Streams on Rampage Over Vast Area After Rains

RECOVER BODIES

3 Members of Family Discovered By A Search Party

SAN ANTONIO, July 1 (AP)—Twelve persons are dead and six others tumbled to an almost certain death down the Guadalupe river today as cloudbursts sent rivers and creeks rampaging over a wide area of south Texas.

Gonzales, San Marcos and Lockhart areas suffered the heaviest loss of life and property. Of the nine Mexicans swept away in their house on the banks of the Guadalupe, near Kyle, only three bodies have been recovered.

Two were killed when a Missouri-Pacific train plunged through a washed out, Guadalupe bridge. Three Mexicans and three negroes were drowned in Plum creek between Kyle and Umland.

Gonzales, after a ten inch rain during the night reported a torrential rainfall today. One section of the city is inundated. Cattlemen estimated that hundreds of head had been lost in the lowlands.

A 12.15 inch rainfall at Rockdale sent water into the city.

RECORD PRECIPITATIONS FALLS OVER WIDE AREA

Heavy rains continued to fall in South and Central Texas Tuesday as residents along the Rio Grande were given assurance no disastrous floods were due from that large stream.

Heaviest precipitation was reported from Fredericksburg, near San Antonio. There 5.99 inches pelted lands long dry. The downpour was considered of inestimable benefit to corn and other maize crops in that section.

Hard showers in the southern and southwest portions of Gillespie brought a total of nine inches of rain since Monday night. Ranches were flooded as creeks went bank-full.

The Fredericksburg and Northern railway was out near Grapetown, cutting service into Fredericksburg. The Fredericks creek, Barrons creek and Grape creek, which had reached flood stages, were reported receding Tuesday night.

Across from Eagle Pass on the Mexican border, Private Benjamin A. Castro of the Mexican army drowned. His body was found as flood water receded from the residential district of Piedras Negras, Mex.

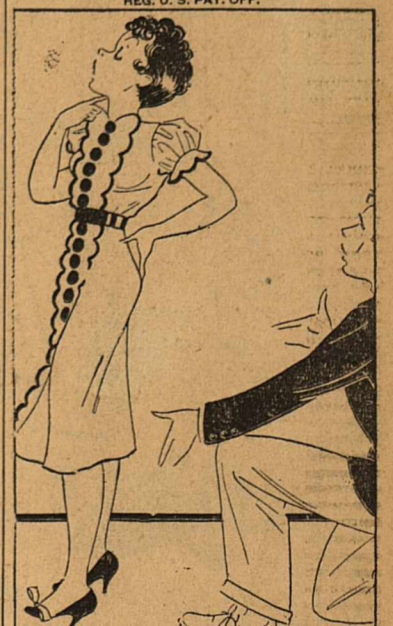

He had been stationed to watch for marooned families as the army went to the aid of peons whose adobe homes crumbled under the driving 16-inch rains.

Downstream at Laredo, the rains had ceased. The Rio Grande reached a stage of 18.6 feet and was expected to go to its 20 foot crest.

FIVE KILLED, 24 IN WRECK INJURED

NATURA LEBRIDGE, Va. July 1 (AP)—Five persons were killed and 24 injured today in a crash of a passenger bus above the 215 foot gorge of the famous bridge during a storm. The bus rolled over and came to rest against a signboard on the edge of a precipice.

Million and Half Is Loaned Out by The Institutions

Bank deposits here soared past the two and a half million mark at the close of business June 30, reports this morning showed.

At both institutions, the deposits exceeded the totals of any previous time at which a call was made by the comptroller of currency. The total for the two banks was $2,594,409.78. Loans for the two institutions totalled $1,402,852.67. Total cash resources for the two was $1,466,418.01.

At both institutions, optimism prevailed over financial conditions of the various industries providing revenue for the city and its business interests.

By banks, the reports shows the following:

First National
Deposits	$1,573,693.42
Loans & disc.	942,255.30
Total cash	814,677.96
Midland National

OLD-AGE PENSION CHECKS SENT OUT TO STATE'S AGED

Pensioners Here To Get Payments Tomorrow

AUSTIN, July 1 (AP)—A large staff of employees of the old age assistance commission worked far into the night to get checks in the mails to 40,099 needy Texans over 65 years old.

The checks, the first old age pension payment ever made in Texas, aggregated $641,645 for an average of $16.

Orville S. Carpenter, state pension director, estimated that most of the pensioners would receive their warrants today and that all of the checks would reach their destinations by Thursday. The checks were mailed directly to the pensioners and the old people may cash them at local banks immediately after they are received.

The state treasury has received a check from the federal government to cover half of the pension payments for July and August. The state will supply the other half out of liquor tax revenues.

Carpenter said he had not yet decided when additional checks would be mailed. He said they might be sent out as additional applications are approved or might be held up until the next monthly payment.

The investigation of applicants still was far from complete. Carpenter estimated that a total of more than 65,000 Texans would be found eligible for aid when the work was finished. He said investigations were proceeding much more rapidly and probably would be completed by the middle of August. All those placed on the rolls will receive payments retroactive to July 1.

The first pension checks are expected to arrive here tonight, post-office employees said today.

STATE IS RULED LIABLE IN SUIT

Overflow Damages From Road Construction Is Fault Of State

AUSTIN, July 1 (AP)—The third court of civil appeals today held the state liable for overflow damages to property by reason of highway construction. It was considered the first holding on a point by an appellate court.

Curtis Hill, assistant attorney general, said that the ruling would affect a large number of suits that the legislature had authorized against the state involving the same point. He said that the department would prosecute an appeal to the supreme court.

In striking contrast to the American tear gas and "hille" method of subduing unruly strikers, helmeted Belgian police are pictured above as they awed two demonstrators into submission with cold menacing steel sabers, and drove them to jail at Verviers, Belgium. Scenes such as this were common throughout the country during the nation-wide strike.

ALLRED OPENS RE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN WITH DEFENSE OF RECORD IN OFFICE

Says Character of Campaign of Others Is Laughable Rather Than Lamentable

He chided political foes for the "character of the campaign against me, which would be lamentable if it were not in some respects laughable," and then stood up in serious vein for the old age assistance he fostered.

"I don't know but what the people ought to be grateful to my opponents for discovering a brand new issue in Texas politics, an issue so refreshing and so earnestly discussed that it must have afforded a great deal of entertainment for many weary audiences. I refer, of course, to the vital issue of ribbon cutting."

He admitted attending one "ribbon cutting" at a bridge near Wichita Falls and confessed he didn't know what to do, "until I remembered seeing newspaper pictures of the president in a similar position and I reached out and snapped the ribbon."

LIBERTY LEAGUE ATTACKS SPEECH GIVEN BY FARLEY

'False' Language Is Claim of The Group

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—The executive committee of the American Liberty League Tuesday issued a statement charging Postmaster General James A. Farley with "false and defamatory language" against the league.

The statement was issued after a meeting of the executive committee which was attended by former Governor Alfred E. Smith, Irene Du Pont, Jouett Shouse, president of the league, and Capt. W. H. Stanton, the secretary.

Farley was charged specifically in the committee's statement with having said in a speech at the Philadelphia democratic national convention:

"Behind the republican ticket is the crew of the Du Pont Liberty League and their allies, which have so far, financed every undercover agency that has disgraced American politics with their appeals to race prejudice, religious intolerance and personalities so gross that they had to be repudiated by the regular republican organization. They will continue to disown these snaky assaults—and to seek to profit by them."

The committee said the league "challenges Mr. Farley to produce concrete evidence in support of his statement."

Renews Pledge That Country to Help Rebuild League

GENEVA, July 1 (AP)—Sir Anthony Eden told the League of Nations assembly today that Britain should not recognize Italy's conquest of Ethiopia, and declared that only military action would succeed in changing the present situation, but in "the present world conditions, this is not to be considered a possibility."

Eden recommended a continuance of the mutual assistance pacts in the Mediterranean. He pledged premier Leon Blum of France full cooperation of Great Britain in "rebuilding the authority of the League."

ITALY PROTESTS ARREST OF 8 NEWSPAPERMEN

ROME, July 1 (AP)—The Italian government today ordered a protest to Switzerland against the arrest at Geneva yesterday of eight Italian newspapermen who hissed Haile Selassie, deposed emperor of Ethiopia, in the League of Nations assembly.

NEW GAINES POOL OPENER SWABBING 5 BARRELS HOUR

24-Hour Test on Well Concluded at 3 Today

By FRANK GARDNER
Oil production of 5 barrels an hour on swab was being made last night by Landreth Production company No. 1 Kirk, the first producer ever drilled in Gaines county. After running 3,000 gallons of acid yesterday morning, the well was swabbed all day until the acid water and 65-barrel oil load was recovered, finally being turned into tank at 3 p. m. The 24-hour test will not be completed until 3 o'clock this afternoon, but it was thought probable that the well would hold to its average of 5 barrels hourly. Gas was increased by the second acid treatment, now being in excess of 500,000 cubic feet.

It is rumored that the Landreth discovery will not be drilled deeper, but will be completed at its present total depth of 4,620. Other tests are expected to start soon in the new area since many companies hold acreage in the vicinity. The failure of the No. 1 Kirk to develop larger production than 5 barrels an hour from the long series of saturated streaks is believed primarily due to the hardness of the lime section and its lack of good porosity and permeability. The initial acid treatment of 1,000 gallons did not greatly increase the 3 barrels an hour on swab natural production. Location of the prospective pool opener is in the southwest corner of section 22, block A-21, public school land.

Now that the interest in the Landreth test has cooled somewhat, attention has turned to another Gaines wildcat, Humble Oil and Refining company No. 1 C. H. Eubank, eight miles to the northwest. The No. 1 See (OIL NEWS) Page 6

Setting of Rare Beauty for Landons' Vacation

A magnificent view was that spread before Gov. Alf M. Landon and his daughter, Peggy Anne, as they sat on the balcony of an Estes Park, Colo., hotel and gazed out over the village, with forested clade peaks stretching off into the distance, etched against the background of fleecy clouds. The village is the "shopping center" for the Landons while they vacation on the McGraw ranch, five miles away.

Rotarians Picnic Held for Members At Cloverdale Park

Delaying the feeding of a crowd of 130, which attended the annual Rotary picnic, only long enough to whet appetites to a keen edge, barbecued chickens and steaks were devoured enthusiastically Tuesday evening at Cloverdale. In the party were members of the Rotary club, their wives and children and a number of guests.

Tom Sealy, program chairman, introduced W. I. Pratt, founder of the club, who presented the past president's pin to Elliott H. Barron whose term of office expired last night. Sealy then introduced the club's new officers, W. R. Upham, president; Barron, who becomes vice-president, and Pratt, secretary and treasurer.

Winston F. Borum led the crowd in a series of songs, the group sitting around the bank of the Cloverdale reservoir in outdoor theatre arrangement.

Following this, the barbecued chickens, prepared at a downtown place, were rushed to the scene and the big "feed" was under way. Side dishes included potato salad, pickles and onions, bread, iced lemonade and ice cream cows.

NOT TO DISMISS CONTEMPT CASE ON TOWNSEND. 2

Grand Jury Will Get Charges at Fall Term of Court

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Contempt citations voted by the house a month ago against Dr. F. E. Townsend and two aides will not be submitted to the federal grand jury until next fall, it was announced today.

Leslie C. Garnett, United States district attorney, emphasized that he has no intention of dropping the action.

Rev. Clinton Wunder and John Keifer were the members of the pension organization board cited.

Lackey, Wimberly Take Scouts to Camp
W. Clinton Lackey and Wallace Wimberly took eleven Midland boy scouts to Barksdale yesterday, to attend the summer camp for a week. Wimberly remained there while Lackey returned last night. He reported the camp admirably located and equipped and declared that the boys are having a wonderful experience.

Man Is Hunted After Wife Admits His Guilt

OGDEN, Utah, July 1 (AP)—Mrs. Emma Scott Rose, 82, died today, making 3 dead in the pick-handle murder case. Besides Mrs. Rose, her daughter Mabel Scott Snyder, 62, and her son in law, Adam Snyder, 62, were bludgeoned to death yesterday.

The search for George Mortensen, son in law of the Snyders, centered in Salt Lake City, with reliable reports that he had been seen there. A complaint charging Mortensen, 37, cosmetic salesman, was filed after his wife, Grace, herself, beaten, sobbed to police "he did it."

Adam S. Snyder, Jr., said that he wouldn't be surprised if Mortensen had killed himself as the man hunt extended up and down the verdant valley along Great Salt Lake.

A taxi driver, Farrell Rushton, supplied the first clue in the search for Mortensen. Rushton said he picked up a wildly excited man and let him out near a railroad.

This was an hour after Betty Becker, eight-year-old deaf mute daughter of Mrs. Mortensen by a former marriage and the only one of the household to escape the slayer, ran into a neighborhood grocery near the Snyder bungalow. A clerk called police.

Walter Faye Cowden To Be 'Miss Midland'

For the second time Miss Walter Faye Cowden will be "Miss Midland" at the Stamford Cowboy Reunion. Last year she won fourth place in the competition. This year Miss Cowden will compete against forty representatives of other towns.

There will be a dance and a barbecue for the sponsors and their escorts.

Counterfeit Bill Warnings Issued

Information regarding passing of a revamped counterfeit $20 bill over the United States has been received at the sheriff's office here from the Secret Service department in Washington. The latest counterfeit to come under the eyes of the department is declared to undoubtedly be from the same plates used to produce the counterfeit $20 federal reserve note on the federal reserve bank of Richmond, Virginia, as described in an earlier warning.

Another Entry for Beauty Pageant at Big Spring Enters

The list of Midland girls entered in the beauty pageant at the Big Spring sports and water carnival was increased to 11 today with the entry of Miss Ann Wesson.

Rules for entering the pageant were received today. All contestants must have filed their entries with the chamber of commerce by tomorrow. Dressing and lounging rooms have been reserved at the Settles, Crawford and Douglas hotels for the contestants.

The contestants will appear in bathing suits at the swimming pool at seven p. m. and be judged. The beauty revue will be held at 7:30. The girls will be guests of a buffet luncheon at 12:30 Saturday at the Settles hotel.

Little Joy Diane Debnam, daughter of county agent S. A. Debnam and wife will compete in the junior bathing revue for the title "Miss West Texas of Tomorrow."

This event is open to children from three to ten years of age. Anyone desiring to enter their children are urged to notify the chamber of commerce today.

DOZEN MORE CARS WILL GO TO PECOS

Room Available to Any Persons Desiring To Make Trip

A dozen additional automobiles had been added today to the list to be in the motorcade to the Pecos rodeo Friday. Newest cars on the list were to be furnished by Elder Chevrolet Co., Frank Adams, Roy Holloway, Grady Bell, J. B. Ford, Bill Bryant, Roy McKee, John P. Howe, W. W. Lackey, Buddy's Flowers, W. Clinton Lackey, and A. C. Francis, Scharbauer Coffee Shop, H. E. Lewellen and Ralph Geisler, My Bakery, Midland Bottling Works.

R. D. Scruggs is marshal of the motorcade which is sponsored by the chamber of commerce. It was announced today that several seats are available for those who do not have cars and who want to make the trip. It was hoped that 100 Midland citizens will be in the party.

The Pecos rodeo, starting Friday, continues through Sunday. Midland cars will assemble at west side of the court house square at 9:30 a. m. Friday, starting westward at exactly 10 o'clock.

Leave For Vacation Trip To West Coast

W. M. Pyle and wife left last night for Los Angeles, on a vacation trip. After spending a few days at California points, they will take a boat to Honolulu, spending two weeks there. Pyle is manager and active partner in the Mabee & Pyle ranch interests here.

HOUSING SHORTAGE STILL ACUTE

That the shortage of houses, apartments and rooms in Midland still exists should be regarded as good news, rather than bad. However, as long as too little is being done about the shortage, the city faces the possibility of having plenty of living accommodations in the future.

In other words, to provide sufficient accommodations now means that hundreds of new families will locate here, most of them permanently. To permit these families to locate elsewhere, just because they cannot find houses at Midland, may mean that some other town will become the metropolis and houses will be emptied in Midland.

The old belief that high rents and shortage of houses will correct themselves through the law of demand does not always work. To assure a continuation of demand for houses, more houses should be provided now for the many prospective citizens seeking to locate here. Those citizens bring others and the demand continues for living accommodations. Meanwhile Midland becomes a larger city.

Although there is considerable capital to be invested in rent property, the most permanent method of relieving the housing shortage and of building the city is for those who now are paying rent, and who plan to continue living here, to build homes of their own.

A financial agency, built through local capital with federal aid, is ready to lend money for home construction here. Before paying more rent, investigate the better route, home ownership.

WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, July 1—The democratic party met officially to renominate Roosevelt and Garner, but unofficially it nominated four or five dozen candidates for 1940.

Offhand, your correspondent would say that the nomination of four years hence was a more popular topic of conversation at Philadelphia than the party's prospects of beating Landon, the platform, or the question as to who would buy the next drink.

Some of this heavy discussion was inspired by the administration's insistence that the party abrogate its old two-thirds rule. It was commonly conceded that Roosevelt would in all probability be able to name the next party nominee if only a majority were required to nominate.

It was even suggested by some democratic anti-New Dealers here that Roosevelt wanted the rule out of the way so that he might more easily encompass his own nomination for a third term.

The large preponderance of democratic governors and senators proved a luxurious clover field for the Presidential bee, although cabinet members and other big shot New Dealers were being considered.

Some of the talk presumably was being promoted by the "possibilities" themselves and there were wistful hints on the faces of many for a big moment—especially during the nomination speeches.

Washington correspondents gasped a bit when the Connecticut boys and girls suddenly yanked out banners ballyhooing Attorney General Homer Cummings and describing him as the savior of home and family and head of the G-Men who had wiped out all those kidnapers and other gangsters.

Jesse Jones in Forefront Chairman Jesse Jones of RFC was very much in evidence and looked the perfect picture of a would-be 1940 candidate. Certain persons were around sounding out sentiment and planting the Jones idea in as many heads as possible.

Speculation as to the man Roosevelt would like to succeed him, assuming he spends the next four years in the White House, was plentiful but futile. Nobody suspected the lucky man would be Jones or Cummings.

The names of Secretary Henry Wallace, Secretary Harold Ickes, and WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins were mentioned, arousing no enthusiasm whatever among practical politicians.

Governor George H. Earle of Pennsylvania led the governors in the 1940 doping. His speech went over well, his personal magnetism and good voice appealing to many delegates.

One heard a lot about him simply because he was on his home grounds. But he is the first democratic governor of Pennsylvania since the Civil War and must be seriously counted on if he manfully carries the state for Roosevelt.

Among senatorial possibilities, Bob Wagner, of New York, would have stood out conspicuously—if he had not been born in Germany. Senator Bennett Champ Clark, of Missouri, was widely discussed and appealed to many delegates as a man of force and ability.

When he was 18 he joined the Union army as a drummer boy, and in 1865 was honorably discharged. Later he fought Indians on the western frontier. Clark, national drum major of the Grand Army of the Republic, now lives here with his 70-year-old brother, Edward.

Move Tall Spire, 'Shrink' Church

In a project so hazardous that only Lloyd's, of England, would underwrite it, this 183-foot, 3,500,000-pound steeple of the Central Methodist church, in the heart of downtown Detroit, is to be moved 26 feet to the main body of the church, to make way for street widening. As shown above, a segment has been cut from the edifice so that the church could be "shrunk."

All fathers and mothers want their children to succeed and as long as they can, mothers and fathers the country over sacrifice and plan to give their boys and girls every advantage, every opportunity, for they want them to have a start which they too often were denied.

"We want to send Jim to college if we can afford it," they say. "We plan to give Mary special training in music if we have the money when she has finished high school."

But why should an IF threaten these dreams? A PRAETORIAN EDUCATIONAL POLICY can erase that IF and permit mothers and fathers to say positively: "MY CHILDREN ARE GOING TO COLLEGE." velt this year or, failing that, gets himself elected to the senate in 1938.

A former American Legion national commander, McNutt definitely has his eye on 1940 and even sought the vice presidential nomination this year until Roosevelt made clear his insistence on Garner.

Governor Herbert Lehman of New York, was the darling of the convention and usually a New York governor is automatically a presidential possibility. But no major party is likely to nominate a Jewish candidate. The same reasoning applies to Governor Henry Horner of Illinois.

Among senatorial possibilities, Bob Wagner, of New York, would have stood out conspicuously—if he had not been born in Germany. Senator Bennett Champ Clark, of Missouri, was widely discussed and appealed to many delegates as a man of force and ability.

Barkley Gets a Look The keynote is always closely inspected, and Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky stood the inspection well. A former railroad worker, he is vigorous, regular and somewhat liberal.

Some spoke also of Senator Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio and many looked twice at Senator Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming, a keen and effective young fellow who had much to do with framing the platform and whose bill for a national corporation license law may be an important issue.

On the radical fringe of the party you could hear suggestions that Roosevelt would move the New Deal more and more to the left and that in four years such men as Senators Wheeler of Montana and La Follette of Wisconsin and President John Lewis of the United Mine Workers might seriously be considered as democratic possibilities.

Belmont Contest Winners Honored

Losers in a recent contest held by the Belmont Bible class entertained the winners with a breakfast at Cloverdale Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Herbert King was leader for the host group and Mrs. J. B. Crawford for the honorees.

Various games furnished recreation for the party.

Twenty children were also present.

Rare Oriental Art Gift Is Presented University

NORMAN, Okla. (U.P.)—The University of Oklahoma has come into possession of what its officials term one of the most valuable collections of Oriental art in America.

It was given to the school by Gordon Matzense, the collector, with co-operation of Lew Wentz, Ponca City oil man and philanthropist.

The collection comprises more than 250 pieces assembled by Matzense during travels in the Orient over a period of many years. It is valued at $250,000.

It includes 50 rare Chinese paintings from the Sung dynasty in 900 A. D. to the Ching dynasty in 1700. There are ancient Chinese statues in bronze and porcelain and objects carved in jade, malachite and other semi-precious stones.

Of course there's nothing like a plate of hot soup to cool one off, but you can't make a mistake with a tomato juice frappe, either.

Tomato Juice Frappe

Two cans of your favorite brand of tomato juice, 2 lemons, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 2 lemons, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 1-4 teaspoon onion pepper, 4 teaspoons sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 drops tabasco sauce.

Open tomato juice and turn in to a pitcher. Add remaining ingredients, stirring until sugar and salt and other seasonings are thoroughly dissolved. Pour into freezing trays and freeze until mushy. Serve in glasses with a slice of lime.

Follow the frappe with broiled minute steaks which may be anything from a cut of round to the filet. Have them cut thin and broil them quickly. Top with grilled mushrooms, just as you serve them, and add a touch of crisp watercress if it is available.

With the meat serve two vegetables—one buttered and the other in a cream sauce. Let the market determine your choice in vegetables, selecting the best it offers.

A salad of greens, served with a well seasoned French dressing, always satisfies and puts one in the mood for dessert.

Summer desserts are at their best when built around fruit. A fruit Bavarian cream can be made the day before and kept in the refrigerator until wanted for serving.

Named from the cranes found in the same swamps, cranberries are really cranberries.

Successful Summer Meals Aided By Attractive Table

By MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

When you're planning cool and tempting meals for hot summer days, don't forget the appeal of crisp, snowy linen, crystal and gleaming silver.

An inviting table can go a long way toward propping up wilted appetites and soothing worn nerves. The wise housewife gives special attention to table arrangements during the warm weather.

Flower arrangements should always be fresh, so be sure to use bowls that are deep enough to hold plenty of water. Some authorities advocate immersion of the entire flower stem in water, and if you can use crystal bowls the effect of tender green stems through the clear glass is lovely.

To Care for Silver

Those who are fortunate enough to own sterling silver need have no hesitancy in using it on the table every day. With proper care, you will never wear it out. To be sure, it shouldn't be used in the kitchen for scraping and stirring because the edges will wear down, but daily use of the table will not even dim its gleam. If you wash sterling silver in hot soap suds, rinse it in scalding water and wipe it dry on a clean linen dish towel, it will keep its luster indefinitely. Rub off food stains with each dishwashing, so that the silver is bright and shining at every meal. This adds immeasurably to the beauty of any table and keeps the silver in perfect condition.

There's a dignity about heavy white damask and crystal with silver that few other color schemes achieve. I have some fine old damask that belonged to my grandmother and it's as satiny today as when she used it more than fifty years ago.

The contrast of the pure white linen with colored foods is most effective too. Your menu may be anything you choose because there can be no clash in color with white.

Smart Sport Costume

For the girl who likes the comfort but not the appearance of shorts, this outfit with separate skirt is the perfect sports costume. Made of navy blue washable silk crepe with tiny white polka dots, it is at home on tennis courts, golf course, yacht or back yard of country farm. When you feel like taking a sunbath, wear a separate bandana halter with the shorts. If you want to go on to lunch or tea in the country club after your game of tennis, simply button the skirt.

Smart Women Today Chooses Soft Natural Make-Up

By ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer

The vogue for more feminine, truly pretty clothes calls for natural looking "makeup" and softer hair styles. Quantities of eye-shadow, layers of lipstick and a heavy coating of powder give you an older, sophisticated appearance that is entirely out of keeping with softer, really womanly dresses and hats.

A summer dress that slenderizes your waistline, widens your shoulders and creates a youthful, little girl air, and a wide brimmed, lady-like hat will lose half their charm if your face looks as if you had jumped head first into rouge and lipstick pots.

First of all, make sure that your skin is meticulously clean. A dingy, dusty complexion never is pretty. Then use cream rouge ever so sparingly, placing it well up on your cheek bones and blending it outward until no rough edges remain. Cover this with powder that matches exactly the tone of your skin (most women choose shades which are too dark), let it set, then dust off the excess.

Dry your lips before you apply lipstick, let it set for a few moments, rub lightly with a piece of cleansing tissue, then moisten. This way your lips will look fresh, young and delicately colored, instead of heavily painted. And the color will stay on for hours.

You ought to spend extra time on your hands too. Rough, red ones certainly aren't pretty. This is a year when strong and capable looking hands count for a good deal less than soft, white, feminine varieties such as you read about in love stories.

Be careful about nail polish, too. Pinkish, natural and light suntan shades do more to make you pretty than vivid scarlet tones.

Paved gardens, made of cinder blocks a few inches thick and nine or 10 inches wide, are predicted for the future. Plants would grow in the spaces between the blocks.

Ladies! Be sure to take advantage of Kaydelle's Summer Clearance this week. (Adv.)

The guests were entertained with a swim at Pagoda Pool and then returned to the Pemberton home for refreshments.

Plants Expected To Aid Homestead City

ARTHURDALE, W. Va. (U.P.)—Industrial experts and engineers have been exploring the mining region about this Federal experimental community of "transplanted" families with a view of establishing an industry here.

Rich mineral deposits in iron ore, glass sand, limestone, clay and coal are believed available to the establishment of an industry, to give work to homestead families.

The town of Arthurdale was established to provide unemployed miners and their families with farms that they might raise enough crops to feed themselves. The establishment of an industry was sought to provide the cash the rehabilitated families needed in addition to the food they could raise.

One of the industries contemplated by the industrialists is a factory turning out acid-resisting burial caskets made from the clays of the region. A pottery, making kitchen ware and crockery and novelty clay products, also was considered.

The industrialists who were making the survey plan to present their findings to Washington officials despite the opposition already encountered from Congress. Congressional leaders have charged that the establishment of such industries would mean competition with private industry.

In Korea, middle aged women of the higher class and young women of all classes wear hats six feet in circumference.

Quebec Province Boasts Families of 22 to 32

QUEBEC, (U.P.)—There's no talk of race suicide in this ancient French-Canadian province, where figures show that the big families of the Victorian era still prevail. Former Mayor H. E. Lavigne of Quebec City has 22 children, and another city official, Recorder Dery, is one of a family of 26 children. The unofficial record for large families is held by Mrs. Charles Gagnon of Kamouraska, who bore her husband 32 children.

In 1926 the attorney general of Hungary instituted a censorship of crossword puzzles.

Darwin Theory Is Linked With Ancient Orient Lore

BERKELEY, Cal. (U.P.)—The influence of Chinese thought and culture is what really made possible the Darwinian theory of the origin of man, according to A. H. Rowbotham, assistant professor of French at the University of California.

Rowbotham has just published his original essay on the subject, entitled "China and the Age of Enlightenment in Europe," in which he first advanced the theory and which at the time was published only in Chinese Social and Political Review.

According to Rowbotham, up until the 16th and 17th centuries, European belief in the origin of man was based purely on the biblical conception of the Great Flood. The religious and even scientific thinkers up to that time never dreamed of going beyond the accounts of the Bible.

It was in the 16th century, he points out, that Portuguese explorers first discovered China for the west and produced a flood of literature concerning the beauty and

STORIES IN STAMPS

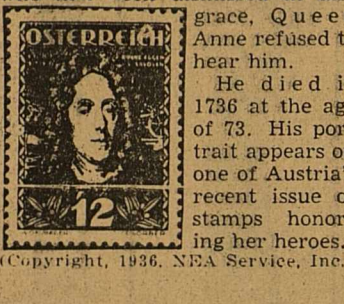

By I. S. Klein

SOLDIER WHO SNUBBED A KING

PRINCE FRANÇOIS EUGENE of Savoy was being groomed for the Church, some three centuries ago, when one day he went to King Louis XIV. of France, and asked to join the army. The king refused because, it is said, Eugene's mother was in disgrace at court. So the prince went to Austria, where Leopold I gave him his opportunity.

In Austria, Prince Eugene acquitted himself heroically, so much so that, in 1691, Louis XIV heard of his deeds and offered him a marshal's baton. Coldly, and promptly, Prince Eugene refused the honor. He allied himself with the great Duke of Marlborough, and helped win the famous battles of Blenheim, Oudenarde, and Malplaquet. But, victorious in war, Eugene was a failure with women. He remained a bachelor, and when he interceded for Marlborough, who had been dismissed in disgrace, Queen Anne refused to hear him.

He died in 1736 at the age of 73. His portrait appears on one of Austria's recent issue of stamps honoring her heroes.

It was then that Europe for the first time began to realize that there might be something more to say about the origin of man than what is contained in the Bible.

The most conservative of the dates relating to Chinese civilization failed to harmonize with the date set for the Great Flood and which had been the only generally accepted date in Christian chronology.

The result was, according to Rowbotham, the destruction of the ideas concerning the age of the world and its chronology.

Out of this, he says, grew the idea of the slow growth of society which the author calls "the greatest step in the development of man's knowledge of his environment and history."
