Colts Buried, 21-8, Under Cowboy Hits

"BLACKIE" ADAMS LEADS TEAM WITH THREE HOME RUNS

Despite a procession of pitchers, Midland could not stem the tide of basehits and home runs of the Big Spring team today, and to funeral music played by the Abilene Black Dots, the club fell before a 21-8 onslaught.

Blackie Adams, Colt of last year (and we wish he were here this), hit three home runs and collected enough additional hits to boost his total hits in two days to nine out of eleven official times at bat. Sain also hit a homer.

Rally In Sixth Falls Short In the sixth it seemed that Midland was a resusicated aggregation of ball players. The bunch got on the proverbial toes, and chased in six runs. But an additional shower from the Big Spring bats cast a pall over hopes of win-
