JOHN GARNER HEAD OF WILL ROGERS MEMORIAL COMM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—A commission headed by Vice-President John Garner was announced Sunday to handle arrangements for proposed memorials to the late Will Rogers.

Its purpose, Garner said, is to crystallize the Nation-wide sentiment which calls for some tangible expression of the regard in which Will Rogers was held by persons in all walks of life.

The Vice-President's announcement said memorials have been suggested for the late cowboy-humorist's native city of Claremore, Okla., and adopted State, California, as well as other communities that will want especially to honor his memory.

Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, will be treasurer of the commission, and checks and contributions toward the memorials should be addressed to him.

Marland of Oklahoma, Actor Fred Stone, Publisher Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth and Author Rex Beach will be vice-chairmen.

The other 226 commission members include such persons in Rogers' wide range of friends as Herbert Hoover, Alfred E. Smith, Vin- cent Astor, Eddie Conroy, Walter Chrysler, Irvin S. Cobb, Marion Davies, Henry Ford and Tommy Hitchcock Jr., Frank P. Holland is the Dallas member.

There will be a committee on memorials, a somewhat larger executive committee, and a committee on operations, it was explained.

"The committee on memorials will decide as to the type and character of the memorials to be undertaken and will necessarily be guided by the amount of money raised, with the belief of those of his friends who are fostering the movement, including the organization meeting recently held with Governor Marland at Oklahoma City, that whatever is done shall bespeak the simplicity of Will Rogers himself and the form of a definite and enduring help to humanity—to the simple things of life which, after all, are the foundations of civilization. This principle is paramount.

"The operations committee will have general charge of, and coordinate the activities for raising funds, and will be under the chairmanship of Owen D. Young, with Eddie Rickenbacker, America's war ace, as director; F. Trubee Davison, former Assistant Secretary of War in charge of aviation, and Amelia Earhart Putnam, associate directors. Members of this committee will be representative of the many phases of life of which Will Rogers was so much a part.

"Every dollar and every dime contributed will go to the memorial fund in full, the expenses of the committee being otherwise provided.

"Suggestions as to the form of the memorial or memorials will be welcome from any who participate in the movement, however small their contribution may be."

Hopeless Deadlock Probable Over Proposals

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Halls of the League of Nations today were filled with reports that the Italian delegation might quit Geneva over the League's compromise plan settlement for the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

The planning committee had decided to submit the matter to the League council. A hopeless deadlock appeared probable as opposition Italy's counter proposals developed.

Italy has asked that Ethiopia be disarmed, organization and training and armament future of future forces in Ethiopia be entrusted to Italy; Italy received a bell territory, passing west of Addis Ababa, as a connection between the Italian colonies of Eritrea and Somaliland. Spokesmen have announced that Italy would not object to Ethiopia having a sea outlet provided the port was in Italian territory.

Spokesman Selassie characterized the demands as "preposterous," and said that the land grant would cost most of the fertile Ethiopian provinces.

Baron Aloisi, head of the Italian delegation made the proposals verbally. Whether they constituted official action was undetermined.

More than 200,000 soldiers have reported for duty in Rome. The new mobilization brings the Italian mobilization figure to 1,000,000.

Authorities of Italian ports are distributing questionnaires to families as a preparation for evacuation if necessary.

Planning Boards Are Gaining Importance in Civic Welfare

That city and county planning has assumed an important place in the business and civic welfare programs in Texas is the opinion of the members of the Texas Planning Board. At this time there are fourteen city planning boards and one hundred and seven county planning boards in Texas. With a few exceptions among the city planning boards, most of these semi-official planning groups have been created within the past three months at the joint request of the Works Progress Administration and the Texas Planning Board to help the former agency in selecting worthwhile projects and approving these so that their respective communities might participate in the Federal Government's rehabilitation program.

With the deadline passed and the great majority of projects now waiting for approval in Washington, the city and county planning boards now take up long-range planning for their respective communities, according to a statement by W. M. Massie, Chairman of the Texas Planning Board.

"The activities of these local planning boards should not cease now that the need for preparing and submitting Federal works programs has passed," said Mr. Massie. "These boards should now begin to re-discover Texas natural resources and to consider and map out long-range programs for cities and counties. There are so many activities that need attention at this time that it is hard to enumerate them all. A few, however, will suffice; these are public health, drainage, water conservation, elimination of stream pollution, elimination of railway grade crossings, improvement of highways, establishment of airports, building of parks, establishment of game refuges, installation of water systems, and the proper disposal of all waste material."

"Our city and county planning boards," continued Mr. Massie, "should begin this task of mapping out far-sighted programs of city building and county building and State building for permanency. Almost every community has natural resources. These should be considered and catalogued. One of the most important tasks that these boards can do is to assist Texans in re-discovering their amazing variety of natural resources."

Former Midland Man Is Married In California

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Herschel S. Arnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Arnett of Midland, to Miss Grace S. Johnson of Huntington Park, California, is taken from the Huntington Park Signal under date of September 14: Defying the jinx of Friday, the thirteenth, Miss Grace S. Johnson, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Johnson of 7520 State street, and Herschel Arnett also of Walnut Park, were united in marriage last night at 8:30 o'clock in the Episcopal chapel of the First Methodist church.

The Rev. Fred Trotter, pastor of the church, read the single ring service in the presence of 125 guests. White crepe fashioned along princess lines, and falling into a graceful train was chosen by Miss Johnson for her wedding gown. Her veil was fingertip length, held in halo shape with a cluster of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruth North, groomed in pink crepe, the maid of honor, and Mrs. Clarence Shaw, in pink lace, served as the matron of honor. Both carried bouquets of bear cliff roses and delphinium.

Three bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Reid, Miss Hazel Kowall and Miss Winnie Uppenhove, were groomed in blue velvet in shades ranging from pale azure to marine blue. Their bouquets were of gerberas, tied with streamers of coral and cream to match the sashes of their gowns.

The bridegroom was attended by Lester Mitchell of San Diego as best man, and Clarence Shaw and Don Hackett ushered. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following the ceremony Martha Tucknott, violinist, accompanied by Dagmar Lundgren, played "Speak to Me of Love." "At Dawning," and "Because."

A reception for nearly 40 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony, and later the couple departed for a wedding trip without revealing their destination.

Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at 2457 Cass place, South Gate. Mrs. Arnett is well known in this city as she attended the Huntington Park High school and later the University of California at Los Angeles. The groom attended school in Midland, Texas, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Arnett, reside.

FEMINE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

We guess that old saying about mother's cooking being best must be right. No matter how much we enjoy eating away from home, things taste better when we go home and eat one of mother's meals.

There seems to be a tendency toward picnic and buffet meals at Miss Johnson's these days and we applaud the idea heartily. In the last analysis, one's relatives come to visit, not eat (and one's friends, too, for that matter).

A good deal more visiting will be done if the women of the clan don't have to spend three-fourths of the day in the kitchen over a hot stove or washing up huge stacks of dishes afterward.

We're in favor of plenty of good, simple food, paper plates, and more fun for all concerned. Such a program means better digestion, fewer backaches, and a saner outlook on life.

Modern equivalent to a "last rose of summer left blooming alone" sensation is the feeling a woman has when she finds herself the only person in a gathering who is still wearing a summer hat when everyone else is wearing winter felt.

One of the things we like to do: Watch a dignified conservative person, whether man or woman, grow wildly enthusiastic and yell like an Indian at a football game.

Our idea of the perfect exemplification of living by the side of the road and letting the rest of the world go by (without stopping) is the street corner huckster trying to sell watermelons on a cool cloudy morning.

Likens Showman to "Perpetual Motion"

By HARRY L. HAIGHT The nearest thing to perpetual motion is Harley Sadler and his aggregation of players. Like Long-fellow's mountain stream they run on forever and also like another famous collection of amusements they get bigger and better each year.

Sadler is indefatigable in his efforts to present clean, wholesome, entertaining and amusing plays, that captivate everyone from grandma down to little Willie. So run on forever and also like another famous collection of amusements they get bigger and better each year.

Comedy and Romance Feature "Top Hat"

Comedy runs romance a pretty race for honors in "Top Hat," RKO Radio's new musical co-starring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers now showing at the Yuca theatre, as four of the theatre's outstanding laugh winners play supporting roles in the production. Helen Broderick, one of Broadway's ranking comedienne, Edward Everett Horton, Erik Rhodes and Eric Blore all appear at their funniest best.

Irving Berlin wrote the complete musical score for "Top Hat" and his new hit songs serve as feature dance and vocal numbers for the co-stars. The "Piccolino" is the big dance number, destined for ballroom favor as the successor to the "Carioca" and the "Continental."

GARDEN GATE GOSSIP

While most of the flowering annuals can be sown this fall to good advantage, not so much can be done in the vegetable garden except put the soil in shape. A good spading, turning in compost or manure, is the best move that can be made for next spring's vegetable planting. The perennial vegetables, asparagus and rhubarb as well as multiplier onions can be planted to excellent advantage this fall.

Spinach is the early spring vegetable that may be planted in advance of the season to advantage. Prepare the bed and scatter the seed in the rows as late as possible and dodge frozen ground. The idea is to get the seed sown so late that it will not germinate until next spring but will be ready to sprout as soon as the first favorable weather swells the germ in the seed.

Spinach must do all its growing in cool weather. The earlier it can be started the better and longer the crop. So fall sowing is a real advantage. This the bed well after the seed is sown and remove the much early next spring, as soon as the ground starts to thaw. There is no use planing the old-fashioned small-leaf spinach. The modern inventions in the spinach line are so far superior, both in size of leaf and quality, that it is a foolish waste of space and time to bother with any but the newer sorts, mostly of Danish origin. It is more heat resistant and less prone to race up to seed at the slightest suspicion of warm weather.

Multiplier or potato onions as they are sometimes called, give the first young onions in spring. A few bulbs put in this fall will give you a crop before the onion sets can get into action. They are perfectly hardy.

The asparagus bed may be set this fall, getting two-year-old plants from dealers. The main requisite is deep rich soil for asparagus and ample room for each hill giving the plants three feet of space each way. Rhubarb roots should be set out now. Half a dozen plants will be sufficient to provide an ample supply for the average family.

The Town Quack

Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything.

Someone sent this in to be reprinted: When he sneaked in at three with guilt in his eyes, She asked him no questions— She knew all the lies.

Two negroes were talking and one of them was describing a friend. "That man's got money, real money," he said. "Boy, I mean he's got folding money."

An old country boy came to town and meeting up with a town friend started in to paint up the town. They went places and did things and they kept it up until near daylight when they parted and went to bed.

But the old country boy was in the habit of getting up early and so he stumbled up about 7 o'clock, and after breakfast he thought he'd call up his town friend to see how he was making out. And he got him over the telephone. "Hello," he said. "How are you this morning, how are you feeling?" the old country boy asked. "Fine, fine," was the reply. "Wrong number," the old country boy said.

Which reminds us of the one about the two cowboys who were out on a terrible binge one night and had to ride all the next morning in a blazing sun without any drinking water.

About noon they came to a creek of running water and immediately got off their horses and started to drink. One of them went up to the creek and started to drink while the other was below him. "Come on up here, fool; the water is muddy down there," the first cowboy said. "Don't make no difference, I'm gonna drink it all anyhow," the second one replied. Jim Kelly, editor of The Stanton Reporter, is without a sportswriter and is having to write a column of sports. He has this to say about it: "I am a darn good sport but d--n if I can write about them."

GULF AND HUGHES RESUME PLAY-OFF GAMES TONIGHT; GULF NOW ONE UP

With the Gulf team one up the play-off for the championship of the softball league will be resumed tonight by the Gulf and Hughes Tool softball teams.

The Gulf won the first game of the series Thursday night when they landed on the offerings of Straughan, Hughes pitcher, for 12 hits and, coupled with errors by the Hughes players, ran up 12 runs to take a 12-6 victory.

With their team in possession of a one game lead and Adamson pitching his best ball of the season, the Gulf is favored to win the championship but the Hughes team is not to be regarded lightly if Straughan regains the form that he showed all season until forced out by illness.

The game Thursday night was the first that he had pitched in more than four weeks and he plainly tired out after the first few innings but the game should have helped him regain some of the stamina necessary to go nine innings.

The game will start at 8:15.

FLUBDUBS

By JESS RODGERS

If we really had a headache it would not get much better on the aspirin betts that we offered to make over the week end. Anyway, we guessed one right.

Unless someone shows a real touch of brilliancy Ole Cordill, Big Spring quarterback, has won the bonehead laurels for the year. With a two point lead over the Abilene Eagles in their game Saturday night and only a few minutes of play left Cordill called a pass—the result—it was intercepted and run back 65 yards for the winning touchdown for the Abilene team.

The play brought the following comment from Harry Taylor, Angelo coach, "Mayhew, Abilene coach, should give Cordill a letter for throwing that pass."

What the people of Midland thought was funnier they heard during Saturday night was probably groans of anguish being let out by Obie Bristow, Steer coach. It is anything that he hates to do it is to lose and when he loses that way—we're glad we were not Cordill.

As a reward for having won their game here Friday night the Bulldogs will probably get off light in practice today but they had better be prepared for labor the next few.

With not a "soft spot" in the schedule for the next month it is expedient that Dutch get them into the best condition possible. In succession they get McCamey, Pecos, Big Lake, Crane and Wink.

What Big Lake and Crane possess is not known yet but it is a cinch that the other three teams will offer the Bulldogs as much and maybe more than they can handle.

A more accurate guess of how the Bulldogs stack up with other teams of the district can be made after they play the McCamey team here next Friday night. With Pecos the next for after the Badgers, a comparison can be made between the two teams before that game. Pecos beat the Badgers last week 13-0.

At last it has happened! Wink got beat on their own field. Bowie High of El Paso, a Class A school, beat the Wildcats 26-6. Maybe that gives other schools of the district a little consolation. They had begun to think that it was impossible for the oil field lads to lose on their home field.

The sports writer of the Stanton Reporter in a column headed Sports we have an idea that it is none other than Editor Kelly—comes forward with the following:

We don't know what to do with this column after we have started it. Dem little do we know about football. Now laugh dem you. We're a d-m good sport every other way and know the game in all its branches but football. At times agone the food "hashed" up in this column has been fairly appetizing—enough so the reader could digest it with little pain, but it was prepared by some ex-member of the football squad, or a fan that knew what he was talking about. But these boys have scampered from the Buffalo pasture to more luscious grazing or something. This season's football resembling the condition of the proverbial "sick kitten"—no member of the to-be squad having but little experience, if any, knows any more than we do, we can't hope for any assistance from that source. But after taking a peep at the sport columns of Tom Beasley of the Big Spring Daily Herald, Jess Rodgers of the Midland Reporter-Telegram, Prexy Anderson of the Abilene Morning News, Bloody Cross of the San Angelo Standard-Times and a few other sports writer celebrities who draw handsome salaries, we don't think its going to be any trick at all for us to fill this column with "weakly spasms."

At last the School Board's efforts have been rewarded. Bryan Henderson, who after due and further deliberation, decided to accept the responsible position of mentor for the Buffalo squad this season.

As assistant coach of the Midland Bulldogs for five years, instructing a team that has captured two or three district pennants, making of them a constant menace to the Class B teams in this district, is proof sufficient of his superb qualifications as a football coach, and he brings bright hopes to the local school that it may yet see a team that will effectively represent it this grid season.

Henderson told us that he would not go and we told you the same thing but Kelly says that he did go so that puts him one up on us. But, that "handsome salary business" that he mentions should make us more than even.

Price Reductions on Buicks Announced

FLINT, Mich.—Price reductions ranging from $40 to $335 on Buick 1936 models were recently announced by President H. H. Curliche before more than 100 newspapermen from throughout the United States who came for a preview of the complete line which Curliche said will be formally announced to the public September 28.

These will be the first 1936 cars to appear under the fall announcement plan to which the industry agreed with President Roosevelt as a step toward leveling production peaks. It also marks a definite step downward for Buick into broader markets and this is in the face of many new features which were shown privately to the newspapermen.

Curliche also spoke highly optimistically of the business outlook as reflected by about 5000 dealers and salesmen in national sales conferences here which were concluded yesterday. For ten days special trains brought delegations from all sections for a preview of the product and the unfolding of announcement plans. Their reaction was responsible for adding a night shift this week for the Buick assembly lines, Curliche said. Substantial stock already are in dealers' hands and by September 28, about 15,000 cars will have been produced.

Museum Collection In County Library Growing Steadily

Additions to the museum in the county library during the past few days are too numerous to describe in detail.

They include a bound record of the cattle business of A. L. Houston in 1897. Many old and interesting brands and their homes are illustrated. Contracts and bills of sale are real oldtimers.

One contract calls for the delivery of Houston's steer crop on April 1, 1898, either at Stanton or at the CX ranch at $15 per head. The date of this instrument, which of course, is in longhand, is Oct. 4, 1897.

Additions to the war exhibit include a vase made from a 75 mm. shell picked up at the edge of Argonne forest while it was yet warm. A legless French aviator made a go of it converting these souvenirs into vases. This interesting article was loaned by Hollis Scarborough.

A service star flag worn by Mrs. Ben Ethridge when Midland celebrated the Armistice proudly shows five stars.

The Ethridge collection also includes: 20 scenes from Germany; a silver tin handkerchiefs from France; a helmet and letter opener cleverly contrived by A. M. Ethridge from shells he picked up on battlefields. His collection includes an aluminum spoon taken from an officer's table in a German trench, as well as buttons from American and German uniforms, belt buckles, shells, and cartridge clips.

Mrs. Carroll has loaned 15 German, Austrian, Chinese, and Peruvian coins; an old silver mounted cane, a lei made from small shells in Hawaii; Chinese handcarved figures, an Alaskan totem pole, and several intypes.

Mrs. W. E. Ryan is responsible for several additions to the Mexican exhibit. A Cheno Publana costume; a Toluca hand-carved box; seven wax figures portraying Mexicans at work and play; pieces of pottery and obsidian picked up at famous ruins in Old Mexico and a basket of Guadalajara glass.

Many people who remember Mr. Deardorff and Mrs. Margaret Watts, will enjoy a treasured magazine rack which is the property of Mrs. E. N. Snodgrass. Mr. Deardorff made this piece of furniture from canes of an ornamental grass found where Miss Belle Ground now lives. It is well made and beautifully proportioned.

The museum is indebted to R. B. Cowden for the mounted head of a sea bass taken by Mr. Cowden. Two pictures show Mr. Cowden with this 467 pound fish and another which weighed about a hundred pounds less.

As articles come in week by week, it is plan to be seen that Midland is going to have a museum to be proud of. Everyone is invited to see the exhibits and to help in any way he will.

At Japanese fairs, bottles of colored sugar water take the place of our "pop."

Sunday Broadcasts Of Ford Resumed

With Jascha Heifetz, considered by many critics to be the greatest living violinist, as guest soloist for the inaugural program, the Ford Sunday Evening Hour broadcast series will be resumed Sunday night, September 29.

The program, sponsored by the Ford Motor Company, will be broadcast each Sunday evening from 9 to 10 o'clock, C.S.T. for a period of 39 weeks over the entire coast-to-coast network of the Columbia Broadcasting System. The broadcasts will originate from Orchestra Hall, Detroit.

Programs will closely follow the pattern introduced last year, offering "familiar music in the majestic manner," by the Ford Symphony Orchestra of 70 pieces and the Ford Chorus of 44 voices, under the direction of Victor Kolar, associate director of the Detroit Symphony Society. A guest artist of international repute will be presented in each program.

A special Christmas program is scheduled for December 22 when a quartet of four first-rank Metropolitan Opera soloists is programmed.

The guest artists scheduled for appearance during the remainder of the year are:

October 6: Lucrezia Bori, soprano
October 13: Julius Huehn, bass-baritone
October 20: Daries Frantz, pianist
October 27: Richard Crooks, tenor
November 3: Joseph Szigeti, violinist (radio premiere)
November 10: Micha Lovitski, pianist
November 17: Cyrena Van Gordon, contralto
November 24: Kirston Flagstad, soprano
December 1: Albert Spalding, violinist
December 8: Lawrence Melchior, tenor
December 15: Elisabeth Rethberg, soprano
December 22: Quartet comprising Grete Strueckgold, soprano; Kathryn Meisle, contralto; Richard Crooks, tenor; and Ezio Pinza, bass-baritone
December 29: Charles Kullmann, tenor

W. J. Cameron of the Ford Motor Company, who last year was presented each week in a brief talk interpreting the philosophies and viewpoints of Henry Ford and the Ford Motor Company, will continue his intermission talks throughout the series.

BACK FROM DALLAS

Mrs. Walter Cowden has returned from Dallas where she went to meet her daughter, Miss Walter Fay, who has been under the care of physicians for three weeks.

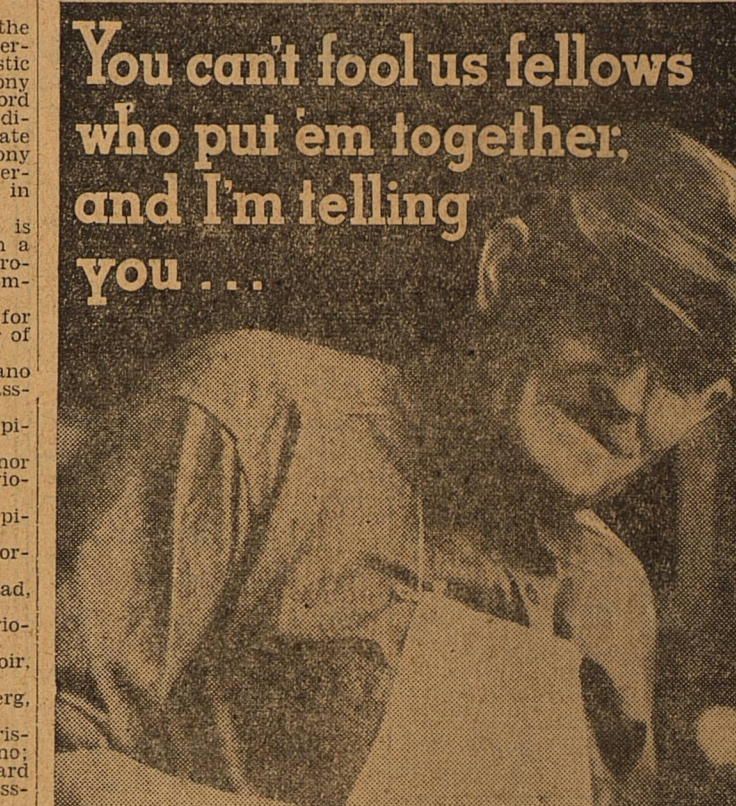

Miss Cowden has recovered and was taken to Denton by her mother where she entered CIA as a senior. Mrs. Cowden was accompanied to Dallas by Mrs. J. M. White who entered a sanitarium for treatment. At the time of Mrs. Cowden's return, Mrs. White was doing well, she reported.

YOUNGS MOVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Young and daughter, Dorothy Louise, have moved to Midland from Wellington. Young is connected with the Scharbauer Hotel Barber shop.
