AF of L Votes Suspension Of 10 Unions Under Lewis

Group Gives 30 Days to Withdraw From CIO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (P)—The American Federation of Labor's executive council Wednesday voted to suspend ten unions now in the committee for industrial organization unless they withdraw from that group within 30 days.

Otherwise, the council decided, the unions representing more than 1,000,000 workers will be suspended indefinitely.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers and leader of the Industrial Organization Committee immediately returned:

"We will not disband the committee for industrial organization. The decision of the executive council will not change the policies of the C. I. O., nor will it have any effect upon the organizing activities of the committee.

The unions affected by the suspension order are:

United Mine Workers of America, Amalgamated Clothing Workers, Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, International Ladies' Garment Workers, United Textile Workers of America, Federation of Flat Glass Workers, United Automobile Workers, Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, and the United Rubber Workers.

In view of the council's action and the Lewis answer, many observers felt that the American labor movement would be split into two warring groups before Labor Day, with the industrial group, perhaps, committing against the AFOL in some fields.

The council handed down its decision after a three day "trial" of the unions on charges of John P. Frey, president of the A. F. of L. metal trades department, they were guilty of "insurrection" and "rebellion" in their organizing activities.

The Lewis group was composed of the A. F. of L. faction believing all workers in each big industry should be organized into one union.

Lester L. Grant, manager of McElroy Ranch Co., chairman of the international service committee of the Rotary club, addressed the organization today on international affairs.

He prefaced his talk with a brief outline of the committee's plans for introducing international relations into programs during the year.

Grant then dealt with social and economic conditions of various countries, showing the necessity for international understanding to prevent war.

Closer study of conditions in various nations by members of the Rotary club was urged by the speaker as one of the means by which international understanding can be aided.

Grant, who is world traveler, gave interesting close-ups of several countries, showing especially the difference in liberties of citizens of nations other than the English speaking.

John P. Howe gave a brief outline of a proposal of a group of citizens here who would ask the city council to purchase the Pagoda swimming pool and park.

Barney Greathouse, druggist, and Oscar Sensabaugh, radio station commercial manager, were elected to membership in the Rotary club. Walter Berger, Fort Worth geologist and Rotarian, was a visitor.

Naoto Tajima, Japan, broke the Olympic record in the hop, skip and jump finals when he covered 15.76 meters.

Bernhardt Stoek, Germany, captured the javelin event in which Alton Terry, Brady, Texas, Harding-Simmons university student, finished fifth. Stoek threw the javelin 71.84 meters, dethroning Finland's Matti Jervinen.

M. M. Madison, president of the West Texas association called the general assembly to order.

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Nora Gulley, Big Spring; vice president, W. W. Porter, Colorado; second vice president, Belle Hickory, Wink; secretary, Edna Delaney, Colorado; treasurer, Jess Higgins, Merkle; chaplain, Flossie Burnam, Stanton; musician, Zerrie Brown, Abilene; historian, J. F. Henderson.

The five candidates on whom degrees were conferred were: J. W. Face, E. J. Adams, O. F. Burris, Midland; Bob Pinkston, Stanton; and C. D. Applgate, Lamaca.

Lunch was served in the Masonic hall.

The closing session of the two days will be held at the high school this afternoon when prizes will be awarded, and reports on competitive edge work and individual charges and of committees will be made.

Winners in the individual charges divisions were Mrs. Eula Robinson of Big Spring and Fren Burleson, Noble Grand, of Big Spring, among Rebekahs and Lad Laws of Stanton among Odd Fellows.

Midland was the winner in degree work in the Subordinate Lodge in the Rebekahs, with no contest.

Bernhardt Stoek, Germany, captured the javelin event in which Alton Terry, Brady, Texas, Harding-Simmons university student, finished fifth. Stoek threw the javelin 71.84 meters, dethroning Finland's Matti Jervinen.

SWEETWATER—More than 30 town sponsors from cities and towns throughout entire West Texas are expected to be entered in Nolan County's Sixth Annual Double Heart Rodeo to be held for three days, Aug. 14, 15, and 16.

Ten days before show date 19 towns had entered sponsors, with at least 10 others signifying they would before opening date.

The Double Heart Rodeo, staged each year by Clie Cox, veteran ranchman, with co-operation of the Sweetwater merchants, is growing into the outstanding event of its kind in the Southwest, and this year's show promises to eclipse by far any staged previously. Preparations have been made to care for a crowd of 15,000 during the three days, and judging by the attractions to be offered that many will attend.

The show is to be held at the Double Heart Ranch, 10 miles south of Sweetwater on the San Angelo highway.

A prize list comparable to the largest rodeos will be offered the winners in daily events and for best three-day averages. As an example daily calf roping event will be $50 first, $30 second, $20 third, $10 fourth and $5 fifth, and in the wild cow milking contest, top prize will be $35 first, down to $5 for fourth best time. Bronc and steer daily riding prizes will be $25 first, to $5 fourth, with first prize in the three day average being a $25 pair of hand-made boots.

In the cowgirl sponsor event, a $100 hand-made saddle will be awarded first place winner, $35 pair of boots for second, and a pair of $10 hand-made spurs for third place. Sponsors will be present during the entire three days, but will be judged only once. Hotel rooms and meals will be furnished sponsors during the entire three days.

Besides the regular rodeo features, there will be trick and fancy riding, educated horses, clowns, midway carnival, chuck wagon feed at reasonable prices, and airplane stunts.

The celebration will open on Friday morning, Aug. 14, on the down town streets of Sweetwater with a huge parade headed by the Sweetwater Band, and followed by the cowgirl sponsors, and entrants in the rodeo events.

Three official rodeo dances will be held on the large open air platform at the ranch. The first dance will be on Thursday night, Aug. 13, preceding the opening day of the show Friday morning, Jack Armstrong and his Music will be featured. ### 'No Mercy' Is Demand Of Government In New Movement

By Associated Press
Spain's loyal troops smashed at northern rebel strongholds today as insurrections ran a blockade of government troops to land 4,000 Moroccan reinforcements on the peninsula for a march on Madrid.

The fall of the rebel city of Cadiz was reported simultaneously with an announcement by the government of an air drive "without mercy" with 300 airplanes.

The French government was cheered by the adhesion of seven European nations to its suggested non-intervention policy in connection with the Spanish rebellion.

Spanish rebels pushed the civil war front close to France's border Wednesday in bloody battles for possession of San Sebastian and advanced a step nearer Madrid at tremendous cost in dead and wounded.

Desperately the Fascist troops hurled heavy artillery fire along the road into Tolosa and nearby San Sebastian. A co-ordinating column moved today Gijon, farther to the west.

The offensive marks a determination of Fascists to dislodge the strongly entrenched Loyalists along the seacoast, and provide a Northern port through which the rebels could receive supplies.

Throughout the day the deadly whine of artillery shells betokened progress of the attack, another battle of destruction in the civil war which already has cost 35,000 lives and 100,000 wounded, according to the Red Cross estimate.

High in the mountains outside Madrid where Tuesday 400 were killed in vicious fighting, rebels paid for a two mile advance with 300 dead and 1,000 wounded.

Pictorial Bulletins from Strife-torn Spain's Capital Rushed By NEA Service to The Reporter-Telegram

While comrades watch the grisly scene a rifleman prods the body sprawled on the sidewalk to make sure the victim of Madrid's fierce street fighting is dead. Hundreds of bodies littered the streets after civil militiamen had cleared out suspected rebel strongholds.

Every building a fort, every man—and woman, too—a soldier. Embattled citizens in Madrid man the windows of upper stories to shoot it out with their fellow countrymen in the bloody street fighting that costs hundreds of lives.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Certain localized pains, vague or pronounced in accordance with the patient's individual constitution, are beginning to afflict some of the liberals who decided to support Governor Landon for election. The pangs, of course are almost pleasant sensations in comparison with some of the agony which has caused certain 1932 conservative supporters of Roosevelt to go leaping over the imaginary fence which divides the political parties.

"Red Letter Day" for Soviet's Eden

BY MILTON BRONNER NEA Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Round-faced, roly-poly Maxim Litvinov, who usually wears a broad smile as well as a big black hat with a big round brim, was working for Russia at an international conference at Montreux recently, while his fellow members in the Soviet government at the earnest behest of Boss Stalin made the absentee a member of the coveted Order of Lenin.

MAXIM LITVINOV

Often Ousted as Undesirable It was just another big "up" in the life of this man whose see-saw career has been full of ups and downs. He might have been a rabbi in an obscure Polish town like one of his kinsmen, but he directs the foreign affairs of one of the most powerful countries on earth. He has starred in garrets and feasted in mansions. He has been booted out of European countries as an undesirable citizen and received back into those same countries with soldiers presenting arms in his honor.

named Litvinov as Russia's Ambassador to England. As Britain had not recognized the Soviet government, it did not recognize Litvinov as an Ambassador. In fact, it did not know what to do with him. But in the following September it found a very good use for him. Some Britons had been arrested in Moscow. The British promptly arrested Litvinov. When the Britons were released, Litvinov got his freedom back. Also he was booted out of the country.

Midland now must get busy and not lose too much time in employ an executive manager for the chamber of commerce. The variety of duties coming under this office require a man who can adjust himself to any condition and can meet any type of situation open-mindedly, and who can act. And he should be a man who can think ahead of the press, mapping out programs of development and expansion which will be a few jumps ahead of his neighbors and of other sections of the state. These men are rare and are hard to get. They should be trained in chambers of commerce work, both in education and experience. The men selected at Midland should be one whose success has been proven elsewhere. This man will cost a little more but should be worth it.

Fall is coming. Busy times are just a little ahead. Vacations soon will be over. The fall feeder cattle show and sale, the fall race meet and a lot of other projects are in the offing. This new chamber of commerce secretary can do much good in the publicity and exploitation of these events. Let's get busy.

Chas. Berry, former Burton-Lingo manager here who swapped jobs with Gordon Holcomb and went to Santa Anna, made his way into this column recently by paying a bill he owed a Midland dentist. He now comes forward and pays his subscription to this newspaper a year in advance. This Chas. Berry is a remarkable man. He writes me that he saw Sally Rand's calves at her nude ranch. That gives us something in common.

I hope, believe and wager that Roosevelt will be re-elected president, but "hats off" to Evetts in his leadership of the other faction.

Pretty Teeth Depend on Care

BY ALICIA HART NEA Service Staff Writer

WHITE, sparkling teeth are important to any woman's beauty. Nature may not have blessed you with nicely shaped, perfectly even teeth but modern science and the dental profession have provided you with ways and means to keep them clean and shining. There is no excuse for dingy, faded teeth that spoil your smile.

You ought to use dental floss at least once a day. This removes foreign substances which cannot be reached with a tooth brush. Remember too, that it's a good idea to use a mouth wash after each cleansing. Select toothbrushes (everyone needs two) with firm (not soft, but not harsh) bristles. Keep them hanging up so the bristles will have a chance to dry thoroughly after each brushing. If, in spite of this, they seem to get too soft, rinse with a strong solution of salt and water. Let the salt water dry on the brush. Incidentally, baking soda is one of the finest cleansing agents for stained teeth. You may not like the tastes of it, but it will do the trick. If your budget doesn't allow for a commercially prepared mouth wash, try plain salt and water.

the novice the completed stroke. In combining the two, do a dead man's float and start the flutter kick. Try this several times. When it is working rhythmically, start the arm movement. Count 1-2-3 on the down stroke of your left arm, and 4-5-6 as the right arm goes through its cycle. This gives you what is known as the six-beat crawl, or six thrashes of the legs to each complete cycle of the arms. Air should be taken in as the left arm goes through its cycle and the right begins, and exhaled as the right completes and the left begins.

NEXT: Correct breathing in action.

Slugging Game Has Bad Effect on Baseball in General, Says Hornsby

Rogers Hornsby contends that the slugging game has had a bad effect on ball players in general.

Too many pitchers have just about given up the almost hopeless task of keeping the score down with the lively ball.

Infielders and outfielders no longer work for hours every day trying to overcome weaknesses. It isn't worth the trouble. An infielder seldom can get a ball hit more than two or three steps to either side of him. Fly chasers have to play deep for ordinary hitters.

Nowadays too many players are not as good the second year in the majors as they were the first. They find hitting easy and take it for granted that they are big leaguers after a good first year.

"Any fellow who could hit 275 years ago ought to hit more than 300 now without any difficulty," says Hornsby, manager of the St. Louis Browns and one of the great hitters of all time.

"With the outfielders playing as deep as they do now, Ty Cobb would take two bases almost every time he hit the ball past the infield."

Deadened Baseball Means Greater Variety of Play

"They say the fans want more baseball. That's all right. But why not give them the kind of baseball that keeps them on edge for nine innings? Now you see them start walking out in the fifth inning of the second game of a double-header. They get to match baseball. Games last too long and are too one-sided. "The kind of games they used to

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Cow Saves Trapped Horse

BAKERSFIELD, Cal. (U.P.)—R. L. Stockton authenticates the Damon and Phyllis friendship of a cow and horse in his possession. When the horse became entangled in the roots of a tree, the cow bellowed lustily for several hours until help came. Finally, the fire department was summoned to chop away the roots before the horse could be released.

ALEX HIT HARD

Never in his long and brilliant career with Philadelphia, Chicago, and St. Louis in the National League was Grover Cleveland Alexander hit as hard as he was in Evansville, Ind. In that city to organize boys' baseball teams, Old Alex, after leaving a tavern, was either assaulted by gangsters, or battered by a hit-and-run driver, believe police who found him in a downtown gutter. He is shown above in a hospital bed recovering from head injuries.

Restore Rate on Fed Cattle Sold At Stock Yards

BY FRANK REEVES

FORT WORTH, Aug. 5.—The active order buying demand for cattle at Fort Worth Monday, strongly supported the contention of cattlemen that the restoration of the privilege of change of ownership and the through freight rate to apply would help the market. Practically all the loads of calves and some other classes of cattle sold early on order buyer account. It was predicted that when it becomes generally known that this privilege has been restored the demand will show a further improvement.

Effective January 25, 1932, the railroads canceled the sale in transit or change of ownership privilege on livestock applying at Fort Worth and other Southwestern markets.

Since the cancellation of these privileges, the Fort Worth Stock Yards company, The Livestock Traffic Association and other livestock interests have been handling this matter very aggressively with the carriers and others with a view of having these privileges restored.

As a result of such efforts, the carriers, restored this privilege on FAT SHEEP effective July 15, 1935; and on Stock and Feeder Livestock effective October 3, 1935.

We are now pleased to advise that effective August 3, 1936, this privilege will be restored on fat cattle under which agreement, fat cattle originating at stations in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, may be stopped at Fort Worth for a period not exceeding ten days for the purpose of trying the Fort Worth market with a change of ownership and re-shipment to destination beyond at protection of the through rate, origin to ultimate destination. The restoration of this privilege will have the effect of creating a wider outlet for the movement of livestock thereby increasing competition and should result in the producers obtaining better prices for their cattle.

Ballet Master Happy, Directs Square Dances

FORT WORTH, Tex. (U.P.)—Alexander Oumansky is fulfilling a desire of 20 years standing in directing the square dances for the "Last Frontier" in the Frontier Centennial here.

The stocky little master of the Russian Ballet saw his first square dance while touring the nation with the Diaghileff Russian Ballet.

He made up his mind to place the square dance on what he considered its proper level. His chance came when he took charge of the frontier show cowboy dances.

The former solo dancer with the Metropolitan Opera Company and the Chicago Civic Opera is directing 136 dancers in an intricate square dance routine. The grand finale of the dance sees a gyrating group of dancers suddenly swing into the shape of a huge star.

When the Frontier Centennial ends, Oumansky plans to form a Lone Star Ballet, with a nucleus of his square dancers, and tour the nation.

States Adopt Uniform Bills to Curb Crime

CHICAGO, (U.P.)—State legislatures following recommendations of the Interstate Commission on Crime, are making it increasingly possible to hunt and capture criminals who flee across state lines.

A report from the public administration clearing house here said that nine states already had adopted one or more of its model anti-crime bills.

The bills deal with out-of-state parole supervision, pursuit, attendance of witnesses from outside the state, and criminal extradition.

New York and New Jersey have adopted all four uniform laws, the report said. Rhode Island has enacted three, the close pursuit bill, the out-of-state parole bill, and the witness attendance bill.

Minnesota has adopted the witness and out-of-state parolee bills. Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Maryland have adopted the out-of-state parolee bill, and Virginia recently enacted the close pursuit bill.

Doctors Offer New And Accurate Test of Death

LONDON. (UP)—A new test of death, discovered by Drs. Salisbury, and Melvin, of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., is described in the current issue of the British Medical Journal.

"The general application of this test would remove all traces of one of the most haunting fears of mankind—the chance of premature burial," the journal declares.

The test involves appearance in the eye. All that is necessary is for ophthalmoscope, an instrument for inspecting the retina. If the columns of blood in the retinal vessels are broken the patient is beyond resuscitation. This phenomenon takes place after the circulation has been stopped for about ten minutes.

It is estimated there are approximately 150,000 inmates of American prison and penitentiaries.

The rings of planet Saturn are made up of moons, held in place by gravitation.

CAPITALIST COMMUNIST

THE germ of Communism was developing, under the guidance of Karl Marx, in Germany, when it required funds to bring it to maturity. These funds came obligingly from an "angel" who was part of that "capitalistic system" which Communism was being fostered to destroy.

Engels gave not only of his profits, but even wrote and fought for a cause whose primary purpose was to end the system on which he depended for his wealth. His belief in Communism, however, far exceeded his interest in his business, and he became close collaborator with Karl Marx in the revolutionary philosophy of the time.

FEMININE FANCIES

By KATHLEEN EILAND

We feel as if we'd just seen a ghost—an unpleasant one at that. A Dallas store is advertising its version of the bottillon or "small boot." The shoe comes high up over the instep and close with five buttons—and we're afraid, horribly afraid, that it foreshadows a return of the high-buttoned shoes which are an unpleasant memory of our childhood. May the arbiter of fashion forbid any such renaissance!

Do you know that compacts and combs come in sets now? One more luxury for us to sigh enviously over! We saw a pretty enamel compact decorated in gold paired with a comb of gold and what appeared to be dark amber shell yesterday in a jewelry store.

The same store, by the way, is now displaying a set of the Centennial plates. These are in blue and each presents a picture of historical interest, such as the surrender of Santa Anna and the first capital of Texas and the portrait of Stephen F. Austin surrounded by a border depicting cotton bolls, beargrass, Longhorns, adobe houses, and such like Texiana. What we especially like is the fact that on the back of the plate is given an explanation of the large picture on the front. Our knowledge of state history not being what it might be, we found this helpful.

The plates, we understand, are made in Czechoslovakia but we rather think the painting is American-made, though we cannot vouch for this.

'ELECTRIC EYE' TO BE USED IN TEXAS

New devices constantly appear for helping the poor college student. The University of Texas now holds out a brotherly hand to those college eds and co-eds whose pockets do NOT jingle by adding, in the cafeteria, a counter where students may buy a meal twice a day for approximately 15 cents. Hitherto the average meal cost—for lunch or dinner—was about 25 cents and the new arrangement will save approximately six dollars a month for student.

Why is it, we wonder, that we are always too early or too late to get in on such bargains? Now this comes—when our college days are over.

Will Be Exhibited During Motor Transportation Convention

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 6—An "electric eye" traffic counter, recently developed by the U. S. bureau of public roads for use in state-wide traffic surveys, will have its first exhibition in Texas next week at the Texas Motor Transportation Association Convention in Fort Worth, D. K. Shepard of the State Highway Commission announced today.

The automatic counter will be on exhibit at the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth August 13-14-15, Mr. Shepard said.

A number of the machines will be used in the statewide traffic survey which the State Highway Commission and the U. S. Bureau of public roads will begin this month Shepard announced.

The automatic counters will provide a continuous record of traffic by hours of the day at any point. They will count passing vehicles without counting pedestrians.

This is accomplished by two parallel beams of light directed across the roadway on photoelectric cells. When a passing vehicle interrupts both beams, the counting machine makes a record of it.

A pedestrian will interrupt only one beam at a time, and therefore will not be counted.

The counters will be placed at a number of strategic points on Texas highways in order to give highway officials an exact picture of the density of traffic at any chosen point. This procedure will eliminate guess-work in determining the density of highway traffic, Mr. Shepard said.
