Wilbur C. Hawk, Amarillo publisher and civic leader, who succumbed at his home there early today following a stroke of apoplexy. Besides the Amarillo paper, Hawk had an interest in papers at Shamrock, Dalhart, Lubbock, Childress, Midland and other points. Hawk was 55, February 10.

Funeral services for Wilbur C. Hawk will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Central Presbyterian church, Amarillo. It was announced shortly after noon today. Burial will be at Amarillo. T. Paul Barron, associated with Mr. Hawk and Gene A. Howe in the Midland Publishing Co., will go to Amarillo for the services.

AMARILLO, Feb. 12.—(Special to The Reporter-Telegram.) Wilbur C. Hawk, once voted the first citizen of West Texas, and the driving energy behind scores of city and regional projects is dead. He succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy at 6:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 2121 Hughes street. Although he had been ill following a heart attack nearly six weeks ago, he was believed to be well on the road to recovery. Wilbur Hawk was 55 years old last Monday. He had risen from the position of a store clerk in Atchison, Kansas, to a place of respect and power throughout the southwest. He was identified principally with the newspaper publishing business. Although his interests were widely varied, general manager of the News-Globe, and with other newspaper interests in Shamrock, Dalhart, Lubbock, Childress, Midland, Memphis, Falls City, Neb., and Atchison, Kan., Mr. Hawk had become a forceful personality in the plains journalistic circles. In addition he was president of the Southwest Radio Broadcasting company, a leader of Republican forces in the region and guiding hand of many civic enterprises.

A touch of fate was seen in the fact that Mr. Hawk's death came on the morning of the annual Lincoln Day celebration of Republicans in the local observance of which he was a leading figure. Wilburton Clayton Hawk was born on February 10, 1881, at Ebersville, O. He obtained his early education at Effingham, Kan., walking two miles to school. At 17, he became a country school teacher, and entered the University of Kansas at 19. There he played football, without the knowledge of his parents. Suffering a leg fracture in practice, he was forced to give up his college work when he dropped blind in his studies due to his injuries.

He became a clerk in a clothing store in Atchison, Kansas in 1901. Mr. Hawk's first job was manager of the store. In 1911 he obtained the post of deputy warden at the federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga., which he held three years. It was while in this work that he gained valuable experience in judging human nature—a large part of the secret of his forceful personality, executive ability and business success.

He returned to Atchison in 1914 and entered the publishing business, becoming co-owner of the Atchison Globe. He was chairman of the Republican State Committee of Kansas, 1922 to 1924, chairman of the state's delegation to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924, and a member of the Texas delegation to the Kansas City Convention in 1928.

Mr. Hawk moved to Amarillo in 1926, becoming general manager of the Amarillo Globe, and later of The News-Globe Publishing company. He served as president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in 1932 and '33, and was a leader in the Texas Centennial movement. His success as president of the Tri-State Fair Association is widely known. During his tenure from 1928 to 1930, the association made $50,000 in improvements to the grounds, and turned a $40,000 deficit into a $12,000 surplus. He was drafted back into the presidency in 1932, and had just been re-elected president for another year at the time of his death.

Mr. Hawk married Mrs. Hallie Lucas of Amarillo on March 16, 1919. Scores of friends visited the home this morning, offering condolences to Mrs. Hawk, and to Mr. Hawk's close associates. Other survivors, including several brothers and sisters, reside in Kansas and Oklahoma. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

HOWARD COUNTY WILL VOTE UPON
LIQUOR QUESTION
February 29 Set for Local Option
Election

BIG SPRING, Feb. 12.—(Sp.)—Howard county will vote on the liquor question February 29, county commissioners court decided Tuesday after considering a petition calling for a local option election and signed by the required number of qualified voters. Given an option of submitting three propositions, according to a ruling obtained last week from the attorney general by County Attorney Wilbur Barcus, the court elected to submit the issue on "all liquors."

Defeat of the proposal to legalize sale of all types of liquor would not affect the standing of 32 beverages now sold in Howard county. The petition, started here before Christmas, bore more than the required 10 per cent qualified voters of the total votes cast in the preceding gubernatorial election.

It contained the names of many avowed wet and dry advocates. It expressed a desire to see an expression from the people. With a voting strength of approximately 5,000, the largest in the history of the county, the greatest number of votes ever polled in a prohibition election here are expected to be counted on Feb. 29. According to the option obtained by the county attorney from the attorney general, the court could submit the issue on 4 per cent malt and vinous beverages, 14 per cent malt and vinous liquors, or all liquors. Result of the election would not affect prior approval of new legalized light wines and beers.

With the advent of the Good Government League into the local picture, a lively pre-election campaign by the wet and dry is anticipated. Dry forces especially are expected to promote an active campaign.

Announcement was made that the club dance scheduled for Feb. 22 would not be held. Thirty-five persons were present at the luncheon, including visitors. The North Midland club served the meal.

TOKYO, Feb. 12.—(AP)—A detachment of Japanese and Manchukuoan soldiers were reported to have defeated a group of 100 Mongolians in a battle at Olahudka, southwest of lake Bor. It was reported that the battle was on the largest scale of any of the recent incidents. In recent weeks Russia has protested bitterly, even to the League of Nations, that the Japanese were massing troops on the Russia-Mongolian border, causing war threats between the countries and an added danger to the peace of Europe.

Last Pensioner
Of 1812 War Near
Century In Years

By NEA Service
More than 120 years after the end of the war of 1812, one name remains on the federal pension rolls as a beneficiary of a soldier that conflict, a striking illustration of the length of time that a government pays war costs after the clash of arms has halted. The last pensioner of the struggle with England is Mrs. Lydia Ann Graham, 98, of Brushy Run, Va. Widow of Isaac Graham, drummer boy of 1812, she was married to the veteran in 1869, when he was an elderly man and she was a woman of 32. Graham died in 1867. Now Mrs. Graham dwells alone in her mountain cottage, raising chickens and cultivating her garden, living comfortably on the $50 check which she receives each month from the veterans' administration. She has no modern conveniences—running water, lights, or gas—but still uses kerosene lamps and carries in her own fuel. The one great annual event in her life is the family reunion at her home. She has three daughters, all of whom have large families. While the pension list of the war of 1812 has dwindled to one beneficiary, several thousand veterans and widows of veterans of the Civil War still are receiving checks from Washington, and officials estimate that this century will be drawing to a close before the last one has passed away. If pensions are granted to widows of World War soldiers, which is expected to be the next goal of veterans' organizations, the government will be paying them well into the next century.

ASK FOR SEALED BIDS ON BUILDING

Survey Begun on Proposed Garden City,
Midland Road Early Today

Sealed bids for constructing 10,360 miles of grading and caliche base course in Midland county, leading to Ector county line, on the proposed Midland-Andrews cut-off, have been asked by the State Highway Department, the advertisement appearing in this issue of The Reporter-Telegram.

The bids will be opened at 9 a. m. on Tuesday, February 25. The highway is referred to as "F," covered by the U. S. Works Program Highway Project No. WPSO 880-A.

I. R. Titus, resident engineer of the Pecos office of the highway department, and Gene Kelly, office engineer, are here in the interest of the project.

With a crew of five men they began surveys for the right of way of the proposed Midland-Garden City road this morning. The surveys will be used in securing right of ways, and application for WPA funds will be made by Midland county when the task is completed.

Approximately 100
At Initial Meet
Ralph T. Bucy was named chairman of the Good Government League of Midland at its organization meeting Tuesday evening, when approximately 100 men assembled at the First Baptist church auditorium. Announced as a meeting of all men of Midland county who are interested in law enforcement, the invitation had been sent out by the Pastors' Association of Midland. Forty-four men had given their names as members at a preliminary meeting held last Sunday afternoon and an additional 37 enrolled last evening.

W. R. Upham was elected secretary-treasurer and it was voted to create an advisory committee of an additional nine men, two of whom to be selected by the chairman, the secretary and the head of the pastors' association, the Rev. Winston P. Borum.

Members of the former Laymen's League voted to merge into the organization, transferring funds of that body to the newly created Good Government League.

The Rev. Borum, who presided at the meeting, stated that the purpose of the league was to back officers in the enforcement of laws; then, if any officers were unwilling to enforce the law, to secure legislation in favor of close enforcement in the next election.

He pointed out that the league is not concerned with placing the blame on any former laxity in law enforcement, recognizing that the public in general has contributed to such laxity, but to create public sentiment in favor of close enforcement henceforth.

Two members of the pastors' association were absent on account of illness. The Rev. T. H. Bass, pastor of the Church of Christ, voiced the need of an aroused citizenry to stand for the enforcement of existing laws. Speakers declared that the liquor election, in which the county remained dry, is a past violation to which the Good Government League now is concerned with backing officers in strict enforcement of the laws.

Shut Down For Orders
The recent north extension of the Sayre pool, Amerada No. 1, Daugherty is shut down for orders at total depth of 2925 feet. After being shut in for 16 hours, it flowed 124 barrels of oil together with an estimated 2,500,000 cubic feet of gas from 4:45 yesterday afternoon to 7 o'clock this morning.

Located nearly a half mile north of the nearest producer in the Sayre pool, the Amerada well established itself definitely but it is thought possible that the pug was found in drilling into a lime stringer. The No. 1 Avertit is located on a geophysical "high" in section 238, block G, W. T. R. R. survey, three miles northwest of Seminole.

By FRANK GARDNER
Magnolia No. 1 State-Waiton, Winkler county wildcat two miles east of the Sayre pool started blowing dry gas at the rate of an estimated 1,500,000 cubic feet daily after being shot at 7:15 last night with 270 quarts from 3191 to 3279 feet. No oil was present.

The No. 1 State-Waiton, which has reached a total depth of 3279 feet, logged sands with evidence of oil and gas from 3105-30, 3140-60, 3170-73, 3205-10, and 3225-40. A section from 3248-73 feet had a pronounced odor of oil. Operators are undecided as to plans, but may shoot the upper section in an effort to obtain oil production.

Interest in the Magnolia outpost has run high since it topped brown lime at 2309 feet, more than 75 feet higher than the Sun No. 1 Waiton, a mile farther east. It is located in section 7, block B-3, public school land.

Tools Recovered
In central Gaines county, W. T. Walsh and Harry Adams Corp. No. 1 Avertit is drilling ahead again at 50 feet up in the hole by a kick of gas or air from below 3915 feet. Last samples were anhydrite but it is thought possible that the pug was found in drilling into a lime stringer. The No. 1 Avertit is located on a geophysical "high" in section 238, block G, W. T. R. R. survey, three miles northwest of Seminole.

Fourteen miles farther northwest, in section 414, block G, C. C. S. D. & R. G. N. G. survey, Wahlenmaier, York and Harper No. 1 Dr. E. H. Jones is drilling without change in hard lime below 5068 feet.

Gulf No. 1 E. R. Hill, wildcat being drilled several miles east of the Halley pool in southern Winkler county, is going ahead below 3430 feet in lime. Salt water rose 700 feet in the hole while drilling a water sand section from 3399-3405 feet. The No. 1 Hill may be carried down for a try for Ordovician production. It is 440 feet from the south and 2300 feet from the east line of section 9, block B-11, public school land.

Logs Rainbow Showing
A tentative Ordovician test in the Tubb area of Crane county, Sinclair-Prairie and others No. 1 Tubb logged a rainbow showing of oil in drilling from 2880-90 feet in lime. Farther up the hole it encountered a soft formation which carried oil stain and a slight odor of oil. It is drilling ahead below 2885 feet. The Sinclair-Prairie Tubb, a unit test, is in the southeast corner of section 3, block B-27, public school land, nearly two miles southeast of Gulf No. 1 Waddell, deep pool opener of the Tubb area.

Two miles farther southeast, Humble No. 1 J. B. Tubb, another deep try, is drilling lime below 2741 feet. (See OIL NEWS, page 4)

INVITE AMERICAN NATIONS TO PARLEY
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12. (AP)—Initial steps toward the calling of a new Pan-American conference—presumably to be devoted to the promotion of peace in the new world—were revealed Tuesday by President Roosevelt.

At his press conference, the chief executive reported he had sent personal letters to the heads of all Central and South American Governments, proposing the subject at a general parley.

On the grounds that it would be discourteous to reveal the contents of the letters before they had been received by the heads of the Governments concerned, Mr. Roosevelt declined to discuss his plans for the projected conference, or even the principal subject involved.

It was considered significant, however, that he spoke within four days after reports circulated widely in the papers that a peace conference would be called. Officials took pains not to deny the reports, although none would publicly confirm the plan.

A definite impression existed in Latin-American diplomatic quarters that the proposed conference would deal with methods for perfecting the peace machinery throughout the Americas.

In any event, close political and economic co-operation among the Americas, not only in matters confined to the Western Hemisphere, but in world affairs as well, is known to be the hope of United States officials.

THE SOUTHWEST LOSES A LEADER

Members of The Reporter-Telegram staff were saddened by news of the sudden death early today of Mr. Wilbur C. Hawk, Amarillo publisher, vice-president of the Midland Publishing Co., president of the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, chief business executive of several outstanding newspapers, including those at Amarillo, Lubbock and Atchison, Kas.; and heavily interested in those at Dalhart, Midland, Childress and at Falls City, Nebraska. He also controlled the radio station KGNC at Amarillo and was reported to be in the midst of another million dollar radio deal involving several large city stations.

Formerly president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, a director in the Texas Centennial, actively identified with governmental affairs, Wilbur C. Hawk was a true Texan, although he had moved here from Kansas less than ten years ago. He was a powerful executive, possessed of highest integrity, untiring energy and an abnormal capacity for executive work. Unless working at high pitch on progressive matters, Mr. Hawk was dissatisfied. Hence he was continually named leader in big movements which required weighty directorship.

Although surrounded with a corps of highly efficient men who assisted him in the many details of his activities, the place of Wilbur C. Hawk will be most difficult to fill. His partner and business associate, Gene A. Howe, editor of the Amarillo Globe and News, leaned heavily on Mr. Hawk in the expansion of his business interests. The two composed a team rarely matched in the annals of present day business life in the Southwest. Known for their progressive spirit and for their loyalty to the territory served by their newspapers, when they spoke the people listened. Their ability to secure whole hearted cooperation from the public has been remarkable, but was the natural sequence of shooting squarely with their constituents and with their section of the country.

Officials at Washington always have been ready to listen with interest to information brought or sent by these two great publishers. The two men have influenced much legislation and many policies of the administration with reference to the southwest.

Gene A. Howe will miss Wilbur C. Hawk as few men have missed an associate. The Panhandle, the southwest and all of Texas will find the vacancy caused by Mr. Hawk's death extremely hard to fill.

Narrowing the scene to Midland, Mr. Hawk had a wide acquaintance here, although his visits to Midland were rare during the past few years. He remembered names, faces and incidents of acquaintance remarkably well. He was interested in other people and their welfare. He asked little and gave heavily. Where he had business interests he asked no odds but was willing to match the efforts, expenditures and progressiveness of his associates to the fullest of his ability for the betterment of territories served.

Wilbur C. Hawk was born to be great, he achieved greatness and he had greatness thrust upon him.

Loyal Workers BTU Entertains With a "Hayseed Dinner"

A "hayseed dinner" was the unique form of entertainment chosen by the Loyal Workers BTU for a social meeting at the Baptist annex Tuesday evening.

Girls came dressed in cotton frocks, wearing hair ribbons, but with no makeup or nail polish. Boys wore mis-matched coats and trousers, black ties, suspenders, and unshined shoes. Finer were assessed for breaking any rules of dress.

Carrying out the rustic idea, table decorations were bouquets of tumbleweeds and candles stood upon inverted tin cups. The meal was served on tin plates with wooden-handled knives and forks and consisted of beans, onions, potatoes, and cornbread, with a conventional dessert.

An "auction sale" was held and other games and contests were conducted by Miss Winnie Lee McCormick and Miss Juanita Cox.

Miss Annie Faye Dunagan was in general charge of arrangements. Present were: Misses Theo Cosper, Lucille Scarborough, Esda Stewart, Lillie Mae Jones, Louise Farrington, Louella Cobb, Alta Merrill, Olga Edwards, Marjorie Ward, Laverne Paulette, Dorothy Hines, Ruth Chapman, Mahdeen Reising, Vivian Arnett, Annie Faye Dunagan, Juanita Cox, Winnie Lee McCormick, Obara Hines, Messrs. Something that we like in the way of washable tailored dresses are those made of streamline cord. In light green and blue, these are pretty and, we should judge, very serviceable. We have also seen one in "cream-cup" which is not exactly what its name implies, but is pale pink.

It's strange how even women's fashions betray this deep-rooted desire of the sex for something different. Evening dresses, which, by rights, should be of the frout-trout type, decided sometime ago to go tailored—and did a beautiful job of it. Now that suits are trying to reach the acme of man-tailored styles the severity of them and the accompanying flat straw sailor is off-set by the feminine touch of wearing a veil on the hat. Truly, it would seem that nothing satisfies a woman if clothes are tailored she wants them feminized, and if they are frivolous, she must have a man-ish touch somewhere.

But then, half the fun of being a woman is being able to be inconsistent and have people think nothing of it.

Present were: Mmes. M. L. White, A. G. Bohannon, G. D. West, Paul Jackson, T. B. Bass, Lewis Bewley, W. F. Heil, E. W. Watlington, Jr., and Mr. Bass.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

Sharkskin is one of the best-looking fabrics that we have seen made up into spring suits. We've been told that it is one of the most popular materials and that tailored suits are made of it in white and pastel shades. It is said to clean and press nicely and does not wrinkle.

It is a fine hard-woven cloth and in a good-looking shade is infinitely good-looking.

Gray, despite an uncertainty displayed by advertisers as to whether the word should be spelled with an "a" or an "e" is holding a place in the spotlight of fashion advertising in larger cities.

One proprietor of a dress shop in town told us that grays are strong, but when asked as to the best colors for spring, mentioned blue: first, blues in any shade.

Something that we like in the way of washable tailored dresses are those made of streamline cord. In light green and blue, these are pretty and, we should judge, very serviceable. We have also seen one in "cream-cup" which is not exactly what its name implies, but is pale pink.

It's strange how even women's fashions betray this deep-rooted desire of the sex for something different. Evening dresses, which, by rights, should be of the frout-trout type, decided sometime ago to go tailored—and did a beautiful job of it. Now that suits are trying to reach the acme of man-tailored styles the severity of them and the accompanying flat straw sailor is off-set by the feminine touch of wearing a veil on the hat. Truly, it would seem that nothing satisfies a woman if clothes are tailored she wants them feminized, and if they are frivolous, she must have a man-ish touch somewhere.

But then, half the fun of being a woman is being able to be inconsistent and have people think nothing of it.

HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU "CAN'T AFFORD" A BUICK?

WE GRANT you that Buick looks expensive — smart things usually do! We grant you a lot of people think of it in terms of a $1500 automobile because Buick used to cost all of that—and some still do. But give us a chance, and we'll show you in cold figures how to own a Buick for little if any more than one of the lowest-priced cars would cost you. We'll show you a big car with a small car operating cost. We'll show you roominess and comfort and safety, with a freedom from repair bills that makes costs-per-mile hit a new low. We'll show you how to get a luxury car—on a brass-tacks budget! There's no mystery to it—no trick figuring. Buick simply licked the problem of building first-class quality in a low-priced car. Now we've got some interesting figures that will change your ideas about automobile values. Don't resign yourself to small-car comfort, small-car ability until you find out how very little per week it costs to own a Buick.

Shelf Space Added In County Library
Approximately 300 feet of shelving space has been added to the county library during the last few days to relieve the congested condition and provide for expansion.
About 280 feet of the space has been added to the adult library on the first floor of the courthouse, the remainder in the children's room in the basement.
So acute was the need for more room, that shelves were erected on three sides of the librarian's office. New filing case and index equipment has likewise been added.

Standind No. 1 J. E. Witcher, south offset to the discovery well in the Foster pool in Ector county, is drilling in lime at 4007 feet. Hole was reduced to six inches at 3920 feet.

The Standind offset is running 27 feet lower than the Barnsdall No. 1 H. C. Foster, the discovery well. It is the intention of the operators to drill into the pay horizon with standard tools; the No. 1 Foster logged first pay from 4080-4104 feet.

Top of lime in the No. 1 Witcher was called at 3895 feet. It is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 24, block 43, township 2 south, 10 east, Dolomite and Chert.

Reports from the Loffland Bros., Moore Bros. and others, No. 1 McDowell, north central Glasscock county Ordovician test, are that it is drilling dolomite and chert at 10,665 feet. Hard formation has retarded progress, only 15 feet having been made in the last day. Credited variously with having topped Ellenberger limestone, lower Ordovician, at 10,385 and 10,470 feet, it is in the northeast quarter of section 22, block 34, township 2 south, T. & P. survey. No oil shows have been logged since a saturated section from 10,510-21 feet.

W. H. Dunning and others No. 1 Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer, northern Ector wildcat, is trying to kill gas with salt water. It encountered about 30,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily from 4055-58 feet and unloaded when water was pumped in to stop the flow. Location is in section

Bears Hoping to Halt Hog Quint

WACO, Tex., Feb. 12.—Though out of the championship running themselves, the Baylor Bears are hoping to throw a monkey wrench into the works of the Southwest conference race by upsetting the league-leading Arkansas Razorbacks in one of the two contests between the Bears and Hogs on the Baylor floor Friday and Saturday nights.

win over the Texas Aggies, and then they moved over to Beattont where they were the winners of the exhibition match against the Knights of Pythias of that city. The score was 35-28.
Back on the home court for a few days of preparation for the Porker invasion, Coach Ralph Wolf is putting his Bruin charges through intensive drills daily in an effort to have them in fine working condition when the victory-fatted Hogs come to town. It will be the last road trip for the Razorbacks and most scribblers believe that they will have easy sailing for the remainder of their conference schedule if they scale the Baylor wall successfully. The Baylor hopes again lie in Slim Alford, who is now among the conference's leading scorers after chalking up 16 points last Friday night in Aggie land. Alford is the big gun of the Grizzlies attack and will have to be bottled up before the Arkansas lads can control the situation this week-end.

Coach Wolf plans to start against the Porkers: Theo and Kyle Alford, forwards; Earl Wray, center; and Ken Clark and Hugh Wilfong, guards.
