WAR FLEETS APPROACH, SAID

Russia, However, Says Conciliation To Be Tried

HARBIN, Manchuria, July 19.—Heavy cannonading, according to travelers reaching here today, has occurred in the vicinity of the eastern border of Manchuria where the Chinese recently destroyed tunnels of the Chinese Eastern railway.

Other reports say that Russian warships are approaching San-Fon-He, twenty miles south of the border in the sea of Japan, and that the Chinese are laying mines in the channel.

WAR MENACE GRAVE

UNDATED.—(P)—The war menace in Manchuria continued grave today as unconfirmed reports of military clashes and activity was reported on both sides of the Manchurian-Siberian border.

Japanese dispatches from Harbin reported Russians had assumed the offensive and had taken over border towns at either end of the Chinese Eastern railway.

Other unconfirmed advices reported that the Russian effort to cross the border met with Chinese fire which necessitated retreating.

Soviet airplanes are said to have dropped pamphlets on Chinese territory, urging the Chinese masses to support the Soviet.

The Ector county section of this road is already paved. Crane county has voted bonds for their section, the Pyote Sentinel says.

Area of Russo-Chinese Dispute

Here's a map showing the far eastern sector where the Russo-Chinese dispute over the seizure by Chinese Nationalists of a railroad operated through Manchuria by Russia is centered. Soviet officials were driven from Harbin to Chita by Nationalists when the property was seized. The Chinese eastern railroad passes through Manchuria from Krasnoyarsk to Vladivostok, far eastern terminal for Russia. And now, the two countries have broken all diplomatic relations. Troops are massed on the Siberian-Manchurian border, press dispatches say. Germany now agrees to try mediation in the Sino-Soviet break.

DOGS ON STREETS MUST BE MUZZLED OR SHOT, CHIEF OF POLICE SAYS

Hydrophobia Danger Described As Reason For Action; One Dog Reported Mad

Dogs in various areas of the state are becoming afflicted with hydrophobia. A Midland farmer killed his dog this week because he thought it had rabies.

To protect the children and people in general from the liability of being bitten by a mad dog in Midland, unmuzzled dogs roaming the streets will be shot.

That was the emphatic statement made Friday by Police Chief King Reid. Chief Reid declared he had no desire to kill dogs, in fact, said he: "I regret to kill a dog or any other animal, but the city ordinance requires that all loose dogs muzzled. We have not heretofore enforced that law, but since there is now so much danger from a dog taking hydrophobia, it is necessary to kill loose, unmuzzled dogs to protect the public."

The chief says he wanted to give everybody opportunity to chain up his dog or muzzle him, but that beginning Saturday, dogs running loose on the streets would be shot, unless they were properly muzzled. The chief killed one dog Thursday that was having a fit.

ENCAMPMENT AT PAISANO TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Rev. L. R. Millican of El Paso, president of the Paisano Baptist assembly, was in Midland this morning in the interest of the annual encampment which is to be held July 26 to August 4, inclusive.

Paisano is half way between Alpine and Marfa, on the main highway and on the Southern Pacific Railway's main line. The altitude there is over 5,000 feet, and the days and night are cool enough to make coats comfortable, and to make blankets necessary.

It is 400 miles west of San Antonio, and 200 miles east of El Paso.

Vacation Stock Was Watered — Holster

D. E. Holster, of the composing room of The Reporter-Telegram, has just returned from a vacation where there was an inordinate amount of rain in a place where natives are used to downpours.

Near Yoakum, rainfall has an annual habit of mounding to 36 inches, but this year, Holster says, there had been 33.5 inches precipitated by July 5.

Fishing was out of the question during such rains, the vacationist decided.

Holster was accompanied on the trip to Southeast Texas by his wife and two children, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ben Reid, who had been visiting the family here. All visited Holster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Holster of Yoakum.

There will be everything known to the culinary art in the long line of stacked food-stuffs. Everything from ice tea to frozen pies will be served.

The usual contests held on outings of this kind will be staged. There will be hobble races, 50 yard dashes, potato races, sack races, egg contests, cracker eating contests, and several others. The committee in charge of competition refuses to divulge some of its surprise plans.

The principal address at the picnic will be given by Lion Chairman M. C. Ulmer, District Judge Charles L. Klapproth will also speak. Due to the fact that the chairman cannot enter, but one event, his place in the hobble race has been thrown to Lion Evans, pastor of the First Christian church.

MEETING CALLED SEPT. 7TH BY MEN INTERESTED IN MOVEMENT

Big Barbecue Will Be Held on Ranch of John Gist; More Than 100 Prominent Men Expected

Definite steps will be taken to organize a West Texas-wide breeder-feeder movement at Midland September 7, when county agents, chamber of commerce secretaries and farmers and ranchers will hold an organization meeting.

The meeting was called for joint action of William A. Wilson, secretary of the Marfa Chamber of Commerce, E. Gibbons, county agent of Jeff Davis, Presidio and Brewster counties, and the secretary of the Midland Chamber of Commerce. More than 100 prominent West Texas men are expected at the meeting by Wilson, who is the originator of the present movement.

The guests will be entertained with a barbecue on the Midland ranch of John M. Gist, veteran breeder and exhibitor. The sessions will open at 11 a. m., in Hotel Scharbauer with Leon Goodman, mayor, president of the chamber of commerce, and a prominent Midland cattleman, delivering an address on the "Economic and Chemistry of Texas Feeding vs. Corn Belt Feeding." Wilson, of Marfa will preside over the opening meeting.

Noted Speakers Coming

Frank Holland of Dallas will discuss his experiences in feeding out cattle, and W. B. Mitchell, Marfa, former president of the Highland Hereford Breeders Association, will make a speech on "Why Not Feed Out Texas Cattle in Texas?" An experience meeting will then be held, and J. M. Jones, range experimental agent of A & M College, will conduct a question box. Ranchers and farmers will briefly give their actual experiences in feeding.

Gibbons will offer practical suggestions as to the functioning of the organization, after which a permanent organization will be formed. The visitors will be entertained by Gist at 1 p. m. and following the barbecue, G. W. Barnes, head of A & M Extension Service, will speak. The meeting will adjourn about 2 p. m.

'EVIL INFLUENCE' IS MOTIVE FOR MURDER OF WIDOW

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 19.—(UP)—That they feared the "evil influence" of Mrs. Loretta Fairchild, 75-year-old minister's widow, was the statement this morning of Eugene Burgess, 53, and his wife, Pearl, who confessed that they beat the aged woman to death with a lead pipe and hammer while she was their dinner guest last night.

The battered body was found in a cistern at the rear of the Burgess home. Their confession said the woman said she had killed more than 100 persons yearly for 25 years through her strange power of will.

Propaganda To Start

It is the idea of Wilson and Gibbons, organizers of the movement, and concurred in by Midland men, to elect officers for a year, and meet again a year from the Midland meeting. In the meantime, county agents and chambers of commerce will conduct propaganda publicity—campaigns citing facts on the money to be made in feeding out Texas cattle in Texas. Farm agents will also be asked at the Midland meeting to pledge their best efforts to having several experiments made in their counties this fall and next year by farmers and ranchers.

Prizes To Be Offered

Prizes will likely be offered at various county fairs on calves fed by farmers or ranchers who join the association. Only farmers, ranchers, county agents and chamber of commerce officials who are willing to work on the matter and who will make experiments and encourage the raising of more grain sorghums for feeding out Texas cattle will be invited to the meeting. Gibbons will have a called meeting of county agents of the territory affected during the Short Course at A & M College the first of next month.

THE HORSE QUESTION

Texas' equine population, according to figures made public by the United Press, has decreased from 1,170,000 in 1910 to 780,000 in 1929.

The steady, and somewhat rapid, decrease in the number of horses in the United States is probably greater than in Texas; and horse lovers must see that this is appalling.

West Texas, up to a few years ago, had been a breeding ground for good horses since the memory of the oldest citizens; but it is a rare thing to find a herd of stock horses now on a West Texas ranch.

Those who are breeding horses these days are looking carefully to quality, turning out young ponies which will bring fancy prices for polo, the race track, or for cow work.

On ranches where there were formerly from five to a dozen cow hands working, with from four to eight horses in the remuda of each, there are now from one to six cowboys, and they usually ride from one to five horses each, depending on the season of the year.

A cowboy, in the winter months, will often take one horse, feed him, and do all of his cow work on the animal. Unless some increased demand for polo and race horses is built up, there will be a continual decrease in the number of horses in Texas, as well as in the United States.

Legalized horse racing, as proposed by the legislature, would tend to increase the number of race horses used; and this would furnish a market for the product from leading stables and horse pastures in West Texas.

Midland has its horse breeders, and they are turning out some good animals. It is hoped that the demand for horses of the better type will continue to increase.

BARRYMORE ARTIST OF NOTE IN YOUTH

Did you know that John Barrymore's pet hobby, sketching and painting, was once his means of livelihood?

The famous screen star, whose latest United Artists picture, "Eternal Love," comes to the Grand theatre, on Sunday is a former newspaper artist and reporter, and there is nothing he gets more pleasure out of than his easel and brushes.

Although he came or one of America's best known theatrical families, John Barrymore as a boy yearned for fame in newspaper life.

A son of the noted actor, Maurice Barrymore, and Georgiana Drew, sister of John Drew, young Barrymore attended an art school in London and later enrolled at the Art Students' League in New York. The famous George Bridgman also taught Barrymore for several years.

Before he was twenty years old he was working on New York newspapers, serving as a reporter and illustrating stories with his own drawings. But the call of the stage was too strong and he became an actor, rising to stellar heights in many productions and winning unchallenged recognition in the United States and abroad as the world's greatest Hamlet.

His success on the screen has been as phenomenal.

In "Eternal Love," a romance of the Swiss Alps, in which he has the role of a dashing mountaineer, Barrymore is supported by Camilla Horn, Victor Varconi, Mona Rico, Hobart Bosworth, Bodil Rosing, Evelyn Selbie and a host of other well known players.

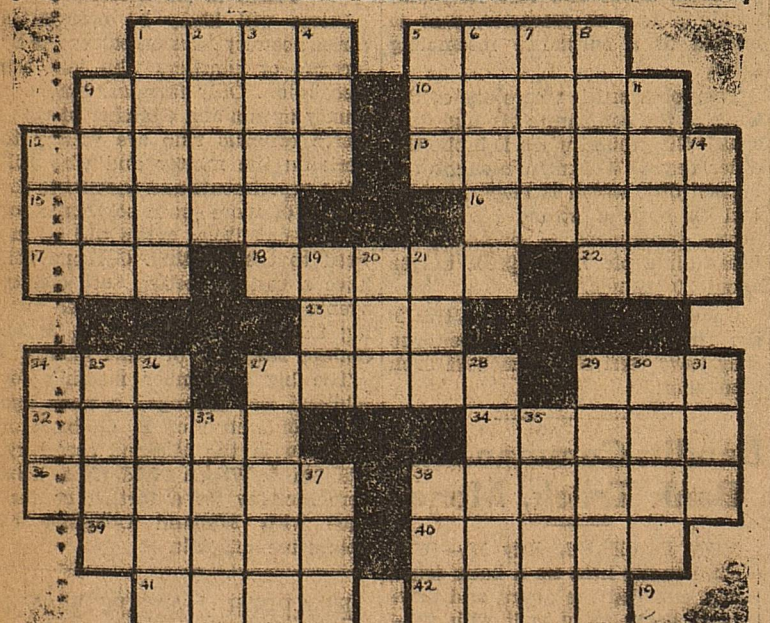

The feature is an Ernst Lubitsch production, personally directed by the great German megaphone wizard.

THERE'S NO VACATION FROM TASK OF BEAUTIFYING SELF

By MABEL DUKE
 For NEA Service

Josephine Dunn has found a few summer-time remedies with which to combat complexion troubles that pursue the vacationist. Of course the remedies must be selected according to the vacation scene.

"If you choose the beach or the mountains, pack in your bags a jar of vanishing cream to prevent the sun from drying the skin and a non-drying liquid lotion to defy the sun." Miss Dunn advises. "Of course, the new suntan is quite popular now and looks charming on brunets, but blondes don't tan—they burn and come out of the sun looking like a beet. If you freckle easily, include a parosan and several large hats in your wardrobe.

Foil Sun With Glasses
 "A pair of sun-glasses should be tucked in the suitcase of every vacationist. Eyestrain attendant upon long days spent near water and sand or in the rare atmosphere of the mountains can thus be avoided.

"For a long train journey, include a large jar of cleansing cream and a supply of face tissues to use at least three times daily to keep the pores of the skin free from dust. And be sure to close the pores with witch hazel or some other good astringent.

"A boat trip is the simplest one to prepare for as far as the care of the skin is concerned. The only precaution to take is against wind. Apply a soothing skin food generously several times daily to keep the complexion soft and smooth."

NEWSPAPER LIFE DEPICTED IN FILM HERE SUNDAY

Of particular interest to movie fans, lovers of the drama, and those who are interested in stories filled with romance, is the announcement by the management of the Ritz Theatre that "Gentlemen of the Press" will come here for a two day showing, beginning Sunday.

The picture, an all talking film, has a cast, each member of which has proven his ability on the legitimate stage. Headed by Walter Huston, such stars as Katherine Francis, Charles Ruggles, Betty Lawford, Norman Foster, Duncan Penwarden and Lawrence Leslie make up the cast.

The story itself is gripping. Wickland Enell, star newspaperman, has given up every other interest in life for his business. The only thing he has not given up is his susceptibility for a pretty woman.

Then one night his daughter comes to tell him she has married a newspaper reporter, Ted Hanley. Snell, in order to help his daughter, decides to give up newspaper work and accepts a position as public relations council with a large concern. In this capacity he falls in love with his secretary, Myra May. The secretary, however, while responding to Snell amuses herself with Hanley.

MIDLAND LOSES GAME BY ERRORS; CLINGS TO TOP NOTCH

BIG SPRING LOSES TO BALLINGER YESTERDAY

Midland retained her hold on first place yesterday, even though the club lost to San Angelo, 10-7. Big Spring dropped her second consecutive game to Ballinger. This Angelo win evened the series, today's game being the decisive factor.

Five errors behind Melton accounted for the loss. Andrews, Labauve, and King hit home runs.

Midland goes to Big Spring and Coleman for series games after the present series is over. Following these games, Abilene will be entertained here.

ROBISON THANKS MIDLAND FRIENDS FOR THEIR HELP

A number of friends of J. T. Robison, state land commissioner, received letters today thanking them for their loyalty to him during the recent charges brought against his conduct in office, and his subsequent exoneration. The letters follow:

A Grateful Acknowledgement
To those loyal friends from all portions of Texas who so loyally stood by me in deeds, words or silent prayer during the six months effort made by certain persons to destroy me, I send the lines below as a feeble expression of my whole-hearted appreciation of their confidence. The pains of the ordeal were somewhat assuaged when I found by my side those who had known me longest and those who had had the most business with me over a period of thirty-four years service in the State Land Office.

"If nobody smiles and nobody cared
And nobody helped us along;
If every fellow looked out for himself
And the good things all went to the strong;
If nobody cared just a little for you,
And nobody thought about me,
And we stood all alone in the battle of life,
What a dreary old world this would be!"

Life is sweet because of the friends that we have,
And the things that in common we share;
We want to live on, not because of ourselves,
But because of the people who care;
It's giving and doing for somebody else—
On that all life's splendor depends—
And the joy of this world, when you've summed it all up,
Is found in the love of our friends."

I want you to know that your goodness and kindly interest made my heart glad.
Your friend,
J. T. ROBISON.

In 1704 free schools were established in Maryland. The funds for their support were raised by duties, double rates being imposed upon non-residents.

Veterans Form Baseball Nine

VETERANS FORM—Pl. box LONDON, July 19.—(UP)—This city claims the most unusual baseball team ever organized. Manager Matt Gorman announced his lineup as follows:
Lloyd Wheeler, 85, catcher; George Plymell, 82, pitcher; Jas. Stevens, 75, shortstop; M. F. McCandless, 76, right field; Geo. Woodard, 75, center field; Henry Smith, 74, first base; Denis Gallagher, 72, left field; James Caldwell, 71, second base; John Gamlin, 71, third base, and Edward Gallagher, 71, substitute.
"Not one over 85 and none under 71 and they're just as sprightly as in their heyday on the diamond," Manager Gorman said.
Gorman is seeking games for his oddtimers.

Splendid camping facilities are afforded, and modern conveniences are provided, at the encampment grounds. Meals are served cafeteria style, no charge being made for them, but opportunity for offerings being open.
It is expected that a large attendance will be registered at the encampment this year, as Rev. Milligan has found much interest in the places he has visited.

Midland Reports

Midland is going out a plea to Texas secretaries to see to it that vital statistics are reported in their cities.

Mr. Nicholas points out that undertakers are much more zealous in reporting deaths than doctors and midwives are in reporting births. This causes the news to go out over the United States that deaths exceed births in Texas, and, as a consequence, unfavorable publicity is given, and business is hurt. The census bureau head urged mothers and fathers themselves to report births, because of the "negligence of doctors in making reports."

Only three states in the Union now fail to come within the birth and death registration area. These are Texas, New Mexico and South Dakota. September 1 is the dead line for Texas to get a clear record. The Texas Commercial Executives secretary at Midland is sending out a S. O. S. to other secretaries to take the matter up with their doctors to get vital statistics reported.
Dr. W. E. Ryan, county health officer, said when asked whether Midland complies with the law on this important matter, that strict adherence to the provisions is made in Midland. He said that he did not know of any city which makes a more systematic effort to report vital statistics.

of the Lamesa chamber. Wilson is in charge of the tour.

Midlanders who make the All Texas Tour which starts at Marshall, August the first will have an opportunity of visiting the Carlsbad Caverns.
Thirty miles southwest from the city beautiful is "The Dream of the Ages," the world's largest and most magnificent Carlsbad Cavern! More than forty years ago according to old timers, tiny bats attracted attention to a great opening from which they came forth to feed. A sheer drop of ninety feet for many years prevented man's entrance into the cavern. Later, Jim White, now the veteran explorer and chief guide, lowered himself on a rope into the earth's bosom and over a period explored its innermost recesses and brought back stories of the marvelous formations within the apparently inaccessible grottoes of what is now one of the most celebrated Caverns. World tourists, art connoisseurs, writers and even photographers who have explored the subterranean passages of this newest of national monuments, find themselves helpless to describe the ornate formations and the unbelievable magnitude of the great cave. In the language of a mineralogist of 25 years' service with the government, there is but one explanation applicable to the Cavern, namely: the first words to pass over the first telegraph wire: "What Wonders God Hath Wrought!"

The National Park Service on April 1, 1926, assumed control of the monument and at the close of the year 11,741 visitors had seen the wonderful structure. In 1927 and 1928 there were 29,034 and 46,222 visitors, respectively. Estimated attendance for the current year is 65,000 visitors and probably 100,000 visitors annually hereafter. Electric lights and easy comfortable trails offer to the visitor a day of wonderment unlike any other experience.

An added attraction of the Carlsbad Community is the fresh mineral water bathing beach attraction only five minutes' drive from the main business district, and summer tourist on their return to Carlsbad from the Cavern Trip, wend their way to the lake for a plunge in the waters from the Carlsbad mineral spring. Carlsbad is also known for its hospitality. Recent discoveries of potash within a few miles from the City Beautiful, and increased activity in oil development, likewise have given the city a place of unusual prominence.
