Pupils Must Be In School For 100 Days

Promotion Made Conditional Upon Attendance For Given Period

Children in Howard county rural schools must attend school 100 days of a season to be eligible to promotion to the next higher grade at the end of the school term, members of the Howard County Teachers' association decided by unanimous vote at a recent meeting here.

This rule will be followed in all cases except where a child has been in the same grade during the preceding season and in cases where a child has shown unusual ability and is, in the opinion of his teachers, capable of carrying work in the next higher grade.

In the latter case the teacher may submit the pupil's records and all other relevant evidence to an executive committee of the county teachers' association, which will pass on each case separately.

This action was taken in view of a number of cases in which children had not attended school a sufficient number of days during the season to be wisely promoted at the end of the year.

Ben U. Comalander of Coahoma and Mrs. Pauline Cantrell Brighams of county superintendents, and two others yet to be selected will form the committee to pass on cases where children may be eligible to promotion under exception to the 100 day attendance rule.

Kelley Talks To Rotarians

International Affairs Is Topic Of Noted Local Observer

One of the best meetings in recent months was held by the Rotary club Tuesday noon in the Settles ballroom, with an excellent attendance of membership. The new president, Dr. M. H. Bennett, presided. The club song leader, Emil Fahrenkamp, put over one of the most spirited sing-songs ever held by the club. Mrs. Bruce Frazier was accompanist on the piano.

Several songs, including "The Spirit of Rotary," were sung with much enthusiasm.

Ellard Ribble, E. J. Mary, Harvey Rix and W. C. Blankenship took their places on the stage with Mr. Fahrenkamp and the other members of the club stood nearby. The sing-song was so enthusiastic that even a number of the members not so musically inclined finally joined in for the festivities.

Guests were N. L. Peters, Lubbock; H. S. Faw, Ray Simmons, Paige Benbow, C. T. Watson, Big Spring.

Announcement was made of a lecture to be held in the Settles hotel under auspices of Medical Society on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, to which the public is invited. Lantern slides will be shown, and a lecture given by Dr. Harris of Dallas.

The committee on international relations was in charge of Tuesday's program, with Emil Fahrenkamp as chairman for the day. He introduced Edwin A. Kelley as the speaker for the day, stating that he asked Mr. Kelley only a few hours before to be on the program, and for him to choose any subject that he might wish to talk on.

Mr. Kelley, in his usual forceful and interesting manner, gave the club one of the best talks that it has been privileged to hear in recent months.

He used as his subject the Sino-Japanese situation, as it affects the world, bringing interesting figures and facts into his discussion.

City Manager E. V. Spence and Merle Stewart, city secretary, are working on the city budget for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1933, which they expect to have ready for submission to the city commission April 26.

Mrs. John Nolte returned from El Paso Monday night.

Schedule Of Sewer Rental Rates Revised

Most Classes Of Rates Are Reduced; None Increased

Revisions in sewer rentals were ordered Tuesday night by the board of city commissioners, whereby approximately $750 — based on last year's receipts from the sewer system — will be saved to the customers.

The revised schedule of rental charges was ordered as a part of the general revision of sewer and water rates that has been under study of the city manager for several months.

Rental for rooming houses with four or more rooms was cut from $1.50 to $1.00 per month plus 10 cents per room above four instead of 15 cents.

The monthly charge of 25 cents for residences and apartments was not changed.

Rate for hotels with 11 to 40 rooms was left unchanged. It is $3 per month plus 10 cents per month per room above 11. For hotels of 40 or more rooms the charge remains $7 per month plus ten cents per month per room above 41 rooms.

Charge for office buildings with not more than three rooms was cut from $1.50 to $1.25 per month.

Office buildings of four to 10 rooms will pay $1.50 per month instead of $2 with 10 cents per month per room for each room above four instead of 15 cents as heretofore.

Office buildings of 11 to 40 rooms will pay $3 per month as in the past but will pay 10 cents per room for each room above 11 instead of 15 cents.

Stores and business buildings will pay $1.25 instead of $1.50 per month. The same cut was ordered for filling stations with toilet, lavatory and sink, with $1.50 per month for filling stations with grates in wash racks. New rates of $2 per month for restaurants with toilet, $1.50 per month for hamburger stands and sandwich stands with toilets and $1 for such stands without toilet were ordered.

No changes were made in rental charges for office buildings of 41 or more rooms, which pay $7 per month plus 10 cents per room per month for each room above 41 or for drug stores and confectioneries, which pay $2 per month.

Wish Some of These Times When I. C. C. Denied Construction Of A Line Located Entirely Within One State That The Railway Company Would Just Go Ahead and Start Laying Rails Wonder What Would Happen?

Wonder what would happen if some company decided to buck super-centralized federal power in that manner? Just what if, you know, what if by using every technicality and trick possible — by injunctions, appeals, continuances, etc., any final action to prevent the construction against orders of the I. C. C. could be delayed until many miles of track had been laid, until trains were being pulled over the new track.

If such a thing were undertaken and the construction not stopped until people in regions until then never served by a railroad were being served — reckon operation of the line could be stopped at all?

That may be a rebellious attitude, perhaps a radical one.

But, once in awhile, it seems to us, the only antidote for one poison is another poison if you please; the only corrective for one radical law, an equally radical action by the people — without force of arms, of course.

Gandhi has done a lot of putting into practice his doctrine of passive resistance. Building a railroad in direct disobedience to the interstate commerce commission would not be passive in one sense. It would be equally as effective however.

It would be a sort of plagiarism of the Japanese, only for a great deal more worthy purpose than their tactics in Shanghai.

The Japanese realized that possession was nine-tenths of the law. That is, that after they actually were in possession of Shanghai getting them out would be a great deal more difficult than would be their task of getting in except by force and once they get us out!

And, if a railroad actually existed, even though because of violation of an I. C. C. order, putting it out of existence would be a hundred fold more difficult than preventing its construction unless it were built by directly ignoring the I. C. C. order.

The Texas & Pacific Northern would serve a good purpose. The public necessity and convenience merits its construction. If you argue sorely on pre-conceived theories of professional economic theorists you might not be able to show the public need the road. But, to those who know the country through which it would pass there is no sound argument against it.

But, when a law allows a body so far removed by miles, as well as interests, from you, to dictate whether or not you will be allowed to develop your own homeland, what can you do about it?

The only way we see is to overthrow such a law, by as peaceable means as possible.

Another thing, those guys 'way up there in Washington not only are far away from the people that would be served, but pretty cockeyed close to other groups of railroad owners than that which sought to build the T. & P. N.

But, under existing procedure, the public be damned!

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Putman of Stamford, who came home with their daughter, Mrs. H. O. Phillips, spent the week-end here.

11-2 Per Cent Given City On Daily Balance

Banks File No Bids, Usual Division Of Funds Necessary

No bids having been submitted following the city's advertisement for proposals to act as depository of its funds for the coming year, a contract was entered into Tuesday evening between the three local banks and the city government whereby municipal funds will be divided between them.

Each bank submitted depository bond which was approved.

The banks agree to pay one and one-half per cent on daily balances. The deposits will be divided 30 per cent to the third. The bank receiving 40 per cent will carry the active account. This account is "revolved" according to a custom that has arisen in the city. This year the State National will handle it.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Fifth Court of Civil Appeals granted the motion of Tom Love to certify his suit to mandamus, compelling the Democratic officials to admit voters to Presidential primaries without pledging their support at general elections, direct to the State Supreme Court. The district court had refused the mandamus.

Certification was granted to allow the final decision before the precinct Presidential conventions on May 7. Love, claiming the state committee exceeded its legal authority by requiring the pledge.

Friend Say J. A. Mobley Was Known As A Sleep Walker

NEW YORK (AP)—John A. Mobley, of Houston, with other members of his firm, general counsel for the Missouri Pacific Railway Company, was killed early today by a fall from the ninth floor window of Hotel Pennsylvania to the roof of a two-story extension.

Mobley was about 55, and a member of the law firm of Andrews, Streetman, Logue and Mobley.

John H. Shary, of Mission, Texas, who was occupying the adjoining room, said they went to a club last night and returned early this morning and after they both had retired Mobley was seized with a fit of coughing. Shary went to Mobley's room and returned to his own room afterwards.

U. S. Deficit Two Billions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The treasury announced that the government deficit passed the two billion mark on April 11, reaching $2,017,858,745.

The highest ever made in peace times and already twice last year's deficit.

Income tax collections caused a large part of the decrease and expenditures also increased partly because of the growing postal deficit subscriptions to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and Federal Land Banks.

Next Step Of T. & P. Is Not Announced

Officials Out Of General Offices In Dallas On Business

DALLAS (AP)—Possibility that the Texas & Pacific Northern will seek re-hearing on the Interstate Commerce Commission's denial of its application to build a line from Big Spring to Lubbock, Amarillo and Vega could not be confirmed here Wednesday.

Thomas D. Gresham, general attorney for the Texas & Pacific and G. O. Bateman, vice-president and attorney for the Texas & Pacific Northern, were out of the city. Gresham was in Washington and Bateman in Austin.

President John L. Lancaster, president of the T. & P. also was out of town.

Operating officials said they had not been informed of what action, if any, the railroad would take to secure reversal of the commission's decision.

Motor Truck Service Tends To Make Line Unnecessary, It Holds

The interstate commerce commission Wednesday denied the application of the Texas & Pacific Northern Railway company to build 330 miles of railway from Big Spring, Texas, to Vega, with branches from Dimmitt to Amarillo and from Lubbock to a point 66 miles north of Big Spring.

The commission ruled that existing lines were sufficient to serve the area and that the large amount of uncultivated land proved that there was no urgent necessity for the new road.

The commission said operation of truck lines in addition to existing railways helped to obviate necessity for the new line.

The Texas and Pacific Northern is a subsidiary of the Texas & Pacific, which is controlled by the Missouri Pacific of the Van Swearingen group.

A Letter

DURING the recent tax fight in Congress there appeared the following letter in the "Open Mind" column of a daily newspaper in Washington.

"As an employee of the United States government I wish to state my views on salary reductions and sales tax.

"When the appeal was made to the government employees that the Community Chest needed more money than ever before, most of us came across with our three days' pay. Now that the three days' pay has been contributed our noble congressmen are going to cut salaries. This in itself will be a general notice to all commercial organizations to lower wages even to the messenger or office boy.

"Instead of giving the people an opportunity to vote on an appeal to the eighteenth amendment, they voted it down. In so doing they shattered the noble words that Lincoln said and meant: 'A government of the people, by the people and for the people.' In place of this I suggest that we say a government of the crooks, by the crooks and for the crooks.

"If the wage reduction and sales tax is passed I will never donate a penny to any charitable organization again. I intend to save every penny possible. I will deprive myself of any pleasure that will help to make the sales tax a success. I intend to do as little work as possible for my salary. I intend to use every day I may sick an annual leave, something I have never done before.

"I have a vote but I am giving it up rather than be a party to any election that presents such men as we have representing the power trusts, the bootlegger and graft sharks. CONSTANT READER.

Naturally, the writer of such an almost-treasonous letter is not representative of all of the federal employees. Undoubtedly most of them will accept a pay cut as a necessary emergency measure if congress is forced to that extreme, and continue to give their best for the money they are drawing.

But in these times when the average tax payer has given far more than three days' pay to charity and is already struggling along on reduced income it is disconcerting to say the least, to learn that there is even one employee eating at the public table who is frank enough to admit that he is out to grab all of the public money that he can and give as little as possible in return.

Life's Darkest Moment

THE HIGH WIND AND THE

the MAN HUNTERS

BY MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

SUSAN CAREY, who lives with her AUNT JESSIE on Chicago's west side, has an unpleasant experience when she applies for her first job. BOB DUNBAR, mil-lionaire's son whom Susan had met at business school, comforts her. She secures employment as secretary to ERNEST HEATH, prominent architect. BEN LAMP-MAN, a moody young admirer of Susan's, invites her to a studio party given by some Bohemian friends. Susan does not enjoy the affair and decides not to see Lampman any more. Weeks pass and the girl is lonely. JACK WARING, Heath's assistant and divorced, shows the girl attentions but she refuses his invitations.

CHAPTER X
On the way home in the hard brightness of the street car Ben said, "That's the way to live. Like Susan and Arnold. Free and easy." Susan stared at him. "You like that?"

Ben moved impatiently. "Oh, I knew what you'd say. I know the partments' kind of messy. But they're not tied down. They live their own lives and have a good time."

Susan, remembering Arnold's unpleasant appearance and this greasy loos of Susan's pale hair, the spots on her smock, was silent. She did not want to criticize Ben's friends.
"It's a great love, anyhow," Ben burst out after an interval as the brightly lighted trolley proceeded in series of jerks and stops. "They were terribly in love. Arnold had a wife some place in Russia but they fixed that up. They're what I call a really happy couple."

Susan felt a hysterical impulse to laugh but she restrained herself.
She had thought the whole crowd, the Strinskys and their unwashed friends (with the exception of that exotic blossom, Denise), dreadful people. With provincial simplicity she discounted whatever talent lay in Arnold's long fingers because they did not look clean. She wondered how she could best describe the party to Aunt Jessie.

She let her hand lie limply in Ben's warm one at peeing. "I can't ask you to come in," Susan said gently. "Aunt Jessie's gone to bed. Thank you for taking me to the party."

Ben muttered, "Wanted you to meet the crowd. You'll like them better when you know them. They are real people."

Susan withdrew her hand. "Good night, then," she said, avoiding his not uncomfortable gaze. He called after her, "I'll phone you." Susan

better when you know them. They

Susan withdrew her hand. "Good
night, then," she said, avoiding his
not uncomfortable gaze. He called after her, "I'll phone you." Susan she was good. Sometimes during those wild, disorienting summer nights Susan wondered if it paid.

She wondered if she might not some day, answer the invitation in Jack Waring's eyes. She wondered if that was in his sport roadster might not prove altogether too alluring some evening. Susan hoped not but she wondered.

The telephone rang one morning when she was alone in the office.
"Hello, Miss Carey?"

The girl's heart, for no good reason, began to beat thickly and un-comfortably.

"This is Bob Dunbar. Be an angel and have lunch with me. Alone? Right. How about the Blackstone?"

Susan hung up the receiver with a gasp. The Blackstone, and she wearing her old pink shantong! Well, her hat was new. It was a little rose pink straw hat she had picked up on a basement corridor for $1.50. She would never have guessed the price. In a fever of excitement she waited for Pierson to come back to relieve her.
With trembling fingers she pressed the small hat into place. If only she had known. If only she had guessed he was going to call her.
She might have worn her more sophisticated blue crepe. She might have done a thousand things.

Disatisfied, almost in tears, at last she picked up her hand bag and turned to go. Pierison's win-ing voice followed her.

"Don't forget to be back by two sharp. Mr. Heath has that cathedral estimate he wants to draw up."

Susan caught her underlip in her teeth. Well, that was being a working girl. She would have to bury her no dallying over the coffee cups for her today. But the pulse that had been set drumming in her blood ever since she had heard Bob Dunbar's voice over the telephone would not be stilled.

She walked on air to Michigan avenue. Despite the fact that the society editors declared no one stayed in Chicago for the dog-day there was, as usual, a well-dressed, alert-eyed throng of shoppers on the avenue. The day was a gift from the gods. Cool, almost sharp that breeze was there were white caps ruffling the cobalt surface of the "Inland sea."

Susan drew great breaths and was glad to be alive—glad to be on the sunny side of 20—glad to be meeting this particular young man.
He came toward her, detaching himself from the little group in the lobby, and she felt a lift of the heart at sight of that tall, well-knit figure in its perfectly fitting gray flannels.

He lifted his hat, and that simple action sent her heart rearing and plunging like a wild thing.

"You look awfully fit!" The clipped voice was just as Susan remembered it. Not for nothing had Bob Dunbar spent several years at British schools.

She smiled at him, almost too happy to speak. "You, too," she said softly. She wondered why she was always at ease with this boy.
She had known him such a little while and yet it was always as if they were renewing an old and delightful acquaintance. It was as if he had known each other for ever.

He leaned across the table, his blue eyes darkening as he stared at her frankly, quite as if he'd never seen her before.

"I like you in that pink thing," he said slowly. And a strange thing happened. The room, the other luncheoners, the waiters murmuring in a corner, the music drifting from the strings of a discreet orchestra, all seemed to vanish. The boy and girl were alone.
Yet all she said was, "Thank you." Her voice shook ever so little as she formed the words.

"I'm going abroad again," said the boy, still looking at her strangely and deeply. "Father wants me to. I wanted to say goodbye."

The words rang like a knell in Susan's heart yet, being a woman she summoned a fixed smile to answer him.

"Going abroad?" she repeated, feeling rather stupid yet unable for the moment to find other words.
He frowned and played with his fork. "Yes. Thought I was to stay here and go into the business."

She said "I'm sorry" and the words struck her as being painfully inadequate.

"So am I." His mouth twisted whimsically as he looked at her.
"It hasn't all gone as I thought it would. I want to be friends."

I hope. The waiter arched with a tray of little silver dishes and Susan hated him. There was an interval and then there were a one again in the vest, seated, murmuring rustle once more.

"Well, that's that!" Bob Dunbar told her. His laugh sounded nervous and harsh. "Perhaps you'll still be around when I come back."
"When will that be?"
"Oh, late fall—by Christmas, at the outside."

Former Governor Of New Mexico Is Taken By Death

(By The Associated Press)

HILLSBORO, N. M. — George Curry, 70, former territorial governor of New Mexico, Spanish-American war veteran, and widely known New Mexican, died here Sunday afternoon. Physicians said he had been brought about by natural causes.

Coming to New Mexico in 1879, Mr. Curry worked in various southern New Mexico trading posts and in 1886 won his first political office—that of deputy county treasurer in Lincoln county. The following year he was elected county clerk and recorder, and in 1892 he came sheriff of Lincoln county. He was a member of the territorial state legislature in 1894 and was president of that body in 1925.

During the Spanish-American war he served with the Rough Riders and after the war was appointed first civil governor of the province of Ambos Camarines, P. I. He was chief of police of Manila and organized the first civil police force there under the American government. From 1904 to 1905 he was governor of the province of Isabella and in the following year he was made governor of Samar.

He returned to New Mexico in 1906 to become territorial governor a post he held from 1907 to 1911.
He was a member of the 62nd congress from New Mexico, and served on the United States-Mexico international boundary commission.

After his term in congress, Governor Curry retired more or less from public life, but retained a keen interest in state affairs. Only a few weeks ago he led a delegation of republicans from Hillsboro to the state republican convention at San ta Fe, when he supported the election of Senator Bronson. Cutting at national committee.

Close friends here made arrangements for his funeral and burial at distant relatives, said to live in Texas, indicated they would be unable to attend the funeral.

A lawn fete and a silver tea were planned for the latter part of the

to be used for the orphanage at Itasca.

Girl Scouts To Be Given Instruction

Leaders To Hold Two-Day Session Thursday And Friday At Hotel

Two well known Girl Scouts leaders, Miss Mary L. White, of the national council, and Miss Ann Mulkey, of the state council, will arrive in the city for a school of instruction for the newly organized Girl Scouts of the city, Thursday and Friday, at the Settles Hotel.

There will be four sessions, two Thursday and two Friday, the morning hours, being 9:30 to 11:30 and the afternoon hours, 1:30 to 3:30. The public is invited to listen in on these class periods.

Mrs. Chas. Koberg, chairman of the community committee says that they invite every woman in town to attend. Those who are drawn by their interest will find the sessions worth while and those who are not interested, will be, before they leave she says.

Thursday evening, after the instruction period, there will be a big community picnic at the City Park to which everyone is invited. It is a bring-your-own-lunch picnic for the girl scouts, the leaders and their friends. Scout games will be part of the diversion. At its close the Scouts and their friends will go to the High School auditorium for a showing of scout movies from films which these leaders carry with them. Friends in town who do not care to go to the Park are invited to this.

The two-day session will end with a meeting of all members of the community committees at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

The idea of inviting the public to these meetings is to acquaint it with the Girl Scout work. Since the organization is new here the work is not so familiar to the parents as that of the Boy Scouts.

Nearby committees in Howard county and in neighboring towns have been invited to attend and to avail themselves of the privilege of getting acquainted with the work at first hand while their leaders are in town. So far none have shown any interest.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT
This edition of the Wheel is in charge of the Freshmen. Any "crack" or joke made is not done in retaliation or derision but all in good clean fun. This is somewhat similar to an April Fool issue. Up to you, Freshmen, take it in the right spirit!

We, the Freshman Class of '32, have, we think through past experience passed a successful semester of school work. This being our first year we have learned how to treat the upper classmen and give them their due respect (like fun). At the first of the term we were backward about starting in high school; however it's not as bad as we thought.

In grammar school they preached to us about the teachers in high school being cold, impossible, and unkind. We found all of the teachers just the opposite. We are thankful for having such wonderful teachers and we hold them in quite a esteem.

Among the freshmen this year quite a few came out for the Steers squad, although none lettered, they will be Big Spring's future. The freshmen made up most of Ben Daniels' Devils this year that completed an undefeated season.

The Calves basketball squad won the county championship, and it was composed mostly of freshmen. We are very proud of the achievements of our Freshman Class in athletic ability.

This year our class has covered a lot of territory as far as school work is concerned. We have taken English Algebra P. E. and History while the other subjects were divided between Latin and General Science.

We sincerely believe that our Freshman year will be our best year in Big Spring High School. We also believe that this year's Freshman Class will be the best class ever to graduate from the high school.

How A Kid Feels On Entering High School As A Freshman

Latin Teams Return With High Honors

Five-Year Season Of Victories Record Of Big Spring

Big Spring Latin teams, under direction of Mrs. H. A. Stegner, who for five years has taken winning teams to the district Latin tournaments, carried off a major share of honors at the annual tournament held at Amarillo, April 12th.

The second year cup is now a permanent possession of Big Spring high school since it has been won three successive times. It was first won in 1929 by Hudson Henley and Leonard Van Open, in 1931 by Ruth Mellinger and Dorothy Mae Miller and this year by Marguerite Tucker and Dorothy Dublin. Marguerite Tucker won first place in the individual contest for second year pupils.

The first year cup this year was won for the second successive time. Ruth Cotton and Quixie Bea King are the 1932 winners. Ruth Cotton took second place in individual honors in first year test.

Although the fourth year representatives, Ruth Mellinger and Margaret McDonald did not secure a place this year, just recognition should be made for all the honors they have won for this school in past years.

Who's Who

Since this is the Slime Edition of The Wheel, we are "glorifying" two Slimes in the Who's Who column this week. Lula Ashley is a pretty little freshman who has brown hair and hazel eyes. She is five feet, three inches tall and weighs about one hundred and seven pounds. She is taking English, history, algebra, general science and physical education.

She is a member of the Current History club and is Society Editor of the Freshman edition of The Wheel. Her hobby is going camping and her pastime is going to the movies. Her favorite color is blue, and she likes anything to eat. As for a car she will take anything that will run and will even be glad to take walks.

Her ideal type is a manish brute with any color eyes, any color hair, and a long nose. When asked how she would feel and what she would do if she were a senior she replied, "I would feel relieved because I would not have one more year of this misery, and I would do a good turn for a freshman once in a while."

George Ed O'Neal has dark hair and the most bewitching pair of brown eyes a person could possess. He came from Coleman not long ago and is taking the usual line of freshman subjects. He is a member of the Woodcraft and Tennis Clubs and is Editor-in-Chief of the Freshman edition of The Wheel.

George Ed's hobby is looking at funny papers and his favorite sport is football. He is a very active boy and he will take his share in club and ice cream—a great combination.

The ideal type in his estimation is a blond with blue eyes, who is about five feet tall, and who is very lively and interested in sports.

Bob Flowers Class Prexy

Bob Flowers was elected president by an almost unanimous vote at the meeting of the freshman class Tuesday morning. Mickey Davis was elected secretary-treasurer. George Ed O'Neal was elected editor for the freshman edition of The Wheel. Mickey Davis presided over the meeting as Mr. Flowers was absent. Officers were elected since the present officers graduated and are now full fledged sophomores.

Husky Senior Is 'All Bunged Up' In Fight With Frosh

Oscar Heblsen, the husky Senior was hurt badly by a Freshman Tuesday night of Queen's week. The Freshman and Juniors were fighting the Seniors and Sophs near West Ward. Oscar saw a Freshman and decided he was going to take him out. He tried to take hold of the freshman. Before he could do so, the boy had succeeded in causing Oscar to turn his ankle. Heblsen has been of great service to the Big Spring High School during the years he has been here, but when he attempted to handle the freshman he came out all bunged up. They were too much for Heblsen. He hasn't noticed the freshman much lately. They think he will stop picking and pulling the freshman around, and try something else for amusement.

Ice Plant Is Inspected By School Class Meeting Here

Miss Brown's Chemistry Pupils Take A Field Trip

Last Monday morning the ice plant was inspected by Miss Nel Brown's chemistry class. Mr. Nel Brown was kind enough to explain in detail all the working machinery as the students went through the plant.

Entering the plant at about nine o'clock, the science pupils watched the huge crane remove the ice blocks and replace them. Mr. Nel Brown explained the amonium lines and fresh water lines from the freezing room to the cooling tower outside. By certain required tests he showed the properties of the water which had been treated by the lime process. Another pressure process within the building was demonstrated next.

Later the class was guided up stairs to the storage room, where many tons of ice are stacked in racks. The elevators and sliding racks were observed under Mr. Nel's careful explanation. From there the class was glad to leave the building, since everyone had cold feet from standing on ice in the storage room.

SHOTS FROM THE SHOWERS

By FRED KOBERG
Well, last week-end was certainly a red letter one for sports in the history of Big Spring High. All though they won only a fourth place they showed that they were a powerful track squad by holding their own with the teams of two outstanding colleges. They had no other high school competitor, they were Abilene High. They came out ahead of the Bovines in points but they are not the superior team.

It seems that the only first place they got was the place in the javelin event. "Babe" Harris managed for that honor. Dennis of the Steers got the best record but, as he was in an extra hurry to get the weight away, he stepped over the little white line and his far flung record failed to reach the officials record book. The other Steer star, Forester, was the great favorite of the Steers. He was the only one to make a good record. The other team, the Steers, had to battle all afternoon; the other was the nice little wind which the whole of West Texas had to endure.

Some good sporting good company will get an order for track equipment this week. It seems that the faithful old car of Obie's was prodding its way home, last Saturday, it decided to get a little action as it is never used, never gets to go anywhere, and the result was smoke and fire. And now our poor little track men might have to run in their underwear. But, at that, we look for a district title.

As the little meet was staked at Abilene, Snyder was taking honor for another little meet in Lubbock. That shows that the Eagles are going to have their hands full with McClinton. Howell and Company. And the Steers will have a nice little party giving the other team of the meet a nice little exhibition in the field department.

But there were also other things doing in the way of sports besides track. Coach Matthews took his tennis team to Abilene for the district and they made a good showing although they failed to bring away any great rewards. Doris Smith went two rounds in the girls singles before she was finally beat.

The boys fared a little better in the respective games and advanced to the finals and semi-finals. Joe Davis went to the finals in singles and, hindered by his leg injury, was beaten by Abilene's star, Willard Foster. Had it not been for that he could have won the title. Driver, Stripling, and Jordan made the first round, and were eliminated in the last stages of the tournament.

New Exhibits Seen In Local Museum

Several new specimens have recently been loaned to the West Texas Memorial Museum. They include the tusk, shoulder blade, tooth and jaw bones of a mastodon found about 15 miles from Big Spring. Miss Brown has been appointed by the museum to select a new vice-president. Mary Settles was elected to fill this position. All the members of the club were requested to bring a small number of themselves to be placed in the Historian Book. A few minutes were left in which Mickey Davis entertained by playing and singing several numbers.

Home 'Ec' Girls Frosh Enter Of Area Plan Bill Of Rights

High School Classes Of Counties Here Saturday

The Home Economic Club is having its district rally here Saturday April 16, in which all home economic girls of this section of the state will take part. The Home Demonstration Agents of the neighboring counties and the club girls are expected to be present. This includes Howard, Dawson, Lamesa, and Scurry counties. The visitors plan to arrive here at nine o'clock. Registration will take place from nine till ten o'clock. There will be entertainment till eleven-thirty. At this time cars will be provided to take the girls on a tour of the city and they will view the J & W Flasher window where they will see the second year clothing dresses which the girls have made. After the tour, including Scenic Drive, they will be taken to the city park where they will have lunch.

Returning to the school building at one thirty, they will enjoy a program planned for the afternoon in which each school represented will have a part. There will also be a room where the things the girls have made during the year will be displayed. After the program, a tea will be given by Miss McElroy and her girls. The schools expected to send representatives are Odessa, Midland, Lamesa, Stanton, Colorado, Sweetwater, Snyder and Seminole.

A Shine Speaks

All of the Freshman class have everything to be thankful for. For instance, we are not sloppy Sophs. The Sophs think they have it on the Freshmen. They don't know for we are just as good, and a bit better. The Sophs are nothing but hot air; they blow up and burst. "Soap suds" is a good name for them. The description fits them. They are all conceited, but over what? Surely because they are no Freshmen any more. It is an honor to be a Freshman. Some of these Seniors and Juniors are very conceited. The Sophs have not as much to brag about as the Freshmen. The Sophs are just a bunch of pushovers, yelled and assisted in putting over all sports.

The Freshmen speak only when they are spoken to. Some of the Sophs talk back to teachers but you never hear a polite Soph arguing with a teacher. It looks as if the Sophs are going to take the lead in the Sophs. The Sophs are just a bunch of pushovers, yelled and assisted in putting over all sports.

A social committee was also appointed: Alice Taylor, Mildred Herring, and Gertrude Tucker to serve on this committee.

Club Planning Hi-Y Follies

Progress on the arrangement of the Hi-Y follies was made Monday afternoon by the members of the club at their weekly meeting. No definite date has been set, but it is expected that it will be about two weeks.

The Hi-Y follies, which is becoming an annual affair, is put on and sponsored by boys of the Big Spring High School Hi-Y club. These follies have everything, from music and dancing to plays and jokes. When one robust lad comes tripping out on the stage in a light dancing uniform, the crowd will probably go wild. Some of the world's most well-known celebrities will be seen at this performance. Complete details of this entertainment will be given next week.

Two Girl Scout Troops On Hikes

Troops 2 and 3 of the Junior High Scouts went on a hike Saturday morning. Miss Shick, sponsor of Troop 2 took the Scouts of her troop on a sunrise hike, on Scenic Mountain. They completed their tenderfoot test on this hike. Miss Johnson, sponsor of Troop 3, took her Scouts on a sunrise breakfast at the City Park. Thursday and Friday at a period in the morning and afternoon Miss Mulkey and Miss White will hold a scout school at the Settles Hotel. Only the leaders, parents and other adults interested in scouting work will be allowed to attend. Thursday night a band will be held at the City Park for all the scouts as well as the leaders, parents and other adults. Friday night a picture show and play will be at the City Park which will include all the scouts too.

Typing Team Wins Laurels

Team Tonors Captured; Josephine Dabney Is Speediest

The High School typing team entered the District Interscholastic Typing Tournament at Colorado last Saturday, and came home with highest team honors. The team average was 49.42 net words per minute. The closest score to this on was Colorado with 43.29 net word per minute.

Teams from Baird, Eldorado, and Martson were also in the contest. Big Spring team members were: Josephine Dabney with 54.2 net words per minute, Grady Harmon with 47.2 net words, and Paul Warren with 46.9. Paul having only four errors on his paper. Josephine took first place as individual. Grady took third, and Paul took fourth. Josephine and Grady are entitled to enter the State Interscholastic Typing Tournament at Austin May 5 and 6.

The contestants write for fifteen minutes on unfamiliar material. At the close of the contest all errors are checked. The number of error is multiplied by ten, and subtracted from the total words then divided by the number of minutes which gives the net words per minute. "It is remarkable," said Mrs. Lox, the typing instructor, "to watch the advancement in typing, especially for the last three years, in this territory. Three years ago, our typing team entered the District Tournament at Lubbock, and won first place with a team average of only 33 net words per minute."

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

The major league races got underway yesterday afternoon which in no doubt news that is welcome to everyone. Babe Ruth smacked a pair of home runs over the right field wall, which is very good indeed for an old man that is on his last leg and that never does very well in the earlier part of the season anyway. In the National League the Cincinnati Reds are tied with the St. Louis Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phillies, and the Boston Braves for first place with a game in the victory column and none in the loss sheet. The Cardinals are the only one not surprised at their present position.

Coach Dewey Haywood of the Abilene Eagles will enter 17 men in the district meet this Saturday, competing in every event but the big hurdles which is just as well since between Jack Dennis and Bedford McClinton they wouldn't win many prizes there anyhow. The Abilene relay quartet sped for about six months with P. E. Zimmerman, architect in construction projects there.

N. L. Peters, of Peters-Strange and Bradshaw, architect, will be in charge for the firm of construction of the Big Spring municipal building. W. H. Fowler is looking after the deal making. Mr. Strange will continue as a member of the Peters, Strange and Bradshaw firm. Mrs. Strange and their small daughter will remain here for the present.

H. C. Timmons arrived home today after two weeks in Colgate, Okla., at the bedside of his ill mother, Mrs. Nan E. Timmons, who passed away last week. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

loss to Shirley Robbins, blaming a high wind—and a few other things. Robbins is very likely to defeat Mr. Scott's next time they pair up, if anyone wishes our opinion, and the wind blowing over the local course probably hurt Robbins just as much as did anyone else. Robbins scored a 74 in the male, and although Mr. Scott is a very good golfer he will not beat 74 more than half the time at the most. Neither will we although that has nothing at all to do with the situation.

Out of Prexy Anderson's all-state backfield last season only one will remain to deal misery to opposing eleven in 1932. Robert Wilson of Corsicana was thought to be eligible for another season, but a checkup of records brought out the information that he had already performed for four years and was not due another year. Glenn Wynat of Abilene, thought not picked as Prexy's team, was selected on the Associated Press compiling and will probably be very much in evidence next year, particularly against Sweetwater.

In the opinion of Bloody Cross, while there was no subject of football the rule that was peacefully discussed as the one that would mean the indignity of Sheridan, Woods, Rogers, and Bledsoe of the Sweetwater Mustangs next year will not stand up to opposition on the part of the Sweetwater officials.

"It goes against reason," Cross informed us, "that a rule passed in 1931 that will punish a man for what he did in 1930 will stand up when brought before the state interscholastic league committee."

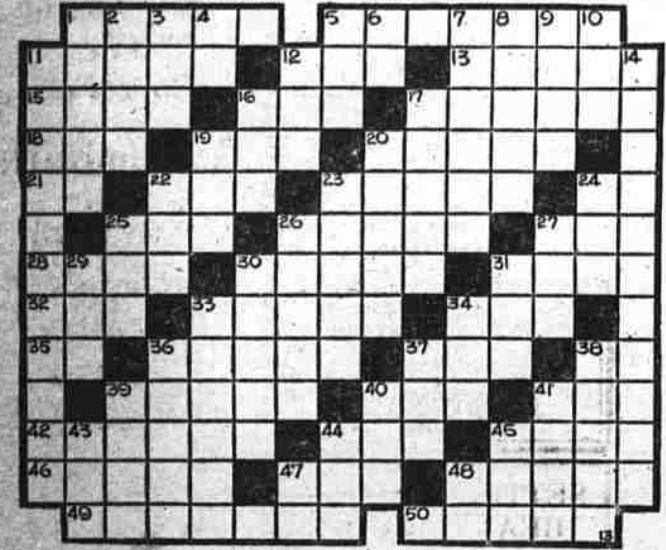

Which is a sensible suggestion of fact.

Incidentally Bob Scott of Colorado is somewhat chagrined over his loss.

Babe Ruth Blows Lid Off Season With Two Homers

THE BABE LEANS ON ONE

Babe Ruth, who got his pay cut all the way from $30,000 to $75,000 this year, showed that he really didn't mind when he walked up to the plate and slammed out a home run on his very first "at bat" of the 1932 season. On his third time up he repeated the trick. Both were made off Earnshaw of the Athletics. Ruth is seen above delivering a home run in a recent exhibition game against Brooklyn.

Sand Belt Net Meet To Draw Strong Field

Lower Admission Fees Announced For This Year's Tourney

A raft of new entries and a general reduction of admission fees in the latest news on the Sand Belt tennis tourney, to be held on the local courts April 23-30 under the auspices of the Big Spring Tennis Club.

Entries from Brady, Miles, San Angelo, Midland sent the probable entry list soaring past the twenty mark. Only thirty-two contestants will be permitted in men's singles and doubles, and boys' singles and doubles. The junior events will be run off during the week while the senior play will be held on the two successive Sundays, with one or two matches between local players due to be run off Saturday, April 22.

The complete list of winners in the Knights of Zeech tournament at San Angelo last week-end may be on hand to vie for the titles in the eighth annual Sand Belt affair. Kent Bishop and George Dabney, winners of both singles and doubles in the high school division, will defend the laurels they won last season, while Tom Williams of San Angelo, college division singles titlist, and Ramour, Miles, who won the doubles laurels over H. B. Dunagan and Bill Mc-Carthy of Big Spring, have indicated that they might be present. Howard Houser of San Angelo, finalist in the high school singles division, has already posted his entry with the tournament officials.

The men's division is expected to be a wide-open affair with Dungan, McCarthy, and Davis of Big Spring, Steakley and Whitton of Sweetwater, Thomas and Soper of Colorado, Morse and Ferguson of Midland and White and Allen of Lamesa given an even chance to cop titular honors.

The junior singles division will be under the direction of George Dabney, and is open to any player who has not reached his 19th birthday by Jan. 1, 1932. Entrance fees are 50c for singles and 25c for each doubles player. Bishop, winner of the event last year, is not eligible for further competition, and a open battle is expected to be waged between Joe Davis, Dabney, Russell Soper of Colorado, Bill Bradley of Brady and Howard Houser for the title.

The boys' singles division will be held this year for the first time.
Eligibility rules demand that the player be under sixteen years of age by Jan. 1. Entrance fees are 25c for singles and 25c for each doubles player. Harry Jordan, Preeton Slight, Paul Coburn and George O'Neal are expected to furnish the competition.

Entries to men's events must be in by 8 o'clock Saturday evening, April 22, when the draw will be held. All contestants are invited to be present, but will have no part in the drawing itself. Eight singles players and four doubles teams will be seeded.

Entry can be made through the sports department of The Big Spring Herald, Bill McCarthy, president of the tennis club, or H. B.
Dunagan, tournament referee.

Up to 1931 the University of Oklahoma had won 18 of 26 games with Oklahoma A. & M. in their traditional football series.

117,000 Attend Open- ing Games; Weather Unfavorable

NEW YORK—Baseball's "Great Man" Babe Ruth, literally blew the lid off the baseball season Tuesday as a dozen major league clubs staged their grand openings before an estimated attendance of slightly over 100,000.

The first time Ruth came to bat against George Earnshaw, leading right hander of the Philadelphia Athletics, he drove the ball far over the fence for a home run. On his third appearance he did it again.

Profiting by the Babe's example and a three run start on his first home run, the Yankees slammed out a 12-6 victory over the American league champions in a game which produced seven homers.

Despite the prodigious hitting of the Yankees' several other clubs and games outshone the Yankees and Athletics in many respects. Only about 18,000 fans turned out at Philadelphia while at Brooklyn some 30,000 hopeful rooters were on hand to see the Dodgers' new manager, Max Carey, unveil his vastly altered team.

Typical early April weather was present for all the openings and two games had to be postponed.
The Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators, who started a day ahead of the field at Washington, were rained out when they moved to Boston. Cold weather halted the Detroit-Cleveland game at Detroit.

Cardinals found only 5,837 paying fans for the Cardinals, proved more than just a substitute by knocking the ball over the right field pavilion in the seventh of the only home run of the game.

Pepper Martin, hero of last season's world series, reminded the fans that he is up to old tricks, by stealing a base.

A crowd of 18,000 fans alternately shivered, cheered and jeered as their champions took a succession heavy wallops to the chin.

Gomez Pitches.
Despite erratic support, Vernon (Lefty) Gomez, left handed pitching ace of the Yankees, kept Athletics well in hand until the ninth when four straight hits, including a home run by Al Simmons, knocked him out of the box. With the bases full of Mackmen, two out and Dab Williams at bat, Gomez yielded to right-handed Red Ruffing, who retired the A's shortstop on a line smash to Byrd after working the count to two and three.

Best Start of Life Ruth has contributed many a rousing blow to baseball's opening ceremonies but this was the first time in his big league career that he started the defense of his slugger crown with a pair of homers.

The best that the co-champion, Lou Gehrig, could do was to pound one home run in the left field stands and rattle a triple off the outfield wall, but Sammy Byrd demonstrated his right to a regular job in centerfield by blasting out two homers and a single.

The triple threat of Byrd, Ruth and Gehrig was entirely too much for Earnshaw, who yielded eight hits and ten runs before retiring at the end of the fourth in favor of young Jimmy Dohong, Jersey City

Cards Live Up To Form For 10-2 Victory

Reds Beat Cubs; Phillies Smother Giants In Openers

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Championship strides were taken Tuesday by the St. Louis Cardinals as they decisively outplayed the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-2 at Sportsman's park here in the opening game of the season.

The 1931 National league pennant won by the Cardinals was raised with ceremonies just before the game which attracted 5,337 paying customers. Cold weather cut attendance considerably.

Flint Klem, who had pitched the Cardinals to victory in the opening games of pennant winning years in 1926, 1928, 1930 and 1931, justified his selection as opening pitcher for St. Louis, scoring his fifth triumph as hurler for the season's first game. He allowed seven hits, but only in the seventh inning were the Pirates able to turn hits into runs and the two in that frame came after St. Louis already had sent eight men across the home plate.

James Ripper Collins, who replaced the slugging Chick Hafey in left field for the Cards, proved more than just a substitute by
knocking the ball over the right
field pavilion in the seventh of the
only home run of the game.

Pepper Martin, hero of last sea-

Appreciation For Services Expressed

Resolutions expressing the gratitude of his former associates on the board of city commissioners for his sincere and efficient service were adopted unanimously Tuesday night by the commissioners.

Mr. Edwards, a resident of the city for four years, and a widely known figure in oil circles, has been an unusually valuable worker in numerous civic enterprises.

He accepted appointment to the board of city commissioners several months ago when L. L. Bugg resigned. He agreed to allow his name to be entered as a candidate for a full term and polled 567 votes in the recent election, only 25 less than the third ranking candidate, who was elected.

Steve D. Ford was able to be downtown Monday. He recently underwent an operation for removal of appendix.

Delegates Home From Legislative Session In Austin

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Deason and daughter have returned from Austin where Mr. Deason represented the local lodge of the B. of L. F. and E. at the biennial joint legislative convention of the four transportation brotherhoods.

Temple won the 1934 convention over Big Spring and Waco after a strong fight had been waged by representatives of the local brotherhoods. Geographical position with reference to other railroad centers of the state was the final reason for a decision in favor of Temple. The vote of the four brotherhoods on the next convention site showed two for Temple and one each for Big Spring and Waco.

Mr. Deason will attend the Tri-State meeting of the B. of L. F. and E. in Clovis, N. M., June 8, 9 and 10 and will seek to bring the 1933 convention here.

Mr. Deason expressed on behalf of Big Spring delegations appreciation for the number of telegrams and air mail letters sent by Big Spring people to aid them in their effort to obtain the 1934 legislative meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Van Gieson and Mrs. J. B. Young have really come home. They arrived here Monday night.

Mrs. Kuykendall made high score for water set. Miss Evans made club high and received a lovely luncheon set.

Those present were Meses. C. E. Hahn, Kuykendall, Lester Short, W. E. Yarbro, Homer Wright, Harold Parks, and Miss Ethel Evans.

1st Christian Homemakers Have Nice Party

The members of the Homemakers' Class of the First Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. T. E. Baker Tuesday afternoon for a very pleasant social afternoon.

Mrs. James Stiff and Mrs. Steve Baker assisted as hostesses.

S. M. McKinnon Is Candidate

S. M. McKinnon has authorized The Herald to announce that he is a candidate for election to the office of Constable of Precinct 1, Howard county, subject to the Democratic primary of July 23, 1932.

Mr. McKinnon has resided here here years. He has seen service on the Big Spring force and as a deputy sheriff in Gaines county. He takes this method of informing his friends of his candidacy and will appreciate their influence and votes.

Trustees Asked To Organize And Make Suggestions

Members of boards of trustees of all rural school districts of the county will this week receive letters from Pauline Cantrell Brightman, county superintendent, asking them to meet and organize by selecting a president and secretary. These will be the first meetings after the recent trustee election.

The district boards also are being asked to specify to the county board of education through the county superintendent the number of grades they wish to have taught in their respective districts next session and to make recommendations to the county superintendent of the district school tax rates to be levied for the coming year. The tax rate recommendations will in turn be submitted to the county commissioners' court.

This information is desired by the county superintendent not later than May 5.

District boards are being asked not to set higher classifications for their schools than state laws allow in each case.
