McCraw Announces Hot Oil Fighters

Six Additional Men On Staff to Aid Enforcement

Hot On Trail of "Hot Oil"

AUSTIN, June 8.—Attorney General William McCraw Saturday announced complete personnel of his oil and gas law enforcement staff, five of whom have headquarters in Austin and four in the East Texas fields. Recently enacted measures affecting the oil and gas industries prompted the 44th Legislature to authorize appointment of six additional aides. Funds were provided by an increase in the gross production tax.

At the capital, in new quarters in the Austin Labor Temple, are stationed W. J. Dick, Holm, Waco; Archie D. Gray, Waxahachie; William C. Davis, San Antonio; Harry S. Pollard, Dallas; and Joe Sharp, Elview. Located in Longview are Merton L. Harris, Smithville; Tom D. Rowell, Jr., Jefferson; T. F. Morrow, Fort Worth; and L. H. Engeling, Bellville.

Attorney General McCraw described this force as "energetic, capable and cool" by cool I mean eager to give the hot oil boys a cold reception.

The last legislature passed, and Governor James V. Alfred approved, three pieces of legislation vitally affecting oil and gas conservation. They are:

The general act which redefines, clarifies, with more specific definitions of waste, the oil and gas conservation laws enacted in the past.

The law authorizing the state to confiscate and sell hot oils and products to have tenders and manifests showing legal cargo.

The Senator Clint C. Small gas conservation law designed to stop the enormous wastage of natural gas in the Panhandle field in the past.

This same statute has the possibilities, some say, of rivaling in importance the enforcement of oil conservation laws in East Texas.

Successful upholding of this law, under which Railroad Commission orders soon will be effective, will be a counter action of proponents of Federal control, McCraw said. Its legal defense has been assigned to Gray. First hearing under the new law will be conducted by the Railroad Commission at Amarillo, June 14.

TEN RULES FOR CAR DRIVERS

Motorists passing over the highways of Midland county, where accidents occur frequently on the section where the view is clear and the road is wide, should digest thoroughly the ten rules for prevention of automobile accidents as laid down by the Ladies Home Journal in its safety campaign:

1. I will know and follow the rules of the road and obey all signs and signals.
2. I will know my car and keep it in safe condition.
3. I will suit my speed to conditions—to the traffic, to my clear view ahead, to the state of the road, the time of day and the number of hours I have been driving.
4. I will never pass a car near the crest of a hill, on a curve, or at an intersection.
5. I will not fight for the right of way.
6. I will give understandable signals of what I am going to do.
7. I will be patient in traffic.
8. I will be courteous to pedestrians.
9. I will try to make up by my driving what some others may lack in skill or caution.
10. I will remember that it generally takes two to cause an accident.

To conserve our remaining pedestrians, how about fining any driver who bags an under-sized specimen?

The Town Quack

to eave will be better off than the one who got scared and pulled out when he thought his country was blown up.

Right now, some farmers of Midland county are repenting for the third time. If they didn't get haled out they had such hard rains right after planting that they had to start over. But, as one of them said, it's better to be haled out or haled out than to be "blowed out."

A man recently got a neighbor out of bed, telling him there was something burning. They investigated the neighborhood but could find nothing. The first neighbor apologized for waking the other up. "That's all right," he said. "I'd rather be woke up than burned up."

The grand jury will be in session Monday, and I'll bet the city streets will be as vacant as on the first of the month. I don't know of a time when men feel as ignorant as when the grand jury is in session.

Three Midland men were observing "old home week." One of them found several bottles of home brew which had been discarded when it became legal. They drank it and turned the observance into "old home brew week."

HEALTH

HASH Cooked by MRS. ADDISON YOUNG

In an article entitled "People's Death Fight," published in Country Gentleman and condensed by Readers' Digest, Paul de Kruif, famous writer on medical subjects, says "What excuse is there for the plague existing any longer? It could be dead as the dodo bird in 20 years' time." He was speaking of the plague of tuberculosis. And it could be, if we as professed Christians would cooperate with our governments and public health minded physicians of the country.

With all the "Modern Weapons to Fight Tuberculosis" which we have in the present day it is truly an infamy that we still have so many deaths from this disease. Nor can we seek shelter behind the alibi that the disease is on a decrease.

Some recent figures show that Midland County has had 25 deaths in the last five years (including 1935) from tuberculosis; that 13 of these were men and 12 were women. Under the age of thirty there were more deaths among women, but over age thirty there were more deaths among men. These figures tally with the generally known facts about tuberculosis. There has been a far greater proportion of deaths among young women than among young men, and there have been numerous theories as to the cause.

Our fight against tuberculosis must be an offensive. It is necessary to search out the enemy and bring it into an open fight. In order to do this the cooperation of every person in the community is necessary. Those who have tuberculosis in the family should not feel that it is a skeleton in the closet, but report it to their family doctor, and allow him to report it to the health officer. Some persons are still under the impression that to have tuberculosis is a personal disgrace, and shun all those who do have it. These persons have been heard to remark "I don't want to know if I have tuberculosis." To my mind it is a disgrace for a person to have the disease and not want to grow it, because he is then the worst type of spreader of the disease.

A growth of eight inches between the ages of 14 and 16 is average for the average boy.

Consider Food Needs In Planning Menus For Picnic Days

By MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

I heard the other day of a movement to put picnics on a less haphazard basis and I'm for it. Unfortunately, it's the children who are the chief sufferers at picnics because their needs are seldom considered. The same principles of nutrition must be kept in mind whether a family dinner is being planned or luncheon is being selected from a menu card in a restaurant.

The picnic composed of sandwiches, fruit and a drink is the easiest meal to plan. This type of lunch is fine to take along when you're exploring new roads in your car. It's easy to pack and serve. The sandwiches do duty for the main dish and so must be high in food value and easy to digest.

Salad Makes It Elaborate
A menu which is a bit more elaborate adds a salad and little cakes or cookies. Here again the sandwiches may be the chief source of protein, although a meat or fish salad may be chosen and vegetable sandwiches provided. If hearty sandwiches are planned, then the salad should furnish bulk, mineral constituents and vitamins as well as piquancy and interest. Always be sure the salad carries well, because unless the dish is attractive when served it's a doubtful addition.

The picnic planned to take the place of dinner at home adds a hot dish to the salad and sandwich menu. The hot dish might be one of those one-piece concoctions which combines vegetables and meat. Macaroni or rice combination dishes are easy to carry. Scalloped tomatoes with bacon, scalloped cauliflower in cheese

It may cost BOTH TIME and MONEY

GULF WINS 4-3 THRILLER OVER HUGHES

WINNERS LAND ON STRAUGHAN FOR 4 TALLIES IN SIXTH

In one of the most exciting and thrilling games ever witnessed on the local diamond the Gulf Refining softball team managed to overcome a two-run deficit and finally defeat the Hughes Tool club Friday night by a four to three score. The Hughes team took a one-run lead in the fifth inning when Hill, Gulf center fielder, let A. Estes' grounder get past him for four bases and increased their lead to two tallies when they made one the sixth on two walks, a fly ball and two outfield put-outs. In one of the most exciting and thrilling games ever witnessed on the local diamond the Gulf Refining softball team managed to overcome a two-run deficit and finally Taylor walked, White flew out to center field, Adamson, Gulf pitcher, unloosed a wild pitch, Burris walked, and Lewellen hit a long fly to Estes, in left. Taylor scored but Burris was doubled off base when he tried to reach third after the catch. The Gulf team did not get a base hit off Straughan until the sixth but managed to get two men on base in the second, fourth and fifth before they finally found the range in the fifth for the winning runs. To start the big inning, Heath, first up reached first on Woody's error, Estes walked, Hill popped out to the catcher, Stevens walked to lead the bases and Cook came through with a triple to drive three runners home and put the Gulf into the lead for the first time. Manager Girdley then smashed one to Krutlek, Hughes Tool shortstop, that was too hot to handle and Cook romped home with the run that was to decide the game. After two men had been retired Estes reached first on an error and went all the way around on two passed balls and hit by Straughan to put his club one run behind but Adamson took Woody's fast grounder to the box and threw him out at first to end the ball game.

OMAHA WINS THE BELMONT STAKES TO BRING WINNINGS FOR YEAR TO $103,080

BELMONT PARK, June 8, (P)—Over a treacherous racing strip, made like glass by a driving rain, William Woodward's Omaha, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness races, again asserted his right to rule the three-year-olds as he completed a "triple crown" with a victory in the sixty seventh running of the $50,000 Belmont stakes. Firethorn, second in the Preakness, was again the runner-up and Rosemont, conqueror of Omaha in the Withers mile, was third. Omaha stepped off the one and a half miles in 2:30 and threelfifths. He was a 7 to 10 choice of the crowd of more than 20,000. In chalking up his fourth victory of the year, the first being an overnight even, Omaha ran his earnings for the year to $103,080.

Dick Dowling's History Knowledge Made Him a Hero

PORT NECHES, (U.P.)—A present-day commentator observed that "Dick" Dowling's familiarity with history was directly responsible for the achievement which made him become the "hero of Sabine Pass." There are many good Texans who do not know how Dowling, in charge of 47 men on a bluff overlooking the Sabine River, routed a force of 200 Union gunboats, with 5,000 men by a stratagem which he had read of in Roman history. Sent to blast the fort off the cliff, the Union fleet, its guns trained on the eminence, was ready to destroy the only link remaining to Texas in its communications with Mexico. Then Dowling's knowledge of history saved the day and won what historians consider one of the decisive situations of the Civil War. He picked a spot in plain view of the enemy and held a drill. For 48 hours he paraded his "army" past an open spot visible from the river, throwing consternation into the hearts of the "yankees," who assumed he had a force of several thousand on the eminence. Without firing a shot, the enemy fleet sailed away, debarking back down the river into the Gulf. Today Dick Dowling's statue, in marble, dominates Houston's old post office building approach. In the hurrying throngs his deed is subject for a minute's quiet tribute in the minds of men and women who know the story. General Dowling, all but forgotten by present-day Texans, lives in Texas history as an outstanding example of "a scholar and a gentleman."

Tulsa Plans Big Air Race Program

TULSA—In recognition of the aviation development and air-mindedness of the southwest, air races with the most famous stunt and speed pilots, will be held in Tulsa June 29-30 under the sanction of the National Aeronautical association. "The show will be surpassed only by the great Cleveland National air races and the southwest is fortunate to get such an event," said Harry Clarke, president of the Tulsa chamber of commerce. "Speed racing will be the keynote of the races, and the first entry is the number one speed pilot, Lee Miles, who was high point winner in races over the country last year, including the National Air Races," according to James Rowan Ewing, managing director. Other events will include stunts such as falling 13,500 feet in 43 seconds, smoke trail spiral dives, speed aerobatics, dual delayed parachute jumps, team stunts and upside down flying. The races will be held at the famous Tulsa municipal airport which has the highest government rating and which has led such fields as Le Bourget at Paris and Croydon at London in numbers of passengers handled.

Searcher Caught
TONAWANDA, N. Y. (U.P.)—In this modern age of speed and more speed, Albert Milner, 65, was taken to city court on a charge of speeding on a bicycle. He pleaded not guilty, however, and was discharged by the presiding judge.

Polo was played in Persia only a few hundred years after the birth of Christ, and is one of the world's most ancient games.
