WOMEN PICKETS BITE AND FIGHT IN LOS ANGELES

Hair-Pullings and Black Eyes Are Numerous

LOS ANGELES, April 5. (A).-Two

LOS ANGELES, April 5. (P).—Two women nursed injuries today after rioting the Boyle Heights district where housewives were picketing the butcher shops in protest against the high meat prices.

Riot squads were rushed to the scene when 500 men and women joined in a disturbance which started when two housewives, Mrs. Edith Bernhard and Mrs. Anna Joseph, walked out of a shop. The pickets, representing two organizations that were protesting the high meat costs, attempted to seize and destroy the women's bundles.

Mrs. Joseph's eye was blacked and Mrs. Joseph's eye was blacked and Mrs. Bernhard was cut and bruised about the face in the melee.

Ray Gollin, owner of the shop, said that he, his wife and daughter were knocked down and trampled.

More than a 'dozen calls have brought police to meat markets within a limited area in the last few hours, where a so-called radical faction of housewives is carrying on its fight against the high cost of living.

ving.

Police reported several hairpulling skirmishes between picketing ousewives and meat shop patrons. The violence followed a mass meeting of heavy vivid at the part of heavy vivid the anti-meat buying campaign being led by the housewives of Angeles.

HELIUM PLANT TO CLOSE JULY FIRST

AMARILLO, April 5. (P).—The government helium producing plant near Amarillo with a capacity production of 24,000,000 cubic feet a year will be closed July 1, unless an appropriation now pending in congress is approved.

Even if funds are voted the operating personnel will be curtailed drastically, C. W. Seibel, supervising engineer of the plant, said. Thirteen men are scheduled to be furloughed this month and six more in three months. Distribution was by U. S. biological survey employes under the direction of John M. Hill Jr. of Lubbock, in charge of 75 counties in Northwest Texas from San Angelo to the Oklahoma panhandle and from New Mexico to Abilene. The grain came mostly from Fort Worth.

Distribution points were: Paris and Vernon, Texas, and Altus, Okla. The birds, mostly ducks, had not been able to get much grain or feed for months.

three months.

Continued operation of the plant is threatened as a result of the misfortune the United States has ex-craft.

Uses of the non-explosive and non-inflamable helium for other than inflation are negligible. The buoyant gas may be used in a stratosphere hop this summer. The flight, jointly sponsored by the National Geographic society and a U. S. Army corps, will require only about 250,000 cubic feet of helium.

A movement has been started to make the plant into an experiment laboratory.

that each of the gunmen were armed with two guns.

"I walked into the washroom to get a drink," Kerr said. "As I turned around somebody said: "Stick 'em up!" I turned and grabbed at the fellow and someone shot me."

The robbers took the porter and brakeman with them on the tour of the cars—the buffet car and three sleepers. All the cars were well filled. Starving Wild Game

Business on the railroad has picked up recently with vacationers going South. The buffet car was particularly crowded at the time of the holdup, shortly before 7 p. m.

The robbers stationed one of their number with a drawn pistol at the front end of the club car to insure that no one would attempt to notify the engine crew or mail guards. Members of the train crew warned they would be shot if they pulled the signal cord.

Local authorities expressed amazement at the brazenness of the robbery.

"Not since the days of the James boys and other western desperadoes has there been a wholesale robbery of train passengers," one official said. "There have been several mail robberies, but those entailed the holding at bay of only two or three persons. There were at least 40 persons held up in the robbery last.

PIPELINE BILL IS RE-REFERRED TO OIL, GAS COM.

AUSTIN, April 5. (A).-A bill to AUSTIN, April 5. (P).—A bill to establish a public corporation to construct the $60,000,000 gas pipeline from the Texas panhandle to St. Louis and Detroit received a setback in the House today when it was re-referred to the committee on oil, gas and mining.

Representative Stewart of Pairfield offered a motion to recommit the bill, saying that there was a big demand for a public hearing and that in the present form it was one of the most dangerous bills ever introduced.

INJURED AS STORM DEVASTATES TOWN Four Inches of Rain And Hail Fall in

ONE DEAD AND 151

Normandy Eagle Pass, April 5, (P).—A tornado devastated the fertile Quemado Valley early today, killing one man, injuring 151 persons and blew down 80 houses.

Crops were wrecked and the new school building was levelled at Normandy, a new development in the south Quemado, which was the hardest hit of all surrounding towns. The dead man, Everett Woolridge, was brought to the hospital here in a serious condition and died soon afterward.

Others were reported badly hurt and all available doctors and nurses rushed to the stricken area to care for the casulties.

for the casulties.

Four inches of rain and hail fell as the raging wind swept from Mexico after midnight, ripping communications lines and cutting the isolated valley off from other sections. Rivers and creeks were flooded and the muddy unpaved roads were impassable. Horses were being used for relief work as that was the only method of transportation available in the stricken area.

AS SENATOR BORAH SEES EUROPE

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho can usually be counted on to have sensible ideas on the subject of international relations; and his most recent comment on the current crisis in Europe will probably impress most Americans as an intelligent summing-up of the situation.

Asked for his opinion on the outcome of European negotiations, Senator Borah said:

like the committee planned.

No Plan Offered

Utility Substitute

WASHINGTON.—Analyzing various phases of the Rayburn bill which he termed "drastic" S. R. Inch, president of the Electric Bond and Share Company called to the attention of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee that no plan has been presented as a substitute for the present locally-regulated, privately-operated public utility system.

"Certainly nothing so drastic as this bill should be enacted into law unless and until those who would destroy what now exists have prepared and submitted a definite and workable plan of procedure", Mr. Inch said.

Effects of the Rayburn bill would ultimately increase the costs of electric and gas service to the consumer and by demoralizing local companies

Would impair service, Mr. Inch also stated.

"A large number of operating companies receiversinps would in-evitably follow the passage of this bill because necessary financing now obtained from holding companies, would not be forthcoming", said Mr. Inch. "This would result in general demoralization and workable plan of procedure", Mr. Inch brought out that the electric and gas industries, if accorded fair treatment and cooperation from government, could be great leaders in the drive for business confidence which will permit private tax-paying capital to go to work again," he said.

"Then the next five years, instead of seeing the demoralization and destruction of these great industries as private enterprises under this bill would see them again en-ocrats and industrial leaders advocating repeal of processing taxes.

The pending Copetand food and drug bill was shelved for most of the day as the Senate discussed the plight of the cotton farmer, the textile industry, new deal experiments and the way in which the Japanese are grabbing America's foreign textile markets.

Senator Bankhead (Dem.) of Alabama, author of the compulsory cotton control bill, defended the AAA crop activities and attacked demands by Senator Tydings (Dem.) of Maryland and Senator George (Dem). of Georgia that processing levies and other new deal projects be scrapped and that the Nation be given an opportunity to proceed in an orderly way toward recovery.

Fate of Baylor Club Depends on Pitching

WACO, April 5.—Baylor University's baseball team opens its Southwest conference season here Friday and Saturday of this week when the Texas Christian University nine invades the local park for a twogame series.

The record of the Bears to date
bears little to give the Baylor fans hope, chiefly because of the pitching problem that confronts Coach Moriey Jennings. One win and four defeats is the accomplishment of the team so far. The Textile Millers, local independent team, fell before the onslaught of the Bruins in the first game of the season.

Two games with the Humble Oilers of Overton, reputed to be topranking semi-pro club of the state, netted two losses. An Overton scribe, however, said that Baylor's team was the best college nine to

Late News

WASHINGTON, April 5, (P).—A conference agreement on the $4,800,000,000 (billions) work relief program was approved by the House today and Senate enaction alone remained to speed the bill to the President.

An hour's debate preceded the House acceptance of the conference report containing the compromise agreement on the controversial work issue in the provision allocating $900,000,000 (millions) for non-federal projects.

AUSTIN, April 5, (P).—The House today approved the submission of a constitutional amendment providing free textbooks be furnished to all school children of scholastic age.

ASTIN, April 5, (P).—The Centennial legislation was thrown into confusion today in the House when it was discovered that the votes of two members were improperly recorded yesterday on a motion regarded as vital to the bill.

With the shrill scream of zooming airplanes as a blood-stirring background, Wallace Beery comes to the Yucca screen in the most startling aviation spectacle of the year, "West Point of the Air," preview Saturday night, and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Just as "Hell Divers" was the great air epic of the United States Navy, so is the new picture a breath-taking revelation of Uncle Sam's strength in the Air Corps training centers of the Army.

Surpasses "The Champ"

Beery in his role as "Big Mike" gives a dramatic portrayal that surpasses even his performance in "The Champ." His pathetic love for a son whose conceit almost brings disgrace to the Air Corps builds into the foundation for one of the most smashing screen climaxes ever filmed.

Heading the supporting cast as the young romantic lead is Maureen O'Sullivan. Other members are Robert Young, Jimmy Gleason, Russel Hardie, Henry Wadsworth, Robert Taylor and Robert Livingston.

A. C. C. Gridsters Stop Here for Lunch

Thirty-two members of the Abilene Christian College football team, accompanied by their coach, Bugs Morris, stopped in Midland long enough today for lunch on their way to Wink where they will play the Sul Ross Loboes this afternoon.

Although the skirmish is not listed as a match game it will afford the Wildcats an opportunity for squaring, in a measure, their loss to the Alpine team last Autum. The Loboes beat the Christians 13-0, in an October game at Marfa.

Educational Program Gains CCC Members

COLLEGE STATION, April 5.-An educational program ranging in 'instruction from primary work through college courses is attract-ing a growing number of enrollees in the Federal CCC camps through-work. East Texas camps, he added, are setting the educational pace in the area which in CCC work includes Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and Arizona. Indications are that for the new three months period beginning with April, 75 to 100 additional CCC camps will be established in the area, Mr. Rogers said, which would mean a considerable expansion in the teaching program.

For the period just ending, there were 154 camps in the 8th Corps Area, 129 of these being regular camps and 25 drought relief camps with total enrollment of about 37,500 men. Texas had 42 regular camps with enrollment of about 10,000. Out of the 30,000 enrolled in the regular camps, 18,000 men were enrolled in the educational program, 7,500 of these being in Texas camps. The educational program in these camps has become an outstanding work in adult education
