MIDLAND'S HAND OUT—(STRETCHED)

Much has been said of people, as well as of cities, who go around with their hands out. This expression pertains usually to those expecting something to be given them.

By adding a word to the phrase, however, Midland may well capitalize on her own hospitality in 1936 by keeping her HAND OUTSTRETCHED.

Business institutions have learned that it pays well to make friends to extend a welcome and a smile to strangers. Chain service stations, in many instances, have built up enormous business volume by securing convenient locations, making their stations ultra-attractive and by extending such smiling service that their customers look for the same company station next time they stop at a town for gas.

Midland may capitalize the same way, and at the same time render service to strangers and new citizens. The citizens should make a combined effort to wear the smile that attracts, to offer service that will be appreciated, and to extend a welcoming hand, to be courteous and considerate at all times.

Midland citizens should not lose an opportunity to speak well of neighboring towns and of individual competitors. Nobody owes Midland anything except her own citizens. The others will be attracted only by good treatment, an attractive city, courteous and smiling service and an outstretched hand.

EFFORT TO AID ATHLETE MAY BACKFIRE ON HIM

The case of the star halfback who wants a college education has come up for discussion, due to the action of Southeastern Conference colleges in removing restrictions on the giving of financial aid to athletes.

This action is both simple and logical. Hereafter an athlete in any of the 13 colleges comprising this conference can receive scholarship funds on the same basis as a non-athlete. And when the belligerent sports fan sticks his jaw out and demands, "And what's wrong with that?" the only possible answer is, "Not a thing in the world."

Not a thing in the world—except that it contains the seed of an injustice which is usually visited on the head of no one but the athlete himself.

Back of it, of course, is the simple fact that colleges are competing for football players. College authorities may let this, that, or the other scholastic department slip into sad disrepair, they may permit laboratories to go ill-equipped, and let their wisest professors go to other faculties; but if the football team falls below par and stays there, the authorities are immediately in hot water. So they go out after the athletes.

Consider all this, now, from the viewpoint of the high school lad who happens to be a fine football player. At the age of 17 or 18 he finds exalted educational institutions bidding for his services. He selects one of them, enrolls, and finds himself a favored person.

His expenses are taken care of, his health is looked after, he is put in a way to make many friendships, and he is given the best possible instruction in his chosen game.

He has four pleasant years on the campus, and if he is unusually good he can win nation-wide fame.

But while all this is going on, does the college make an equal attempt to give him the education he is supposed to be getting? In all too many cases it does not.

The whole set-up tends to give him the idea that he is in college to play football, primarily, and only secondary to get an education. He is drilled ceaselessly in football; he is merely exposed to an education.

Sooner or later it ends, and he goes out into the world. What then? Unless he chooses to become a professional athlete—which is a sorry justification for a college career—he leaps from the top of the heap to the bottom.

From being a hero, he becomes just another young man starting out to make a living; and he is likely to find himself less well equipped for it than his classmates who were not athletically inclined.

In other words his college experience is apt to do him as much harm as good and it is almost certain to do him less good than it should. He starts under a handicap; a handicap imposed by the very subsidization program that was supposed to benefit him.

Tribute To Former Cowboy Is Paid By Newspaper Editor

Cool Dick McCarty, dean of West Texas newspapermen and editor of the Albany News, recently published a tribute to Lester "Gabe" Beauchamp, former Midland cowboy, who lost his life recently when dragged to death by his horse at the Roy Parks Albany ranch where Beauchamp was foreman.

The clipping was mailed from Albany to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Beauchamp of Midland, parents of the accident victim. It follows: Gabe was a fine young fellow, not given much to talk, tall and slender like, handsome, born to the saddle, loved a horse. The cattle range had been his habit since boyhood, knew cattle and brands and followed the trail to the tragic ending. He was foreman of the Roy Parks ranch down south of town, a trustworthy fellow, knew his stuff, and to that end worked, giving proof of his stewardship and trust. It's funny about folks, their meeting, Gabe came from away out West, and a pretty little school teacher from away down east or some other point of the compass.

The two met, it looked like it might have been accidental, but cupid saw to it, and fixed the clock of human destiny with the purview that two hearts might tick as one, the blending of human destiny—One en twain. We imagine that it was a beautiful courtship, the cowboy from away out on the cattle range, may-be just a little wild, sporty and daring like, they catch it from the spirit of the range, he was a daring horseman, a born cavalier, and always fair women have ever fallen to the man on the horse. The pretty little school teacher, Miss Jinnie, the child of the cloister, whose duty it was to train the plastic mind of youth in the science of language and mathematics, traveled west, following the trend of civilization, ever going west, out where the sun goes down behind the undulating hills, wild flowers bloom in profusion, the brooks babble and the moaning of the white faced cattle are heard at intervals. It's a land of romance. Yes, cupid staged a game of wedlock, cut the cards of human destiny and a pretty queen was trumped, the rest was easy, the swain and the lassie became entangled in the meshes, a lasso like hoops of steel, lined with silk velvet, gripped ten. Pledged vows followed, the golden seal, the insignia of future wedlock and the wedding ring was passed to the future bride. The little school teacher went back to the school room to instruct the minds of youth, Gabe came back to the range. It was indeed a happy state of mind, which came to men and women only once in a life time, yes, all of life is a song, there is a poem in every flower, peace of mind divine. But alas, Gabe went out to ride the range, little dreaming that it would be the last roundup—And bye me bye, in the late afternoon a riderless horse arrived, later about night fall, the ranch folks became alarmed at his long absence, a searching party of some fifty or seventy cowboys was organized and they kept vigil all night long with lanterns and search-lights—And just at the breaking of dawn, they found the mangled form of Gabe—His last ride, his last roundup. Just how it happened, no one will ever know, the physical facts of the tragedy—The entanglements of a lariat rope and bucking horse—Hence, the fatal lasso—A blighted romance. So sad.

Haight's Dreams

Two blocks south of Jay Pingpong Morgans office in New York City stands Faunce's Tavern. That's where George Washington said "so long" to his generals before he shoved off for Virginia. It was where he made his famous farewell address. It was where his generals left the bar long enough to cry on his shoulder and tell him what a regular guy he was, George was not much on a drinker but he could steer the gang up against a flock of mint juleps that would knock your hat off and that's just what he did before he left to take the "row boat" out to the ship that was to take him away. Now George came to me a few nights ago and said what do you think of the way I beat King George. Didn't I make a good job of it? I said I couldn't do one better myself. So he up and asked me what I thought of Cornwallis, the English general who surrendered at Yorktown. Well, George, I says, Cornwallis gave up too easily. He said I know it but when a fellow has a few glasses of Tom & Jerry he just naturally wants to quit so I says to him, say George, just hand me your toad sticker and beat it back home which he done. Now George, says I, there is one question I want to ask you before we part: Why do they print pictures of you down on your farm in Virginia setting out on the front porch with a lot of children and then they say Providence left you childless so that your country could call you father? Well he says there are some liars in the world. But he says, not wishing to change the subject, I want to show you a new gun that will win

ANNOUNCES $25-A-MONTH TIME PAYMENTS AND A NEW UCC 6% FINANCE PLAN

Any New Ford V-8 Car Can Now Be Purchased for $25 a Month with Usual Low Down-Payment

This $25-a-month time-payment plan enables you to buy a New Ford V-8 car through your Ford dealer on new low monthly terms.

After the usual low down-payment is made, $25 a month is all you have to pay for any type of new car, including insurance and financing.

Your cost for this extension of credit is only one-half of 1 per cent a month on your original unpaid balance and insurance. This plan reduces financing charges for twelve months to 6 per cent. For example, if you owe a balance of $400 for your car and insurance, you pay $24 for the year of credit; if the balance is $200 you pay $12. Your credit cost for one year is the original unpaid balance multiplied by 6 per cent.

UCC plans provide you with insurance protection at regular conference rates. You have not only fire and theft insurance, but $50 deductible collision, and protection against other accidental physical damage to your car.

The Universal Credit Company has made these plans available through all Ford dealers in the United States.

Early History Baptist Church Dates From August 1885

'Baptist' Sermon Was First Preached Here '85

Early history of the First Baptist church of Midland, observing this week its fiftieth anniversary, dates from correspondence started August 21, 1885. The late J. H. Barron, one of the town's earliest merchants and cattlemen, wrote on that date to W. R. Maxwell, superintendent of the board of missions of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, to interest the board in organization of churches of this section.

The first "Baptist" sermon at Midland was preached August 21, 1885, by the Rev. J. A. Moore of Sweetwater.

The mission superintendent and two board members visited Sweetwater, Big Spring, Midland and Pecos, in November, 1885, and the organization of the church here on January 10, 1886, followed.

Later, at the first anniversary of the church's occupancy of its present building, Mr. Barron was on a special program and related the following early history of the institution:

"I will preface my few remarks with an account of the work leading up to our organization, as it is a part of our church history. The board of the Baptist General Convention elected Bro. W. R. Maxwell, who is now in Heaven, as superintendent of missions. He, together with Bro. Bennett Hatcher and Bro. Walter Whittle, visited this field in November, 1885, and, by consultation with the few Baptists out here, agreed to furnish us a pastor if we would pay half his salary.

"Pecos agreed to give $250, Midland $125 and Big Spring $125. Bro. S. B. Calloway was sent out. He soon got together a committee here and, on the tenth day of January, 1885, as read you in the minutes of that day, organized our church.

"Our first year was a history-making year. Our second conference meeting, February 14, 1886, was devoted to the work of building a meeting house. A committee was appointed to at once proceed to let the contract. In March the contract was let and the building begun. In April the church incorporated, electing five trustees, J. H. Barron, J. C. McCullough, T. M. Waddell, H. C. Petty and C. W. Croff. Waddell and Barron are still on the board. Bro. Calloway served two years, or rather for the years 1886 to October, 1887.

"Bro. L. R. Millican was then chosen for membership and only reached 30 when he came. During the year 1888 our gain was about ten.

"In January, 1889, we organized our first Baptist Sunday school, having had only a union school up to that time. This was a prosperous year with us in many ways. The church was paid out of debt. We raised our pastor's salary from $250 for one Sunday to $500 for two Sundays in each month. About 35 were our gain in membership for 1889.

"In 1890 the Lord greatly blessed the church and many new members were received by baptism. In 1889 and 1890 the church received many such as Bro. J. F. Pemberton and wife, C. W. Crown and wife, E. C. Crowley and wife, P. Divers and wife, and many others. In 1891 some progress was made and in 1892 the Lord abundantly blessed us in giving us such members as Bro. C. Schrauber and wife, and B. N. Aycock and wife. Many young people came in. During 1893 our church had become strong enough financially to begin the church building to the present location, and it was greatly enlarged.

"During the years 1892 and 1893, we had some good meetings, lots of conversions, and I notice from the minutes we had something doing in the way of disciplining members who were excluded for intoxication and younger ones for dancing, and still the Lord blessed the church.

"In February, 1894, Bro. Millican resigned the care of the church and moved to El Paso. We were without a pastor until May, when we secured Bro. C. H. Wilson, Bro. Millican having served us six years, and completed eight years of history. When we called Bro. Wilson, his salary was placed at $1,200 per year for all time. We had a good year for 1894. Bro. Wilson served us to November, 1895, when he resigned and moved back to Beville.

Pastor's Work Success

The Rev. Winston F. Borum, pastor of the First Baptist church, celebrating its fiftieth anniversary, came to the pastorate here four years and three months ago. During this time there have been 582 additions to the church. Debts have been paid off and for two years the

Membership Growth Over 100 Per Cent In Last 5 Years

Organizing on January 10, 1886, with a charter membership of twenty, the First Baptist church now has a roster of approximately 1,100 members. Sunday school and church attendance records recently have challenged those of any previous era and the financial condition of the organization is at its best. The list of resident members approximates the 800 mark.

The Rev. Winston F. Borum, present pastor, came here from Pecos four years and three months ago and during that time there have been approximately 582 additions to the church membership. For the past two years the church has been out of debt and on a cash basis and for the past four months, since inauguration of a tithe program, a building fund has been started and increased week by week to a total last Sunday of $1,850.

Minutes of First Meeting of Baptist Church Here as Written Jan. 10, 1886

Pursuant to a call made by Brother S. B. Calloway, minister in charge of this work, appointed by the Board of the Texas Baptist State Convention, the Baptists of Midland, Texas, and vicinity met at the school house in said town at 11 o'clock A. M. Sunday, January 10th, 1886, for the purpose of organizing a Baptist Church.

The meeting was called to order and opened by Brother Calloway by reading appropriate selections of scripture and prayer.

Upon motion and second it was unanimously voted by the Baptists present that we proceed at once with the organization. After the appointment of Brother J. H. Barron as clerk pro tem, a call was made and the following named persons deposited their letters to wit:

1. Brother C. W. Craft
2. Sister Carrie Craft
3. Brother J. J. McCullough
4. Sister E. J. Norris
5. Brother T. M. Waddell
6. Sister A. E. Waddell
7. Brother J. H. Barron
8. Sister Annie Barron
9. Sister M. E. Palmer
10. Sister Ann Willingham
11. Sister M. E. Nash
12. Brother Reuben Barron

Those not having letters but who are in good standing with their churches, and who present themselves for membership and were received upon their promise to procure letters at earliest convenience, are as follows, to wit:

13. Sister M. F. Stanfield
14. Sister E. J. Norris
15. Sister E. Westmoreland
16. Sister M. B. Talbert
17. Sister McKenzie
18. Brother John R. Barron
19. Brother S. B. Calloway
20. Sister S. C. Calloway

Those who could not attend the meeting, some from sickness, and others on account of difficulty in attending from distance to be traveled and etc., but who desired to go into the organization, being introduced by their churches, who authorized Brother Calloway to make statement for them and to ask for them to be received as members upon said statement, agreeing to deposit their letters afterwards, are as follows:

21. Brother A. H. Holmes
22. Brother H. C. Petty
23. Sister E. L. Petty
24. Sister Mary Petty
25. Sister Minnie Petty

All having presented themselves as above, and having recognized each other as being proper persons with whom to enter into church fellowship, the articles of Faith as contained in Pendleton's Church Manual were carefully read by Brother Calloway, and then upon motion were read and adopted, article by article, until all had been adopted by the unanimous vote of the church. Then the motion was made that we do now bind ourselves together in organization more completely and finally by the adoption of the following

COVENANT
"Having been, as we trust, brought by divine grace to embrace the Lord present building. During the ministry of Mr. Finney, an addition was built on the east of the church building, completing it as it is today.

Rev. E. Quick, (1915-1917), was the next pastor and he, in turn, was succeeded by Rev. O. J. Hull, (1918-1922). When the church celebrated its 30th anniversary in 1916, the membership had grown to 524. In 1920, under the leadership of Mr. Hull, the present parsonage property was acquired and the home re-nucleated.

Since that time, there have been three other pastors of the church: Rev. W. S. Garnett, (1923-1924); Rev. George F. Brown, (1925-1931); and the present pastor, Rev. Winston F. Borum, who passed his fourth anniversary as pastor of the church October 15, 1935.

Women's Society Parallels Church in Service Achievements

Fifty years and one month of service—that is the record of the women's organization of the First Baptist church. Actual organization among the women preceded by a month the organization of the church itself, and has kept step with the expansion of the membership.

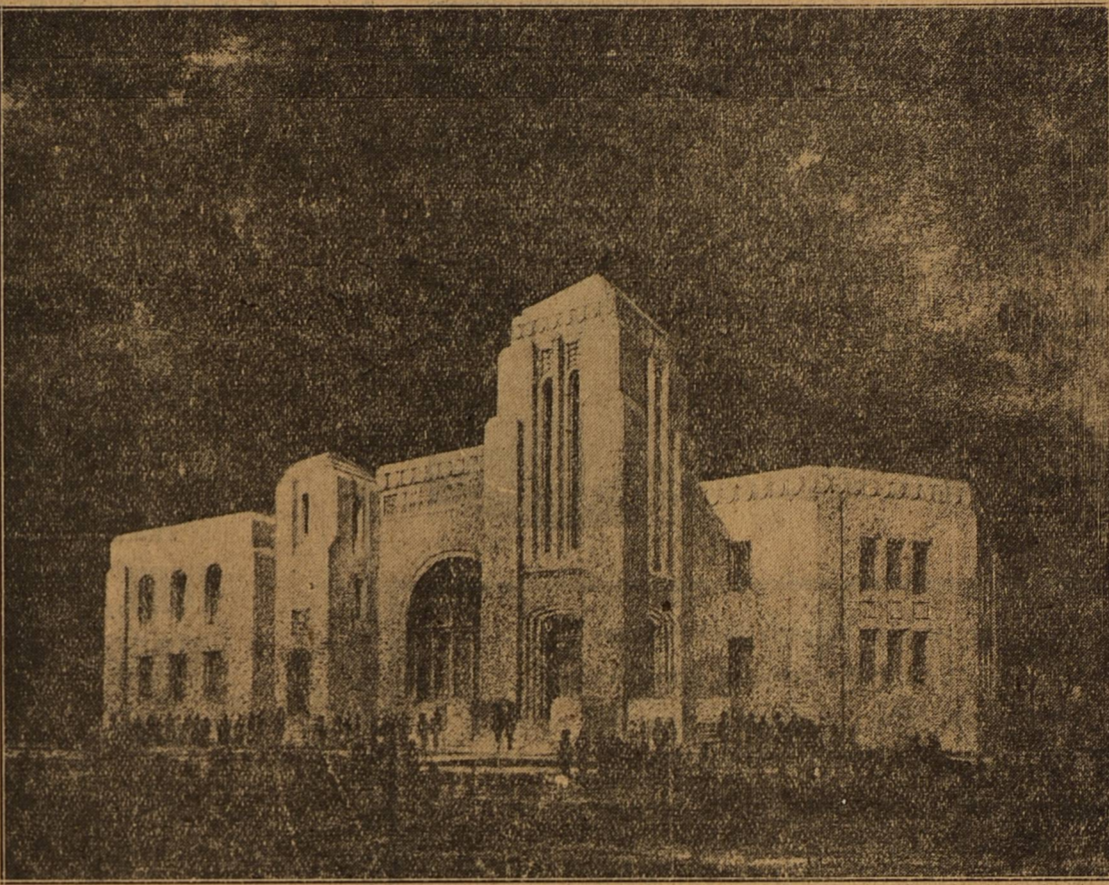

In 1885 (approximate date) the name of the group was changed to the Woman's Auxiliary and again in about 1924 to the Woman's Missionary society. In the latter year it adopted the Sunbeam Band, an organization for small children; the Royal Ambassadors, composed of boys; the Girls' auxiliary for young girls; and the YWA for young women.

For 45 years, the missionary society has sent two boxes of food and clothing yearly to Buckner's Orphan Home at Dallas and one cash offering to the same institution.

It contributed to the erection of the woman's building at the Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth in 1906 and each year has given a whole or part scholarship at the seminary.

Various other projects have been sponsored by the women. When the present pastor's home was built some 15 years ago, the house was

Fund For New Building Growing Weekly

Baptists of Midland, observing this week the fiftieth anniversary of the church, will make contributions of fifty pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, half dollars or dollars to the building fund which now is over $1,850. The fund was started four months ago when a tithe program was inaugurated. Each week a portion of the church receipts is allotted to the building fund. Of the 1,100 members of the church, almost 800 live here and more than 250 are "tithing." The church is out of debt and on a cash basis. Its 1936 slogan is "Every member enlisted in the whole program with his prayers, presence, purse." The small building at the left is the present auditorium, while the large one at the top is the architect's drawing of the proposed new edifice. Complete plans and specifications for the building are owned by the church.

partly furnished through efforts of the missionary society and four years ago it was redecored by the same agency.

About 1925 the organization redecored the church at a cost of $700. In addition, several pianos have been bought and church floors were carpeted about 28 years ago. The women's parlor at the church was furnished also.

In the realm of personal service, the missionary society lists thousands of visits to the sick, needy, and others and hundreds of trays of food sent to the sick and poor.

The missionary society at present holds weekly meetings and sponsors a definite educational and missionary program. Its contribution comes through the church budget.

It gives about $700 a year to the Orphan's Home, state, home, and foreign missions, ministerial relief, foreign student fund, and educational fund.

Additional presidents of the women's organization have been: Mrs. J. C. Buckner, now dead; Mrs. West Moreland of Kermit; Mrs. F. F. Gary of Big Spring; Mrs. Isadore Harmon, now dead; Mrs. J. B. Rhea, now dead; Mrs. Geo. Elliott, Odessa; Mrs. L. E. Finney, Waco; Mrs. J. E. Nelson of San Antonio; Mrs. W. H. Cowden of San Antonio; Mrs. Frank Norwood of Arizona;

Baptist T. E. L. Class Has Had Only 2 Teachers

Organized in 1918, the T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school is unusual in its record of having had only two teachers in its 18 years of existence. Mrs. O. J. Hull, wife of the Baptist pastor at the time, taught the class for six years. Mrs. W. W. Wimberly, who still holds that position, has been teacher for 12 years.

Despite the fact that it has twice been divided into other classes, the T. E. L. has a membership at present of 20 women, most of whom attend regularly. Mrs. Martha Holmwood, member well over 80 years old, has not missed a Sunday's attendance at the class for the last two years.

A monthly business and social meeting is held.

At the time of its organization, this class was the only one for married women in the Baptist church here. Since that time several other classes for married women have been organized.

Mrs. V. Z. Wren aids Mrs. Wimberly as assistant teacher and Mrs. D. W. Brunson is president of the class.

Water But None to Drink

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (UP)—Residents in the 19th ward of this city have a new motto: "City water everywhere but not a drop to drink." This paradoxical situation is explained by a state law which prohibits connecting homes to water mains until assessment costs have been paid in full.

PAULS VALLEY IN 19-14 WIN OVER BUCKAROOS SAT.

Nathan Stufflebeam Leads Sooners To Victory

Led by Nathan Stufflebeam, 180 pound quarterback, the Pauls Valley Panthers from Oklahoma Saturday defeated the Breckenridge Buckaroos in the Will Rogers memorial game on Texas Christian university stadium field in Fort Worth by a 19-14 score.

The winners were forced to come from behind in the last period to win, but Stufflebeam almost single-handedly carried the ball the length of the field to drive home the winning tally.

The Panthers scored early in the first period when Ethridge crashed over from the one yard line after Stufflebeam had advanced the ball into position by a series of power thrusts.

The Bucs lost no time in tying up the score, however, advancing the length of the field without once losing possession of the ball the next time they got their hands on it.

The Sooners once more took the lead in the second period when a long return of one of Clark's punts by Stufflebeam placed the ball on the Buc 10 yard stripe. Breckenridge was penalized five yards for offside and in three tries the large Oklahoma quarterback carried the ball over.

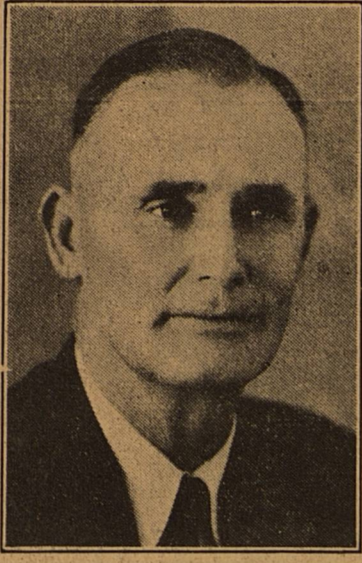

The Bucs took a one point lead in the third quarter when Rector went over from the 10 yard line after Taylor had returned a Sooner punt for 25 yards. They were unable to hold the lead, however, as Stufflebeam tore large holes in their line to carry over the line for the winning score with feet to spare.

Attending the family re-union on Christmas day were: Miss Nora Lackey of the Fort Worth public schools; Mrs. A. B. Duckworth, a sister of Caldwell; Mrs. R. F. Stokes, another sister of San Antonio; C. S. Lackey of Dallas; T. E. Lackey of Durant, Okla.; and the Midland superintendent.

The superintendent reports attending the Amarillo Greenview State championship game in Dallas, and listening in on the Sugar Bowl and the Rose Bowl games from the studios of the Baker Hotel in Dallas.

Superintendent Lackey left with instructions from the board to fill all vacancies, if possible, during the holidays, and most of his time during the holidays was spent in a diligent search for desirable teachers. He personally visited the two colleges in Denton, T. C. U. in Fort Worth, and S. M. She has had ten or twelve years of successful experience as English teacher in the Junior College of Gainesville, as supervisor of English of Texas affiliated high schools, in the State Department of Education, and as head of the English department of the Bowie high school. She is rated as a very strong teacher, and will be assigned to teach freshman English in the high school, the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Tammie Burrus.

Miss Jimmie Martin is a graduate of the Itasca high school and has the B. A. degree from Baylor University. She has had six years of successful experience as grade teacher and as high school English teacher in the schools of Midlothian. Miss Martin comes highly recommended, and will be assigned to the high fifth grades at Junior high school.

A. C. Weyman, dealer for Norge in Midland, and Salesman J. W. Sugg, salesman for the company here, have received notice that they have won trips to the Norge factory at Detroit. The two are going with more than 100 other Norge dealers and salesmen on a special Texas train which will leave Dallas today. Those making the trip will assemble with other groups of Norge men in Chicago after which they will visit the plants in Muskegon and Detroit. Weyman reports that Norge has expended over $100,000 in increased production facilities to take care of the anticipated 1936 demand for their products. While in Detroit, the men will have a chance to study all of the features of the new and improved line for 1936. Weyman attributes his success in winning this trip to the increasing public preference for Midland for Norge home appliances.

GEOLOGY BOOKS GIVEN LIBRARY

Llyod Makes Contribution of Two New Volumes To List

The latest additions to the geological shelf at the Midland County Library are volumes 1 and 2 of the "Bibliography and index of Geology Exclusive of North America" by John M. Nickless and Robert B. Miller and published by the Geological Society of America. These two volumes cover the years 1933 and 1934. They were contributed by E. Russell Llyod, a member of the Geological Society of America. Llyod states that a similar volume will be published each year and will be placed on the geologic shelf at the library. These bibliographies are intended to supplement corresponding publications by the U. S. Geological Survey, covering North America. West Texas geologists thumbing through the pages of these two G. S. A. volumes, will be interested to find that their profession is being practiced in all the four corners of the globe. In particular they will observe that Permian sediments receive much attention in many other places as indicated by more than a hundred references to the Permian for 1934 alone.
