of 30 Minute

Mid-Continent airline ships, and seven passenger each, on the Dallas to Midland route to arrive here at 11:20 a. m. All 11:30, due to the crowds of people greeting them at the airport, Port Worth, Eastland, Abilene, Sweetwater, and Spring.

They were greeted here by representatives of the chamber of commerce and the personnel being guests on the Hotel Scharbauer.

After the flight, the planes will be taken to the other points at which they are to reach Dallas at 6:40 a. m.

They are starting with a "loose" end and will fly in the "loose" end, indicating that it was believed up later than to get a "tight" which later might be different.

His entire herd of registered Hereford cattle, with the exception of one herd bull, was sold by Holly E. Roberts, of County stock farmer, to W. McKenzie of Fort Stockton, Texas, at the sale of the League of Nations in Geneva, Sept. 4, in a final effort to stave off the conflict which imperils world peace. Ethiopian Concession Not to Deter Mussolini In Plans for His Country

Where World's Forlorn Hope for Peace is Centered

With hope all but abandoned that war between Italy and Ethiopia can be averted, the whole world turned its eyes to the League of Nations in Geneva, Sept. 4, in a final effort to stave off the conflict which imperils world peace.

France; Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian representative; Prof. Gaston Jeze of the Paris Sorbonne, representing Ethiopia; M. Ecele Havariath, Ethiopian delegate; Maxim Litvinov, foreign commissar of the U.S.S.R. and president of the League Council; Capt. Anthony Eden, chief delegate of Great Britain. The League's annual assembly, at which nations are represented, will follow five days after the council meeting.

NEWS IS RECEIVED GRAVELY IN WORLD FOREIGN OFFICES

Standard Oil Co. of Delaware Given Concession

ROME, Aug. 31. (AP)—Ethiopia's concession of a vast portion of her territory for oil development to British and American interests can in no way deter Mussolini's plans regarding Ethiopia, government spokesmen said today.

CONCESSION OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED SATURDAY

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 31. (AP)—The Ethiopian government today officially announced that a concession had been granted to the African Development Company, Inc., in Delaware, to develop oil resources in half of Ethiopia.

Francis Rickett, British promoter who negotiated the concession with Emperor Haile Selassie, said that the corporation was controlled by the Standard Oil Company.

The news was received gravely by world foreign offices. In Washington diplomatic circles it was believed that the deal would not involve the United States directly in any Italian-Ethiopian conflict although it might raise international problems.

In Ethiopia Emperor Haile Selassie's action was generally regarded as a bold, shrewd attack which might close the door to Italian economic penetration in Ethiopia.

BILL TO KEEP U. S. OUT OF WAR SIGNED

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 31. (AP)—Mandatory neutrality legislation designed to keep the United States out of conflicts like that threatened between Ethiopia and Italy was signed into law today by President Roosevelt.

The measure compels the President, until the end of next February, to ban shipment of arms to belligerents "upon the outbreak or during the progress of a war" between any foreign nations.

200,000 MORE MEN ARE TO BE CALLED TO ARMS IN ITALY

BOLZANO, Aug. 31. (AP)—Premier Mussolini told soldiers of his great army engaged in war maneuvers today that 200,000 more men would be called to arms in Italy in order to bring the number under arms to more than 1,000,000.

"The world should know yet again that so long as one talks absolutism, we will not give up one soldier, one sailor or one aviator," the premier said today.

Two Girls Die After Struck by Automobile

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 31. (AP)—Miss Lillie Lewis, 17, and Miss Corinne Lewis, 17, were dead today after being struck by an automobile on the new Austin highway last night.

The driver of the car, Howard M. Maud, said that the girls ran in front of the car.

Dillinger Aide Is Hidden

A shallow trench near a gravel pit north of Oswego, Ill., was the end of the trail of lurid crime for John Hamilton, machine gunner, first lieutenant of John Dillinger, this picture showing exhumation of the body by federal agents, after a search since April, 1934, following a tip that Hamilton had been fatally shot by officers in a chase near Hastings, Minn. The body, with three bullets in the back, was taken to Oswego for an inquest. Lye had been poured on the face and the telltale three-fingered hand to hasten decomposition.

FLOOD WARNINGS FLASHED ALONG AS RIO GRANDE RISES MENACINGLY; LAS CRUCES DAMAGE ESTIMATED $500,000

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (AP)—Flood warnings flashed along the Rio Grande through southern New Mexico today. The river rose menacingly while being fed by waters from cloudbursts which deluged several New Mexico towns, causing heavy damage.

The damage in Las Cruces was estimated at $500,000. More than 500 Las Cruces residents, with their homes flooded and ruined, were temporarily housed in churches and armory.

Fifty homes in the city's newest residential district are standing in two feet of water and their adobe walls are gradually yielding to the moisture.

Since 9 a. m. authorities reported 15 houses have collapsed.

Other valley communities, including Fabens, reported serious property damage. Warnings were given stockmen at Anthony to move cattle to higher ground.

No lives were lost. The damage came from flood swollen arroyos and not from the Rio Grande, which is in flood stage but which has not caused serious damage.

Starting at 1 a. m. Friday after rain had fallen for two hours, the waters poured in from arroyos to the east of Las Cruces and increased by rains gradually covered the city.

During Friday night the State College Weather Bureau reported 6.46 inches of rain.

O'Neal, recently married and making his first crop in his own right, produced the bale on the farm of Mrs. Monroe Dawson, 14 miles southeast of Midland. The list of donors to the premium funds will be published subsequently.

BOND OF $15,000 FOR McCUMBER IS SET AT HEARING

Suspect in Robbery of Barstow Bank Is Charged

"Not Guilty" was the plea of W. H. McCumber, Midland radio operator, when arraigned before Peace Justice J. J. Walker of Barstow Saturday afternoon on charges of robbery with firearms, filed in district court there by District Attorney W. L. Kerr of Pecos.

Bond in the case was set at $15,000, which McCumber did not make at the time, and he was remanded to jail to await action of the Ward county district court grand jury which convenes in October.

The charges grew out of the hold-up and robbery of the Citizens State Bank of Barstow Wednesday noon. A lone gunman entered the bank when only Cashier L. H. Nutt and his son, Bob, were present. He sauntered to a window of the cage, pleasantly requested assistance in checking on an account, the bank cashier said, then pulled a .32 calibre automatic and told them he wanted "big money." He walked behind the cage as he did so, gathered up $3,600 in currency and ordered Nutt and his son into the vault.

Falling to lock the vault door, he jerked the telephone from the wall and instructed them not to leave the vault until he was gone. He leisurely got in a black coupe and drove through the Barstow streets to the highway. There his trail was lost.

Thursday afternoon, Harry Bauer, six year old son of Sergeant Tony Bauer, in army service at Midland airport, allegedly found packages under the protruding dust cushion of McCumber's car as it sat in a hangar at the field. The child notified his father and when officers arrived the car had been moved and the money was found in a box, hidden in the hangar.

McCumber later in the evening was arrested at his home here and placed in the Midland county jail. Sheriff Irby Dyer of Barstow, Cashier Nutt and District Attorney Kerr came here a few hours later. Nutt, according to Kerr, identified McCumber and the currency, only $10 of which was missing. The Midland man was taken to the Reeves county jail Friday and his preliminary hearing was held Saturday afternoon in Barstow.

Brough of Midland represented the defendant.

McCumber, a resident here for about seven years, works in army service attached to Sloan field as radio operator, had been prominent in musical circles, directed a church orchestra, appeared in radio plays and formerly on radio programs. He is married and has one child.

Cook Filly Winner Four Out of 5 Races

Winning four firsts and a second out of five starts, Little Nell, the two-year old Cook and Francis filly, was returned here late Friday after a swing of race meets at Spur, Rock Springs, Eldorado and Junction.

Mack Cook, 11-year old son of L. E. Cook, rode the filly to win a matched quarter mile race against a five year old mare at Spur. Willard Proctor, recently of the A. C. Francis stable here, rode her in the other races. One was for the three eighths distance and she was clocked 35 2-5 seconds. At Junction she was entered in quarter mile race for two-year olds with a field of ten. She drew the outside, or No. 10, position, broke away in third place and finished well in the lead.

Construction of Principal Fair Buildings Nears End

WORK STARTED ON ECTOR CO. SEGMENT OF ANDREWS ROAD

Work was started late in the week on the Ector County segment of the Midland-Andrews road. The 100-foot right of way for the eight mile stretch had been bought, the graders were laying off fire guards and preparations were under way for staking of grubbing and fencing.

The right of way and the construction of this portion of the road are being financed through contributions of Midland citizens and business houses.

Application will be signed Tuesday for a WPA project, calling for expenditure of almost $10,000 on the block from the west city limits of Midland to the Ector County line. It will be a well graded road, with the present Midland-Andrews section completely rebuilt.

BEAUTIFICATION, INDIVIDUALLY

A lot has been said about civic beautification! Park improvement and public grounds have come in for a lot of attention. All of these projects have added to the beauty of Midland, but if we had a park every three blocks we still would not have accomplished civic beautification entirely.

Many a vacant lot, even some which are occupied and in use, are in dire need of weed cutting, trash moving and general clean-up measures. The property owner, with small expense of labor, can do more to accomplish civic beautification before the Midland Fair than anyone else. Just before the recent damp spell, a Midland man remarked: "We are either going to have to water these weeds on our principal streets or they are going to dry up."

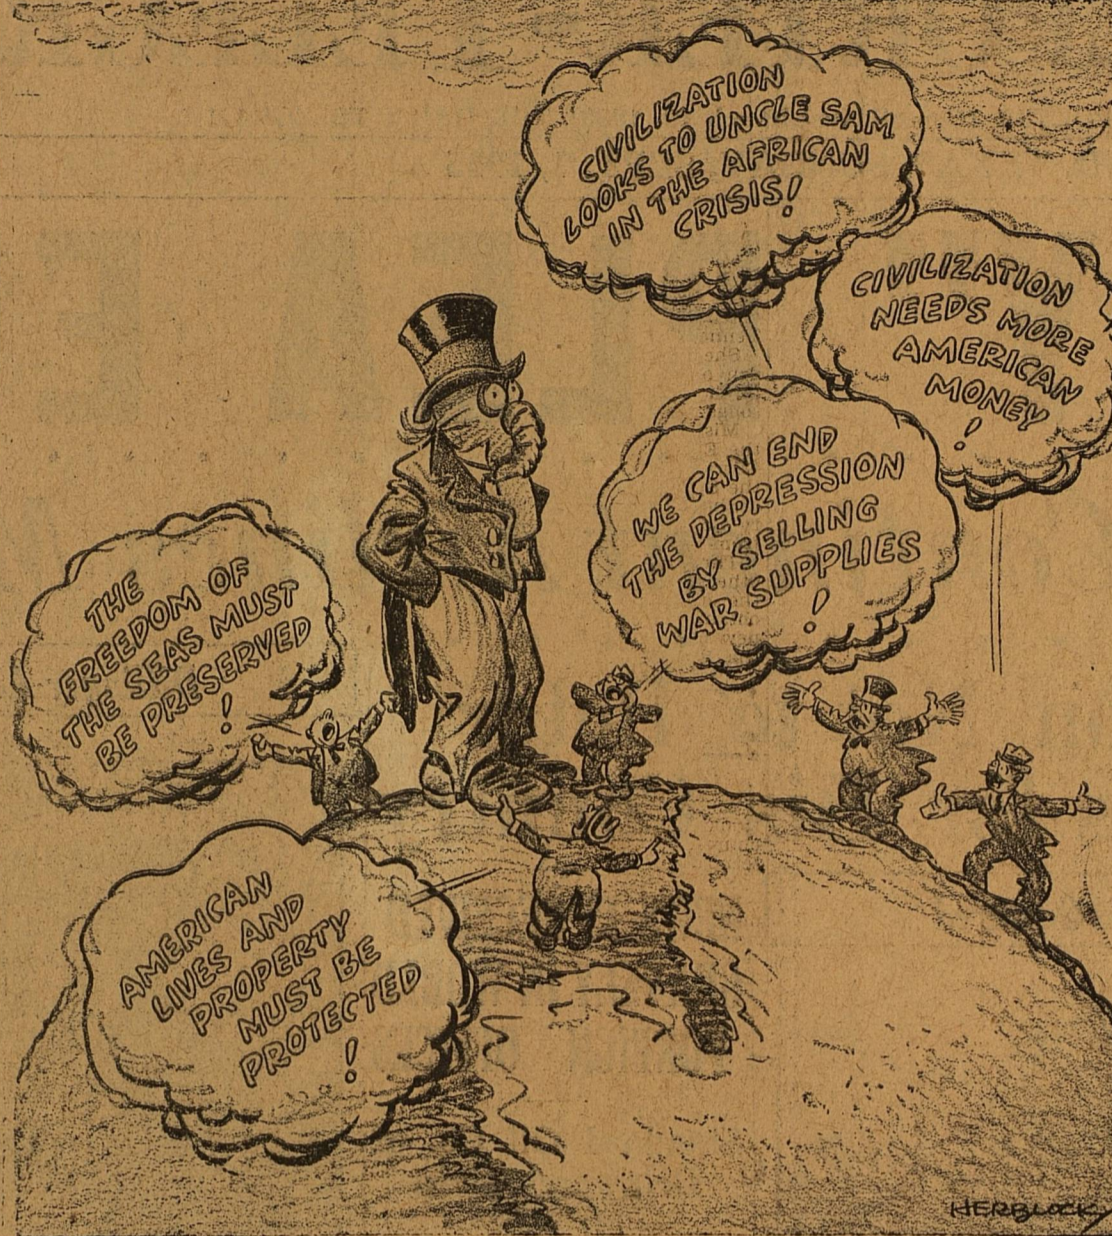

GERMANY HARKS BACK TO MEDIEVAL RULE

After Sept. 1, a defendant summoned into a German court will not be able to help his case by proving that he did not break the law. Nazi judges will be empowered to punish him anyway if, in their opinion, he has sinned against "the popular sense of what is right."

This amazing change in judicial procedure was outlined the other day by Dr. Franz Guertner, Nazi minister of justice, before a conference of German criminologists and prison directors.

"We regard as wrongful everything which is injurious to the interests of the community," said Dr. Guertner. "Wrong may exist, accordingly, in the Germany of the future, even where there is no law providing a punishment. And, beyond this, everything will be wrongful which is counter to the vital objective sought by the community."

ants near the horse barns was to be started early this week, according to J. M. Prothro, foreman in charge of all building construction.

Prothro said the show cattle pavilion, the frame work and roof of which was completed some time ago, will be finished on the interior this week, with the auction sale ring and other divisions constructed. Steel work had been completed for the original part of the grandstand. However, later it was decided to double the capacity, making it large enough to seat 5,000 persons. The concrete foundation is poured and construction will proceed upon arrival of the additional steel.

The grandstand, one of the largest in West Texas, will be 351 feet in length, 38 feet to the highest point and approximately 53 feet from front to back, including a row of boxes. The parimutuel booths and concessions will be housed underneath, in a 180 foot section of the grandstand. The portion will be walled up and roofed, and will be a complete building.

There will be a thirty foot clearing between the front of the grandstand and the outside rail of the three quarter mile track. Posts and heavy pipe are up for the rodeo arena, immediately in front of the stands and inside the track oval. Steel "sucker rods" ten-high, will be welded or bolted to the pipes to provide a rack sturdy enough for the "wild" stock to be used.

The outside fences of the corral feeder corrals, just north of the show cattle pavilion, have been erected and painted. Construction will start this week on the partition fences, equipping approximately fifty pens to hold a car load of cattle each. Corrals also will be built east of the stables to handle broncs and rodeo stock.

Roads and streets, leading to all points about the 100 acre tract, were being graded during the past week, and the parking grounds, to occupy a large area at the west side, was being leveled. It was believed that with a rain before the Fair, October 19-23, the grounds could be rolled and would be practically dust free.

The track itself, rolled with county machinery after a light shower several days ago, was in good condition, needing only additional moisture and rolling to make it one of the fastest in the state.

Certain Conditions To Be Met Before Pork Work Ended

CANYON, Texas. (AP)—Certain conditions must be met before the National Park Service will feel free to continue its development of Palo Duro State Park, Conrad Wirt, assistant director of emergency conservation work for the park service, said after a recent investigation of the canyon.

Wirt said the Texans would have to pay debts against the land before the park service would consider any extensive development. He pointed out that the state had clear only 100 acres in addition to a 100-foot right-of-way for a road through the park, and that $377,886.25 was owed on the remaining 15,500 acres. Wirt explained that the Palo Duro did not meet the requirements for a national park, four inspectors having rejected it, but that it had great possibilities as a regional park. He said that only one company would be kept at the park during the next period starting October 1. He indicated that additional companies might be assigned next spring if the debt was paid.

It was Wirt's first visit to the park. He praised the beauty of the canyon highly.

"It is an extremely interesting area from a scenic as well as an educational standpoint," he said. "In respect to study of nature the Palo Alto rates extremely high. It contains a story not found in any other park. Educational and scientific research will be carried on here for years to come."

Our Modern Homes

It seldom occurs to us that cheap plumbing is high at any cost; we fail to see the point, for this trade is one that most people know so little about, yet when sanitary engineers try to tell us what is best we feel that they just have something to sell, yet they have studied this profession as any one who has a profession in life and is the only man who can give you the complete health protection in your home from a sanitary standpoint. This man has to deal with very poisonous gases and these must be taken care of in the most perfect way; this man has to come in constant contact with the contaminated water and live germs that float along the systems and keep you from coming into contact with them. Thereby, he is laying himself liable in order that he may safeguard the lives of others. Yet this man as a rule is given credit for robbing the people and being a no-account so-and-so. There never was a greater mistake than this. The problem of combatting the spread of germs today rests upon the shoulders of your family Physician and your Plumber. These men in their humble way try to safeguard your life and to make the world a more desirable place to live. Give these men the credit for the good they do and see to it that the Plumbing around and in your home is what it should be.

Consult your family Physician and Plumber today and keep a step ahead of the serious results from inferior Plumbing.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

It seems to us that America's action in the present Ethiopian crisis will test what acid how real is her desire for peace.

If America really and truly desires peace she will warn American interests that they accept the Ethiopian concession at their own risk and may not expect government aid from her difficulties. In other words, they must stand on their own feet and not lean on the American flag.

If American interests are allowed to take over such an international powderhouse with the understanding that this country will back them as it has owners of interests in other lands heretofore, then in our opinion, we still live in the same old world where the desire for a dollar is higher than the desire for peace, and wars are likely to begin at any moment.

In our opinion, also, the neutrality legislation, whatever its defects, is a distinct step toward keeping the peace and so earns our applause.

Now Hollywood's newest and finest gowns are being made distinctive by being christened with names as glamorous as their materials and designs.

There is, for instance, Loretta Young's gown called "Gold Petal Dawn." The dress is of shiny gold cloth and its train is fashioned of three large gold cloth petals, each being wired across the bottom to give width.

Virginia Reid, when she wants to go places, in a Y gown "Peacock France." This gown is of green and blue marquisette and has a full, set-in train. It is completed with a jeweled belt, and jeweled straps across the back.

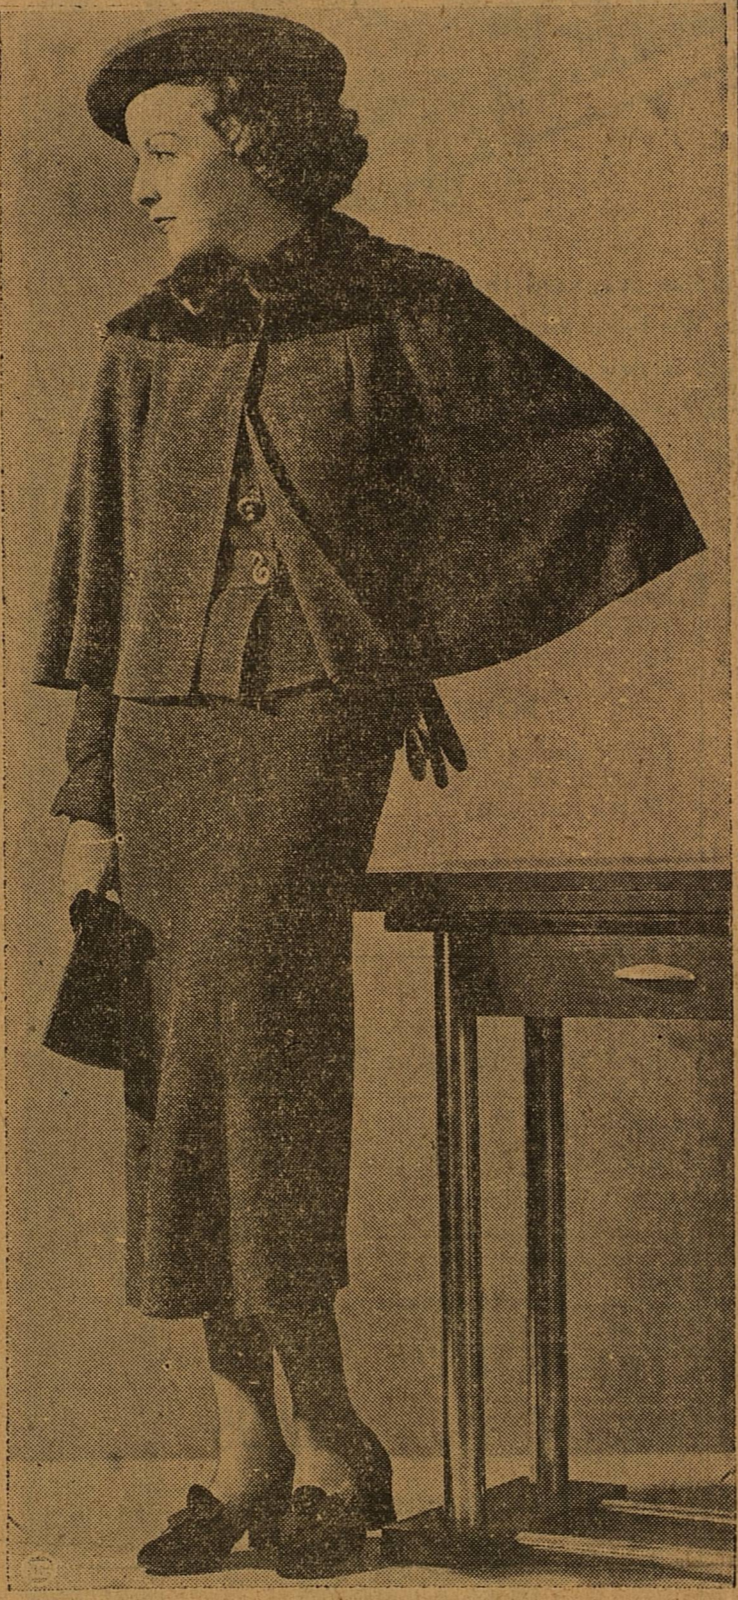

"Metal Melody" is worn by Lucille Ball. It is of gun metal taffeta with a flaring peplum and swirling gorges winding around the skirt.

That distinguished term, "personalized" is finding its way into the realm of men's clothing. We noticed recently a "personalized" cravat chain featuring the initials of the owner.

Small black lacquer tables with silver inlay are attractive as are sets of trays also in lacquer and inlay.

Wooden trays for canapes have in their center wooden figures of pigs and roosters with holes conveniently punched for toothpicks.

Chic Ensemble

A simple, two-piece frock of deep green, hairy-surfaced rayon with satin back is topped by a hip-length cape of matching fabric.

Next To Face Give Neck Beauty Care

By ALICIA HART, NEA Service Staff Writer

A graceful neck—smooth and white with no lump at the back—is one of the first requisites of charm and beauty. The woman who holds her head high and chin up—not pulled in or thrust forward—looks well in any type of dress and has self-assurance that makes others conscious of her charm and poise.

Furthermore, correct neck posture is extremely important to health and physical comfort. When the upper vertebrae of your spinal column are curved forward, circulation to the brain is hindered somewhat and, of course, muscles will become cramped and uncomfortable, causing aches and pains in the back of your neck. As you undoubtedly know, an aching neck can spoil the nicest kind of disposition, not to mention the frown lines and worried look that go with it.

Hold Head As Though Pulled To alleviate a curve and the lump which detracts from your appearance, get into the habit of holding your head as though you were pulled upward. Stand with arms at your sides and make belief a wire, fastened to the ceiling, is tied to a lock of hair in the center of your head. Imagine that the wire is pulling your head up. If necessary, place your hands just behind your ears and let them share the work of the imaginary wire. If you do this correctly, your neck will straighten out and the little lump will disappear.

Afterward, sit in a straight chair and do this exercise, especially originated to cure bad carriage above the shoulders, get rid of a lump on the back of the neck and prevent a double chin.

Repeat This Exercise First, completely relax the neck, letting your head drop forward as far as possible. Then slowly push your chin out in front until each muscle in your neck feels stretched. Now—still slowly—keeping the chin at exactly the same level, pull the chin back to normal position. Again imagine that your head is being lifted from behind the ears. Repeat the exercise several times a day, remembering always that the more slowly you do it, the more benefit you will derive.

If you are serious about having a lovely neck, better sleep without a pillow and choose clothes which have no back-of-the-neck trimming which tends to make you walk with your head thrust forward.

EXPLANATION OF FHA LOANS MADE BY OFFICIAL HERE

"Since the meeting, this past week, of prospective home owners and people who want to refinance their present mortgages against their houses as well as repair and modernize, there have been many inquiries as to what procedure a person should take in getting an FHA loan," W. E. Richter of Fort Worth, who is here in the interest of FHA said Saturday.

"So many people are of the opinion that the government is lending them money, but this is not the case at all," he continued. "The government only insures the lending institution making the loan against loss in case of default by the borrower."

"Regarding the building of a new home, the owner should secure a competent architect or contractor and get plans and specifications drawn and have them blue-printed in duplicate before submitting them to the district office."

"Refinancing your present indebtedness—which might include delinquent taxes—is permissible under Title II of the Act. You might also include repairs at the same time.

"Under Title I of the National Housing Act, a home can be built not to exceed $2,000. It must be paid for within 60 months, payable so much monthly. Applications for Title II loans are coming to our office with more consistency now than heretofore and as the people become more educated as to the real meaning of the National Housing Act, the more rapidly will applications come in."

Bratcher and W. B. Lipscomb, field representative from Fort Worth, are staying at the Hotel Scharbauer. They invite home owners or prospective home owners to interview them during the weekend or on Labor Day.

MELODY-

By Helen Welshimer

A LITTLE song you used to hum is running through the rain. Its notes are found in spattered drops That splash the windowpane.

A VENDER of old sentiments Who owns a music box Has played the theme you sang to me For half a dozen blocks.

THE kettle boils in harmony, The fire has caught the tune. (Must everything begin to chant The words you brought last June?)

AND though I vowed I would forget Your promises, the rain Is background for a heart that hums A broken, old refrain.

Modern Convenience Make Happy Homes

The most important of all commodities that go to make a convenient home is a plentiful and uninterrupted supply of hot water. Therefore, why not have a water heater that automatically will do this for you. The automatic gas storage water heater requires no labor or bother on your part.

WHAT HAPPENS TO YOUR BED LINENS WHEN THEY LEAVE YOUR HOME?

Does science guard your laundry with fine chemicals and expert handling? In a modern plant?

OR do disease germs, unsanitary conditions and careless handling characterize the way your laundry is done in some backyard or shantytown?

"LAUNDRY"—is something so personal—especially the bed linens your body comes in contact with, the pillow cases that touch your mouth, your eyes, and skin. If your laundry is such an intimate thing it deserves scientific caution in handling. It will get it if you have us handle it for you weekly. Why take chances; life and health are too expensive to trifle with.

KIDNAPERS' LOOT SIX CENTS

WALTHAM, Mass. (U.P.)—Two bandits kidnaped and robbed Alphonse White, 13, of Watertown. Their only loot was 6 cents.

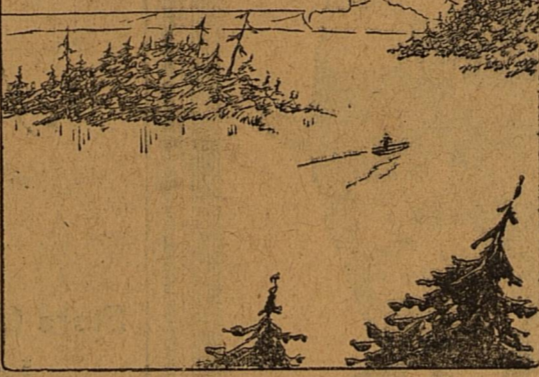

The Japanese jinrikisha was invented by an American missionary, the Rev. Jonathan Goble. With the aid of a Japanese carpenter and a picture of a baby carriage, he built the first one for Mrs. Goble, who had fallen ill in Yokohama.

Bill Collins, sports editor of the McCamey News for the last eight years, is paid a glowing tribute there in last week's issue. It was the last week for Collins in McCamey—he is moving to Midland this week to continue his job with the Humble Oil Company.

The story in the News was headed "Midland's Gain; Our Loss," and reads as follows:

With this issue Bill Collins, the News sports editor, writes his last column, Collins Chatter, a job that he has held for the past eight years.

During these eight years Collins has built up a following all over the Permian Basin, and being a real fan for all kinds of sports, the News has been able to give the fans of the Permian Basin the sporting news second to none.

We can truthfully say that no citizen of McCamey will be missed as much as Bill Collins, a man who has been a leader in civic circles ever since he has called McCamey his home. We envy Midland in being able to number him as a citizen of that city, as Midland's gain will be McCamey's loss.

Mr. Collins has been a leader from the start, and a great deal of the credit should be placed where credit is due. He was a member of the committee that raised the money to build Badger Football Field he aided in the construction of the Refiners new steel grandstand at the all parks, he served as president of the Lions Club and also president of the Permian Basin League.

Although his job with the Humble always came first, yet the majority of his leisure time was always taken up in working for the upbuilding and betterment of McCamey.

No institution in the city will miss this enterprising citizen more than the management of the McCamey News and we take this means of showing a part of our appreciation for the constructive work he has done for our city while he was numbered as one of McCamey's leading citizens.

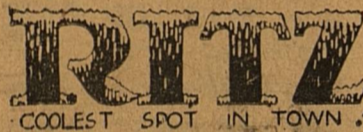

No better phrase could have been coined than the head for the story, McCamey's loss is distinctly Midland's gain.

Believe us Collins when we say that we are darn proud to have you.

FUNDS ADDITION IS MADE POSSIBLE BY HOME LOAN BOARD

Immediate addition of from $54,000* to $80,000 in available funds to loan on home construction here was made possible late in the week when committees of the Midland Federal Savings & Loan Association, aided by Sam Strauss of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, conducted a campaign for expansion of the local organization.

Officers of the association reported late Saturday that 194 shares of additional stock had been subscribed, amounting to $19,400, with actual cash of $13,595 paid in locally. The federal treasury, through the nature of the organization, puts in three times the amount of all funds invested here, so that more than $54,000 will be available almost immediately with which to make additional loans here. Other stock, promised to be taken shortly, was expected to make the total amount considerably within a few days.

Strauss, prior to leaving here late Friday, said he greatly appreciated the cooperation of Midland people in adding so substantially to the loan facilities of the organization in such a short time. Just out of a hospital, he came here in response to a request of officers of the association and had only a few days before having to go to Wichita Falls and Oklahoma City for similar work. His salary is paid by the federal government and his assistance here was without cost to the association.

Both Midland banks, through an advertisement in this newspaper, have endorsed the Midland Federal Savings and Loan Association as a field of safe investment. The government insures all stock against loss and the stockholder may withdraw funds upon notice to local officers. Loans are made for construction of additional homes here. Prior to the visit of Strauss here last week, the organization had loaned or approved more than $32,000 on residence property here.

"Dante's Inferno Revealed As Film's Master Spectacle"

A gripping modern drama, with romance and breath-taking spectacle combined in super-entertainment, opened today at the Ritz Theatre. It is "Dante's Inferno," which creates for the first time on the talking screen the thrilling adventure of Dante in his journey through Inferno, serving as the expression of a modern story theme.

As pictured, this becomes the greatest spectacle ever attempted in theatrical history. The vision of Dante Alighieri, in which he visualized in epic poem the terror that awaited those who died in sin, may have seemed exaggerated to his thirteenth century readers, but they are duplicated here in everyday life in the Twentieth century.

From opening scenes in the stoke-hole of an ocean liner, the picture carries the spectator through the most varied scenes, climbs emotional peaks and rushes on tensely to an unexpected denouement. It has everything that authors have tried to combine in one picture for years—romance, humor, philosophy, ambition—all built on a theme of regeneration.

The principal character of the story is Spencer Tracy, as Jim Carter, a stoker on a ship, who rises to wealth and affluence and becomes king of an amusement midway. He builds a fortune with an amusement concession depicting the horrors of the "Inferno," owned by Henry B. Walthall, whose niece, Claire Trevross, acts as his cashier.
