OUR TROPICAL CHILDREN

Midland Reporter-Telegram: The present Congress is going to have some knotty problems to solve in connection with the new tariff changes. It will have plenty of chances to make blunders. Chief among these chances is that presented by the proposal to lay a heavy import tax on sugar from the Philippines.

State Press, in Dallas News: The Philippines nestle more or less contentedly under our flag. Therefore they are entitled to whatever the flag vouchsafes to the rest of us. But our beet sugar growers and the lesser number of cane sugar growers, are unhappy over the fact that Philippine sugar has free entry at our ports.

Prohibition In Mexico To Be Gradual Gil Says

MEXICO CITY, May 20.—(UP)—Prohibition in Mexico will be instituted gradually and "in a prudent manner," President Emilio Portes Gil assured the public in his first statement on the methods he will use to make Mexico dry.

Since first announcing he would begin a campaign against alcohol in Mexico, Portes Gil has insisted he was opposed to repressive measures. The proposals now before the public outline a steadily tightening anti-wet drive, accompanied by intensive dispensation of information in every available field.

The success of the drive will depend largely on the attitude of the next administration, since Gil's term of office ends February 5, 1930.

Portes Gil said a national committee will direct the movement, assisted by sub-committees of various state departments including the national health sections. Civilians and technicians will be included in the national committee's membership.

In its first form, the drive will advanced 50 cents to 75 cents per box, while potatoes, beets, carrots, lettuce recovered most of the March loss. On the other hand, onions declined $1 per 100 pound sack and string beans decreased 50 cents per hamper.

If all the barbed wire were taken out of West Texas the whole country would go hay wire.

It must have been in the Saturday Evening Post that a story was told of a farmer who made a lot of money out of his farm. It wasn't beginners luck; he just sold the place to the nearest town for an airport.

Pyle's Bunion Derby reached Midland Sunday afternoon. There are 25 or 26 fellows running across the continent. Come to think about it, that's a good way to get from the east to the west side of the continent. You don't have to pay for a ride, and if you win the race you get about $25,000. If you pay for your ride you don't even get a chance at a fat prize when you reach your destination.

One runner evidently lost his shirt, if it can be called a shirt, before he reached Midland. Another runner, after reaching here among the first, is said to have taken a shirt and run half way back to Stanton to meet the fellow who was so thinly clad, then the good Samaritan trotted back alongside of him. A little extra road work, however, is good for the boys.

Earlier in the season Midland had the opportunity to put up $1,000 premium to get the derby to spend the night here, but passed up the chance. However, Midland was made a night stop anyway.

And then there was the Scotchman who, when the steam roller was about to run over him, lay on his side so it wouldn't take the creases out of his trousers.

BOSTON U. GIRLS FOUND OF INTROVERT PSYCHOLOGY

BOSTON, May 20.—(UP)—Boston University's girl students are "introverts and brooders" who can turn their minds upon themselves for introspection, while the men students are extroverts, who look upon the world as something to be observed. This is the conclusion reached by Dr. Wayland F. Vaughan, of the school's psychology department, following a series of student tests. He reported that 65 per cent of the girls were "introverts."

PERFECT GIANTS PERFECT FLOP; M'GRAW WONDERS WHY

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, May 20.—(UP)—The strange case of the New York Giants is baffling the baseball world. Most of the national league managers and leading players agree that the Giants have one of the most flawless clubs in the league, but they were in a low position today.

Hunting for the flaw is like hunting for a needle in the haystack. The Giants have had no serious misfortunes to handicap them. Andy Reese and Andy Cohen were put out of the lineup with injuries at the same time and Tel Ott had to be brought in from right field to play second base in one game, but Reese is back in the game.

You must look farther than injuries to discover the Giant's ailment. John McGraw's absence from the team because of sinus trouble may have played its part, but the Giants have been without McGraw before and still have been able to win games. McGraw still has two capable assistants in Ray Shaik and Bert Niehoff, smart, veteran players who themselves have piloted ball clubs.

McGraw refuses to believe that the Giants are not pennant contenders. He sticks to his theory that they will throw off their slump almost any day now.

"I'd be foolish to say that the Giants don't have me worried," he said. "I don't know what's wrong with them. If I did I would correct it. This team reminds me somehow of my 1916 team when we lost 11 out of our first 13 games, but later won seventeen straight and were in second place June 1. Still later we set a record which has never been equaled by winning 26 straight games. When we do get going, we are going to be as hard to stop as we were to start."

19 Longhorns Get Letters

(By Bob Cantrell)
Austin, Texas, May 20.—Nineteen members of the 1929 Texas track squad, runners-up in the conference meet at Dallas Saturday have been awarded letters by the Athletic Council. Of the nineteen letters awarded, only three were to men who have finished their three years of eligibility, giving Texas sixteen lettermen around which to build the 1930 team. The past season saw the Texas thin clads drop two dual meets to the Texas Aggies, winners of the conference meet, take a dual meet from the Owls, a triangular meet from the Ponies and Bears, win a five-cornered meet in Austin and place in the Kansas, Illinois and Drake relays. Their performances in the Texas and S. M. U. relays were better than the average conference schools.

The men receiving letters were: Captain Leo Baldwin of Austin, Curtis Beatty of Wichita Falls, Scott Wilkey of El Paso, Frank Griffin of Austin, George Marsh of Harlingen, Milton Perkins of Bastrop, John Craig of San Antonio, Walter Howe of El Paso, Fred Sandberg of Texas City, Frank Barton of Amarillo, Cecil Cole of Ranger, M. L. Daniels of Cleburne, Perry Harris of Cleburne, Frank Mondrik of Cameron, Alfred Rose of Dallas, John Terrel of Fort Worth, W. C. Westerfeldt of Cisco, Fred Wright of Gonzales and J. Joe Wheeler of Texarkana, student manager.

Austin, El Paso and Cleburne each contributed two lettermen to the 1929 squad. The other thirteen members of the squad were from the smaller cities of the State, with Dallas and Fort Worth supplying one each.

No reserve letters were given at the Monday night meeting, but these may be given later in the spring. Records of several of the other members of the squad are to be checked for possibilities of making reserve letters.

WAY MANAGER INTERNATIONAL OIL EXPOSITION

TULSA, Okla., May 20.—William B. Way, well known in all line of the oil industry, will be the general manager for the 1929 International Petroleum Exposition. It was announced by President W. G. Skelly. He will take charge June 1. The exposition this year will be Oct. 5 to 12.

Way was formerly secretary of the Natural Gas Association of America and he was at one time secretary of the supply men's association. He was brought up in the oil business and was early in life a supply dealer. His present home is in Pittsburgh.

The work of preparation for the sixth exposition and the sixth International Petroleum congress is well advanced. The greater part of the exhibit space is engaged and the exposition board is making plans for the buildings made requisite by increase of the exhibits and general features. The exhibits are coned to the oil industry and there are no amusement features of a large sort. One new building and possibly some extensions are to be put up. The largest building to be put up will be partly for an auditorium and partly for the scientific and historic exhibits.

Louis Emery, Jr., of Bradford, Pa., has consented to another trip here for the original Drake tools. They have been at several expositions. These tools were used in Pennsylvania in 1859. There are several other sets of tools and other relics of the industry in sight. They contrast vividly against the massive modern implements. The Exposition owns a replica of the original Drake drilling shed.

The new manager will have charge of the "Old-timers" events. The "Grand Old Man" of the industry, king and official host for the year, will be selected. The veterans are given many special honors. Some of them date back to the first years of the industry.

Main lines of activity to be taken up when the new manager comes in June are arranging of railroad rates and special train; completion of the big safety events; veteran of the industry and their events; aviation in connection with the exposition; completion of buildings and facilities; handling of foreign delegations; programs for the exposition and congress; schedule of conventions and meetings in connection with the exposition.

Gay, Rich Wife Enters Mystery

Investigators into the baffling mystery of the death of Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student of Windsor, Conn., are concentrating their efforts toward finding Dorothy Gay, former Follies beauty and wife of Robert Fullerton of Stamford, Conn., rich bibliophile and antiquarian. They are believed off on hunt for colonial antiques and are expected to return shortly. The police emphasize the fact that they do not involve Mrs. Fullerton or her husband, but believe the wife can tell them something of young Huntington's activities at Harvard which may shed light on his mysterious death.

Conditions Good For Livestock In Texas During April

AUSTIN, Texas, May 20.—Weather conditions during the greater part of April were favorable to the livestock industry, according to Bernard Nichols, editor of the Texas Business Review, issued monthly by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

"While actual losses during the winter were small, animals in most cases were thin and pastures were rather poor," Mr. Nichols said. "Higher temperatures, coupled with widespread rains beginning in March, have put ranges and pastures in excellent condition in most parts of the State. As a result, cattle, sheep and goats have put on flesh unusually fast over the past six weeks and the movement to market of grass-fat animals is likely to begin about on schedule. As a matter of fact, the heavy receipts at Fort Worth during the latter part of April and the first part of May indicate that shipments are already on the increase. With the exception of a rather weak wool market, prices for most classes of livestock and livestock products continued strong. An important development during the month is the gain in hog prices and the decline in corn prices resulting in a ratio favorable to feeders.

"Pastures and ranges are good to excellent in most sections of the State. The condition of cattle ranges on May 1, according to the United States Department of Agriculture, was 90 per cent of normal, compared to 85 per cent a month earlier and a five-year average of 85 per cent. Soil moisture is ample to insure an abundance of green feed for the next month or six weeks at least and water tanks are full. Cattle were placed at 88 per cent, up 5 points from last month and 6 points above May 1 last year. The calf crop is reported to be above normal and losses have been small so far. There has been considerable contracting of calves for fall delivery at about $36 per head, a price somewhat above that of last year at this time. Range trading in heifers and steers is also very active at advancing prices.

"Hoop were placed at 90 per cent of normal on May 1 and goats were rated at 93 per cent compared to 86 per cent in both cases on April 1. The lamb and kid crops are larger this year than last and the young animals are growing rapidly. Losses have been very small to date. Sheep shearing is nearing completion. Most of the mohair clip has been sold at prices from 53 cents for mature hair and 62 to 65 cents for kid hair. The situation in wool is quite different. Growers are becoming concerned by the failure of buyers to make advance contracts as they have done in past years. However, since May 1, more activity has been shown and about 5,000,000 pounds have been sold. Prices are more than 5 cents a pound under last year's bids.

"The poultry industry experienced a fairly good month. Egg prices advanced 1 cent per dozen in line with seasonal influences, but the downward trend is expected to continue later. Movement into cold storage is increasing. Markets for both eggs and dressed poultry have been well sustained over the month. Receipts of dressed poultry at leading markets are gaining, but cold storage holdings are lighter than last year.

"Shipments of all classes of animals show large gains over both those of March and April last year. Receipts at Fort Worth, according to the Fort Worth Stock Yards company, totaled 265,668 head, compared to 198,831 head in April, 1928, of a gain of 33.6 per cent. Cattle gained 39.8 per cent, calves 24 per cent, hogs 22.5 per cent, and sheep 36.9 per cent. In this connection, it is interesting to note that in the first four months there is a gain of 4.3 per cent, compared to the same period of last year, whereas there was a decrease in the first quarter. Furthermore, shipments in the first part of May continued heavy.

"Prices for cattle and calves were higher, while sheep and hog quotations worked to lower levels due partly to seasonal factors and partly to heavy runs. Prime beef steers on the Fort Worth market for the week ending May 11 went mostly at 12 3-4 cents to 13 1-4 cents, compared to 11 1-4 cents to 12 1-4 cents a month earlier, and best calves were bringing 13 cents to 14 cents, a gain of 1 cent for the month. Handy weight hogs sold around 10 3-4 cents, down about 3-4 cents in thirty days. Best lambs brought 13 1-2 cents against 16 cents a month earlier, while muttons cleared at 8 1-2 cents to 8 3-4 cents, or a drop of 3 cents in the four weeks."

Brady Youths To Trial On Charge Of Bank Robbery

BRADY, May 20.—(UP)—The robbery of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank here by a group of two youths and four girls will likely come to trial here this week, according to officials of the district court which convened here today.

State's evidence of Mrs. Loleat Smith, member of the party, revealed R. C. Turner, Lucille Awalt, Billie Ballard, Irene Curtis, and Coy Nigh were the five others who took $2,000 from the bank after holding it up with firearms.

This group were all to face trial today except Nigh, a juvenile, who was tried and sentenced in county court to an indeterminate period in the state reformatory.

The robbery occurred during the noon hour, March 21, when all employees were at lunch except Harold Johnson, assistant cashier, and a bookkeeper.

FLYING DUCHESS REALLY "DROPS IN" ON FRIENDS

LONDON, May 20.—(UP)—The Duchess of Bedford, the 63-year-old "Flying Duchess," has a novel way of visiting her friends if they have big backyards.

The Duchess just literally "drops in" on them from out of the sky. She recently took a cottage at Bosham, near Chichester, and often she flies to and from her country home to London. On several occasions she landed her plane in a field behind friend's homes when she intended to visit them. The Duchess has her own pilot's license.

Browning to Invest Millions for Fund For Young Friends

By PAUL FREDRIX
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, May 20.—(UP)—Edward W. "Daddy" Browning has a whooping big idea. He is going to auction off some $6,000,000 worth of his skyscrapers and apartment houses and establish the Browning Foundation for his "young friends."

Browning got the idea last Christmas when scores of children attending his annual toy party crashed through plate glass windows in their eagerness for candy harps and toilet sets, and were sent to the hospital.

"Why not," said Daddy, "move my charity closer to the hospitals so the kiddies won't have so far to go?"

With Daddy, to think was to act—and in terms of millions. So on June 11, when Prof. Milton D. Crandall's dance marathon supposedly will have ended and moved out, Browning will stage a great show of his own in Madison Square Garden.

Three auctioneers will sell to the highest bidder 60 parcels of property which Daddy has been accumulating for 30 years. They range from a 16-story Mercantile building

The preparation of tripe is not at all mysterious although many housewives seem to think so. The department of home economics, National Live Stock and Meat Board, gives these suggestions for cooking this delicacy.

There are two varieties of tripe of which the honeycomb is more delicate. It is often sold pickled. The pickled tripe is used in the same way as the fresh, but it does not require long cooking.

Raw tripe should be soaked first in a change of water, then it should be carefully washed and thoroughly scraped to remove fat and inedible portions. Then soak in cold water for several hours and drain. Toss in cold water and bring to the boiling point. Drain and boil salted water—1 teaspoon salt to each quart of water, bring to the boiling point, then cook below boiling point until tender, about 4 hours. Before cooking or before serving, cut in pieces suitable for serving. The tripe is now ready for any desired method of preparation.

It may be served boiled with tomato sauce.

It may be broiled. Brush the pieces of boiled tripe with melted fat. Broil with smooth side down for 3 minutes, then turn and broil other side 2 or 3 minutes. The tripe may be dusted with cracker crumbs before broiling. Serve honeycomb side up, adding melted butter and sprinkling with minced parsley.

In parrying tripe have it cut in narrow strips and cook in small amount of fat in which a few slices of onion have been fried.

Baked tripe is especially good—and different. Trim to a rectangle—retaining parts cut off to make another dish. Boil as usual. Spread honeycomb side with a forcemeat made of sausage or well-seasoned bread dressing. Roll, fasten with small skewers, and brush with melted fat. Bake about 20 minutes. In baking, the top may be spread with buttered crumbs.

The boiled tripe may be sprinkled with salt and pepper and dipped in fritter batter and fried in deep fat.

Creamed tripe is a favorite. After the tripe has been boiled let it lie for ten minutes in a quart of water to which 1 tablespoon of vinegar has been added. Drain, dice, and re-heat with rich white sauce.

Oysters and creamed tripe are a nice combination.

Tripe may be scaloped with oysters, or celery.

Onions, sour pickles, and tart sauce go well with tripe.
