Wind Erosion Work Mapped For Howard

County Included In Area For Program Sponsored By AAA

Howard county is among the 47 Texas counties to be affected by the wind erosion control program announced officials of the southern region of the AAA, according to a statement by Jack Shelton, vice-director and state agent of the Texas extension service, Monday evening.

The control measures, Shelton said, designed to reduce erosion damage for the remainder of this year and for most of 1938 and will consist mostly of combinations of listing and cover crops.

Maximum payment for compliance with the program regulations will be 75 cents an acre, Shelton declared. He said several types of crops, which may be undertaken in combination with the listing and furrowing practices, are designated practices for which payments will be made.

Payment of 85 per cent of the amount earned will be made as soon as possible after completion of the control measures provided practices are completed before June 1, Shelton said. The other AAA payments are to be made at the end of the season.

Senate Votes To Override Tax Veto Gift

Bill Calls For Remission Of Levies To Harris County

OBJECTIONS OF ALLRED CAST ASIDE Enactment Into Law Would Require Similar Move In The House

AUSTIN, April 6 (AP)—The senate voted today to override the veto by Governor James V. Allred of a bill remitting certain ad valorem taxes to Harris county for flood control purposes.

The vote of 18 to 7 gave more than the two-thirds majority necessary to pass a measure over the governor's objection. However, before the bill could become law despite the veto similar action would have to be taken by the house of representatives.

The governor vetoed the bill on grounds the state could not afford to love the revenue and said at the same time he would not approve any other measures making remissions to individual counties.

A number of other individual remissions have been passed by the legislature or are pending and a bill to remit ad valorem taxes to all counties has received approval of the house.

The Harris county bill would remit one-half of the ad valorem taxes collected for state purposes, estimated at about $330,000 a year. Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, who made the motion to override, said the port of Houston and the flood control project was a matter of statewide concern, not merely local.

Clemency Measures
Before voting on Harris county proposal, the senate laid on the table subject to call a motion to override Governor Allred's veto of an enabling act for a constitutional amendment creating a new clemency system for Texas.

Senator Ben O'Neal of Wichita Falls argued against the motion, asserting the act had violated several provisions of the constitution and the governor did his duty in returning it to the legislature. He said another bill was being drawn which would eliminate the objectionable features. Later, the group sustained Allred's veto of the measure.

Previously, a charge was made by Sen. Joe E. Hill of Henderson that friends of a horse racing were "kissing it to death" and "voting in circles." He was urging afternoon and night work to speed action on legislation of every kind.

The senate yesterday declined to suspend its regular order of business to permit an early setting of the repeal measure.

The house began extended floor discussion of a proposed deficiency appropriation for rural school aid. A sub-committee of the appropriations committee, after a long investigation, recommended an allotment of only $500,000. Amendments to make the amount $1,080,000 and $1,701,000 were pending.

WILL TAKE ACTION ON STRIKE POLICY

Senate Majority Leaders Agree To Resolution Against Sit-Down Tactics

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Robinson (D-Ark) said today he had agreed with other administration chiefs on a "declaration of policy" on sit-down strikes. It will be brought before the senate for speedy action Wednesday, he said.

Robinson said a group of democratic senators had decided at a prolonged conference this morning on a modified version of a resolution offered yesterday by Senator Pittman (D-Mo.).

In its original form, this resolution condemned sit-downs as "illegal and contrary to sound public policy," and also denounced "the so-called industrial spy system" used by some employers to combat labor unions.

Robinson said he would offer an amendment to the resolution, approved by the conference, but did not reveal its nature.

Robinson led the opposition to the proposal of Senator Byrnes (D-Mo.) calling sit-down strikes illegal and against public policy. Administration forces voted it down 48 to 2 and then speedily approved the coal bill 85 to 15 late yesterday.

Robinson and others made it plain they were not condoning the strikes but believed the denunciation had no place in the coal measure.

The debate divested interest from the coal bill itself, which goes back to the house for action on several senate amendments. Rep. Vinson (D-Ky), co-author of the measure, predicted the house would not agree to the change and that a joint committee would have to seek a compromise.

Designed to stabilize the coal industry the measure would create a national bituminous coal commission empowered to fix minimum prices for coal and would set up an elaborate system of marketing and fair trade practice provisions.

Ex-Inmate Of Asylum Sought

Revenge Motive Seen In Slayings Of N. York Artists' Model

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—Through the shabby, dimly lighted rooms of the East Fifties, detectives roamed today in search of a one-time asylum inmate accused of murder in triplicate.

Somewhere on Manhattan Island's 22 square miles, police believed, skirted Robert Irwin, 29, sculptor and theological student, and one-time inmate of an insane asylum, who was named as the killer of Veronica Gedeon, art's good time girl, and two others.

The motive, as police deduced it: Revenge for a frustrated love. The evidence: A hastily vacated room near the Gedeon apartment; a glove, a hat, a dairy.

Although police expressed belief Irwin was still in New York, Massachusetts police watched highways in the eastern part of that state after receiving a report a man resembling him had fled from a Wollaston beach inn in a New York car. New York authorities issued an eight-state alarm for Irwin yesterday.

Irwin was in love with Ethel, "Ronnie" Gedeon's sister, now married. Entries in his diary, discovered in Canton, showed that. At his own request he had been psychoanalyzed and had spent three years at the Rockland state hospital for the insane undergoing treatment.

Close Races In Michigan Court Voting

Official Count May Be Necessary To Determine Outcome

DETROIT, April 6 (AP)—The possibility the official count might be needed to determine some of the voters in yesterday's biennial spring election developed today as lagging returns showed the closest races in recent Michigan history.

A republican and a democrat were running neck and neck for top place in the contest to elect two supreme court justices, and two democratic aspirants for university regents were increasing their lead over republican incumbents.

In the race for state highway commissioner, Democrat Murray D. Van Wagener, incumbent, pled up a lead that was approaching the 30,000 mark.

Democrat Leading
With less than 600 outstate precincts yet to hear from, Thomas F. McAllister, democrat, led the four candidates for the state supreme court bench. The figures were:

3009 out of 3480 precincts: McAllister (D) 337,096; Walter H. North (R), 335,203; Louis F. Fead (R), 332,245; Walter I. McKennie (D), 329,709.

3000 precincts for state highway commissioner: Van Wagener, 379,134; Charles M. Ziegler (R), 300,368.

Republican incumbents were leading for superintendent of public instruction and member of the state board of agriculture, while four candidates for member of the state board of agriculture were running unusually close.

Of eight industrial centers, five went republican, three democratic. Genesee, scene of the first serious sit-down strike at Flint, and supporter of the new deal in recent elections, swung into the republican column. Ingham, Kent, Oakland and Saginaw counties followed suit. Wayne county (Detroit) turned in a three to two democratic majority.

NEGRO ATTACKER IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

LOS ANGELES, April 6 (AP)—Police records of negro ex-convicts were checked by police today in the search for a brickbat fiend who killed a mother and daughter. HOUSTON, April 6 (AP)—Gov. James V. Allred, outspoken critic of sit-down strike tactics, was invited by the Committee for Industrial Organization today to investigate the oil workmen's union and "help purge it of any sit-down advocates or communists."

Harvey C. Fremming, oil union president and leader of the C.I.O. drive to unionize the oil industry, extended the invitation after an exchange of telegraphic messages with the governor.

In view of the fact Governor Allred has asked for the names and addresses of oil union organizers, we presume he plans an investigation," Fremming said. "The information he sought was given to him and we would welcome an investigation that would purge our organization of any member subversive to American institutions. We are as anxious as Governor Allred to find such members if there are any.

"We will guarantee to dismiss immediately any such persons an investigation by the governor uncovers. We're proud of our personnel.

"We believe Governor Allred has been misinformed and we welcome any investigation he wants to make."

The oil union's executive committee passed a resolution extending the same offer to the American Federation of Labor, Holt Road,

Improved, Larger Army Maintained By U.S. On 20th Anniversary Of Entry Into War

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP)—A new kind of army, keyed to the latest quick-moving, hard hitting methods of war, paraded today in memory of America's entry into the world conflict 20 years ago.

Military men said that in striking power and potential numbers this new fighting organization far surpasses the forces available when congress declared war on Germany April 6, 1917.

The confident tramp of troops and the rumble of motorized forts in an "army day" parade here contrasted, however, with the memories of a small group which will drink a toast tonight to a battle for peace which they lost.

There will be no speeches at the private dinner of a handful of aging men and a white haired woman, the senators and representatives who voted against the war. Of the 56 dissenters, 20 have died.

Their voices did not carry far in the tumultuous debate of two decades ago. Jeannette Rankin of Montana, the first congresswoman, said her "no" was drowned in the shout of opposition. In the gray hours during that early morning vote, rain pattered on the glass roof of the house chamber.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), one of the dissenters, said today the rain sounded "as if the generations gone were shedding tears over the tragedy we were enacting."

As the result of lessons learned in 1917 and the forward march of military science, officers said, the army now is a close-knit, highly mechanized force depending more on speed than on manpower.

A plan of industrial mobilization drawn up by the army and navy is ready to insure an even flow of munitions and supplies.

Compared with the 55 obsolete "crates" of 1917, the army's wings are 1,100 fighting planes of the latest type. This number is being expanded gradually toward a goal twice as large.

Tank regiments, motorized machine gun companies and speedy supply trains are being formed. A chemical warfare service, unknown here in 1917, is knitted into the army.

EDITORS NOTE: Another installment in a series on the prospects of American Association teams for the coming season.

NEW BRUNSWICK, April 6 (UP)—Unlike most minor league owners, M. J. (Mike) Kelley of the Minneapolis club of the American Association, is satisfied to gamble on gate receipts and not the sale of players to the majors to bring him a profit.

Yearly the Millers put upon the field the most experienced club in the association. The combine which is in training here now under the able management of Owen J. (Donie) Bush is not an exception to the rule.

The Minneapolis squad of 27 men is a mature one. The average age of the players is 24 years and most of the performers are either veteran association players or former major league stars on their way down.

For infield duty Bush has available Andy Cohen, Roy Pfeiffer, John (Blondy) Ryan and Fresno Thompson of last season's club. The additions are a promising youngster, Mark Flaris, out from Knoxville; Ralph (Red) Kross, the one-time "Cinderella Man" of the Washington Senators; Augie Lee, last season with Memphis and Harry Thompson, formerly at Chattanooga.

Cohen or Pfeiffer will get the call at second; either Ryan or Kross at short; and Thompson at third. The first base post is wide open and Bush probably will not make his final choice until after the squad heads north for the season.

Spencer Harris, starting his 17th season in professional baseball and his ninth with the Millers, likely will get one of the outfield posts. Carl Reynolds, from Washington and Allan (Dusty) Cooke, from the Red Sox, are the choices for the other two garden spots.

Other outfielders on the roster include Bob Holland, a holdover and Lindsey Deal, a rookie who hit .305 with Little Rock last season. Reg Grabowski, Walter Tauscher, Belve Dean and Jim Baker holdovers who won 39 games for the Millers last season, will form the nucleus of the pitching staff.

Three Likely Newcomers These newcomers counted upon to augment the corps are: Kip Saurburt, a southpaw who won 23 and lost 6 for Tyler last season; Phil Weinert, another southpaw acquired from St. Paul, and Wilson Hayes, 22-year-old righthander from Greenville, whose 1936 mark was 16 won and 12 lost.

The bulk of the catching will be handled by George (Biscata) Dickey, a bruiser. Bill of the New York Yankees, and William (Pinkie) Hargreaves. Dickey had a poor season in 1936 when he was shifted among Boston, Little Rock, Milwaukee and Minneapolis, but is counted upon to be one of the league's best receivers this season. Hargreaves, at 39, can't be relied upon too heavily.

If Bush again can accomplish the tough task of keeping a thoroughly seasoned group of campaigners keyed in the pennant chase. However, early indications do not point to the club bettering its fifth place standing of a season ago.

Pedro Montanez Is Unofficial Champ

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—Pedro Montanez, of Puerto Rico, was the unofficial lightweight champion of the world today. He earned this title, such as it is, by beating Champion Lou Ambers of Herkimer, N. Y., in a 10-round non-title fight at Madison Square Garden last night.

While from the start it was assumed Ambers would save his crown, it looked for a while as if he wouldn't have a head to put it on. Though he won the last four rounds and had Montanez hanging on at the final bell, the Herkimer hurricane was just a breeze for Montanez in the first six rounds. Montanez dropped the champion.

Jim Braddock Takes Life Of The Woodsman

His appendicitis robbed Kelley of a grand opportunity to win 20 games in his first full season as a major leaguer. That was well within sight. But Harry is used to bed breaks. A half-payer with less courage would have given up hope of ever making the majors as the years rolled by.

Kelley has more than one man's share of courage. He proved that in many a torrid baseball campaign. Recently, when flood water caused such havoc, he was one of the heroes of the flooded St. Francis river section. His two speed boats chugged out on the high waters rescuing the stranded. He continued on his errands of mercy as long as the crisis existed. Loss of sleep and badly blistered hands were nothing as long as there was need to carry on rescue work.

Starts Slow Process Of Conditioning In North Wisconsin Woods

STONE LAKE, Wis., April 6 (AP) James J. Braddock, world's heavyweight champion, took up the life of a backwoodsman today. The titleholder started the slow process of conditioning in the rugged outdoors of a $50,000 private estate on Little Sisabagami Lake, in the wilds of the Northern Wisconsin woods.

Braddock's camp is six miles from the closest highway and 24 miles from the nearest movie, so all he can do is to devote his time to conditioning himself for his championship ring engagement with Joe Louis, in Chicago June 22. Braddock plans to plunge immediately into his five weeks of roughing it, chopping down trees, hiking over the wooded trails and otherwise living an outdoor life. At the end of five weeks he will establish a training camp close to Chicago to sharpen his boxing.

RED WINGS AND RANGERS IN "CUP" SERIES

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings, defending their world professional championship, and the New York Rangers, third place club which staged a brilliant comeback, meet tonight in the opening game of the series for the historic Stanley Cup.

A capacity crowd of 16,000 is assured when this pair meets in their only New York playoff game. Because the circus has a prior claim on Madison Square Garden, the remaining games of the three out of five series must be played at Detroit.

Forty three-round fights were scheduled for tonight's card, as drawings were completed following medical examination of the boxers. Semi-finals and finals will be held tomorrow.

Definitely in the "favorite" class were the six entrants from Honolulu. Only one, Gilbert MuraKami, who competed in the 1935 senior nationals here, has ever fought in a United States ring.

From Texas, welterweight Arthur "Earling" Dorrell, Houston, and light heavyweight Johnny Buck, of Texas Tech, Lubbock, are considered serious obstacles in any fighters' drive to the top in those divisions.

Reading AND Writing

Ralph Bates has more than one string to his bow, it appears. He is publishing today another novel, less bulky than "The Olive Tree," more imaginative, more well-represented. It has a sort of youthful bounce to it.

In some respects, "Rainbow Fish" is more attractive than "The Olive Tree." It does not carry a freight of social significance, for one thing. Mr. Bates is not yet assuming the burden of war-torn Spain, and of course not yet forced to justify his interest in a land and a manner of life not his own.

"I like Luckies because... well, just because I like them, that's all! They're an old standby of mine. They taste grand and they're as smooth as can be on my throat. I suppose Luckies get along so well with my throat because they're what you call a light smoke. I like them—and I'm glad to put it in black and white."

Quicker Than The Ear

Camera Unmasks Radio Sound Effects

TO make a noise like a man spluttering on the sidewalk in a suicidal leap, a broadcaster once dropped a ripe watermelon from a 12-foot stepladder. Radio remembers this stunt as the all-time high in realistic sound effects. It brought so many protests from shocked listeners it never was repeated. Other sound effects just as ingenious, if less gruesome, pour daily into the microphone. Here's a behind-the-scenes peek at some used on one of the networks.

CONKED ON THE BEAN

A wood mallet on a billiard ball wrapped in rags is a dead ringer (no pun intended) for a black-jack on the human cranium.

RAIN ON THE ROOF

Salt sprinkled on a sheet of paper held close to the microphone sounds for all the world like the patter of an April shower.

You think you hear the villain get his man with a dagger, but it's only the sound man thrusting a knife into a sweet potato.

MARCHING MEN

Peach Basket, Mushroom, Flower Styles Favored For Summer Hats

NEW YORK, April 6.—American women's hats this summer will look like peach baskets, mushrooms, or the high little flowered hats Queen Victoria wore.

Those were the favorite shapes yesterday at a preview of summer fashions by the Millinery Creators' Guild of America—a show that introduced hat crowns made of daisies or apple blossoms and brims that came off for the evening.

There also were bonnets, sailors, berets, huge garden hats and hot weather models which were merely a wreath of flowers.

Shapes were so various a woman could choose any style. In general they were simpler and more wearable on the average head than 1937 Easter hats.

New colors were "country club green," "country club brown" and "burnt wheat," an off-white shade. A bridesmaid's hat had a brim of brown and burnt wheat, and an open top filled with apple blossoms. Among the many green hats were a bright kelly green sailor and a perky green luncheon bonnet with a scarf.

Sheer effects were numerous. Stylists praised big hats made of lace or transparent straw, and crisp fabric bows for trimming.

Security Act Aids 956,000 In This State

Eight Of Ten Provisions Of Statute In Force In Texas

SAN ANTONIO, April 6.—More than 956,000 people in Texas are benefiting directly under the social security act, with eight of the act's ten provisions now in operation in this state, according to a statement issued today by Oscar M. Powell, regional director of the social security board.

Powell explained that only one part of the act—the old-age benefits program which went into operation January 1—could become effective without state action. In the other nine programs the states must take the initiative. Texas, it was pointed out, has set up approved plans for seven of these services: coverage; unemployment compensation; aid to the needy aged; maternal and child-health services; services for crippled children; child-welfare services; vocational rehabilitation; and public health services.

Under the state's unemployment compensation law, enacted on October 27, 1936, eligible workers who become involuntarily unemployed will be entitled to regular payments of 50 per cent of their full-time weekly wages, with a maximum of $5 per week and a minimum of $5 or three-fourths of weekly wages, whichever is less.

SYPHILIS, SINISTER IN ATTACK, THE CAUSE OF 20 PER CENT OF ALL BLINDNESS IN THIS NATION

(This is another of a series of articles designed to acquaint the public with, and enlist its support in a campaign against, the evils of venereal diseases. The articles are prepared by members of the Big Spring medical fraternity, and others will appear as they are prepared for publication and radio delivery.—Editor's Note.)

The five organs of special sense are known as the senses of smell, taste, hearing, feeling, and of sight. The first of these is generally admitted to be that of sight. Our sympathies always go out to the blind. You, as well as this writer, often hear the expression, "I had rather be dead than blind." When we see a blind child or an adult that can not enjoy the pleasures of life, we wonder why fate has been so unkind to that individual. Let each of us close our eyes for just five minutes and get a small idea what blindness means.

It is not always easy to diagnose syphilis as the cause of some ocular disturbance unless a blood test is made. Be reasonable with your doctor and when he desires such a test realize that he is trying to save your eye sight. Once the disease involves the eye, it usually means that it has taken a firm hold upon the body. In the ordinary practice of medicine, numerous diseases are first found by symptoms and signs referred to the eyes. These are varied and inconstant and are often missed. The little children have watery eyes, cry upon exposure to light, marked redness of the eyeball, all due to an involvement with this infection. With the progression of the disease, the final result is blindness. Think of the suffering that this baby goes through all because some parent refused to have a blood examination.

have we looked upon this condition as a subject not to be mentioned in public. The same feeling formerly existed in regard to tuberculosis. Not until the public was awakened to its dangers, the mode of transmission and the methods of cure, was any progress made in the control of tuberculosis. The same will prove true of syphilis and with the realization that syphilis can be acquired innocently, that little children should not be born into this world handicapped by this disease, that the disease can be cured—then, and then only, will the King of Killers be placed upon the defensive.

It is not the purpose of this paper to attempt to give a medical discussion of ocular syphilis. Any member of the medical profession will be pleased to furnish you with text books or papers upon the subject. It will suffice to say that any part of the orbit and its contents may be involved. It is estimated that three per cent of extra genital lesions occurring as a primary sore involve the eye lids. Fifty-two per cent of the unfortunate children with congenital syphilis have involvement of the cornea. When it is realized that the eye in embryonic life buds from the brain and remains attached to it by the optic nerve, we can understand that a large per cent of these cases showing central nervous diseases will have involvement in the eye.

D. C. Wage Law Is Held Valid

Old Statute Back In Force As Result Of Court Decision

WASHINGTON, April 6 (AP) - President Roosevelt sent to congress today an opinion by Attorney General Cummings declaring the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women is valid as a result of the supreme court decision upholding a similar Washington state law.

The court's March 29 decision overruled its 14-year-old finding that the local statute was unconstitutional.

A legal question then arose as to whether the latter had to be re-enacted to become operative. The president asked the attorney general for his views.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote that many developments have taken place during the long period when the local law was inoperative. He suggested congress might desire to consider amendments.

"Under these circumstances," he added, "I have suggested to the commissioners of the District of Columbia that they delay, at least until the first of May, the appointment of the minimum wage board for which the act makes provision."

While not suggesting amendments himself, the chief executive told a recent press conference he favored including men, along with women and minors, in state minimum wage laws.

Since the Washington state decision, several states, including New York, have taken steps toward enactment of the new minimum wage laws.

Lindy Mapping New Air Line?

On Way Back To London After Extended Trip Across Asia

LONDON, April 6 (AP) - Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh charted a course for London today from Zagreb, Yugoslavia, skirting the Alpine barrier on the last leg of what was believed to have been a survey for a new commercial skyway-route from England to India.

Although Col. Lindbergh has not said why he flew thousands of miles over commercially uncharted routes under the most adverse conditions, aerial observers declared the flight was conclusive proof of a cardinal point: An England-India air route is feasible under commercial aviation conditions.

A problem of transportation as old as Europe bothered Col. Lindbergh in Zagreb on his experimental flight.

Justing up in the middle of Europe, the mountainous Alps which blocked ancient armies were to the flying colonel a serious obstacle to operation of an airliner between England and Asia Minor or India.

His flight indicated he believes the only possible course for an airliner is to go around the Alps and his course were laid around both sides of the formidable range.

HELEN WILLS LOVE GETS 5-YEAR TERM

LOS ANGELES, April 6 (AP)—Frieda shadows, which frightened Helen Wills Love into a week-long trance, deepened over her today.

The 31-year-old "will to die" widow must serve five years to life in a women's state prison at Tehachapi, because she was adjudged sane by the law.

A court hearing concluded yesterday with passing of the sentence necessitated by her conviction of second degree murder March 9.

Last New Year's eve, a jury decided Mrs. Love shot to death Harry A. Love, her secret husband, because he had broken a date with her in order to dine with his mother at a swank beach club.

mention any group by name in his statement against sit-down strike organizers.

Harvey C. Fremming, lieutenant of John L. Lewis' C.I.O. and head of the oil field, gas well and refinery workers union, had said at Houston his union did not contemplate sit-down activities.

"My statement," Allred said, "was directed at sit-down methods and organizations sponsoring them. If Mr. Fremming's union doesn't believe in sit-down strikes and doesn't start them, they haven't anything to worry about."

Settlement Thought Near In Chrysler Dispute

LANSING, Mich., April 6 (AP)—Virtually at the end of its quest for a pact ending the month-long Chrysler automobile strike, Gov. Frank Murphy's peace conference reconvened today.

Only the final phraseology of a collective bargaining formula designed to compress not only the Chrysler dispute but other labor differences in the motor car industry, remained to be settled.

An agreement between Walter P. Chrysler, chairman of the motor corporation's board, and John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, would open the way for quick return to work of more than 80,000 workers, nearly 85,000 of them Chrysler employees.

None of the conferees would comment on what formula was reached to settle the union's exclusive bargaining demands, refusal of which started the strike March 8.

An informed source, however, said the striking United Automobile Workers of America had submitted this proposal: U. A. W. A. recognition for its members; Chrysler not to sponsor or support any other union and to do nothing "retrograde" to the U. A. W. A.; any dispute on this to be submitted to Chrysler and Lewis for settlement; both union and corporation pledge not to coerce any company employees.

COUNTY CRIMINAL DOCKET SET APR. 12

County Judge Charles Sullivan today announced the county court criminal docket had been set for April 12. The current term of the court opened here Monday.

Nature 'Cornering' The Corn Market

CHICAGO, April 6 (AP)—Mother Nature is "cornering" the corn market.

Grain traders said today skyrocketing corn prices to the highest level in 17 years and dwindling supplies have brought about a market phenomenon—a "natural corner."

This is to be distinguished, they said, from that now impossible market situation known as a "technical" or "manipulated corner." The latter is now unlawful. The "natural corner," traders said, just can't be helped. Farmers make it by saving corn for feed.

Mother Nature has been doing none of the market manipulation which brings about a "technical corner."

The death toll covers only 13 of the 16 counties in the district, Glascock, Borden, and Kent, with perhaps 10 deaths of 65 year or older persons among them, are not included in the compilation of the death records.

By counties, the record is as follows: Ector, 10; Midland, 22; Martin, 11; Terry, 13; Gaines, 4; Andrews, 3; Dawson, 27; Lynn, 25; Garza, 10; Yoakum, 2; Mitchell, 42; Seury, 40; and Howard, 36.

Firms Would Like Frontage On The Courthouse Block

Inquiries or offers from at least three companies have been made for lots along West Third street in event the north half of the courthouse square were placed on the market, County Judge Charles Sullivan disclosed today.

The offers are the result of talk that the courthouse might be razed and replaced by a modern structure on the south side of the square and lots sold on the north half to finance the move.

Judge Sullivan indicated that offers made so far were for less than the court could afford to consider were a move decided upon. He made it plain that unless good offers were received for all of six 20-foot lots along Third street, the court would not look with favor upon the deal.

The property involved was deeded by the T&P railroad to the county contingent upon its use for county purposes, and all proposals to sell are made with the knowledge that the railroad would have to give consent.

SHIP AGROUND, IN FEAR OF PIRATES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6 (AP)—The British battle ship Seaman rushed today to the aid of the steamer Pei An, aground near Whampoa, China, after an appeal for aid against pirates, said radio advices picked up here by the Globe Wireless company.

The Pei An, believed to be a Chinese coastal steamer, sent out this wireless appeal:

"We are aground off the entrance to Whampoa. We are afraid of a pirate attack. Want a guard until daylight. (Signed) Pei An."

The battleship replied: "Coming to the scene. Will arrive at 1 a. m. Wednesday" (12 noon EST Tuesday.)

Whampoa is about 50 miles up the estuary of the Canton river, among numerous islands from which pirates frequently operate.

Later advices said the Pei An was a Chinese steamer of 3,500 tons. The number of persons aboard was not stated.

From there they will inspect sites at Richland Springs, Mertzon, Barksdale and Menard. The group will spend Saturday night at Barksdale, site of the scout camp for the last few years.

GRADERS SOLD IN STERLING COUNTY

Eight pony graders, taken in by the Plains Machinery company on a maintainer trade completed with the county here last week, were sold to a Sterling county rancher Tuesday.

The machines brought approximately $25 each. They were to be used in ditching and terracing for irrigation purposes.

Forty graders were taken in by the company on the trade. They are stored at the county warehouse now.

Several farmers in this area have indicated a desire to purchase the graders in order to use them in light terrace work.

New Test To Be Spudded In Dawson Near Albaugh-Robinson

Correction on a potential test for the Plymouth No. 12 Klot, 1,980 feet from the south and 1,320 feet from the west line of section 5-32-26, T4P, today gave the well a 1-398 barrel potential production.

It gauged 52 barrels on the first hour and 58.07 barrels in the second hour. It topped the pay at 2-140 feet and is bottomed at 2,543 feet in lime treated with 2,000 gallons of acid and was tested on March 20.

Preparations were being made to spud a new test in Dawson county near the discovery Ray Albaugh et al, No. 1 John Robinson, 16 miles northwest of Lamesa, American Maracaibo Exploration company is sinking the well with Jack Ellis, Big Spring, handling the drilling.

Location has been staked by the Mitchell Oil and Gas company for its No. 1 Zilpha Morrison, Mitchell county wildcat, 330 feet from the south and 2,810 feet from the west line of section 36-29-1n, T4P. It is approximately four miles east and one mile north of Latah, and is about two miles west of production in the Westbrook pool. It is east about five miles from the abandoned well drilled by Gib Sawtelle two years ago.

Nations Learned Little From The World War, Baruch Finds, As He Views Activities 20 Years Later

(Editor's Note: Bernard M. Baruch was chairman of the war industries board in the world war. Upon him Woodrow Wilson placed the responsibility of supervising the mobilization of mobilization of materials for the American and the allied armies and the civilian population. At Versailles, Mr. Baruch was an economic advisor to the American peace commission).

By BERNARD M. BARUCH
Written For The Associated Press
NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—On this twentieth anniversary of America's entrance into the war, I would like to believe the world has learned the futility of conflict.

I would like to believe that aggression and nationalist hatreds exist only in the history books, that nations could settle their disputes peacefully. I would like to believe the world practiced the high idealism of Woodrow Wilson, that his hope had become a reality. I would like to believe every nation hated war equally.

But we learned little, if anything, from the war. The nations of the world are marching again down the old road that led to 1914.

It is horrifying to consider the consequences of the war for which the world is now preparing. You will not be sure the civilian population will not be spared. The devastation in Spain is but a miniature example.

Billions For War
There is more to the disheartening situation than the billions being spent for defenses and rearmaments—billions which, if used in the ways of peace, would go far toward abolishing slums and lessening poverty.

Economic Gibraltar and verduns have been erected and these barriers to trade have increased the international ill-will. Their elimination alone would be a great contribution to peace.

Who and what is to blame for this despairing state? Some believe the treaty of Versailles was responsible for Hitler, that it was unjust to impose upon Germany the reparations and the admission of guilt. The Americans strongly opposed these clauses at Versailles but the vengeance engendered by French fears and the spirit of England's "khaki" campaign prevailed.

BERNARD BARUCH

The German army, some believe is the dominating danger to the peace of Europe and of the world, and the narrow selfish view at Versailles has reaped its reward of fear.

Others may believe that imperialism of Japan and the red and the fascist dictatorships are more dangerous than the Nazi.

But this is not the day to fix the blame. It is, instead, the day to call upon the peoples of all countries to pay no heed to warlike riles. It is time to practice the civilization we preach.

LETTER FROM SON BELIEVED KILLED

FORT WORTH, April 6 (AP)—A message from the "dead" mystified a Burleson, Texas, family today.

Mrs. W. G. Miller told Chief of Detectives Tom Jackson her son, Donald Miller, 31, had sent her a postcard from San Francisco Calif., though on March 23 burial services were held at Burleson for an automobile-train crash victim whose body was sent there from California as that of her son.

He was believed killed March 18 with two other men in a collision near San Bernardino.

Jackson has written the coroner at San Bernardino and also dispatched a letter to "Donald Miller, general delivery, San Francisco." The body buried at Burleson had been badly mangled.
