

International Financier Is Found Slain

NEW YORK (AP)—Financier and draft dodger Serge Rubinstein was found dead today, bound and gagged, in his lavish Fifth Ave. apartment.

Clad in black pajamas, he was lying on his back in his third-floor bedroom.

The room had been ransacked. Drawers of a built-in wardrobe had been pulled out.

The bed had been slept in.

"It was either murder or robbery," said a policeman.

"The place was turned upside down."

Police said an employe found Rubinstein. His hands and feet were tied with heavy twine.

His hands were bound in front of him.

Rubinstein, 46, was facing deportation proceedings as an undesirable alien.

The former "boy wonder" of finance was convicted and imprisoned for World War II draft evasion.

The Russian-born financier lived lavishly in an apartment at 814 Fifth Ave., near 62nd St. He frequently was seen at swank nightspots despite his troubles with the government.

Rubinstein had a varied international background.

He grew up in Stockholm, Vienna, Paris and other European capitals.

He entered the United States in 1938 under the Russian quota but on a Portuguese passport. The Portuguese government since has "disowned" the passport.

Rubinstein came naturally by his financial wizardry.

His father, Dmitri, was privy counselor to the Czar, financial adviser to the monk Rasputin, and an official of banks in Moscow and St. Petersburg.

Since 1932 Rubinstein had been fighting through the courts against a deportation order. He also was in trouble with the government because of some of his financial deals.

He won an earlier deportation fight when the government tried unsuccessfully to oust him on the ground he entered the United States on an illegal Portuguese passport.

Rubinstein was the subject of an alleged extortion plot last year.

Emanuel Lester, 31, of the Bronx is under indictment charging him with attempting to extort $535,000 from the financier.

Lester, an alleged automobile smuggler, claimed he was merely trying to collect a debt from Rubinstein, against whom he had filed a $750,000 lawsuit.

Rubinstein was charged with smuggling automobiles here from Canada and selling them with false registration. He is free in $7,500 bail.

In fighting the government's deportation action, Rubinstein contended that during the war he was the citizen of a neutral country—Portugal—that he was the sole supporter of his mother and other relatives and that he was in an essential occupation.

He had various industrial interests aside from his financial manipulations.

No Preventive War Authority, Ike Is Certain

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Knowland (Calif.) said at the White House today President Eisenhower certainly does not believe his fight-for-Formosa resolution carries authorization to wage preventive war.

A small but determined band of Senate critics has raised a cry that the resolution is so broad as to do that. They are battling to restrict its terms.

Knowland fought back against that interpretation in Senate debate yesterday and, before the Senate reconvened today, paid a visit to the White House.

On leaving, Knowland told reporters the purpose of his visit was to bring the President up to date on the Senate debate.

"Unless the Chinese Communists attack our planes and ships on their mission, there will be no shooting as far as the United States is concerned," Knowland said.

Several amendments have been proposed but Knowland is battling to get the resolution through the Senate in exactly the same form it was approved by the House 409-3.

Knowland told the Senate yesterday amendments proposed by Senators Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Kefauver (D-Tenn.) if adopted, would be "a green light for the Communists to come and take" Quemoy and Matsu. These two islands, just off the China coast, guard main approach routes to Formosa, seat of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government.

Humphrey and Kefauver made it clear they had little hope the Small Tot Too Eager For Train

PLAINVILLE, Conn. (AP)—Three-year-old Tommy Frac woke up from his afternoon nap yesterday with a yen to "go see choo-choo twains."

Tommy got to the tracks and waited, but no trains came.

At 12:30 a.m. today, more than seven hours later, three policemen in a 200-member searching party found Tommy curled up on a railroad tie, fast asleep in 30-degree cold.

A freight train was due to pass the spot at 4 a.m.

The tot had wandered three miles from home.

How did he stand up to his adventure?

"Oh, fine," said a Bradley Memorial Hospital spokesman. "He's resting comfortably, and the last time we looked he was fast asleep—this time in a bed."

Tommy is being held at the hospital 24 hours for observation.

Tommy's mother, Mrs. Louis Frac, said she dressed her boy in a snow suit and sent him out to play after his nap.

"He's always talking about wanting to go see choo-choo twains which come by on and off," she said.

"Well, I guess he just got going and going, looking for the trains. Thank goodness he's safe."

General Motors Profits Increase

NEW YORK (AP)—General Motors, world's mightiest industrial corporation, hiked its profits 35 per cent in 1954 despite a 2 per cent dip in sales.

The strong earnings performance apparently resulted from a sharp decline in taxes.

Both sales and earnings were the second highest in the company's history.

The figures were set down yesterday in a preliminary report issued by Alfred P. Sloan, chairman, and Harlow H. Curtis, president. This was the score:

Earnings, estimated at 806 million dollars or $9.08 a share, were second only to the record $834,044,000 achieved in 1950. They compared with 1953 earnings of $598,119,478, or $6.71 a share.

Sales were estimated at $9,825,000,000. This compared with the all-time high of $10,027,965,000 in 1953.

The decline in the company's income tax bill in 1954 ($219,528,446) was greater than the rise in profits ($207,880,000).

POLL TAX SCORE

Poll Tax Payments	3,720
Exemptions	971
Total	4,691
Same date, 1954	5,818
Same date, 1953	5,402
Same date, 1952	7,903

MANY WAITING UNTIL POLL TAX DEADLINE

About 4,700 people have secured exemption certificates or poll tax receipts so far — about half the estimated number who should qualify as voters.

Yet casual questioning of people by Herald reporters failed to find such a proportion admitting to failure to protect the right to vote.

Why have half the people failed to secure receipts or exemptions? Here are some of the answers reporters received:

"I don't need a poll tax receipt this year."

"I'm not going to vote this year because everyone I voted for last year was defeated."

"I just haven't gotten around to it yet."

"I forgot; I'm going to get mine right now."

"I don't believe a person should have to pay a tax to vote."

"I don't believe there will be any important elections this year."

"I don't intend to pay my poll tax this year. There are no elections."

"I haven't had time; but I intend to get mine."

"I don't have mine, but I've got until Jan. 31 to get it and I figure I can get around to it."

There were several others who fit into the same categories.

Whether these are good reasons or not, they do not erase the hard fact that no one can vote in city, school, bond, wet-dry, district, special or other election this year unless they have qualified or do so Friday, Saturday or Monday. After that it will be too late.

Formosa Gets Sabrejet Wing

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Swift U.S. Sabrejets from China and the Philippines roared to Formosa today while emboldened Nationalist warplanes blasted Yikiangshan island in broad daylight.

The arrival of the U.S. jets, which outclassed the best Russian-made MIGs in the Korean War, served to underscore U.S. determination to fight for Formosa if necessary and raised Nationalist spirits.

The Nationalist plane raid on Yikiangshan, 8 miles north of the invasion-threatened Tachens and more than 200 miles north of Formosa, was an example.

Yikiangshan has been raided only in early morning hours, but with Sabres on Formosa and powerful units of the U.S. 7th Fleet standing by, the Nationalist attacked possible Red invasion buildups on Yikiangshan in midafternoon.

The defense ministry did not give the type of bombs involved, but it said that three Communist landing craft on the beach at Yikiangshan were strafed and heavily damaged. This indicated that light bombers also were in on the raids.

The Nationalists have been pounding Yikiangshan with four-engine bombers since the Communists seized the island last week. The big bombers attacked the island last night and again today.

The Defense Ministry claimed large fires broke out on Yikiangshan and artillery positions and other military installations were hit. Antiaircraft fire was intense.

The Sabres landed at a Nationalist air force base as reports from elsewhere indicated the 7th Fleet already given the additional muscle of three more aircraft carriers — was being reinforced further.

The entire U.S. 18th Fighter Bomber Wing, with a normal complement of 75 Sabrejets, was transferred here. The Sabres will probably be used to screen the evacuation of the Red-threatened Tachens islands, 200 miles north of here.

And they would lend tremendous striking power to the U.S. 7th Fleet, now gathered in preservative array near here and ready for action if ordered.

Operational plans for the evacuation of the Tachens appear to have been perfected. Should they be put into execution and meet Communist opposition, Formosa is the nearest territory in friendly hands from which land-based planes should support the fleet.

(A report from Singapore said the fleet itself apparently would be beefed up by the addition of the aircraft carrier Midway. The 45,000-ton flattop was due there Feb. 4 but U.S. Navy officials said she is now "heading north." Four other U.S. carriers, the Essex, Yorktown, Kearsarge and Wasp, are in Formosa waters with the fleet.)

In Taipei, the best guess was that Chinese Nationalist naval forces would carry out the actual evacuation of the Tachens, screened and covered by the gathering U.S. air and sea power,

Ex-Senator Cooper Selected As Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated former Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky to be ambassador to India and neighboring Nepal.

Cooper, 53, would succeed George V. Allen who recently was chosen by the President to be an assistant secretary of state.

Cooper ran for reelection to the Senate last November but was defeated by former Vice President Alben W. Barkley, a Democrat.

Cooper's nomination, forecast for some time, is subject to confirmation by the Senate.

BICYCLES TIRE RUNAWAYS OUT

Two runaway Lamesa boys pedaled their bicycles 45 miles yesterday before winding up in the family car.

The pair, aged 12 and 13, decided to run away from home while en route to school about 8 a.m. Wednesday. They pedaled to Big Spring, arriving here late in the afternoon.

By that time, the boys had decided that bike travel was too laborious. They tried to sell the wheels to a second-hand goods dealer who called police.

The boys at first claimed they were from Denton, but later changed their story to say that they were from Lamesa and going to Denton. Their parents were notified and picked up the boys last night — bicycles and all.

Howard Grand Jury Indicts 34, Then Recesses

Indictments were returned against 34 persons by the new Howard County Grand Jury which made its initial report at noon today and then recessed until next Thursday.

District Attorney Guilford Jones said the panel investigated some matters other than those involved in the indictments. No announcement was made as to what the grand jury will consider when it resumes its session next week.

The indictments were returned in connection with the following charges:

Murder, one; assault with intent to commit murder, three; forgery, six; robbery, three; burglary, six; worthless checking, three; assault with intent to commit rape, one; theft, four; possession of marijuana, one; murder by auto, one; drunken driving, second offense, four; and perjury, one.

A. C. Cooper was indicted on murder charges in connection with the death of Jesse Warren on Jan. 8.

Ysabel Lopez was indicted on charges of assault with intent to murder Luiz De Los Santos on Dec. 23; Victor Garcia was indicted on charges of assault with intent to murder Francisco Flores on Nov. 6, and B. M. Franks was indicted on charges of assault with intent to murder Cecil Nabors, also in November.

An indictment alleging murder by auto was returned against Gonzales Ochoa. This was in connection with the death of Reynaldo O. Anaya who was killed when a pickup overturned near Knott.

David Benefield was indicted on charges of assault with intent to rape. Charges against him were filed following a disturbance at the nurses quarters at the Webb AFB Hospital.

Ronald Beck was indicted on charges of robbery and assault with intent to rob. Indicted with Beck on the assault charges were Robert Bowen and Francis J. Cain.

Indicted on forgery and passing checks were R. V. Bolt, Curtis Vice Jr., Albert Lee Vice, Danny Norton, James E. McGuire and Sarah Johnston.

Burglary indictments were returned against Clyde Myles, Jerry Wayne Huff, Raymond Hanson, Terry Leon Bohannon, Ralph Skiles and Dan Griffin.

Robert Morales was indicted on second offense charges of possessing marijuana. Theft indictments were returned against Luther Jones, Thomas H. Payne and G. H. Clinton. Indicted on charges of second offense DWI were Opal Strother, H. D. Cone, Eugene O. Worsham and A. M. Flores.

Troy Turman, Don Gullick and C. R. Caperton were indicted on worthless check charges.

A perjury indictment was returned against H. D. Van Zandt and an indictment on misdemeanor theft charges was returned against Ralph Lee Gilbert.

Indictments were returned against 34 persons by the new Howard County Grand Jury which made its initial report at noon today and then recessed until next Thursday.

Wife Unveils MacArthur Monument
Mrs. Douglas MacArthur unveils the monument dedicated to her soldier husband, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, on the general's 75th birthday, at MacArthur Park in Los Angeles, Calif. Gen. MacArthur Gives Nation Ringing Challenge To End War

LOS ANGELES (AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, a soldier for more than half a century, gave the world today a ringing challenge to abolish war.

But in fierce championship of America he cried out that "seductive murmurs are arising that patriotism is outmoded," and he demanded:

"Listen not to these voices, be they from the one political party or from the other, from the high and mighty or the lowly and forgotten. Visit them with scorn, repudiate them in the marketplace, on the platform or in the pulpit."

The conqueror of Japan and a draftsman of its peace, who was recalled from his Far Eastern command in 1951, observed his 75th birthday anniversary in Los Angeles yesterday. With Mrs. MacArthur constantly by his side, he went through a tiring day of three speeches, adulation of the crowds and dedication of a statue of himself and monument in his honor at the city's MacArthur Park.

He flew back to New York today to resume his business life as board chairman of the Remington-Rand Corp.

In his speech last night at a civic banquet sponsored by the American Legion, he said:

"War has become a Frankenstein to destroy both sides. No longer is it the weapon of adventure whereby a short cut to international power and wealth—a place in the sun—can be gained. If you lose, you are annihilated. If you win, you stand only to lose."

He said war now contains "the germs of double suicide" and "the great question is, Does this mean that war can now be outlawed from the world? If so, it would mark the greatest advance in civilization since the Sermon on the Mount."

This nation, he said, "should now proclaim our readiness to abolish war in concert with the great powers of the world. The result would be magical."

In the midday monument dedication speech the general said: "I understand full well this memorial is intended to commemorate an epoch rather than an individual, an armed force rather than its commander, a nation rather than its servants, an ideal rather than its personality." And of the armed forces: "I and this statue and this park are but the selected reminders of their grandeur."

Among birthday felicitations were messages from President Eisenhower and Emperor Hirohito of Japan. The President said, "Gen. MacArthur exemplifies a great American standard both as a military commander and as a patriotic citizen who loves and serves his country."

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has decided, partly because of the Formosa situation, to restrict his travel for two or three months to trips of no more than two hours flying time from Washington.

In announcing the decision late yesterday, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen "it would be foolish for me to say" the threat of a Chinese Communist invasion of Formosa was not a contributing factor.

"But I want it specifically understood, this is not an emergency measure," Hagerty said.

He said the primary reason is that the President wants to keep in close touch with Congress in an effort to win enactment of as much of the administration's legislative program as possible.

Steers On Way To Stock Show

STANTON, (SC)—The Martin County 4-H Club cattle van, chauffeured by Robert Lomax of Big Spring, left Wednesday for Houston and the livestock show which opens there this weekend.

In the van were three Martin County club steers, owned by Bob and Marilyn Sale, and three Howard County animals, owned by Royce Hull, Lile Lester and Lorin McDowell Jr. Accompanying Lomax and the van was Charlie McDaniel, assistant farm agent for Howard County.

Ralph Jones, Martin County agent, is to join the group in Houston Friday. The steers will be weighed in during the weekend and judging is set for Tuesday.

Eight Martin and Howard steers also were taken to Fort Worth this week for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. They are owned by Bobby Sale, Perry Walker, Joyce Robinson, Lile Lester, Lloyd Robinson and Sue White.

All of the exhibitors plan to be in Fort Worth Saturday and Monday for the judging. Bobby Sale will accompany his father, J. C. Sale, from Fort Worth to Houston. Young Lester and McDowell also will make the trip, as will County Agent Durward Lester.

Relative Press For Right To See Airmen In China

SWEA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Relatives of two captive American airmen, determined to visit their kin in Chinese Communist prisons, today pressed for State Department clearance for the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fischer Sr., of SWEA City, yesterday telegraphed Secretary of State Dulles saying "we don't believe there is any danger to us" but "we are willing to take risks to see our son."

Their son Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., a double jet ace, has been imprisoned since April 1952, when he was shot down over Korea.

John Kiba, 41, of Akron, Ohio, planned to visit United Nations officials today before seeking help from the State Department in an effort to see his brother Airmen Steve Kiba, 22, in a Chinese prison.

Anti-Shivers Forces Fail To Block Bill

AUSTIN (AP)—The House today voted pay raises for the governor and other high state officials, overwhelming anti-administration opponents by a whopping 125-13 vote.

A small block of legislators including several who have often opposed Gov. Shivers battled stubbornly for more than an hour to beat or delay the pay raise measure.

Efforts to include higher pension payments for the old folks and more money for other state officials likewise were defeated.

Shivers was the target of considerable sniping in House debate. Rep. Edgar Betts, Fort Worth, wanted to know if a proposal raising the governor's pay from $12,000 to $25,000 a year was to help pay him "for his campaign for governor, or for the Republican party?"

It was a dig at Shivers' support of the GOP presidential candidate in 1952.

House action on the pay raise measure came as a steady stream of bills introduced stacked up work for the session.

Coordination of affairs of the state's nine senior colleges was proposed yesterday in a bill introduced by Sen. Otis Lock, Lufkin.

The bill calls for a 9-member commission on higher education to be appointed by the governor instead of a 21-member commission as suggested by an interim study committee. The latter plan would allow one member to be named by each of the 9 schools and 12 to be appointed by the governor.

Lock proposed the present Legislature should make appropriations for colleges for the next biennium on a "line item" basis to eliminate "some of the duplications" he believes have resulted from "lump sum appropriations" in the past.

A House appropriations subcommittee began its hearings on how much the state should spend for junior college operations the next two years.

Junior college presidents and business managers protested recommendations of the legislature budget council on two points: that the budget fails to anticipate enrollment growth and that proposed cutting of the per capita apportionment would hurt large junior colleges.

The state's general spending bill calls for an outlay of more than 200 million dollars from the general revenue fund for state departments, courts, higher education, and hospitals and special schools.

Passed by the Senate and today awaiting House action was a bill by Sen. Jarrard Secret, Temple, to let cities call elections to use bond money for other than its original purpose if the original purpose has been accomplished or abandoned.

Also forwarded to the House following Senate approval was a bill to prohibit the State Supreme Court from delegating its sole authority for determining qualifications for Texas lawyers.

Effect of the bill would be to overrule any lack of accreditation of law schools and colleges by the American Bar Assn. or other professional group.

Boy Is Near Death After Severe Beating By Aunt

PAULS VALLEY, Okla. (AP)—A lean 29-year-old woman told county officers she severely beat her 5-year-old nephew with a heavy belt because he "moaned and groaned" all the time. The boy, Lloyd George Stanley, is near death in University Hospital in Oklahoma City. Hospital attendants say he has 19 rib fractures. His younger brother James Edward, 3, also was brought to the hospital suffering from a severe beating. His condition is not considered serious.

Parents Reunite As Baby Found Safe In Denver

DENVER (AP)—Parents of a chubby 10-month-old boy were expected here early today for a reunion with the infant, found by FBI agents in the arms of his baby-sitter in a Denver bar. Sgt. and Mrs. Charles G. Caskey of Amarillo, Tex., were motoring here for the reunion. Their child, Randy Eugene Caskey, was taken healthy and smiling to Denver Hospital and found none the worse for his alleged abduction three days ago from the Caskey home.

Mrs. Diana Cartwright, the baby-sitter, was held under $10,000 bond pending her return to Amarillo on a kidnap charge. FBI agents quoted the 24-year-old woman as saying she took the child "because I hate cops." They said Mrs. Cartwright has an arrest record dating back seven years. A man described as her husband, Tommy, 23, was arrested Tuesday at Boyer, Tex., and also charged with kidnaping. After the baby's disappearance Monday night, Amarillo police asked Denver officers to search for Mrs. Cartwright, a former Denver resident, and the child. FBI agents and police began a systematic search "of likely places" and found the slender brunette baby-sitter and the baby seated in a tavern booth yesterday afternoon.

Charles W. Brown, FBI agent in charge, said Mrs. Cartwright, known also as Diana Pappas, Diana Greer and Dianna Varner, first denied she had taken the baby. Then, he said, she admitted taking Randy "after I formed an affection" for him. In Amarillo, Mrs. Caskey said she and her Air Force husband had been estranged but were reunited by the baby's disappearance.

Nearby Farmers Seek To Block Dam For Corpus

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Live Oak County landowners plan to create their own water district to prevent construction of a reservoir near Mathis by the city of Corpus Christi, Mathis landowner Holman Cartwright said yesterday. A petition from 43 landowners has been drawn up for filing with the Commissioners' Court, requesting creation of the Live Oak County Water Control and Improvement Dist. No. 1. A public hearing is scheduled Feb. 15. The district is planned to avoid submergence of land along the Nueces River by water behind the proposed Wesley Seale Dam planned by Corpus Christi.

Closed-Door Investigation Ends In State Land Program Scandal

AUSTIN (AP)—The Senate committee investigating the 100-million-dollar State Veterans Land Program had ended its closed-door probe today and there was no indication when the investigation would be resumed.

Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman, San Angelo, chairman of the state panel, said the committee recessed last night subject to his call. He added he did not know when it would meet again or to whom future calls to testify might go. "I don't anticipate any further executive sessions," Hardeman said, "unless something becomes necessary." He repeated a previous statement that closed sessions were held only because prosecuting attorneys requested them so that possible prosecutions would not be jeopardized. Hardeman said six witnesses were questioned but that one—C. P. Ernster of Cuero—refused to testify. A seventh, the senator said, was sought for subpoena but was reported out of the state. He was identified as T. J. McLarty, also of Cuero. Hardeman said land values involved in South Texas sales to veterans under the land program were emphasized in yesterday's questioning.

Those who answered questions, he said, were F. D. Glass Jr., Austin; C. L. Carey, Yoakum; J. W. Flanagan and Joe Byrd, Zavala County farmers; and Hal Stallings, Crystal City bookkeeper. Ernster, an officer in two land companies whose transactions are among those under investigation, is under an indictment charging use of a forged instrument in a land deal. House Investigators Rap Army Laxity In Insurance Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alleged Army laxity in policing activities was criticized heavily yesterday by private insurance companies doing business with GI's in Europe by a report of a House subcommittee.

The report accused the Army of being a party to an "unholy alliance" with a group of companies, most of them in Texas, known as the European Assn. of Life Underwriters, and suggested that licensing and policing of insurance companies should not be left to field commanders. The committee recommended further hearings and investigation by Congress, using findings from hearings held in November and December in Cincinnati and Germany by a subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee.

Washington Called Integration Model

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thomas Sutherland, director of the Texas Commission on Race Relations, called yesterday for other areas to look to Washington for a good pattern in desegregation.

Sutherland, head of the private volunteer organization of Texans representing churches, higher education and various other walks of life, said the District of Columbia is "showing the way to other Southern communities."

The Austin man credited President Eisenhower with "making the United States capital the model for human relations that our Constitution prescribes." He has been observing moves to carry out the President's policies on race problems.

HOPES FOR COMEBACK

Jody Lawrence, Briefly A Star, Now Waitress

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Three years ago, Jody Lawrence costarred with Burt Lancaster in "10 Tall Men." Today she is a waitress in an ice cream shop near the UCLA campus.

How could this happen? I dropped by the shop to find out. She was dressed in the immaculate waitress uniform. If anything, she looked prettier than when I saw her on the set of "10 Tall Men."

"It was partly my fault," she began, explaining her slip from film prominence. "I see now that I was temperamental. I didn't cooperate with publicity. I didn't want to do cheesecake, not because my legs were bad, because they aren't. My entire training had been as an actress, and I didn't want to submit to the usual stardom routine. "If I had it to do over again, I would do it differently. I realize now that cheesecake and publicity are an important part of the movie business."

Jody said her movie career began five years ago. She was 19. At Beverly Hills High School, she had been taking dramatic lessons from Benno Schneider and his wife. They brought her to the attention of Columbia, and she was signed. She was catapulted to stardom, opposite Lancaster, John Derek in "Family Secret," Anthony Dexter in "The Brigand," etc. After working steadily, she had a two-month rest. Then the studio assigned her to a light-weight Mickey Rooney musical.

"I was bewildered and hurt," she recalled. "I had been costarred in six important pictures."

Cotton Farmers Due To Testify In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of cotton farmers from the Gulf coast of Texas was scheduled to testify today before a House Agriculture subcommittee on increased cotton acreage allotments.

The delegation, accompanied by Rep. Thompson (D-Tex.), talked yesterday with Agriculture Department officials. They urged that the allotments be increased for small family size farms.

They will testify today in support of Thompson's bill to authorize the increase.

Publisher Joe Naylor Dies At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Joe O. Naylor of the book publishing firm, was to be buried following funeral services this morning. Naylor, 61, died Tuesday night.

He had headed the publishing company since founding it in 1921 and was known for his encouragement of Texas writers of history and folklore.

Naylor was a past governor and trustee of the Texas-Oklahoma district of the Kiwanis-International and a past president of the San Antonio Historical Society.

Man's Texas Move Won't Save Trailer

DALLAS (AP)—In spite of protests that his homestead is being driven out from under him, Randall L. Smith will get to keep his house trailer only until its official value is determined.

Smith, formerly of South Dakota and now a Texas resident, protested seizure of the trailer on the grounds that it was his homestead and therefore not subject to seizure under Texas law.

The plea failed, however, and the trailer will be taken to satisfy a $6,186 lien brought when Smith moved from South Dakota after borrowing money on the trailer from Earl Bates. Attorneys agreed to let Smith keep the trailer until the value is set.

A Bible Thought For Today—

Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? (Romans 2:4).

Synthetic Foods? Possibility But We Doubt The Sirloin Is Doomed

Dr. Charles F. Kettering, the king of the gadgeteers, is quoted as saying we can dispense with plant life in fifty years and get all our food from synthetics. This is bad news for ranchers who grow beef and lamb and for farmers specializing in food crops.

But somehow we feel Boss Kettering's prediction should be taken with a bit of salt. Possible, yes, but hardly likely.

As long as there are human beings on the planet they will want to sink their teeth, even if they are synthetic teeth, into an inch-thick sirloin and toy with a crisp, cool salad on the side. In the eating department there never was and never will be a substitute as good as the real thing.

The notion that mankind could exist and keep his mental balance on a diet made up of two or three food pellets dissolved in water and still do his thinking and his labor under the sun is completely foolish.

If the time ever comes when food supplies have dwindled to the point where synthetic substitutes must be used to keep the population alive, we imagine people will quit having children until the population comes into balance with available food supplies of the conventional kind.

Imagine holding a barbecue around a six-ounce jar holding synthetic sirloin!

In spite of all you see on the screen or read in the magazines, sex as a preoccupation of mankind takes second place to food. Hunger long laid on will reduce the best of men to the status of a groveling animal. If he misses so much as a single meal he may get a glimpse of the horrors of starvation.

It is possible to keep people alive perhaps indefinitely on synthetic concentrates, but what sort of people would they be, and how long could they maintain the semblance of normality?

We wouldn't advise any of our ranchers to sell off their land in anticipation of an early end of food as mankind has known it since God first breathed the breath of life into him. The business of raising food will either continue as always, or the world's population will go into an irremediable decline.

Hint To Lay Off Has Been Made Plain Enough For Reds To Heed

Not long ago we noticed a couple of little Chihuahuas, who had slipped out on their own, barking furiously in the direction of a cocker. They'd advance a foot or two, their hackles up, their voices strident, until they stood in front of the door. Then like a flash around the corner of the house came the cocker, scattering gravel with the urgency of her mission, and making straight for the challengers. Instantly the Chihuahuas whirled and took off, yelping bloody murder.

We thought of this on reading President Eisenhower's statement of policy regarding Formosa. The Chinese Communists have been inching up on us over there—talking loud, erecting their hackles, threatening, challenging and testing.

Their bluff has been called. For the first time this government has delivered the word with the bark on it: If Peiping has any ambition to move in on Formosa and start throwing punches at the island, we'll defend it with everything we have—even if it means war, even if it means taking a few tactical cracks at the China mainland.

It is a put up or shut up proposition, and there is no mistaking the gravity of the promise it lays down. We say to the Communists, if you want Formosa so bad, come and get it. If you think you can bluff us out of there, just try it. And stop making passes if you don't mean business.

Let us hold no delusions about the gravity of this step. This is it. The President and Congress and the country hope the Reds will take the hint and lay off. But if they don't—if they keep inching up on us, if they interfere with the transfer of Nationalist troops from islands marked for abandonment to the Reds—there'll be a hot time in the old town tonight.

Things could cool off between us and the Reds, or they could get a lot hotter. Nobody knows. That's why the President wanted Congress to have a say in it. If our put-up-or-shut-up proposition backfires we'll have no choice but to go in there with everything we have, and pronto.

These Days—George Sokolsky

Long-Range Policy Important In Determining Power Issue

The question of public power versus private power is now centered in the Dixon-Yates controversy which ultimately will be discussed in the 84th Congress in all its manifestations. Dixon-Yates is only one contract of which there are several providing private power for a government-owned operation; the issue of public versus private power is fundamental in American economy.

Let us say that sooner or later, atomic power will produce all the electric power used in this country. Let us assume, for the sake of argument, that a way will be found to replace coal, oil, and water power and that even our automobiles will be serviced by atomic power. It is obviously not so at this moment, but the submarine "Nautilus" is being powered, in some manner, by the atom and it is apparently an efficient operation. If that can be done, anything can be operated by atomic power and all we need to do is wait until developments occur.

We then face the economic fact that all atomic power is government-owned and should atomic power eventually do to coal and oil and water-power what the electric light did to gaslight and the Welshbach mantle or what the steam engine did to the sail or what the automobile did to the horse and buggy, all power, all light and heat will be owned by the government of the United States. Presently existing private enterprises then would not be able to compete with, we may assume, more efficient and therefore cheaper production, free from taxation and without the checks on costs essential in private enterprise.

When this occurs, it could be that there would be no private power in the United States at all. Is it then the intention of the American people that the government should own the total means of distributing power in the United States? Such a step would, by definition, be socialism, which is, by definition, government ownership and control of the means of production and distribution.

The seriousness of this problem cannot be underestimated because involved is not only the question of a particular company but the nature of our society. Already government control of money and banking is of such a character that the element of risk is rapidly being eliminated from this field. The government has guaranteed loans and deposits to the tune of somewhere in the neighborhood of $250 billion in equities which, in many instances, are of so dubious a protective to the lender that no private enterprise would regard them even as a shaky risk. The tariff policy is being designed to eliminate American competition in the American market by giving European and Asiatic traders advantages which many American manufacturers cannot enjoy.

There is no free market if one side of it is being subsidized and the other is not. The result is bound to be that all sides will seek subsidies which can only mean further government control.

In addition to all this is the current practice of the large labor unions, owning enormous reserves of capital, to purchase the stock of companies in their industry, which, if it develops unimpeded, could at some point give the union control of management, the union functioning both as ownership and labor, forcing management into the employ of the unions. Of this, we shall be hearing much during the next year or two, culminating politically in the 1960 election.

The time to think broadly about these problems is now, not when trends have manifested themselves so firmly that there is nothing to do about them. The Dixon-Yates case could be used by both political parties not to decide whether Messrs. Dixon and Yates should have their contract but whether the United States can devise a firm policy on the fundamental question of public power or private power and to relate it all to atomic energy. Thus far, on both sides, much heat but little policy has been generated.

We have a tendency in this country to go along without policy, to support or oppose on an ad hominem basis, to hit-or-miss and hope-to-God we do not fail. But what is needed is a philosophy and a policy so that it can be clear to all that there is a plan and a purpose for what is done.

The Labor Department predicts a pickup in employment. Thanks to the Far East, they're expecting a lot of new business around the draft boards.

Much Talk On Formosa Situation Fails To Make Situation More Than A Mess

WASHINGTON (AP)—Formosa is one of the finest examples of how one word leads to another until there's a mess.

From the time they drove Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalists off the mainland to Formosa in 1949, the Red Chinese have vowed to take Formosa. They claim to be the only true rulers of China and demand Formosa as part of it.

Chiang too claims to be the only true ruler of China. He was helpless on Formosa until the United States gave him military help and sent the 7th Fleet to protect him. Then he began talking of invading the mainland.

He couldn't do it without American help. And reports from the Far East indicate the Red Chinese don't have the equipment to invade Formosa—across the 100-mile Formosa Straits—while the 7th Fleet stands in the way.

Both sides were still glaring at each other when last fall the Red Chinese announced they held captive as "spies" 11 American airmen. This country was indignant. The United Nations sent its secretary general, Dag Hammarskjöld, to Peiping to seek a solution.

To nobody's satisfaction, he returned to New York three weeks ago with almost nothing to say except he hoped his mission would prove a success if there was "restraint on all sides."

Just about then the Red Chinese attacked the Chiang-held island of Yankiangshan, which they captured without hindrance from the 7th Fleet, and the Tachens, which they haven't taken yet. Both are close to the mainland, 200 miles from Formosa.

It was as if they were saying to themselves: "We want the islands. The Americans want the airmen. Hammarskjöld told them to show restraint. Since we hold the airmen, we're in a good spot to test their restraint."

Shortly afterwards President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles brushed off Yankiangshan and the Tachens as unessential to Formosa's defense. This didn't please some Americans. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said the Reds were being allowed to take their "first nibble."

Last Monday Eisenhower sent to Congress a stirring message which, however, did not greatly clarify American policy on defending Chiang. Previously Eisenhower said—and it must be assumed he had the authority to carry it out—this country would defend Formosa and the nearby Pescadores Islands.

In his message he asked Congress to give him approval to defend Formosa, the Pescadores and "closely related localities," a statement which still left vague precisely what would be done about the outlying islands.

Congressional approval would dramatically show the world American unity behind Eisenhower. Thus America would save face in the Orient and presumably so could the Red Chinese, if they were allowed to take the Tachens.

Benson To Sell Surplus Cotton Oil To Franco Spain

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has announced an agreement to sell about 42 million pounds of its surplus refined cottonseed oil to Spain at a base price of 13.2 cents a pound in the New York refining area.

The sale will be made, the department said yesterday, under a grant to Spain by the Foreign Operations Administration. Transactions will be handled through private exporters.

Cottonseed oil is used principally in food products such as shortening, margarine and solid oils.

The department has about 300 million pounds of this oil, acquired at a cost of about 16.5 cents a pound under a farm price support program.

Marketing Survey Provides Some Interesting Information

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald. — Editor's Note.

Merchants should find something useful in the results of a marketing survey conducted by students at the University of Michigan.

The survey was made in several areas of the country and covered the shopping habits and "preferences" of the buying public. It showed, among other things, that most people don't buy shoes without shopping around some, and that the majority like frozen orange juice and dislike power steering, power window raisers, etc., and that they trade at service stations that emphasize service.

Making the survey were students of advanced marketing at the Michigan University School of Business Administration. The students found that mothers do most of the shoe buying for children. Out of 200 cases studied, fathers did the shoe purchasing in only 12 instances.

Proof that many people look around before accepting a pair of shoes came up when the surveyors learned that 50 per cent of the persons entering department stores in search of shoes walked out without buying them. They must have gone from there to other shoe stores, for only 22 per cent of shoppers walked out of these without making purchases.

Home buyers usually look for a functional floor plan first. Then they take a look at the outside of a house. And they usually don't find what they want, for the purchasers of houses generally pay more than they intended to—for "extras" and changes in the original plans.

Women like the automatic gear shifts on automobiles more than men do, by a ratio of 10 to seven. In purchasing the manual shifts, men outnumber the women 12 to 10.

Neither sex is especially attracted by such "power aids" as are offered on brakes, steering, windows and seats. The survey gave these knickknacks a low "preference rating." The extra cost of the items knocked their appeal, just as it hobbled the demand for automatic transmissions.

Sixty-one per cent of the people interviewed used frozen orange juice, buying more of that variety than of both fresh and canned juice. They like it so well that the innovation of frozen juice has resulted in an increase in the use of orange juice generally, store operators said.

Service stations especially should take note of the survey's findings. Most people don't care which of the well-known brands of gasoline they use. They choose their service station because of its convenient location, but they demand service. When a service station operator assumes a motorist is such a good customer that he doesn't need to wipe the windshield every time he drives in—that's when the motorist starts looking for another place to get his fuel.

Segregation Settlement Awaits Confirmation Of New Justice

WASHINGTON—Final settlement of the most important issue to come before the Supreme Court in a generation is being held up because there are only eight justices instead of the full complement of nine on the bench. There is, of course, the issue of desegregation in America's public school system.

On Nov. 8, President Eisenhower nominated John Marshall Harlan to fill the vacancy on the court left by the death of Justice Robert H. Jackson. The hope was the Senate would act during the McCarthy session so that Harlan could take his place on the Supreme bench with the other justices.

But the Senate Judiciary Committee failed to act on the nomination. The opposition of the Southern states was openly expressed by Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi. The then chairman of the committee, Sen. William Langer of North Dakota, had been having a kind of running feud with the Department of Justice and he complained that no appointments to the Supreme Court had ever come from North Dakota or other Western and Southern states, which he named.

The President sent the nomination up a second time on Jan. 10. Harlan is a New York lawyer out of the law firm in which former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has now become senior partner. He was named a year ago to be a judge on the Circuit Court of Appeals in New York.

The unanimous decision of last May abolishing segregation in the public schools provided for further argument on how the sweeping order should be put into effect. This was widely hailed at the time as a wise provision making possible a cooling-off period in which timing and method could be debated.

Chief Justice Earl Warren was known to be anxious that a full bench hear the three days of debate between opponents and proponents of the revolutionary change. Many other cases are certain to grow out of the court's original order. Some Southern states are seeking legal ways to get around the decision. Three states—South Carolina, Georgia, and Mississippi—have already adopted constitutional changes permitting counties or school districts to abolish the public-school system in order to avoid the decree of integration.

Such action will almost certainly be challenged in the courts and the eventual decision will be up to the highest court in the land. A justice who had not heard the argument might feel it necessary to disqualify himself. When there are only eight justices, and they divide four to four, the effect is to affirm the lower court's decision, but this is not binding in any other case.

Both Langer, now ranking minority member on the Judiciary Committee and Eastland, the ranking majority member, want hearings held on the Harlan nomination. Langer says he is opposed to Harlan's confirmation and will oppose all nominations to the Cabinet and the Supreme Court until some of the unrecognized states are given their just due. According to Langer, Florida in the 109 years since its admission has never had an appointee either to the Cabinet or the high court.

The real issue, however, is Harlan's attitude on the question of integration. His grandfather, also named John Marshall Harlan, was a Supreme Court justice, and in 1895 he wrote a famous dissent. He dissented vigorously from the decision in which the court held that "equal but separate" school facilities for Negroes met the test of the Constitutional guarantee of equality of opportunity. The "equal but separate" doctrine, the basis for segregation in the schools of the South, prevailed down to the court's decision of last May.

Southerners have read that dissent in the famous case of Plessy vs. Ferguson and they wonder if it expresses the views of the grandson. Sen. Eastland is reported to have raised the dissent as a ground for objection to the present-day John Marshall Harlan. Eastland says this is not true and that he has never made any public reference to the likelihood that the grandson might think like the grandfather.

Reports reaching the court indicate that integration is taking place with little incident, even in those border states such as Tennessee where segregation has been a deeply entrenched pattern. There is no great gratification that on the whole it has been so well and temperately accepted. But the court would like to get on with the job as quickly as possible.

Austin Recollections—Raymond Brooks

Political Playback

Sherman Adams and his predecessors have held the title, however misleading and untrue, of "assistant President." One of Texas' most distinctive contributions to the New Deal was an individual who, in a much more real sense was assistant vice president.

That was Harold Young, a Dallas lawyer, who became the dynamic main-spring behind the dreamy, fuzzy-minded Vice President Henry A. Wallace. Young did a lot to build Wallace up in the public imagination as a crusading champion of "the little people."

At the Democratic national convention in Chicago in 1944, President Roosevelt's henchmen had decided to get rid of Wallace on the ticket for the next term. The President has written the letter "Personally I would vote for Henry Wallace, but I recognized the right of each delegate..." etc.

Texan Harold Young didn't take that as final. He got a special trainload of New York garment workers on the way, and Wallace joined the train. They took over the Sherman Hotel in Chicago, and were joined there by still more zealous Wallaceites. Young directed the strategy by which these people, carrying more than 1,000 Wallace placards and banners, infiltrated the convention hall when the afternoon session ended, and held nearly all the seats at a night session. Delegates couldn't get into the crowded hall. The purpose was to stampede Wallace's renomination that night. It was thwarted only when the chairman summarily adjourned the disorderly, nearly riotous, night session before any business had been transacted.

This Texan parted with Wallace before the outgoing vice president got drawn into that episode where he for a time was the figurehead of a group of extreme radicals in the so-called Progressive Party. Young settled down to law practice out in the Midland-Odessa oil area.

Incidentally, Texas had two Harold Youngs at the same time which occasionally caused some confusion. The other had Harold "Kewpie" Young, an able newspaperman on the conservative Houston Post. Kewpie became editor of a liberal political journal, serving there as long as it survived, then went back to the Post.

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Barbara Lawrence has a coveted role in "Oklahoma" and is now playing the brand new Broadway comedy "Put Them All Together."
When I first met her, she had just been signed by 20th Century-Fox. It was during the war and we were going to the soldiers' hospital and Barbara was fuming because although she was all of seventeen, and married, she was still forced to have a school teacher on the set.
Just before she left for New York recently, Barbara and I reflected back on those frustrating days.
"I couldn't grow up fast enough," she admitted. "And because I was tall, I could get away with it. Nothing used to thrill me more than passing myself off as eighteen when actually I was several years younger.
"But now, even though I'm only twenty-four, people think I am much older because I've been in pictures so long.
"MY advice to teen-agers is don't try to grow up too fast. They have the rest of their lives to be grown-up. Don't rush the girlish years away.
"AND don't be too eager to use make-up," Barbara continued. "When your complexion is young and fresh, lipstick is all the make-up you need. Learn to put it on neatly by using a brush—and a brush will help re-shape your mouth if you need to change it.
"ONE of my favorite tricks with lipstick is to use a dark shade for outlining and then fill in with a lighter color."
Barbara was wearing a vibrant shade of lipstick and her mouth was an excellent testimonial for the brush method of applying lipstick.
"I've discovered that lipstick has a way of losing its color," Barbara continued. "What looks just perfect when you hold your face next to the mirror may not be effective across the room. It's a good idea to look at yourself from a distance as well as close up."
Barbara, like so many wise women, doesn't underestimate the importance of the right attitude toward life and its contribution to beauty.
"If you allow yourself to be filled with resentment whenever someone disappoints you, or is rude or unfair, you will undermine your health, your ability to work well and certainly your good looks.
"IF you can lick inner-conflict, you'll find you have just about everything you need for happiness, health and beauty.
"I don't mean that it's ever wise to ignore the rules of good grooming—only that what is behind your face is equally as important as what you put on it.
"Instead of fussing because your parents won't let you go overboard with make-up," Barbara concluded wisely, "give some thought to what expression you are going to wear."
TIPS FOR TEENS
Barbara Lawrence is right when she advises a girl in her teens not to rush "growing up." And a copy of leaflet M-7, "Junior Miss Technique," gives more good advice on youthful beauty care. It is in the teens that the foundation is laid for mature beauty. Shower In Martin Home Is Honor For Mrs. Jim Swift

A shower honoring Mrs. Jim Swift, who, before her recent marriage, was Frances McClain, was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. E. B. Martin, 807 W. 15th. Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. C. Choate, Mrs. L. L. Miller and Margie McDougle.
Receiving with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. H. C. McClain, and Mrs. Martin.
The refreshment table was covered with a white lace cloth and the central arrangement was formed of silver wedding bells and stephanotis bearing the words, "Fran and Jim." A traditional note was the cake server which has been used at showers and wedding receptions for a number of the honoree's friends.
Silver and green, the honoree's chosen colors, were used predominantly in the refreshments and other decorations.
Jody Miller and Miss McDougle served approximately 25 guests.

Does Name Officers

Five officers were elected and installed at the meeting of the BPODeos Wednesday at the Elks Lodge. These offices had been vacated by resignations.

The new officers are Mrs. L. D. Jenkins, treasurer; Mrs. K. L. Brady, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Morgan, three-year trustee; Mrs. M. D. Simms, two-year trustee and Mrs. S. V. Jordan, chaplain.

Plans were made to assist the Elks at a family night once a month. The Does will serve Sunday night supper on the second Sunday of each month. Elks, Does and their guests are invited to the suppers.

Committee chairmen appointed were Mrs. H. J. Johnson, auditing; Mrs. Bill Ragsdale, courtesy; Mrs. Commodore Ryan, lapstation; Mrs. Jo Clark, relief; Mrs. Jenkins, membership; Mrs. Brady, ways and means and Mrs. R. L. Heith, entertainment.

The attendance prize was to be carried over to the next meeting. Eighteen were present.

Lamesa Girl Is Wed In Informal Amarillo Rites

LAMESA — At an informal wedding, Wilma Jones became the bride of Richard Adams of Amarillo, in a ceremony read at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burnett in Amarillo, Jan. 22.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hershel Jones, 1811 S. 1st St., Lamesa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Adams of Amarillo.

Dr. Carl Bates, pastor of the First Baptist Church of that city read the ceremony.

The bride wore a light pink embroidered cotton fitted suit with navy blue accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Lamesa High School and served as chief deputy to the Dawson County District Clerk for a number of years before going to Amarillo last fall. The bridegroom is a graduate of Amarillo High School and attends Amarillo College where he will receive his degree this spring. He is employed by the Shamrock Oil Company in Amarillo.

Note From Top Y Leader Highlights Good's Service

A personal note from George B. Corwin, top man for YMCA youth work in America, could not have come at a more propitious moment for Grover C. Good, general secretary of the Big Spring Y.

GROVER GOOD

In December, Good had been presented the National Hi-Y Jeweled Pin, the greatest tribute the National Committee on Work with High School Youth can pay. Here in the midst of National YMCA Week, Grover received the personal word from Corwin, whom he had known over the years.

He found in Hi-Y work the answer to his longing to dedicate himself to full time Christian service with youth. Almost out of the blue he got an offer to go into the work in 1917 and the following year he had organized the first Hi-Y club in Brackenridge High School in San Antonio, El Paso called him in 1920 to head up boys work in West Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Arrested in the act of stealing equipment at an amusement park here, the culprit told police: "I just couldn't afford to tell you my name. You see, I was in trouble once before—when I was a child."

When his mother fell ill in 1926, he returned to Texas until 1945 was the state director for boys work. During the transition period from the state to the Southwest Area set-up, he served in addition as state secretary. He was pointing west again to head up boys work on the West Coast in 1945 when the Houston YMCA secured him for membership work.

When Y retirement age of 60 was reached in 1950, he accepted a post with Berea College in Kentucky, but the assignment had him on the road most all the time. In El Paso to visit his daughter in 1951, he got a call from Robert Piner, member of the Big Spring board. In March of that year Grover Good took over here as general secretary.

Now nearing his 65th birthday, he still sets a pace that exhausts many a younger man. Realizing, however, that he can't take the punishment he did 20 years ago, the board has been trying to get a program secretary to carry part of the load.

Grover Good believes in challenging young people to do their best. He sometimes gets a little exasperated with less than that. Moreover, Christian influence is the heart of the Y program so far as he is concerned.

"If it's just play they want," he says, "we might make some other arrangement. When I went into this work I believed in a Christ-centered program, and I believe more than ever today that if we are going to do any lasting good it must be Christ-centered."

YMCA work offers excellent training in democracy, he adds, and because the Y practices it, some people misunderstand.

"I get taken to task now and then because the youngsters have done this or that," he says, "but with consecrated adults standing in the background, we do our best to let the young folks plan their program and then to execute it. There is nothing he had rather do than to sit at his desk with some boy or girl, and to talk seriously about their purpose in life, about their aspirations, their plans. In this manner he has influenced the whole complexion of the movement here.

Grover Good might have made a lot of money in some other field — did as a matter of fact for a few brief intervals which always left him miserable and feeling like he had run out on God. But he wouldn't trade places with anyone, not when he has memories of repeated contacts with such men as William Jennings Bryan, A. A. Hyde, the Mentholatum millionaire; President William Howard Taft; Charlie Taft; Harold Bell Wright, the novelist; Teddy Roosevelt; the great John R. Mott; T. Z. Koo and Dr. Kagawa in the Orient; Texas Chief Justice J. E. Hoggman, once one of his Hi-Y sponsors; and Percy (Dad) McGee Sr., Texas Ranger, Indian fighter and soul-winner.

There are two or three things Grover Good would like to see before he calls it quits. One is a more adequate plant for the Y here; another is an indoor swimming pool; and the third is some devoted young man on whom he can lay the mantle.

The vessel changed course and guided the pilot in its direction by radio. The race against storm and gathering darkness was on. Two hours and 21 minutes later, about 840 miles east of Bermuda and minutes before nightfall, the big plane set down on the wind-tossed sea. MEMO TO ADVERTISERS Questions and answers about NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING. Q. What are the 3 most important rules for profitable newspaper advertising? A. 1. Your advertising message should be newsy, friendly, informative, easy to read. Give facts and news about your merchandise and service. 2. Advertise regularly. Make your advertising do what successful salesmen do—call on customers and prospects consistently. 3. Insist on audited circulation reports that give you the FACTS about the audience that your sales messages will have when you buy newspaper advertising. Q. What does A.B.C. do for me? A. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of the circulation records of each publisher member. The results of each audit are published in an easy-to-read A.B.C. report for your use and protection when you buy newspaper advertising. Q. What are the FACTS in A.B.C. reports? A. A.B.C. reports tell you how much circulation, where it goes, how obtained and other facts that help you buy advertising as you would make any sound business investment—on the basis of known values and audited information. Q. Are all publications eligible for A.B.C. membership? A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is evidence that the paper is wanted and read. Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations? A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation. We want you to know the FACTS about the audience your selling messages will have when they appear in these pages. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Hank Iba Having His Troubles This Year

His Aggies Are Far Off Pace

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Things never have been this tough for Hank Iba in college basketball at Oklahoma A&M.

Since he joined the Aggies as top man for the 1934-35 season, Iba has been involved in 16 championships for the Missouri Valley Conference.

Iba's Cowpokes never have lost more than 10 games in any season—and they've lost as many as 10 only once.

It's a lot different this year. Houston topped the Aggies deeper into the Valley second division last night 60-58 and made Iba's overall record this season 6-4.

Iba's Aggies have lost more than 20 games in any season—and they've lost as many as 10 only once. Houston topped the Aggies deeper into the Valley second division last night 60-58 and made Iba's overall record this season 6-4.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Not many people know, perhaps, that Roy Cornelson, the owner of the cleaning establishment bearing his name, was captain of both the basketball and football team at San Angelo High School more than three decades ago.

Roy played halfback on the Bobcat football team.

Gary Layton, star end of the Levelland High School grid eleven, reportedly is headed for the University of Oklahoma.

If you have a copy of the 1955 edition of SPORTS REVIEW BASKETBALL handy, you can find the picture of a former HCJC cage great on Page 47.

He is Clarence (Casey) Jones of Odessa, a member of the Jayhawks' great 1952-53 team, which went to the semi-finals in the National Jucio Tournament. Jones is shown modeling the uniform of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot team at San Diego, Calif., along with other Devil Dogs.

Ken Cluley, the Sweetwater outfielder, who had a light case of polio near the end of last season, says he is quitting professional baseball to stay on his job with a bread company in Wichita Falls.

Cluley was one of the five players taken by Washington from the Sweetwater roster at the end of the season, in compliance with a pre-season agreement. Ken probably would have gone to spring training with Chattanooga.

Ken, who says he's 26 now, broke into pro baseball at San Angelo in 1948, at a time Pepper Martin was manager there. He's been a consistent .300 hitter in his baseball travels and was one of the few real baseball players Sweetwater had in 1954.

Michigan and Indiana universities are experimenting with circular rather than square mats, trying to speed up wrestling matches.

"It eliminates corners where a wrestler can crawl or step out on either side," commented Cliff Keen, coach of the University of Michigan grapple team.

Duane Jeter, the former Odessa JC basketball ace, is now performing for the Shell team in an Odessa city league.

He recently scored 42 points in one game.

There's talk now that Harry James will submit his resignation as president of the Longhorn League at the next business meeting, which takes place shortly.

Pepper Martin may recommend a local man as Harry's successor, in event James quits.

The Bill Sharman recently named the outstanding player in the East-West professional basketball game in New York City was Abilene-born and is the nephew of Mrs. Billy Power of Big Spring.

He's planning on returning to professional baseball this spring.

The $5,000 Abilene Open Golf Tournament probably won't be held this year, according to Scribe Don Oliver.

The meet lost $2,750 last season.

Bob Martin On Way To Florida School

Bob (Pepper) Martin, owner-manager of the Big Spring Broncos, planned to leave today via automobile for Auburndale, Fla., where he will scout players at the Virgil Trucks baseball school.

Martin is due to arrive in Florida Saturday and will be the guest of the management as long as he is in the baseball camp. Martin said he expected to be gone about a week.

The Trucks school is ending its first session and begins its second on Feb. 2. Each session runs a month.

Other instructors in the Auburndale school, in addition to Trout, a pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, include Zack Taylor, ex-big league manager; Dick Brodowski and Dick Gerrert, both of the Boston Red Sox; Chuck Stobbs, Washington; Dick Cole, Pittsburgh; Vern Morgan, Chicago Cubs; Art Dittmar, Kansas City; Thornton Kipper, Philadelphia; and Lou Handless, unattached.

Martin signed several players on the recommendation of Handless last year, among them Tommy McKeehan, a pitcher.

Martin said he could ill afford the time he would spend going to and from Auburndale but he had to get rookie players somewhere and felt it would be cheaper in the long run to see them in person.

One of the few football players who reported for basketball drills at the end of the Big Spring High School grid season was Glenn Jenkins (above). Jenkins has seen an increasing amount of action in recent games.

McKeehan Has 39-Point Lead

Dale McKeehan, Sweetwater junior, has taken what appears to be an insurmountable lead in the race for scoring honors in District 1-AAA basketball play.

McKeehan has counted 168 points in the first round robin of play, consisting of seven games.

He leads Gene Miller of Vernon, runner-up in the race, by 39 points. Charles Clark, Big Spring, is fourth in the derby with 107 points.

Orange Insists It Won't Join League

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP)—The Evangeline League says Orange, Tex. is the best prospect to be in the Class A team, but it is not a candidate for the Orange Chamber of Commerce baseball committee, said yesterday there was no indication his city would have baseball. Besides, Rudd said, there is no park available.

The league granted a provisional franchise yesterday to Thidobaux as the No. 7 team.

It also accepted the resignation of Port Arthur and instructed league president Edmond Derrames to contact minor league chief George Trautman about a deadline extension for finding a new operator at Port Arthur.

If there is no club in operation at Port Arthur by Feb. 1, the territory becomes open.

The Class B, Big State League has accepted Port Arthur on condition that the club gets a release from the Evangeline League.

Knott Five Wins 64-45 Decision

KNOTT (SC)—The Phillips 66 basketball team of Knott defeated Sterling City, 64-45, in a practice game played here Wednesday night.

Fat Gaskin paced the winners with 17 points. Phillips led at half time, 27-20.

The 66ers play a Garden City team here tonight.

Giardello Wins, Tho He's Anything But Impressive

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Joey Giardello, his plans for an early crack at the middleweight title confounded by a less-than-spectacular showing in his first outing in four months, looked forward today to a rematch with Al Andrews.

"Sure, I want to fight him again," Joey said in his dressing room after winning a unanimous, but disputed, 10-round decision over Andrews last night in a rough brawl at Norfolk's Municipal Auditorium.

"One more against Andrews and then I'm ready for Bobo Olson," Giardello said, his right hand encased in a tub of ice and his left eye sporting a shiner.

Andrews didn't see it that way, although he was just as eager for another fight with Giardello. The two boxers tentatively agreed to a rematch in Baltimore Feb. 8.

"There's no doubt I won," Andrew contended bitterly, fighting back tears. "It was the easiest fight I've had in a year. He didn't knock me down, I was off balance."

The knockdown won for Giardello. It was the only time either man was floored and came in the ninth round when Andrews walked into a wicked left hook and a sharp chopping right.

A's Will Depend Heavily On Imports From Ottawa

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Lou Boudreau, who will handle the reins of Kansas City's first major league club in more than half a century, could do himself a favor if he ignored the minor league records of most of the rookies who will report to the Athletics' training camp next March.

At first glance, it doesn't seem probable that pitchers like Art Dittmar (6-13), Bob Tries (4-8), Camille Van Brabant (3-6) and LeRoy Wheat (8-11) will help pull the A's out of the American League basement but it must also be considered that all these fellows hurried for Ottawa last year and the club won only 58 games to wind up in the International League cellar, 39 games behind the league leaders.

ON FEB. 3 Tech Mentor Will Speak In Coahoma

COAHOOMA, (SC)—DeWitt Weaver, popular head football coach of the Texas Tech Red Raiders, will come here Thursday, Feb. 3, to serve as principal speaker at the annual Coahoma football banquet.

Members of the 1954 Bulldog football team will be honor guests, along with their coaches. The public is invited to attend, however. Tickets for the party will sell for $1 each. The banquet, scheduled to be held in the high school cafeteria, gets under way at 6:30 p.m.

Coaches present will be Charles (Patt) Brandon and his assistants, Grady Tindol and Jimmy Smith. Jackets for the players have already arrived and been presented to the boys. A total of 20 varsity letters were given. Of that number, seven will be eligible again in 1955.

The 1954 Bulldogs, in their debut as a Class A team, won six games while losing four. The record is considered very good, since the Bulldogs were competing in District 4-A, one of the toughest in the state.

Weaver, who recently turned down an offer to become head coach at Arkansas University rather than jump a five-year contract at Texas Tech, will bring with him one of the Raider game films.

He has not indicated which one that will be but it could be the Raiders' opening game with Texas A&M, which the Raiders won handsily.

Joe Hill is chairman of the banquet ticket drive. Other members of the ticket committee are Red Stamps, F. M. Holley, Boone Cramer, Alfred Cates and Tolley Kennemer.

Mrs. Robert Mason will be in charge of the music for the program. The banquet menu will include barbecue ham, green beans and salad, according to present plans.

Four, Including DiMaggio, Admitted To Hall Of Fame

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, one of the Yankees' all-time greats, reached baseball's Hall of Fame today just three years after his retirement and was joined by Darry Vance, Ted Lyons and Gaby Hartnett as the latest diamond heroes enshrined at Cooperstown, N.Y.

The four were elected yesterday by 251 ten-year members of the Baseball writers Assn. Their election increased the Hall of Fame membership to 77. They will be formally inducted at the Cooperstown museum July 25.

Under the rules a man must be mentioned on three-fourths (189) of the ballots for election. Sixty-five former players received one or more votes.

DiMaggio, who just missed last year when the late Rabbit Maravilla, Bill Dickey and Bill Terry were selected, led the ticket. He drew 223 votes as the writers recalled his lifetime batting average of .325, his brilliant playing in 51 World Series games in 10 Series with the Yankees and his major league record of hitting in 56 consecutive games.

"It's great to be on the same team with all those old timers," said DiMag, who heard of his selection while driving from Boston to New York.

Lyons and Vance, who reached the heights as right-handed pitchers before DiMaggio joined the Yankees, were next in line.

Lyons, who compiled a 260-230 record with the Chicago White Sox before he finally left in 1948 after managing the Sox for three years, received 217 votes. Lyons was a coach with the Brooklyn Dodgers last year.

Vance, famous as Brooklyn's fireball pitcher, was named on 205 ballots. The Dazzler, who now spends most of the time these days hunting and fishing at his Homosassa, Fla., home, didn't arrive in the majors until late in life but he compiled a 197-140 record with his best performance of 28-6 coming in 1924.

Although Dazzy acquired greatest fame as a member of the Dodgers he never reached the World Series until he was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934. He appeared in one game.

Hartnett, who recalls his dramatic home run in the glowing when he won the 1935 National League pennant for the Cubs as one of his career highlights, received 195 votes. Gaby, now 54, caught for the Cubs from 1922 through 1940, managing them the last three years.

Bell Will Seek A Grid Peace 'With Honor'

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League opened its annual business meeting today, giving Commissioner Bert Bell a free hand in negotiating "peace with honor" with Canadian football.

With the unanimous approval of NFL directors, Bell said he would try to work out "a just and honorable peace. We did not start this thing and we are not afraid. We don't plan to turn the other cheek."

Actually, the NFL's war is against one club—the Toronto Argonauts—rather than the entire Canadian league structure. The Argos are determined to hire and talk business with any NFL player they choose, with or without the consent of their own Big Four league or Canadian football as a whole.

The other members of the Big Four—Hamilton, Montreal and Ottawa—have indicated they are agreeable to a peaceful settlement of mutual problems with the NFL, and have entered into a semi-official no-raiding agreement.

The Argos, however, have pushed the issue. In fact, they picked the eve of the NFL session to announce the signing of Billy Shipp, 275-pound tackle of the New York Giants. Shipp is the second New Yorker signed by Toronto in as many days.

Roy Walsh, general manager of the Giants, termed it "an old announcement." The Argonauts sent out the release for no other reason than to breathe defiance of the recent no-raiding agreement.

"There can be no peace," added Walsh, "so long as the Argos operate under their present setup. They will continue to raid and so will we. So far as we are concerned, the war is still on."

Bell mentioned the two Giants as well as a Detroit player snared by Toronto and said, "something will have to be done about that." He indicated Toronto would have to return the three players and others picked up from NFL teams if peace is to come.

Smiley Suspended By League Body

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Inter-scholastic League yesterday suspended Smiley High School from boys basketball play for the remainder of the season on a charge of using over-age players.

The ruling also barred Smiley from district honors in 6-man football play next fall. The team may compete but may not win the championship.

Officials of the South Texas school said they believed players aged to be accurate as listed in school documents. Official birth records showed the school records to be in error.

Carter Is Winner Over Bobby Woods

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Light weight Champion Jimmy Carter, back in action for the first time in two months, said "it wasn't one of my better fights", but it was much too good for young Bobby Woods.

The 31-year-old champion took a unanimous 10-round decision from Woods in a non-title match here last night and looked fast and sharp against a back peddling opponent. There were no knockdowns.

Carter weighed 137 1/2, Woods 136 1/2.

It was a dull affair that brought boos from the crowd of more than 6,000 which paid $21,000.

Favorites Oppose Rugged Linksters

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two National Amateur winners—Barbara Romack, the current queen, and Dot Kirby, 1951 titlist—each drew tough opponents in today's first round matches of the Helen Lee Doherty Golf Tournament.

Miss Romack, a petite blonde, met Willi Smiley, an up-and-coming youngster from Los Angeles. Atlanta's Miss Kirby faced Seattle's Pat Lesser, former National Intercollegiate champ.

Arkansas Over .500 Mark After Beating OC Chiefs

By JOE BENHAM
The Associated Press
Arkansas and Baylor were tied for third place in the season standings and the Southwest Conference had another team playing better than .500 ball Thursday, thanks to the Razorbacks' 55-52 victory over Oklahoma City University.

The Wednesday night triumph at Fayetteville gave Arkansas an 8-7 season record, identical to that of Baylor.

The Bears have a chance to move back in front in the next conference action. They meet Southern Methodist Friday night at Dallas in the week's only championship game.

Everybody did a little bit for Arkansas in the Oklahoma City clash. Norman Smith's 11 points were the top effort for the Razorbacks but eight other players got in on the scoring to edge the Porkers past the visitors.

Arkansas Over .500 Mark After Beating OC Chiefs

Sophomore Lyndon Lee led the Chiefs with 18 points.

The score was close all the way, and was tied 10 times before Buddy Smith's lay-up sent Arkansas ahead to stay 48-46 with five minutes remaining.

Neither team looked impressive from the floor, as Arkansas sank 15 of 53 field shots while OCU scored on 14 of 60.

Three games remain on the week's schedule. Following Friday night's Baylor-SMU game, Texas plays the University of Houston at Houston and Texas Christian takes on Abilene Christian at Abilene Saturday night.

Palm Springs Play In First Round

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Leading professionals of the touring ranks brought their show into this desert resort town to tee off with the first round of the 72-hole Thunderbird Invitational Tournament today.

Heading the procession are the winners of the first of the 1955 winter tourney schedule, Gene Littler, Cary Middlecoff and Tommy Bolt, and last year's victor in the Thunderbird, Freddie Haas.

They say Thunderbird's 6,314-yard, par 36-36-72 course has been toughened up a bit for this year's assault.

Seixas, Trabert Achieve Finals

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert, America's victorious Davis Cup team, advanced to the doubles final of the Australian National Tennis Championships today.

They whipped Mervyn Rose and Rex Hartwig of Australia 6-4, 10-12, 6-0, 6-1 in a semifinal struggle.

In the other semifinal, an All-Australia affair, Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall beat Neale Fraser and Ashley Cooper, 12-10, 6-4, 6-2.

Ackerly Triumphs Over Klondike

ACKERLY—Ackerly meets Gall in a conference basketball game here next Tuesday night.

Both the boys and girls won on a recent trip to Klondike. The boys triumphed by a score of 53-50 while the girls finished in front, 53-41.

Dee Andros Won't Go To Arkansas

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Assistant Texas Tech Coach Dee Andros is not going to Arkansas.

Athletic Director John Barnhill of Arkansas made the announcement last night after Andros visited the campus Tuesday and it was rumored he would join the Razorback staff.

Gov. Harriman And GOP State Solons At War

By RICHARD P. HUNT
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman and the Republicans who control New York's Legislature are at war. The outcome could have an impact on the presidential race next year.

Skirmishing began soon after Harriman was elected last Nov. 2 over Republican Sen. Irving M. Ives as the state's first Democratic governor in 12 years.

Since his inauguration Jan. 1 as successor to Thomas E. Dewey, Harriman and the GOP leaders of the Legislature have been engaged in a steady crossfire.

Issues include taxes, workers' benefits, a number of Harriman's appointments, the record of Dewey's administration and whether bingo should be legalized immediately.

Harriman feels that what he does as governor could show the nation what a Democrat could do in the White House. He is plugging for a party victory nationally in 1956, and although he says he favors Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination, some observers believe Harriman himself would like to get the nod.

The Republicans have enough votes in the Legislature to defeat any Harriman measure. But Harriman also has a potent weapon—his power of veto.

The war would develop into a stalemate.

The governor can't get his program through the Legislature without Republican help—and credit for the GOP. The Republicans don't have the votes to override Harriman's veto on their own programs.

Three major quarrels have broken out already.

Round 1: Harriman said the state had been spending beyond its income for years under Dewey. He asserted that the state's capital construction fund was over-committed and short of cash.

One of his first acts was to freeze big state construction contracts pending a view of the fund.

The Republicans contended that he was "jeopardizing thousands of jobs" and demanded that he revoke a "hasty and ill-advised decision."

Round 2: The Republicans passed bills keeping state income and unincorporated business taxes at their present levels—an abatement of about 48½ million dollars to taxpayers this year. Harriman declared he would veto them as "irresponsible."

The GOP claimed Harriman's stand was proof he planned a "high-tax administration."

But the governor still could move to continue the abatement. He has not yet disclosed his plans.

Round 3: The Senate withheld confirmation of five of Harriman's appointments, including that of Carmine G. De Sapio, a Democratic national committeeman, as secretary of state. De Sapio is leader of Tammany Hall, the Mahanian Democratic organization. The issue has not yet reached a showdown.

Round 4 will begin when Harriman presents his budget to the Legislature Feb. 1.

Chain Savings Bond Scheme Is Smashed

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—A get-rich-quick savings bond scheme operating here has been squashed, postal authorities announced yesterday.

The scheme, another version of the old chain letter plan, extended to those taking part the hope of getting up to $38,000 for an investment of $37.50.

Postmaster Thomas Simpson said he had received official notification from Washington that bonds purchased in furtherance of the scheme are non-transferable, and called on residents to sign pledges they won't accept any bonds through the mails henceforth.

Judy Garland's Mate Claims To Be Broke

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Judy Garland's husband, Sid Luft, claims he's broke and living on borrowed money.

A former wife, actress Lynn Bari, asked that he be held in contempt because he hadn't bought a $10,000 educational endowment policy for their son John, 5, as ordered by another court. The contempt charge was dismissed.

Luft testified he was broke, that Miss Garland didn't earn anything last year and that his producer's share of profits from her "A Star Is Born" hadn't started to come in yet.

THE SPRINGBOARD

News From Webb Air Force Base
By JAMES F. KRUEGER

WEBB HOSTS KEGLERS

Preliminary plans for the staging of the 1955 Southwest Conference bowling tournament at Webb AFB on the Base alleys during March were outlined during a meeting here late last week.

Besides Webb, which will be hosting the meet, there will be up to 34 other Air Force teams here from the Southwest Conference area. The six high bowlers in the all-events will comprise the team representing the conference in the Air Force tournament to be held approximately two weeks after the close of the one here.

Maj. Robert H. Kalched, chief of Dental Services and a veteran of many bowling tournaments, has been named project officer for the four-day affair.

HIGH TOTALS MARK MONTH

Figures released by the 3561st Flight Line Maintenance Squadron show that T-Sgt. Daniel P. White's "I-1" flight accounted for 423 hours and 30 minutes of the squadron's approximately 4,700 hours of flying time for the month of December at Webb.

The high total was despite having to step up the on-the-job training program appreciably to cope with the assignment of untrained airmen direct from indoctrination training.

FTAF COMMANDER VISITS

Maj. Gen. Gabriel P. Disoway, FlyTAF Commander, was on hand at Webb last week to attend the critique on the recent inspection between Base officials and the FlyTAF inspection team. He was met on the flight line by Wing Commander Col. C. M. Young and other base officials.

USAF DANCE BAND POPULAR

From the opening strains of "Lover," to the closing production number, "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," the Airmen of Note—official USAF dance band—held a Base audience composed of military personnel and their guests completely enthralled for a full 50 minutes last Sunday evening.

Prior to and following a steak supper at Webb's NCO Club after the theater performance, band members loosened up and "jammed" for the entertainment of the Sunday night NCO customers.

SHORT STORY CONTEST

Entries are presently being sought for the local level of the fourth annual Air Force short story contest according to Webb Librarian Frances Doll. Deadline on submitting entries is April 15 and Air Force personnel on active duty are eligible to enter.

Following local judging, winning stories will be forwarded to HQ, FlyTAF for further competition.

Both of last year's local winners are still assigned at Webb. Lt. Walter W. Stewart, academics instructor, collected both the $15 first prize and the $5 third prize, and Capt. Walter D. Williams, brother of playwright Tennessee Williams and Wing Legal Officer, won the $10 second prize. Awards for this year's winners have not yet been announced.

HONORS FOR SPRINGBOARD

In a recent letter from Hq., FlyTAF, Webb was notified the Springboard, official base newspaper, has been selected to receive the Certificate of Merit for fourth quarter competition between base papers in the Command. The Webb paper also won the Certificate of Merit during third quarter competition in 1954. S-Sgt. Jim Kreuzer, who is to be discharged Feb. 2, was editor of the paper during competition.

At present there are 89 airmen and two officers now taking night courses at the junior college. Most of these are expected to continue courses through the spring semester.

DECEMBER AIRMAN OF MONTH

A-1C Richard L. Harding, a senior electrician in the 3560th Installations Squadron, has been named Webb's Wing Airman of the Month. Wing Commander Col. C. M. Young presented the airman a $25 U.S. Savings Bond in ceremonies early this week.

A native of Hammon, N. J., Mr. Harding completed three and one-half years of study at Pennsylvania State University before entering the Air Force. He was stationed for two years on Okinawa before assignment here in May of last year.

General Cites Red Atomic Stockpile

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The Air Force vice chief of staff says Russia is stockpiling "tremendously destructive nuclear weapons" and a bomber fleet capable of striking North America.

Gen. Thomas D. White said, "This threat is not in the future, it is here today and it is real."

In a speech delivered to a Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner last night, Gen. White said he believed U.S. military leaders would be remiss in their duty if they did not call attention to the "urgency and terrible reality of the situation."

Gen. White said the primary

Junk Wagon Race Brings $10 Fines

BALTIMORE (AP)—A "chariot race" up the middle of a Baltimore street cost two junk wagon drivers $10 each yesterday.

A police car joined the race and finished first. Officers said there were four cheering passengers in one wagon and three in the other.

Hyman McKinley and James E. Patterson, 17-year-old Negroes, paid their fines on charges of cruelty to animals.

Guaranteed Wage To Be Labor Issue

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell says the guaranteed annual wage is likely to be the major problem at bargaining sessions across the nation this year.

Mitchell, here to speak tonight at a national industrial relations meeting, said at a news conference:

"The question of guaranteed wages already has come up in CIO talks, and there is every reason to believe it will come up elsewhere."

Local Couple Assigned As New Guinea Missionaries

The Rev. and Mrs. Sidney Knox of the local Church of the Nazarene have been appointed to missionary work in the central highlands of New Guinea.

The couple were recommended for missionary work after an interview with the Department of Foreign Missions in Kansas City. The general board of the denomination approved the appointment and tentative plans have been made for the minister to attend a survival school in Chicago in May and a linguistic school at the University of Oklahoma.

They expect to leave on the new assignment in the early fall. Their work will be in the vicinity of the much publicized "Mystery Valley." One of the problems they hope to solve will be to produce the spoken dialect in writing.

Selection of a new pastor to replace Knox here is expected in the near future.

Turk-Iraqi Pact Ends Stalemate Over Security

By WILTON WYNNE
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The Iraq-Turkish defense agreement provided the diplomatic dynamite needed to break an Arab League log jam blocking Middle East security schemes for nine years.

The idea of regional defense bloc linking Turkey and the Arabs was proposed as far back as 1946, but Arab governments spurned the offer till Iraq's action this month. Such schemes in the past were offered to the Arab League as a whole, however, and were considered by the Arab states as a bloc.

The concept of a Turk-Arab defense bloc developed when it became clear that Britain would have to quit the Suez Canal zone. There were reasons on both sides for the long delay in getting Turks and Arabs united.

The Turks themselves were not enthusiastic about the idea at first. Most modern Turks like to think of themselves as Europeans, not Orientals.

From the Arab side, there were a long list of grievances against Turkey. Nationalistic Arabs saw in Turkey a tool used by the West to continue its domination of the Arab world. On the touchy Palestinian case, the Arabs felt Turkey had stabbed them in the back by quickly recognizing the state of Israel and becoming that country's best customer.

Syria and Lebanon harbor old grudges against Turkey. At almost any given time, at least one Arab state was so anti-Turkish that a pact between Turkey and the Arabs as a bloc was vetoed.

It was only when an impatient Iraq claimed the right to conduct bilateral negotiations with Turkey that a solution was found.

Turkey's Premier Adnan Menderes and Iraq's realistic Nuri Said agreed on a defense pact. This kicked up trouble inside the Arab League, with the Egyptians particularly annoyed at not being consulted earlier. But the Baghdad agreement seems to point the way for individual Arab states to make alliances with Turkey, Pakistan, or Iran, without waiting for Saudi Arabia, Yemen or Egypt to consent and cooperate.

26 Residents Of This Area Have Been Given Care At Gonzales

Twenty-six people from this area have received treatment at the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, famed polio rehabilitation center south of Austin.

March of Dimes funds are credited with sending most of these people to the institution, and their stays have been successful. All have been discharged.

Those receiving treatment from Big Spring included Rosalita Arista, Claudine Arrick, Rickie Lynn Ashley, Mary LaVon Foreman, Katherine Gibson, Leon Gonzales Jr., Dan A. Johnston, Evelyn Monroey, Randolph S. Sanders, Jerry Len Worthan, and Nina Yanez.

Mitchell County has sent four to Warm Springs. They were Bill H. Ewin, Sue Loveless and Mary Ann Montgomery, all of Colorado City, and Linda R. Bishop of Lorraine.

Nine from Dawson County were offered the program of physical medicine and rehabilitation. They were Mary D. Anderson, Patricia Anderson, Danny Lee Bailey, Lera Evelyn Guinn, Billie Sue Holly, Weldon D. Kidd, Kenneth Minneek, Teresa Molina, and Trudy Faye Parker. All were from Lamesa.

Tommy Pat Cantrell of Gail was Borden County's only patient at the Gonzales hospital, while Raymond Smith of Stanton was Martin County's representative. The Warm Springs Foundation has not registered any patients from Glasscock County.

Since the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation Hospital was formed back in 1937, approximately 1,500 patients have been accommodated from all parts of Texas. Patients also have come from 17 other states and three foreign countries.

England, Formosa, and Mexico. The institution was the first of its type in the country, and it is accredited by the American College of Surgeons and recognized as a professional training center.

Warm Springs Foundation was established on the belief that medical responsibility to the ill ends only when the individual is retrained to live and work to the best of his ability, according to Dr. Odon F. von Wersowetz of the institution's staff.

There has been a warm spring at Gonzales, located about 60 miles south and slightly east of Austin, for almost 50 years. When a deep well was drilled there in 1909 the production turned out to be hot water rather than oil.

The well gives up water at 106 degrees Fahrenheit in quantities up to 200,000 gallons per day. Dr. von Wersowetz explains that the water has no special or unusual properties, but that its main advantage is the heat which helps relax spastic muscles.

Formed in 1937, the first unit was not built until 1941. By 1948 most of the present buildings had been constructed.

The foundation's program of physical medicine and rehabilitation is well balanced and carefully prepared for each type of medical and surgical disability.

Positioning, mobilization, physical agents, muscle re-education, underwater therapy, active exercises, activities training, speech therapy, assistive supports, rest periods, relaxation, and planned recreation are all part of the program.

Purpose of the treatment is rehabilitation of the whole individual—psychologically, socially and physically.

Infantile paralysis is not the only disease treated at the foundation. The program is also offered for cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy multiple sclerosis, encephalitis, peripheral nerve injuries, arthritis, cerebral vascular accidents, spinal cord injuries, fracture and amputation complications, and neuromuscular or musculo-skeletal disorders.

The foundation has 140 beds, about 50 per cent being for adults and 50 per cent for children.

Services offered by specialists include rehabilitation nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, brace shop, school, vocational counseling, and recreational therapy. Religious needs are supplied, and a Sunday School is provided for children.

A general education is available from the first grade through 12th at the institution. Often the education is administered at bed side. Upon discharge the patient is directed to the care of his family physician.

A film concerning the operation of Warm Springs Foundation will be shown Thursday night at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, 810 Birdwell Lane. It is entitled, "For This You Gave," and is being sponsored here by the Mu Zeta chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Chlorophyll Finds Place On Market

By CLIFTON LAWHORNE

The big chlorophyll boom of two years past is still sounding, though the noise is not near so loud as when the product was first dumped on the market.

Most local druggists admit that sales of chlorophyll products have slackened considerably over the period. But the dealers also point out that these products are now "steady" movers.

By this, they mean that chlorophyll products have found their place on the Big Spring market. A certain number of people will have no other similar products, druggists say.

Most popular chlorophyll items are toothpaste, chewing gum, mints, tablets, and soap, according to the dealers.

When these items were first introduced there was a widespread advertising campaign accompanying them. Practically everyone in this country had occasion to hear the name chlorophyll, one druggist asserted.

"When the chlorophyll products first came out everyone wanted to buy them, and everyone did," he said. "A certain number of these people liked what they bought and became steady customers."

Chlorophyll sales in Big Spring, as in other cities about the nation, were described by one dealer as being "hot as a firecracker" two years ago.

The chlorophyll products are green and are supposed to contain the freshness associated with plant life. Chlorophyll is actually the green coloring matter of plants.

Popular items on the druggists shelves now are the breath fresheners. These include the chlorophyll toothpaste, followed closely by the green gum and mints.

Druggists explain that these products always leave the mouth feeling freshly clean. Individuals with bad breath and those who drink or smoke often use chlorophyll products and react in about two hours after taken.

One dealer explained that the tablets have been known to help a good many individuals who have body odor. The deodorization is effective for about 24 hours. Chlorophyll soap is used regularly by some Big Springers, and dealers say that a number of other chlorophyll products are sold.

London's Coffee Houses Reviving

LONDON (AP)—The coffee houses of Samuel Johnson's 18th-century London are reviving, but with plate glass and neon-lit facades.

A Londoner can buy a cup of coffee almost as readily as the traditional British cup of tea. About 150 coffee shops are mushrooming in London during the past year and they're popping up now at the rate of two a week. Brightly incongruous among ancient soot-blackened business fronts, they flash exotic names like Moka, El Cubano, Chiquito, Sirocco and Mocamba.

The typical shop has a tavern-like bar with high stools and a little cluster of low plastic-top tables with well-upholstered chairs. Walls are painted or papered in splashy patterns.

Centerpiece is the espresso (express) coffee-making machine—an Italian or Swiss device with a forbidding battery of controls.

Arising from the business side of the machine is a row of half dozen handles made like miniature baseball bats. The operator, many times a slick, black-haired Italian, pulls on a handle to force water just below the boiling point through finely ground coffee placed over a fine filter.

The product is a heavy, black liquid, too strong or bitter for many to drink straight. For the tender-tongued, there is "cappuccino"—coffee with milk heated and whipped to a froth by bubbling steam through it.

Britons got coffee fever during World War II, according to one importer. Tea was rationed then, but coffee wasn't. American troops also helped create the demand. But until the last two years most coffee was sold as an incidental part of other restaurant fare.

Conviction Tossed Out In Slaying Due To Ex-Felon Juror

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals has overturned the conviction and death sentence of Leonard Bingham because an unpardoned ex-convict served on the trial jury that convicted him.

Bingham was convicted in Kimble County for the knife-slaying of Mrs. Jo Lambert in the robbery of the grocery-filling station she and her husband operated at Sonora.

Three customers found Mrs. Lambert behind the counter March 4 with eight knife wounds in her body. Bingham was arrested at Van Horn later that day and signed an alleged confession. Insanity was Bingham's sole defense.

The appeal court said the record reflected that a member of the trial court jury had been convicted of forgery in 1937 and had not been pardoned.

The chirping and singing of her pet parakeet and canary keep Mrs. Charles Boland company in her home. Although she is blind, Mrs. Boland is an excellent cook and housekeeper. Fact is, she's more active than a good many sighted persons.

Blindness Is No Handicap To This Good Cook And Housekeeper

Because she has been blind all her life Mrs. Charles Boland is probably a better cook and housewife than she would be had she had normal sight.

She explains that blind people have to do things like cooking and cleaning house much more thoroughly and carefully than sighted persons because only that way will they know their results are perfect.

There is very little that Mrs. Boland can't do. She keeps her home without any outside help and her cooking is bound to be good because her husband attests to that and suggested that she give us her recipes for Spanish Porkchops and Cabbage Supreme, which we are listing below.

Her husband is partially blind himself, but operates the newsstand at the Post Office. They are both musicians. She plays the piano and he the drums. They are presently working with a group of young school-age musicians who have formed a combo called the "Rhythm-ettes." Both the Bolands have played with Joe Williamson's local dance orchestra.

Mrs. Boland does her own typing as a result of a business course she took in Houston. She once worked in a defense plant there but that was interrupted by an accident in which her seeing-eye dog was killed and she was seriously injured. When she was rehabilitated she ran a newsstand in Pasadena.

She and her husband attended the Texas School for the Blind. Mrs. Boland has a library of Braille collections including the Bible and editions of the Reader's Digest.

Pets abound in the Boland home. There is a parakeet, Blue Boy, a canary, Skippy, and a part cocker, part springer named King.

Mrs. Boland has been a Big Spring resident for only three years but for two of those years she has been secretary of the Cheerio Circle for the Blind and has been one of the most active members of the organization.

Tuesday she celebrated her birthday and this feature about her remarkable abilities comes as a belated birthday present.

Here are the recipes mentioned earlier. They are ideal for this time of year and go together like cheese and apple pie.

SPANISH PORKCHOPS

Ingredients:
4 medium-sized porkchops cut thick enough to bake
1 medium-size onion (minced)
1 green pepper (minced)
1 can tomato paste or tomato sauce
Salt
Pepper
Flour
Method:

Place chops in lightly greased baking dish or pan. Add salt and pepper then dredge with flour and sprinkle over the meat the onion and pepper which have been minced. Pour the tomato sauce and small amount of water over chops and bake in preheated oven of 350 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes or until meat is browned.

CABBAGE SUPREME

Ingredients:
1 firm head cabbage
3 large carrots
3 or 4 stalks of celery
2 large onions
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
Method:

Cut cabbage into small pieces. Scrape carrots and cut into 3-inch lengths or split if carrots are quite large. Cut celery into small pieces. Peel and cut onions into small pieces. Have water boiling and pour over cabbage. Allow to heat through, then add remaining vegetables and cook for about 15 minutes over medium low heat. Add salt and pepper and 2 tablespoons of bacon drippings and let cook for about 30 minutes. Keep sauce pan lid so that steam may escape and cook until all vegetables have blended.

You will find this is a complete change from ordinary cabbage when you serve it, says Mrs. Boland. A minced green pepper may be added in with the vegetables as an improvement, she suggests.

Note to weight-watchers: a cup of whipped evaporated milk contains one-quarter as many calories as one cup whipped heavy cream.

It's Fun To Make A Dutch Shoofly Pie

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Regional dishes! Every section of America boasts of its own traditional recipes and we have reason to be proud of and interested in them. Now comes a letter from an Ohio reader about that specialty of Pennsylvania Dutch kitchens—Shoofly Pie.

This pie is really fun. To make it, we roll out a pastry crust and pour a mixture of molasses, water and baking soda into it. Then we sprinkle a crumbly mixture of flour, sugar, spices, salt and butter or margarine over the liquid. A strange combination to put in the oven and expect to come out an edible pie! But it does — with a flaky bottom crust, then a brown custardy layer and a cake-like top. Fascinating to make, sweet and rich to eat.

We'll admit right now that there are other ways to prepare Shoofly Pie. Some cooks like to layer the liquid and the crumbs, others put the crumbs in first and then add the liquid. But if you use our ingredients, you'll have best results with them if you follow our directions.

There are also lots of names for Shoofly Pie. Sometimes it is called Molasses Shoofly Pie or just plain Molasses Pie. Sometimes it goes under the name of Shoofly Cake or Molasses Crumb Cake. And occasionally it gets its name from a Pennsylvania county and is called Montgomery Pie.

We subjected our Shoofly Pie to the test this regional specialty needed: one of our tasters grew up in Pennsylvania Dutch country. Our culinary guinea pig gave our recipe her full approval. She also approved an innovation in serving the pie—a tart Lemon Sauce to go with it. We have a feeling that if enough Shoofly addicts try this Lemon Sauce as an accompaniment to the Pie, it is going to sneak into Pennsylvania Dutch tradition. Now that our family has tasted this dual treat, they cannot be persuaded to eat one without the other.

SHOOFLY PIE
Ingredients:
1 1/4 cups sifted flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup dark old-fashioned molasses
1/4 cup water

Method:
Sift together the flour, sugar, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon. Add butter; cut in with two knives or pastry blender until fat is entirely worked into flour mixture. Stir molasses, water and baking-soda together well. Pour molasses mixture into unbaked pastry shell; spoon crumbs all over top of liquid.

Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven 35 minutes. Serve warm with Lemon Sauce.

LEMON SAUCE

Ingredients:
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups boiling water
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1/4 cup butter or margarine

Method:
Stir cornstarch, sugar and salt together thoroughly in saucepan. Add lemon rind. Gradually stir in boiling water until smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until boiling, thickened and clear. Remove from heat; stir in lemon juice and butter. Serve warm over portions of Shoofly Pie. Makes 2 1/4 cups.

Mexico University Plant Modernistic

By JACK RUTLEDGE
MEXICO CITY (AP) — The oldest university in North America is holding classes for the first time this winter in a setting that combines the dreams of educators, architects and builders.

The new site of Mexico's National University is University City, a 30 million dollar installation spread over 1,800 acres of a lava bed.

The educational center, one of the most ambitious university projects in the world, probably will not be finished for several years. In the buildings which have been completed, however, some 6,500 students are taking first year courses in a variety of subjects. The number is expected to increase to about 10,000 in 1955, and when the university is complete, it will be able to handle around 25,000.

Students and athletes from 26 countries and territories will get a look at the new installation in March, when the Pan American Games will be held at the university.

When they return to their homes, they are likely to have some tall stories to tell of an institution which was founded Sept. 21, 1551 just a few months after the University of San Marcos was founded in Lima, Peru.

The stadium in which many of the athletic events will be held seats 100,000 persons and is carved from solid lava.

The buildings were pet projects of Mexico's greatest architects, and incorporate the most modern designs with ancient Indian culture.

The jalisco courts, for example, are surrounded on three sides by walls resembling Aztec pyramids. The administration building, with four glass walls, towers 14 stories above the campus. The library is solid mosaic. The humanities building is 1,093 feet long, probably the world's longest university building.

Four years ago the National University was scattered about the capital, with classes in ancient buildings dotting the corners of the city. President Miguel Aleman is credited with the project to bring them together on the single campus.

University City is 10 miles from the center of town on the lava bed, formed when 14,000-foot Ajusco erupted about 1,000 years ago.

Much of the building material going into the university is provided by this same lava. Thus the setting is convenient, but it also causes an inconvenience—it is difficult to make the campus green with grass and trees.

The cost of the university far exceeded original estimates, the result being that when some buildings were completed there were not enough funds left to furnish them.

Many are still empty despite the fact that other buildings are still on the planning board. These include dormitories, which have not yet been started.

MEN IN SERVICE

FRED OVERTON

Fred Overton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Overton, 906 E. 12th, is now attending a Navy aviation electronics school in Memphis, Tenn.

Overton was transferred to Memphis after spending eight weeks in a Naval preparatory school at Norman, Okla. He is expected to be in Memphis about seven months.

Warning Against Poisons Given By Health Director

AUSTIN — Petroleum products, aspirin and salicylates were involved in 40 per cent of the accidental deaths of 165 children under four years of age said Dr. Henry A. Holle, director of the State Health Department.

Dr. Holle discussed accidental poisonings which were fatal to 1,497 persons in a one-year period. Three out of four fatal poisonings occur at ages one and two, which is an indication that parents should keep children away from poisons rather than try to teach them about poisons, he said.

All poisons or dangerous drugs should be kept out of reach of children. These include medicines, fluids, and other items.

Adults should be careful also, the doctor said. Medicines should not be taken in the dark and persons should carefully read the label to make sure they are not taking some toxic liquid.

Barbiturates and alcohol poisoning were the causes of 58 per cent of the total accidental poisoning fatalities for persons 25 years of age or over, Dr. Holle said. Most of the barbiturate victims were women and the preponderance of alcohol poisonings were men.

Water Is Subject Of Thesis At UT

AUSTIN—Water, which Governor Allan Shivers calls Texas' number-one problem, is the subject of a Master of Arts thesis at the University of Texas.

G. P. Pearson Jr., former state legislator from Grimes County and candidate for an M. A. in economics Jan. 29, wrote on "Water Resources of Texas" after visiting many parts of the state where measures are being taken to utilize more effectively the critically-short supply of water.

Pearson's study treats industrial, domestic and agricultural water requirements and discusses all possible sources of water for Texas: rainfall, underground water, river reservoirs and conversion of sea water to fresh water.

The young East Texan favors "building dams on streams to impound the water we have; then, we can conserve this water and use it as needed."

"Another means of solving the problem is to divert water from the surplus-water areas of East Texas, by gravity canals or pipelines, to the more arid regions of the State," he points out.

Conversion of sea water to fresh water, too expensive to be feasible at this time, holds some promise for the future, Pearson says.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Rubber boots can help livestock.

In some parts of Great Britain, there have been epidemics of "foot rot" among herds of sheep. Salves were found to halt this disease, but how could salve be kept on the hoof of a sheep?

That question was raised, and the result was the use of rubber boots. The sheep-in-boots were cured rapidly because the coverings kept them from rubbing away the salve. This success led some British cattle-ranchers to put boots on the feet of cows and bulls which suffered from similar trouble.

Next to cows and pigs, the most familiar furry animals on most farms are sheep. Today I shall answer a few questions about these important domestic animals.

Q. How many kinds of domestic sheep are there?

A. About 40 kinds are listed. First among them is the Merino (pronounced me-REE-no) breed, which seems to have started in Spain. Merino sheep are raised, at present, far over the earth, including the continents of North America and Australia.

Other important breeds are the Leicester, Lincoln, Shropshire, Cotswold, Suffolk, Hampshire and Dorset. Still others are the Cheviot, Rambouillet and Oxford Down breeds.

Q. Are there any black sheep? A. Most sheep have grey or white wool, but some are blackish. The latter include the black Welsh mountain sheep.

Q. Do many wild sheep live in the Rocky Mountains? A. Not a large number, but enough to give hope that the race will keep a foothold there. Laws have been passed to save these sheep — known as bighorns — from hunters.

Q. Are bighorns the largest among all sheep? A. There are larger sheep in Asia. Known as Argalis, these animals live in the highlands of central Asia.

High Court Grants Plea Of Ramsey To Halt Depositions

AUSTIN (AP)—The Supreme Court has granted Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's plea for an order temporarily halting the taking of depositions in what was described as an "anticipatory" suit by C. T. Johnson against Ramsey.

Johnson, an Austin real estate man, lost to Ramsey for lieutenant governor in last summer's primary.

Johnson is seeking in 53d District Court to obtain statements from Vernon Sanford, executive secretary of the Texas Press Assn., bearing on campaign spending.

Vocalist

Gloria Henson, 22-year-old Big Spring singer, is to make a guest appearance on the "Country Road Show" which is broadcast over a nationwide radio network from Fort Worth each Saturday night. She is to participate in the program this week. Mrs. Henson, the mother of three children, is a regular participant in the Saturday night "Big Spring Jamboree." She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Dorris, 113 Wright, and is to sign a contract soon with a major recording company.
