Crawford went to the Columbus post office yesterday and received his first state old age pension check, $13.

AT LEAST 4 FLIERS OF IL DUCE'S ARMY REPORTED KILLED

Jimma District To Be Penalized By "Avengers"
FAMED ACE DIES
Locatelli, Member Of Group That Flew To U. S.

ROME, July 8. (P)—Italian military airplanes were reported today to have sent out to make "mass reprisals" against the Ethiopian district in which at least four Italian fliers were slain June 26. Among those killed was Major Antonio Locatelli, member of the Balbo mass flight to the United States in 1933.

ROME, July 8. (P)—An unidentified Italian air general and nine aviators including the famous flier Antonio Locatelli, were killed in an Ethiopian scrape several days ago, reliable sources said Tuesday despite official denial.

The aviators apparently were fulfilling an assignment in the Italian penetration of Ethiopia, these sources said.

It was understood Premier Mussolini's orders were being awaited for the issuance of an authentic statement.

LONDON, July 8. (P)—A Reuter's (British) news agency dispatch from Rome Tuesday substantiated reports that eight or nine Italian officers including the noted flier Col. Antonio Locatelli, were killed from an ambush when they alighted from a plane in the province of Ethiopia.

The dispatch said the officers had been invited to that province by local residents, to establish a garrison.

An unofficial report said the officers, in three machines, were attacked as soon as they landed.

Jimma province, southwest of Addis Ababa is not yet completely occupied by Italian troops.

Two Tons of Mail On Unusual Transport
DALLAS, Tex. July 8.—Approximately two tons of mail will move out of Dallas July 18 on the most unusual mail transport trip in history.

The mail, originating here, there, everywhere, will be flung into compartments in the wings of the most unusual airplane to hit the airlines, then to be hauled at very high altitude over the Atlantic Ocean and to Paris where it will go into a post office for stamp cancellation.

On July 4, just 14 days before its departure on the Dallas to Paris flight the Flying Wing—that is what Monty G. Mason and Clyde E. Pangborn called their red, long winged plane—was christened the Texas Sky Ranger. On this same day booths from which envelopes and stamps are sold were opened within the Texas Centennial Exposition grounds.

Thousands of specially designed envelopes, bearing the insignia of the Centennial Exposition, the sponsor of the Mason and Pangborn flight, plus stamps necessary for mailing, are on sale at the booths. Rates on such mail, which include regular postage and special delivery stamps in addition to the amount charged for transportation across the Atlantic, as follows:

A F OF L MEETS TO DISCUSS WAR ON LEWIS POLICIES

No End to Quarrel In Sight as Unions Ready to Fight

WASHINGTON, July 8. (P)—Leaders of the American Federation of Labor gathered today to decide whether to wage war on John L. Lewis and fellow insurgents engaged in a gigantic struggle to organize 500,000 steel workers into a single industrial union.

Accusations from opposing camps of industrial and craft unionists indicated there was no peace in sight in the quarrel over threatening to split the federation wide apart with profound consequences in the future history of organized labor.

Camp Meeting Dates Set for August 18-25

The forty-seventh annual meeting of the Bluffs camp meeting association will be held August 18 to 25. It has been announced by R. L. Irving, Fort Davis, superintendent of the organization.

The previously announced date of the opening, August 11, has been changed and officials are rapidly informing all of the correct date.

According to Irving, years ago it was decided that the meetings were to begin on the Tuesday evening nearest the 15th of August and that principle has been in effect since.

A glance at the calendar last summer was mistakenly identified by the 11th and 18th were equidistant from the 15th, thereby causing the mix-up. The mistake was corrected at the June meeting.

Number of Directors In Organization Is Increased

Proposed amendments to the charter of Midland Fair, Inc., to increase the capital stock from $30,000 to $40,000 and to increase the board of directors from eleven to twenty one were voted at a meeting of directors and stockholders this morning.

Other business with reference to the finances of the corporation and to future policies were discussed, to be announced when full details are worked out.

EPPS SPEAKER AT LIONS CLUB TODAY

Musical Entertainment Furnished By Mrs. Tom Sealey

Rev. Cliff M. Epps, pastor of the First Methodist church, was the principal speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Midland Lions Club in the assembly room of the county courthouse today noon.

Featuring the musical part of the program, Mrs. Tom Sealey rendered two beautiful violin solos, "The Old Refrain," and "Roses of Picardy," being accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Holt Jewell.

John P. Butler, club president, announced that the various club committees for the year would be appointed at the regular meeting next week.

Visitors in attendance at the luncheon included Dr. Herman Klapproth of Oklahoma, Rufus Parks of Big Spring, Jack Evans of Chicago, and Oscar F. Sainsbaugh who came here recently from Lubbock to become commercial manager of Radio Station KRLH.

25 Texas-Oklahoma Boys Join Marines

The officer in charge, U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting District, of Dallas announces that the enlistment of 25 men from the Texas-Oklahoma District has been authorized for the month of July, 1936. Applications by mail will be given careful consideration.

The minimum age and height requirements for first enlistments are 18 years and 68 inches respectively, however, 50% may be enlisted at a minimum of 66 inches, provided they are exceptionally desirable. Men with high school education are preferred, however, men with an equivalent education who have satisfactorily demonstrated to the Recruiting Officer that they possess sufficient education to make desirable material for the Marine Corps will be accepted for enlistment.

Next comptroller of the U. S. may be Daniel W. Bell, left, or William H. McReynolds, right, Washington advises indicate, in speculation over a successor to John R. McCarl. Bell was named acting director of the budget after the resignation in 1934 of Lewis Douglas. McReynolds, a government service for 30 years, formerly was assistant chief of the Efficiency Bureau and has been serving as Treasury Secretary Morgenthau's administrative aide.

TEST MILE EAST OF SAYRE FLOWS AFTER SHOOTING

Magnolia Wildcat To Shoot Again In Upper Pay
BY FRANK GARDNER
Flowing 79 barrels of oil the first 15 hours on test after shooting yesterday, commercial production was assumed in Magnolia No. 2 State-Walton, a wildcat one mile east of wells in the north end of the Sayre pool in Winkler. At the conclusion of the 24 hour gauge at 4 p. m. today, operators planned to run another shot, this time in the upper sand section.

The lower sand pay zone in the No. 2 State-Walton was shot yesterday from 3,100 to 3,260 with 320 quarts, but clogged separator prevented the flow from being turned into tanks for several hours. The well was plugged back to 3,314 after coring into sulphur water at 3,352. Previously, it had encountered several sections of sand showing saturation, the best of which was reported in the upper pay zone. Shooting of the upper pay zone is expected to further increase the rating of the well. Location is in the northwest corner of section 5, block B-3, public school land, over two miles northwest of the No. 1 State-Walton, a 25-barrel pumper, which ran high but failed to encounter good section.

Analysis of bottom-hole water in Hyer and Mascho No. 1 Evans, northern Winkler wildcat, showed it to be brackish and not sulphur water, as was originally reported. Steel-line measurement was taken of the depth, and 4,880 was corrected to 4,891. It is planned to shut the well down overnight to determine the rate of increase in water, and then it will probably be drilled deeper. The water yesterday was reported to have come in at the rate of one-half barrel an hour below 4,867, old depth. The test is located in section 8, block A-56, public school land.

Farley is Granted Leave of Absence

WASHINGTON, July 8. (P)—James A. Farley, under an arrangement announced Tuesday by President Roosevelt will take a payless leave of absence and relinquish active command of the postoffice department August 1 to devote his entire time until after the election to an effort to keep the new deal in power.

Thus was answered, for the time being at least, the months-old question raised by critics who objected to Farley being postmaster general and chairman of the democratic national committee at the same time.

The New Yorker, who also holds the chairmanship of the New York state democratic committee, was not present when the president made the announcement at his press conference, but Farley was said by friends to have favored just such an arrangement for the coming campaign.

Texas Highest With 12 Million Acres In Cultivation
PRICES LIFTING
Report Sends Market At New Orleans Up 2 Dollars

WASHINGTON, July 8. (P)—Cotton cultivation for July first was estimated today by the crop reporting board to be 30,621,000 acres, 109.8 per cent of the 27,888,000 acres in cultivation this time one year ago.

The acreage picked last year was 27,335,000 acres and the yield was 85.3 pounds per acre; the total production being 10,618,000 bales of 500 pounds gross each.

The 1934 July first acreage was 27,860,000 acres and the area picked was 26,865,000, the yield being 171.6 per acre and the total production being 9,636,000 bales.

The acreage cultivation for July first and the percentage of last year's July first acreage by states is: Texas 12,280,000 and Louisiana 1,342,109.

BULLISH REPORT SENDS PRICE UP

NEW ORLEANS, July 8. (P)—A bullish government cotton acreage report lifted cotton futures more than two dollars per bale in active trading today. All new crop months crossed the 12-cent level in making up new season highs.

October touched 12.11 up one dollar and sixty five cents per bale, December gained $1.52.12, while January was at 12.13 and March at 12.11 showed proportionate advances.

GUN BATTLE FATAL TO 5 TAMPCOANS

Rival Landowner Groups Engage In Pitched Battle Today
TAMPCO, July 8. (P)—A gun battle between rival groups of landowners left five dead here today. Former soldiers who own land given them for revolutionary services clashed with civil land owners of the El Coronel Hacienda near Tula.

Two veterans and three opponents were slain. President Cardenas is reported planning a personal visit to the troubled area after a tour of inspection of the Laredo-Mexico City highway to arbitrate the differences.

Telescope Views Of Moon, Planets Here

J. J. Ingersoll, who for many years has toured the country with his giant telescope, has announced that tonight he will have the telescope located at the corner of Main and Missouri streets. All persons interested may look through the tube at the various stars and planets.

While the solar wonders are being viewed Ingersoll carries on an explanation talk, acquainting patrons with what they are viewing.

The moon and all planets are visible through the telescope and much information can be gleaned about them from the views and from the talks by the owner.

BEHIND THE SCENES - IN - WASHINGTON By RODNEY DUTCHER Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

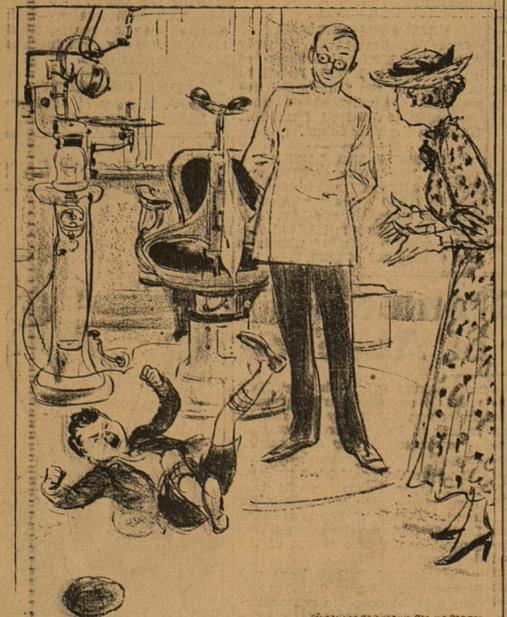

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The next big political date is July 23. Governor Landon then makes his speech in Topeka, accepting the republican presidential nomination. As the game stands now, the republicans have had one shake and the democrats have had two and democrats have a horse on the republicans. The Landons wrote their party platform at Cleveland and the Roosevelts have had two grand chances to shoot at it—with the democratic platform and the president's speech of acceptance at Philadelphia.

at. The greatness of Roosevelt's speech as a political document has been recognized by many republicans as well as most democrats and it will be hard to produce anything of its kind which will surpass it or outdo it as a fighting declaration of principle. Landon's speech must be essentially an answer to Roosevelt, however, and it is logical to assume that it will attempt to throw many words back in the president's teeth, to exploit many new deal faults and mistakes in such way as to prove that Roosevelt's brave words can be taken as no guarantee of performance.

Tobacco Named Princess Plant by Scot in 1611

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (U.P.)—No advertisement of today is more extravagant with its praise of tobacco's merits than was a certain Scotch physician, Dr. William Barclay, back in 1611. The good doctor's laudatory words concerning the weed were discovered in a monograph titled "Nepenthe or the Virtues of Tobacco," by Alfred C. Potter, for 48 years Harvard University librarian. Wrote Dr. Barclay: "It (tobacco) perserueth from the toothache; it cureth the migraine, the colicke, the cough, the cold; it stayeth growing fete; it is the antidote of Hypochondriacke melancholie; it prepareth the stomacke for meat; it maketh a clear voice; it maketh a sweet breath, it cleareth the sight—it comforteth nerves—And in a few words it is the princesse of physical plants—"

STORIES IN STAMPS By I. S. Klein

MODERNIZING THE TURKS

TURKEY was under the thumb of an aging despot when young Mustapha Kemal, an orphan of Salonica, called upon the people to liberate themselves. He organized secret societies and was imprisoned, then exiled for his efforts. He returned to his country in the face of death as an outlaw, and so aroused the people that the sultan sought to get rid of him by sending him away in charge of expeditions that seemed hopeless. But each time Kemal returned victorious. The World War came and Kemal, only 35, succeeded in turning back the invading allies at the Dardanelles. Then came Greece, aided by the former allies, and again Kemal turned back the enemy. The sultan had to flee, and Kemal, at 40, became president of a new Turkey. He proved the capital to Angora, and instituted remarkable reforms in education and in the social life of his people. Today, he is one of the most liberal and progressive leaders of the world. His picture appears on several of Turkey's stamps. (Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything.) Candidates probably can be good friends and do much for the newspapers, but we are of the opinion that the papers can do more for the candidate at a time like this. And we're not bragging. A farm woman of West Texas remarked recently that she was so tired she couldn't say "sooey" if the hogs were eating her up. An old country boy went to a store and said he wanted a pair of stockings for his wife. "Sheer?" asked the clerk. "Naw, she's at home," he replied. I heard about an Easterner who had been to West Texas. When he got home he remarked that the folks out here dig for wood, climb for water and call a jackass a bureau. I guess you cowpunchers know what he meant. I do. Speaking of cowpunchers. When Judge Gibbs saw Elliott (Little-um) Cowden drinking a cup of tea, he asked, "Do you chew gum, too?"

Pest War Fund Raised LINDEN, Cal. (U.P.)—Farmers of this part of the state have levied a tax of 25 cents an acre for a campaign fund against the present grasshopper plague. Guest Talks At Class Meeting

The Wesley Bible class met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Patterson with all members and one guest present.

A reading by Mrs. A. B. Coleman, "My Flower Garden," and one by Mrs. W. A. Black, "Beware of Keeping Others in Suspense," were heard after devotional had been led by Mrs. Stella McConacha. Rev. Epps, guest of the class, also gave a short talk.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and the co-hostess, Mrs. F. H. Wilmoth.

Members present were Mmes: M. D. Conan, McConacha, Black, M. D. Johnson, R. W. Patterson, L. C. Stevenson, M. C. Best, M. J. Allen, Coleman, and hostesses.

Rev. Epps was the guest.

Shower Is Given For Denham's

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Denham were complimented with a shower by Miss Vivian Arnett Tuesday evening at her home. It was an apron and overall party and old-fashioned games were played. The gifts were presented by Miss Arnett and Everett Milam.

Those signing the guest book were: Joan Arnett, Lillian Arnett, Lucille Arnett, Spurgeon, Blackburn, Rae Blackburn, Dorothy Hines, Dorothy Pittman, Kenneth Webb, Eddie Bruback, Hal Bybee, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Frank Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Pylant, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parrott, Maudine Reising, Everett Milam, Dr. and Mrs. Sutton, Brother Borum, Annie Faye Dunagan, Ernest Nell, Bessie Dale, Rusty Sewell, Majorie Ward, the honorees, and the hostess.

What Has Happened In an effort to aid her sister Helena, who is to marry Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria against her will on the ruler's twenty-sixth birthday, Princess Elizabeth or Cissy, favorite daughter of the Duke of Bavaria, goes with her father incognito to the town of Hellbrunn, site of the summer palace. There Cissy disguised as a dressmaker, intrigues Francis, who falls in love with her. The Dowager Empress is angry at finding her son out with a 'dressmaker' and throws Cissy into prison. At this, Duke Max goes into action for the first time, freeing Cissy and storming to the palace as the nobleman he is, to tell the Home Ladder Demanded TILLSONBURG, Ont. (UP)—An ancient by-law, never repealed demands all Tillsonburg residents have ladders fixed to their houses leading from the roof to the ground. Failure to observe the law carried a $50 penalty.

The dressy jacket (top) with rhinestone buttons and finely pleated bands, is fashioned from a new Swiss chiffon organdy with drawn-thread effect. The bolero (lower right) of crinkled organdy, flatters young figures.

As for Duke Max, he stormed into the presence of the Dowager Empress Sofia and his wife Louise at the Palace. "What do you mean by having my daughter arrested?" he bellowed at the Emperor's mother.

Sofia, of course, knew Cissy only as a dressmaker. "What are you talking about?" she asked Max in astonishment.

"Max," interrupted Louise quickly, "you will leave her instantly!" The meek Duke had turned into a roaring lion. "Hold your tongue!" he ordered his amazed wife. Then he faced Sofia again. "You've bitten off more than you can chew this time! You—you—Your Imperial Highness! Weren't you busy enough running the Empire and that son of yours without interfering with my family and jailing a Princess of the House of Bavaria!"

In a few moments the truth came out. Sofia was astonished. The dressmaker a Princess—her niece! Abruptly, the Chief of the Secret Police came in with further disquieting news: the Emperor was now at the Golden Ox Inn (ordering his birthday dinner in company with the dressmaker, who had been released from jail against Sofia's orders).

At the inn, Francis and Cissy were sitting at dinner in a private room. Cissy was wearing her sister Helena's silver dress.

"Cissy," said Francis, "I've never seen anyone so beautiful." He poured a drink. "I'm trying to get up enough courage to ask you for a kiss."

"A kiss is out of the question," said the girl definitely. "Remember you are to be back at the Palace for the betrothal at eight-thirty."

Francis moved to kiss her, and Cissy sprang up quickly. She went to the piano and began softly to play and sing. Francis watched her and as she finished the song, crushed her into his arms and kissed her.

Suddenly, the door flew open, and Sofia, Max and the royal party swarmed in.

"My darling son," exclaimed Sofia, hugging him, "you've made me so happy!" Then she threw her arms about Cissy. "My darling! Will you ever forgive me?"

Max slapped the Emperor on the back. "Birthday congratulations!" He whispered, "How do you like her?"

"Who?" asked Francis, stunned.

"Oh, haven't you been introduced?" asked the Duke gaily. "Francis Joseph—my daughter, Princess Elizabeth of Bavaria!"

Francis staggered a bit; Cissy was smiling outside the inn, the village's having heard that the Emperor was in the tavern, were singing the national anthem.

"Well, hurry up!" said Sofia excitedly.

Display Of Insects Feature of Exhibit

AUSTIN.—A display of some 1200 insects is a feature of the zoology division of the University Exposition. Most of the specimens are Texas insects but there are several cases of foreign beetles and moths.

Among the most interesting specimens is the 17-year locust which lives seventeen years underground as a grub, emerging at the end of that period to take flight, and spend the last few weeks of its life in the sunshine. Specimens of Texas' largest moth, the Cecropia, with a wing spread of over seven inches; the giant tarantula killer, a large black wasp with brilliant orange wings that spread three and one-half inches; rhinoceros beetles from Texas, Africa, and South America; and a giant water bug which kills and eats fish, frogs and other water animals, are displayed.

In a case illustrating protective form and coloring of insects is shown the rare Indian butterfly which with wings folded closely resembles a dead leaf.

An enormous Texas walking stick, measuring nine inches from antennae to tail, is rivalled in its striking appearance by the European death's-head moth whose back is clearly represented a human skull.

A box of tropical insects from Peru shows the brilliant shades of red, blue, yellow, and violet not excelled anywhere in nature.

Most of the insects displayed are from the collections of the University department of zoology. Others are from the Heiligbrecht Collection, a recent gift to the university.

Citadel Ruins Traced To Ancient Kingdom of Bospur

PEROH U. S. S. R. (UP)—Soviet archeologists have discovered 20 ancient fortified settlements near here which in the 5th century before Christ formed a part of the so-called Bospur Kingdom.

Walls of the ancient city of Diawere discovered as well as the water reservoirs of the settlement; and the ruins of numerous buildings.

From gravestones, urns and bronze, copper and glass articles found in the graves, it was learned that besides Greek burials there since the 3rd century B. C., later Roman burials also took place.

Coal is involved in 40 per cent of the thefts occurring during freight transit. Cigaret and tobacco losses amount to about 18 percent.

The SPORTS HORN

BY JESS RODGERS

Word from Big Spring says that Milton "Speedy" Moffett, assistant football coach at the high school there for the last two years, will become assistant coach at Greenville this fall. He will be under Dennis Vinzant, who was promoted to head coach at Greenville following the resignation of Henry Frinks.

Moffett is as well known, here, possibly better known than any player that has been in this area in the last decade that did not play with the Midland team. He gave Midland teams plenty of trouble during the years he was an outstanding player at Stanton and later on in games between exes of the two schools. He also was seen in action with both the Stanton and Midland baseball clubs of three and four years ago.

For the benefit of those interested, here is the second half schedule of the Permian Basin League: July 11-12—Crane at Iraan, McCamey at Texon, Ozona at Wink.

July 18-19—Crane at Texon, McCamey at Crane, Iraan at Ozona.

July 25-26—Crane at Texon, Ozona at McCamey, Wink at Iraan.

August 1-2—Iraan at Texon, McCamey at Wink, Crane at Ozona.

August 8-9—Wink at Ozona, Texon at McCamey, Iraan at Crane.

August 15-16—Ozona at Texon, Crane at Wink, McCamey at Iraan.

August 22-23—Wink at Texon, Crane at McCamey, Ozona at Iraan.

August 29-30—Texon at Crane, McCamey at Ozona, Iraan at Wink.

September 5-6—Texon at Iraan, Wink at McCamey, Ozona at Crane.

In the first game of the second half, played last Saturday and Sunday, Texon opened with a 18-1 win over Ozona, first half champs. The second game scheduled between the

AMERICANS CHEER BASEBALL AS THE BRITISH PLAY IT

LONDON. (UP)—American baseball fans in England applaud this year's noble and serious effort to make the traditional home pastime a big sport over here, but they find no little amusement in the manner of presentation of the game.

Take, for instance, the latest program of "Baseball at Hackney Wick Stadium." The program advised that the "pitch-off" will occur promptly at 7 p. m. It continues with a warning that "should it be necessary, owing to rain or other causes to abandon a match before each side has played five complete innings, tickets for a subsequent match would be issued at the exit gates. No money refunded." In other words the customer gets a rain check.

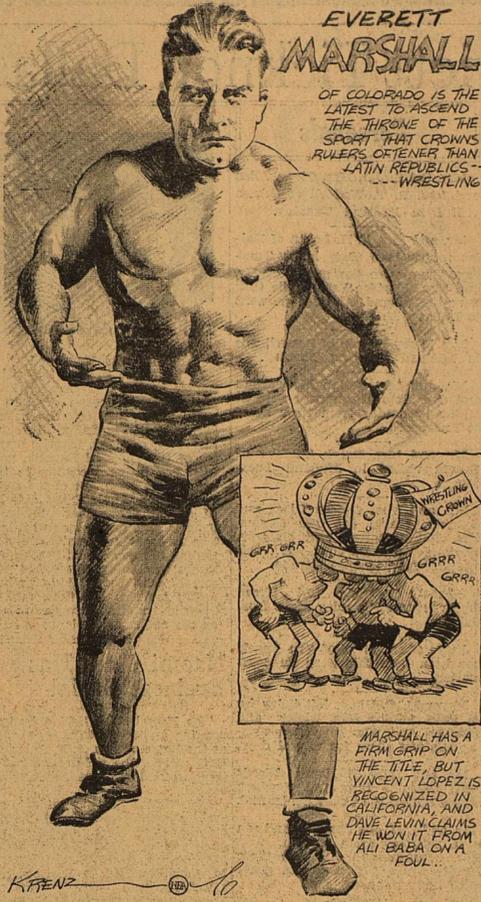

Called "Great Game" "Let there be no question," the program continues, "of the fact that baseball is not a game for 'dead-heads' or slow-thinking people. It is the greatest game in the world for combined mental and physical efficiency. Just watch the play closely, see the various lightning moves and you will realize the skill of it all."

"The chatter between the players and rooting of the spectators is all in the game. It is one great mental effort of concentration that it is almost impossible for anyone watching or playing the game to restrain from expressing himself by comment.

Marshall gladly would clarify the situation, however. Fortunately for him, perhaps, the antiquated Lewis has no claim to the title, although it is safe to say that the New York or some other commission shortly will create one for him, just out of force of habit.

Contained also is a compendium of rules which is preceded by the suggestion that "after reading the following pages of rules and the various methods by which a base-runner may be put out, it will be realized how difficult it is for a baserunner to score if the opposing fielders are able to throw the ball to one another with great accuracy and speed."

Primer On Rules Offered A rule entitled "Balls and Walks" points out:

"If a pitched ball does not result in a strike, a foul or a fair hit, it is called a ball. If four balls are registered for the batsman before three strikes are registered against him, or before he makes a hit, he acquires the right to occupy first base. Should a pitched ball strike the batsman while in his batting position he likewise acquires the right to occupy first base."

Other rules are similarly simplified and then the subject of current stars is taken up. Presented, for instance:

"(Abe (Happy) Kasnoff, Hackney Royals' star pitcher. He is nicknamed 'Happy' for obvious reasons."

By Harry Grayson

Well, it turned out just as everybody suspected it would three months ago when D. Shikat clamped that hammerlock on Danne O'Mahony at Madison Square Garden.

If nothing else, the ascendancy of Everett Marshall to the world heavyweight championship returns wrestling to the wrestlers.

In order to hold its fort against the new and now stronger combination which the capable Marshall represents the group that has controlled to dodge for several years' had had to call the old warhorse, Ed Strangler Lewis, out of retirement.

For the duration of the war, trick champions, acrobats, contortionists, football players, and general roughhouse artists are relegated to the background. The men will wrestle it out if it takes all summer, fall, and winter.

When Shikat forgot that he wasn't supposed to pin O'Mahony and jumped to the outlaws, it didn't take Professor Gustave Meyer, the Hoboken astrologist, to figure out that Marshall was to be the next titleholder.

All Baba an Accident The slight delay in transpiring the crown was due to a breach of contract suit against Shikat brought by Joe Alvarez of Boston, who acted for the more affluent promoters, Jack Curley of New York, Paul Brower of Boston, Ray Fabiani of Philadelphia, and Tom Packs of St. Louis.

This action also brought the quaint Ali Baba out of Hollywood long enough to clear the atmosphere of a federal courtroom in Columbus by hurling Shikat out into the ring-side pews in Detroit. It was the old line title, now held by Marshall, that the beef trust wanted, not the services of the Teutonic Twister who crossed O'Mahony.

As long as he had it, Ali Baba was permitted to beat Shikat again and to tour until the novelty wore off, and then in Columbus the other night—Marshall.

Marshall being on top is a decisive victory for Billy Sandow and Al Haft, the kerosene circuit promoter who strung along with the man who ran the bonding works for more than a decade with Lewis as his shooting star.

Sandow Strikes Back When Sandow broke with Lewis in 1932, the powers gave him plenty of ozone. But Sandow picked up Marshall, and patiently bided his time. Now he is in the driver's seat again, and Haft's small league, which he has operated out of Columbus, has a chance to expand.

Faces Difficult Diplomatic Task

One of the most delicate diplomatic assignments in recent U. S. history has been given to William Phillips, above, under-secretary of state. He will go to Rome to seek solution of the problem raised by Italy's conquest of Ethiopia as it affects future U. S. diplomatic relations with the seized country. Recent U. S. policy has been to refuse to recognize territorial gains made by force.

Clothes 'Dandy' Once Wore Are Displayed

AUSTIN.—The Mexican charro, or ranch owner of wealth was a very fancy dresser and apparently a man of great vanity. A complete outfit of the type usually worn by this once typical Mexican "dandy" is now being displayed in the historical exhibit of the University Centennial Exposition on the second floor of the New Library Building. The large white felt sombrero richly embroidered in gold over crown and brim is bound in black and ties with a heavy black silk cord. The charro's suit is of fine brown suede and consists of breeches, shirt and coat all of the same material and all finely embroidered in black. His saddle is of fine grade brown leather and the bridle and lariat are of the best quality of white leather. The complete outfit is one which displays wealth and a quality of shewiness. He had two pair of spurs, one of the common iron variety and the other silver plated. His gun is heavy though short and stocky and is also silver plated. The exhibit was given to the university by Mrs. Frost Woodhull, John G. Kenedy, and Edward R. McNabb of San Antonio.

Stamford Reunion Is Called Big Success

STAMFORD, Texas, July 8.—The Texas Cowboy Reunion which closed its annual three day meet here Saturday night was the most successful from all standpoints in the seven year's history of the organization, according to Reunion officials who have just completed a check-up on the 1936 show.

Three semi-cold, cool days, ideal weather for a holiday crowd were awarded by the weather man for the event and added materially to the comfort of a capacity crowd that thronged the grandstands and bleachers at nearly every performance, and swelled the attendance by at least twenty percent over any former year. The record heretofore stood at 55,000 persons for the three days.

Rodeo officials credit the increased attendance to improved facilities for taking care of visitors, to a better and faster performance by the contestants, and to the nationwide publicity that has been given the Texas Centennial Celebration, of which the Texas Cowboy Reunion was a part. There were many guests

All fathers and mothers want their children to succeed and as long as they can, mothers and fathers the country over sacrifice and plan to give their boys and girls every advantage, every opportunity, for they want them to have a start which they too often were denied.

"We want to send Jim to college if we can afford it," they say. "We plan to give Mary special training in music if we have the money when she has finished high school."

But why should an IF threaten these dreams? A PRAETORIAN EDUCATIONAL POLICY can erase that IF and permit mothers and fathers to say positively: "MY CHILDREN ARE GOING TO COLLEGE." The Praetorians' plans offer a systematic way of saving. A little put away each month makes the education SURE. Investigate the Praetorians' Educational policies for children.

here from far-a-way states, a glance at parked automobiles often revealed license plates from California, Oregon, Illinois, New York and other states just as far distant.

Three rodeo performances daily beginning at 8 o'clock a. m. and lasting until 10 o'clock or later at night, followed by a square dance at the bunkhouse and another dance at the Country Club, in addition to other special features, provided entertainment for early till late for everyone who wanted to put in a full day.

The rodeo had four standard contests that were held every day. These were bronc riding, wild-cow milking, steer riding and calf roping the winners being awarded cash prizes daily. Buck Hawkins, Denton won first money in bronc riding on the opening day, and Dan Utley of San Angelo was the winner on both the second and third days. Top money to steer riders, went to Ralph Ramsey, Strawn; Bob Miller, Albany and Woody Lewis, Eustice, Texas respectively on the first second and third days.

In the wild-cow milking contest Vaughn Harris, Big Spring, won the money Thursday, followed by Jay Stoker of Breckenridge on Friday, and the Saturday's award went to Vester Parrish, Wingate, who did the job in seventeen and one-fifth seconds. Some speed was likewise shown in the calf roping. Leo Huff of Dena and Sig Faircloth from Ranger divided honors on Saturday with a time of seventeen seconds flat. Lester Durham, Amarillo, won Friday with twenty-two seconds and Leonard Wright, Breckenridge was Thursday's winner on account of twenty-one and two-fifths second.

In the old timer's calf roping contest, Wade Swift, Ranger won first with twenty-nine and four-fifths seconds. First prize to most typical cowboy over 55 years of age went to J. E. Betts of Paducah, Miss. Mary Louise Purdom, Stephenville, was first prize winner of Sponsors and was presented with a saddle. Other prize winners were Miss Walter Payne Cowden, Midland; Miss Annie Lee Spires, San Angelo; and Miss Glyn Weatherby, Sweetwater.

A sour dough biscuit contest between chuck wagon cooks was judged by Governor James V. Allred. Richard Bolt, cook for the 6666 outfit tied with Lee Kelly, cook for the SMS Spur outfit for first honors, and each received a Stetson hat gifts of the Governor of Texas.

Starred

Popular acclaim for his memorable performance in "The Country Doctor" elevated JEAN HERSHOLT to stardom. His first stellar role is in "Sins of Men," a Darryl F. Zanuck Twentieth Century production, showing today and tomorrow at the Yucca Theatre.

the colorful "Farmer Jim" Ferguson, ex-governor, and director of two successful campaigns to elect his wife governor.

No state political campaign in 20 years has been without Ferguson. This year is no exception, and his support is expected to bring a large following to State Senator Roy Sandford, Belton, seeking election as governor on a platform asking a general 3 per cent sales tax.

Strength Believed Dwindling How large the Ferguson-Sandford following will be July 25 when democrats hold their first primary, none can predict. Many believe Ferguson's "vest pocket vote"—some 200,000 farmers to whom Farmer Jim's word was gospel—has dwindled to a fraction of its former size.

Tom Hunter, fellow townsman of Allred at Wichita Falls, is a fourth major candidate. Hunter has been a paradox of Texas politics for six years. His three campaigns for the governorship have been unsuccessful, but his 1934 drive brought him into the party run-off.

Thus far Hunter's tactics have been mainly to criticize the governor's Centennial year traveling. He has dubbed Allred "Jaunty Jimmy." His opposition to the present administration of old age assistance also has been bitter. Hunter proposes a state tax on incomes of more than $5,000 as a source of revenue to pay the pensions.

Dallas Attorney Enters Race Pierce Brooks, Dallas attorney a comparative unknown in state campaigns, is the fifth candidate for governor. He has been conducting an active speaking campaign for several weeks.

At least three of Allred's four opponents must be considered as major foes, but thus far the governor seems to have maintained the support that twice elected him to the attorney general's office and once as governor. A forceful, active campaigner, Allred's numerous appearances since his election as governor have given his views wide publicity.

Allred made a late start, however. His campaign was opened at Waxahachie, June 20, after which he went to Philadelphia to re-nominate a fellow Texan, John Nance Garner, as the democrat's vice presidential candidate. Now he is engaged in a stump speaking tour similar to that which brought his election in 1934.

DOGS KEEP COMMON NAMES

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (U.P.)—A recent "dog census" conducted in this city revealed that Pal and Mickey are the names most frequently bestowed on canine pets. Names ranged from the aristocratic titles of King and Queen to the ultra-modern streamlined variety such as Zephyr.

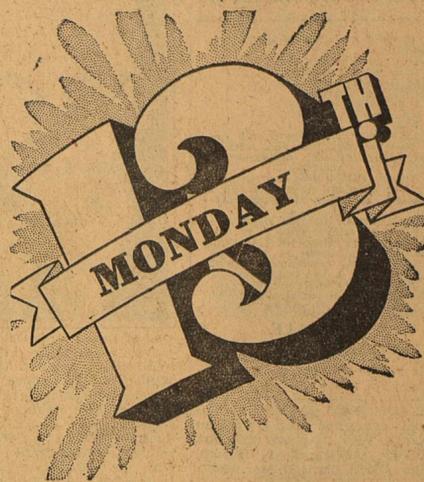

TIMBER LOSSES PHOTOED OGDEN, Utah (U.P.)—Aerial photography recently installed as an aid in fighting forest fires has proved to be an important means of checking timber losses in the inter-mountain region, a survey showed.

DIPLOMA BY MESSENGER TOLEDO (U.P.)—Jean Meyer could not go after her Devilbliss high school diploma so it came to her. Principal Merritt Nauts delivered it personally to a hospital as the girl recovered from an appendectomy just a few days before graduation.

CASPIAN SEA AT LOW LEVEL BAKU, U. S. S. A. (U.P.)—The lowest level of the Caspian sea for the last century has been recorded this year. According to Prof. Kovalevsky, the average level of the Caspian sea was lowered during the last century by a fraction of an inch.

The name of "Aaron's beard" is applied to the rose of Sharon, the smoke tree, St. John's wort, and Chinese saxifrage.

In the same pool, Magnolia No. 6 Edwards, also in section 2, is drilling below 2,907 feet in anhydrite, while Gulf No. 14 Waddell, in section 11, is drilling at 3,510 with 1,500 feet of oil in the hole. No increase has been logged below 3,229.

YATES TOP CALLED AT 2,880 IN GAINES TEST

Top of the Yates sand has been picked at 2,880 feet in Humble No. 1 C. H. Eubanks, closely watched Gaines county wildcat. It is now drilling at 3,045 feet in anhydrite and shale. The Humble test is 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 6, block AX, public school land, eight miles northwest of the recent Lardreth No. 1 Kirk discovery. The No. 1 Kirk today is still shut in, pending plans of operators. Flowing an estimated 5 to 8 barrels of oil per hour and with more gas than is usually found with the day in the Means pool wells, Humble No. 8 J. S.
