French Prelate

Principal in France's sensational Roman Catholic Church dispute, Archbishop Andre DuBois de la Villerabel, above, 72, defied a Vatican order despoising him as apostolic administrator of the Romen diocese, pending his personal appeal to Pope Pius. He was ordered removed from an alleged breach of church discipline in permitting civil proceedings against his former vicar-general on charges of financial irregularities.

ELECT SHUFFLER AS PRESIDENT AT END OF MEETING

Other Officers Are Chosen For The Next Year

79 REGISTERED

Delegates Depart As Sessions Here Ended

Sweetwater was chosen as 1937 convention city of the West Texas Press Association as its two day meeting closed here Saturday. R. Henderson Shuffler, Odessa publisher, was elected president. Other officers were: 1st vice president, Mary Whalley Dunbar, Palo Pinto; 2nd vice president, Douglas Meador, Matador; directors, Fred Landers, Monahans; Sam Roberts, Haskell; T. Cedric Harrison of Seymour, by making a score of 82 on 18 holes in the morning round, was conceded winner of the Bill Parker Trophy golf tournament at Midland Country Club Saturday. The cup is awarded at the convention of the West Texas Press Association each year and is retained by the winner.

The afternoon play was eliminated on account of rains.

Resolutions passed were as follows:

We, your committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following report:

Believing that the people of Texas voted the Centennial Amendment to the Constitution of our state for the purpose of celebrating a century of progress and advertising the resources and potentials of this state, along with its history and its romance; and

Feeling that the tax moneys allocated to the official celebration as expressed by the people by their votes for improving and benefitting our state by fittingly advertising its resources; and

Acknowledging the voluntary efforts of private citizens to advertise the resources, developments and future possibilities of our own section, West Texas in the Frontier Celebration at Fort Worth.

We, the members of the West Texas Press Association, in Convention Assembled in Midland, Texas, dedicate ourselves:

Racing Form Paper is Winner In Court Suit

To Try Cupid

Apparently this blond prefers a gentleman—to a movie contract. After playing in one film, Terry Walker, former Miami night club singer, is reported to have asked temporary suspension of her contract so she could plan a "six-months' trial marriage" in New York. Name of her prospective husband was not disclosed.

Was One of Several Defendants In Trial

AUSTIN, May 23. (P)— District judge Ralph Verborgh ordered an instructed verdict Saturday favoring the daily racing form in the state's suit for injunctions to close sources of information to bookmakers.

The state sought cancellation of the racing form's permit to do business in Texas. It was one of several defendants in the suit.

The judge ruled that it was constitutional to guarantee freedom of the press extended to the racing form in the publication of race news and held that there was no evidence to show that the Regal Press, Inc., had acted illegally.

MEMBERS TEXAS RACING GROUP TO MEET HERE MAY 29

Representatives of Circuit Towns to Attend

Members of the Texas Racing Association, representing eight "smaller tracks" of the state, will hold their semi-annual convention at Midland May 29, 30 and 31, witnessing the last two days of the Midland Downs race meet.

Tom Nance of Midland is president, Mason King of Amarillo, vice president, and D. E. Hill of San Antonio secretary. Five or more representatives are expected from each track, including Kingsville, Seguin, Rusk, Graham, Midland, Amarillo, Borger and Pampa.

Officials of the state racing commission also are expected here for the meeting, including Miss M. Elizabeth Thweatt, secretary, and some of the commissioners.

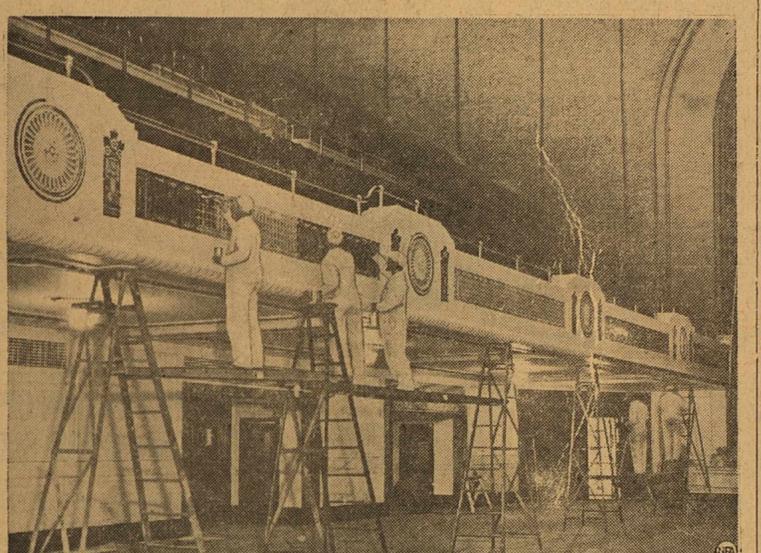

Dates for fall meetings will be set at the convention here, in order to provide a convenient circuit for horse owners and to attract a better class of race horses. An entertainment program for the meeting here is being worked out. The last meeting, at which time the organization was perfected, was held at San Antonio.

Dr. Waits Will Preach Tonight

Convention Hall Gets a New Coat of Paint

Refurbishing of Cleveland's mammoth Public Hall is proceeding at a rapid rate in preparation for the opening of the Republican national convention on June 9. New floors have been laid, cleaners are making the great auditorium spick and span and painters are plying brushes with vim and vigor. Here a crew is shown at work on the walls near the center of the hall.

TWO SLAIN AFTER AUSTRIAN FIGHT

Starhemberg's Men Winner In Battle With Group Of Nazis

LINZ, Austria, May 23. (P)—Prince Ernst von Starhemberg's home guard repulsed an attack in the deposed vice-chancellor's Waxenburg office Saturday, killing two men and arresting seven officially described as Nazis.

Reports said that the attack was a Nazi attempt to obtain arms assertedly hidden in the castle or a plot to kill the former Austrian cabinet official.

TOWNSEND GETS SUPPORT NOTES

Hundreds of Messages Sent Pensionite on His Stand

BALTIMORE, May 23. (P)—Hundreds of messages from over the nation poured into the Townsend headquarters here Saturday voicing support of Dr. Townsend in his defiance of the congressional investigating committee.

Townsend is on a tour of historical spots, apparently unconcerned regarding the committee's possible action.

"When it Rains, It Pours." Delegates to Press Convention Get a Wet Barbecue Meal

By BILL COLLYNS

When it rains it pours. It never fails. What this country needs is more press convention barbecues. The welcomed precipitation started falling freely at Cloverdale Park as the guests arrived for the barbecue given by Clarence Scharbauer in honor of visiting delegates to the West Texas Press Association convention, but the moisture failed to dampen the ardor or appetites of the handful of attendants who braved the storm to get at the barbecued beef, beans, onions, pickles, buns and black coffee. The attendance was smaller than was expected but the plentiful supply of food was well taken care of.

The barbecue, prepared by Game Warden Tom Grammar, was the best we have ever eaten, and the affair as a whole was one of the best ever staged in this vast expanse of territory commonly known as West Texas. Chef Grammar is really a master at his art.

As the guests made the tables adding their plates with food, the rain fell in sheets and everyone received a thorough soaking, but yours truly, who because the wife thought it would be a good idea, had the only slicker in evidence. Cars served as shelters as the food was being devoured. Jess Rogers, city editor of this newspaper, with whom we rode to the park, was able to secure a second helping of food by donning this writer's coveted raincoat and making a dash for the over-burdened tables.

T. Paul Barron, host editor, was soaked through and through while seeing that everyone was well taken care of. The local publisher stood out in the rain as if he liked it, and never once left his post until everyone had been fed. Cotter Heit took the moisture good naturedly while dishing out the frijole beans as did J. Howard Hodge, local abstruse manager, who handed out the plates and napkins.

Sallye Covington, secretary of the local West Texas Chamber of Commerce, did not flinch at the rain while loading her plate. And neither did Miss Kathleen Eiland, society editor. For that matter, Editors Bright of Seminole and Roberts of Andrews were very much in evidence, Bright, one of the more prosperous of the West Texas editors, driving out in a brand new Ford coupe.

Tiffin, who ordinarily can fix anything, tried to fix the weather Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harrison, of this paper, were doing very well by themselves when last seen by this writer. Clint Lackey had a plate full of beans that should have lasted him for several days. The rain was not bothering him. Several members of the state highway patrol also enjoyed the outing.

Everyone had a good time and the rain was enjoyed.

And Can They Dance? Visiting editors also proved themselves very adept at the art of dancing, and those who attended the dance in the Crystal ballroom of the Scharbauer hotel Friday night were certainly swinging 'em on equal terms with the best of the ballroom gigolos. The visiting delegates ap-

Ector is Assured New Pool As Dunning Test Heads Oil

BY FRANG GARDNER

A new oil pool for northwestern Ector County was assured Saturday when W. H. Dunning, Jr. No. 1 Cummins showed for large natural production. After a week's delay while waiting for cement to set around 7-inch casing run to 4,155, the prospective discovery drilled plug and made more hole below the old total depth of 4,257. Oil rose 3,000 feet in three hours as drilling proceeded to 4,260 and additional increases were logged down to 4,266, at which depth the well headed oil. It is now shut in pending erection of storage.

The No. 1 Cummins is located in section 33, block 45, township 1 north, T. & P. survey, four and a half miles south and two miles west of the Atlantic and C. J. (Red) Davidson No. 1 Cummins, an interesting test drilled nearly two years ago and finally completed as a big gas well although making a small amount of oil.

The Dunning well had been given favorable odds to develop production since it topped the lime at 3,845 and missed the high gas horizon of other tests in the general area. Before striking the main pay at 4,254, it had a slight show of oil from 4,163 to 4,180 and an increase in gas at 4,247.

PREPARE TO TAKE DRILL-STEM TEST IN TUBB WILDCAT Preparations were being made to take another drill-stem test in Sim-clair-Prarie and others No. 1 Tubb, western Crane County deep Permian wildcat, after it reached a total depth of 4,450. The formation is reported to have been medium hard from 4,419 to 4,428, soft from 4,429 to 4,440 and hard from 4,440 to 4,450.

Earlier in the week, the No. 1 Tubb made a drill-stem test while bottomed at 4,400 with packer set at 4,215 and showed only 10 feet of oil and 440 feet of drilling fluid in 20 minutes. It is now said to be below the horizon in which the Humble No. 1 Tubb two miles to the southeast developed production of 861 barrels per day after acidizing. It is doubtful that it will be carried down through the Simpson, middle Ordovician, in a try for the pay of the Gulf No. 1 W. N. Waddell deep discovery two miles farther northwest. The unit test is located in the southeast corner of section 3, block B-27, public school land.

After running 2 1/2 inch tubing to 4,370 or within five feet of bottom, Humble No. 2 Tubb, another "Tubb pay" test in the same area, failed to kick off, and operators are now washing hole with oil. It will probably be given an acid treatment early next week. Drilled to the same total depth as the Humble No. 1 Tubb a quarter mile to the northwest, the No. 2 Tubb has not shown for as good natural production as the original test. Three drill-stem tests showed about equal amounts of oil and mud with very little gas. Seven and 8 1/2-inch casing was cemented early this week at 4,284 feet. The No. 2 Tubb is 1,980 feet from the north and west lines of section 11, block B-27, public school land.

A half mile farther west, Gulf No. 2 Tubb and others, also scheduled to test the "Tubb pay" is drilling anhydrite at 2,180. Location is 440 feet out of the northeast corner of section 12, block B-27, public school land.

Fishing for three joints of drill-pipe, a bit and a reamer was reported in progress in Gulf No. 2 Waddell and others, 1,980 feet from the south and west lines of section 18, block B-21, public school land. The test had reached a total depth of 2,698 feet in time.

ECTOR EXTENSION FLOWS 347 BARRELS IN TEST Devonian Oil Company No. 1 B. H. Blakeney, recent extension to the North Cowden pool in Ector County, flowed 347 barrels of fluid, 10 per cent of which was basic sediment and water, after acidizing with 3,000 gallons. Its production is said to have settled to around five and a half barrels hourly through tubing. Originally completed for 270 barrels per day after a nitro shot of 270 quarts from 4,161 to 4,235, decision was made to treat the Devonian well with acid when samples of the pay section showed good solubility. It was drilled to a total depth of 4,240 and logged its main pay from 4,194 to 4,204. The extension producer is 2,200 feet from the north and 440 feet from the east line of See (Ector is Assured) Page 3

Downs Track Proves Lucky To Jennings

Little C. Jennings, apprentice jockey, broke into the "win" column for the first time Friday afternoon when he rode Buddy Nile, Jack Schlier's bay horse, to an easy victory over nine other steeds in the third race. Buddy Nile was the long shot of the day and was coupled with Seoter in paying the high price of $348.80 for the daily double. Jennings only recently received his license from the Texas racing commission. In his race Friday, he broke Buddy Nile off on top holding the lead steadily throughout the race and was never crowded for first position.

Many of these new jobholders had only the most cursory education, but the majority of them still keep their jobs with the concurrent growth of inefficiency in government departments.

During the latter part of the Mendieta regime, most of the cabinet officers spent more time waiting on Batista in Camp Columbia than in conferring with the president, and the military headquarters virtually became the seat of government.

The power enjoyed today by Batista and his comrades-in-arms may perhaps be traced to United States influences, which as early as November, 1934, began aiding the former sergeant of Machado's forces (who had led the successful mutiny against the army and navy officers) to expel Grau from the presidency.

It has never been a secret that Batista was not entirely in favor of the holding of general elections, which took place last January, but which the American state department deemed necessary to put an end to growing military outbreaks in the Latin American countries, alleging that Washington was lending its moral support to the perpetuation of an illegal regime.

The new president, his fellow-countrymen believe, can take one of the two definite paths. He may assert the rights of civil power and throw down the gauntlet to the Cuban army, prepared to accept whatever consequences that might ensue. Or he may seek to temporize with military leaders and even permit them to remain as the real executive power in Cuba, in order to retain his office, thus becoming much the same sort of figurehead as the two provisional presidents who preceded him.

The imminence of the decision which Gomez must take brings to Cuba a political situation perhaps as crucial as any seen in its history as a republic.

Army Budgets Compared It was the Cuban army that maintained Machado in power as dictator, but during Machado's last full fiscal year, there were only 835 officers and 11,000 men on the army list, and 237 officers and 1,079 men in the navy, with an army budget of $9,748,189.13 and a navy budget of $1,051,655.28.

In the present 1935 - 36 fiscal year the army has 1,008 officers and 14,226 men and the navy 347 officers and 2,509 men, with a combined budget of $14,536,188.16 in addition to between three and four million dollars in special credits that have been announced, and secret credits, the amount of which will be known for some time.

The police of the country recently were nationalized, by decree law, placing all enforcement agencies under the army, and thus giving the military establishment control of the police budget. Cuban police probably total 5,000.

Owe Jobs to Army A large proportion of the employees in the various civil departments of the government got their jobs through the army. When thousands of government employees struck, in March, 1935, their places were immediately filled by friends and relatives of officers and soldiers.

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything.) Birth control may have some logic as a principle when it comes to homes characterized by ill health and mental deficiency. But the great trouble is that birth control is practiced by the people who have the means and intelligence to rear families.

Why not salute the American flag? Saluting the flag is not an arduous task. It is a gracious patriotic gesture. If you refuse to salute the flag that does not necessarily mean you are lacking in patriotism. But it may mean you are only stubborn. There is no merit in stubbornness. Salute the flag as it passes by.

BEHIND THE SCENES - IN - WASHINGTON By RODNEY DUTCHER Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 23—The big winner in the republican primaries seems to have been Mr. Roosevelt. That's because Roosevelt and democratic candidates have been piling up larger votes in various important states than have the republican candidates, particularly in California, Illinois, and Ohio. One big factor they cite is that of organized labor. The United Mine Workers have only about 30,000 members in the state, but labor there is as strong for industrial unionism as anywhere. This means that most of its voters will follow the lead of John L. Lewis, who is strong for Roosevelt. Furthermore, Ohio experts declare, Roosevelt will get the bulk of the Townsend vote and the Coughlin vote. Ohio, with 26 electoral votes, is described oftener than any other state as "pivotal."

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"Well, which are we going to take—all this stuff she's packing, or my shoes?"

What'll Mr. Borah Do? Senator Borah's defeat by old guard republicans of Ohio proves beyond all question that his campaign for the presidential nomination is futile, since the popular support which he sought in his war against "monopoly" and party bosses just hasn't materialized. That means that the issue as to Borah boils down simply to the question whether there is any possibility that the Idaho senator will bolt the party ticket after the convention and, if there is, how high a price he would demand and how high a price the convention's dominating forces would pay to keep him on the reservation.

Aid for Roosevelt Sought You will be fairly safe in assuming the truth of rumors that the senator already has been approached in the interests of the Roosevelt ticket. But counter-pressure is being exerted by the Landon group, which seeks to convince Borah that Landon doesn't represent the reactionary eastern interests which the senator attacks, and offers him a chance to help write the platform.

Judging by past performances, he won't desert the party ticket, though many who know him and who have talked with him are more than half-convinced that he will.

Discount Breckenridge Vote Over at democratic national committee headquarters the boys confidently predict that many who have voted for Borah in primaries will cast their ballots for the democratic ticket in November, regardless of what the senator does.

They're sure this will more than make up for the defections from the party indicated by the primary vote polled by Henry Breckenridge, who was defeated by Roosevelt 20 to 1 in Pennsylvania, 5 1-2 to 1 in Maryland, and 15 to 1 in Ohio.

Roosevelt's big vote in Ohio tended to quiet the oppositionists who read a large and unfavorable portent into Breckenridge's Maryland vote. The Breckenridge vote there can be largely attributed to anti-New Deal sentiment inherited from the late Governor Ritchie and preserved by Senator Tydings; the sympathy of the party machine at primary time; and the persistent slashing attacks on the New Deal by Frank Kent and H. L. Mencken in the Baltimore Sun.

Maryland may be considered a doubtful state, but the Republicans won a Roosevelt 1932 vote of 314,000 to 184,000 for Hoover to overturn.

Not A Hoover Boost Interpretations of the victory of the Ohio G. O. P. ticket backed by former Postmaster General Walter Brown and State Chairman Ed Schorr as strengthening Hoover's position at the convention should be taken with a saline solution. Most clear-headed politicians still discount the probable Hoover influence and none suspected any possibility of his nomination, even before his announcement that he was not a candidate.

It's believed here that Brown and Schorr, controlling the bulk of Ohio delegates, will leap onto the first vehicle at Cleveland which looks like a bandwagon.

INAUGURATION OPENS REGIME TODAY OF GOMEZ, SIXTH CUBAN PRESIDENT

HAVANA, May 19 (U.P.)—Following the footsteps of his father—Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, Cuba's second president—the 45-year-old lawyer, Miguel Mariano Gomez Arias was inaugurated as the sixth constitutional president of the Cuban republic, May 20. He was elected on Jan. 10, the candidate of the republican-liberal-nationalist coalition.

When the venerable president of the supreme court, Dr. Frederico Edelman, administers the oath of office in the Salon of Mirrors of the presidential palace, Gomez will embark upon his four-year term, facing grave political economic and social problems.

The Gomez inauguration will initiate, at least in a theoretical sense, the return of constitutional rule to Cuba for the first time since Aug. 12, 1933, when the dictatorship of Gen. Gerardo Machado was overthrown. The intervening period of revolutionary governments serving varying periods—from a few hours, such as in the cases of Gen. Alberto Terrera and Manuel Marquez Sterling, to the 23 month term of Col. Carlos Mendieta.

Thousand Lives Lost During these provisional regimes, Cuba was torn by revolution, mutinies, battles, terrorism, strikes and cabinet crises. It may be conservatively estimated that at least 1,000 persons lost their lives as a result of the political turmoil, while other thousands were wounded and millions of dollars in property loss ensued.

Although governing with a congress of 198 members, it is conceded that upon the will and determination of Dr. Gomez depends the course of Cuba's political future.

The outstanding issue in Cuba today is whether civil and democratic authority will be restored, and whether the army, commanded by Col. Fulgencio Batista, who has been maintaining a virtual military dictatorship since January, 1934, will be deprived of all but military powers.

Army Budgets Compared It was the Cuban army that maintained Machado in power as dictator, but during Machado's last full fiscal year, there were only 835 officers and 11,000 men on the army list, and 237 officers and 1,079 men in the navy, with an army budget of $9,748,189.13 and a navy budget of $1,051,655.28.

In the present 1935 - 36 fiscal year the army has 1,008 officers and 14,226 men and the navy 347 officers and 2,509 men, with a combined budget of $14,536,188.16 in addition to between three and four million dollars in special credits that have been announced, and secret credits, the amount of which will be known for some time.

The police of the country recently were nationalized, by decree law, placing all enforcement agencies under the army, and thus giving the military establishment control of the police budget. Cuban police probably total 5,000.

Owe Jobs to Army A large proportion of the employees in the various civil departments of the government got their jobs through the army. When thousands of government employees struck, in March, 1935, their places were immediately filled by friends and relatives of officers and soldiers.

Noel Souvenir Is Now On Sale Here

An attractive Texas Centennial souvenir has been placed on the market by Miss Leona McCormick, and may now be obtained under her copyright at the Modern Shop, Lettie Lee Shop, Kinberg studio, Scharbauer Cigar Stand, or at Miss McCormick's home, 217 W. Tennessee.

The novelty consists of a hand-painted water color picture of a landscape rich in bluebonnets, designed in the shape of a Texas map. This map centers a page of fancy tan paper on which is printed a clever and humorous discourse on Texas, bringing out the picturesque phases of the state which appeal to the popular fancy of those from other parts of the country.

Size of the souvenir is nine by 12 inches and Miss McCormick is selling them either framed or unframed.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

Editors rarely think of themselves (nor do others think of them) as divine messengers. But the showers that accompanied their advent in Midland certainly merit the title of "showers of blessing." At least they do to the farmers and ranchers of the region though the visitors who had to eat their barbecue meal in cars at Cloverdale Friday evening and perhaps miss the dessert because it was raining too hard to go get it, might have a different view.

Did you know that 7:30 o'clock in the morning is too late for a Press Convention breakfast? The suggestion was made Saturday morning that next year the breakfast should be at 4 o'clock in the morning because all the editors would be sure to be up at that time, whereas they were in bed at the later hour.

OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dawson were out-of-town visitors to Midland Saturday.

husbands repeat it gently but firmly loses its force during the racing seasons.

If there's anything worse than trying to write copy for a paper when there's no news, everybody at the races, and we're sleepy, we'd like to know what it is.

Being sleepy and unable to satisfy the desire for a nap is a polite form of torture anyway.

We're seldom bored by anything or anybody, but to have to sit and make conversation, or worse still, try to do our usual work when it takes all our willpower to keep our eyes open is a form of suffering that not even a wish to be courteous can make up endure for long.

Press Conventions, we had supposed, were glorified talkfests. Judging from our fragmentary experience of the one just closed in Midland, eating must be about as important as program. Which maybe shows good judgement on the part of the editors.

STEEL MAKERS say—"Ford buys the best steel."

Other suppliers of materials and parts will tell you—"Nobody checks up so closely on quality and price as Ford."

This means a great deal to you as a motorist. It is our way of safeguarding the interests of every purchaser and it leads to this—"The mechanical depreciation on a Ford is less than on most cars, especially after the first year."

This is one sign of the extra value in the Ford V-8. Accuracy in manufacturing is another. (The Ford is made to unusually close precision limits.) And there is a long list of fine-car features that are exclusive with Ford in the popular field.

Let's check over a few of these:

Have you a V-8 engine in your car? It is still the newest development in motors — you pay $1645 for it in any other car.

Does your car have Center-Poise Riding? Ford gives you this modern feature—"a front-seat ride for back-seat passengers."

Does your car have reliable, fool-proof Super-Safety Mechanical Brakes? The Ford V-8 gives you this proved, dependable design, with 186 square inches of braking surface. Does your car have a genuine steel body structure? Does it have Safety Glass all around? Ford is the only low-price car that gives you this extra protection without extra cost.

You get these fine-car features — and many others — in the Ford V-8 because of Ford manufacturing methods and the Ford low-profit policy. Savings in purchasing, production and selling are put back into the car and passed on to you in extra quality and extra value.

Mount Lookout, four-year-old bay gelding of the C. N. Brewer stable, Saturday won the $250 feature race at Midland Downs, coming from behind in the stretch to win by a half-length over Betty B, black year-old mare of the Gulf Coast stables, Debenture, heavily backed favorite, 6-year-old bay of the Tudor stables, finished a close third.

In the eight horse race seven of them received a heavy play from the spectators. Carl B. Barney Keen, Proposing and Westko were all favored at the mutual windows. Only Plenty French was passed up as a possible winner.

Long shot backers cleaned up a gain in the second day, four of the winners paying $20 or better at the windows. Tap Time, winner of the initial race was the shortest priced winner of the day, paying only $3.20 for a straight ticket. Roundabout, who paid $49.30 and Band Play, who paid $48.30 were the two best bets of the day. The daily double won by Roundabout and Lone Knight paid $258.30.

In the first race of the day, Tap Time, with Hamilton up, easily outran the field for a victory.

In the second Roundabout finished a half-length ahead of Dark Sport, a length ahead of Miss Title.

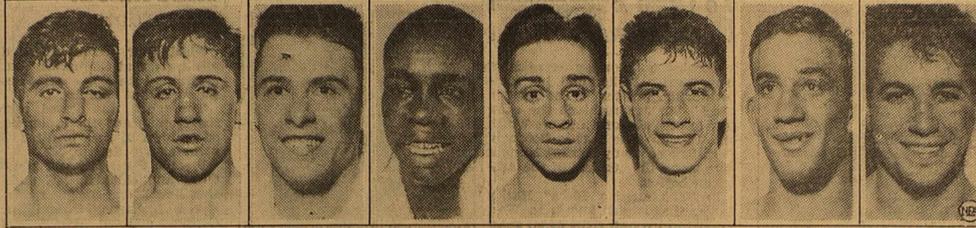

The third race was won by Lone Knight, five year-old bay horse of the Steward stables. E. De Prang was up. Carvel Hall was second and Escott, co-favorite with Foreign Relations won the show money.

In the fourth race Raffer Wee came in ahead of Little Dude and Chicredo.

The fifth race was won handily by Band Play. Again De Prang was the winning jockey. Motoring Miss was second and Tiny Comet third.

FIRST FASCIST RULE IN AMERICAS

THREE years of enervating war with Bolivia, over a steaming, uninhabitable jungle area called the Gran Chaco, had left Paraguay weak and exhausted. A commission of six neutral American countries had met to arrange peace terms, when Col. Rafael Franco, hero of the Chaco, led an army of rebellion against the liberal government of President Eusebio Ayala. The war had cost thousands of lives to gain much of the disputed Chaco territory, and Franco did not want to compromise now.

As a result, Franco has become president of Paraguay, and has declared the first Fascist regime in the western hemisphere. He has suspended all political activity for one year, and has placed the control of all industries under the minister of the interior. The action has left the peace conferees in doubt over the outcome of the entire Chaco affair, although France has promised a "just" peace with Bolivia.

At any rate, the map shown on the accompanying stamp, which was issued in 1927, is destined to be changed somewhat.

Only $730 — and winning fame as the smoothest EIGHT in the world

Reserve all judgments of eight performance until you drive this car

AFTER ALL, the smoothest eight is the eight you want to buy. So make no decision until you drive the Pontiac. For this is the eight with built-in smoothness. In fact, Pontiac's powerful engine has no vibration point at any speed—due to incredibly accurate balance of rotating parts, a rigid, short-stroke crankshaft with overlapping bearings, and the harmonic balancer introduced by Pontiac.

Yes, you'll learn about smoothness from the Pontiac Eight—and that's not all! The fast, sure action of Pontiac's big, triple-sealed, hydraulic brakes will be another revelation. So will the comfort of the spacious "Turret-Top" Fisher Bodies. And when you count the cost of owning the smoothest eight, you get another surprise! Under official supervision, the Pontiac Eight has delivered 22 miles to the gallon. And you can buy it for about the price of many sixes!

These are the facts. Now test what they mean in greater all-around satisfaction. Drive the Pontiac Eight for just ten minutes. That's enough to prove, once and for all, that your search for super-smoothness is over.

*List prices at Pontiac, Mich., begin at $615 for the Six and $730 for the Eight (subject to change without notice). Safety glass standard on De Luxe Six and Eight. Standard group of accessories extra. All Pontiac cars can be bought with monthly payments to suit your purse on the General Motors Installment Plan. A General Motors Value.

TEXAS LAWS IN 'OLD DAYS' SIMPLE BUT ADEQUATE FOR PEOPLE THEN

AUSTIN, Texas—Laws protecting the citizens of Texas are simple but sufficient and adequate for the times, it is revealed by Arthur Ikin, English consul to the Republic who sent back a report to his compatriots in the form of a little book, "A Guide to Emigrants," published in London in 1811. One of the few known copies of this emigrant guide is found in the Texas collection of the University of Texas Library.

"Bankrupts are suffered to retain their dwellings and the stock, etc. in dispensable to their profession or support," Ikin wrote. "Provision is made for extending to the poor man the protection and aid of the law without payment of counsel or other fee; and suits are not suffered to abate for want of form, if there is sufficient matter to enable the court to proceed on the merits of the cause."

"Monopolies and ex post facto laws are unconstitutional. A system of direct taxation is adopted. Universal suffrage is practised and every citizen is eligible to every office, if duly qualified in regard to age."

"A residence of six months, after a formal declaration of intention to become a citizen, entitles the individual to his letters of citizenship; upon obtaining which no oath renouncing allegiance to any other power is required."

"Free persons of colour are not suffered to emigrate or remain in the Republic without special act of Congress. Marriage with Africans or their descendants is unlawful. (Note: Whatever certain cosmopolites may think of the "illiberality" of such a law it is to its influence, or to that of the feeling which has dictated it, that we must ascribe the purity of the Anglo-Saxon breed on the American continent. The French and Spaniards readily amalgamate with Indians and negroes, and their offspring bear the usual degenerate characteristics of a mongrel race.)

"Cruel treatment may be made the ground of a divorce suit."

"The form of government, being so nearly similar to that of the United States, will require but little notice."

"As in the states, the Executive consists of a president and vice-president, elected by the people, and of the heads or secretaries of the various departments, civil and military, appointed by the president. The salary of the president is 10,000 dollars per annum. The term of office is three years, and the same individual cannot serve two successive terms."

"The Legislature is composed of two houses—that of Representatives elected by the people of the different counties yearly; that of the Senate, (which has also some executive power,) elected for three years, one-third of the members however retiring, and a fresh election for their number taking place at the end of each year. The members of Congress receive a salary of eight dollars (Texas money) per diem during their session."

"The Judiciary consists of first a Supreme Court, which is a court of appeal, presided over by the chief justice of the Republic and the judges of the districts into which the Republic is divided for judicial purposes, and which in 1840 were seven in number. These judges are appointed by Congress, and hold the office for four years. The chief justice's salary is 5,000 dollars. The district judge's, 3,000 dollars. The supreme court sits once a year. It takes cognizance of both civil and criminal cases."

"2dly. A District or Circuit Court, holden by these judges twice a year in each county within their respective districts. In its action and general character this court is similar to our English courts of assize, but it appears to possess a more extended power of trying causes according to the principles of equity."

"3dly. A County Court, composed of a chief justice of the county, appointed by Congress, and two associate justices, elected by the justices of peace of the said county out of their own body. This court is holden quarterly, and may be considered as analogous to our quarterly sessions."

"4thly. A Probate Court, which the chief justice of each county holds every month, and which is similar to the probate courts of the United States."

"5thly. A Justices' Court, also holden monthly by the justices of the peace in their respective county districts. These magistrates are elected by the people. They have jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money where the amount does not exceed 100 dollars."

"The office of sheriff, recorder, coroner, mayor, alderman, councilmen, clerk of the peace, constable, etc., and the rights of municipal corporations in general, are very similar to our own corresponding offices and institutions."

"The army, which consisted of several small regiments, has been almost entirely disbanded. The present military force of the country is chiefly composed of volunteer companies and militia."

"The navy, under Commodore Moore, consists of a fine sloop of war, two brigs, a large armed steamer, and two or three beautiful schooners."

"The revenue is obtained chiefly by means of impost duties and direct taxation. It amounted in 1837 to $208,021, in 1838 to $367,013, in 1839 to $287,561 and in 1840 to $802,054."

"The income of the current year will certainly exceed one million of dollars. The expenditure cannot be much over 600,000 dollars."

"The whole debt of the country, chiefly incurred by the war of revolution, at present little exceeds one million sterling."

"For any further liabilities which it may be willing to contract either with Europe or (under certain circumstances) with Mexico, it offers as security, not only a flourishing and increasing revenue, a cautious and singularly economical government, but also a public domain of more than 150 millions of acres, which, from its great natural advantages, might, under judicious management, in less than ten years' time, be rendered available for paying off a much larger debt than Texas will seek to contract whatever

Leadership of Midland County Is Again Demonstrated in Establishment of The County Museum Housed in Courthouse

BY MRS. OLA DUBLIN HAYNES

Midland County has long prided itself on leading "being out in front" and "doing things up brown." Again we lead! Since November 1935 we have had a growing museum a collection of interesting material which is unusual for a community many times our size. Visitors from Fort Worth, Dallas, and other large cities have exclaimed in surprise declaring that in their own counties there has been no effort to preserve their history and make it available to the public. We owe thanks to the county librarian and the many people who have been glad to give or lend their treasures, for the fact that our county has this valuable exhibit.

Texas' hundredth birthday celebration has brought the need for exhibits of this sort to public attention. Many counties are now collecting their articles of interest. Sunday's Fort Worth Star Telegram brought the news of Archer County's determined effort in this direction.

It is deplorable that Texas has no State Museum, though she is rich in history and material. We are behind our neighbors in this respect. New Mexico's museum, in its historical old Governor's Palace in Santa Fe, is a real contribution to education.

Every person is invited to see our museum. Additions to it are welcomed and interest is appreciated. YOUR support is needed. Bring your Centennial visitors to see our local museum. Sanger Bros. store in Dallas, which has been in Dallas as long as our county has been organized, has done the same service in Dallas that our museum sponsor has done here. This was done as a special Centennial project and interested crowds stand before the windows enjoying mementoes of a day that is gone.

Brief descriptions of articles later added to our museum, with donor's name follows:

Old cow bell, A. J. Olliff.
U. S. Marine Corps discharge, Glenn S. Brunson, Jr.
Model chair made inside glass bottle, the craftsmanship of a hobo in the year 1910, Howard Revel.
Five artistically mounted specimens of moss, gift of Mrs. Olivia D. Walsh.
Baby's christening robe, old and handmade, Mrs. Olivia D. Walsh.
Iron shoe used by sheep herder, found by Lewis Beyer in Pecosco may be her credit, and enable her also to meet her engagements without having recourse to a high tariff system.

"The conditions on which a portion of the Mexican debt was to be forgiven, will be seen by the following extract of a letter from General Hamilton to Lord Palmerston:

"If therefore, Mexico will consent to a truce with Texas, within thirty days after the communication of any convention we may conclude on the subject by her majesty's minister, at her capital; and in six months after will conclude a treaty of amity and commerce with Texas, which shall provide for a satisfactory and well-defined boundary between the two countries, I shall be quite willing to come under a stipulation that Texas shall assume one million sterling of the public debt to Mexico prior to the year 1836; which is precisely the sum the United States offered for the whole country in 1830. The value it has acquired since has been conferred on it by the enterprise, heroism, and intelligence of the citizens of Texas themselves, and is a just and honourable acquisition of their own. This I desire to be regarded as a voluntary concession; for I conceive Texas no more bound to assume a portion of the public debt of Mexico than the thirteen American colonies after they had achieved their independence, were bound to assume a share of the national debt of Great Britain. Your lordship, however, in our conferences, has never pressed this as a matter of right, although I have not failed to recognise the zealous attention and regard you have paid to the interest of a class of her majesty's subjects, who have long suffered under the bad faith of Mexico, and whom, for a just equivalent to the citizens of Texas, I shall be gratified if they shall be instrumental in indemnifying."

"What Does The Air Mail Pilot Think"

DALLAS, (U.P.)—What does an air transport pilot think about while cruising home from a day in the skies?

For Charles F. (Unk) Pedley, it means no "postman's holiday." He stays on the ground. First interest in Pedley's off-work period is his home, a 45-acre farm near Irving.

Second in importance are his thoroughbred saddle horses, which the pilot raises as a hobby. Besides his home and horses, Pedley's favorite diversion is fishing. He has a spring fed pond on his farm. Pedley, 36, has flown 11,380 hours in the past 17 years. His daily run is from Dallas to El Paso. He has flown every regular run into Dallas except the one from Memphis.

He holds several records, including one for flying the first air-mail passenger run out of Dallas in 1921. He also has inaugurated mail-passenger schedules from Dallas to Houston and Galveston and Atlanta.

Old Covered Wagon Will Be Driven to Demo Convention as Boost to New Deal

READING, Pa. (U.P.)—A creaking sound familiar in pre-Revolutionary days, when covered wagons rolled across barren plains will echo at the Democratic National Convention when a Reading man drives an antiquated Conestoga wagon down through the valley for which it receives its name into Philadelphia.

The old vehicle, said to be centuries old, will roll down the Philadelphia pike, with Harry A. Obold, in the driver's seat, in something akin to the era when freight-loaded Conestogas rumbled across Pennsylvania from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, to become one of the sights of the Democratic meeting.

Obold, who has letters from President Roosevelt and other Democratic leaders approving in novel idea, wants two white mules to draw the wagon as was customary when they type of travel was commonplace.

He'll use the best two mules available, however, if he can't get white ones. Obold has volunteered his wagon and services in driving it to the convention to show his interest in the New Deal's success.

The pioneer wagon, still in comparatively good shape, was brought to Berks County in 1732 by Peter Rothermel when he settled in what is now Maiden Creek township. Obold purchased it from a neighbor. The many owners of the wagon are not known.
