Five other WPA projects were started in the district earlier in the week.

R. H. McNew, district director, returned Wednesday from San Antonio where he conferred with state officials on projects in this district.

Miss Catherine Mooney, supervisor of certification and intake is in the field this week in an effort to balance projects between the larger and smaller populated regions of different counties.

Mathematics Cause of Many TU Flunkings

AUSTIN, (AP)—Applied mathematics, statistics of the registrar show, caused the highest percentage of failures of any course at the University of Texas.

Registrar E. J. Matthews said university students failed to pass an average of 12.4 per cent of the total hours for which they were registered.

In mathematics the story was different. Failures in applied mathematics averaged 31.3 per cent and in pure mathematics, 20 per cent.

A course in Latin language had no failures, only 1.1 per cent failed physical education courses, 1.9 per cent in Bible, 2.1 per cent in Czech, 2.7 per cent in the art of teaching, and 3.2 per cent in public speaking.

Failures ranged from 12 to 18 per cent in the broad majority of university courses, such as chemistry, economics, English, French, physics, Spanish and zoology.

Law courses were the biggest stumbling block in professional groups. In it 18.7 per cent of all grades were failing. Only 11.7 per cent of the engineers failed, 11.5 per cent in pharmacy, 10.3 per cent in business administration and 6.1 per cent in education.

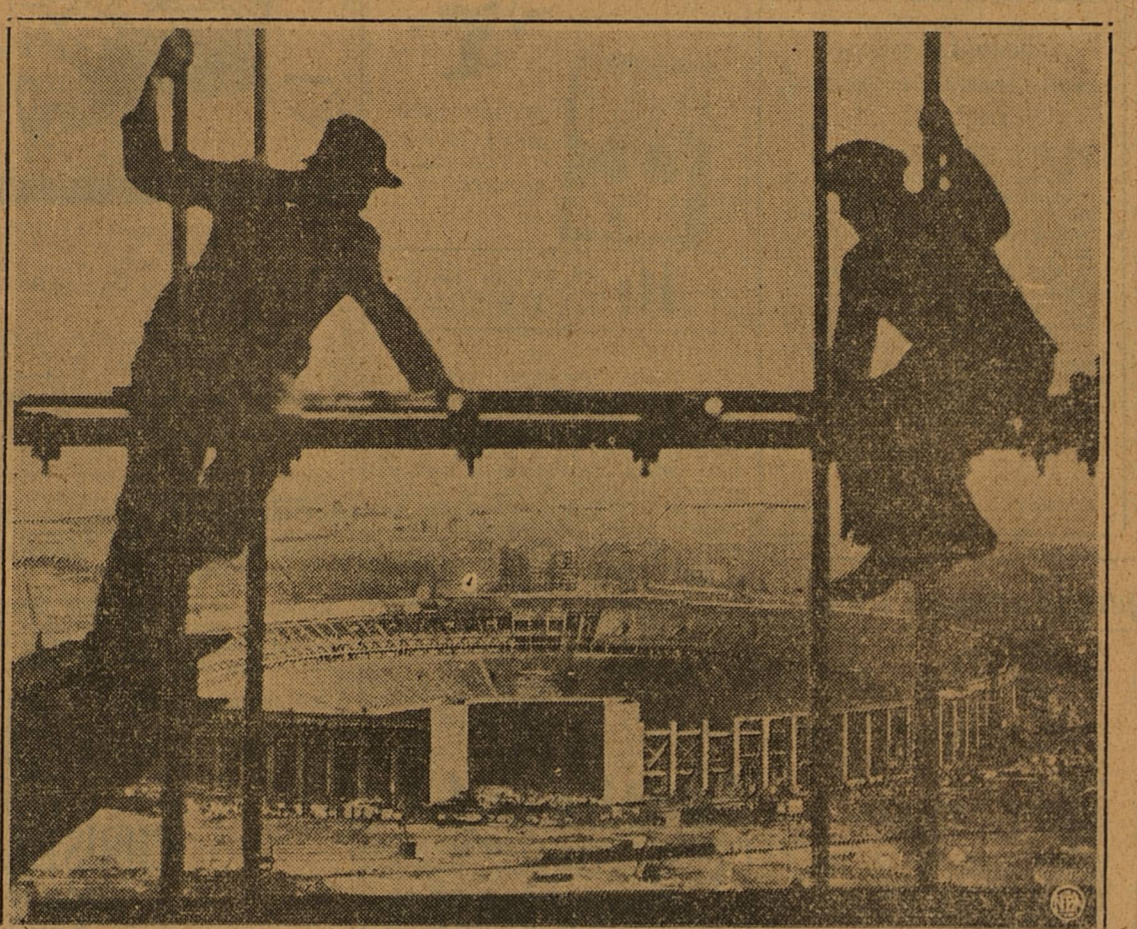

South Bank of River To Have More Lights

BROWNSVILLE, (AP)—There will be more light along the south bank of the Rio Grande in 1936 if a proposed new import rate on electric power is approved by President Cardenas of Mexico.

The present franchise, calling for a rate of one centavo per 100 kilowatts, expires Dec. 31, and the Mexican treasury department has drafted a new franchise providing a rate of one centavo per 100 kilowatts.

The reduction is expected to result in use of more electricity in Mexican cities which obtain power from American plants.

Baby Alligator Is Carried by Floridan

DALLAS, (AP)—Patsy Lazbyones, an alligator that wears a string of pearls—no genuine—around her leathery neck, is a widely traveled mite despite her tender age of 34 months.

Patsy has journeyed about 92,500 miles, says her master, Irving S. Schwartz of Miami.

She has passed the rock of Gibraltar, visited the shrines of Palestine and pyramids of Egypt, seen the gayety of Paris and the fogs of London, and the softer parts of her shell are being drilled. The well is now at total depth of 3,132 feet.

The attachment began then, Schwartz adopted Patsy to share his bachelor life.

Patsy rides in a specially constructed bed and bath apartment in the rear of his automobile, never takes the role of back seat driver, comes at Schwartz' fingertips—the ideal companion, says Schwartz.

WAY IS CLEARED TO END STRIKING BY LONGSHOREMEN

Men Are Expected to Return to Work In Few Days

HOUSTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The district contract committee of the International Longshoremen's association took action Wednesday intended to clear the way for most of the striking members of the association at Gulf ports to return to work within a few days.

The committee decided to sign new contracts with individual steamship lines serving the Gulf. Union leaders said at least 14 companies already had agreed to enter into negotiations with the I. L. A. and they expected most of the other lines to do likewise because of the nationwide boycott against companies which refuse to discuss terms with the union.

Before today's meeting, the district contract committee had taken the position that it would not contract with individual lines or for individual ports but would insist that the dispute be settled in its entirety before union members would return to work. The federal mediation board now sitting here and Joseph P. Ryan, international president of the I. L. A. urged, however, that contracts be signed with any lines willing to negotiate with the union.

The federal conciliation board, appointed by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins and composed of Dr. George W. Stocking, University of Texas economist, Frank P. Douglas, Midland newspaper editor, and labor, attended the contract committee session.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce To Celebrate Centennial "Plenty"

Under the leadership of its regional Chamber of Commerce West Texas will participate next year in the Texas Centennial—in a big way. The plan has been announced by Ray H. Nichols, WTC president and chairman of a newly-formed exhibit committee acting for the regional chamber; other members being P. C. Haines, Chief of Vocational Agriculture for the State Department of Education; Max Bentley of Abilene; and D. A. Banded, WTC manager.

The committee's first announcement said:

"The use, for exhibit purposes, of about one-fourth of the vast Agricultural building, now farthest advanced in construction on the Centennial grounds in Dallas, has been tendered to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce by the Central Exposition authorities. The space tendered occupies more than 6,000 square feet. It is our plan to divide this into ten spaces of equal size, 36x8 feet, for the showing of ten related parts of our unified regional exhibit, each part to be sponsored by one of our ten administrative districts, and each dealing with one phase of West Texas life.

"In addition, we will allot space to each one of our 195 affiliated towns where, on panels serving as a background to the region-wide exhibit, they may tell their own individual stories to the estimated 10,000,000 persons who will visit the Centennial during its six months.

"Each panel will occupy a space two feet wide, and by six feet high.

When the sea-gulls go to lightening court business, it's a good sign that the weather is wet.

But the opinions of five men shortly after noon today agreed that a certain weather visitor must be a sea-gull. He bore no resemblance to any bird of this section. He danced about, picked up the wet grass, picking or looking for insects, and showed little fear of people walking near him.

Marguarite Hester, a county librarian, was able to get snapshots of him as he posed in various positions.

MEXICO TEACHERS TO BE GIVEN ARMS

Cardenas Gives His Consent to Request

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 5. (AP)—President Cardenas today promised to give Mexico's 16,000 rural school teachers arms to protect themselves as they spread the socialistic education throughout the country.

The teachers had demanded the guarantee of safety against rebels who have killed and mutilated many teachers recently.

Led by two women, whose ears had been cut off, 12,000 rural school teachers paraded to the national palace Wednesday and demanded guarantees of safety from rebel mutators.

They pledged support to President Lado Cardenas and the principle of socialistic education, one of the objects of attack by insurgent bands which have been mainly roaming the state of Jalisco, singling out teachers for mutilation and murder.

The teachers also asked for higher wages.

President Cardenas spoke to them from the palace balcony, urging them to continue their work hopefully. He said increased salaries could not be granted now, and made no mention of guarantees.

Posters carried in the parade demanded that the teachers be permitted to arm in self defense. Others attacked the clergy and "fascism."

Many carried communist banners, but the Mexican flag was not in evidence.

CALF FEEDING PROJECT FOR BOYS

One of the most forward steps in recent years is the announcement by County Commissioners that they are employing a full time county agricultural agent, with a half time assistant, to be in better position to stress Four-H club work for Midland county farm boys.

Midland is the logical center for such a program, and all counties of this section where feedstuffs are grown should be glad to cooperate, having the privilege of bringing their fed calves to the Midland Fair for competition.

The fullest cooperation from all people concerned should be obtainable in getting this worthy project under way. County Agent S. A. Debnam, and his assistant, G. A. Boyd, have had liberal experience and training in the calf feeding business and are anxious to have the program organized not later than January.

Censor's Scissors Never Were Weilded On Rogers' Pictures, Will Hays Recalls

The censor's scissors never had to be wielded on a movie of Will Rogers, Will Hays, czar of the motion picture industry, recalled recently in paying tribute to the high caliber of Rogers' films.

"Will never would make a movie that parents didn't want their children to see," said Hays, recalling an incident two days before Rogers started his fatal airplane trip.

"We talked of a story which a friend of Rogers had suggested that he use for his next picture. The friend wanted Rogers to take the lead in the movie, but Rogers told me he was going to reject the story."

"I know it is a fine play by a great writer," said Will, "but it is for grown-ups. It will make a fine picture, but when I play in a picture folks always bring their children to see it. Most of the story is great, but there is one scene in it that people wouldn't want their children to see."

With the announcement that handicapped children will be the principal beneficiaries of the Will Rogers Memorial Fund, there is a renewed interest in the opportunity of Will Rogers friends to participate in a living, continuing memorial to perpetuate his friendliness to mankind.

Take or send your subscription to any bank or bring it or send it to this office. It is the aim of the Commission to have millions of Will Rogers friends participate with a contribution. It is not the size of the subscription but the act itself that is important.

Corn Tossers Set Record
MELBOURNE, (UP)—Dr. Taylor accomplished what is claimed to be a world's record in a competition at Australia's Royal Agricultural Show here by tossing a sheaf of corn 46 feet with a pitchfork.

England's record large family is said to be that of the Hendrens, of Wimbledon. The family numbers 120, including children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Providing Miss Sidney with a part that is distinctly her meber, "Mary Burns, Fugitive" emerges as an emotionally powerful, tensity dramatic photoplay, packed with romance and adventure all the way. In the title role, Miss Sidney gives one of the finest performances of the year as an innocent girl, hunted by the law and relentlessly pursued by a former sweetheart gangster.

Running a close second for acting honors are Melvyn Douglas and a promising young film find Alan Baxter. Both give splendid portrayals in widely different roles. Douglas, cast as a wealthy, famous scientist, temporarily blinded, who falls in love with Miss Sidney, brings a finesse and dignity that characterizes this able actor. Baxter, playing his first film part, displays ease, poise and acting ability.

Only one in every hundred murderers in the United States is ever executed for his crime.

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS

At least 1200 years ago Japan had post carriers.

16 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

In Japan messages written on scrolls of vegetable fibre paper were carried by messengers at least 1200 years ago. These couriers also bore their messages in a cleft stick but later, when the volume of mail increased, it was carried in baskets tied to each end of a bamboo rod resting across the shoulders much as a dairy maid carries two pails of milk. It probably would not be wide of the mark to imagine the couriers carrying also a paper lantern to light their way over dangerous mountain trails.

It has been estimated that there are 27,000,000,000,000,000,000 molecules in one cubic centimeter of air at sea level and at freezing.

The Town Quack (Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything) Helen to Helene, and all that sort of thing. I know a girl named Susan, and if she begins spelling her name Siouxan I won't be surprised. Several years ago, a man here said the town was dying. He suggested the appointment of a committee to put new life in the town. The first recommendation the committee made was that the man who made the recommendation leave town. The club has decided to give its annual Christmas basket to some needy family.

"Night Must Fall" Is Comedy Despite Theme of Murder

By MRS. THOS. B. FLOOD

"Night Must Fall" is an English play, which has yet to make its appearance on the American stage. Reports are that contracts are now on the high seas, bound from London to the Sam H. Harris office in New York. This play was written by Emyln Williams, who takes the lead, and was first produced in London in 1935. While murder is the theme, yet it is essentially a comedy.

Mrs. Bramson is a fussy old-fashioned woman of fifty-five who chooses to spend most of her time in a wheel chair and whose chief delight is pitying herself and making life miserable for those in her household. Dan, a page boy at the Talboys, a fashionable hotel, betrayed Dora, Mrs. Bramson's maid and it is to make things right for Dora that Mrs. Bramson has Dan come to see her. He is a suave sort of fellow and by flattery and extreme attentiveness to Mrs. Bramson's every want, wins his way into her confidence and eventually into the safe where she hoards her money.

News comes that a woman has disappeared from the Talboys and Scotland Yard is handling the case. Olvin, Mrs. Bramson's niece, suspects Dan from the start, but not until the end of course, is the crime pinned onto him. Two murders are finally attributable to Dan and the reader is left with the solid conviction that there is no out for Dan.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

Our idea of an evening gown which combines sophistication and smartness with a dash of novelty is one of black taffeta with extreme back décolletage crossed by vertical straps of self-material. The feature of the gown is a wide collar of silver metal cloth lined with the taffeta the back part of which is brought up over the head in "Madonna hood" style or allowed to fall softly down the shoulders.

Neglées this winter are enough to make those who possess none turn emerald wit heavy. One we particularly liked is of soft tearose satin with flowing lace sleeves of a shade that is almost beige. A bit of shirring at the neck and a prim turnover collar are added attractions.

Speaking of sleeves brings us again to evening gowns, this time to a black crepe with full sleeves of yellow net with round medallions of lace ruffling. The fullness is gathered in at the wrists. The formal note is maintained by slits in the back of the bodice.

A tailored satin gown for evening wear is finished with decorative green buttons and a soft green chiffon handkerchief.

Mrs. Crump Uses A Mexican Motif At Midweek Party

Featuring a Mexican note in playing appointments and prizes, Mrs. Joe Crump was hostess to the Midweek club at her home, 323 W. Kansas, Wednesday afternoon.

Three tables of bridge furnished recreation for guests, with high score prize going to Mrs. M. D. Self and high cut to Mrs. Dobbins.

Mexican dishes composed the plate served after the games.

Plans were made by the club for the annual Christmas party to be held this year on December 18.

Present were a guest, Mrs. Dobbins, and the following club members: Mmes. J. M. Armstrong, J. R. Ashley, Hugh Corrigan, Jimmie Greene, Allen Haggrave, Frank Johnson, J. B. Leonard, Self, Don Sivalls, M. C. Ulmer, Fred Wright, and the hostess.

Miss Sawyer Gives Household Hints

Despite the bad weather, more than 20 women attended the demonstration given by Miss Eleanor Sawyer at the Norge salesroom 122 N. Main street, Wednesday afternoon.

Another demonstration is being held this afternoon.

Miss Sawyer interspersed her demonstrations and talks on the various household appliances manufactured by her firm with such practical hints as: Never clean a porcelain-finished stove while it is hot or it is liable to crack; never freeze ices too hard; when icing a two-layer cake, put the bottoms of the layers together.

Chocolate cake with seven-minute frosting, tomato ice, sweet potato sunwheels and broiled meats were made in yesterday's demonstrations. A large ring mold and smaller molds, pair of cookie sheets, and 10 rubber scrapers were distributed as prizes, while a series of recipes was given each woman in attendance.

Poems of Juvenile Midland Poet Will Appear in Print

Midland has an entrant in the ranks of juvenile poets. She is Elma Jean Noble, daughter of Mrs. Susie G. Noble, who has been notified that two poems written by her when she was only eight years of age have been chosen for publication in the anthology of poetry by children which is being compiled and will be published by the Tardy Press at Dallas.

The titles of the two poems are "The Forgotten Toys" and "Cheerful", the latter being a tribute to Mrs. E. R. Thomas, then Elma Jean's teacher.

The poems were sent to Mrs. Frances Coffin Boaz, educator and poet of Fort Worth, who conducts the poetry hour over KTAT and they were selected for publication in the anthology.

The volume will be the first of its kind to be compiled in Texas and the second in the United States, according to Mrs. Boaz, who calls the attention of child poets from three years old to high school age to the project.

Children interested in entering poems for the anthology should send their manuscripts to Mrs. Boaz, station KTAT, Fort Worth, giving name, address, and age.

Elma Jean, now ten years old, has written several other poems.

AGGIE VICTORY HOPES SEEM TO REST ON ITS LINE

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Dec. 5.—Down in the depths of the line, where football games are really won, seems to lie Texas Aggie hopes for victory over Southern Methodist's Mustangs Saturday on Kyle Field. They lie more than ever in the line as the Pony backfield seems to have a decided edge, in performance to date at least, on the Cadets.

The hopes seem forlorn at that, as the Mustangs' Rose Bowl line rates as one of the strongest in Southwest Conference history. But Bill James, chief line aide to Coach Homer H. Norton, has fumed out one of the finest forward walls Texas Aggieand, one noted for sterling line play, has seen in years.

From end to end there is little difference in weight. The Ponies, however, have an edge as regards reserve strength. They also have a decided margin in experience, as their starting line is made up entirely of seniors. The Aggies' forward wall lists only one senior, two juniors and four first-year varsity players. The teams seem about even at the ends and center, with the Mustangs having the edge at guard and tackle.

The Mustangs offer Bill Tipton, 175-pounder, and Mace Stewart, 185-pounder, as their starting ends. Both rate highly as pass catchers. The Aggies have two 185-pounders, Taylor Wilkins, a senior, and Johnny Morrow, a sophomore. Tipton and Stewart each played 80 minutes against the TCU Horned Frogs. Wilkins went the route against the University of Texas Longhorns and Morrow played all but a few minutes of the game.

In Maurice Orr and Truman Spain the Mustangs have two fine, 60-minute, tackles receiving much entire season. Chances for a victory over the Argies picked up Wednesday when big Ed Cherry, 190 pound fullback, who has been on the injured list for a month reported for practice. Cherry played only a few minutes in the Howard Payne and Mines games but will be in great shape for the post season skirmish.

Crooked Rows Prove Success for Farmer

CANYON. (AP)—Crooked rows made the difference between a good feed crop and failure for W. W. Kuehn, Randall county farmer.

After his wheat crop had been destroyed by grouch and winds, Kuehn ran contour lines, listed with level rows, and planted to grain sorghum a 150-acre field. A good yield of grain and forage was produced.

Across the road a field was listed at the same time and worked in a similar manner, except that the rows were made straight. It produced hardly enough to harvest. Kuehn estimated that contouring made a difference of at least 20 bushels per acre.

Only two of the 650 prisoners released from Sing Sing in 1934 served their full terms.

Cheers for Calumet's New 10¢ Can—and perfect, never-fail baking! "It's real quality at a saving!" says Mrs. K. J. Tobin, of Beverly Hills, Ill. "I've never had a baking failure with Calumet." Why does Calumet give such "luck"? Why is it different from other baking powders? Calumet combines two distinct leavening actions. A quick one for the mixing bowl—a slower one for the oven. This Double-Action is so perfectly balanced and controlled that it produces perfect leavening. Calumet is a product of General Foods.

All Calumet prices are lower! Calumet is now selling at the lowest prices in its history... The regular price of the Full-Pound Can is now only 25¢! And ask to see the new, big 10¢ can—a lot of good baking for a dime—with Calumet, the Double-Acting Baking Powder.
