State Chiefs Pledge Aid On Park Project

Strange, Back From Parley, Confident Job Will Be Finished

Back from Austin where he conferred with members of the state parks board, in joint session with regional staff men of the national park service, W. T. Strange, Jr., chamber of commerce manager, expressed the belief Wednesday evening that the Scenic Mountain park would be completed.

Talks With Mayes Strange talked at length with W. W. Mayes, new chairman of the board, and D. E. Colp, former chairman. Both were interested in hearing all angles of the case here, said Strange, and pledged active support in seeing that the camp is not left in its present incomplete stage.

While in Austin he contacted the highway department on the possibility of a road through to Andrews. Proper procedure, he was informed, would be to secure right-of-way for such a road and submit it as a WPA project since the highway department is making no new designations now. The department offered to survey any proposed route.

Highway Suit The department, Strange learned, has already filed condemnation proceedings against Mrs. P. A. Ratliff, Big Spring, for roadway across her land in Glasscock county. The department made an offer totaling $384 which was refused by Mrs. Ratliff. The new highway "A" will cut off a corner of a section. Officials of the state board of water engineers were unable to suggest that geologists to be assigned to two districts in this area for purposes of a sub-strata water survey be located in Big Spring. The arrangement, it was argued, would permit the geologists to confer readily. The board promised that the first survey to be made in this section would be in Howard county.

The name of Big Spring and Howard county was injected by Strange into plans for a state wide industrial survey.

Will Rogers Fund Total Over $65

The Will Rogers Memorial fund contributions from Howard county had gone over the $65 mark Thursday, last day of the formal campaign. A gift of $2 from R. M. Bryan was received, and a correction in a donation of Lorin McDowell brought the total to $65.05. The latter's gift was listed Wednesday as 50 cents when it should have been recorded as $1.

He said that students who had failed to get their tickets for the game might obtain them on the train. The railroad round trip fare is $1, while game admission prices are 75 and 25 cents.

Question Of Oral Arguments On Examiner's Ruling Undecided

A radio broadcasting station for Big Spring was a step nearer reality Thursday, after the announcement from Washington Wednesday afternoon that an examiner for the federal communications commission had recommended the granting of the application of the Big Spring Herald Broadcasting company.

May Ask Argument The recommendation was made by John P. Bramhall, who had heard the company's application in August. At the same time he heard an application for a broadcasting station here of Vernon Taylor Anderson, manager of the ABC Broadcasting company. Yesterday he recommended the Anderson application be denied.

Means More Time

In event the appeal for oral argument is filed, the commission would decide whether or not to grant the appeal; and if the argument were permitted, a date of hearing would be set. This entire procedure usually requires about 60 days' time.

Showing May Play Part In Title Award

Players Told To 'Open Up' Against Mustangs At Sweetwater Today

When the Steers prance out on Newman Field at Sweetwater this afternoon they will be out to roll up a large score. Coaches instructed their charges here at the final workout Wednesday afternoon to open up against the Mustangs. "We want 'em to breeze across that pay-off stripe just as often as possible," one of the coaches remarked.

If They Win, They Tie A Steer loss will automatically make the San Angelo Bobcats district champions. The Bobcats defeated Sweetwater last week, 21 to 6, after trailing 6-0 the first half.

Big Spring and San Angelo frothed to a scoreless tie. The district will remain in a deadlock if the Steers trim Sweetwater today and the matter will be taken before the district committee, which in this instance happens to be R. S. Covey of Sweetwater. Covey will award the championship after hearing testimony from officials of both schools.

It is felt that the Steers must defeat the Steers by at least 15 or 20 points to have a chance at the title. Covey may make the award on basis of showings made against Sweetwater.

Wide Open Game

Today's game should provide plenty of thrills, as both teams have polished their aerial attacks and the tilt should be a wide open affair. There's no reason for the Steers to hold back. Coaches are satisfied that a touchdown win will not get the championship.

A few changes have been made for the joust this afternoon, one of which saw the return of Sam Flowers to center. Baker is due to spend the afternoon on the bench.

Ford In Game

Coaches believe the 125-pound Ford boy can diagnose plays better.

District WPA Program Soon To Reach Peak

Prospects are bright for the program to be in full stride within 30 days, with every jobless employable on the job.

By Wednesday more than 100 women were on library and sewing room projects in key points over the district. More than 400 men were on jobs, mostly road work.

This number is approximately one-fourth of the potential for the district according to figures certified to the district office by NRS. A majority of those eligible for WPA jobs are now engaged in seasonal employment.

Of the 29 projects now in operation, four are in Howard county. They are the Gail rowing job, the city park project, the sewing room, and the high school library work.

Allotment of more than half a million dollars in federal funds have been made to this district. This is to be supplemented by a quarter-million dollars from sponsors in 11 counties in the district.

NEW YORK U.-FORDHAM BATTLE BIG HOLIDAY ATTRACTION

VIOLETS MAKING BID TODAY FOR THEIR 1ST PERFECT GRID SEASON

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Headlining the nation's holiday football treats for Thanksgiving is the one that will take place in the "House that Ruth built" in New York City, with the undefeated and untied Violets of New York University, who are looking forward to their first perfect season, meeting Jim Crowley's Fordham Rams, but the football hungry fans of other sections of the country will not be left out in the cold.

The eyes of the athletic world, and especially those of the Rose Bowl officials, will be on that stand-out tilt in Gotham, for if Mal Stevens' young charges get by the dangerous Rams, they may end up by playing a post-season game.

Leading the Violets in most of their victories this year has been big Ed Smith, a triple threat, who has made a name for himself with his aerial heaves. Aiding Smith in the secondary is Nat Macholwitz, Mike Stelmach, Charley Siegel, and Joe Mandel, while Phil Swindon, George Blomquist, and Dick Hall are the mainstays in the forward wall.

Against that array, Jim Crowley has such backs as Joe Maniaci, Warren Marley and Joe Dulkie to offer, and a line that is led by Alex Wojciehowski.

Violets Not Favored If the Violets win, and at the present time they are on the short end of a 6-5 betting odd, it is expected that Ed Smith will be largely responsible with his expert heaves.

Last year, the Violets went down before the heavy charging of the Rams, 39-13, but it may be a different story this year.

Other stand-out games in the east will be Catholic and North Carolina State in Washington; George Washington and North Dakota, also in the Capitol city; Maryland and Syracuse in Baltimore; North Carolina and Virginia at Chapel Hill; Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh; and Temple and Bucknell at Philadelphia.

Standouts in the south will be the Vanderbilt-Alabama go at Nashville, while Kentucky meets Tennessee at Lexington in a colorful first played football together 28 years ago. They have clashed practically every year since, and the Nolan county boys have the best record. The worst defeat the locals ever administered Sweetwater was a 95 to 0 pasting back in 1917 or '18. The Steers helped the Ponies open Newman field in 1929 by winning, 14 to 0.

While it isn't on the schedule for discussion this 15-year age limit probably will be brought up before the representatives have washed down that extra order of ham and eggs with black coffee. Whether any action will be taken on the matter is not known.

ON THE eve of the last meeting a school official remarked that "anything can happen at one of those interscholastic meetings."

The next day the 18-year bombshell exploded with a bang that has been echoing across the plains for almost a year. Its passage was a complete surprise, except to a few who knew in advance what was going to happen.

THE WISE boys are still laughing at the way the rule was passed. It seems that the opponents of the regulation didn't even dream that the measure would be brought up at the meeting and stayed away. Those favoring the rule slipped a fast one over, and the rule is now on the books. This should be a lesson to those who have a special bone to pick.

LAURANCE PRIDDY, a genial, stocky built, sandy-haired fellow, was added to the Sweetwater coaching staff this year. Priddy played with "Speedy" Moffett of Texas Tech for four years. Laurance had played a year or two with Northwestern prior to entering Tech. For a young coach he must be plenty good. He coaches the guards and centers, and English plays the pivot position on the Mustang starting eleven, is one of the best high school centers we've seen this season.

THIS MAY show considerable optimism but Big Spring '35 Sweetwater 6.

TODAY'S GAME may be the last for several of the Sweetwater Ponies, according to the newspaper of that city. If the 18-year rule goes into effect next year, 11 of the regulars on the first string roster will be lost, including Capt. A. J. Roy, the two Bruner Brothers, and several other stars. Regardless of the 18-year rule, several of the Pony regulars will be playing their last seasons for the maroon and white.

Olympic Talk Flares Again

Assert 'Unolympics Atmosphere' Prevails In Berlin

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27. (AP).—Asserting that an "unolympics atmosphere" prevails in Berlin, scene of next year's Olympics, Zach Farmer, director of the 1932 games here, said today he would not attend the contests in Germany. "The Hitler government," he said, "has violated the true Olympic doctrine and violates Olympic practice by cleverly dominating, behind the scenes, preparations for the games."

As one who helped Germany get the games, I know at heart the German Olympic leaders and German people would be true to the Olympic principles if permitted." Farmer said that his trip across the continent convinced him that athletes, both amateur and professional, are divided on the question of whether or not the games should be held in Berlin.

DEVILS LOSE TO KERMIT, 25 TO 12

WINK, Nov. 27. (Sp.)—Kermit staged a furious third quarter rush here tonight to defeat a crippled Big Spring Devil football team, 25 to 12.

Kermit shoved over a counter in the second period and put over three more in the third.

Red Womack scored the second Devil touchdown in the fourth quarter, going around left end from the five stripe.

It was strictly an offensive game. Neither team had much success in stopping the other's attack.

SCORES INDICATE STEERS, PONIES CLOSELY MATCHED

Here is the record of games played this season by both Sweetwater and Big Spring. Compare them as you will, close your eyes, and take your pick. Scores indicate very little difference. The Steers, however, have made a slightly better defensive show for the season and have played teams rated stronger than Sweetwater opponents.

Table with two columns: Sweetwater Record 1935 (Mustangs vs opponents) and Big Spring Record 1935 (Mustangs vs opponents).

PONIES HAVE THE BEST ALL TIME RECORD

Nolan County Team Wins 13 Out Of 22 Games

Big Spring and Sweetwater football teams have played twenty-two games since first meeting on the field of battle in 1907.

The boys from Nolan county have it on the Howard county clan in games won, the Mustangs coping thirteen games. The Steers have never played to a tie.

In the twenty-two games, Sweetwater amassed 232 points to 275 for the Big Springers.

Table titled 'ALL-TIME STANDINGS' comparing Big Spring and Sweetwater records from 1907 to 1934.

Coach Edgar Hennig Came To West Texas In Fall Of '30

EDGAR A. HENNIG, head coach at Sweetwater, came to West Texas in the fall of 1930. In two years he had developed a team powerful enough to figure in the state playoffs.

Hennig played football at the University of Illinois. Upon graduation, he coached Gainesville high and junior college teams, before going to Pennsylvania as head coach of a prep school. He turned out a national prep school football and basketball team, but could not resist the call of the "South."

He coached Mustang tackle coach, is a graduate of the University of Texas, where, as a student in the physical education department, he got his instruction in football coaching under Clyde Littlefield, former head coach of the Longhorn. Aycock won his spurs as a coach of interscholastic teams when he turned out a crack grammar eleven in Sweetwater last season.

BRAXTON GILMORE, coach of the Pony ends, is getting his first experience as a football coach. Gilmore is a graduate of Texas Tech, Lubbock, where, as a member of the Matador team, he won the reputation as one of the best ends ever turned out in the Border conference.

In the spring only one man reported to Gilmore who had ever had much experience playing end. He took a bunch of green material and developed a group of fair wingmen.

LAURANCE PRIDDY, center and guard coach, is likewise serving his apprenticeship as a coach. Priddy has been playing football ever since he was big enough to tug a football. He started out on the Gainesville high school team, played two years on Gainesville junior college club, went to Northwestern for a year or two and finished up with four years at Texas Tech. This experience, under different coaches, has given him a wealth of football knowledge and he has demonstrated the knack of conveying this to his players.

OPEN FIRE ALL ALONG THE FRONT

Seven Teams Already Sure Of Places In State Playoff

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP).—District champs are due to be declared in all but one of the sixteen sections of the Texas Interscholastic League football race by the end of this week.

Seven teams are sure of places in the play-off because they have won their district titles already. They are Sherman in District 6, Masonic Home of District 7, Dallas Tech of District 8, Greenville of District 9, Maxia in District 11, Temple in District 12 and San Jacinto of District 13.

District 3 is still in a big mess. Although there are only three teams in the entire district, the race is as big a muddle as if there were four times that number. Because of a previous tie game with Big Spring, the Angelo is sure of a tie. Big Spring can throw the race into a tie by beating Sweetwater today.

There are heavy favorites in the other eight districts and it is thought that these eleven will come through as expected with victories in games today to clinch their titles. Amarillo is sure of a tie in District 1 and can clinch the title by beating Pampa today. Dope favors Amarillo, but if the Harvesters spring a surprise and upset the Sandies, the race will be thrown into a three-way tie between Lubbock, Amarillo and Pampa.

Breckenridge, sure of a tie in District 2, looks like a certain winner, as only the weak, last-place Ranger team stands in the way. If Ranger should win, the race would be thrown into a tie between Abilene and Breckenridge.

El Paso is sure of a tie. The big game in the Border sector is carded today, when Austin High, also of El Paso, plays in El Paso. A win by Austin would deadlock the two.

Wichita Falls is favored in the District 5 race. By beating Electra today the Coyotes can win the title. However, if the Coyotes lose and Vernon beats Quanah, Vernon will grab the title. If both Vernon and Wichita lose, the Coyotes still win the title by one-half a game margin.

Gladeview, big favorite in District 10, withdrew this week when three of its players were found to have over the "present" 20-year age limit. As a result, Tyler now paces the pack. The Tyler crew can clinch the title by beating Marshall today. Previous to Gladeview's withdrawal, Tyler had only one defeat, a beating at the hands of the ineligible team, chalked up against it.

Old football rivalry will be resumed today in Port Arthur when Beaumont invades the former city to play the Yellow Jackets. The two eleven are the only teams tied with perfect percentage marks for their titles. Dope favors a Port Arthur victory.

Brackenridge, with a tie game marking its otherwise-blemish record, meets Thomas Jefferson today for the title in District 15. Thomas Jefferson is undefeated and untied and a tie or a victory will give them the championship.

Robstown could tie Corpus Christi for the championship of District 16 today by beating the Buccaneers, but it would be an upset. The Bucs are favored to come through easily.

BELL PUTS OUT SOME BAD NEWS

BY BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer DALLAS, Nov. 27.—Football fans endeavoring to solve the riddle of Saturday's Southwest conference game between T. C. U. and S. M. U. may find a ray of light in these facts.

Coch Madison Bell of S. M. U. gives his word that injured Harry Shuford, fullback, and J. C. "Ironman" Wetzel, guard, are definitely out of the lineup.

Bell named Shuford the most valuable man on the team. Coach Dutch Meyer of T. C. U. gives his word that every man on the Frog team will be ready for duty barring injuries and illness in this week's work.

Only once since 1927 have the Ponies beaten T. C. U. The two teams have played 17 times since 1915. The record book shows eight wins for T. C. U., six for S. M. U. and three ties.

T. C. U. scored 215 points during that period, and S. M. U. 150.

HALL'S TEAM WINS, 34 TO 6 Marvin Hall's sand-lot football team romped over South Ward Tuesday afternoon, 34 to 6. Passes accounted for most of the Hall aggregation's scores.

Those in favor of the new rule claim that it was devised to give the average boy a chance to play football, as they pointed out that the average boy should graduate at the age of 18.

Around And About

The Sports Circuit

ONE FROM TINY: "Dear Tom: I have read what you wrote about the chain play that Jerry Hines said Silver City gave him. Some of us know that the chain carrier can make more yards than a ball carrier. Obie Bristow learned this while playing fullback with an Indian team during his high school days. So that his team might have the full benefit of his services, Obie always started as a chain carrier and if necessary, switched to the fullback post. One day he hit on the idea of having one of the backs "toes" him a forward pass while he was holding the chain. It worked—hence the chain play came into existence. The play was introduced into New Mexico by Tiny Reed without Obie's permission, for when I was elected coach of the E. N. M. Jr. college Obie called me into his office and said: "Well, Tiny, if those fellows don't know any more football than you do, you won't lose a game." (I didn't.) He explained three plays to me, the chain, center and substitute play.

"We used the chain play against the A. & M. Fish for 40 yards and a touchdown; we used it against Normal University for a 40-yard gain; the center play scored a touchdown, and gained 60 yards another time against Normal; the chain play gave us a 40-yard gain against the University freshmen; the chain play would have scored against Silver City, but the chain carrier dropped the ball in the open field with no one near. Silver City used the play against A. & M."

"By The Associated Press Three Southwest conference teams see action Thanksgiving. The feature battle will be the annual clash between the Texas Aggies and Texas Longhorns at College Station. The Aggies rule favorite."

The Arkansas Razorbacks meet the University of Tulsa at Tulsa. Southern Methodist Mustangs and Texas Christian Horned Frogs practice for their conference clash at Fort Worth Saturday, while Baylor and Rice polish their plays for Saturday's contest at Houston.

"We used it the other day against N. M. I. in the last a touchdown because of a poor pass. "Just wanted to clear up the chain play situation. It might work against Angelo—try it."

Just. TINY REED.

"P. S.—Notice where Spike Hennig hasn't won the Cosden tournament since Reed and Bristow quit "working." I guess that should convince him that home town officials can keep out."

smooth sea, tinted with the last of sunset. Anne, going up the steep flight of stairs to the grey shingle house she called home, smiled at John. "See that window?" she asked, pointing to the one looking west. "I'll wait up there until I see your ship come home." They stood for a moment in the darkness of the room. "And as soon as we sight land, I'll start looking up here, Nikki, and it's the last thing I'll look at when I put out to sea." The next morning Anne stood at the window, watching a puffly little tug escort The Star of Lapland to the bar, then stand by as the sails, unfurled to catch the brisk morning wind. Long she stood there, until the last fluttering pennant had merged with the horizon mist, and then she turned to pick up the threads of living, frayed by John's departure.

LET US BE THANKFUL Let us be grateful, first of all in this Thanksgiving Day, to an Almighty God who, in infallible and benign wisdom, is omnipresent and omnipotent in guiding a mortal world in its rightful course regardless of the confused efforts of the peoples who labor so often in darkness.

Let us as Americans bow in gratitude to the Father who has seen fit to endow our nation with richest natural blessings, who has given us strength and courage and wisdom to use these blessings to the enrichment of a people. Let us glory in the Divinity who gives us the innate spirit of tolerance, in religion, in government, in business and in society; the spirit of justice in dealing with our fellowman; the spirit of charity toward the less able; and the spirit of kindness in our relationships with one another.

NEW YORK — Cosmo Hamilton, the writer, believes there will be a European war within two years and that it will be provoked by Germany. "Because she wants to get back her colonies now in our possession." I like the way he answers questions when reporters shoot fast ones at him. When he got in on the Berengaria the other night he told of his experiences in communicating with the dead by telephone. He is a firm believer in spiritualism.

But who paid the telephone calls? piped up a scribe. "They were prepaid," Mr. Hamilton answered solemnly. I also like the explanation Lieutenant Felix Waitkus gives for the failure of his recently attempted flight to Lithuania. He had engine trouble and landed in a field in Ireland. "It's like this," the Lieutenant says. "On a trial spin before taking off my propeller picked up some Shamrock, and a friend of mine assured me I would have to make a forced landing in Ireland. Well, I did, and now I can't help wondering where I'd be if that propeller had picked up seaweed."

Somerset Maugham is unlike that school of Britain writers who made a business of grinding out whole novels over weekends. He seldom writes more than 1,000 words a day. The national drink of Tibet is tea, says Arthur S. Vernay, "with a little rancid butter in it." Vinay, however, prefers scotch. He is one of eight men to penetrate the plateaus of Tibet in the last 35 years. Arturo Toscanini neither becomes indignant nor excited when people refer to him as a genius. Nor is he embarrassed. He accepts it as a mere statement of fact, as if someone were referring to him as a musician, or an Italian.

Lewis To Take Union Dispute Before Members Hunt For Bodies Of Missing Pair. WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (UP)—President John L. Two significant reports were received recently at the White House. One was the general report that business is booming, that electricity output is at a new high, that automobile sales are the highest in five years, that steel production is up and dividends are at flush tide. The other report—this one confidential—was laid before the president by his uncle, Frederic A. DeLano, who is head of the national resources board. This report, titled "Wastage of Human Resources" lists among other things the following: 3,500,000 youths of working age without jobs. 1,000,000 adult illiterates in the country. 15,000,000 "vocational misfits," workers who have small chance for jobs. 3,000,000 persons injured annually in preventable industrial accidents. Over 100,000 sent to jail each year for violent crimes. Between three and four million children totally without schooling. Over 1,000,000 exceptionally talented children lacking opportunity for full development of their gifts. Less than one-fourth of American children receiving the minimum health service, a yearly examination, vaccination and diphtheria immunization. The resources board refrains from drawing a moral from these figures. It merely suggests that the disclosures support its view that further research in these fields is desirable.

Club Honored At Luncheon

Thanksgiving Theme Is Followed In Party Decorations

Luncheon was served to the members of the Bluebonnet Bridge club at 1 o'clock Wednesday when Mrs. Bob Thomson was hostess at her home on the California lease.

The Thanksgiving scheme was beautifully carried out in the table decorations, and in the prize wrappings.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. P. W. Malone was a substitute guest.

Members present to enjoy Mrs. Thomson's hospitality were: Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, who was high for club members and was presented with a set of hand embroidered pillow cases; Mrs. J. H. Kirkpatrick, who won bingo and received a candy jar; Mrs. E. C. Boatler, second bingo was given a relish dish; and Mrs. Sam Baker, Mrs. J. L. LeBlau, Mrs. W. R. Ivey, Mrs. E. D. Merrill and Mrs. J. L. Terry who will be hostess for the next party.

Dinner, Theatre Party Is Given By Mrs. Eubanks

Dinner guests of Mrs. L. A. Eubanks Wednesday evening were served a delicious venison dinner. Using red as the predominating color, Mrs. Eubanks employed red geraniums in fashioning the beautiful centerpiece for the table. Red nutcups backed by miniature Thanksgiving turkeys lent a festive air to the setting.

After dinner the party attended the theatre.

Members of the dinner and theatre party were: Mrs. W. A. East, Mrs. Gordon Phillips, Miss Ruby Bell, Miss Helen Peters, Miss Allyn Bunker and the hostess.

Three Are Guests At Club Session

The Triangle Bridge club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Lomax as hostess.

The Thanksgiving party was held in a club room at the Settles Hotel.

Three guests who played with the club were Mrs. Carl Henaley, Mrs. Mae Battle and Mrs. Larson Lloyd.

Mrs. E. E. Fahrkamp was high for club members and was given a sandwich plate; Mrs. Battle received a cream and sugar set for second high.

Members playing were Mrs. Fahrkamp, Mrs. Omar Pitman, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Monroe Johnson and the hostess.

Miss Marie Johnson left Thursday night for El Paso, where she will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her sister, Mrs. Joe Lea. She will return Sunday evening.

Harry Williamson were members who attended.

Mrs. Homer McNew will entertain for the club next.

FARMERS HAVE CAUSE FOR THANKSGIVING; INCOME UP 177 MILLIONS OVER 1934 PERIOD

The U. S. department of agricultural economics says farmers, during the first nine months of 1935, took in from the sale of principal products

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—The government, casting up the American farmer's books as he heads into the last quarter of the year, finds he may celebrate Thanksgiving with his ledger showing $320,614,000 heavier on the black side from regular income—exclusive of benefit payments—than in 1934.

The U. S. bureau of agricultural economics says farmers took in for the first nine months of 1935 from the sale of principal products $4,304,000,000, compared with $4,127,000,000 last year and $3,460,000,000 for 1933. Too, benefit payments for this year at the latest tabulation were running well ahead of last year—$250,614,000 against $250,369,000.

In this kind of income, the countryman was around $100,000,000 richer than in 1934.

Two Sections Lose

In the last month of the period—September—cash receipts from crops declined about eight per cent, heavier marketings not offsetting lower prices; but a 19 per cent jump in income from live-stock. It will be noted that only the south Atlantic and south central sections showed declines in income.

All save two sections of the country—the south Atlantic and south central—shared in the rise. Both of these areas, comprising the old solid south with a few border states thrown in, fell off. Lower cotton prices took a heavy share of the blame.

Every region, says the bureau, found extra money coming in from livestock. Meat prices were good and marketings heavier. Eggs brought in more profits; so did dairy products.

Receipts by Areas

As is usual, seasonal fluctuations in receipts were more marked in the southern states than elsewhere. In Dixie cotton and tobacco are the main sources of revenue and the money really pours in only in the marketing season for those products.

Here are the bureau's figures as to cash receipts from sale of principal farm products, benefit payments not included, by sections: North Atlantic, comprising all of New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania: $518,155,000 this year against $482,450,000 last year.

East north central, comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin: $885,085,000 this year against $718,517,000 last year.

West north central, comprising Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas: $1,028,710,000 against $945,524,000.

South Atlantic comprising Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida: $419,132,000 against $436,252,000.

South central, comprising Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas: $640,348,000 against $655,053,000.

Texas To Seek Model System For Probation

HOUSTON, Nov. 28. (UP)—Prison authorities of 15 states which do not have adult probation laws will watch closely the type to be adopted by Texas under a recently adopted constitutional amendment, according to District Judge Langston G. King.

The jurist was one of the leaders at the annual congress of prison officials at Atlanta, Ga., recently. "I discussed the matter with members of the National Probation Association," Judge King said. "They offered to help Texas work out one of the most modern and efficient systems in the nation."

Adult probation proposals probably will not be submitted to the state legislature until the next regular session Judge King said. Gov. James V. Alfred has promised to submit the topic to the law-making body as soon as possible, he said.

Fulton County, Ga., Judge King said, has that state's model probation system.

Longhorns Close Out As Aggies Play Semi-Final

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 27. (AP)—The invading Texas Longhorns will close the '35 campaign here Thursday against the Aggies.

The annual struggle has always been colorful. Both teams are out of the race and it will be the Aggie semi-final game. They play S. M. U. here December 7.

Provided ideal weather prevails, a crowd of 20,000 is expected. It will be the 42nd annual scrap between the two schools. Texas has recorded 23 wins.

Action Drama At The Lyric Today

Roger Pryor and Joan Perry are teamed in the leading roles of "The Case of the Missing Man," an exciting drama which is the Lyric theatre's feature for Thursday. It is concerned with the complications that result when Pryor, as a street-photographer, takes one picture too many.

His subject is Arthur Holt, a smooth crook who has just committed a daylight murder and robbery. The crook's efforts to get the picture brings the story into a battle of wits between the law and the criminal.

Cape Town Taxpayers Rush To Pay Levies

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 28. (UP)—The eagerness of Cape people to pay their taxes is worrying the receiver of revenue.

So many people have paid their taxes in advance at the same rate as last year that he has made an appeal in the Cape Town newspapers. Nearly every person who paid in advance overlooked a 30 per cent rebate operated for this year and sent a check for the same

"This year though," Virginia added, "I'm going to get his autograph. I missed out on it last time."
Secret Service Outwitted
Speaking of getting autographs, that's one of the best things the Warm Springs patients do. Billy Prenzil outwitted the Secret Service last Thanksgiving to get President Roosevelt's. At least, that's what he says.
"When President Roosevelt drove up to Georgia Hall in his car, I started to get him to sign my book," related Billy. "One of the secret service men stopped me, but I told him the president was calling him. When he turned around to see, I rushed over to the president and he signed for me before the secret service man knew it."
The Thanksgiving program arranged for President Roosevelt this year will be simple and informal. The dinner will include traditional turkey, pumpkin pie and plum pudding. The large Georgia Hall dining room, at one end of which will sit the president, will be decorated with autumn leaves. The lucky patients who will sit at Mr. Roosevelt's table will be chosen by lot.
A Smile On Every Face
After the patients are seated there's a dead silence as the arrival of the President is expectantly awaited. The moment the door opens there's a smile on every face and applause breaks out. A jovial greeting comes from Mr. Roosevelt and a few minutes later the feast is on. There's a sparkle in every eye as he starts carving.

And from then on there's not a dull moment as the president entertains those within earshot telling stories and relating his experiences.

Pair Will Face Charge Of Theft

Preston and Leon Brown, indicted here last week on charges of theft of cotton, are to be taken to San Angelo next week on a complaint charging theft of a cow from Willis Barbee of San Angelo. Barbee, accompanied by Deputy Glenn Hill of Tom Green county, came here Wednesday afternoon to inspect a cow the local sheriff's department recovered when the Browns were arrested. Barbee identified the cow as his.
He said the animal was stolen last week just after he had finished milking. A member of the sheriff's department, seeking to find the owner, noticed an advertisement in a paper and contacted Barbee.

ter than any man on the team. He will play a very important part in today's district 3 show. Although he has had very little experience with the herd, Ford got his football foundation playing on Ben Daniels' Devil team.
Ford will probably do quite a bit of passing—short ones.
The big gun in the Big Spring attack will be Olie Cordill. Today may be his last chance to play in a high school game. Slowed down by injuries since the first of the season, Cordill has improved the past week and seems to be at his best.

The Bovines' workout Wednesday lasted one hour. They ran a few signals for awhile and then spent a few minutes racing around the field.
Mustangs Crippled
Sweetwater has been pointing for the Big Spring game and may be hard to take, although their potent passing game will be somewhat crippled.
C. Bruner, Pony quarterback, who fired the accurate passes against the Bobcats last Friday, was so badly battered and bruised that he may not be able to do much playing today.

Sweetwater will have the advantage in speed. The Big Spring secondary is comparatively slow. Steers hold a wide weight edge, both in the line and backfield.
The Big Spring line, with the exception of strengthening center with Flowers, will be the same. Jones and Whisenand will be at ends, Harris and Coburn at tackles, and Hildreth and Wilson at guards. English, at center, and Roy in the backfield, are the outstanding defensive men on the Pony eleven.

The Mustangs might have defeated San Angelo last week had they not fumbled twice near their own goal line in the third period and lost confidence.

Miss Helen Peters left Wednesday night for San Antonio, where she will visit friends.

WINK, PECOS TO PLAY FOR TITLE

WINK, Nov. 27—A record crowd is expected here tomorrow afternoon for the District 7 Class B T-tular clash between the Wink Wildcats and Pecos Eagles.
The two teams have come through their district play with good records with only Pecos having a district defeat by Odessa and Wink has lost only to the Bowie Bears, a Class A team, in exhibition play. Pecos lost to Big Spring, another Class A team, in their first game of the season.
Wink is a slight favorite to win the title this year and the right to meet McCamey for the bi-district title.

Jimmie Jones has accepted a position with the U-Save Stores.
