COUGHLIN STRUCK BY ILLNESS; FORCED TO HALT A SPEECH

Convention Ended As Priest Attacks President

LEMKE SPEAKER

41,000 Persons Hear Union Party's Candidate

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 17. (AP)—Illness struck the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin Sunday as he denounced the Roosevelt administration before a huge rally of his followers, forcing him to retire to his hotel without finishing his speech and bringing an abrupt end to the first national convention of his National Union for Social Justice.

"I am too ill to continue," he said softly into the microphone with ten minutes of his allotted radio time remaining.

The crowd, estimated by Walter Davis, convention marshal, at 41,000 had heard Representative William Lemke of North Dakota, the Union party's presidential candidate, and his running mate, Thomas C. O'Brien of Boston.

A broiling sun had beat down all afternoon on the uncovered speakers' platform in Cleveland Stadium and persons who saw Father Coughlin after he retired to his hotel room said later he was suffering only from the heat and the strain of the three day convention.

Dr. George J. O'Malley, personal friend of the priest, went to his room shortly after Father Coughlin's arrival and said the priest was suffering only from exhaustion and nervous indigestion.

Dr. O'Malley said he had advised him to take a complete rest for at least a week.

Thomas J. Coughlin, father of the Royal Oaks priest, went to the room and after talking with his son, said "He's just tired out. He has been working entirely too hard. I stopped here today because his mother was worried about him working too hard."

ECTOR WILDCAT LOGS GAS SHOW

Grisham & Hunter Test Is Nearing Critical Depth

By FRANK GARDNER

A showing of gas from 4,235 to 4,250 brought attention today to Grisham & Hunter No. 1 R. B. Cowden, important northwest Ector wildcat. Although small in volume, the gas in the No. 1 Cowden is said to correspond to the "big gas" found at a similar point in Davidson and Atlantic No. 1 Cummins a mile and a half to the south and in other tests drilled in the area. Drilling in the test continues below 4,250 in line. The Grisham & Hunter wildcat is located 1,090 feet from the west line of section 10, block 45, township 2 north, T. & P. survey.

The same operators' No. 2 R. B. Cowden in section 8, about a mile and a half to the west of the No. 1, is reported drilling broken line section at 4,350 feet. No gas or oil showings have yet been encountered by the test. Verdict on it is expected within the next few days, barring delays.

Farther south, York & Harper No. 1 Slater, 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 26, block 45, township 1 south, was spudded late last week and is now drilling at a shallow depth.

Big Ward Well

Showing production second in size only to the well it offsets to the northeast, Sid Richardson No. 2 Hathaway, Gulf No. 3 Estes was added to the list of record sand wells in the southeast Ward field when it flowed 1,588 barrels of oil in 10 hours and 15 minutes. At the end of the first hour of testing, gas volume gauged 4,600,000 cubic feet. The No. 3 Estes is bottomed at 2,572 and was shot with 230 quarts from 2,445 to 2,562. The location is 2,325 feet from the southeast and 330 feet from the southwest line of section 38, block 34, H. & T. C. survey.

Humble Test Drilling

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 C. H. Eubanks, Gaines county wildcat, has resumed drilling and is now below 5,500 feet in line. Drilling was suspended for a week at 5,342 when the well was given a 3,000-gallon acid treatment, with only a gas increase resulting. The Humble test is in section 6, block AX, public school land, eight miles northwest of the Landreth No. 1 Kirk discovery.

With standard rig in, Landreth No. 1 Kirk will start a series of pumping tests this week to determine the amount of oil and water showing. It is now bottomed at 4,855, having failed to shut off bottom-hole sulphur water by cementing back from 4,870.

Stanford No. 1 Dewey Davis, latest test to spud in Gaines county, has set surface pipe. It is located 1,860 feet from the south and east lines of section 18, block A-21, public school land, about a mile and a quarter northwest of the Landreth well.

Police Lieutenant Varies Jobs, Is A Composer and Conductor of Symphony

TOLEDO, Aug. 17. (AP)—When Charles Roth comes home in the afternoon and takes off a uniform and dons a dinner coat he merely is changing from Lieut. Charles Roth of the Toledo police department to Conductor Charles Roth of the Toledo Civic Symphony orchestra.

For the last 13 years, Roth, 45 and Teutonic, has been a true "doubler in brass."

For 18 years he has been a policeman; for 13 of them conductor of the symphony he organized himself.

No less a composer than a director, he has led 79 musical numbers, many scored for full symphony. And he's a champion pistol shot.

It all started with "music, at 8. At that age, only three years after he had begun school, he began tooting a trombone.

He started lessons, liked them and no one had to tell him to practice.

Crack Shot As Boy

As a boy, playmates found Charley was a crack shot with most any weapon. So police work came to fascinate him as well as music. Then he mixed the two.

With little outside assistance, Roth formed the Toledo Symphony in 1923. In only eight months, it was able to present its first concert.

It grew steadily. Now, there are 80 regular members, 60 extras. All are union members and either teachers or professional soloists.

In 1929, the orchestra was incorporated, with Solon T. Koltz, then mayor and also president of the Toledo federation of musicians, as president.

Just now, in addition to his first love—the symphony—Lieutenant-Conductor Roth is supervisor of federal music projects being conducted

TWO NEGRO WOMEN AND YOUTH TAKEN IN CUSTODY TODAY

Trio Being Held In Connection With Murder

FOURTH OF KIND

Parallels Closely Deaths of Three Other Women

CHICAGO, Aug. 17. (AP)—Two negro women and a negro youth were taken into custody today in connection with the finding of Mrs. Mary Louise Trammell beaten to death in a hotel room yesterday in the fourth similar slaying of women here in recent months.

Mrs. Trammell was found beaten to death by a desk clerk standing on the shoulders of the woman's husband. He peered through the transom and saw her nude body sprawled on a bed.

Police theorized the slayer of the woman invaded the room from adjoining elevated tracks. They found indications that the assailant left the room the same route he had entered it, stepping to the fire escape and swinging back to the elevated span.

Trammell had returned to Chicago following her run to Michigan and when he went to the room his knocks were not answered. He sought out the clerk, John W. Bon, and they went to the room, discovering the crime.

Urge Construction Of Trench Silos To Preserve Feed Crop

In an interview this morning County Agent S. A. Debnam stressed the importance of the immediate construction of trench silos as a means of saving the feed that is suffering from drought. All feed that is large enough to cut with a row binder or with a slide can be saved and converted into valuable feed if it is cut before it falls down and placed in a trench silo with plenty of water. This is a cheap way of saving feed that will otherwise be lost, and the use of a trench silo while always a good practice is particularly valuable in times like this, Debnam said.

Because of the drought in the corn belt all feed will be very high and feeding cattle this year is a good way to supplement the farm income. It is the opinion of the department of agriculture that fat cattle will bring substantially higher prices because of the shortage of corn and this section needs to have all its feed for that purpose.

Trench silos can be dug with farm equipment and the feed can be placed in them without the use of cutters or other expensive equipment so that this method is one of the cheapest ways of putting up feed anytime and in time of drought it represents a way of saving feed that would otherwise be lost.

Scientists of World to Help America In Launching First Cancer Institute

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 17. (AP)—America's first cancer institute will attract world famous scientists who have devoted the most productive years of their lives seeking a cure for the disease to the University of Wisconsin campus Sept. 7, 8 and 9.

Investigators whose contributions to the scientific and medical world based upon careful laboratory research are considered among the most advanced data available in treating the dreaded disease have been invited here by Dr. William D. Stovall, director of the state laboratory of hygiene and chairman of the three day conference.

The institute financed by the Wisconsin Alumni Research foundation, has as its purpose, according to Dr. Stovall, to bring together internationally prominent investigators for a critical analysis of the cancer problem, for an exchange of ideas among themselves and for the stimulating effects such a meeting will have on young investigators.

To Serve As Clearing House

Dr. Stovall explained further that the institute will seek to translate the expert opinion after consideration of the results of research into the possible significance of that knowledge on organization of a plan to control this ravaging disease.

To Start New Test On Seminole Structure

By FRANK GARDNER

Another major oil deal was revealed today with the announcement that Amerada Petroleum Corporation had taken over the Walsh & Adams interests on the Seminole structure in Gaines county.

Although prices paid are being withheld, it is understood that they are the highest ever paid for unproved acreage in West Texas. According to the terms made public, W. T. Walsh, Midland operator, sold out his interest in the northeast 40 acres of section 228, block G. W. T. R. R. survey, while Harry Adams Corporation retained a quarter interest in that 40 acres but turned over to Amerada the west half of the northwest quarter of the section, 80 acres. It is said that Walsh will be paid partly in cash and partly in oil, while the Adams payment consists of cash and the interest in the 40 acres.

By terms of the agreement, Amerada will start a well in the center of the 40 acres by September 1st. They will obtain the original test drilled on the Seminole structure, the Walsh & Adams No. 1 Avertit, which was abandoned at 4,910 feet blowing 12,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily when tools were lost in the hole. The No. 1 Avertit is in the northeast corner of the 40 acres.

Since the original Seminole test struck the high gas zone early in the year, many competent persons have ventured the opinion that the well is just above the horizon carrying oil, and that if it had been drilled but a few feet deeper, would have blown in a gusher.

GIRL SLAIN; SISTER BEATEN, ATTACKED

Two Suspects Held After Crime Discovered By Parents

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 17. (AP)—Riley Drain and his wife found one of their daughters beaten to death and another critically wounded in their bedroom early Sunday.

Evidence indicated, Arthur Grady, chief of police, said, that the assailant attacked Dorothy Drain, 16, then beat her and her sister, Barbara, 14, with a hatchet.

Dorothy was dead when her parents returned to their home. Barbara still was in a critical condition, at a hospital Sunday afternoon.

Authorities turned two bloodhounds loose in the Drain neighborhood to hunt the assailant. Grady said two suspects were held. He declined to divulge their names. The attacker probably entered the house through an unlocked door, the police chief said.

"Assault was the motive in this case," Grady said. "There was no robbery connected with it. The girls were asleep."

While the invader left no weapon, Grady said he believed the man used a dull hatchet in beating the girls over the head.

Mr. and Mrs. Drain attended an entertainment Saturday night. Drain is a WPA foreman here.

MASS KILLINGS OF FASCISTS HELD IN REVOLUTION AREA

Irun, San Sebastian Are Objectives Of Rebels

REBELS ADVANCE

Victories on Pair Fronts Claimed Today

By Associated Press

Government soldiers answered rebel shelling of Irun and San Sebastian today with the execution of hostages by firing squads, reports reaching the Franco-Spanish frontier said.

The bloodiest battle of the war was fought today in Estremadura where 20,000 government troops fought rebels with no quarter offered.

Reports that rebels had executed 1,500 loyalists spurred government troops into a merciless drive to "completely exterminate" rebels in the west, authorities said.

Rebel victories on the Madrid and Zaragoza fronts were claimed by Fascists.

The American cruiser Quincy was reported by the state department to be enroute to Nice, France, with approximately 120 American refugees from the danger zone.

Despite a new Fascist advance in the north, the government said it had optimistic reports from all fronts. It also announced the taking of a number of small towns, including several in the vicinity of Teruel.

Assaults on Oviedo and Zaragoza continued in the north, with aerial and artillery units participating.

Nevertheless, there were reliable indications that potent communist and anarchist elements in the government militia were dissatisfied apparently, even with the nightly executions throughout the country, which were estimated to have cost the lives of several thousand fascists.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The wearing apparel of the two U. S. senators from Mississippi is ordinarily a matter of no great concern to anyone but themselves and their immediate families. At the moment, however, it has come to be a large issue in the primary campaign which finds Senator Pat Harrison fighting to save his job from former Governor Bennett Conner. Senator Theodore G. Bilbo, hero of the "back country," is the chief supporter of Conner and he has been going about the state showing pictures of Pat in golf knickerbockers. According to Bilbo, these pictures are good and sufficient evidence that Pat is no fit servant of the people and cannot be trusted. That was doubtless effective in certain areas until Pat's friends resurrected a story about Bilbo. Early in 1934 Bilbo complained to police in Memphis, Tenn., that his parked automobile had been robbed there. He enumerated as among the missing articles some 40 red neckties—mostly new—some red pajamas, some yellow pajamas, some That'll Hold Him A visiting European celebrity, famed in the financial field, was twitting General Counsel Hermail Oliphant of the Treasury about the government silver policy. "What are you going to do with all that silver when you get it?" he asked. "Well, we may pave the streets with it," Oliphant answered. "That's a lot more than we can do with all that paper you fellows gave us, representing the war debts."

black pajamas with rattle-snake trimmings, and "19 or 20 shirts, one yellow silk, one gray silk, one or two with stripes, and the rest white." Think of it! 20 Shirts! "Sun-tanned farmers of Mississippi," demands the Jackson, (Miss.) Daily News, editorially, "ye who sit and listen to the drooling of poison from the lips of Bilbo, is there one among you who ever possessed 19 or 20 shirts, silk, or otherwise?" The national capital is interested in the outcome. Harrison, administration wheel-horse, is an important figure in Washington. The primary is on August 25 and chances seem to be that Pat will be returned. "Always Good for a Show. You can always depend on Frank "Woody" Hockaday, airway engineer from Wichita, Kan., to produce something spectacular. Wearing red swimming trunks and an Indian headdress, Hockaday dumped a great pile of feathers in the office of Assistant Secretary of War Harry Woodring as a sort of demonstration for world peace. He is back in an institution again now, but the incident recalled pleasant memories of something Hockaday pulled back in 1928. About 200 persons connected with aviation were pilgrimage by boat to the dedication of the Wright brothers memorial monument in Kitty Hawk, N. C. It was on a Sunday and Hockaday created some consternation by threatening to jump overboard unless church services were held. Woody won. Senator Hiram Bingham was pressed into service as the preacher.

Not a Democrat in Sight New Dealers who have been vacationing at the more exclusive beaches found comparatively few political friends. The 5-year-old daughter of Chairman James M. Obituary writers who turned to the congressional directory for material after Congressman Marion A. Zioncheck had committed suicide found no help there. The representative who received so much publicity in his later days had been so modest when he first came here, in contrast to congressmen who sometimes take a whole page to brag about themselves, that the biography he inserted simply said: "Marion A. Zioncheck, democrat, of Seattle, Washington."

The SPORTS HORN

BY JESS RODGERS

Sixteen lettermen, plus 11 squadmen, plus 21 sophomores, in the case of the Horned Frog football team of T. C. U., adds up to quite a bright prospect for the 1936 season.

The roster for the coming season shows that some 48 men are slated to report Sept. 10 to Coach L. R. "Dutch" Meyer, and his new assistant, Mike Brumbelow, when the roll is called at the opening practice session. At least one veteran will be available for every post. At most of the positions there are several men who will be able to divide the time without weakening the team, something that the Frogs have not always had in years past.

The line appears to be a little stronger than the backfield, even though such stars as Capt. Darrell Lester at center, Tracy Kellow at guard, Wilson Groselove and Manuel Godwin at tackle, and Melvin Diggs at end, will be missing.

To replace these are most of last year's big fast freshmen crew and a bunch of junior and senior lettermen. The ends will be especially strong, with four lettermen, including last year's regulars. The lettermen are Capt. Walter Roach, L. D. Meyer, Will Walls and Charlie Needham. To back these up will be Squadman Paul Snow and Sophomores Charles Mabry, Charley Williams and Bob Jordan, all promising wingmen.

In order to fill Groselove's hole at right tackle, Coach Meyer has switched Aubrey Linne to that position. Linne is especially good on defense. If he can get the hang of the offensive duties, he is due to be heard from plenty.

Backing him up will be Squadman James Nelson and Clifton Cowan. At the White and Russell. Henry. The White and Russell. Henry. The White and Russell. Henry.

Joe E. Brown Heads Yucca Comedy Film

Practical jokes on movie sets have always been of the hardy variety, but Guy Kibbee things chasing people around with tractors is going a bit too far. Unless you're acquainted with small, lively tractors which can turn on a dime, and also with the players, Joe E. Brown and Director Raymond Enright assembled for the filming of the First National picture, "Earthworm Tractors" which is showing today and tomorrow at the Yucca, you can't fully appreciate Guy's quams. Joe himself isn't adverse to bronco-busting a tractor around and chasing you with it. Another stunt according to Guy, is to bury a thin rope just under the surface of the ground. One end connects with your folding canvas chair, in which you sit comfortably waiting for your turn to act, or perhaps catching a wink or two of sleep. The other goes to a baby tractor some distance behind you. When the tractor starts suddenly

Phil Baker Signed For Gulf Programs

Phil Baker, popular radio, stage and screen comedian-acrobat, has been signed by Gulf for the second consecutive year and will star in a series of Sunday evening broadcasts over a widespread Columbia network, starting September 27. The programs will be heard from 7:30 to 8:00, EST., as they were last season. While Baker is on vacation, his sponsor is presenting a musical show featuring Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson.

Those two heckling stooges—Bottle and Beetle—will also return to the air with Baker. Bottle will again be portrayed by Harry MacNaughton while the identity of Beetle continues to remain radio's deepest mystery. With his switch to Gulf sponsorship and a Sunday night spot on CBS, Baker reached new heights of popularity in his 1935-36 radio campaign. Official ratings show that he consistently played to large audiences than at any time during his previous microphone career. Further evidence of his success was the record-breaking vaudeville tour he undertook early this summer.

Baker will travel the airwaves with a brand new vehicle, which will replace the "Great American Tourist" device. Full details concerning this set-up will be announced shortly. The comedian's supporting cast will also be made known within the next few days. Despite frequent and flattering offers to return to the stage, where he first won fame, Baker has decided to concentrate on microphone activities. The memories of his smash-hit Broadway shows such as "A Night in Spain," "Artists and Models," "Greenwich Village Follies" and "Americana" often tempt him to go back to the footlights. Before Broadway he enjoyed nationwide popularity as a vaudeville headliner. He got his start as Ben Bernies partner in a violin-and-accordion act.

for somewhere else, your chair goes with it and you sit suddenly on the earth. "Earthworm Tractors" is a rollicking comedy romance based on the famous stories by William Hazlett Upton. Besides Joe E. Brown and Kibbee, the cast includes June Travis, Dick Foran, Carl Hughes, Gene Lockhart, Olin Howland and Joseph Crehan.

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything).

Boy: "Say, dad, what does it mean when the paper says some man went to a convention as a delegate-at-large?" Dad: "It means his wife didn't go with him, son."

The teacher had been talking about the Golden Rule and the principle of turn-the-other-cheek. "Now, Willy," she said, "what would you do supposing a boy hit you?" "How big a boy are you supposing?" asked Willy. Mrs. Finch: Oh, come now, you shouldn't say birds are a nuisance. Most of their diet is worms and insects. Mr. Gardner: I am glad you told me that. It is some consolation to know they eat my berries and fruit merely for dessert.

An artist was out painting in the country. A farmer came and watched him. "Ah," said the artist, "perhaps you too are a lover of the beauties of nature. Have you seen the golden fingers of dawn spread across the eastern sky; the blue-tinted islets float on a lake of fire in the west; the somber clouds blot out the luminous moon at midnight?" "No," said the farmer, "not lately. I been on the water wagon for over a year."

The two tramps were stretched out on the green grass. Above them was the warm sun, beside them was a babbling brook. It was a quiet, restful, peaceful scene. "Boy," mused the first tramp contentedly, "right now I wouldn't change places with a guy who owns a million bucks." "How about five million," asked his companion. "Not even for five million," drowsed the first tramp. "Well," persisted his pal, "how about ten million bucks?" "The first tramp sat up. "That's different," he admitted. "Now you're talking real dough."

Brain Food "Tell me why," said an Englishman to an American friend, "you Yankees generally get along well in business while many Englishmen fall." "Brains" was the reply. "You should eat more fish. Give me five dollars and I'll get you some of the fish my wife gets for me. Eat it and then see how fast your brain works." The Englishman agreed. Next day he met his friend again. "How did you get on?" asked the Yankee. "Well, it was splendid fish." "Do you feel any different?" "No, I can't say I feel any different, but five dollars was a lot for a piece of fish, wasn't it?" "There you are," said the Yankee, "your brain is beginning to work already."

Mrs. W. P. Knight and daughter, Belva Jo, returned Sunday night from Dallas where they spent the weekend.

'Vision' Behind Bumper Crops, Farmer Argues

STRATFORD, Ont., Aug. 17 (U.P.)—Herman Greve, amateur farmer, explains the amazing results he has obtained in growing vegetables in three small plots here to "a vision like an angel, fair as a woman," which came to him in a dream long ago.

Greve has grown carrots measuring 20 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter; beets weighing 28 ounces, and an average of 121 bags of potatoes a year, all in three plots hardly more than an acre in size.

"The gardening education I have received came to me in a dream about 12 years ago," Greve says, "but I had little opportunity to use the information until two years ago. The vision was like an angel, fair as a woman. It showed me how to grow plants."

Greve refused to reveal the source of his "information" on crop-raising, but admitted the plan "had something to do with conditions and changes of the moon." Although he did not attribute the "visions" power as being responsible, the fact remains Greve's plots are the only ones in the city which showed no ill effects from the prolonged drought which almost ruined general farming production in this district.

Miss Allene Kaderli and brother, Hilton, went to Stanton Saturday night to spend the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kaderli.

FEMININE FANCIES

By KATHLEEN EILAND

We may be prejudiced in our judgement, but it seems to us that average Southern Sunday dinner—that is to say, fresh peas and other vegetables, fried chicken and gravy, biscuits, cornbread, sliced tomatoes, iced tea, and a dessert—is about as good food as anyone could want.

Humans must have a streak of greed deep down in their make-up. Else why are articles about food, especially those which describe various delicious dishes to be found in out-of-the-way restaurants so popular, particularly in the high-grade stylish magazines?

A feature film built around cattle branding and displaying a collection of brands, should, if properly handled, prove popular, especially during this year when interest in things Texan is at high tide. We're glad that such a film is now being made here at a former Midland man, Mr. Marion F. Peters, is at the head of the enterprise. He will employ some of the many drawings of cattle brands and letters from celebrities which have made his collection widely known.

Maybe dreams are a good thing, perhaps they enable us to enjoy certain characters which we will never be and certain adventures which we will never have in real life. That does not fully explain, however, why on one night we can dream that we are a doctor (when we have no aspirations to such an honor) and on another be only a bystander at an extraordinary celebration at some West Coast college and on still another occasion be fleeing from the scene of a crime.

Nobody who dreams often can complain that his life is dull.

Modernizes With Streamline Fountain

Installation of a new "streamline" soda fountain was under way today at the Midland Durg Co. whose announcement of the opening will be made through an advertisement in this paper within the next few days. Pointing out that this is a "streamline age," Barney Great-house, manager, said the design is used to enhance the beauty of the fountain, also to preserve cleanliness which customers like to see at a fountain. Because of this new design, sharp corners and dust catching crevices are eliminated.

In addition, exterior surfaces of the fountain are of highly polished stainless steel. The new material resists the corrosive action of lemon juice and other fruit acids without losing its gleaming finish.

Syrup jars, where flavors are kept, are also made of stainless steel. Because these new jars are thin and rest in an ice water bath, sodas and sundaes are added by cold syrups.

The soda fountain was purchased from the Liquid Carbonic Corporation, manufacturers of soda fountains and equipment for over forty years.

Campsite of Jackson In Year 1816 Is Discovered

BOGALUSA, La., Aug. 17 (U.P.)—One of the campsites where General Andrew Jackson, Major Howell Tatum and Captain George Walton, Jr., camped November 29, 1816, on their way to the defense of New Orleans has been found by Colonel Jim Walton, grandson of Walton.

The site is two miles west of Bogalusa near a spring on the banks of Bogalusa Creek. Original journals of the officers, now in the archives of the War Carbonic Corporation, were in the search.

A former government official at Tylertown, Miss., found an old saber on the site a few years ago, and other citizens have found rifle balls and old gun flints of the sort used in the War of 1812.

Walton's home is at Empora, Miss.
