PWA Power Program Is Upheld

INJUNCTION THAT HAD HALTED WORK DISMISSED TODAY

Projects Carried On Under Two Legal Statutes

TEXAS INVOLVED

Four States Benefit By Decision of Judge

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Chief Justice Alfred Wheat of the District of Columbia supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the public works administration's $200,000,000 power program in dismissing an injunction suit against 10 municipal electric projects in four states. The court held that the plaintiffs, the Alabama Power, the Texas Utilities Company, Oklahoma Utilities Company, Iowa Light and Power Company, had a right to bring to suit the question of the validity of the power project, but ruled that the statutes under which the projects are being carried out, the national industrial recovery and emergency relief acts of 1935, are constitutional.

The suits ruled on involved PWA allocations in ten cities in Alabama, Texas, Oklahoma and Iowa.

Kid Loss Worries Elmer More Than Losing His Crops

Aftermath to the storm that struck Wednesday night: T. Elmer Bizzell, who suffered extensive damages to his crops and buildings on his place two miles south of town, for a short while that evening was able to forget all them for something that really had him up in the air. Despite all efforts, neither he or his family could find a trace of his youngest boy, about 6 years old. Elmer, who, by the way, is not exactly phlegmatic by nature, soon came to the conclusion that the boy was drowned in one of the large lakes caused by the heavy downpour, immediately came to town, making a new one-way record while doing so, and reported his beliefs to S. A. Debnam, county agent.

Before agreeing with Elmer that a party should be organized to dredge all lakes near the house, Debnam suggested they go back to the farm and make one last search. Imagine the surprise of Elmer when the first thing he saw after getting home was the "drowned boy" placidly wading around in front of the house. "Where have you been, son, thought you had been drowned," Elmer excitedly asked the boy. "Shucks, pa, I've been bullfrog hunting. I caught 175 of the darn things, too," was the answer Elmer got for his worrying. "I've got to go," he announced, "I'll be back next time it starts raining."

LANDON IS CALLED 'NEW DEAL' FRIEND BY BORAH BACKER

Says Governor Known To Have Endorsed Policies

CLEVELAND, June 5 (AP)—Governor Alf M. Landon was called an "avowed friend of the New Deal" Thursday night by Carl G. Bachmann, republican campaign manager for Senator Borah of Idaho, in a statement which said this explained the silence of the governor on his platform views. "Up to a few months ago, Governor Landon supported the New Deal, orally and in writing, praised and complimented President Roosevelt on his constructive character and in the name of Kansas expressed deep thankfulness for the abundance of money that flowed into the coffers of that state from the federal government," Bachmann said.

His statement was dropped into a Landon-tinted convention scene in the midst of talk of Robert A. Taft of Ohio, and Representative James W. Wadsworth of New York as possible vice-presidential nominees. Already Bachmann had endeavored to have the presidential candidate invited to appear before the convention before the nomination is tendered. Just a little earlier, John Hamilton of Kansas, the leader of the Landon forces, said the Kansas member of the resolutions committee would be selected at a caucus after the delegation arrived. He added that this delegate would probably be informed of Governor Landon's platform views.

Parks and Proctor Inspect Bronc Band

Roy Parks and Leonard Proctor, members of the rodeo committee, returned Thursday from the "point of Guadalupe" where they inspected a band of brons for possible use at the World Championship Centennial Rodeo, June 26-27-28.

Announcement was made that a shipment of Chihuahua steers had been secured from Old Mexico, long-horned and about four years old, calculated to provide tough landings for bulldozers. The steers will be used here and then sent to Pecos for the rodeo July 3-4-5.

Fast 300-pound calves from Midland ranches will be used for the $1,000 calf roping contest here, assuring maximum speed against the fast roping horses but of a weight not too heavy to be thrown and tied.

Brahma steers for the steer riding contests were carried over from last fall's show and have been in good grass about winter. They are now on full feed at the Midland Fair pens.

Committeemen guarantee that any stock accepted for the rodeo will be wild enough to make it tough for the top ropers, riders and bulldozers of the world.

Election To Be Held At High School Auditorium

Proposal for Issuance of $75,000 in Bonds Will Be Voted on Saturday

Proposal for issuance of $75,000 in bonds will be voted on Saturday by property tax paying voters of Midland Independent School District No. 1. The election will be held between the hours of 8 a. m. and 7 p. m. at the high school auditorium. The bonds, to draw not more than five percent interest and mature serially over a forty year period, would be used to finance construction of a new building at the present north elementary school.

Members of the board of trustees ordered the election after a petition, signed by the required number of voters, had been submitted to the body.

John P. Butler will be in charge of the election. Ballots will bear the following wording:

"For the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof."

"Against the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof."

Full description of the bond issue is contained in copies of the election order, posted at the court house, the postoffice and the high school. The proposition, as quoted in the election notice, is as follows: Shall the Board of Trustees of Midland Independent School District be authorized to issue the bonds of said school district to the amount of $75,000 to become due and payable serially or otherwise over a period not to exceed forty years from their date and bearing interest at a rate not to exceed five (5) per cent per annum, with interest payable semi-annually for the purpose of constructing and equipping a public tree school building of other than wood material within said district, and if there shall be annually levied and collected on all taxable property in said school district for the current year and annually thereafter after said bonds, or any of them, are outstanding, a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and to pay the principal thereof as the same becomes due; provided, that the maintenance tax and the bond tax together shall never exceed for any one year $1.00 on the $100.00 valuation of said property.

ACID TREATMENT IS UNDERWAY IN CRANE TUBB WELL

Deep Test Had Been Showing 4 Barrels Hour, Natural

BY FRANK GARDNER

Operators started early today to pump acid in the newest well to show for production from the "Tubb" zone over 1,800 feet in the Permian lime, Sinclair-Prairie and others No. 1 Tubb. Fifth of the deep producers in the Tubb area of western Crane county, the well had been making about four barrels of oil per hour swabbed and flowing through 2-inch tubing set 10 feet off bottom.

The No. 1 Tubb, a unit test, was originally completed as a small pumper from the upper Permian pay but decision was made to carry it deeper when Humble No. 1 Tubb a mile and three-quarters to the southeast rated 861 barrels per day after acidizing the Tubb or deep pay zone. The unit test was drilled to a total depth of 4,469 feet, and set the small casing at 4,196.

GOLDSMITH WELL SHOT, MAKES LARGE OIL FLOW

After a steel-line measurement had shown the top of cavings to be at 4,213, a 140 quart shot of nitro was run in Gulf No. 6 Goldsmith, Ector outpost over a mile northwest of the Goldsmith pool, and set off evening before last. The well cleaned itself after the explosion and flowed 356 barrels of fluid, six-tenths of one per cent water, one and one-half per cent mud and basic sediment and the rest oil. The No. 6 Goldsmith is the direct south offset to the recent Dunning No. 1 Scharbauer extension to the main pool but was drilled deeper than the Dunning well. It was plugged back to 4,225 after drilling into water at 4,280, while the Dunning test stopped drilling at 4,175, well above the water horizon.

The No. 1 Scharbauer gauged only 127 barrels per day after shooting. Location of the Gulf producer is 440 feet from the north and 2,256 feet from the west line of section 4, block 44, township 1 south, T. P. survey. After encountering a gas increase See (OIL NEWS) Page 6

BLUM APPEALS TO WORKERS TO AVOID MORE DISORDERS

Strikers Close Many Establishments In Paris

AID PROMISED

New Premier Agrees To Seek Reforms In Nation

PARIS, June 5 (AP)—Premier Leon Blum, who took office yesterday upon the resignation of ex-premier Sarraut, today broadcast an appeal to 500,000 of France's workers asking them to avoid disorders. Blum told them that he would attempt to pass a 40-hour work-week law.

Blum promised also to ask parliament to vote on the authorization of collective contracts and paid vacations, the three principal reforms demanded by the labor world.

While Blum was speaking, strikers closed large food stores and meat establishments of Paris.

The premier intimated he considered employers largely responsible for the strike chaos. His speech brought a rush of buying orders on the Boerse.

Without waiting for formalities after taking office Thursday, the new premier obtained the immediate transfer of powers to his Minister of the Interior Roger Salengro and Labor Minister J. B. Lebas.

Twenty of the new ministers whom Blum named as socialists never before in the government, and the rest are radical-socialists. Three are women, the first ever to be included in a French cabinet.

"Biggest Thing In Country" Lackey's Idea of Centennial

It's going to be a bigger show than the one at Chicago.

W. Lackey said of the Texas Centennial this morning in a brief interview following his return from Dallas where he went through the Exposition grounds. "It is going to be the biggest thing we've ever had in this country."

He noted as specially interesting the depiction of the history of roads in paving, asphalt, wood, and dirt surfaced areas. Visitors may thus "ride through the centuries" as the automobile spins around the lake.

Tony Sarg's marionette show will be housed in a building of mushroom design.

Exposition visitors may also view a fac-simile reproduction of "Little America" where Byrd's men spent the long dark months of the polar winter in their houses among ice mountains.

Lackey is enthusiastic over these and other educational opportunities and amusement features offered by Texas' big birthday celebration.

The trip through the Exposition was only one stop in Supt. Lackey's recent trip which carried him to two commencements, that at Texas State College for Women (CIA) at Denton and of Texas Christian University at Fort Worth. At the latter program he saw an honorary degree bestowed upon Governor James V. Allred.

He interviewed teachers at Denton and at Fort Worth.

VETS TO RECEIVE BABY BONUS BOND CASH HERE JUNE 16

75 Per Cent of Total Will Be Mailed June 15

An estimated 75 per cent of the veterans bonus bonds will be mailed from Dallas June 15 and be in Midland the following day, according to Joe Seymour, service officer for the Woods W. Post of the American Legion here.

The bonds must be delivered to the addressee in at least 30 days from the time they are mailed or they will be returned, Seymour said. Any veteran who is sick, disabled, or for any other reason unable to call for them can have the postmaster deliver them on request.

There must positively not be any alterations on the bonds when they are returned. Smudge marks, fingerprints, notes or any other alterations will cause a delay in having them duplicated before cashed.

On Saturday, June 13, Postmaster General James A. Farley will deliver a nation-wide broadcast instructing the veterans in the proper mode of procuring the cash for the bonds.

The postoffice department has volunteered to handle and pay the bonds, and the veterans are urged to co-operate in every way possible with them.

Tribute Paid Former House Leader

By Many

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Joseph Wellington Byrns, lying in state before the rostrum from which he guided the house of representatives through history-making times, was honored by President Roosevelt and the nation today.

William B. Bankhead, new speaker spoke of Byrns' deeds and sudden death, saying "there was no littleness in the man."

Representative Bertrand Snell, New York, republican leader in the house, spoke of the dead legislator as "my personal friend, colleague, Joe Byrns."

President Roosevelt arrived shortly before noon. The house gallery spectators stood with heads bowed as Dr. James Shera Montgomery, house chaplain, opened the service. With his voice breaking, he said "our beloved speaker has left us."

Byrns succumbed early Thursday morning to a heart attack in his apartment in Washington. Until stricken, he had appeared in the best of health, and his death was a stunning blow to the entire country.

Friends blamed the untiring energy Byrns had thrown into the adjournment move of congress as aiding in his death.

ANTI-JAPANESE EXPEDITION TO NORTH COUNTRY

Political Council Is Back of Move to Expel Nippons

SPIES EXECUTED

Five Chinese Working For Invaders Are Slain

CANTON, China, June 5 (AP)—The Southwestern political council tonight ordered the south China combined provincial armies to mobilize in an anti-Japanese expedition into the north.

The council's mandate decreed the troops of Kwangtung and Kwangsi provinces be merged into a "people's revolutionary anti-Japanese national salvation army" for the expedition.

A number of persons have been arrested for discussing the political situation in public. Food prices are soaring. Reports from Hsinhsiang, Honan province, said that seven Chinese spies in the pay of Japan had been caught and summarily executed.

Provincial armies of southern China demanded they be sent to fight the Japanese, petitions from the Kwangtung and Kwangsi military, addressed to the southwestern political council, being published along with similar requests from numerous Canton bodies.

Despite official denials, there was confirmation of Japanese reports that Canton troops actually have crossed the border of Hunan province, to the north, and have occupied several towns.

OPEN CONFLICT IN A.F. OF L. FLAREUP

Half-Million Steel Workers To Organize Own Big Union

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Open conflict in the American Federation of Labor flared Thursday as the Amalgamated Association of Iron Steel and Tin Workers joined the John L. Lewis group and decided to organize the half million workers in the steel industry into one big union.

After hesitating for eight months between the industrial union advocates led by Lewis and the craft union led by William Green, A. F. of L. president, the leaders of the Amalgamated announced after a short conference tonight with Lewis that they would join his committee for industrial organization.

Asked what action the executive council of the A. F. of L. might take, Lewis said "I can think of nothing so uninteresting tonight as Mr. Green's platitudes and generalities."

Announcement of the agreement was made in a statement issued jointly by Lewis and Louis Leonard, secretary of the Amalgamated.

BEHIND THE SCENES
IN WASHINGTON
By RODNEY DUTCHER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 5—Heavy pressure is being brought on the administration to urge Owen D. Young to run for governor of New York on the democratic ticket. It comes from conservatives and practical politicians who argue that Young's election would be certain and that he would be almost equally certain to carry the national ticket along with him.

Britain Is Eager For Next Round Of George-Cooper Verbal Battles

BY MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, June 5.—Ladies and gentlemen, we have with us tonight—and it promises to be for many nights—two eminent figures. To our right, is Bombing Lloyd-George, 73, a scrapper with a brilliant past. To our left, is Battling Duff Cooper, 45, a political pugilist with a brilliant future. They expect to fight it out to a finish—if their throats don't get parched and the inkwell does not run dry.

David Lloyd-George, 73, whose political influence has all but disappeared.

All of which just goes to show an exchange of hot, verbal brickbats which has been rather amusing the British public. Lloyd-George just can't seem to settle down to being an old man whose political days are done. His one-time powerful political party, the Liberals, is split into two rival factions, and neither of them were to accept. They profess to believe that Roosevelt will run ahead of any gubernatorial candidate the New York democrats name. Viewed as Asset On the other hand, it appears that Farley feels that putting Young on the firing line would attract support from business men and middle-class groups in other states which the national ticket wouldn't otherwise receive.

No one here claims to have any assurance that Young would accept the nomination, even if it were tendered him on a platter. His personal relations with F. D. R. have remained rather friendly. Although polls previously gave Roosevelt a slight edge in New York, tendency has increased among politicians since the Lehman withdrawal to class the state as doubtful.

Its 47 electoral votes are enormously important and only twice in history has a candidate who lost New York been elected. Lehman's withdrawal appears to have made it decidedly important for Farley to make a deal with Tammany, as to the governorship and/or otherwise, which will assure him that that organization will go down the line for Roosevelt in November. Mrs. Zioncheck Efficient Mrs. Zioncheck Efficient, the pretty 21-year-old PWA stenographer who married Congressman Marion A. Zioncheck of Washington to "reform him" and then seemed to fall in with the spirit of the thing, had an exceptionally good record as a government employe.

Duff Cooper, 45, Britain's new War Minister, whose star is on the ascendant.

He himself can still fill the benches in the House of Commons because of his silvery voice, his eloquence and his ability to sting. But his political influence is small. Opponent's Star Rising He is irreverently labeled as an extinct volcano. Corrosive words to a man who, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, had all the idle rich in a stew because of income taxes; who as party leader, put over most of the social legislation which put England so far ahead; and who finally as Prime Minister in the closing years of the war, literally symbolized Britain's determination to fight it out until victory was attained.

Duff Cooper on the other hand, is a youngish man, who is just beginning to come into his own. In 1919 he married Lady Diana Manners, society beauty, daughter of a Duke, and celebrated as the impersonator of the Madonna in the "The Miracle." Haig Criticism Was Spark Trained as an official of the Grenadier Guards, he served with distinction in the World War. In fact, he won the Distinguished Service Order. Entering Parliament, he soon made his mark. Later, in 1928-29, and again in 1931, he was made Fin-eral's diaries speak. For Cooper is writing the official life of Haig. Recently, by speeches and articles, Lloyd-George, himself, on of the architects of the Treaty of Versailles, has rather condemned that document in treating of the Nazi re-occupation of the demilitarized Rhine region. He has seemed to lean toward the German side of the argument and to have a considerable amount of feeling against the French.

As a result of Germany's breach of the Locarno pact, there is talk of the British and French military staffs consulting together in case of German unprovoked aggression. Lloyd-George is violently opposed to these staff talks. He now contends that Great Britain was plunged into the conflict of 1914 by reason of a military plan worked out by contact between the general staffs of England and France.

Battling Duff Cooper at once pounced upon this in a try for a knockout blow to the tip of the Welshman's chin. Said Cooper: "The plain meaning of this statement is that, if it had not been for these military arrangements, Mr. Asquith's government in which Mr. Lloyd-George was Chancellor of the Exchequer, would not have taken part in the war of 1914. And, further, the obvious deduction is that we should have been very wise to have kept out of it."

Fight Not Yet Over "So we are not fighting for a great cause after all, as Lloyd-George for four and a half years assured us we were. We had only drifted into a bad business, owing to the subservience of a weak administration to its military advisers. If this were true, it would not only be heart-breaking intelligence to many millions of mourners, but it would also condemn to everlasting infamy the government which was responsible for such a tragedy." Slightly staggered, but still on his feet, L. G. replied that Cooper had missed the point which was that the military arrangement entered into between the powers had the effect in 1914 of cutting short negotiations by which the war might have been averted. The bell saved Lloyd-George. Bri-

The Town Quack

A new way for working girls to spend their vacations and really get some rest has been advanced by a well known business woman of Midland. She tried the system last year and gained eight pounds. And she is not one of those women who needs to lose eight pounds, here or there. What she did on her vacation was to "go back home." She didn't go out the front gate for the first five days and just didn't care whether she went out at nights or not. She went bare footed in the day time and let her hair fly in the breeze. She forgot all about make-up, cosmetics, etc., and took a load off of her complexion. When she came back to work, she was ready! Her vacation will come around again soon, and she plans to spend it in the same manner. Have you become rodeo minded? The Midland citizen who has not become aware of the magnitude and importance of the World Championship Centennial Rodeo to be staged at Midland Fair Arena June 26-27-28 is overlooking one of the really big events of the last decade.

The rodeo last fall was good, but this one is going to be BIG TIME, stuff. There are lots of rodeos in the United States and Canada, but only a few really big ones. This will be one of the few. People will flock to Midland in such droves that it will tax all hotels, tourist camps, rooming houses, etc., to handle the crowds. Cafes, beer joints and hamburger establishments will have to keep high behind from morning right on around to morning again. Busy times coming up.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

This new organization, the APTOHE, is arousing some heated discussion on the part of a well-known columnist. The APTOHE, when disentangled, means Association for the Prevention of Taking Off Hats in Elevators and was organized by certain members of the masculine contingent who think that raising one's hand to remove headgear when a woman enters an elevator is just so much wasted energy.

Says the columnist: "There is no earthly reason why a man should uncover his head, even in the presence of a woman. She is just another human." Which is true, of course. Nevertheless there seems to be something in that small gesture which raises both man and woman to an intangibly higher plane. They both feel a little finer for the action.

So—here's wishing only a short and inglorious life for the six-letter effort to banish courtesy. Away with it. What the world needs is a little more chivalry, whether useless or not, and not one iota less of it.

A high class magazine recently made a survey of 25 American universities, including 1200 men and women students to discover the goal of the younger generation. Was it Fame, Adventure, Exploration, any of the other elusive, dust-in-the-mouth forces which are supposedly youth's heritage? It was nothing so glamorous as any of these—just Jobs and Security.

Jobs and Security! for boys and girls who, as university students, have always been the radicals, the upsets of old order, the dare-devil class!

Jobs and Security! Certainly that is a pertinent comment on recent affairs of the world. There has been much bungling, much suffering, and much fear of the unknown when

Willing Workers See Demonstration

The Willing Workers home demonstration club met with Mrs. W. S. Hudson Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Mattison in the president's chair.

Mrs. Lura Hollingsworth, county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on grooming and how to make face cream and lotions.

Three Papers Read At Palette Club

Three papers were given by members of the Palette club in its meeting at the home of Mrs. N. W. Bigham, 310 W. Louisiana, early in the week.

Mrs. F. H. Lanham read a paper on the "Beginning of Art in Texas," Mrs. Bigham a paper on "Bluebonnets," and Mrs. Mary S. Ray a paper on Julian Onderdonk, bluebonnet painter.

The nine memberst present answered roll call with the names of Texas artists.

Attending were: Mmes. Clarence Hale, John Hix, D. E. Stookey, F. H. Lanham, J. G. Gossett, D. B. Snider, Ben Golladay, Mrs. S. Ray, and the hostess.

Mrs. Cole Hostess To Sans Souci Club

Mrs. Jesse Cole was hostess to the bi-weekly meeting of the Sans Souci club at her home, 911 W. Tennessee, Wednesday afternoon, a Centennial theme being suggested in appointments. Sweetpeas were the party flower.

Two tables of bridge furnished amusement for the afternoon with Mrs. Trby Watson holding high score for club members. Mrs. W. H. Street, high score for guest, and Mrs. Roy Downey cut.

Guests of the club were: Mrs. Street, Mrs. Hilary Bedford, and Mrs. Geo. Glass.

At the tea hour, a party plate was served to guests and the following club members: Mmes. Downey, J. G. Harper, L. L. Payne, Res. Sindorf, Watson, and the hostess.

even youth can see nothing better than just a steady job and safety. Not that we would under-rate either of these. They are commendable goals and the practical ones of the earth will always live—and profit—by them.

the impractical souls (or perhaps the infinitely wiser ones) who can disregard such and step out dangerously to seek some dream. It is because of them that the world moves forward.

Pity the youth robbed of its darling because of a muddled social and economic order.

We knew it would happen some time—discovery of a use for discarded razor blades. Of course, we've known, as all women do, that they can be used to sharpen pencils. But now a use has been discovered to which not even men will object: Namely, as blades in a flower cutter.

No more need the man of the house wonder what to do with the pesky things when they will no longer properly shear his manly beard. Let him hie forth to his wife's garden and supply her with fresh flower cutters.

Square Dance Will Be Featured Event At Cowboy Reunion

STAMFORD, Texas—The cowboys square dance at the cowboy bunkhouse each night and the old fiddlers' contest of the closing day will be two of the entertainment features of the Texas Cowboy Reunion here July 2, 3 and 4 which carry out the general purpose of keeping alive traditions and pastimes of the early-day cattle country.

Oldtime cowboys as well as active cowhands of the present day and large numbers of visitors enjoy the square dances at the Reunion each year. The committee in charge is composed of oldtime cowboys, with Judge C. E. Coombes of Stamford, former cowhand and now prominent West Texas attorney and past president of the West Texas chamber of commerce as chairman.

The fiddling contest will be held in the city auditorium, downtown, beginning at 8:30 a. m. on July 4, last day of the Reunion. No entry fee is charged and cash prizes totaling $32.50 are awarded the winners. First prize is $15, second $10, third $5, fourth $2.50.

To be eligible for the contest, fiddlers must be not less than 50 years of age and professionals are barred. Each contestant is allowed to select the two tunes he plays, but only "break-down" tunes are permitted. Fiddlers may play alone or choose their own seconds, but only one accompanist is allowed for each player. Jim Stoll is chairman of the committee in charge of the contest.

Tom Michael, 62, of Sweetwater won first prize in the contest last year; C. A. Ward, 60 of Weinert was second; Aut Dial, 64 Stamford, third and J. K. Hughes, 78, Anson, fourth. Dial played a fiddle which he made himself by hand.

Parents and mothers want their children to succeed and as long as they can, mothers and fathers the country over sacrifice and plan to give their boys and girls every advantage, every opportunity, for they want them to have a start which they too often were denied.

"We want to send Jim to college if we can afford it," they say. "We plan to give Mary special training in music if we have the money when she has finished high school."

But why should an IF threaten these dreams? A PRAETORIAN EDUCATIONAL POLICY can erase that IF and permit mothers and fathers to say positively: "MY CHILDREN ARE GOING TO COLLEGE." The Praetorians' plans offer a systematic way of saving. A little put away each month makes the education SURE. Investigate the Praetorians' Educational policies for children.

Negroes to Hold Boxing Tourney

DALLAS.—The first State wide amateur championship contest for Negroes ever held in the Southwest will be staged at the Texas Centennial Exposition on June 19. Medals and cups will be awarded the outstanding Negro amateurs in all classes and it is hoped that some Texas heavyweight will be discovered who will be worthy of a match with Joe Louis of Detroit, outstanding professional fighter of his race. The bouts will be staged at the Texas Centennial Exposition which will have charge of the opening program at the championship meeting. The bouts will be held in the boxing arena in the new live Stock Building with a seating capacity of 10,000.

More than 300 Negro amateurs have already entered for the events. Wiley College and Prairie View Normal, ancient rivals of the football field, are sending competing boxing teams. Entries have been received from Negro athletic clubs at Brownwood, Houston, Galveston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Waco and about 20 smaller Texas towns.

Gold and silver medals and cups will be awarded the winners and the runners up in each class. The bouts will start at 7 o'clock in the evening and continue until championships are established. The fights will be two minute rounds each. Elimination contests will commence June 13 at the Sportorium gymnasium in Dallas. The big majority of the Negroes entering the tournament are heavyweights.

Yale Has 24 Fliers
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (U.P.)—Twenty-four Yale students fly planes over the city every week regularly, a survey reveals. CHAPTER ONE
 David Langston was building a house on his farmstead. To him it was the natural and expected fruit of his love for the land. To plough a furrow, to sow the seed, to gather in his harvest, made the acceptable cycle of life and to have a home of his own was the crowning fulfillment. Being young and shy and inarticulate, he did not carry the dream further, to include in the picture a wife and children of his own. Tilling his fields, searching the Limberlost swamp for herbs from which Dr. Carey would compound medicine for the little community, sharing with friends and neighbors good times and bad, made a pattern he had not thought of changing.

 A dozen famous stars in a whirl of laughs and girls!

AL JOLSON
 THE SINGING KID
 Beverly Roberts... Singing Kid
 IT RUNS THE GAMUT OF GLEE! RHYTHMIC! ROMANTIC! LAUGHABLE!

Limberlost country, the building of a house signified matrimonial plans and prospects. In that rural Indian countryside, removed from city contacts, there were few themes for conversation or gossip. In this year of nineteen hundred and ten no miracle of radio knit their lives in a world-wide neighborhood. For them the center of interest lay in their crops, the progress of the seasons, and birth and death—romance and marriage.

And so, all unsuspected by David from the breaking of ground for his little farmhouse, tongues started their busy wagging: For whom was he building it? Stubby Pratt, the local barber, Miss Sophonia, the village seamstress, Jack Ebbin, proprietor of the General Store, and neighboring farmers and gossip wives, all put their heads together over the burning question: Whom was David Langston going to marry?

Even Mrs. Biddle, who lived down in the center of town and was by way of being the village autocrat as well as the ruling voice in her own family, gave the matter thoughtful consideration on behalf of her daughter, Thelma. But there were some who held that David's secret love was pretty Ruth Jameson, the orphan girl who, with her little sister, Naomi, lived with Granny Moreland, next door to David's farm.

The barn, of course, was finished first, just when the first frost had touched the corn and the pumpkins were moons of golden splendor. And David invited his friends to celebrate in a husking bee. As they met in the gaily decorated barn, little groups gathered in excited conference—how could they make David reveal his secret? It was Stubby Pratt who conceived the brilliant idea of sneaking a red ear of corn into the pile David was husking. When you stripped a red ear, you had to kiss the girl you loved!

And so, when David innocently husked the fateful ear, he felt his own ears reddening with embarrassment as voices avidly demanded: "Kiss your best girl, David!" And others babbled knowingly: "Now we'll find out who you're building that house for!" Uncomfortably David glanced at the ring of faces about him. Thelma Biddle rolled her eyes invitingly and patted her blonde hair. She didn't want a farmer husband, but her mother had admonished her to set her feet by David if she didn't want to be an old maid like Miss Sophonia! And Ruth Jameson, as David's eyes met hers with a trapped expression, flushed and caught her breath.

But already his troubled glance had passed her by and now a smile of relief lighted his face. Jumping to his feet he ran to the imp. Naomi, busily purchasing a doughnut from the table. Lifting her up, chair and all, he kissed her heartily. "Naomi is my best girl!" he declared heartily. Stubby shook his head in disapproval. "Pretty foxy, David! But we'll catch you yet!" But David only laughed naively unaware that, as a home builder he had ceased to be a free and independent farmer! When the party was over he put the drowsy Naomi into wheelbarrow to take her home walking happily along with Ruth and Granny Moreland and his shaggy dog, Belshazzar.

"Look, Dave," Ruth said softly, breathlessly, "the hunter's moon!" David nodded absently, unconscious of the hungry heart that walked beside him, unaware of the adoration that shined from her eyes.

DON'T TREAT CONSTIPATION* LIGHTLY
 Poor Health May Be the Price of Neglect

Too many people dismiss common constipation* as a matter of no great consequence. Yet this condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches and loss of appetite. When it is allowed to continue, it may lower your resistance, and so increase your chances of catching a serious illness.

Common constipation often develops when you eat meals that lack sufficient "bulk." Your system fails to get needed internal exercise. Fortunately, today, you have a generous source of effective "bulk" in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass, which gently cleanses the system. This natural laxative food also supplies vitamin B and contains iron.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal, with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, etc. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN often. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company as an effective laxative food for constipation. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Texas to Parade Four Centuries of Pride In Radio Programs On June 6

DALLAS, June 5.—Paradoxical Texas will parade her pride in four centuries of glamorous history by giving the nation three unique transcontinental radio programs when the Texas Centennial Exposition opens in Dallas, June 6. Ted Husing, CBS ace, and a crack NBC announcer will be sent here to handle two of the programs.

First opening day news of this $25,000,000 World's Fair of 1936 will be a bird's eye view, broadcast to the world from an airplane soaring over the Exposition grounds for a special half hour program to be heard on the NBC Blue Network at 8 a. m. CST. In the cabin of the American Airline Sleeper will be a new RCA short wave transmitter of 3,000 mile range. The entire cast including announcer, Federal and Exposition officials and groups of Cowboy, Mexican and negro entertainers will be aboard. The plane will circle over the Exposition area for 30 minutes with announcer and guest officials describing the scene below.

Ted Husing will take the air at high noon CST, to open officially the Exposition with an hour broadcast over CBS. This show involves a round-the-world broadcast and remote pickups from the capitals of Spain and France.

The broadcast will open at the main Exposition gates with a negro chorus of 1,000 voices. Governor James V. Alfred, youngest state governor, will address the radio audience briefly, inviting the world to visit Texas and the Centennial Exposition. His final words will be relayed around the world by short wave radio and return to break a tion in the girl's uplifted eyes. His dreams were sweet but they were formless, disembodied, and the enchantment of the night took no certain shape for him.

Tell-Tale Twenty-One
 Meanwhile in the Biddle home, the most ornate that Twin Forks boasted and the height of rural elegance, Mrs. Biddle took Thelma to task.

"There were six red ears tonight, and not a single young man tried to kiss you—except that Lige Brown," she complained, as they undressed before the bedroom stove. "The neighbors are beginning to wonder why you don't get married." Thelma shook her blonde head defiantly. "I don't like farmers! I want to live in the city..." "Your father was a farmer when I married him," her mother reminded her complacently. "But I never let him have a moment's peace till I got him in the real estate business. Now David Langston," she went on pointedly, "is the easy-going kind, too. Any clever girl can mould him, if her heart's in it. You'll be twenty-one in three weeks, and you've got to find a husband!"

Thelma looked troubled. "David is right nice looking," she mused. "Now you're being clever!" Her mother kissed her approvingly. "David is the most likely young man in Twin Forks—his farm is clear—he's building a nice house. If you manage right, you can be the bride he carries across the threshold!"

"Tell you what we'll do," she went on drawing her nightgown over her head and slipping off her clothes beneath it, "we'll have a birthday party for you—and you give him a little encouragement. He'll propose." "It would be fun—" Thelma sighed, "to be carried across the threshold..." "You'll make a lovely bride," Mrs. Biddle said, in the tone of one who has settled everything to her complete satisfaction.

But in bed, with the last lamp extinguished and the house quiet, she lay awake for some hours, weaving careful plans to achieve her purpose. Cruel plans—but match-making mamas know no pity! She had not missed Ruth's blush in that tense moment, or the breathless hope in the girl's eager eyes. But she could handle that... Granny Moreland was poor, and the support of the two orphaned girls was a drain on her meagre resources...

Mrs. Biddle determined craftily, present herself in the light of a benefactor, offering Ruth a home with her and ten dollars a month besides—they were in no position to refuse that offer! Then once established in their home in a menial position, they could keep Ruth out of David's way. On the night of Thelma's birthday party, she could be kept in the kitchen. The rest would be easy. Smiling contentedly, she fell asleep. (To be continued) circuit and open the gates. As the crowds start through the gates the radio audience will be given a trip around the grounds with short descriptions of the main points. The tour will end at the 45,000 seat Cotton Bowl where the pageant of Texas under six flags will be staged.

Spain, whose house of Aragon first ruled the Land of the Lone Star, will cut in by remote control from Madrid, where Foreign Minister Augusto Barcia will speak briefly. Prime Minister Leon Blum of France, will then speak from Paris. Mexico's part in the ceremony will be taken by Frank Chapa, whose family migrated to Texas from Mexico in 1731 and has been prominently in Texas history.

General Andrew Jackson Houston grandson of Sam Houston, Texas Liberator, will speak for the Texas Republic from Washington-on-the-Brazos.

When the flags of the Republic of Texas and the Confederacy have been raised, Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper, representing President Roosevelt, will speak for the United States.

The National Broadcasting Company will return to the airplanes through the Gulf-Exposition radio system at 8:30 p. m. CST, for the night show during which the lights will be turned on for the first time. The program will include 15 distinct parts, or pickups.

The Court of Honor will be the first point visited. There, in court adjoining the million dollar Texas Hall of State, the special NBC announcer will set the stage for the hour broadcast. The official lighting of the grounds will be described from atop the 170-foot tower of the Federal Building after which three random visitors will be asked for their reactions to the elaborate lighting system.

The scene will then shift to the Oper. Alvin Karpis where the Marine Band will play a march tune before a transfer to the Midget Village where the Mayor of the tiny city will be interviewed. The strains of Jan Garber's music will next come in from the General Motors Auditorium. A skit from the Cavalcade of Texas will then be heard from the world's largest stage after which Joe Manzanaris and his South Americans will be picked up from the Ford party.

From the Midway will come the sales-spiel of a typical barker as he extolls the charms and entertainment of his show and this will fade into the organ music from the Chrysler Salon.

The next switch will be to one of the Gulf radio studios for an interview with an old time Texas Ranger, typical Texas tune from a Cowboy group and the staff orchestra.

In the Federal Negro building a group of Negro Jubilee singers will do a spiritual song. Another dramatic skit will show Judge Roy Bean, jurist-saloon keeper as he hands down one of his unique legal decisions. The program will be signed off with a medley of six tunes representing Texas under six flags, with the Marine Band doing honors in the band shell.

"Sons O' Guns" Will Feature Joe E. Brown
 Joe E. Brown, the awning lipped comedian, promises to bring an unusually big package of laughs in his new Warner Bros. film musical romance, "Sons O' Guns" which is scheduled to open at the Yucca theatre preview Saturday night and show through Tuesday.

The picture is based on the rollicking Broadway stage hit of the same title by Fred Thompson and Jack Donahue, a colorful, mirth-laden, tuneful comedy of World war days, dealing only with the bright and hilarious side of doughboy life in the A. E. F.

Joe, who has three sweethearts in the picture, has the role of a Broadway entertainer who just can't get mad enough to enlist. Beverly Roberts has the role of Joe's fiancée, while Winifred Shaw is the vivacious sweetheart from whom Joe flees into the arms, first of the army, and later the arms of a chic French lassie, a part played by Joan Blondell.

Eric Blore plays the part of a former valet of Joe's who becomes his hard-boiled top sergeant. Craig Reynolds is the tough lieutenant who forces Joe to the front and Joseph King the father of Joe's fiancée.

Joe gets into some hilarious mix-ups at the front, finally being arrested as a spy. Before he is gathered into the arms of the Grim Reaper, however, he stumbles into a surprising situation which brings a riotous climax to a series of fun-laden incidents.

Lloyd Bacon directed.

The two clubs played five innings of a scheduled game in Pecos a couple of weeks ago but were rained out before the game could be finished. At the time play was stopped the score was tied two-all. Last Sunday the Colts defeated the strong Starbuck club here by a two to one score and are hopeful of continuing their win record by taking the measure of the Cats.

Orders may be filed at the chamber of commerce. The attractive tire covers will sell at 75 cents each. Midland citizens who will not make trips over the nearby country or to distant points between now and June 26 were asked to buy tire covers for use of oil men and traveling men whose automobiles visit numerous places.

LANDRETH KIRK AT 4,590, UNCHANGED

Drilling in hard gray lime had progressed to 4,590 feet this morning in Landreth Production Company No. 1 Kirk, Gaines county wildcat. At present the most closely watched of any of the Basin's wildcatting operations, the No. 1 Kirk caused a stir of interest two days ago when it logged some oil stains while drilling lime near 4,537. It cored from 4,540 to 4,552, recovering only one foot broken cores, two inches of which were reported to show saturation. By reason of its being in between the Means pool and the Seminole structure, the outcome of the Landreth test has aroused much interest and conjecture. It is located in the southeast corner of section 22, block A-21, public school land.

Women Graduates at Texas University Are in Decrease

AUSTIN (AP)—Women graduate students in the University have decreased in number as general business conditions have improved. On the 1931-32 school year, when the depression was most severe and marriages were near the bottom of a decline, the number of women students reached its peak of 262. Since then it has declined until the figure the past year was 201.
