Rebels are Closing In Around Madrid

Successful Midland Downs Race Meet Is Ended

WEATHER GRANTS AFFAIR BREAK FOR THE FIRST TIME

3,500 Persons Attend Closing Day Of The Meet

POMPOUS GENIE

Chestnut Gelding Is Winner of $1,000 Handicap Race

Midland's third and most successful Midland Downs race meet closed Saturday afternoon with one of the largest crowds of the entire meet in attendance. An estimated 3,500 persons took advantage of the low admission prices to see nine races, one of them the $1,000 Merchants' Handicap purse.

For the first time since the inauguration of the races last fall rain failed to interfere with the meet. At both previous meets heavy rains have severely hampered efforts to break even or make money on the events. Play through the mutual windows was heavy all through the latest meet, and though figures are not available, it is conceded a certainty that new records were set.

Pompous Genie, fast four year old chestnut gelding owned by Mrs. Bert camel, stepped the mile in one minute and forty seconds flat Saturday afternoon to win the Merchants' Handicap purse of $1,000 plus interest entrance fees. Headley & Weaver's Saucy Maria was second and C. N. Brewer's Cornelia Powell was third. Air Zon was fourth but only three moneys were paid.

Pompous Genie received a total of $800, getting sixty per cent of the purse plus the nomination fees of $80 and starting fees of $120. The second money was $300 and the third was $100. The winner, favorite in the betting when the mutuels closed, beat Saucy Maria by half a length, apparently without effort.

Back of Air Zon were Marveltina and We-Did-It, the latter having been coupled as an entry with Cornelia Powell.

Pompous Genie, with Jockey J. Dupuy up, got off to a good start, made Saucy Maria ridden by J. Kinnard, Marveltina, ridden by Cal Jennings, held third position for three quarters of a mile, seeing Cornelia Powell and Air Zon pass in the stretch. The winner carried 120 pounds, Saucy Maria 110 and Cornelia Powell 116.

The $1,000 purse was contributed by merchants of Midland for the feature race of the entire meet. A wreath, given by the chamber of commerce, was placed on Pompous Genie's neck by Miss Phyllis Haag, assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce.

Substantially better crowds turned out for the closing program.

Fire Prevention Week Reported On

Fire Prevention Week from October fourth through the tenth was observed in Midland by students throughout the city schools completing blanks relative to fire prevention and by an address by Judge Chas. Klapproth before the Lions Club.

The fire prevention committee wishes to express appreciation to all of those who contributed toward making Fire Prevention Week a success, and at the same time remind the citizens of Midland that they now enjoy a 10 per cent good fire record credit, due to a great extent, by the education of the public in general in the ways of preventing fires by removing causes and fire hazards, and this committee wishes at this time to remind the Midland people of the fact that an even greater fire record credit may be created, thereby lowering the insurance rates for Midland, if all the people will cooperate in the prevention of fires.

Attention is called at this time to cleaning of all vacant lots and premises, such as back alleys of the business district, as well as of the residential section, of any and all waste material that would in any way contribute to the starting of a fire.

SNAP RAIL LINE; CUT OFF SUPPLY OF FOOD FOR CITY

Only One Avenue Of Escape Now Open To Residents

BATTLES RAGING

Government Trying To Retake Towns From Rebels

Spain's Fascists announced Saturday that they had snapped the east rail line from Madrid to the east coast, shutting off the capital's food supply from the southeast, and had closed all but one highway avenue of escape.

Insurgent defenders at Oviedo were bombarded from all sides by dynamite-throwing Austrian miners, who are expected to complete occupation during the day.

Socialists concentrated attempts to regain the strategic town of San Martin de Iglesias from positions west of Madrid.

The American embassy notified the state department in Washington that the Spanish government had agreed to release Miss Jane Aderson, Atlanta, Georgia, who has been held on a charge of espionage, on condition she leave Spain. The woman said she was a newspaper worker.

Tension mounted hourly in the capital as reports told of the advance of the hard-driving insurgents.

Military patrols stood guard at key points in the city, ready to quell outbreaks of panic, and pedestrian traffic was banned on some streets.

DRY HOLE LIMITS WESTERN SIDE OF WADDELL FIELD

Gulf No. 6 Henderson Encounters Sulphur Water

Apparently defining the extent of the west side production of the Waddell pool in northern Crane county, Gulf Oil Corporation No. 6 abandoned test is being plugged and abandoned. The test, which showed a total water from 3,616 to 3,622, the total depth which rose 1,500 feet in two hours. The failure encountered gas shows from 3,255 to 3,262, but missed the pay of the fields wells. It is located 2,970 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east line of section 3, block B-23, public school land.

Another test in the Waddell pool, Magnolia No. 7 Edwards, 2,310 feet from the south and 330 feet from the west line of section 2, block B-23, is drilling lime at 3,505 without having struck any sizeable pay. It had slight shows farther up the hole.

Spudding was scheduled yesterday in the R. H. Henderson et al. No. 1 Argo Edwards, proposed short north extension to the Waddell pool. It is located 990 feet from the north and 1,650 feet from the west line of the north half of the north-west quarter of section 2, block B-23.

Foster Pool Active

The Foster pool in Ector showed a renewal of activity as the week closed. An expected mile northwest extension, Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. No. 2-B E. P. Cowden, is drilling line at 4,940 with 700 feet of oil in the hole. Location is 650 feet east of the northeast corner of section 10, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. survey.

Barnsdall Oil Co. No. 2 H. C. Foster hit pay at 4,125 and drilled to 4,127, with oil rising 200 feet within the time tools were pulled and bailer was run.

Cable tools are being torn down and rotary equipment is being moved into the Sinclair-Prairie No. 1-A Johnson, a wildcat five miles north of the Foster pool. The test has been carrying sulphur water coming from upper strata. It is now bottomed at 4,553 in lime and will be carried several hundred feet deeper for a more thorough test. Location is 440 feet from the north and 2,200 feet from the west line of section 42, block 42, township 1 south, T. & P. survey.

Continental No. 1 Edwards, wildcat in south Ector, is drilling lime below 3,355 feet.

Why should any columnist try to make people mad?
Answer:
The columnist should realize that the only way to make some people think is to make them mad.

Yes, there are people who never think except when their indignation is aroused.
You have noticed that at times a columnist purposely tries to make himself appear ridiculous.

Why is that?
The motive of the columnist in so doing is to make people think—while they are analyzing his absurdities, they are thinking.

Does a column writer believe all he writes?
No.
He lies, in an effort to get the people to think in terms of the truth.

Some folks never discover the truth until they investigate a lie.
So long.

DUE to rising costs of materials used in beauty work, it has been necessary for the Midland Beauty Shops to study the situation co-operatively. This group, after analyzing the situation carefully, believes that the only solution to the problem is to adopt standard prices in this city. This step is necessary in order to keep up the standard of beauty shop work that has been maintained here for years. The standard prices of work are listed below, together with various shops that have pledged themselves to work co-operatively in this program of giving better service in the face of advancing costs of materials used.

Adams Is Appointed Dealer by Pontiac

The Pontiac Motor Co. has appointed Frank Adams, well known automobile man and native of Midland, for the distribution of the famous "Silver Streak" six and eight lines of cars.

Adams has been in the automobile business for the past eight years, most of which was with General Motors products. His experience in the motor car industry is very wide, having been an accountant, sales manager and office manager. Recently, Adams completed a General Motors training course in "sales management" and made a high mark in his examination. Pontiac is pleased to make this connection with Adams stated Harry Payne, district manager, and we know that with the announcement of the 1937 cars, which will be done early in November, that Pontiac will rapidly improve its position in Midland.

Adams will attend the dealer announcement convention in El Paso, Oct. 28th. The officials from Detroit, Mich., will present the 1937 line of cars and the policies for next year. Adams will take his sales force with him. Novel presentations will be made in the Texas Grand Theatre using motion picture playlets and many of the officials will make addresses.

Orders have been placed for shipments of the new Pontiacs, and Adams will announce his plans of his organization prior to announcement date.

Recordak Is New Bank Equipment

Installation of a Eastman "Recordak" is announced today by the First National Bank, as an added service to customers. The equipment is in the nature of a movie camera, taking a photograph of every check passing through the bank, thus preserving an exact and permanent copy.

Officials said the Recordak protects the bank against loss of a check passing through its hands and safeguards the customer from loss of canceled checks and the attendant embarrassment or difficulties.

The machine also will be used in the book keeping department, photographing statements and other records to eliminate duplication of work and to save time, labor and expense.

George L. McCarthy, former New York banker and now an official of the Eastman Kodak Co., invented the Recordak, conceiving the idea from slow motion moving pictures. The invention followed a problem created when a messenger threw some cancelled checks in a sewer as revenge for a reprimand he had received for an error.

The equipment is a decided trend toward economy and efficiency in business, officials said.

Naturalist Is Aroused By Turtle's Dumbness

DANIELSON, Com., Oct. 10 (AP)—Robert G. Smith, East Killingly naturalist, considers the turtle one of the dumbest of marine life.

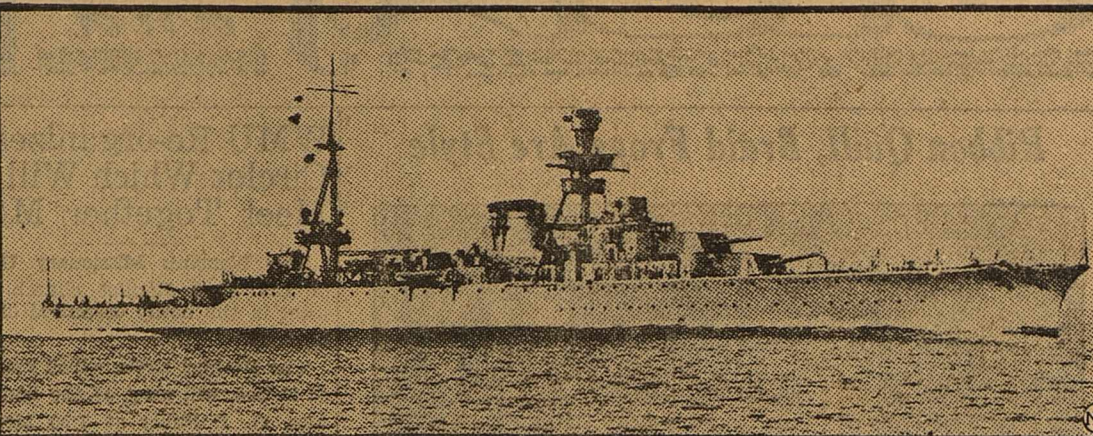

Smith designed an escape-proof trap, cylindrical in shape and composed principally of a fine twine woven into a net.

"The turtle," he said, "could easily get out by biting through the twine, but hasn't enough brains to think about that."

He considered turtles the worst destroyers of fish, ducks and other aquatic life.

"They consume one-third of their weight in beneficial wild life daily during the summer months," he said.

Haven for Fugitives From Spanish Rebel Wrath

This Argentine cruiser, the Veinticinco de Mayo, was stationed at Alicante, on the southeast coast of Spain, to embark high Spanish government officials when approach of Rebel armies made it dangerous for officials to remain in the country. President Manuel Azana and some cabinet ministers were reported to have obtained permission to flee on the cruiser, Argentina, which until 1816 belonged to Spain, thus extended the right of asylum to its mother country.

Nine Terms Served

LINCOLN, Neb. (U.P.)—Charles Smith, 56-year-old Birmingham, Ala. Negro, was candid about it, at least. Pleading guilty to robbery, Smith admitted to Judge E. B. CCC Re-Seeds Timber Lands Swept by Fire

DULUTH, Minn. (U.P.)—The ancient Romans beat their swords into plowshares, but the CCC youths of the Superior National forest simply carried their forest fighting hoes and spades into planting areas and are restoring timber recently destroyed by wide-sweeping blazes.

Millions of seedlings are being planted in areas formerly burned or logged.

The forest fire danger, accentuated in the dry stages of last summer, has been eliminated by heavy fall rains, and comprehensive reforestation projects have begun. The leaves have fallen will bring True, another dry period after potential fire conditions in the forested areas, in late autumn, but the versatile CCC workers will take their tools from plantations if necessary and gain wild them on the fire lines.

Some of the decadent buildings once used as logging camps in the Superior Forest were re-occupied this summer as fire camps. They now are being used as planting camps.

BULLDOGS EASY WINNERS OVER LIGHT KERMIT AGGREGATION

London Gets Water Reserve
CHINGFORD, Eng. (U.P.)—A vast new storage reservoir, with a capacity of 3,000,000 gallons, is being built here to overcome the danger of a water shortage in London.

WAFFORD SCORES 3 TOUCHDOWNS IN FRI. ENGAGEMENT

32-6 Final Score As Club Romps Over Invaders

With Wafford leading the way, The Midland Bulldogs turned on the power to overpower the light but courageous Kermit Yellowjackets by a 32-6 score.

The Bulldogs scored in every period, making their first points in the second time they gained possession after having lost an earlier scoring chance by fumbling on the Kermit 10.

The initial Midland score came early in the first period when they took the ball on the Kermit 31 after Campbell kicked from his own goal to that point. A series of plays with Rettig, Barber and Wafford alternately carrying the ball placed it on the invaders' 11 and Wafford went off right tackle for six points. Rettig failed to make extra point by plunging line.

The second tally was made by Rettig after Wafford had placed the ball on Kermit 6 after a beautiful 24 yard sprint off his left tackle. Adams attempted to kick point but failed.

The Bulldogs made it 19 just before the half ended when Wafford waltzed over from the Kermit 5. Midland had gained possession of the ball at that point after a Kermit fumble was recovered by Lawson. Adams kicked goal.

The fourth touchdown came about midway in the third quarter when Wafford went straight through the middle of the line for 4 after he had advanced the ball to that point with a series of line thrusts. Adams kicked goal.

The last score came near the end of the game when Adams intercepted a Kermit pass on the 2 yard line and stepped over. Page, standing almost on his own goal had attempted to pass but Wimberly stepped in front of the ball, knocking it up into the air and it came down in Adams' arms. Adams failed to kick goal.

The lone Kermit score came in the last quarter when, with most of the Bulldog second team on the field the Yellowjackets took the ball on the Midland 41 and advanced over the goal with a series of line plays and passes.

The Kermit club was clearly outclassed at the start of the game and never seriously threatened to make the game more than slightly interesting. Although figures are not available, it was easy to see that the Bulldogs carried a large weight advantage in both the line and backfield.

Midland play was both good and bad. At times the club clicked like one of championship calibre and at other times they looked worse than a bunch of junior high boys.

Midland line play was decidedly off during the night and backfield play was spotted. End and guard play at times bordered on "lousy" the boys time after time failing to touch men they were supposed to block out of plays.

Midland made 194 yards from scrimmage, Kermit made 83. First downs were 15-5 for Midland.

"State Fair," Will Rogers Movie, to Return to Ritz Theatre for Two Days

For those who missed it before and for those who have requested to see it once more, the Ritz Theatre by popular demand brings back today and tomorrow that unforgettable Fox film, "State Fair," the picture that brought Will Rogers his greatest fame.

A veritable constellation of stars surrounds the beloved humorist in "State Fair" headed by Janet Gaynor, who is co-starred with Rogers, and also including Lew Ayres, Sally Eilers, Norman Foster, Louise Dresser, Frank Craven and Victor Jory.

The excitement, the laughter, the romance and adventure of the great state fair is reflected in the expressions of the Frake family as they prepare to depart for the event they have eagerly awaited for a year.

Will Rogers (Abel Frake) has entered his prize hog, Blue Boy, in the stock competition while Louise Dresser (Mother Frake) is looking forward to winning first prize with her pickles and mince meat.

The children, Janet Gaynor and Norman Foster, anticipate adventure and romance at the fair.

As the event is to last a complete week, the Frakes pitch their tent at the fair grounds. Rogers spends most of his time with Blue Boy. Louise Dresser is busily engaged comparing recipes with the other women, while Janet Gaynor has met Lew Ayres and Norman Foster has fallen in love with Sally Eilers, and aerial performer.

As the fair moves through its exciting week, many things happen to the Frake family. Love, humor, and excitement are skillfully blended in the narrative and the film stands today, as it was when first released, one of the screen's great pictures.

'The Great Ziegfeld' Showing at the Yucca

In "The Great Ziegfeld" now showing thru Tuesday at the Yucca Theatre, motion pictures have picked up the torch where the late Florenz Ziegfeld laid it down and have succeeded in out-Ziegfelding the great Ziegfeld himself.

"The Great Ziegfeld" has everything that a great musical picture should have. It has, in the life of Ziegfeld, a most gripping and perfect dramatic story. In its musical numbers, never before produced on such a scale of grandeur, it has many of the most dazzling scenes even seen in pictures.

In entertainment alone it rates just about 1000 per cent. First, there are William Powell as Ziegfeld, Myrna Loy as Billie Burke and Louise Rainers as Anna Held.

Then there are Virginia Bruce as Ziegfeld's greatest glorified American Girl, Frank Morgan as his rival producer, Nat Pendleton as Sandow, Reginald Owen as Ziggy's manager, Fannie Brice as herself, Ray Bolger and his amazing dancing feet, Harriet Hctor, and hordes of the most beautiful girls ever to smile at you from the screen.

The story opens in Ziegfeld's youth in the dazzling Chicago World's Fair of 1893. It progresses as Ziegfeld himself progressed, massing fortunes, to lose them and build other fortunes. But always in the foreground are the spectacular Ziegfeld productions and his amazingly beautiful show girls.

The dance numbers never before have been equalled. The direction of Robert Z. Leonard places him among the kings of directors and Wears Like Iron!

It's no accident that these suits won't wear out for years! Long ago the housewives of the Blue Ridge range found the secret of weaving sturdy cloth . . . a waffle weave construction that combines a strong, two-ply twist with single, all-wool strands . . . making it practically immune to punishment.

And what a grand job Hart Schaffner & Marx did in simulating this wear-proof fabric in Blue Ridge Homespun! It's as rich and supple as can be, remarkably smart in colorful nub stripes or small nub checks. No wonder this hillbilly fabric is going to town.
