Dionne Quintuplets Two-Years-Old Today, Are Healthy, Unpampered With $200,000 Nest Egg Already Garnered By Their Baby Activities

CALLANDER, Ont., May 28. (UP)—Five little girls can play on one piano at the same time and since five players can make five times as much noise as one there was no demand for additional pianos from the Dionne quintuplets who celebrated their second birthday here today.

With the exception of the piano the world famous quints each have their own "things"—shoes, wagons, clothes, toys—and so with every factor making for individual development, it is not surprising that they present personalities that permit a layman's analysis.

Yvonne, as the five passed the two-year mark, appears the smartest. This casts no reflection on the intelligence of the other four. Close behind her is Annette.

Cecile, prettiest of the group is not surprisingly, the snootiest. She displayed the most temperament during the filming of the motion picture in which the quintuplets were featured.

DEBATE OPENED ON RELIEF TAX BILL IN SENATE TODAY

Leaders Press for Quick Action On Measure

PASSAGE IS SURE

Nothing Believed to Be In Way of Its Approval

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—The senate opened debate on the deficiency appropriation bill carrying $1,425,000,000 for next year's relief today with apparently nothing in the way of quick action. Leaders pressed for a vote tomorrow.

The relief items were carried in a $2,369,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill which included also huge funds for the Social Security Board and other federal agencies.

Senate leaders forecast the bill would be passed by the end of the week, leaving the tax bill as the only major obstacle to adjournment. A longer battle was foreshadowed, however, by a possible administration move to add qualified authorizations for the Passamaquoddy tide harnessing project in Maine and the Florida ship canal.

As the long disputed bill emerged from committee, the transcript of hearing was made public, disclosing that Harry L. Hopkins had flatly denied charges of politics in relief and conceded the advisability of paying the "prevailing wage" to Works Progress Administration employees.

This drew from Chairman Glass (D-Va.) of the committee a protest that he had been led by the administration to head the bitter fight in the Senate last year against paying the prevailing wage.

The new fund for public works was the most important of a number of vital changes made in the House bill by the Senate committee. It would give Secretary Ickes authority to use for grants on public works projects $300,000,000 with a proviso that the grants should not amount to more than 30 per cent of the total of projects costing more than $100,000.

POLICEMAN SLAIN

Latest Outbreaks in Jerusalem Add To Deaths

JERUSALEM, May 28. (AP)—British troops returned rioters' fire at Kubatia, North Palestine, today killing two and wounding three. The British reported no casualties.

Earlier, Robert Beard, British policeman and one Arab were slain here. The outbreak came today as disorders over the Arab anti-Jewish campaign of terrorism appeared to be waning. The British are continuing a rigorous campaign against the terrorists.

Authorities have enrolled special police at watchmen to protect outlying banks, keeping up an intermittent sniping throughout the troubled Holy Land.

Jaffa, Mount Ebal, Mount Canaan Hatikvah, Smaria, Esdraelion and Acre were all scenes of considerable firing. Bombs were thrown at Jaffa.

Disorders at Jaffa caused British officials to remove their families from that city, predominantly Arab. They were taken to Haifa aboard a warship and later moved to the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv.

NEW POOL OPENER FLOWS 280 BARRELS 20 HOURS; NATURAL

Dunning Well to Start Up Today After Shutdown

BY FRANK GARDNER

Natural production of 280 barrels in 20 hours by W. H. Dunning, Jr. No. 1 Cummins, enlanced the prospects for a new pool in the northwestern part of Ector county. The well, shut in for the last few days pending erection of storage, was opened yesterday and flowed 113 barrels in 30 minutes, this, however, representing a built-up head. Operators went in with a bailer and cleaned out several feet of mud and cavings, then drilled ahead to 4,270. The well is reported to have filled up 2,500 feet with oil in two hours and a half. The bailer was run again and lost, necessitating a fishing job, but it was recovered without much difficulty. Seven hours and a half after it was first opened up, the well had produced 165 barrels of oil. It was shut down last night because of wind blowing gas over the engine, but operations were scheduled to be resumed today.

The No. 1 Cummins first showed for a commercial producer when it filled up 500 feet with oil while drilling from 4,254 to 4,257. The oil string of casing was then run to 4,155 and the new well was shut down for nearly a week. Plug was drilled late last week, and it made a sizeable head while drilling ahead to 4,266 before being shut in for storage. Present plans call for drilling to at least 4,300 feet before completion.

The new pool opener is located in section 33, block 45, township 1 N. north T. & P. survey. It is four and a half miles south and two miles west of the Atlantic and "Red" Davidson No. 1 Cummins, a test that attracted much interest when it was being drilled two years ago and which was finally completed as a large gasser although making a small amount of oil.

NEW TUBB WELL TESTS 835 BARRELS IN 18 HOURS

On the second gasser made since it was acidized early this week, Humble No. 2 Tubb latest well to obtain production from the "Tubb pay" horizon over 1,800 feet in the Permian lime, flowed 835 barrels of oil in 18 hours through open 2 1/2-inch tubing. Previously, it had made 336 barrels in six hours after treating with 3,000 gallons of acid. On basis of both gasses, the No. 2 Tubb is larger than was the Humble No. 1 Tubb a quarter mile to the northwest which rated 861 barrels per day flowing. The new Tubb producer is in the center of the southeast of the northwest of section 11, block B-27, public school land, western Crane county. It drilled to a total depth of 4,375 and is making its oil from pays logged from 4,284 down nearly to bottom.

DRILLING BELOW 4,327 IN GAINES WILDCAT

Depth of 4,327 feet in lime and anhydrite had been reached this morning by Landreth Production Company No. 1 Kirk, closely watched Gaines county wildcat. Many expect the test to be drilling in solid lime below that more hole is made. See (OIL NEWS) Page Eight

PROSECUTOR SAYS HE WAS A MEMBER OF ORGANIZATION

Officers Pressing Investigation Of Order

AID IS SOUGHT

Federal Agents Are To Be Called Into Case

DETROIT, May 28. (AP)—Additional indications of the extensive aspirations of the Black Legion came today as investigators disclosed that one county prosecutor had admitted membership in the affiliate order.

Prosecutor David Pence, Oakland county, said that he was induced two years ago to join a club which became the Pontiac branch of the Black Legion.

Pence said that he withdrew a year later and asked federal agents to investigate it. A powerful movement is under way in congress to equip federal agents with new powers to smash the legion.

The Michigan democratic committee is drafting legislation allowing agents to investigate the organization.

The demand for Congressional action was made by Rep. Dickstein (D-NY) almost at the moment Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea telegraphed Attorney General Cummings an appeal for assistance from the Department of Justice in his investigation.

Dickstein introduced a resolution in the House asking appointment of a committee of seven to investigate the Black Legion, "the Black Shirts," "the Christian Party," "The A. B. C. Legion of New York," and "the Robert Edward Edmondson organization of New York."

Letters from 15 States

In his request for Department of Justice aid, McCrea said he has received letters from officers or individuals in "from 15 to 18 states relating crimes attributed to the Black Legion. Some of these involved kidnappings in which state laws were crossed "for murder or intimidation" McCrea said.

McCrea did not name the states, but said he had received letters from Chicago and New York indicating the existence of the outlawed brotherhood in both cities.

Dickstein said he had information that the activities of the Black Legion centered in Michigan, Ohio, Colorado, Pennsylvania and to some extent in New York.

FIorenza GIVEN DEATH SENTENCE

Jury Convicts New Yorker In Slaying of Mrs. Nancy Titterton

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—John Fiorenza was convicted of murder in the first degree in the bathtub slaying of Mrs. Nancy Evans Titterton today. The conviction carries the death penalty.

Mrs. Titterton, writer an radio executive's wife, was attacked and strangled to death April tenth.

With the same outward calm that characterized his demeanor throughout most of his eight-day trial, the apprentice upholsterer heard the jury instructed to bring in one of three possible verdicts: Not guilty, not guilty by reason of insanity or guilty of murder in the first degree.

District Attorney William C. Dodge demanded the death penalty for the man he accused of strangling Mrs. Titterton during a criminal assault.

BEHIND THE SCENES

WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 28—One thing becomes clearer as the campaign begins to crystallize—there will be no united third party movement this year in the sense of a big farmer-labor or progressive coalition.

The Commonwealth movement of Representative Amle has gotten nowhere. The proposed Huey Long-Coughlin-Townsend union is too late to be a factor. The Farmer-Labor and progressive groups of Wisconsin and Minnesota have not even been able to get together with each other. The Communist efforts to unite radical parties in a combined "left" movement seems doomed to failure. True, they may support the Socialist candidate with the same kiss of death that almost ruined Dan Hoan in Milwaukee, but even that now seems unlikely. Labor as a whole has shied away from a labor party as such, though no one can deny its greater interest in direct political action and the fact that a labor party for 1940 looms larger and larger as each month passes. Labor's "Balance of Power" But the fact that labor will not have a party as such does not mean that it will not carry great weight

HERE FROM AMARILLO

Bill McSpadden, Amarillo cattleman and oil operator, is a business visitor here today.

HERE FOR RACES

Mrs. Wilbur C. Hawk and Mr. and Mrs. Mason King of Amarillo were to arrive here early this afternoon to attend the races at Midland Downs the remainder of the week.

In the election this fall. Here's how: certainly two of all critical states, with 83 electoral votes between them (a factor in a total of 531) are New York and Pennsylvania.

In the latter state, the United Mine Workers are very strong, and it is expected that John Lewis can lay at least 150,000 votes on the line whenever he commands. In 1932, the Republicans got the 36 electoral vote of 1,453,540 to 1,295,948. That's close enough so that 150,000 more Democratic votes would have made it a dingdong race, perhaps changed the results.

New York, while its 47 electoral votes went for the Democrats in 1932, is conceded to be a race again this year. The Democrats won in 1932 with 2,534,495 popular votes to the Republican 1,937,936. Again, that is close enough that 200,000 votes or so from the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, International Ladies Garment Workers' Union and similar unions might well be a deciding factor.

The Court—and Votes

As a balance-of-power factor, labor may well be highly important this year, and the supreme court by its adverse decisions on labor and social legislation has undoubtedly made many a Democratic vote. If it be true, as Mr. Dooley's old political saw had it, that the supreme court follows the election returns, the "nine old men" may follow with special care results this fall.

Incidentally, some of the unions which are radical or left-wing in philosophy are planning to get around their difficulties this fall by supporting Roosevelt, but not the Democratic party. That enables them to avoid wasting their votes on hopelessly minority candidates while keeping their political consciences clear.

"Walkout Year"

This year of grace 1936 may be known to history as the Year of the Great Walkouts. Al Smith and conservative Democrats threaten to "take a walk" on that party. Democratic socialists threaten to walk out of the left-controlled convention of that party. Dr. Townsend walks out on the congressional investigating committee.

Even the U. S. Chamber of Commerce has its walker-outers. Edward A. Filene, liberal Boston department store magnate, walks out on the chamber, insisting on facts and impartial studies, but simply on the prejudices, opinions, and interests of powerful members.

Maybe the campaign song ought to be resurrected from the past: Remember? "M-m-m! Would you like to take a walk?"

George Clark to Receive Tribute After 157 Years

By NEA Service

VINCENNES, Ind.—Graceful marble columns stand in Vincennes today where there was only a rough log fort 157 years ago. The Wabash, which in that spring of 1778 spread an icy blanket of flood about the region, is spanned today by a broad and monumental bridge.

On June 7, or soon thereafter, the president of a nation of 130,000,000 people will stand and dedicate a memorial on ground where George Rogers Clark and a ragged freezing band of frontiersmen won an empire for their compatriots.

The graceful circle of marble which is the center of the Rogers memorial park stands exactly where Fort Sackville once assured British domination of the western country.

It was the determination and audacious feat of young Clark, then only 26 years old, in taking Fort Sackville and Vincennes, Kaskaskia and Cahokia from the British that changed the history of the American people; opening the west to their expansion.

For 10 years local committees worked to raise a suitable memorial to Clark and his men. But not until Congress appropriated $1,750,000, Indiana $650,000, and Vincennes and Knox County $250,000 was the present dream made true.

Reared in Lovely Setting

In a lovely park reclaimed from river's slums and factory refuse, the memorial was designed.

The Lincoln Trail bridge, built in 1933, and the ancient cathedral church and French cemetery adjoining, are all united in the design for the memorial park.

Center of the memorial park is the classic marble memorial itself, uniting the tribute of sculpture, architecture and painting. It is cylindrical, 88 feet in diameter and 71 feet high, designed by Frederic Hirs. Around the entablature is carved "The Conquest of the West. George Rogers Clark and the Frontiersmen of the American Revolution." An ornamental cornice with a star represents each of the 48 states.

A single entrance, guarded by heavy bronze doors gives entrance to a marble and limestone interior.

In the center of the room stands a heroic bronze statue of Clark as a young man, by Hermon Maenell. Covering the inner walls is a series of powerful murals by Ezra Winter, telling the story of Clark.

Roosevelt to Officiate

President Roosevelt plans to dedicate the memorial on June 7, but the date may be set ahead if press of Washington business necessitates. But the blue grass lawns and the carefully planted native trees will give the scene a different appearance than it had 157 years ago.

Then the American people were in revolt against the British. With the war in the east dragging on year after year, the west was also scourged by Indian raids, fomented by Hamilton, British governor at Detroit. The British post in Indiana and Illinois were thorns in the American flesh.

Young Clark, already a veteran Virginia Indian fighter and pioneer at 26, secured the backing of Gov. Patrick Henry in a desperate plan. He raised and drilled a little band of 150 men, and marched against Kaskaskia, Prairie du Rocher, and Cahokia. He won over the French occupants and secured the neutrality of the native Indians.

Clark in Final Triumph

But Hamilton, the British governor at Detroit, who had won the hatred of the colonies by his practice of paying Indians bounties for scalps of murdered westerners, knew that Clark was pitifully weak. He marched down from Detroit and retook Vincennes.

Since it was then midwinter, Hamilton felt secure from attack and sent most of his troops back to Detroit. But Clark was dauntless. He marched on Vincennes in the dead of winter, with only about 170 men. The Wabash was at flood, its icy waters spreading over miles of territory about the fort. Weary to death, hungry, ill-clad and ill-equipped, Clark's men forged forward, shoulder-deep at times in the icy water.

Clark ordered his 'six-foot-two sergeant to hoist the 14-year-old drummer boy to his shoulders and beat the advance.

In a night attack on Fort Sackville, Clark deceived Hamilton into thinking he had a large force and forced the fort's surrender. The northwest was American.

To George Rogers Clark, portrayed in a photo in an old print, the marble memorial shown above is soon to be dedicated at Vincennes, Ind. Situated in a beautifully landscaped park on the site of old Ft. Sackville. The memorial is to be dedicated by President Roosevelt.

It is on this very site of old Fort Sackville that the president of the United States will add his tribute to those of the people of the northwest, expressed in marble and canvas and a peaceful park.

SHOPPERS' PARADISE Panama City was reached by train just after the Fleet had come in. This city is a mecca for shoppers with its linens, perfumes, and embroideries...

Cristobal, to which part of the group, including Mrs. Abell, returned by plane, is another Paradise for bargain seekers. In the shops which are designated only by numbers and exist on tourist trade, magnificent linens and Chinese-made goods may be purchased at rates that are "dirt cheap."

Port Limon was the next stop and from the sea coast the party went by United Fruit company train to San Jose, capital of the little republic, lying in the interior.

It was at San Jose that Mrs. Abell declared she "had a rabbit's foot" in her pocket. She and Mrs. Taylor had gone into a store to do some shopping when a street car jumped the track and tried to follow them in.

Perhaps because the original Kingston was once destroyed by the buccaner Sir Henry Morgan, Mrs. Abell said the inhabitants are

Winners In Essay Contest Announced

DALLAS, Texas.—Names of the sixteen winners in the four divisions of the Walter Woodul Historical Essay contest, conducted in recent months by the School Department for Texas Centennial Celebrations, have been announced by Elithe Hamilton Beal, director.

Cash prizes totaling $1,500 were contributed by Walter Woodul, Lieutenant governor of Texas. The contest was promoted in four divisions—rural elementary schools, rural high schools, independent district elementary schools, and independent district elementary high schools.

The winners are as follows: First prize of $200—Miss Betty Ruth Kirkpatrick of Mason, Miss Claudine Brown of Mexia, Miss Marguerite Day of Dallas, and Lewis Youngs of Navasota.

Second prizes of $100—Miss Elizabeth Smither of Huntsville, Miss Claudia Mae Hotz of Thomaston, J. E. Archer of Anson, and Miss Annie Lee Borden of Wharton.

Third prize of $50—Miss Erieta Flowers of Nacogdoches, Menard Preston of Vigo Park, Tex Thornhill, Jr., of Brenham, and Miss Katherine Louise Allyn of Brownsville.

Fourth prizes of $25—Miss Merna Boales of Bandera, Miss Fae Marie Thomas of Onalaska, Miss Viola Beth Hearn of San Angelo, and Miss Orion Smith of McCamey.

Judges for the contest, named by Woodul, were Dr. J. L. Clark of Huntsville, L. W. Kemp of Houston, and Miss Katherine Henderson of Kingsville.

Club Girl Has Two Gardens

"I have two gardens—a house garden and a field garden," said Lottie Mae Bryant, garden demonstrator of the Prairie Lee 4-H club. "My house garden is 66 feet wide and 90 feet long. In it I have planted and growing eight varieties of vegetables. I have used two tubs for herbs and have tomato plants about ready for transplanting."

"My field garden rows are 630 feet long and the necessary width to take care of any vegetable planted. This garden is used for watermelons, cantaloupes, beans, peas, corn, peanuts, pumpkins, and popcorn."

Museum Needs More Show Cases

Show cases and china closets are needed by the county museum. Miss Margaret Foster, county librarian, announces that citizens having such articles which they are not using may save the price of storage by permitting the museum to use them. If the price is sufficiently low, cases or closets will also be purchased if suited to museum needs.

The family ox carts seem to be the most distinctive form of art among the Costa Ricans. These carts are decorated with each family's individual design which is handed down from generation to generation.

Costa Rica even has a chamber of commerce—or the tropical equivalent to it—which has been organized by Alfredo Sasso, who is a person of varied activities. The country has a splendid national theatre—but the peons labor on the banana plantations for about 35 cents a day and poverty is rampant.

Feminism or a similar movement has touched the little country whose population is about that of the city of New York for one Spanish woman, a native Costa Rican, is now a lawyer.

ARMY GOES TO CHURCH Probably most curious to the visitors is the Costa Rican paradox of an army that goes to church regularly! It is compulsory that the military force attend services each Sunday. The priest in charge only prays, he does not preach, however, and the remainder of the service consists of music by the military band.

To the vast regret of the president, the clubwomen could not stay to attend his inaugural ball. They returned to the United States by way of Havana and Miami, Florida, the Texans presented the Florida governor with a ten-gallon hat.

Among others who made the trip with Mrs. Abell and Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. Wiley, wife of the man who secured passage of the Pure Food Act, and an interesting character in her own right. She is a feminist and in the days of the struggle for suffrage, she was one of several who were pickets and who went on a hunger strike and were jailed to be released five days later by President Wilson.

Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, national president of Federated clubs, was another member of the group. Mrs. Lawson is from Oklahoma. Pleasures, comedy, and excitement were mingled in the month's journey by train, ship, and plane and Mrs. Abell, sitting in her home here surrounded by mementoes of the trip, seems to look back with equal enjoyment on the dramatic and the laughable incidents of the varied travels under Southern stars.

FEMININE FANCIES BY KATHLEEN EILAND

A Midland store is displaying an interesting and attractive series of Centennial fabrics these days. Chiffonese, a washable Celanese fabric, is shown in a Centennial pattern of white stars on a blue ground and blue stars on a white ground.

The same material carries two bluebonnet designs and may be had in two cactus designs, one stressing green as the dominant color, and the other yellow.

Large flowered designs on soft colored grounds blend softly in prints that make one long for patterns of fluffy afternoon dresses. These are also chiffonese.

Other attractive designs are copied from famous paintings and have a touch that makes them stand out from among mere prints.

Most appealing to us of all the Centennial novelties seen or heard about are the University of Texas dinner plates now being offered for sale.

These plates are made by Wedgwood in England, are designed by University artists, and are sponsored by the Ex-students association.

Bluebonnets, Longhorns, cacti, barbed wire fences, and lariat mangle in an ornamental border about the reproduction of a campus building in the center of each plate.

Of the 12 buildings pictured, four are of the older University, the beloved Main Building, Brackenridge Hall, "B Hall," of hazing fame, the Law Building, and the Old Library.

Made in bluebonnet blue, rose pink or mulberry, a set of these plates, it seems to us, is an ideal thing to be handed down to coming generations as heirlooms of beauty and sentiment.

Because of the general flat condition of our purse, we regret that nothing is said about the purchase of single plates.

But that is always the way. We see something especially desirable and instantly become enthusiastic. Then we glimpse the price tag—and though our desire may not fade, our dream of owning the coveted article usually does.

Letters to the Editor

Editor's Note: The following is a copy of a letter sent to Joe Galbraith of the Big Spring Herald by Congressman Mahon.

Our mutual friend, Congressman R. E. Thomsen of El Paso, has called to my attention a news item contained in an issue of the daily paper at Midland some time this week. As I have it, a letter from Senator Connally to Mrs. Susie Noble, County Clerk of Midland, is quoted in the Midland paper. Senator Connally is quoted as saying that I have introduced a bill providing for the construction of a veterans' hospital at Midland. This, of course, is a mistake and Senator Connally is writing to Mrs. Noble a statement of the true situation.

I, of course, get the Herald but I do not have the opportunity of looking over it carefully each day. Perhaps this item has not come to your attention. I do not care for any publicity with reference to this error, but I would not like the people of Big Spring and my Congressional District to think me foolish enough to introduce a bill providing for a veterans' hospital outside of my Congressional District and in the District of a colleague.

The truth is that I introduced a bill on February 3, 1936, providing for a veterans' hospital in West Texas. No particular location insofar as towns are concerned is specified. I am sending you a copy of my bill. The Board of Hospitalization of the Veterans Administration determines the location of hospitals for veterans and they have already vetoed the idea of a veterans' hospital for West Texas at this time. I introduced my bill at the request of representative Veterans of the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19, and 21st, Congressional Districts. All West Texas Members of Congress are cooperating in an effort to get a veterans' hospital for West Texas at some future time.

Best wishes to all.

Yours sincerely, George Mahon.

Big Spring Chooses "Follies" Sponsor

Miss Edith Dow Cordill, representing the firm of Cunningham & Phillips, was chosen as Big Spring's "Frontier Follies" representative at a contest held in that city Wednesday afternoon, according to information received by The Reporter-Telegram this morning.

Mrs. Sallie Covington, secretary of the Midland chamber of commerce, was one of the judges in the contest.

Wife Selling, Marrying Under Age Girls And Beating Spouses Causes Soviet Grief

MOSCOW, May 26 (U.P.)—The soviet government has found it difficult to stamp out ancient tribal customs relating to the purchase of wives, marriage of under age girls and beating of wives in the Caucasian territory of Daghestan and in the middle-Asian areas of Uzbekistan and Tajikistan.

The struggle against such customs and "crimes against the dignity of women" gains new emphasis with a report on the situation by Alexander Khazkevitch, commissar of nationalities.

Reporting that such crimes had increased greatly recently, Khazkevitch said: "The tremendous growth of socialist industry in the national republics and the development of the collective farms turned the eastern working woman into an active participant in socialist construction. However, it is necessary to point out that the cultural and educational work among women is insufficiently developed.

Feudal Relations Charged
"There are cases, not isolated, in exceptional, of under age marriages, forced marriages, murders on account of patriarchal and feudal relations toward woman.

"There are cases, not isolated, in which soviet governmental bodies tolerated and even assisted the crimes."
The government organ Izvestia commented:

"Public opinion of Daghestan was astounded by a murder in the village of Merkrath. A kolkhoz (collective farm) member tortured and killed his wife only because she took part in social work. He was sentenced by the supreme court but such is not always the case. Courts are not always so severe in Daghestan when the protection of women's rights is involved.

"In the Uzbek republic a judge himself committed a crime against womanhood and disappeared. Judges and investigating organizations often show incredible liberalism to defendants who are charged with offending the rights of women in one way or another. No wonder that the number of such crimes is large.

Wife Purchases Given
"In the one Kasumkentsky region of Daghestan alone in the course of one month 25 cases of violation of soviet laws for the protection of women, beating of wives, under age marriages, and purchase of wives

Ford Says Progress On Cars Just Started

A quarter of a century from now, says Henry Ford in an interview with S. J. Woolf in the June Rotarian Magazine. People look back at these times in much the same way as we now do at the stage-coach era of the world's development.

However, he explains that while improvements are taking place and new things are being created, it does not follow that old things must be abandoned, if there is any good in them.

"Aviation," says Mr. Ford, "will not come into its own until the automobile has been absolutely perfected. But there is much to be done in automobiles. Give us a few years more, and the automobile will be improved and refined beyond all present imagination. Motor-car manufacturing is still a new industry. There will be changes for the better in almost every part of the car.

"All our machinery will be lighter and better. This is true not only of automobile machinery but of machinery in general. Almost every mechanism today is unnecessarily overburdened with weight—due to a system of interlocking directorates; manufacturers have been only selling materials. Instead of also studying their best use.

"No one can speak of the future," he continued, "without taking into thoughtful consideration just what the last few years have seen in the increased employment of agricultural products in manufacturing. We grow much of an automobile now; it is not beyond possibility that eventually we shall grow most or all of it.

"Shorter hours and higher wages are inevitable," Mr. Ford predicts. "We cannot escape them. If we go on making things, we must have money to buy them and leisure to use them. They will result from economies, improvements, and refinements of manufacturing methods which in turn result from the incessant labor and creative experiences of management.

"We shall find out that no social advance can be introduced into industry by law; it will come because it is right, and what is right will support itself. We shall have shorter hours because work will be plentiful and production ample, not in order to spread work but to enable men to enjoy and use the things they make.

"As far as competition is concerned, that must continue. But we must learn what competition really is. It is a striving to attain the best. To throttle it would mean to stop all progress.

Diamond Trade Improving

CAPE TOWN, (U.P.)—Continued improvement in the diamond trade has led to the belief that Kimberley will resume full production this year. The Dutoitspan Diamond Mine is being re-opened and possibly will start production on a normal scale soon. Another Kimberley diamond mine will be ready for re-opening before 1937.

Helium is one substance that has never been frozen.

were reported. Such cases are frequent not only in Daghestan but in all other national republics and districts of the East, where tribal customs are still strong and the struggle for revolutionary legislation still weak.

"A general vice in all Eastern republics is the 'kalim' or custom of purchasing wives. The struggle against 'Kalim' is difficult because criminals often use complicated methods to purchase or sell brides. Price From $1,000 Upward

"Brides are sold for from 5,000 to 8,000 rubles ($1,000 to $1,600) in Tajikistan and the custom is practiced in almost all regions of that republic.

"There are many cases of the purchase of girls in the Uzbekistan republic, where many so-called officials, party and soviet, were found themselves to be guilty of various crimes in respect to women."

To combat the "criminal attitude toward women from class hostile and backward elements," the presidium of the central executive committee empowered a special commission after hearing Khazkevitch's report.

Retail Sales Show Business Improving

Retail sales in the Gulf South-west as reflected by reports from 913 independent stores in Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, reporting to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce Department, in cooperation with the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas, according to preliminary estimates, increased about 13 percent in dollar volume for April 1936 as compared with April 1935. This report which covers the larger independent stores with the exception of department stores, represents 21 kinds of business, 9 of which, due to an insufficient number of reports, are included in miscellaneous or group totals.

The greatest increase was shown for New Mexico where reported sales for 55 stores were 17 percent above April a year ago. The sales of 644 Texas merchants showed a 13 percent increase and 214 in Oklahoma recorded a gain of about 11 percent.

Without adjustment for seasonal influences, April sales for the 3 states showed a decrease of about 2 percent from March 1936. There were a like number of working days in both months.

Radio Hero, Jimmie Allen, Now in Film

Jimmie Allen, hero of "The Air Adventures of Jimmie Allen," most popular radio serial on the ether waves, has been brought to the screen, and in his first picture, "Sky Parade," which shows Friday and Saturday at the Yucca, Jimmie adds new laurels to the fame which his radio performances have earned.

"The Sky Parade" is the full thrilling story of a man's conquest of the air; of the transformation of flying from the early stages of daredevil stunts into the safe, sure, dependable force which it has now become.

The film goes back to the days immediately following the war, with the realization of a group of wartime flyers that if this great new world of air travel is ever to be made useful, it must be changed from a side show performance into something solid and steady. "The Sky Parade" carries on through historic moments in aviation, leading through the development of every improvement in aircraft, to arrive at the safe, dependability, which marks it today. Others in the cast include William Gorgan, Katherine DeMille and Kent Taylor.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys
Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking acids and wastes out of the blood. A healthy person should pass about 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, waste stays in the body and may become poisonous. It may start nagging backaches, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't let it lay you up.

Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

Bombs for Sharks Urged

SANTA CRUZ, Cal. (U.P.)—City authorities are considering a suggestion that aviation be utilized for ridding Monterey Bay of sharks by having airplanes drop depth bombs on the infested regions. The presence of the sharks is keeping the salmon fishers from taking their usual annual haul.

Electrification In Rural Districts Is Aided By 4-H Clubs

4-H boys and girls are to play an important part in the nationwide rural electrification movement now under way which is expected to bring the number of farms in the United States served by electrical energy to one million or more by the end of the year.

Through the aid of an educational program originated by the National 4-H Committee and conducted in cooperation with extension agents 4-H members will make surveys of farms and communities which will provide data valuable in building high lines and in making the most efficient use of electrical power.

In addition to the value of the data which 4-H members will gather, they are offered special inducements to participate by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, as sponsor of this program, in the form of college scholarships and many other prizes. The scholarships are for $400, $300, and $200 to be awarded to the three club members in the nation who make the best reports as judged by a committee of club leaders. Eight trips are provided for sectional winners to the National Club Congress to be held in Chicago November 28-December 5, and substantial prizes are listed for state and county champions.

The work of the boys and girls will tie in with that of the agricultural colleges, farm groups, power interests, and the federal rural electrification administration which is making loans at three per cent on a twenty year amortization basis to farm groups to build rural lines.

At least three-fourths of the one million enrolled 4-H members should have no difficulty in carrying this program through to completion. It has been approved by the State Club Leader and rules may be obtained of county extension agents.

The daily double, won by four backers of Participate and Margaret Malone, paid off the fifty sum of $173.40.

The track was lightning fast at the opening races and several existing track records were threatened but a terrific downpour shortly after the fifth race left the oval a quagmire and made the going difficult for horses in the last three contests.

The Pecos Rodeo Purse, feature of the day, sixth race, was won by McGonigle, odds-on favorite in the driving rain. The 10-year old gelding of the Ramsey stable stood calm at the barrier despite the actions of Scimitar, placed next to him, who several times broke the barrier, and when the race started McGonigle broke with the field and ran second for the first three-quarters before taking the lead. After once taking over first place he maintained the lead until the end, finishing a length ahead of Fast Break, early pace setter, who barely nosed out Holster.

Included in the exhibit will be tomato juice from the Jacksonville section, citrus marmalade from the Rio Grande Valley, cured beef and pork products from the Lubbock area, canned rhubarb, asparagus and cherries from the high plains around Amarillo, onions from the Winter Garden section, sweet potatoes from deep east Texas, strawberries and fig preserves from the coast country. Dallas county will supply pickles and relishes and there will be peaches, pears, grapes and berries; apricots, plums and cherries, carrots, pumpkins, a sweet potato, lima beans, English peas, greens, squash and okra—all from central and east and west Texas.

There also will be canned sausage, pork tenderloin, chicken, and mince meat and country cured hams and bacon.

Needs of a typical family, as will be shown in the exhibit, require the production from 2422 row feet of vegetables in the garden of 4,785 feet of vegetables in the field, from one acre of fruit trees, from two dairy cows, one beef animal, two hogs, 50 laying hens, and necessary feed crop acreage.
