through the body and striking the ground at a perpendicular. This line does not necessarily meet the ground where the ball is; the ball is placed between the feet in varying positions in relation to the two feet.

Center Of Gravity... Several years ago it was the common belief that distance could be obtained by a lateral shifting of the hips. Lateral hip shifting is almost always conducive of a sway. But this theory was later exploded and now the scientific teachers feel that distance is brought about by an ample backward wind-up and by bringing into service the great muscles of the hips and back.

URGES SCIENTIFIC METHODS TO DEVELOP NEW USES FOR CROPS

NEW YORK, May 21—Solution of the pressing farm problem through a partnership of agriculture and science is proposed by Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in the current issue of Country Home magazine, a national farm publication. In place of crop curtailment and "other waste," which he calls "abhorrent to all human effort and ideals," he suggests that the chemist's test tube be utilized to provide new crops and new uses for old ones, with resultant benefit not only to the farmer but to the whole country.

MEXICO CITY, May 21. He solved the difficulty (1) by obtaining an old Ford four-cylinder motor and assorted materials; (2) building himself an airplane solely from the diagrams in the magazine, without being able to read the text; (3) teaching himself how to fly in his patchwork plane; (4) flying here from Zitacuaro, 125 miles in 2 1/2 hours.
