Ray Hamilton Offers to Surrender

OFFERS TO TAKE ALCATRAZ TERM TO ESCAPE CHAIR

Attorney Refuses to Accept Terms of Gang Chief

DALLAS, Feb. 6. (AP)—Raymond Hamilton, fugitive bank robber and gunman, today offered to surrender to federal authorities and accept a long term at Alcatraz island, provided they save him from the electric chair for murder.

Through his brother Floyd, captured at Shreveport last night, Raymond made the offer to Clyde Eastus, United States district attorney, who declined.

Eastus announced that the government will proceed February 22 to try Floyd Hamilton and some 20 others on charges of harboring Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker.

SHREVEPORT, La., Feb. 6. (AP)—Floyd Hamilton, brother of Raymond Hamilton, the southwest's public enemy No. 1 and something of a desperado in his own right, who was arrested aboard a bus in Shreveport late Tuesday afternoon, left here for Dallas at 11:30 a. m. today.

Hamilton was arrested by Sheriff R. A. Schmidt of Dallas county and Deputy Sheriffs Ed Caston and Bill Decker. The Texas party had arrived less than an hour earlier.

To Be Tried First
Sheriff Schmidt said that Hamilton's arrest is the 18th since the recent federal indictment of 24 friends of Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker. Seventeen others are in Dallas jails.

"I think Floyd will be tried first on the federal charges of harboring fugitives," the sheriff said.

Floyd's capture was in marked contrast to the hectic pistol battle in which he and his brother, Raymond Hamilton, escaped local and federal officers at Dallas Monday night.

Wounded in Arm
Hamilton was suffering from a bullet wound in his left forearm, which was possibly inflicted in that fight.

"Don't shoot," young Floyd said as two deputy sheriffs entered the bus and poked guns to his mid-section. "I haven't got a gun."

See Hapsburg Rule

Disregarding official efforts to hush reference to return of Hapsburg rule to Austria, Prince Ernst Ruediger von Starckenberg, vice chancellor, declares restoration is essential in the future.

The Heimwehr will bring this about, said the prince, shown here as he saluted a troop review in Vienna few days ago.

SENATE ACTS TO RESTRICT POWER OF ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—Led by Carter Glass, senate appropriations committee democrats Tuesday agreed to amend sections of the $4,880,000,000 lump-sum relief bill which would give President Roosevelt power never before possessed by a peace-time executive.

Before any actual change takes place, however, the full committee must ratify it. Nevertheless, approval at a meeting of the full committee tomorrow appeared certain unless some of the insurgent democrats changed their minds.

Two sections of the bill were scheduled for elimination. If they go, out goes the power for the president to change emergency government agencies as he sees fit and to acquire real property by right of eminent domain.

Keep Lump Sum
For all the seeming show of defiance, administration adherents, headed by Senator Byrnes (D-S.C.) were successful in retaining the $4,880,000,000 lump-sum intact for Mr. Roosevelt to distribute as he sees fit.

They claimed, in addition, that plenty of authority was retained to enable the president to administer the act as he desires.

ROAD BUILDING AS PWA PROJECTS TO BE FAVORED

Meeting Here Friday To Draw Officials Of 8 Counties

County, city and school representatives from eight counties will meet here Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the county court room, to complete applications for projects on which PWA funds may be spent.

Midland was named as the regional meeting place by Julian Montgomery, state PWA engineer, and the chamber of commerce in cooperation with County Judge E. F. Barron telephoned the invitations today to the officials of other counties, including Loving, Winkler, Ector, Glasscock, Ward, Crane and Upton.

Cooperation in road connections from Midland were voiced by officials at Rankin and Lamesa, also at Kermit and Loving county.

Judges Halley of Winkler and Jay of Loving, who attended a regional meeting of the same type a few days ago at Fort Worth, will be here to give information gained there.

LUMBERMEN OF CALIFORNIA ARE HAILED IN PROBE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—The Texas PWA project being investigated by a special district of Columbia grand jury was identified today by Lester Bennett, United States attorney, as one located in Wilcox county.

Garnett announced that two San Francisco lumbermen, H. W. Cole, president of the California Redwood association, and L. C. Hammond, vice president of the Hammond Lumber company, were subpoenaed before the grand jury impaneled today to investigate charges of graft on the Texas project. He said no Texas witnesses were subpoenaed.

Garnett said the charges, preferred by Secretary Ickes, grew out of an attempt to eliminate competition in bidding for wooden piping to be used in irrigation ditches.

Capt. Foster Here On Inspection Tour

Capt. Thad Foster, commanding officer of the airport attachment, spent last night here, arriving at 10 a. m. Tuesday evening from Dryden, Texas. He was flying a Y10-40, a light bomber observation plane. Capt. Foster is on an inspection tour and took off at 10 this morning for Lordsburg, N.M.

Lieut. W. H. Hamilton, piloting a V-2 bomber, landed at the airport yesterday on his way from Dryden to the naval air station at San Diego, Calif.

One commercial ship was also reported landing today. The ship, owned and piloted by J. G. Hammond, enroute with two passengers from Fort Worth to Hobbs, N.M.

Discovers Reno

Hollywood fondly imagined that Gwilt Andre, above, Danish "perfect model," was "different," as she went her baffling, elusive way in the film capital. But she apparently isn't, for she has fallen for that chronic Hollywood complaint, divorcitis, and has gone to Reno to win a decree from Stasch Lotkowski of Philadelphia.

LOCATION MADE FOR WILDCAT ON O. P. JONES LAND

Location for an oil test, a mile south of the Midland county line, in Upton county, has been made by Hal Peck of Amarillo, who is locating here during the course of the drilling operation. The well will be spudded in ten or twelve days, Peck said.

Known as the Baldrige Oil Co. and Shamrock Oil and Gas-Sweetie Peck No. 1, the location is 440 feet from the east and south lines of section 29, block 41, Township 4-South, Upton county. It is a part of the range of the late O. P. Jones.

Cellar and slush pit have been completed and the rig is en route today for the test.

Mrs. Peck, the former Miss Sweetie Jones of Midland, is a member of the state game commission and is prominent in state politics.

Bulldog Cagers to Compete at Odessa

ODESSA, Feb. 6. (AP)—Cage teams from nine towns in the Odessa area will enter the district Intercollegiate League meet to be held here Feb. 15 and 16. Coach Anthony Hunt of the Bronchos said Tuesday.

Hunt says that the strength of teams should indicate one of the most interesting contests in several years.

Schools competing will include Midway, Rankin, Crane, Midland, Iraan, Big Lake, Stanton, Garden City and Odessa. Big Lake won over Odessa last year with a score of 13 to 10, in the finals.

STALCUP, BROWN LOSE APPEAL OF LIFE PENALTIES

Testimony Starts in Trial for Murder Of Sheriff

AUSTIN, Feb. 6. (AP)—Virgil Stalcup and Clarence Brown, given life sentences in Wickliffe county last week, lost their appeals in the court of criminal appeals today.

The men twice escaped from the Dickens county jail. In the last escape, Sheriff W. B. Arthur of that county was killed.

TESTIMONY STARTS IN LUBBOCK TRIAL

LUBBOCK, Feb. 6. (AP)—Testimony was started this morning in the 99th district court in the trial of Virgil Stalcup for murder in the fatal shooting of Sheriff W. B. Arthur of Dickens.

The twelfth juror was named at 7 o'clock last night, after a special venire had been exhausted and 32 other prospective jurors had been summoned hastily.

Sheriff Arthur was shot through the neck, dying almost instantly in a cellblock which had been occupied by Stalcup and Clarence Brown in Dickens county jail at Dickens. The state will ask for Stalcup's life in Texas' electric chair.

Glenn Walker Signs For Internship

H. G. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Walker here, who will complete his work for a M. D. degree at Baylor University, Dallas, June 1, has signed for an internship for next year in the Dallas Methodist hospital, friends here were advised.

Walker has alternated his medical courses with a few years of school teaching but will complete his work soon.

Resignations Halted

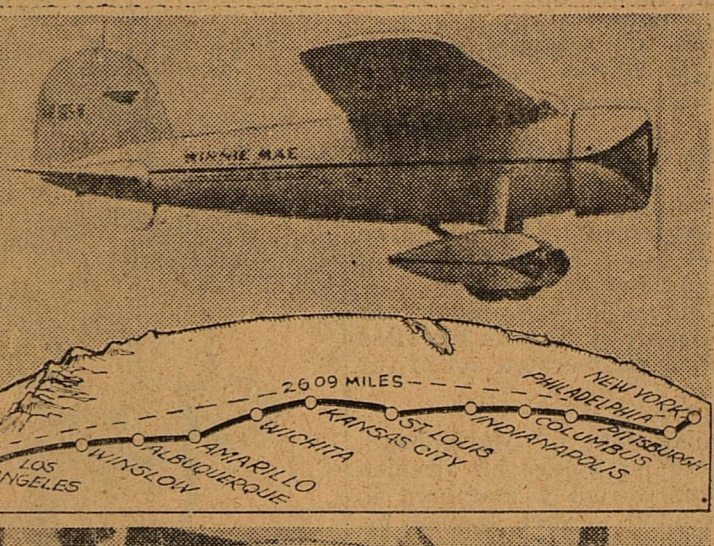

For weeks the board had sought an interview with Roosevelt. The president's letter promptly inspired the two resignations, never announced, and prospect of a third. Assurances then began to pour into the NLRB from the White House, Miss Perkins, Richberg, and even administration leaders in Congress that board members should stay to help Congress formulate strong labor dispute legislation.

The irony of the success of these assurances lies in the fact that Roosevelt doesn't want any new labor disputes legislation and probably will act to prevent it.

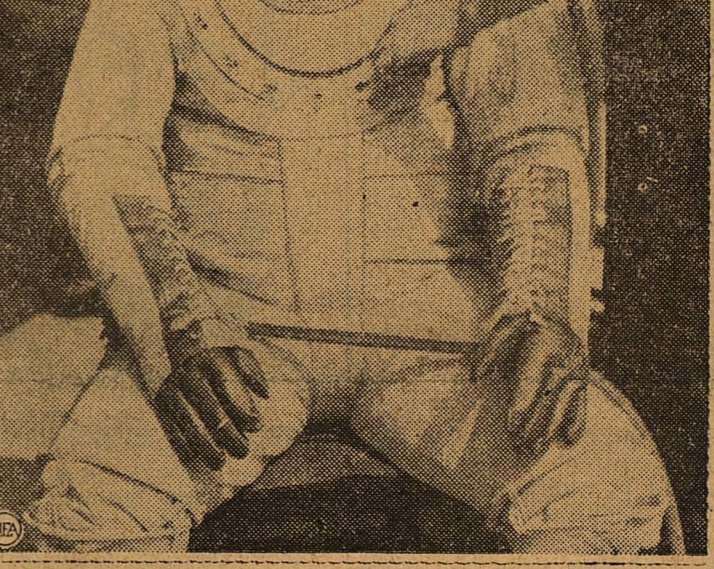

Meanwhile, every NLRB election order or Blue Eagle withdrawal issued in the last six weeks has been tied up in the courts.

Members Hillman, Marshall, Hamilton, Henderson, and Smith of the recovery board opposed the basis of Roosevelt's extension of the automobile code—made without consultation with labor leaders and apparently influenced by results of the Wolman board's elections.

Aims to Hop U. S. in 7 Hours

Los Angeles to New York in seven hours, flying at an altitude of 30,000 feet. That is the sensational feat, cutting three hours from the present mark, which Wiley Post, one-eyed globe-girdling speed demon, hopes to accomplish, carrying a limited load of mail. The cabin of his streamlined Winnie Mae, top photo, in which he will make the attempt, has been made airtight to save oxygen in the stratosphere. The map shows the regular TWA mail route which Post will follow. The airman is shown below in his specially constructed suit of rubberized balloon silk, built to prevent possible bursting of heart, lungs and other organs in the lowered pressure of the stratosphere.

VIOLENCE FOLLOWS OBSERVANCE OF "BLOODY TUESDAY" AT PARIS; MEN JEERING OFFICIALS ARE CLUBBED

PARIS, Feb. 6. (AP)—Violence today followed the religious observance of the first anniversary of "Bloody Tuesday", as shouting youths clashed with police.

The clash, in which many young men felled their opponents with loaded canes, occurred after an unpleasant incident at the Notre Dame cathedral where Premier Pierre Flaindin and Prefect of Police Langeron were hissed and jeered as they entered and left the service held in memory of the 19 persons who died a year ago in riots throughout the city.

The police clubbed the disturbers to keep them moving.

DRIZZLING RAIN FALLS TODAY IN SCATTERED AREAS

Slow drizzling showers, amounting to one-tenth of an inch at the government gauge at the Southern Ice & Utilities company, fell this morning after the day opened with lowered clouds and a cool breeze from the northeast. The airport reported .12 of an inch.

Sections to the east were reported without moisture today, the sun shining at Big Spring, but drizzling rains were coming from the west around Pecos, Wink and Kermit.

The forecast indicated local showers in various sections of West Texas tonight and Thursday.

LADDER, CRIB WITHOUT TRACES OF HAUPTMANN

Defense Uses State Police Today as Witnesses

FLEMINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—Gustave Miller, Bronx plumber, testified today that an attic floor board which the state charged was used in the Lindbergh kidnap ladder, was not noted by him to be missing when he investigated a leak in August, 1934.

FLEMINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—The defense in the Bruno Richard Hauptmann today emphasized the absence of Hauptmann's fingerprints on the Lindbergh kidnap ladder, and pursued the further contention that the dead Isador Fisch was the receiver of the $50,000 Lindbergh ransom.

The defense called Lieut. Paul Sijstrom of the New Jersey state police that of 68 fingerprints on the ladder after it had been handled by "hundreds of people," eight were identified and none was Hauptmann's.

Trooper Frank A. Kelly was recalled to relate again the failure to find fingerprints in the Lindbergh nursery or upon the crib from which the Lindbergh baby was stolen.

Sam Streptone, Bronx radio repairman, said Fisch called for a repaired radio in May 1933 and left a shoe box with him for six hours, picking it up later himself.

The witness acknowledged upon cross examination that he had been in an institution for depressive psychosis.

At the noon recess, a decision whether Oscar John Nuckman, Bronx taximan Fisch once employed, could answer questions pertaining to gold notes was not reached by the court.

Bill Introduced on Utility Regulation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (AP)—Chairman RAYBURN, of the House interstate commerce commission, today introduced legislation to carry President Roosevelt's projected control of utilities farther by "elimination of public utility holding companies."

Although not claimed to be an "administration bill" in the usual sense, it was put in after a conference at the White House yesterday and the president knew its contents.

Ranchito Poloists Invading Mexico

FT. WORTH, Feb. 6. (AP)—El Ranchito poloists, together with 29 of the finest ponies, Tuesday afternoon departed for Laredo. It is the first leg of their trip to Mexico City, where the former 12-goal champions of the Southwestern circuit will play the champion civilian and army teams of the Mexican republic in a six-game series Feb. 17.

The team was headed by Cecil Charters, captain and included Clarence Starke, William Skidmore, Ted Voight, Tom Riley and W. T. Waggoner II, who was only recently certified as a playing member of El Ranchito by the United States Polo Association, which sanctioned the Mexican jaunt.

Trial Progresses In Assault Case

BROWNFIELD, Feb. 6. (AP)—The state's last night rested its case against Lowell Stephens, on trial for statutory attack on a 14-year-old farm girl.

Jury in the case was completed at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Stephens pleaded not guilty.

The complaining witness testified Stephens attacked her, after threatening her life, in an automobile park at the Union schoolhouse in Terry county last October. A singing school was being conducted in the building.

The girl's mother, a sister, a teacher, a Brownfield doctor, and a woman companion of the complainant were state's witnesses. Defense testimony will be started Wednesday.

WINTER EVENTS VARY WITH THE WEATHER

New England weather prophets are muttering in their beards these days. All bets on the weather are off in Vermont because a Burlington hunter shot the groundhog just before groundhog day, while in Maine a flock of wild geese was seen heading due north during one of the coldest spells of the winter, leading people to suspect that something is wrong either with the winter or the geese.

But these incidents are only samples of the general midwinter topsy-turviness.

The Japanese government announces that it will seek to restore friendship between Japan and China, and on the same day starts 4000 men heading for the borders of Chahar province with all the implements of war.

Lupe Velez and Johnny Weissmuller have undergone their 11th reconciliation and the state of Nevada has filed suit to collect taxes on ten steamships operated out of the port of New York.

The chief of the fire department of Marblehead, Mass., has resigned because he can't induce his firemen to go to fires with him any more, and a merchant in Birmingham, Ala., has won a $500 verdict against his lodge brothers because they kicked him in the pants while giving him a fraternal initiation.

A New York gentleman is taken in by the police for begging, and he explains in court that he was simply standing in the street with his hat off so that the breeze would make his hair grow, and could he help it if well-meaning strangers dropped $3 worth of nickels and dimes into his hat while he was doing it?

Meanwhile, a St. Louis girl, who couldn't take time off from her job to go to the marriage license bureau, sends a girl friend off with her fiance to get the document, and learns to her horror that the two not only obtained the license, but got married with it.

The sheriff of Robertson county, Tenn., running shy of deputies, has taken to arresting people by telephone and reports that so far no one has refused to come in to the jail and be locked up on request. Another telephone angle gets into the day's news when a New York phone girl has her ex-sweetie arrested for calling her up 135 times in one evening.

And, to cap the climax, Chicago detectives arrest two colored men for trying to operate a "rent a gun and shoot it yourself" agency, seizing the 28 revolvers with which the men were equipped and lodging the men in jail.

To all of which you may add whatever moral seems to you possible in the circumstances.

AL GOES PROHIBITIONIST

One of many protests against the showing of a foreign movie called "Ecstasy" came direct to the White House from a fellow named Alfred E. Smith.

He wanted the government to prohibit its exhibition on grounds of indecency, since the heroine is said to appear in the film with no more clothes than she wore the day she was born.

Now this Alfred E. Smith is the same Alfred E. Smith who a few years ago was pretty much steamed up because the government had prohibited people from drinking what they chose to drink. Al was against prohibition then. But he has no objections, it is clear, to the government prohibiting people from seeing the movies they choose to see.

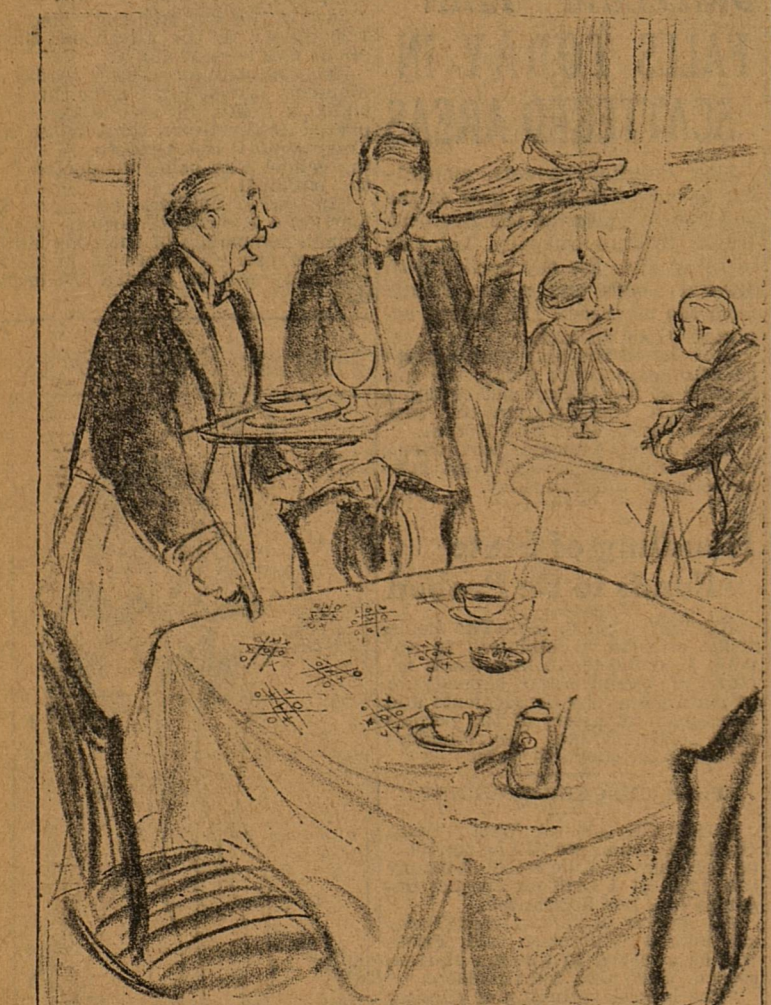

All of which proves that when it comes to prohibition, it all depends on whose toes are stepped on, and which toes.

What a glorious life children have before them—imagine being able to take Vitamin B for your health without being obliged to eat spinach or turnips!

Now if the World Court could knock the "I" out of the "world," maybe there would be less objection to letting our senators join it.

It is my contention that a man who has to drink booze to get up courage doesn't have any courage.

There is an old saying that when

This was heard over the radio, too. A man went hunting where there were a lot of hunters in the woods, so he sang "The Last Round-up" to keep from getting shot. But a hunter shot him for singing "The Last Round-up."

Beauty Needs More Than Cosmetics; Health Essential

By ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer
"I can't spend money on expensive preparations, but I do want to have nice skin and hair," writes a girl in a Middle Western city.

What should I do to keep my complexion lovely through the years?

The best answer, it seems to me, is the old rule that I talk about constantly—Keep Healthy! In addition, make the most of beauty aids which cost a negligible amount.

Fresh water (eight glassfuls a day), a reasonable amount of exercise, eight hours sleep each night and plenty of fresh air are the best beauty treatments in the world. They cost nothing, yet they practically guarantee rosy cheeks, shining eyes, glossy hair and a supple figure.

To take a daily bath involves so little expense per month that it would be silly to try to set it down on paper. However, cleanliness is one of the first requisites of loveliness and the woman who bathes daily, using a bath brush on back, shoulders and arms, is sure to have a certain fresh charm that is close kin to beauty.

Smiling eyes and a nice disposition have an infinitely more important bearing on beauty than any amount of preparations that are to be rubbed on the surface.

If you get enough sleep, take exercise and eat the right food, there's no reason under the sun why you should go around with a sour expression, learn to think pleasant thoughts about the people you know, the situations you are forced to face. Remember that mere prettiness can be painted on the surface, but true beauty comes from within. Stop worrying about lack of money to spend on creams and lotions and do the best you can with material that costs little but which is much more effective.

Exposing the dried leaves to the blossoms of such flowers as the sweet-scented olive, the gardenia, rose and jasmine, is the method used to scent tear artificially.

France has 4700 tons of fine gold in her possession; this is the second largest gold-holding country in the world.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

The new knitted twopiece suits in light colors are lovely. One that we saw today was in a coral shade that was delicious. Some have new shorter sleeves.

Knitted "shirtwaist-like" blouses of celanese and rayon in yellows and blues are news in town and good news at that—for the type who can wear the severe things. They are not too severe to be attractive.

Something else that we like very much—the new butterfly ornaments for dresses that are made of metal wire, gold, silver, or colored. Bow knots and similar old-fashioned designs are made of the same material.

If you don't like to drink tea alone, you should have one of the Japanese "sets of a thousand heads". The cups are decorated with a band of scores and scores of tiny painted human heads. Something different in design from the conventional Japanese sets with their kimonoed ladies.

And speaking of Japan, have you seen the new imported Japanese lamps with elephant-figure bases?

The perfect exponent of that word "femininity" is a rose-colored negligee.

We have heard more than one person express a half-resolve to see "David Copperfield" the second time. Which is more than we can say for any other picture in town the last five months.

Of all the cast, our vote goes to W. C. Fields for being most perfectly suited to his role as Micawber.

Our vote for the most surprisingly realistic touches—the hiccuping baby and the rain on David's face during the storm that killed Steerforth and Ham.

Munitions Craft Is Theme of Picture Showing at Yucca

A story of unusual timeliness is told by "The Man Who Reclaimed His Head," the Universal drama which is now showing at the Yucca Theatre.

The picture exposes the activities of the international munitions manufacturers in fomenting war, subject of the recent senatorial investigation in Washington, and lays much of the blame for the World War squarely at the door of these professional moulders of public opinion.

Claude Rains, Joan Bennett and Lionel Atwill head the cast, and all are excellent in their roles. Other members of an exceptionally fine cast are three-year-old Baby Jane, Wallace Ford, Lloyd Hughes and Lawrence Grant.

The fascinating story presents Rains as a plodding writer content to live in virtual poverty with his wife Adele (Joan Bennett), but finally achieving prosperity when he enters the service of Henri Dumont (Lionel Atwill), a publisher, writing articles against war which appear under Dumont's name in his "Pacific Journal."

But to insure his political future, Dumont secretly works with the munitions makers, and on the declaration of war Rains hastens to Paris against orders and finds Dumont in the act of making advances to Adele.

"The Man Who Reclaimed His Head," is recommended without reservation. Director Edward Ludwig has made a fine picture.

Oklahoma May Be Proving Ground For EPIC Plan

OKLAHOMA CITY, (P)—Oklahoma may become the laboratory in which Upton Sinclair's Utopian EPIC plan is tested. An administration-backed bill creating a new industries board with far-reaching powers is before the Oklahoma legislature. The bill, if enacted into law, will give the industries board unprecededented powers in buying, selling and operating commercial plants both to provide goods for the needy and offer employment. The measure asks an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the operation of the board until June 30, 1936, and provides full authority for the board to borrow funds and issue bonds. One section authorizes the board to acquire transportation and communication facilities. This provision, while not specifically mentioning gas and electric power lines, was believed broad enough to put the state into competition with public service companies. The bill parallels the Utopian scheme advocated by Sinclair in his stormy race for governor of California in the section dealing with factories and mills. It authorizes the board to operate, construct, buy and sell factories for the following purposes: "To furnish employment for the unemployed and goods for their maintenance so long as unemployment and human suffering relating therefrom exist in Oklahoma. "To produce essential supplies and materials for public construction whenever, in the opinion of the board, there exists monopolistic control of the price of these commodities or the state is unable to purchase these supplies and materials at fair prices in the open market. "To furnish employment for the wards of the state."

The board's powers under the bill are not limited to factories and mills. The measure further provides that the board may acquire, hold, develop, sell, pool, syndicate or otherwise turn to account in the name of the board, land and the natural products thereof. This section carries the additional provision that the board may resort to condemnation proceedings if necessary, to acquire the desired properties.

Buyers Scout Range For Mutton Lambs

SAN ANGELO, (P)—With offers of 6 1/2 cents a pound continuing for mutton lambs buyers are scouting the range country but few deals have been reported. Sales of muttons at 5 1/2 cents a pound in recent trades have been for fall short stuff.

Lew Rust, of Del Rio sold 1,000 two-year-old ewes, immediate delivery, at $4.75 per head, and L. F. Sneed 535 ewe lambs to John Swain of Edw. for W. L. Hickman of Bronte at 6 3/4 cents a pound. Delivery has been made.

There is little trading in goats. Mohair, however, continues to move at the apparent established price of 16 cents for the adult hair and 26 cents a pound for the kid. This market opened two weeks ago when the 800,000-pound Schreiner accumulation moved out at those figures. A. W. Hillard & Son and Draper & Company of Boston entered the market since and a score or more mohair clips have been

Code Battle--

Whiteside, voted for the program of a 48-hour week and establishment of the Wolman board in the code, after it had finally been repudiated by Green.

Resignation threats came when Williams sought a last-minute endorsement of Roosevelt's agreement with the auto men. Behind all these facts is Roosevelt's determination to permit no strike in such key "recovery" industries as automobiles and steel. The story would be far different had the A. F. of L. organized workers to the point where they could present a formidable threat.
