Accidental Poisoning Fatal To Midland Child Today

STRYCHNINE TAKEN BY BABY

Small Son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lundie Is Victim

The tragic death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lundie occurred today when the little fellow in some way got hold of some strychnine, taking a part of it in his mouth. His death occurred an hour and fifteen minutes later.

The baby was William Henry, and he would have been a year old on August 8, next. He had been in fine health, and his accidental poisoning came as a decided shock to his parents and to friends and relatives of the family.

No funeral arrangements had been made at press time, but it was stated at the Ellis Funeral Home, where the body is reposing, that the services will probably be held Saturday.

TESTIMONY TENDS TO PROVE SANITY OF HARRY LEAHY

GEORGETOWN, July 26.—(UP)—Two state witnesses and one defense witness testified today in the sanity hearing of Harry J. Leahy, condemned to death for the murder of Dr. Ramsey, Mathis physician.

James A. Harley of San Antonio, defense witness, testified that he thought Leahy was mentally off and didn't realize the enormity of his crime.

State witnesses were Lee Whaley of Georgetown and Sheriff Lowe of Williamson County, both of whom said they thought Leahy was sane.

Whaley received a number of letters from Leahy while the latter was confined at Huntsville awaiting electrocution which he said showed Leahy to be sane when he wrote them.

Boys, Here Is An Ideal Proposition

Rev. Stanley Haver and five Midland boys will leave early Sunday morning to attend the West Texas Conference Camp for boys, to be held at Kerrville, July 30 to August 9.

The camp will offer coaching in athletics, expert instruction in scouting, and a program of character and religious instruction. Coach George Edens of the Southwestern Pirates will direct the athletics.

The encampment grounds are located on the Guadalupe river with a fine stretch of river front, and have every sort of recreational equipment.

The program includes a number of attractive hikes in various parts of the Hill country.

Rev. Haver has been made general director of this camp and state that it has been possible to enlist an unusually fine corps of coaches and instructors for this camp.

BULLET-LIKE PLANE READY TO SHOOT ACROSS PACIFIC

These pictures show Lieutenant Harold Bromley and the special low-wing, bullet-like plane he will use in his attempted non-stop flight from Tacoma, Wash., to Tokyo, Japan. He will use the northern route, following the line of flight pictured in the map here. The cruising speed of the plane is 150 miles an hour. He hopes to make the 4762-mile trip in 35 hours.

Russian-Chinese Relations Assume Menacing Aspect

MOSCOW, July 26. (AP)—Relations between Russia and China today resumed a menacing aspect in the Russian capital.

Military and naval units and labor organizations throughout the country demanded that the government take immediate and specific action to protect the life and liberty of Russian citizens stranded along the zone of the Chinese Eastern railway.

Reacting to reports of alleged atrocities, in which Russian citizens in Manchuria were victims, thousands of soldiers, sailors and workmen adopted mass resolutions for speedy reprisals.

"The moment has come when we must speak out in a different language and take special measures," the resolution said.

Story Hour Led By Mrs. Don Davis

Regular story telling hour at the county-city library Saturday morning at 10:30 will be conducted by Mrs. Don Carlos Davis, Librarian.

Mrs. Davis is known to Midland people for her work in "The Brat," three-act comedy presented recently by The Midland Players, dramatic organization. She played the leading part in this production.

She formerly had done lyceum work, and has conducted children's work in public schools of Texas and Oklahoma.

Story telling hour at the library is held each Saturday. Only small children make up the class.

Moonlight Flights To Be Next at Port

Regular altitude flights will be made at Sloan Field Sunday morning, as well as passenger rides at over levels. There will be two free rides given as a result of drawings at 4 and 6 o'clock.

Field-Manager Becherer says he will initiate moonlight flights at the port in the next full of the moon. He says this is getting to be, along with altitude flights, the most popular form of aeronautic sport.

CONSTABLE DROPPED DEAD

THORNTON, Tex., July 26.—(UP)—Funeral services are to be held at Groesbeck today for T. E. Nichols, 66, constable of Thornton, who dropped dead on the railroad tracks at Groesbeck yesterday while searching a train for a negro.

C. C. TO PLAY PART IN RATE HEARING SOON

Testimony of Midland business men, representing consumers and shippers of Midland, in the petition of the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. to remove Midland from common point territory will be heard at El Paso September 30.

The Midland chamber of commerce will prepare data to be used in the hearing. It is likely that at least three witnesses for Midland will appear in the case. The three suggested are George D. McCormick, Leon Goodman and the secretary of the Midland chamber.

The testimony at El Paso will be purely commercial, so far as the Midland witnesses are concerned. Technical matters will be handled by lawyers and rate witnesses.

Midland now enjoys common point privileges. The Texas & Pacific is seeking to put Midland back in differential territory, making Big Spring the limit of common point territory. The Midland Chamber of Commerce will be represented by a traffic expert in the hearing.

Removal of Midland's present common point rights will mean an additional cost of thousands of dollars to Midland consumers, and will interfere with the expansion of Midland as a wholesale center.

ONE KILLED AS CROWDS WATCH EXIT OF POPE

VATICAN CITY, July 26.—(UP)—One fatality marked the emergence of the Pope from Vatican City last night when more than 200,000 persons gathered at St. Peter's square to witness the great ecclesiastical procession.

Romolo Pilo Russe, 44 year old cab driver, fell before the procession and died later.

Now that the Pope has made his formal exit from seclusion in the Vatican, he is expected at any time to leave the Vatican and in reality to visit some other part of Italy.

Dick Knox Has Strange Visitors

When Dick Knox, scout for the Atlantic Oil Producing company, awakened to find car lights shining through his window as a car slowly went past the place where he lives, he did not readily go to sleep again.

He noticed that what appeared to be the same car make a circuit of the block again and again, the lights from it always lighting up the yard beside his window.

Knox began watching for the car. Soon he saw the machine cut across the yard to where his own car was parked, and two men got out and began looking over his car.

Knox had a gun, but was afraid to use it since answering shots might injure his wife and baby who were in the room.

Knox hailed the men and asked what they wanted, and the two leaped into their car and drove away.

Call Meeting of Eastern Star

A call meeting of the Order of Eastern Star has been announced for Monday night, and all members and visitors are asked to be present at the usual meeting place. The meeting will see initiation of new officers of the order.

Rituals must be changed, the secretary, Mrs. Neal Staton, said today, and a credit of 75 cents will be given on the new rituals if the old ones are turned to the secretary by Monday night.

There are now 82 members of the Eastern Star in the Midland chapter. Miss Theresa Klapproth is worthy matron, District Judge Charles L. Klapproth is worthy patron, and Mrs. Neal Staton is secretary of the order.

Regular meeting date is the second Tuesday of each month.

Gee Exhibits Well Filled Cotton Here

Full fruited cotton stalks from the farm of S. G. Gee, Midland county farmer, are exhibited at the chamber of commerce today. Gee is farming the O. P. Buchanan place, and has 120 acres like that shown. Within a few days there will be 120 additional acres covered by just as good cotton, Gee says.

"Human Fly" Who Will Climb Hogan Building Tells of Close Escape

UNAFRAID OF FALL

"A fall from the 12-story Petroleum building does not excite me," Henry D. D. Roland, "human fly" who will attempt to scale the walls of the structure at 3:30 Saturday afternoon and climb back down at 7:30, said this morning.

Roland, who does almost anything from dizzy heights that anyone else would do on the ground, climbed the 42-story L. C. Smith building at Seattle, and does not worry about 12 stories. It took the daredevil just nine minutes short of two hours to make this climb.

Those who gather to see Roland's attempt on the sides of the Petroleum building will see a man who has climbed in 36 states, over a period of 14 years. The tallest building he has climbed in Texas is the 31-story Esperson structure at Houston. In number of climbs, the man has to his credit 1,503.

Roland has had one bad fall during his climbing career. Of a family of wire walkers and acrobats, the man has grown up in the art of taking risks. It was at Bloomfield, Iowa, where the accident occurred that put the daring scaler in a hospital for more than one year.

He had scaled the sides of a courthouse, three stories high. After getting to the point where he could reach up and grasp the cornice of the building, a frightened pigeon flew out of the roof, striking Roland and sending him heading to the concrete below.

Roland had one experience he seldom mentions. He was at a South Carolina town one afternoon, climbing an old federal building. Cast blocks made a slow, perilous ascent, drawing himself hand and foot nearer the cornice. There he found a most peculiar formation of rock structure. Sulphur gas from a refinery had started chemical reaction with the stone, causing it to crumble. Every place caught by the climber threatened to give way and cause him to hurtle downward to a sharp picket fence directly in line with the path of a falling body.

He began to tire. A roll of rope on his back made his position more of a strain. In desperation, the man made a grab for the last piece of rock which might afford him a protective hold—and his feet slipped! He was left dangling by one hand. When he thought he would have to turn loose and fall seventy feet, he noticed where one piece of tin overlapped another. He caught this and held on until he could draw his body over the edge of the roof.

Roland expects a large crowd to gather for his two performances Saturday. He will do daredevil stunts on the roof of the building after he has climbed it. He will carry 25 Reporter-Telegrams up the sides of the building, and will balance himself on the edge of the roof in a chair, and will read the papers.

Midland Mayor Expected Back Tuesday Night

Mayor Leon Goodman will return to Midland Tuesday night after spending several weeks in Des Moines, Chicago and Terre Haute, where he was called because of the illness of his father. The date of his return was received this morning by Aubrey J. Legg and Geo. D. McCormick, who, representing the chamber of commerce, wired Mayor Goodman asking him to aid them in the project of securing a federal building here through agency of interviews with prominent postal officials in the north.

Hoover Postpones Ship Construction

WASHINGTON, July 26.—(AP)—Under President Hoover's interpretation of the fifteen day cruiser law, he is empowered to hold up construction of any vessels authorized by that measure until June 30, 1931, it was announced by the White House today.

The White House took occasion to point this out as result of a discussion as to the president's authority to postpone construction of cruisers.

Negro Electrocuted At Huntsville Today

HUNTSVILLE, July 26.—(UP)—Last minute efforts to obtain clemency having failed, Willie Grady, 20-year old negro, was electrocuted at the state penitentiary here today for an attack on Mrs. Vida Roberts of Greenville last October.

Grady protested innocence to the last. He was pronounced dead at 12:29 this morning.

FARMERS CALLED TO DISCUSS PAY UNDER WORM BILL

Farmers of Midland County are called by the pink boll worm committee composed of W. C. Campbell and Pat P. Barber to meet at the courthouse Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss the pink boll worm remuneration bill.

The Midland Chamber of Commerce will send a wire to Governor Dan Moody in behalf of the farming, urging passage of the bill. The chamber earlier in the week wired the governor urging that the bill be signed. Mr. Campbell said today that the meeting would only last 30 minutes, and urged every farmer in the county who raises cotton to attend.

Two negroes are being watched for by Midland county officers, following trouble in Odessa last night. Sheriff Webb, Marshal Jones and a deputy thought the two negroes had stolen the car they were driving, and proceeded to try stopping them.

It took shots from the gun of Webb, which took effect in the tires of the negro car, to stop the fugitives, who leaped out and took to the brush alongside the road.

No sign has been seen of the negroes since.

Return from Meet Of District League

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Haver and Ray Gwyn returned yesterday from a seven-day attendance upon the Epworth League assembly at Kerrville. They reported that a great assembly was had in which over four hundred young people of the Methodist church took part.

Rev. Haver is president of the league board of the West Texas conference and for several years has had charge of the recreational features of the yearly assembly at Kerrville.

A special feature of the assembly this year was the presence of Rev. E. O. Harbin, one of the foremost directors of religious recreation in this country and author of "Phunology," the largest seller in its class to date.

Ray Gwyn was re-elected secretary for the San Angelo district which includes fourteen counties in this section. The young people's organization employs a field secretary with an office that administers over $9000 each year and they have established a dormitory for girls on the assembly grounds that houses 250 persons for the assembly.

The organization comprises a membership of over 6,000 with 300 chapters in the local churches of West Texas.

REDUCING THE HORSE POPULATION

Only a few days ago, an editorial appeared in this column relative to the rapid decrease in the horse population in Texas and in the United States.

Now comes a story through the United Press of the greatest "horse swim" ever staged in the state of Montana, where 3,000 head of range horses will be moved across the Missouri River, preparatory to being loaded into freight cars and shipped to a packing plant.

The story says that with the removal of these 3,000 horses, the sight of the range cayuse will soon be rare.

The range horse is probably a menace to the Montana ranch country, just as the wild horses of New Mexico are; but at the same time, it is lamentable to see horses driven by the thousands to packing plants and soap factories.

The only solution to the rapid decrease in the horse population is to breed better and better horses.

THIN ADVICE FROM JANET GAYNOR!

arms, necks and legs give them cause for worry. Often, underweight is caused by too strenuous reducing, but whatever its cause, it is far more serious than overweight.

"Many girls, in attempting to solve the problem of reducing, lose flesh and vitality so quickly they become susceptible to disease," Janet Gaynor says. "Fainter, underweight makes one moody, despondent and unduly sensitive."

"If you are a great deal below normal weight, it would be best to consult a physician for a complete examination."

To Regain Weight

"For one slightly underweight, a few simple health rules followed regularly should bring one back to normal in a short time. The diet should consist of fruit, vegetables and other foods easy of digestion. Avoid cakes, pies, candies and heavy desserts. Instead, use stewed fruits, custards, tapioca and fruit puddings."

"Two extra light meals in the morning and afternoon, consisting of milk and graham crackers, are excellent. Walking, dancing, and other exercises to develop the muscles will make one gain, if they are not carried out too rigorously."

"Sleep is the final admonition. Sleep nine or ten hours each night if possible and also take naps in the afternoons."

MIDLAND IS TIED FOR THIRD PLACE AS COLTS BEAT COLEMAN, 6-5

BALLINGER HOLDS DOWN THE ROOST; CATS IN CELLAR

Bunched hits in the first and third innings gave Midland a lead over Coleman that was never bested in yesterday's game, and the Ponies went into a tie with Big Spring for third place in league standings. The score was 6-5.

At the same time, Ballinger won its eighth game in nine starts and took the roost in the percentage column. Coleman, despite being a thorn in the sides of the Equines for two consecutive days, is at the bottom of the heap.

Big Spring, constantly watching the wind direction in order to see if the omens tell the city to change managers, played their first game under a new leader yesterday, beating out Abilene, 7-6.

Abilene comes to Midland today for a series.

The box score:

TABLES TURN AFTER 15 YEARS TROUBLES

"Sargon turned the tables for me after I had tried for 15 years to get well of stomach trouble. Now I am gaining every day. I went from 119 to 130 pounds, a gain of 11 pounds in three weeks on just three bottles. That's pretty good for a man 62 years old.

"I suffered day and night for almost 15 years and spent many hard earned dollars for medicines, but none of them reached my case until I got Sargon. I felt weak and sick from morning until night. I would just drag myself around but now I feel years younger and can keep going all day. I eat anything I want and have no trace of stomach trouble, headaches or dizzy spells any more.

"The Sargon Soft Mass Pills straightened out my liver and I no longer suffer from biliousness and constipation. It sure is great to be feeling like my old self again and I will always praise the Sargon treatment. There never was any medicine equal to it."

A "Chamber of Death" test is your guarantee of FLY-TOX efficiency. The FLY-TOX "Chamber of Death" is a small room in which live healthy insects are turned loose. They are strong and lively. As they fly and buzz around inside the "Chamber of Death," FLY-TOX is sprayed inside. Less than a teaspoonful is used. Almost at once the buzzing stops. Within five minutes all is still. The insects are dead. This test shows you how quick and positive FLY-TOX works. Just what you need for those pesky flies and mosquitoes that bother you now. FLY-TOX is positively harmless to people. It has a delightful perfume-like fragrance that pervades a room like delicate incense. It is stainless. FLY-TOX was developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. Every bottle guaranteed. —Adv.

arrangement, Halliburton stated. The buses to be used on the line will be built to order at a cost of approximately $40,000 each and will have sleeping accommodations for 14 passengers. They will be cooled by refrigerated air in the summer and will be steam heated in the winter.

Everything Modern
 Every accommodation and comfort of train travel will be provided, while the bus-airplane schedule will have the added advantage of being more elastic than a rail-plane hookup, Halliburton declared.

Nine trunk line railroads into St. Louis will feed the bus-airline, he said.

At St. Louis, the S. A. F. plane will be boarded by the passengers. El Paso will be reached before dinner and passengers after the evening meal will transfer to the "pullman" bus which will put them in Tucson, Ariz., for breakfast the following morning. At Tucson they will again board a plane, arriving in Los Angeles at 10 o'clock of the same morning. Radio communication will be maintained between buses and planes of the line at all times.

BEAUTY CHOUX OF 100 IN VITAPHONE'S FIRST COLOR-FILM

"On With the Show," the first 100 percent natural color, talking picture, a Warner Bros. Vitaphone production—coming to the Ritz Theatre soon is the most lavish and colorful picture of the season. The new color process that was used brings out costumes, settings and players in their natural tints. It is the first all-talking all-color picture to be filmed, thus marking another milestone of film progress, just as the advent of Vitaphone pioneered by Warner Bros., wrought a great change in the film industry.

Betty Compson, Arthur Lake, Sally O'Neil, Joe E. Brown, Louise Fazenda, Ethel Waters, William Bakewell, the Fairbanks Twins, Sam Hardy, Lee Moran, Wheeler Oakman and many other notables are in the cast as well as a dazzling beauty chorus of 100.

The story was adapted for the screen by Robert Lord from the story by Humphrey Pearson. Harry Akst and Grant Clarke did words and music; Larry Ceballos arranged dances and stage presentations and direction was in the capable hands of Alan Crosland.
