

'Sonny' Lamb Is Sought In North Texas

Long-Term Convict Believed To Have Stolen Cars In Dash From Ft. Worth Jail

FORT WORTH, April 26 (AP)—Officers searched a wide area today for Alfred (Sonny) Lamb, long-term convict and fugitive from the Tarrant county jail.

Sheriff A. B. Carter at Fort Worth said Lamb was believed to have perpetrated a number of thefts in his dash across North Texas.

Lamb, under 35, and 15-year sentences from King county and indicted for murder charges at Menard, escaped Saturday by picking the lock on his cell window. He had been left in jail at Fort Worth by Sheriff Dan Hardee and Constable Lee Hutson of Hutchinson county, who were taking him to Stinson to face burglary charges.

Sheriff Carter attributed theft of two automobiles to Lamb, the first being that of Bob Heffner's at Azle, taken Saturday night and found yesterday near Jackboro. Sheriff Carter said Lamb was identified as having been in that vicinity about 30 minutes before the car was taken.

Held At Gun Point
Yesterday Clyde Vaughn, a farmer living west of Olney, was robbed and shortly before a car was stolen at Olney. Vaughn was working in the field. When he returned he was met by a man coming from the house and the man forced Vaughn at the point of a gun to stand at a distance while he drove away in a car which Vaughn described as the one stolen from Olney. The man took some clothing and a shotgun from the house. The description resembled Lamb.

Sheriff Carter said burglary of Harvey J. Bole's home near Fort Worth was attributed to Lamb when officers discovered the fugitive's discarded clothing a half mile from the house. Clothing had been taken from the Bole's place.

Eck Lovelace Death Victim

Pneumonia Fatal To Member Of Pioneer Family; Rites Tuesday

Death from pneumonia Monday claimed Charles Elliott "Eck" Lovelace, 44, after a brief illness. He was a member of a pioneer Big Spring family.

Seriously ill only since Saturday, Lovelace succumbed at a local hospital at 2 a. m. Monday. He had not complained of feeling ill until Friday. Saturday afternoon he was rushed to a hospital for treatment.

His wife, Anabel Cook Lovelace, arrived here from Fort Sumner, N. M., where she had been at the bedside of her father, when advised of Lovelace's critical condition.

Lovelace was well known throughout a wide area of this section, having been born in Midland and reared in this portion of West Texas.

For years Lovelace had been in business or employed in business in Big Spring.

Born in Midland on Sept. 17, 1890, Lovelace was married on Christmas Day, 1924 to Miss Anabel Cook. To the union were born two children, Charles Elliott, Jr., 9, and Nancy Jane, 5.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. D. M. Lovelace, 60; and his father, Mr. D. M. Lovelace, 63. See LOVELACE, Page 6, Col. 3

High Court To Rule On Age Pensions

Agrees To Review Test Case On Portion Of Security Act

DECISION DELAYED ON JOB INSURANCE

Decreases On Both Issues May Be Handed Down At Same Time

WASHINGTON, April 26 (AP)—The supreme court agreed today to review a test case to determine the constitutionality of the old age pension provisions of the federal social security act.

Decision Delayed
It postponed a final decision at least until next Monday on validity of the unemployment insurance provisions of the federal act and of supplementary legislation passed by states.

Some supreme court observers expressed the opinion that the tribunal might hold its decision on the unemployment insurance case until after arguments on the old age litigation so both could be decided at the same time.

Fifteen opinions were read today by the justices in a two hour session. In the old age pension case, the court consented to pass on an appeal filed by the government from a decision by the federal circuit court at Boston holding unconstitutional that section of the major administration legislation.

Already Argued
Litigation to determine the validity of the unemployment compensation section of the act already has been argued and is awaiting decision. It was filed by the Chas. C. Steward Machine company of Alabama.

The old age pension case was started by a suit by George P. Davis, a stockholder, to enjoin the Edison Electric Illuminating company of Boston from paying the taxes imposed under the act to provide annuities for employees.

Both sides to the litigation asked the supreme court for a prompt ruling. In the government's petition, Solicitor General Stanley Reed said 28,000,000 persons had "registered for prospective benefits" and that taxes were being collected from 26,000,000 employees and 2,700,000 employers.

The levies range from one per cent of wages for 1937, 1938 and 1939 to three per cent after 1948. The employer and employee pay the same amount.

FDR ACTS TO AVERT STRIKE

SCORES INJURED IN RIOTING AT CALIFORNIA CANNERY

More than 50 persons, including several women, were injured in violent outbreaks at Stockton, Calif., as a strike-bound cannery was opened. Pickets battled with deputies and highway patrolmen, as workers entered the plant. A cloud of tear gas is shown in the above photo, forcing back some of the strikers. Conference were slated today in an attempt to settle the cannery disputes.

N. Y. Workers Had Planned A Walk-Out

Emergency Board Appointed To Study Shipping Dispute

MANY EMPLOYEES RETURN TO JOBS

Oshawa Auto Laborers Returned To Work At Higher Pay

By the Associated Press
President Roosevelt acted today to halt a threatened walkout of 25,000 railroad and shipping employees in metropolitan New York as thousands of automobile workers in the United States and Canada returned to their jobs ending strikes.

Postponed 48 Hours
The president appointed an emergency board of three to attempt settlement of a dispute between rival unions seeking to represent the rail and shipping employees. The strike, called by the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, had been set to start at noon but was postponed 48 hours on word of the president's action.

The International Longshoremen's association has disputed the brotherhood's desire to represent the 25,000 workers. The brotherhood had demanded also a 20-cent an hour increase in wages.

At Oshawa, Ont., 3,700 men and women workers, their pay raised and hours shortened, returned to their tasks at a General Motors Corporation plant, marking the end of a 16-day strike. Automobile assembly workers employed in the Ford Motor company plant at Richmond, Calif., were scheduled to return also after a short air-line strike which closed the plant Friday.

Plant Closed
At Detroit, Mich., a sit-down strike closed the plant of Parke Davis & Co., large pharmaceutical firm. Employees demanded higher wages and union recognition. The company employs 2,100 workers.

Confronting the Washington Electric and Manufacturing company was a demand from the United Electric and Radio Workers Union that it be recognized as sole bargaining agency for the company's 47,000 workers throughout the country.

In Washington, the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, largest United States steel subsidiary, notified the national labor relations board it would withdraw all assistance in its employee representation plans which the steel workers organizing committee maintained were "company union."

California Parley
At Sacramento, Calif., Governor Frank Merriam was scheduled to meet with representatives of striking Stockton cannery workers and the newly-formed cannery workers union in the hope of ending a 16 day old strike, involving 1,800 men.

Dudley Sargent, union president, and J. Paul St. Sure, representing the cannery, were to confer with the governor.

Whether 1,100 men would resume work on the Parker Dam at Parker, Ariz., depended on orders from federal authorities at Washington.

"The labor is strife between the Committee for Industrial Organization and nonunion workers. It will follow receipt of the orders," Sheriff T. H. Newman said.

It is understood the C.I.O. is demanding a $1 a day wage increase and the right of workers to bargain collectively.

Shoe plants in strike-harassed Lewiston and Auburn, Me., resumed operations today. Workers of 19 factories went to their jobs through cordons of steel-helmeted national guardsmen while negotiations toward final settlement of the general strike progressed.

Vote To Tighten Liquor Law

Drug Stores Are Affected

Supply Of Firms In Dry Territories Would Be Limited

AUSTIN, April 26 (AP)—The house voted today to tighten restrictions against drug store sale of whiskey in dry territory.

Amendments inserted in a proposed new liquor regulatory statute would make it unlawful for drug stores to have more than nine gallons of liquor on hand at any time or to dispense physicians for writing whiskey prescriptions.

Another adopted amendment would prohibit physicians from prescribing more than one pint of whiskey at a time.

The senate voted to raise salaries of members of the railroad commission from $5,200 to $7,500 a year. It was considering the departmental appropriation bill, first of the five major appropriations measures.

Book About Windsor Withdrawn

Publishers Recall Volume After Edward's Attorney Makes Protest

LONDON, April 26 (AP)—The Duke of Windsor won from his Austrian fiancée of self-exile today a fight to have a British book about him taken out of circulation.

The publishers of "Coronation Commentary," it was disclosed, not only took the fast-selling volume from English bookshops but wrote the duke a note of apology.

That was upon the demand of the former monarch's attorney, who threatened legal action unless amendments were made by today.

The action by the publishers came just on the eve of tomorrow's expiration of the six months' "prohibition period" necessary to make the divorce of Wallis Warfield Simpson final under English law.

Six months ago tomorrow, in the ancient town of Ipswich, the American fiancée of the Duke of Windsor obtained a preliminary divorce decree from Ernest Adrich Simpson, and started the momentous events which were climaxed by Edward's abdication in December.

Her attorney, within the next two weeks, will take the necessary legal steps to make the divorce final. Then Mrs. Simpson will be completely free to marry the duke—probably in June, after the coronation fanfare for King George VI has died down.

B. J. Campbell Dies At Home Of Daughter; Funeral Today

Ranks of pioneer residents was thinned one more by the death of Berry Jackson Campbell, 84, at the home of Mrs. Creath Harvey, a daughter with whom he was visiting at Nugent, Texas.

Campbell moved to Big Spring in the autumn of 1905 from Jones county and for the past 32 years had made his home here.

He affiliated with the Church of Christ 35 years ago and had been active in its service since. Outside his church he was known to a host of friends.

Born in Georgia on May 21, 1852, he came to Texas and was married to Nancy Jane Hunt of Hunt county in 1881. To them were born eight children. Four of them, with

Gems Missing From Crash Scene

Search Reveals No Trace Of Diamonds Woman Wore When Killed

NORMAN, Okla., April 26 (AP)—The sheriff's office investigated today the disappearance of several thousand dollars in diamonds from the body of Mrs. Vera Wilson, 48, Dallas, killed six miles south of here yesterday in a car crash.

Mrs. Wilson died when a car in which she was riding with three other persons plunged off a highway on a curve. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White and White Luna, all of Dallas, were brought to the American Legion hospital here. Their injuries were not serious.

Mrs. Wilson's body was brought to an undertaking establishment here, where it was reported two diamond rings and a diamond brooch were missing.

Deputy Sheriff Hamilton Stuthevan said a search of the crash scene failed to unearth the gems.

At Dallas, it was reported later, the diamonds were not found after a search at the home of Mrs. Dilson. Mrs. M. G. Jarreau made the report. Mr. and Mrs. Jarreau, friends of Mrs. Wilson, were to the scene of the crash yesterday and then returned to Dallas.

A wedding ring and an engagement ring worn by Mrs. Wilson were on her person. Another diamond ring and a diamond brooch, valued at $4,000, were reported missing.

Mrs. Jarreau said that the apartment of Mrs. Wilson was searched, with the help of Jane Wilson, 14-year-old daughter of the crash victim, and that the ring and the brooch were not found. Jane Wilson, according to Mrs. Jarreau, said her mother was wearing the missing ring and brooch when she left home.

Odessa Books Games With Trent, Hamlin

BY TOM BRASLEY

THE ODESSA WEST TEXAS-NEW Mexico league team, easy winner over the Coahoma Bulldogs in a Sunday game at Lorraine, will play Trent at Lorraine tomorrow, Hamlin at Lorraine on Thursday, and expect to play games Saturday and Sunday.

LOCAL BAND BELT golfers broke even in their Sunday match at Odessa. The team was weakened somewhat by the absence of Doug Jones, No. 1 man, and the heavy clubing Obie Bristow.

CHARLEY BRYAN, manager of the Odessa team, complains that Monahan is stealing his players. Poor Charley, he should have the boys under contract.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULES of the Texas College of Mines and Texas Tech are sent out early:

DIZ DEAN'S PITCHING ARM STILL BEST IN BASEBALL

ALLOWS CUBS ONLY FOUR HITS

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer The folks may be fed up with Dizzy Dean's wacky words and daffy doings, but it's a safe bet no one in St. Louis is going to mind much as long as the great one keeps fogging 'em in.

With all his eccentric antics, Diz's good right arm is still the most valuable piece of pitching trinket-brace in the business today.

His first time out, Diz just toyed with the Cincinnati Reds and finished all the way on top. Yesterday he was really bearing down against the Cards' dangerous rivals, Chicago's Cubs, but the result was unchanged.

The victory left the Cards with four victories in five starts, just half a game back of Pittsburgh's powerful Pirates, whose game at Cincinnati was rained out.

The Giants, defending the National League pennant, lost a chance to move into the top with Pittsburgh by undergoing their customary disastrous habit of failing to get runs for their pitchers.

The New York Yankees opened fire with all their guns and battered the Cleveland Indians this afternoon with a 13-hit 9-3 win in Boston.

The Texas crew punched four base hits directly over the Couden infield by connecting about six inches from the handle of the bat.

Allen Wiggin, according to Snipe Conley, has more stuff on the ball than any hurler this year.

Brooklyn and the Phillies put on their customary queer assortment of baseball doings, with the daffy Dodgers finishing in front 10-6 in one of the day's two 11-inning games, after being on the short end of a 6-1 count as late as the sixth frame.

PITCHERS FEATURE SUNDAY BATTLES IN TEXAS LEAGUE

Hurling Tells Story In Six Of The Seven Games

Sterling pitching performances featured yesterday's orgy of doubleheaders in the Texas League campaign.

In six of the seven games hurling told the story of the third showing of Jackie Reid of Fort Worth against Oklahoma City standing out.

Only one runner reached second base and that was the result of an error as the Cats took the game 7-0, touching Hemingway and Howell for fourteen hits.

The pros were beaten seven matches to five and halved another in singles play but came back to take four out of six doubles matches and thereby created the deadlock.

Results of the matches, giving amateur players first were: Reynolds Smith, Dallas, defeated Jack Burke, Houston 2-1.

Dallas swept a double-header from Tulsa 11-3 and 4-1. The first game was a parade of pitchers but Ed Moore relieved Curt Fullerton in the seventh and shut out the Oilers the rest of the way.

San Antonio beat Galveston 15-10 in a slugfest, the Missions banging out 22 hits and Galveston 14 as three pitchers toiled for each side.

Texas Keeps S'west Baseball Lead

The Texas Longhorns clung tenaciously to the top rung of the Southwest Conference baseball ladder today as the drive entered the home stretch.

The Longhorns practically removed the dangerous Baylor Bears from the race last week by noosing out the Bruins 1-0 in eleven innings, but a new threat arose as the Texas Aggies took three games to go into second place, only a game behind the Steers.

The Aggies beat Southern Methodist 2-1 and swept two games from Texas Christian 10-4 and 14-7. The leading bow has Texas with seven wins and one loss, the Aggies with six victories and two defeats and Baylor in third place with four wins and three losses.

In other games during the week Southern Methodist pushed Rice further down the ladder by beating the Owls 9-3 and 13-10 while Texas Christian kept out of the cellar by plastering the Owls 13-8.

This week's schedule has Southern Methodist playing Baylor at Waco Tuesday and Wednesday, Texas engaging Rice at Houston Friday and Southern Methodist playing Texas Christian at Fort Worth, Texas tangling with Rice at Houston and the Aggies playing Baylor at Waco Saturday.

Experts were that Bob Finley of Southern Methodist, L. D. Meyer of Texas Christian and Lloyd Russell of Baylor were practically assured of try-outs in the major leagues. The New York Yankees, Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox were reported ready to offer Finley, a catcher, a contract in June.

The field was reduced sharply from the 50 expected entrants but the only star missing was Mrs. Dan Chandler, of Dallas, last year's unsuccessful finalist.

Betty Jameson, school girl defending champion from San Antonio, and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Fort Worth's Curtis cup team member, paced the field and won the galleries' favor.

Added to that, the treacherous 600-yard test allowed a minimum of roll, and strong-armed golfers who depended upon it were out of luck.

Weather, however, appeared to be the only token of friendship nature could offer. Stately pine trees dot the course and make miserable all but the most accurate of fairway artists.

Miss Jameson and a woman who was given the greatest chance to head off her quest for a second straight title, Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Fort Worth, former champion and last year's Curtis cup team member, had their (many) hand. Mrs. Goldthwaite burst in the most brilliant pre-tournament round, fashioning a 78, only five over men's par, while other entrants saw their scores soar into the 90's.

On Her Game "I'm pretty much on my game, however," she added.

Mrs. Goldthwaite protested her 78 was "just lucky", but hinted broadly with "my game has been pretty fair and I hope to do well."

Betty, San Antonio, high school student, had slightly the better advantage because of her familiarity with the course. She has played it often in the past week.

Given a chance to set the favorites back was another 17-year-old miss—Jo Hanson of Paris. In one of her first major tournaments, observers watched her game carefully for possible insight into her golfing future.

Many Players Enter The tournament was strengthened by admission of municipal players into competition. Included in the field today were Mrs. John Parnell, state money queen, and Mrs. E. H. Wohlfahrt, both of Dallas, and Mrs. J. Lee Wilson and Mrs. E. E. Hurst of San Antonio.

Mrs. Dan Chandler, Dallas, former champion and finalist last year, was missing on advice of her physicians. Other gallery favorites were Kay Pearson and Mrs. Ike Handy, Houston; Mrs. Jedd Roe, Mrs. Walter Negley and Mrs. Jack Payman, five times state champion, of San Antonio; Mrs. R. E. Winger, Fort Worth; Miss Helen Warren, Miss Marie Levi, Miss Betty Edwards and Mrs. Syd Hurst, Dallas, and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, El Paso.

WOODYARD ALLOWS ONE HIT

By TOM BRASLEY Charlie Bryan's hustling youngsters redeemed themselves for a loss to the Big Spring Oilers last Saturday by jumping on Berl Cramer's Coahoma Bulldogs in the Lorraine Park Sunday for a 7 to 0 victory.

All the more amazing was the fact that the Odessians allowed only one hit, a single in the sixth by Cramer off Lefty Woodyard, who worked the mound with Keller.

It was the second start of the season for the West Texas-New Mexico leaguers and featured the heavy-swinging Swick, shortstop who had two doubles and a single to show for his day's work at bat.

With two good infielders and a couple of outfielders who can hit, Bryan expects to have the best team in the league.

JAMESON DEFENDING CHAMPION

By WILLIAM T. RIVES TEXARKANA, April 26 (AP)—An overnight invasion of dust, which a strong breeze attempted to blow southeasterly, harassed 65 aspirants to the Texas' women's golf championship today as they teed off in Arkansas on the annual chase.

The prospect of soaring qualifying scores rose menacingly as the wind, which had diminished to nothingness during the night, picked up in velocity hourly to add to the terrors of the long Texarkana country club course, two miles beyond the state line in Arkansas.

The field was reduced sharply from the 50 expected entrants but the only star missing was Mrs. Dan Chandler, of Dallas, last year's unsuccessful finalist.

Reading AND Writing

By John Selby

Anne Leslie's biography of Auguste Rodin is not a "scholarly" work, but it is a readable one. There are considerable gaps which a student would need in fill in some way, but on the other hand one must admit that the picture of Rodin which emerges from Miss Leslie's pages is rich and full.

So be it. The picture is fascinating. Auguste was a peasant, and from the beginning he was a man of few wants, but strong ones. These were chiefly food and drink, work and women. He came to want understanding, too, but this was not always an essential.

Early in his life Auguste met his Marie-Rose Beuret. Rose was a peasant, too, and perhaps for that very reason she fitted into Auguste's life. There was no question of Rodin's being faithful to her—she simply was not. Many of the people who went to Rodin in Paris and at Meudon did not even know that Rose was Rodin's established mistress—and Rose, with her peasant respectability, never recovered from her sense of sin.

Rodin's work was the center of a controversy. Other contemporaries found him. People like Lou Tellegen served him as model, secretary, or whatever. Tellegen studied with him for a while as a youth, posing when needed. Isadore Duncan and Lote Fuller were friends, and Ni-jinsky posed for the then aging sculptor in payment for Rodin's defenses of "L'Après-midi d'un Faune" through the storm in Paris. But Diaghileff broke that arrangement up. Rodin came to great praise and general acceptance—at the height, however, he was capable of amazing jokes, such as the landscapes with female names attached which, when examined, proved to bear concealed in them sketches of the women named in highly provocative attitudes.

So through storm and fulfillment and success to the dreary end in wartime—to the day when the state took over the effects of Rodin, and set him to freeze at Meudon. And so the day when after 50 years, Rose was made respectable. It is rather a charming book, this "Rodin: Immortal Peasant."

Don't Sleep on Left Side, Crowds Heart

GAS PRESSURE MAY CAUSE DISCOMFORT. NIGHT SIDE REST.

If you take in bed and can't sleep on right side, try Adierka. Just ONE dose relieves stomach GAS pressing on heart so you sleep soundly. Adierka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels and brings out foul matter you would never believe was in your system. This old matter may have poisoned you for months and caused GAS, sour stomach, headache or nervousness.

Dr. E. L. Smith, New York, reports "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adierka's freely released bacteria and saline liquid."

Mrs. Joe. Fisher "Gave me my stomach was as bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart seemed to hurt. The first dose of Adierka brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better."

Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adierka and see how good you feel. Just ONE dose relieves GAS and constipation.

CURE FOR SPRING FEVER MAY BE IN THIS MENU

AMES, Ia., April 26 (AP)—"Spring fever" is nothing but a winter hang-over, says Miss Ruth Coombs, Iowa State college nutritionist.

"If you had eaten the right food in winter you wouldn't feel that way," says Miss Coombs. "That tired feeling is due to a lack of iron in the blood and the result of a winter spent 'chained' in an office away from sunshine."

"The right kind of food will do wonders for your ego and your energy."

She suggests the following menu as one means of getting rid of spring fever:

Breakfast: rhubarb, creamed eggs on whole wheat toast, milk or coffee.
Luncheon: mixed green salad, cream of mushroom soup, prune whip.
Dinner: lamb chops, steamed rice in butter, stewed tomatoes, rolls and butter, brown Betty pudding made with molasses.

TEXON OILERS DEFEAT COSDEN

TEXON, April 26—Bunching hits in the early innings, Texon's Oilers defeated the Big Spring Cosden Oilers, 10-2, here Sunday afternoon with Tex Ritter, Hy Haven and Tommy Ped sharing pitching chores.

The Texon crew hopped all over Pug Hagerman in the early innings and tallied four runs in the third to sew up the game. Allen Wiggin finished on the hill for the visitors.

Tommy Hutto and Carmen Brandon led the batting attack of the Big Spring team with two bingles each, collecting half of the visitors' hits. Hutto had a double and a single and Brandon a triple and one base blow.

Mrs. W. E. Hornbarger received a message Sunday stating that her nephew, Chris Wise, was drowned in Houston some time Sunday afternoon. Details of the accident were not given. Mrs. Hornbarger left on the noon train Monday for Tulsa, Okla., where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Eberley, accompanied by their niece, Miss Louise Arnold of Birmingham, Ala., left Monday morning for Fort Worth, where they will attend the races at Arlington Downs. They will leave Wednesday for Birmingham, where Mr. and Mrs. Eberley will visit for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hooser, Sr. and children, H. C. Jr. and Ethel, visited Hartman Hooser in San Angelo Sunday. He is a student in San Angelo Junior college.

Crocheted Vestee

Crochet yourself a lacy vestee like this one and you'll have a garment that you'll be proud to call your own handiwork. It is an original French creation. It's just the sort of thing to wear over a tailored blouse, or as a separate waist. The directions are written for sizes 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40, and include complete stitch by stitch instructions for each of these sizes. You also receive two tissue patterns cut to your individual size, one a pink tissue "working pattern" to guide you as you work, and the other of tan tissues for blocking the pieces to an exact fit for you.

Style Show And Class Play Nets Stanton Juniors $60 For Banquet

STANTON, April 26 (Sp)—Juniors of the Stanton high school and students of the home economics department co-operated in offering the public an evening of entertainment at the school auditorium Friday, staging "Salt Water Taffy," a three-act comedy, and a style show.

Proceeds of the evening, about $60, will go toward expense of the Junior-Senior banquet scheduled for May 7.

Maxine Sprawls won first place among first year clothing students for her wash dress, while Flora Williamson ranked first in second year work, modeling a tailored suit.

Twenty-seven girls took part in the contest, first year students showing wash dresses and second year girls tailored suits and children's clothes.

Out-of-town judges for the show were Miss Vada Crawley, head of the home economics department in Midland high school, and Miss Frances Reast, also a Midland teacher.

Winners will receive a trip to the State Homecoming Rally at Fort Worth, April 28 to May 1. Several other students will also make the trip, according to Mrs. Grace Loveless Jones, instructor.

An unique feature of the contest was the entering in the show of a dress made by W. H. Fulker, son, only boy in the home economics department, and modeled by his sister, Dorothy Fulker.

The Lynds' Ride Bicycles When They're Not Writing Together

Helen Lynd writing with some one else.

Ed. Note: Instead of choosing between marriage and a career, many a topographer in American professions and business has teamed up with husband or wife. In a series of articles, of which this is the first, Sigrid Arne, AP Feature Service writer, tells how some of them have done it.

By SIGRID ARNE
AP Feature Service Writer
NEW YORK — "The Lynds" think they are fortunate because they are known as "The Lynds." They like it that way.

Conventionally speaking, they're Prof. Robert Lynd of the sociology division in Columbia's graduate school and Prof. Helen Lynd, sociology lecturer at Sarah Lawrence college for women.

They took a flying leap together to the top of the ladder in their profession when they wrote "Midwesttown," a study of a typical American city. They spent a year and a half in Muncie, Ind., doing research for the book, and now they're publishing a second on the subject.

It's Soul Shattering
They tell about it this way, between chuckles:
He: "Writing a book with some one you're married to is a soul-shattering ordeal. It's really friendly 'cat and dog'ing."
She: "We divided the work to be done in sections, wrote separately, and then edited together."
He: "We made a deal that neither could throw away the other's work without warning."

She: "And when we finished, we both needed a good write to bring in the carpet slippers."
They are as frank as children about their experience with marriage and work. Marriage is one of the sociological problems they teach. So they accepted a stiff challenge to their theories about 15 years ago when they said, "I do."

Hiking Was Their Cupid
Lynd was just out of Princeton; Mrs. Lynd had finished Wellesley. He was hiking down Mount Washington in the White mountains, when he met a man with two girls. They stopped to chat.

Lynd thought: "Nice. They like to hike." When one of the girls mentioned Thorstein Veblen, the economist, Lynd was intrigued. He continued down the mountain, and the other party went up—without introductions. Two days later Lynd puffed up the mountain again to see if the girl had signed the guest book at the top. She had. He wrote her.

And where did they spend their honeymoon? Hiking up Mount Washington, talking about Veblen, et al.

They still hike on Sundays. Their boy, Stoughton, goes along, but little Andrea, the three-year-old daughter, participates only in the Lynds' daily before-breakfast ride in Central park. That's something. The whole family goes on bicycles, with Andrea in a basket strapped to father's handle-bars. The cops no longer look astonished.

Like a Family Affair
The Lynds try to do everything as a family.

After dinner, their "priceless" Irish housekeeper puts the young Lynds to bed, and the elder Lynd dig into books. They can actually work in the same room, "because," as Mr. Lynd says, "Helen isn't the kind that chatters."

They think the life they're working out together is intrinsically more important than any they could have achieved alone. Evenings are the critical periods for married workers, they find. After fatiguing days they're likely to come home with different moods. Then comes intelligent compromise. The one who wants to go out must stay home gladly if the other is tired. The one who wants to read must grin if the other brings a guest. And so on.

But the Lynds laugh over the friend who groaned at their wedding: "They each needed an anchor and they both got a sail."

Tomorrow: Helen Lynd and Charlie MacArthur.

Mrs. Jim Tom Named President Of Study Club At Stanton

STANTON, April 26 — Officers for the next club year were elected by the Stanton Study club at a meeting with Mrs. James Jones recently. Mrs. Jim Tom was named president, Mrs. Dale Kelly, vice-president, Mrs. James Jones, treasurer, Mrs. H. D. Haley recording secretary, Mrs. J. E. Kelly corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Riggs Shepherd critic. They will be installed with the opening of the club season next fall.

The club voted to study new books and plays for another year. Plans were made for the annual picnic for club members and their husbands which will be held on the courthouse lawn next Thursday.

Mrs. Ode Haselwood reviewed "Spring Storm" and Mrs. Jim Tom spoke on the life of the author as the regular program for the afternoon.

Seventeen club members attended.

Morgan Halls Entertain For Club At Stanton

ACROSS THE Atlantic Ocean FOR TWO CENTS

NOW that "the Hounds of Spring are on Winter's traces," a brand-new set of fashions for women and for men begins to emanate from those birthplaces of style, the Rue de la Paix and Bond Street. Just how far are you from those emporiums of vogue?

Wait! Don't let this question depress you. Don't think of the answer in purely geographical terms. You are by no means so far away as you might imagine. Like a long-range telescope, the advertisements in this newspaper bring the scene in Paris and in London across the ocean.

The final and visible stage of this modern "television" is the advertising in these pages. Advertisements will give you the tip on the latest modes, they will direct you to the most alert establishments and they will attract you by the high quality and equable prices offered. HAROLD OSBORN'S 15-YEAR OLD RECORD STANDS DES MOINES, Iowa, April 26 (AP)-The country's crack high jumpers had better reach an understanding with the Iowa weatherman if they ever hope to break Harold Osborn's 15-year old D-rake relay record. Osborn, Illinois star of the post-war decade, leaped 6 feet, 6 inches in 1922. Rain, wind and near-freezing temperatures came to the rescue of Osborn's record again Saturday in the 25th presentation of the Mid-west's relay classic. Jumping in the rain Mel Walker of Ohio State won with 6 feet, 3 3/8 inches. Jack Vickery of Texas and Dale Shannon of Kansas cleared 6 feet. Rice Institute claimed two team championships, winning the 440-yard relay in 42.8 seconds, and the half mile event in 1:30.8. Alton Terry of Hardin-Simmons College, Texas, repeated in the javelin with a toss of 218.09 feet.
