CITIZENS MEET WITH COMMISSIONERS

DISCUSS HIGHWAY PROGRESS AND EXPRESS PLEASURE THEREIN

Last Friday the Commissioners' Court had as their guests for their meeting a large group of the prominent business men of Midland. There were 50 present to discuss plans and problems in connection with the highway. Judge J. M. DeArmond called the meeting to order and stated the purpose of the gathering. The necessity for continued co-operation between the business men, the Commissioner's Court, and the Construction Company in the finishing of the highway in a satisfactory way was duly stressed by all those who spoke. The principle address was made by District Engineer Baker who went into a complete discussion of the problems before them at present in completing the road. The lack of rain has been a decided drawback to their progress and he explained a scheme by which handicap is being overcome and the road greatly benefited in its construction. If they waited for local showers and rain they could only work those parts of the road which were sufficiently wet and as a result the road could not be completed with a uniformity which is necessary and desirable. Mr. Baker stated that water is being hauled and sprinkled on the roadway at the rate of 20,000 gallons to the mile and thus will complete the road in a satisfactory way without the waiting for rain. It did not require much argument upon his part to convince these business men that it was not always advisable to wait for a rain generally over the West and they gave their hearty approval to the scheme as advocated by him.

It was also decided to close all the highway until completed except the short strip north and south of Midland as the traffic will hinder the work on the road. It was the opinion of all present that the people should be requested to stay off the highway until such as those in charge consider the work to be completed and satisfactory. We are delighted that so many business men are interested in our progress in this work and appreciate the co-operation the entire public is giving to us in this work, was the expression of those in charge of the work.

RADIO PROGRAM HEARD AS FAR AS CANADA

The following clipping is from the Pine Bluff, Ark., Morning Graphic:

"The concert broadcasted from Arkansas Light & Power Company's radio station, W. O. K., Friday evening, August 11th, was heard as far away as Sharbrooke, Quebec, Canada. This was made known here by receipt of a letter from S. Cross, of 80 Montreal street, Sarbrooke, who writes that he received the concert on a home-built receiving set of two step amplification, using an aerial 200 feet long, but only 35 feet high. The concert heard by Mr. Cross was arranged by Mrs. Goode Renfro, and featured Miss Lydie G. Watson and brother, Ned Watson, of Midland, Texas. Others contributing to the program were Mrs. C. Z. McClean, Mrs. Goode Renfro, Miss Rea Dansby and Mr. Renfro and Ted Dansby."

Last week The Reporter published this radio program, stating that it was given that night. As may be seen, however, it was given the Friday night before, August 11th, and we were unable to listen-in as we had planned.

Van E. Curtis left Wednesday evening for a vacation at Rising Star. He expects to be gone a month or more. Mr. Curtis is an attaché of The Reporter's mechanical department.

Miss Margaret Currie returned last week from Denton, where she spent a profitable summer as a student in C. I. A.

Mrs. Frank Judkins and two little daughters, from Eastland, and en route to El Paso, stopped in Midland this week to visit her brother, J. H. Patterson, Sr., and family.

Misses Winnie Carlisle and Carolyn Caldwell returned this week from a visit to the Jim Waddell ranch.

FROM THE BREEDER DIRECT TO FEEDER

SOME OF THE GOOD EXCUSES FOR NEW WAY OF HANDLING LIVESTOCK

Harvey J. Scone and John A. Cathcart, of Sidell, and C. M. Baum, of Indianola, Ill., were here this week and bought of Scharbauer & Eidson 550 heifer yearlings to restock their feed lots. These gentlemen are extensive feeders and this is not their first buy in the Midland Country. It is a repeat order, they having bought similar animals here last year, which made such fine gains that they probably could not be induced to go anywhere else for their feeder stuff.

These men are of the management of the Illinois Feeder Fair, and so enthusiastic are they that they promise Midland cattle shall be exhibited there next year. Midland stockmen are going to be taught the value of publicity yet; for already are we getting results from the "direct from breeder to feeder" relations that are growing stronger each year between Midland breeders and Iowa feeders.

Here is an excerpt from a letter from an enthusiastic feeder of Des Moines, and addressed to Elkin Bros., local agents for the Livestock Exchange of Des Moines:

"Dear Friends: I feel sure you will be interested in knowing that the calves reached here safely, and Mr. Sweeney stated that they were the best calves he had ever unloaded.

"The banker at the town at which these were unloaded went even further and said it was the best car of grade calves he had ever seen in the State of Iowa."

The point of special interest in all this that Midland livestock, shipped direct to the corn belt feeder, never has failed to bring these expressions of enthusiasm, and this Des Moines Livestock Exchange is showing Midland feeder steers now at the Iowa State Fair.

On the other hand here is a clipping which recently appeared in the Breeders Gazette, written by Homer B. Hull, of Laporte County, Ind.:

"I think that we need to work up some sentiment relative to sending out diseased cattle to feeders. I am done with the cattle feeding business, for the present. Here are my reasons:

"I bought 35 cattle on order July 27th. They arrived here, after a two hours ride from Chicago, early on the 29th in a dirty car, and with a 2,500-pound shrink. They were coughing. On July 31st one died; on August 8th two were found dead and a veterinarian was called. He tested them, found fever in the herd, and pronounced it a clear case of hemorrhagic septicemia. He says that we need laws to compel vaccination in the yards and loading in clean cars. I agree with him.

"One of our county commissioners had the same kind of experience last year."

Had these cattle been shipped from Midland to Laporte, a distance of probably more than 100 miles, the shrinkage might have been equal to probably this 40-mile run, but the cattle would have been thoroughly inspected, known to have been perfectly healthy, loaded in clean cars, and they would have regained their loss in almost the time it took to lose it; and instead of a disgruntled feeder there would have been an enthusiastic one, one "rearing to go" again.

The Reporter will have other comments along these lines from time to time, but especially calls the reader's attention to the activities of the Midland Hereford Breeders Association, which has plans for co-operative marketing, selling direct to the feeder, the standardization of feeder cattle, etc. Some such articles have already appeared in our columns, and others are to follow.

FAMOUS BASEBALL MANAGER IN MIDLAND

Red Szapp, manager and principal owner of the Paris baseball team and known as the "Snappers" in the Texas and Oklahoma League and winners of the pennant this year, stopped over in Midland this week to visit with old friends, the several Hyatt families. He was accompanied by his family and they are on their way to Cloudercroft for a rest.

CHAS. MCCLINTIC WINS MEDAL AS MARKSMAN CELEBRATING HIS EIGHTY-FIRST BIRTH DAY

C. A. McClintic, of the Headquarters Company of the Texas National Guard in Sweetwater, the 71st infantry brigade, which company have just returned from Camp Mabry, won a medal as marksman or crack-shot during target practice. He used a .45 caliber revolver and naturally he feels sort of stuck up after having won a medal in competition with numerous other "good shooters." Sweetwater Daily Reporter.

The above is of news value in Midland by reason of the fact that Chas. McClintic is a Midland boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. McClintic.

Robert Fasken, his son David, and Mrs. Fasken will drive to Fort Worth this week to spend a few days. They will return next week accompanied by Joe Fasken, who has been in T. C. U. this summer.

FORMER SUPT. OF OUR CITY SCHOOLS

WRITES URGING OUR SUPPORT FOR S. M. N. MARRS TOMORROW

Many Midland people will remember, and quite pleasantly, R. D. Green, who was once superintendent of our city schools. He is now superintendent of the city schools of Abilene. This week The Reporter is in receipt of the following letter from him:

"Dear Charles: I am addressing this note to you to solicit your vote and influence for Mr. S. M. N. Marrs for State Superintendent. I have known Mr. Marrs for about twenty years and I know him to be a clean, upright, Christian gentleman and one of the very best school men in Texas. Vote for him and ask your neighbors to vote for him.

"With kindest personal regards and a thousand pleasant recollections of other days, I remain, Sincerely, R. D. GREEN."

We are glad to have had this letter from our old friend. It was our intention to vote for Mr. Marrs anyway, for he is anti ku klux, while his opponent, Ed R. Bentley, is a member of that band of rough-necks. (Citing recent Houston occurrence as excuse for the expression.)

The Reporter is publishing a list of the run-off candidates, in the center of the top of this page, lining them up as they have been authoritatively placed in the political records of the State, and we do profoundly hope Midland people will show their contempt for the gang that operates only at night and doubly safe-guarding themselves by masks and disguises.

PRAIRIE FIRE IN THE HOLT PASTURE YESTERDAY

About a section and a half of fine grass burned in O. B. Holt's pasture north of Midland yesterday, as a result of some one's carelessness. It happened in the afternoon and a big crowd of men and boys went out from Midland to fight it. There was very little wind, luckily, and the blaze was quickly extinguished. Some parties coming this way were suspected of the carelessness that might have destroyed ten or fifty times as much grass. The grass is awfully dry, and whoever set this fire is not accused of criminal intent, but certainly of criminal carelessness.

Travelers, all persons passing through our pastures are urged to be careful. We have suffered enough of adversity. Don't add the destruction of our ranges to the load.

SUSTAINED PAINFUL INJURIES LAST WEEK

Gilbert Hamlett suffered a severe cut on his head last week as a result of an accident near Odessa. While driving in a truck to the oil well the car passed under a wire which struck him under the chin and threw him to the bed of the truck, striking his head on a large oil can. The blow knocked him unconscious and as he fell out of the car to the ground his wrist was badly sprained. The cut on his head required five stitches to the wound. After being given treatment he was brought to his home in Midland and is able to return to his work this week.

W. S. Cooper and family, of Roscoe, were here the first of the week, to visit J. H. Patterson, Jr., and family. Mr. Patterson went to Roscoe with them on their return, and will visit there for a few days.

Ed Schenecker, general manager of the James H. McCord Grocery Company, of Fort Worth, returned to his home Saturday afternoon after spending several days with friends in Midland. He says that it is certainly a relief to be out in this fine air after living in Fort Worth.

Ned Watson, our linotype operator, returned Tuesday after a three weeks' vacation in Arkansas, and Memphis, Tenn.

Mervin Holcomb has returned home after completing a successful summer course at the Christian College in Abilene.

CAMP MEETING IN DAVIS MOUNTAINS

"AUNTIE STERLING" TELLS OF THIS WONDERFUL ANNUAL EVENT

From The Odessa Times. Leaving Odessa Aug. 7, 1922, about 1 o'clock, the Plains country began to merge into hills and the blue lie of the mountains to take definite shape, while the flat life evidenced the desert section by its peculiar cacti and desert palms.

On time, the T. & P. rolled into the station at Baracho, the railroad point nearest to the Evans ranch home, distant fifteen miles. There the public road ends, blocked in by rugged hills which form an irregular circle around the domain.

The wide-spread house in the center, while scattered around are cottages, corrals, stables and garden spots. Shade trees are in evidence—also fruit trees. The house is commodious, luxuriant and comfortable. To get out of this sheltered vale is to go out the way we came in.

Setting is Ideal

It is an idyllic setting, an ideal resting place, sheltered from high winds in winter, yet lacking not for summer breezes. Looking West, the way out seems blocked by a low-lying ridge, beyond and above which is a tall peak rising like a feudal castle, massive, isolated, invulnerable.

The allusion vanishes on approach. At the foot, the roadway winds until it reaches the more open road. The hills are rough, rugged, steep, with serrated tops of large rocks. The whole surface is mainly of rocks, with scarce enough of earth to bind them together. The vegetation is weeds—no grazing on these heights. The geologist would find much to interest as much of it seems to be of volcanic origin.

The traveler in southern Greece and again in Syria finds many such hills as these and in those lands, "where toil ceaseth not," one may find them terraced to the tops, objects of beauty and useful products. Mulberry trees are usually on the wider, low terraces. The leaves are a commodity of value in feeding silk worms. The next terrace may be of grapevines, wonderfully trained on posts and wires, festooned in graceful curves and full of luscious fruit. Flowering plants at intervals, forming a color-scheme brilliant, charming and vastly spectacular.

Texas Scenery Different

The cattleman goes in for natural beauty and material gains. He glories in wide spaces and great areas of grazing land where his thousands of cattle grow sleek with fatness and will bring good prices in any market. From this big ranch, where the nearest neighbor lives seven miles away, (the "E V" ranch of Davis Mountain celebrity) three car loads of people and impediments went forth on the afternoon of the 8th expecting to go to the "Y-G's" John T. Means' ranch, to spend the night and go forward to the Camp Meeting place the next morning.

"Man proposes, God Disposes. In less than an hour we drove into a tremendous downpour of rain. The tracks filled, but we sped on until the foremost car skidded to one side, the right front wheel dropped into a dog-hole, and the way was stopped.

Not until there was a slight slackening of the downpour could the curtains be put up. That period of tarrying was our undoing. At length the wheel was raised and we moved on, the second car leading. We were now at the draw. Very cautiously Paul Evans drove his car into the rising flood, in the hope of crossing, but alas! in two car lengths from shore the car stopped, effectually stalled. The women and children were carried out on the men's backs to the other cars, the baggage was all removed and some of it the worse for being immersed.

The men worked heroically to back the car out, to no purpose. The only thing to do was to leave it. The draw rose to a deep swift river, but we did not tarry to see its despoiling. We returned to the "E V's" where no rain had fallen, and set about the task of (Continued on page two) restoring to their pristine splendor, our good clothes.

Mr. Evans Typical Texan

Mr. Evans, the elder, large, tall, though slightly stooped, was a conspicuously busy figure in the scene. He is a worker, too. To sum him up, judgment on things in general is rarely at fault; his advice is respected by all, and withal he has that touch of chivalry that comes of good breeding and deep respect for the rights of others. His wife, incomparable Aunt Kate, looketh well to the ways of her household and leads G. W. with a silken thread, "as one who runs may see."

The kitchen and menage in general is presided over by a very capable Mexican, Alexander, who has held his place with quiet dignity and strict attendance on duties, many years. A most excellent cook, he takes pride in spreading the table with the best that can be obtained. He is famous in preparing that matchless meat dish, the cowboys call "son-of-a-gun."

This crowd does not remember ever seeing this peculiar name on any menu card of the popular cafes in New York, nor yet Boston, but if any such place wants the recipe, doubtless it could be obtained from the government of Texas.

A Fresh Start is Made

Wednesday morning early found the party off and away to the "Y6" ranch. Arriving there, (and incidentally discovering on the way that the swift-flowing waters of the swollen stream had completely wrecked the car which attempted the fording the day previous) we found 50 or 60 people had spent the night at John Z Means' and of course had eaten him out of house and home and he seemed to want to get them started and at last succeeded.

Let us take back what we said about J. Z. M. The fact is, he keeps a wide-open hospitality—to the right kind of folks—and feeds them well. He makes no charges, except the charge to come to the table as soon as called, and leave it when the filling process is over.

There was a long procession that moved across country to climb the gradually rising road to the Mecca of our desires. At length we rolled into that vast amphitheatre, so spacious, so inviting, and very soon so restful. The ground was pretty well dotted with white tents, and with automobiles parked under trees.

There were meetings and greetings and romping of children that spoke of good fellowship and true happiness.

It was marvelous how quickly camp was in order, how deftly we shook out the wrinkles, put a little powder (that is, the women contingent) and were out doing social stunts and exchanging civilities. That was about 3 p. m. A lunch was soon set before us, of which we partook with a zest and yet were ready for the regular supper at the set of sun. Insomnia takes flight from those who indulge in the luxury and "tired nature's sweet restorer—balmy sleep" comes quickly and wraps in oblivion the human body.

Wonderful Inspirations

The preachers had all arrived and soon the bell called the worshippers together in the auditorium. The first notes of music rendered was a solo on the slide trombone, rendering "That Sweet Story of Old." Clear, high and full of sweetest melody the strains rang out in "notes almost divine."

How wonderfully appropriate it was.

This was followed by the singing of "The Holy City" by our gifted song leader, Mr. Charles Stone, of San Antonio. To the traveler whose first sight of Jerusalem was at set of sun, that grand anthem appealed. How clearly was the impression of our first visit brought back, vividly to memory.

On a hill above the city the cavalcade stopped and with beating hearts we gazed at the glittering minarets, glazed domes and lofty towers that caught the full blaze of the setting sun and made of it all a glittering gem, a flashing jewel set in the darkest blue of the hills—"the hills of Judea."

Truly our hearts were uplifted and on a fair page in memory's book was sketched a marvelous colossal pageant, a glimpse of a "New Jerusalem," an outlook into the redemption of the world by Him who once walked these streets and looked upon such scenes from the Mount of Olives.

The soul—the deep sub-conscious self—treasures that matchless glorious panorama, stowed away in the archives of memory to abide forever.

The song was ended and we awoke from this aerial flight to find many people about us in the auditorium, ready to listen to the words of welcome and then to the service, marked by earnestness and true devotion, filling hearts and comforting souls.

The great Architect of the Universe planned and shaped this beautiful upland park for some great purpose. It is wide-spread, mountain-girt, peaceful and secluded. A fitting place for the worship of nature and nature's God. The world comes here for communion with the Infinite, for rest from caring care, for recreation of the vital forces of the body. The deep green-shaded coves and recesses invite to a clear walk with the Great Architect.

The famed Abyssinian Vale of romance and poetry might rival it in what man's artifice could do, but not in the settings.

This city of tents holds hundreds of inhabitants and throughout all there is a spirit of camaraderie of "hail, friend, well met," that grips the heart as we drift back into other scenes of social community life.

There are six ministers of the gospel, three of whom were the regular preachers: Rev. Jno. H. Burma, president of Trinity College, Waxahachie, Texas; Rev. C. S. Wright, of San Antonio; Rev. F. J. Porter, Oklahoma City. The pastor Emeritus, Rev. Mr. Irving, succeeding Rev. Md. Bloys, of blessed memory, Rev. L. R. Millican and Rev. George W. Baines.

Both Midland and Odessa were represented: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hendricks and Mrs. C. L. Sterling, of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cowden, Mr. and Mrs. Rube Evans, Charles and Kittie Carpenter. Midland Temple sent Dr. and Mrs. Scott.

Monday the 14th was the last day of the regulation services. Tuesday morning there was a short farewell service, when the camp meeting of 1922 was officially ended, and it is hoped that all went to their homes full of precious memories.

This is the 33rd year of an enterprise that has become historic. Of the benefits conferred in a religious way, much might be said and not arrive at the sum.

Of the uplift and satisfaction in a social and educational way, they are incalculable.

That assembly was representative of the State of Texas, which can now be said to stand high in the galaxy of the State of our Union.

As we journeyed homeward, we were overtaken by Mr. and Mrs. Kerknot who begged us to go by and take dinner with them—it was only seven miles out of our way.

The way led through ranches, mountain-girded on each side, with out-croppings of the rim mountains. It was worth while to see such a home at the "end of the world." The house is a marvel in all ways. It is spacious in size and in equipment, harmonious in colorings and all that combines to make a charming home.

The journey home from that visit was without accident—and we brought rain with us.

REPAIRING RAVAGES OF WAR

New Co-Operative Societies Are Aiding the Good Work in Devastated French Regions.

During the last year the co-operative movement in the devastated regions of France has made considerable progress; in fact, at the present time the greater part of reconstruction work is executed by such societies. Both the government and the population of the devastated localities have found these methods of the greatest practical value. Furthermore, the government encourages their organization and development.

Since the beginning of 1919, 203 co-operative societies have been organized in the department of the Meurthe-et-Moselle. They have already obtained important results. On December 31, 1920, urgent repairs had been made on approximately 12,000 buildings. The sums disbursed for these repairs amounted to 124,430,000 francs ($24,014,930 par), or 51 per cent of the total sum paid out for this purpose in the department. In 1920 the co-operative societies commenced the erection of 621 farm buildings, or 88 per cent of the total in the department. The sum disbursed for the above purposes amounted to 20,250,000 francs ($3,908,250 par), or 95 per cent of the total.

How Human Heads Differ.

Women have broader heads in comparison with their length, darker eyes and hair, and a less marked bony development of the skull, according to Miss Fleming of Aberystwith, who, according to the Daily Chronicle, gave the British association some facts and figures associated with her investigation of sex and growth features, and conclusions based upon an examination of 2,500 children and 1,000 women, mostly Welsh.

She had compared these with the figures of Professor Fleure relating to man. There was a marked tendency both in boys and girls to an inch more in width than in length of head. Examination showed that the vivid red hair of children changed into brown about the twelfth year. In the case of fair-haired children the darkening process began earlier in the case of girls than in boys.

CALLS FOR WAR ON RATS

Why the Pests Should Be Exterminated Is Shown by New York Business Association.

While the cost of living may have come down somewhat, the upkeep of rats hasn't. On the contrary, it has soared from a rate of $1.80 per person per year to a trifle over $7 per person, according to the last figures for the United States.

The amount covers only the feeding of the country's rats and does not make any allowance for losses by fire for which they are responsible. The fire prevention committee of the Building Managers and Owners' association is calling the attention of its members to the depredations of the rats, in a bulletin just issued, which says:

"The upkeep of rats has gone up. A year or so ago some one figured that it costs us $1.80 per person to feed the rats in the United States. Recent figures compiled by a British expert place this cost in the United States at $760,000,000 a year, which is a trifle over $7 per person. This is simply for food consumed and destroyed and has nothing whatever to do with the very considerable fire loss they cause.

"Needless to say, we are urged as an economic measure to exterminate the rats; also you will recall what Doctor Copeland had to say to us along this line last winter as pertaining to public health. Viewed from all angles, they are a menace."

What has become of that D'Annunzio person whose name used to be on the front page so often?

Cheer up! Even for those who cannot get a poet's license there is possible a fishing license.

One reason the country is short of homes is that too much money has been put into the cellars.

The first glimpse of the early Fall merchandise is to be had at this store and we invite you to inspect the new arrivals as they reach us.

—The twelve days spent in New York City by our buyer will prove the most profitable twelve days of buying we have ever done. The extraordinary values that this store will show you this season will prove this and you are assured of merchandise of the highest quality at prices far less than for many, many seasons.

—Without doubt, dresses, both of silk and cloth, will prove the biggest item in ready-to-wear this season, which of course will make coats a second, while suits will possibly prove not so popular as last Fall.

—You will always find a welcome here and a willingness, yea, even an eagerness to show you the new merchandise, regardless of whether you come to buy or to look at the new things.

HIKING DOWN THE LONG BROWN PATH

Vacationists With Shelter Tents and Tin Cow Learning to Walk All Over Again.

Oh! It's not the pack that you carry on your back
 Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
 Nor the five inch crust of khaki-colored dust
 That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
 And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
 That drives away your smile,
 Nor the socks of sisters that raise the blooming blisters—
 It's the last long mile.
 —Plattsburgh Marching Song.

Stringing out from the suburban transit terminals of New York every Sunday and holiday goes the army of khaki-clad hikers. There may be an automobile for every twenty of the country's population, but a host of city folks disprove the theory of a future leg-enfeebled citizenry and are learning to walk all over again.

To the more casual minded, the hike is just exercise, but to those who catch its real significance the hike means a great deal more. It is the cheapest form of recreation and therefore appeals to those living in crowded districts and unable to avail themselves of the more expensive amusements. And these people, be it noted, are just those the country is so anxious to have spread out and settled in the farming sections. The hike, indeed, has possibilities as a real starter for the "back to the farm" movement.

Doughboy and Boy Scout Lead Way
 Just a brief survey of the rollicking groups which move off from the outlying terminals on holidays establishes a few general types. There is the ex-service man and his friends who will hear from him the story of more serious excursions on the muddy roads of France. He tightens a strap here and another there on the blanket roll adjustment or the "shelter half," in which the commissary is packed for the mid-day feast by the roadside. Expert directions come from him on the method of slinging the pack so it will not feel so heavy or interfere with the free body movement. He will pass along the information, gained in his army days, of how that same pack was evolved after numerous experiments to find the easiest way of carrying the heaviest load. With results he now compliments, but which he characterized when a doughboy as a "blankety blank total failure."

Then there are the boy scout parties, adept at everything pertaining to "shanks mare" traveling and woodcraft. The ex-service man and the boy scout are pioneers in the hiking game. Listen to one of them right off the train and making ready for a twelve mile jaunt: "Get that canteen over the side, Jimmie, and it won't keep bouncing off your leg every step. Is it filled? Well, then, we drink. How about the eats? Let's check 'em out. You got the spuds, Bill; the bacon Jimmie. Who has the coffee and the Borden tin cow?"

"Right here," announces a freckled comrade of the road, patting his knapsack. "Snatched the mocha and the can of milk when Sis wasn't looking."

"Well, then, let's go!" snaps the commander of the expedition.

This party is traveling light for real distance. Another must expect to make a shorter hitch or else be counting greatly on its power of endurance. Perhaps the camp is not far off because the group is equipped for an over-night stay with heavy blanket rolls, hatchets, lanterns, canvas waterpails, rubber ponchos, kettles, pots, new fangled firestart, etc., etc. The blankets are laid out for a better packing of the bags and cans of food. When the party commences to load up the members bristle all over with camp tools and equipment.

Back to the Farm
 The veteran from the crowded city tenements has found a new territory to roam and one almost unknown to his associates. He is introducing them to this newly discovered land and teaching them how to be independent of any transportation but their own good legs and of any subsistence but what they can carry and prepare. "Walk and cook your own," is his motto.

Who will say the leaven thus fermenting in the city crowds will not bear fruit in a keener appreciation of country delights, especially as these are added to by increased comforts on the farm. With his radio hitched up, the farmer listens in on the best entertainment the country has to offer. Modern home devices wipe out many hardships formerly imposed upon isolated dwellers. There is, in short, a rapid cutting down of the differential between farm and city life.

In the meantime, knowledge must precede a true appreciation of what the country holds, and this is what the hike supplies. There is more appeal in one apple tree in blossom than in reams of printed matter put out to induce the citizen of the city to change his abode to the country. The hikers constitute a growing army, equipped with bacon, spuds, coffee and tin cow for merely a day's outing but nevertheless seeing sights that make them yearn to be among them all the time. It is not too much to assume that the army may one day recruit the open places.

SOME HISTORY OF THE GREAT AMERICAN BELL

In practically every home on farm and in town, in every shop and store, factory and office there is a little bell behind which is a story of romance and before which is a wonderful world that is made less wide. That is your telephone bell, writes Richard Floyd Jones, whoever he may be, continuing: We use to call hello across the field. This little bell now carries our hello across the continent. The farmer who was ten miles away from town had to harness his horse and drive the old spring seat for better than an hour to deliver a simple message. Now he rings the little bell and in two minutes the business is done.

With equal ease the business man in Minneapolis confers with his customer in New Orleans and the New York lawyer talks to his San Francisco client.

Imagine what it would be to be without it. How strange that scientific men of forty-six years ago viewed it with suspicion.

On the first day of this month in his Nova Scotia summer home, Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, died in his seventy-fifth year. His death brought back the story of the advent of the phone.

Bell was highly educated in the scientific schools of Scotland and England. As a young man he was a professor of science in Boston University. He married the daughter of a wealthy merchant. He joined the family in extending to her special tender consideration for she was deaf. He resolved to use his scientific knowledge to perfect a device that would give her an artificial ear drum that his voice might carry to her. For a year he experimented in his father-in-law's barn. He failed to find a way to carry his voice to his beloved and afflicted bride, but that romantic effort brought to him the instrument that has carried the human voice over seas and across continents.

His father-in-law lost his fortune. This invention rebuilt beyond the proportions of all former dreams. In 1876 Mr. Bell carried his newly patented invention to the Philadelphia exposition where our nation celebrated its Centennial. But no one noticed the telephone. Popular interest seemed to center in the butter lady, moulded out of New York's famous Herkimer County butter.

Scientists assembled there but even they were not attracted. At last two of the eminent consented to look at the odd little device. One spoke into the mouthpiece, another at a distance listened at the receiver.

"My God, it talks!" the latter cried. And then the telephone came.

It is in your house and my house, your shop and my shop. Our life is now built to be dependent upon it.

On the first of the month few took notice of the passing of this great benefactor of mankind. He shortened distance; saved time; sped up all the wheels of industry and promoted commerce. He was a great progress-maker. Mr. Bell sent our hello everywhere. He brought us the little bell that we have made the Great American Bell. It is the little bell that calls us to its bidding more than any bell the world has ever known.

FIRST PRIZE STORY IN JUDGE'S WEEKLY

The case of Allie Johnson vs. Rufus Johnson (colored) was being tried in the divorce court of a Southern city. The judge announced the decision of the court, concluding with the following words:

"The plaintiff, Allie Johnson, is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Rufus Johnson, will pay to the support of plaintiff, Allie Johnson, $2 a week alimony."

The defendant listened with pleased interest until the judge mentioned the alimony and then his expression changed to one of puzzled surprise. Finally, he edged up close to the judge and said:

"Judge, it's all right, and I understands everythin' 'cep'n' bout dis here 'Allie-Money.' Seems lak to me dat order wuk bof' ways. S'posen' dat 'oman is makin' good money an' I ain't got no job? Don't I get no 'Rufus-Money'?"

R. E. Van Huss came in last Saturday from his ranch 20 miles south and reports no rain in his section up to that time.

SECOND PRIZE STORY IN JUDGE'S WEEKLY

Mrs. Van Tuyl was going abroad for the first time and was extremely anxious to avoid seasickness. She consulted several friends and got conflicting reports.

"Be sure and eat a hearty meal before going aboard and you won't have any trouble at all," was the advice bestowed by a veteran ocean voyager.

"Whatever you do, don't eat a thing, and you won't even feel the motion of the boat," assured another. Whereupon Mrs. Van Tuyl was considerably distressed and decided to consult her physician.

She gave him a detailed account of the situation, and the varying advice given by her friends.

"Whatever am I to do, doctor?" she implored.

"It all depends, madam," replied the doctor, "whether you wish to discard from strength or weakness."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following announcements are made subject to the action of the Second Democratic Primary Election to be held Saturday, August 26, 1922:

For District Judge 70th Judicial District:
TOM T. GARRARD, Midland
CHAS. GIBBS, Midland

Two farmers, Smith and Brown, had adjoining farms. Brown had just moved in, and did not know his neighbor. Going over his farm he discovered a crow eating the corn, and not knowing it was Smith's pet crow, shot it. Smith, hearing the shot, rushed out and upon discovering his dead crow he picked up Brown's gun and forced him to eat a few mouthfuls of the crow. When he thought he had punished Brown sufficiently, he laid down the gun and said they would call it square. Brown immediately picked up the gun and compelled Smith to eat the same amount of crow.

The next day the two met at the home of a third neighbor, who remarked, "I suppose you two gentlemen are acquainted." "Oh, yes," replied Brown, "We dined together yesterday."

Rev. and Mrs. Angie Smith are spending a few days with the family of W. A. Hutchison on their ranch.

Terry Elkin, of the Imperial Valley, Calif., is in Midland this week at the bedside of his father, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dawson and son Billie, and little daughter, Gloria, returned from Denton last Friday. This was Gloria's introduction to her new home.

Frank Williams was in for the week end with his family from his work on the Bryant ranch.

O. B. Holt is spending part of the week at his ranch north of Midland with his son, O. B., Jr.

Joe Jay and family have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Jayton, Texas.

Ben Stanley is moving back to Midland from New Mexico and expects to make this his home.

Carter Arnett, of Lubbock, is in Midland visiting friends.

Mrs. Frank Wolcott is in from the ranch north, visiting relatives.

J. L. Heath and son, Wade, left this week for a trip to San Angelo and neighboring towns.

Joe B. Johnston was in Midland last week on business from his father's ranch south.

Judge Chas. Gibbs is in Pecos this week in the interest of his candidacy.

M. R. Hill is having considerable work done on his home and remodeling the interior.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayworth Patterson left this week in a car for Roscoe to visit relatives.

Mrs. Spence Jowell is in Midland this week from the ranch.

Miss Laura Gay Allen leaves the last of the week for Winters where she goes to teach expression.

Homer Epley spent the latter part of last week in Midland from Big Spring. He reports that all is quiet there in the city.

Miss Irma Wrage, accompanied by her father were in the first of the week from their ranch near Garden City to visit Mrs. Wrage, who is ill in a local sanatorium.

A card to Mrs. M. J. Allen announces that Miss Eunice Allen is now in her new home, Durango, Old Mexico, for the winter months. She is teaching in a mission school.

Judge and Mrs. J. M. DeArmond were in Big Spring Friday of last week. They made the trip in their car.

George Elliott has returned to Midland this week from a business trip to Pioneer.

Rev. O. J. Hull has returned from a four weeks' absence and occupied his pulpit at both hours last Sunday. His people were delighted with his return. While away he conducted a number of successful revival meetings.

Mrs. I. H. Teel has returned from an extended visit through the west and northwest, visiting her sons on the Pacific coast.

Miss Cora Mae Haley returned this week from Denton where she has been a student for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Proctor were in for the latter part of last week from their ranch, south.

Roy Wilson is able to be about on the streets after having passed through an operation in a local sanatorium. He returned to his home at Andrews Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Cordelia Taylor is rapidly improving from her operation and will soon be able to greet her friends as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldredge Estes and son, Partner, have returned to their ranch near Monahans after visiting relatives in Midland.

Bryan Hull had the misfortune this week to get painfully burned about his feet and legs, caused by gasoline igniting. He bids fair, however, to be up shortly.

T. A. Fannin is having his home worked over and added to and is making a most attractive and convenient place.

Paul Barron has arrived in Midland to assume his part of the work in the new firm of Barron & Sparks, insurance. He is a local boy and we are glad he is back with us.

Jim Poole returned last week from a long trip through New Mexico and on to El Paso. He reports the range unusually dry.

S. H. Purcell was in this week from the Hutt ranch south and reports no rain on this place lately.

Judge J. M. DeArmond and Homer Epley spent last Saturday in Odessa, in the interest of the highway.

Vernon Dargan, of Dallas, was in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. S. O. Richardson was a business visitor in Odessa last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer returned this week from a most pleasant overland trip to the mountains of Colorado.

Mrs. F. E. Rankin and Mrs. E. C. Large were week end guests on the Hutt ranch south.

Miss Dorothy McGonagill, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. K. Curtis, has returned to her home in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Ed Eriksen has returned from a visit to her mother in South Texas.

Mrs. Vesta Harris and son have returned from a visit with relatives in Roscoe.

Miss Geraldine Cowden has returned from a most pleasant trip to the mountains in Colorado.

Mrs. B. W. Baker and daughter, Melba, are visiting her mother in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cowden have returned from a visit to the Davis Mountains.

Miss Opal Jackson, of Lorain, has been the guest of Mrs. Horace Newton and the Misses Beauchamp for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wadley are now living in their new home and are receiving the congratulations of their many friends. This home is indeed a beautiful addition to the many attractive homes in Midland and we rejoice to see our citizens expressing their faith in our community by building good homes.

It was in the busiest time of the day on traffic blocked Broad street. The traffic officer signaled the long line of waiting autos to proceed. A fair young flapper stalled her machine in the middle of the crossing.

"What the h—'s the matter with you?" shouted the officer.

"I'm very well, thank you," sweetly replied the calm young lady, "but my engine's dead."

Booth, the tragedian, (father of Edwin Booth), had a broken nose. A lady once remarked to him, "I like your acting, Mr. Booth, but to be frank with you, I can't quite get over your nose."

"No wonder, madam," replied he. "The bridge is gone."

A Sunday school teacher one morning during the lesson was trying to impress upon the minds of the children that one should always say grace before eating. So turning to Willie, the minister's son, she asked him: Willie, what is the first thing your father says when you sit down to eat?"

She was very much shocked when Willie replied: "Touch light on the butter! It's fifty cents a pound."

A woman had left on a table three pounds of butter. Coming back home the butter was gone. Seeing a cat nearby, she at once suspected the animal, but to be sure, she took the cat to the scales to weigh it. She found it weighed just three pounds. "There's my butter," she exclaimed, "but where is the cat?"

At the present rate, it will soon be a narrow choice of having diamonds on one's fingers or potatoes on one's table.

Clothing prices seem to be coming down—perhaps to see what those queer denim things are that men are wearing.

Whether the heart of the world is broken or not, the world continues to function much as it did before. It's very tough.

Silver fox furs are selling at $670 in New York, but maybe they will be able to find something more expensive for summer furs.

A boothback was puffing away at the end of a cigar, when a gentleman, thinking to have a little fun at the boy's expense, asked him if he always smoked cigars.

"Oh, yes, sir, pretty often," answered the boy.

"What brand do you generally smoke?" asked the gentleman.

"Robinson Crusoe, sir," answered the boy.

The gentleman pondered a little. "I never heard of that brand," he said.

"It's a name I've given 'em myself," announced the boy. "You see, Gov'nor, old Crusoe was a castaway."

Same Old Story But a Good One

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for lowel troubles."

Hunger the Best Sauce.

Sauce is used to create an appetite or relish for the food. The right way is to look to your digestion. When you have good digestion you are certain to relish your food. Chamberlain's Tablets improve the digestion, create a healthy appetite and cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

In the general supply store in a small Southern town one day the following conversation between a negro and the storekeeper took place: "Boss, does yo' member dat hat I bought fum yo' fo' my boy lass Sat'-day?"

"Yes, John, I remember. What about it?"

"Well, it an' entirely too small fo' him."

"All right. I will exchange it for you and give you one a little larger. What size do you want?"

"I dunno. W'at's de size ob dat wun whut I'brug back?"

"It is size six and seven eighths."

"Well, if dat hat am six, seben eight, Boss, I spec yo' better gimme a nine, ten, eleven."

Lane Dupree returned last week from Fort Worth and Colorado. He says they had a good rain on his place near Colorado this week.

AMERICAN JERSEY CATTLE CLUB TO SHOW AT FAIR

Not only those interested in Jerseys, but in all other cattle as well, will find much of interest in the exhibit of the American Jersey Cattle Club at the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 6-15.

The club has arranged to house its exhibit in a big tent, 40x80 feet, and will demonstrate the best dairying methods as have been proved by results.

A feature will be life sized oil paintings of prize Jersey producers. The exhibit, according to Secretary Baker of the club, will be a duplicate of the outstanding features of the last National Jersey show.

Why Little Things Are Important.

The selection of "little things" for the home is just like choosing the friends one wants to keep a lifetime.

The little things in the home are chosen safely only when they fit our ideas of individuality, restraint, comfort and economy. It is not necessary for one's home to be cluttered with useless things, but a visit to one of our first-class furniture stores will reveal many interesting objects of beauty and art which are really needed in the modern-furnished home.

There are many cleverly-designed lamps, with their subdued colorings, that add beauty and refinement to the home; a gateleg table that would save unnecessary steps for mother and the writing desk that suggests many friends whose letters make pleasant blinks of affection, telephone stands, book ends, console tables, mirrors and hundreds of other things, little, but how they do add to the attractiveness of any home.

"No, you can't," said the hard-favored housewife. "I don't believe in encouraging loafers. You'd better be thinking about your soul. Here's a tract that will show you the way to heaven."

"Thanks, madam," replied the tramp, as he moved. "I'll accept the tract, but I don't mind telling you that my immediate destination is Florida." Birmingham Age-Herald.

Why the Teeth Decay.

We now know that more diseases are caused by neglected teeth than by alcohol. A cavity in a tooth can harbor 2,000,000,000 germs of 60 species, waiting the opportunity afforded by a run-down condition to start some serious sickness.

Perfect care of the teeth throughout the year increased the average efficiency of a class of 40 children 99.8 per cent—if they had been men, their earning power would have been nearly doubled.—Popular Science Monthly.

Notice to the People of Midland, Andrews and Gaines Counties

The Midland and Northwestern Railway Company is in the hands of a receiver appointed by the Federal Court. The receiver is under a good and sufficient bond to protect and conserve the property of said railroad. It has come to the attention of the receiver that a large number of ties and other property has been surreptitiously removed from the railroad and right-of-way by numbers of individuals of the foregoing counties. The receiver has no other course to pursue, under his duties as receiver, than to recover said property and return it to where it belongs, and prosecute parties that have taken the same in the proper courts. Being under Federal control, the offenses will be taken cognizance of in the Federal Court.

The receiver here and now notifies all parties that all property, including ties, etc., taken from said railroad, must be returned immediately, and that all property so used that same can not be returned must be paid for at the office of the receiver in Midland, Texas. Notice is furthermore given that hereafter all parties taking property from said railroad will be diligently prosecuted in the proper courts.

Receiver of Midland & Northwestern R.R.

Famous Stubbs Hereford Sale

The greatest event of the year in the cattle world will be the closing out public sale of Ex-Governor Stubbs' herd of full-blood, non-registered Herefords

SEPTEMBER 11-12 AT HEREFORD, TEX. Cattle Now on Stubbs' Ranch

18 miles northwest of Hereford, Texas, only 40 miles southwest of Amarillo and 60 miles northeast of Clovis. Nearest railroad point Hereford, Texas, on main line of Santa Fe.

2800 Pure-Bred Non-Registered Herefords

This auction sale will dispose of 900 cows, 400 heifer calves, 375 bull calves, 300 yearling heifers, 250 two-year-old heifers and 60 registered Hereford bulls. In addition, the sale will include 200 two-year-old steers and 300 yearling steers of Stubbs quality.

Prize-Winning Stock at Your Price

This herd had a foundation stock of wonderful registered cows. For 25 years the choicest blood strains in the Hereford world have been added by the use of only registered herd bulls. The Stubbs cattle have quality to spare. They are great, rugged, heavy-boned, low-down beef producing animals in good condition, running uniform to the best Hereford type.

For many years the bull calves have been sold at prices ranging from $75.00 to $150.00 per head for range service. The bulls and heifers have been prize winners at the American Royal and have topped the Kansas City market for both weight and price for the day, month and year and for all time previous to that date.

This sale will afford you stockmen the opportunity of a life-time to buy seed stock from a cow herd that has been more than a generation in the building. Remember, other men have spent a life-time breeding them for you. Cattle are scarce: GOOD cattle are VERY scarce.

Entire Herd Must Be Sold September 11-12

Sales will be made in car-lots. Terms, 12 months' time with 7 per cent interest will be extended to parties furnishing approved security. Good railroad accommodations. There will be bargains for all who come. Don't fail to take advantage of this eventful offering. Will hold cattle for 80 or 90 days if purchaser desires. For more particulars, address

OIL DEVELOPMENT IN THE PECOS FIELD

In reporting oil operations in the Pecos field of wildcatting, the Enterprise states that the wells now drilling are making satisfactory headway. The Enterprise reports for the past week as follows:

Laura Well.

J. D. Granger, of the Granger Drilling Co., which company has the contract for the completion of the Laura well of the Sunshine-Federal interests, has been busy this week installing the rotary rig and, according to Mr. Heller, of the Federal, they expect to be ready to resume drilling sometime next week.

Bell Well.

Report today from the Bell well is effect that they are drilling at 2840 feet with gas at intervals as strong as ever. They think they have found structure upon which the casing can be set and the gas shut off. When this is done they will be enabled to relieve the hole of water which is kept there to hold down the gas and will then be able to make much better headway.

Toyah-Bell.

The crew is busy at the Toyah-Bell running casing and putting in pump. Some of the parts were found missing and are expected daily, but this will delay operations only for a short while.

Willoughby Well

Everything is going good on both the No. 1 and No. 2 wells and although progress is seemingly slow the formations are hard and care is being taken to keep the holes straight as two strata of water have already been encountered in the No. 1 well and these and any additional water will be cased off before drilling deeper as the oil bearing levels in Reeves county range from less than 200 feet in the Toyah shallow field to around 2,700 in the Bell No. 1 and with the indications of immediate production in the Willoughby No. 1 well no chances will be taken of losing the well by carrying water in the hole. Although the strike situation has hit many of our monthly paying stockholders no immediate fear is entertained that it will be necessary to shut down as it is believed the stockholders will realize the importance of keeping the drills going and furnish the required funds to tide through the crisis.

C. H. Willoughby.

Hershenson Well

The drill at the Hershenson well went into blue shale last week, this formation having been struck directly under the line, and at an unusually shallow depth. Mr. B. T. Biggs a well known practical geologist of this section, and who assisted Mr. D. D. Christner making geological report on the Hershenson location, states that the striking of blue shale at such a shallow depth proves conclusively that the well is being drilled high on the structure, and that oil should be found at comparatively shallow depth. The well is now waiting for 20-inch casing to shut off a water seepage.

Tatum Well

Toyah, Texas, Aug. 17, 1922.—The Tatum well is drilling in black lime at 1082 feet. This formation was encountered at 1050 feet and when put to test shows some oil. That is the cap rock that all the operators in this territory look forward to and the management of this well thinks that it is only the question of the thickness of the black lime until they strike production, as the formation is running true to the opinions of Dr. Worrell and other noted geologists that have worked out that territory.

Owen N.2

The Owen No. 2 is running the 6 and 5-8 inch casing to shut off the water that broke in above through the 8 and 1-4 inch casing. The casing will be set at a depth of 2830 feet and drilling resumed as soon as the casing is installed and shut-off is made.

Pat had been told by the sergeant that unless he made an arrest of some kind he couldn't keep his job on the force, so early one morning Pat came into the station with a little man in tow.

"Well," said the sergeant, "I see you got somebody. What's the charge?"

"He's charged with bigotry, yer honor."

"There's no such thing as bigotry."

They proceeded to look over a list of charges, but could not find "bigotry."

"It's not here," said the sergeant.

"What's he been doing?"

"Doing?" said Pat, "why, the runt has three wives."

"Why," said the sergeant, "that's not bigotry, that's trigonometry."

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

OIL ACTIVITIES IN BIG SPRING FIELD

The Big Springs Herald, reporting wild cat activities there for the past week, says "oil prospects are looking good" and that something may be doing soon." These expressions are in the headlines. Following is the Herald's report for the week:

Iatan-Westbrook Field

That there should be more producing wells brought in in the Westbrook Iatan oil field in the near future is evident. That Le Sure well No. 1, between T. & P. well No. 2, now a producer, and the town of Westbrook, is said to have drilled into the Underwriter sand at 2442 feet Wednesday and has penetrated this sand some thirty-eight feet.

The Foster No. 2 has reached a depth of 2600, but a fishing job is delaying the bringing in of this well. No. 2 is but 2000 feet southeast of Foster No. 1, which has been on the pump more than a year. Oil was encountered in Foster No. 1 at 2650.

Henry Riley is plugging back to 2740 feet in Murphy No. 1 and the well will be shot at that depth. The Murphy well was drilled to a depth of 3100 feet when the casing collapsed near the bottom of the hole.

The three tests of the Maxwell-Johnson Company are making good progress. Stewart No. 2, one mile northwest of Iatan, is drilling below 2300 feet. Capps-Lucas No. 1 is drilling below 1800 feet; a slight delay was occasioned this week by a break of machinery. Jones well No. 1 is going forward.

Fensland's Read No. 1, drilling on the anticline in the Reed ranch, northeast of Coahoma is now making good progress in the neighborhood of 2000 feet.

The Magnolia Co. expects to overcome a water shortage and make fast time on their test, four miles south of Iatan, soon.

Etta Brenman No. 1 is down below 3100 feet and the owners are to decide whether or not it shall go deeper or an attempt made to develop an oil sand recently encountered.

Morrison No. 2, Zilpha Morrison No. 1, and Foster No. 1 are on the pump but are not attempting to produce oil for shipment to refineries at present.

Cushing Ranch Drilling Association H. H. Enders of Boston, Mass., president of the Cushing Ranch Drilling Association is due to arrive tomorrow to look after the three test wells his company is drilling southeast of Big Springs; these being in Enders-Cushing No. 1, the Sparkman No. 1, the McIntyre No. 1.

A fishing job delayed progress on Enders-Cushing No. 1 this week but tools were recovered and drilling is going forward. The same hard brown lime formation is in evidence with strata of black lime showing occasionally. According to oil men this deep lime formation should be the cap rock to a good pool of oil. The drill has penetrated this lime to depth of 600 feet. Samples of the brown lime show it to be bituminous and similar to lime encountered in a well between Westbrook and Iatan.

They have been troubled with a caving formation in the Sparkman test but this has been overcome and drilling is going forward steadily.

It is believed that while here Mr. Enders will make arrangements to have drilling resumed on McIntyre No. 1. This test is held for casing.

Harry E. Briant of Portland, Oregon, who is interested in the Cushing

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Fifty thousand benefitted people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 50,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Midland sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Midland case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. C. E. Rogers, Midland, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are an old remedy with me and there is nothing that can take its place. I used Doans off and on when my kidneys felt sluggish or when there was soreness through them in the morning. A short use of Doan's always gave me relief so I highly recommend this medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rogers had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ranch Drilling Association and who has been here the past ten days, making a thorough inspection of this territory, is very optimistic over the outlook for a good oil field being developed.

Magnolia Oil Co. Test

That it is not always a shortage of money which causes delay in wild catting for oil is very evident in the case of the test being drilled by the Magnolia Oil Company, four miles south of Iatan.

This company has plenty of ready cash to make hundreds or thousands of tests yet they have been unable to continue drilling on account of a water shortage.

I. L. Tilden of the Magnolia Co., was in Big Springs Thursday to confer with the railway officials relative to piping water from Iatan Lake, some five miles or more distant from the test so drilling could be continued.

If plenty of water can be secured the Magnolia will have this test put down in quick time. This well is now between 300 and 400 feet deep.

General Oil Company

Drilling on McDowell No. 4 of the General Oil Company continues steadily though the progress is slow due to the hard formation. The drill is now pounding its way thru gray lime at a depth of 3290 feet.

The work of plugging Read No. 1 in the eastern part of Howard County will probably be completed within the next few days.

H. D. Conley is in charge of operations in this field for the General Oil Company.

Citation by Publication

No. 1616 To the Sheriff or any Constable of Midland County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon B. C. Girdley, by making publication of this citation, once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in a newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear and defend a writ of error sued out on the petition of John K. Rosson, David L. Campbell and L. E. Davis, a partnership composing firm of Campbell-Rosson Live Stock Commission Company, respectfully represents that heretofore, to-wit: on the 15th day of February, 1922, judgment was rendered in favor of the Midland National Bank, of Midland, Texas, a corporation and B. C. Girdley, against your petitioners in a certain cause pending in this court, No. 1616, on the docket thereof, in which the Border National Bank of El Paso, Texas, was plaintiff, and O. P. Jones, Luther Holman, John K. Rosson, David L. Campbell, B. C. Girdley, Cody Bell, L. E. Davis, and Midland National Bank, of Midland, Texas, a corporation, were defendants, said judgment being that these defendants take nothing against the defendants, Midland National Bank and B. C. Girdley, by reason of their cross action in this suit against them, and that said defendants recover all costs in this behalf expended, arising by virtue of their being made parties to this suit, and further that the plaintiff recover judgment by default against the defendants, B. C. Girdley and Cody Bell, judgment against B. C. Girdley, being for the sum of fifteen thousand five hundred seventy-four and 19/100 ($15,574.19) dollars, with foreclosure of chattel mortgage against B. C. Girdley and Cody Bell, on the cattle described in plaintiff's petition. Judgment was also rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, O. P. Jones, foreclosing the chattel mortgage on 134 head of cattle in possession of the said O. P. Jones, under reply bond executed by him, with judgment against the defendant O. P. Jones, and his sureties on the reply bond for forty-six hundred ninety ($4690.00) dollars, being the value of said cattle in his possession, with the right to return said property and obtain credit on said judgment for said value of said cattle; said judgment for said value of said cattle, said judgment also being a dismissal by the plaintiff of its suit against H. M. Horton and Luther Holman, and awarding costs against the Plaintiff, arising by virtue of their being made parties to the suit; said judgment also being that the defendant, O. P. Jones, take nothing by his cross action against defendant, Luther Holman, and that plaintiff take nothing against the defendants John K. Rosson, David L. Campbell and L. E. Davis, and that they recover their costs, by reason of being made parties to the suit, and that the defendants John K. Rosson, David L. Campbell and L. E. Davis, take nothing by their cross action against the Midland National Bank of Midland, Texas, and B. C. Girdley, as aforesaid.

Herein fail not, but of this writ make due return within 20 days from the date hereof, showing how you have executed the same.

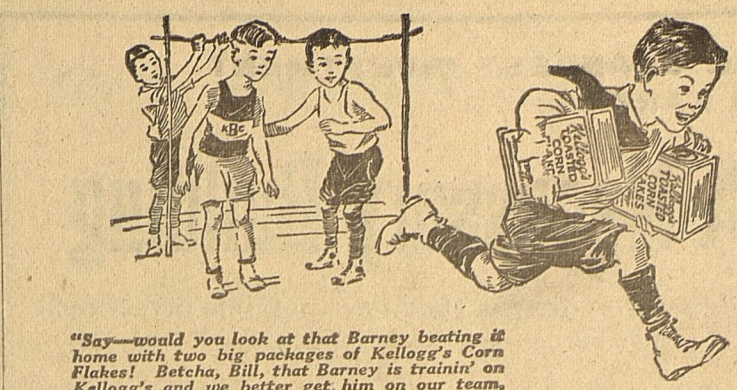

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, and issued at Midland, Texas, this 23rd day of August, 1922.

C. B. DUNAGAN, Clerk, District Court, Midland County, Texas. adv 473t

CHURCH NOTICES

Respect of Persons in the Church
My brethren hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come into your synagogue (church) a man with a gold ring in fine clothing and there come in also a poor man in vile clothing; and you have regard to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, stand thou there, or sit under my foot stool, do ye not make a distinction among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Hearken, beloved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to them that love him? But you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you? (James 2:1-6)

W. H. WILLIAMS, Manager

Addison Wadley returned this week from New York where he has been to buy fall goods for Wadley-Wilson Company. He states that there is a general feeling of doubt about the future, due to the industrial disturbances. Most of the men feel that sooner or later the entire question must be fought out and this seems to be as fine time as any to try to settle the problems which are disturbing the men and employers.

Tom Patterson and sister, Mrs. Joe Youngblood, returned last Tuesday from their marketing trip to St. Louis and other points. They are buyers for Everybody's Store, T. S. Patterson & Company, and report a reasonably satisfactory trip, though finding a very uncertain market. They bought cautiously, therefore, but in sufficient quantities and variety to satisfy the demands of the Midland trade.

Rev. W. Angie Smith announced last Sunday that he will preach a series of sermons beginning with the first Sunday in September and closing with the fourth Sunday in the same month. The sermons are to be on the life of Jesus Christ and His work. The subjects as he announced them are to be "Jesus, the Friend;" "Jesus, the Physician;" "Jesus, the Teacher" and "Jesus, the Savior." These sermons are to be brought at the morning hour of worship and are themes of general interest to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer have received a letter from their son, Jack, who is in the military camp at El Paso, in which he states that in an athletic contest for the entire camp of several hundred young men he won first place in the high jump and in the running broad jump and second place in the swimming events. This is quite an event for one to win so many honors with such a large number to compete against, but it only shows that our local boys will win in all their contests when given a good chance. We are all proud of the record Jack has made in the training camp.

A cablegram has been received by Mrs. M. J. Allen stating that her daughter, Miss Christine, has arrived in Brussels and will remain in Belgium several months.

Mrs. Nettie Bratton left Tuesday for her home at Kosse. She was anxious to get back since the great oil well was brought in there and her husband has considerable acreage adjacent to this wonderful well.

The writer and J. P. Inman have Farmer Holly Roberts to thank for some fine watermelons, brought in Tuesday. They were very large and finely matured, with as good flavor as we have seen.

W. L. Holmsley and wife returned Wednesday from Comanche, where they spent some weeks visiting relatives, among them Mr. Holmsley's mother, who had been quite sick for some time. They left her improved, but quite feeble.

Mrs. J. B. Rose, of Roswell, N. M., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. B. M. Smart, for some weeks, will return home in a few days.

Dr. L. B. Pemberton and wife are in Dallas this week, but will be home Monday or Tuesday, when the dentist will be ready for business again. Dr. Pemberton has been taking a post graduate course in Kansas City.

Mrs. J. H. Yates and daughter, Tiney, of El Paso, left for home the latter part of last week, after a week in Midland, guests of Mrs. B. G. Pemberton.

The open season for doves begins next Friday, September 1st, and from general indications there will be all the birds we can kill in a few miles of Midland. The birds are always plentiful out here and every hunter can bag his limit in a few hours. This is quite an inducement for people back east to come out for some good bird shooting and already we have heard of several parties of men from Fort Worth who will be out in the fall for quail shooting. The doves do not stay in our part of the State very long after September the 1st and it is wise for all to get their hunting the first part of the month before the birds move on.

C. R. Flesher and Charles Bryan, of Dallas, were in Midland last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Hobbs entertained a group of her girl friends with a slumber party at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. N. Snodgrass, last Monday night. Those enjoying the party were Misses Lillie B. Williams, Freddie Bradford, Jessie Hale, Annie Wall, Clifford Heath and Quinnie Cordill.

Her many friends in Midland will be indeed sorry to learn that Miss Elma Graves will soon leave us. She has accepted a position in the post-office at Lubbock and will leave about the latter part of next week for that place. We wish her success in her new field of labor.

Mrs. I. H. Teel returned last week from an extended visit in the west and Pacific Northwest to her sons and sister. During her absence she visited her son, Ira, in Los Angeles, and friends in San Francisco and her two sons who are in business in Lewiston, Idaho. It is needless to say she enjoyed herself very much. The past two years have brought about great improvements on the Pacific Coast and all seem prosperous except grain farmers, who have only a light crop this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloodworth, son and daughter, who have been visiting Rev. and Mrs. I. H. Teel, left Wednesday evening for their return trip home. They will stop in New Orleans, Mobile and Birmingham with relations and acquaintances. Mr. Bloodworth has been in the employ of the L. & N. railway for the past twenty years as a conductor and will visit several railway yards and other places of interest to one engaged in his line of work.

We neglected to mention the return recently, of Miss Freddie Bradford from Denton, where she, too, spent a very pleasant and profitable summer in C. I. A.

Miss Lena Kate Baker, left this morning for El Paso, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Moore, after which she will go to Penos Altos, N. M., and take up her school work.

Jim Flanigan, accompanied by Ed Schenecker, and Jim, Jr., made a trip last week to Lamesa and Seminole. They report no rain in that section.
