

Bristow And Quails Meet In Golf Finals

Herald Cooking School Announced

The opening gun in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce investigation into government costs for the purpose of forming a tax reduction is fired in the following editorial, to appear in the next issue of West Texas Today, the chamber's monthly publication.

The American Goliath
Taxation and public expenditures have been referred to as our "fastest-growing industry."

Analysis of the figures show ample grounds for such a claim. Since 1912, public expenditures for federal, state and local governmental purposes have increased from three billion to twelve and a half billion dollars per year. Governmental expenditures per capita have increased since 1913 from $9.24 to $99.23. One person out of twelve is now on the public payroll, while in 1912 it was one out of twenty-five. Fifteen per cent of our national income now goes to support the Government, while in 1913, seven per cent of our national income was consumed by taxation.

Approximately the same trend of increased expenditures appears in our own local and state government. State expenditures have increased from about $2 per capita in 1913 to over $12 per capita now—a six hundred per cent increase in population. Some of our cities have bonded and taxed themselves beyond their ability to pay, and have increased expenditures far beyond the increase in wealth and in population. It is estimated that taxes now consume 70 per cent of the net profits of agriculture and related industries; 35 per cent of the mining and quarrying industries; 20 per cent of the public service industries, and so on for the entire category of business. Everybody knows instances where taxes were more than the returns from the property. There is a greater tax delinquency than at any time.

All of the above has occurred in the face of the fact that expenditures in private business during the last few years have been greatly decreased. Salaries have been cut, services have been discontinued, consolidations have been made, and everything possible has been done in private business to reduce costs. Increased public expenditures, however, go on and on while we are getting five cents for cotton as against thirteen cents in 1913, and until recently, fifteen cents for oil.

WEST TEXAS TODAY believes that before business can return to normal, public expenditures and taxation will have to come down. WEST TEXAS TODAY also believes that the blame for the present situation should not be placed upon the shoulders of our public officials, but that the blame instead rests more upon the shoulders of our business men and taxpayers. Our public officials, we think, for the most part fairly and honestly express and execute the will of their constituents. They have given us the kind of government we have demanded. It is true that we have been "howling" about taxes at each election for years, but it is also true that at the same time, we have been demanding increased services from the government; have been apathetic about bond elections and have shown very little interest in the expenditures for government. What interest we have shown has been in getting

Bob Scott Loses In Thurber Match

THURBER, Sept. 7.—Youth took charge of the opening rounds of play in the third annual Thurber Country Club invitation tournament here Sunday. Four of the young golfing clan—Richard Snider, Dublin; James Smith, Ranger; Howard Gibson, Thurber; and S. J. Barnett, Eastland—advanced into the semifinals, which will be played Monday morning, with the finals in the afternoon.

Barnett, medalist, received hard fights in both of his matches. In the morning he defeated Oliver Wragg, Breckenridge, 2 and 1, and downed Joe Schermer, Thurber, 3 and 2 in the afternoon.

Snider gained the semifinal round by defeating Bob Scott of Colorado, defending champion, 2 and 1, and D. A. Harkrider, Ranger, 1 up.

Smith's two victories were over Victor Bouldin, 3 and 2, and Raymond Stocker, Mineral Wells, 4 and 3. Gibson competes Monday through a 3 and 2 victory over J. Dixon White, Dublin, and 2 and 1 triumph over George Meredith, Eastland.

The Weather

In Divorce Action

George Lott, Davis cup tennis star, has been named defendant in a divorce action brought by his wife, Mrs. Abigail Stapleford Allen Lott. Suit was filed in Philadelphia.

Daily Average Crude Oil Runs 38,021 Barrels

Grand Total Of Runs Under Proration 29,490,279 Barrels

Daily average of crude oil run from the prorated areas of Howard and Garza counties was 38,021 barrels during the month of August, according to a report from E. E. Andrews, Abilene, proration umpire.

Total of runs for the month was 875,534 barrels, bringing the grand total run since proration was put into effect three years ago in part of the field to 29,490,279 barrels.

Continental Oil company, with 93 wells, was by far the largest producer with a total of 129,828 barrels run to pipelines.

Attendance At Churches Larger

Increasing attendance for the churches of Big Spring was manifested here Sunday according to the weekly survey conducted by the Herald. Both Sunday School and church attendance appeared on the up-grade as the fall season approached.

Leading the field, the First Methodist church had 377 present out of an enrollment of 486, while the First Baptist came second with 293 out of a possible 650. East Fourth Baptist scored a splendid attendance, getting 228 out of an enrolled 325. The First Christian Church probably first in percentage of enrolled present, announced 154 out of 220 on the Sunday School roll.

RANCH DEALS

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Sept. 7 (AP)—There are a number of ranch deals in progress in the territory west and northwest of San Angelo. The sheep business is seeking more elbow room, and many a hundred miles of fence will be erected in the Midland, Rankin and even Big Bend country this fall. Once people thought cattle only could be raised here, but it has developed into a great sheep country. Many ranchmen are looking for the Fort Davis territory to develop into a good sheep area.

UNEMPLOYED TO MEET

A meeting of unemployed men was announced this morning for Monday evening on First street between Main and Runnels.

CUSTOMS FORCE INCREASED

McALLEN, Sept. 7. (INS)—The federal customs force in McAllen has been increased to seven men by the addition of Patrol Inspector Walter H. Wells, of Fort Worth. It was announced by Senior Patrol Inspector H. H. Schildt.

Mrs. Dougan To Lecture For Women

Noted Expert Presents Cookery Art In Most Interesting Manner

"It's time to eat." Echoes of the chiming of Normandy would fall no more pleasingly on the ear of the average American than the summons of the dinner bell—be it from golden tongue, or the old brass gong on the farm. The meal itself may be elaborate or simple, but the call of the dinner bell is universally heeded.

And because everyone likes good food properly cooked and because of its necessity, the Herald is pleased to announce to its women readers that an expert in cookery will conduct a free cooking school for them during the week of September 28, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Settles Hotel. Mrs. Myra Oliver Dougan, home economics lecturer of national renown, has been secured for this event and the Herald invites its women readers to be its guests each afternoon of the school, beginning on September 28th.

Mrs. Dougan will need no introduction to many women of the city who have heard her lecture before. Her present rank in the ever-widening world of home economics has come only after years of study, experiment and testing, and the most painstaking observation of what people like to eat—and most important—what they should eat.

In her travels over the United States, Mrs. Dougan has found many interesting bits of information concerning the oldest methods of cooking; foreign dishes; origins of favorite recipes, and hints of household management, obtained from the hundreds of women with whom she has come in contact. The Herald has assembled these "odds and ends" into a series of features which will be published each day prior to the cooking school date.

It is hoped that women readers will follow these stories, so that a "working idea" of the possibilities of the school and the personality of the lecturer may be obtained. For personality is surely one characteristic which such a woman must have, it would seem, in order to hold the interest of an audience of women, explain carefully each step she takes, and at the same time peel, pour, season, stir—along with such a degree of accuracy that at every daily lecture she produces the perfection of cooking from the recipes demonstrated in her model stage kitchen.

Judge Brooks Opens Court

Convening in its initial session, the special 35th district court Monday set Tuesday as appearance day, appointed its jury commission, fixed the date of one case, and adjourned for the day.

Judge James F. Brooks, appointee of Governor Ross S. Sterling to occupy the bench of the 35th special district court, presided over the opening session of the court. His first act before adjourning for the day was to name Steve Ford, Pat Roberts and Pat Cantrell to draw up a jury list for the trial and to the date of the Grissom - Robertson Stores, Inc. vs. Hob Austin case for the 28th of September.

Channing, Texas, Fire Loss Set At $250,000

CHANNING, Sept. 7 (AP)—Eight business buildings, valued with contents at $250,000 were swept by fire here Sunday. Flames, by high winds, the blaze was completely beyond control of bucket brigades. Emergency calls were answered from Dumas and Dalhart. Women and children joined the bucket-line attempt to quell the fire. Guards patrolled the town last night to prevent pillages.

CATTLE FROM MEXICO

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Sept. 7 (AP)—Movements of Mexican cattle to this side of the Rio Grande have been abnormally light in the Prorated section this year. There has been some movement toward Mexico City and to Chihuahua, but cattle bought for importation into the United States have been almost negligible.

The duty to the United States is so high as to make importations impossible now. Calves are the only kind of livestock that will make any money, say veteran ranchmen of that section.

No Rest For Steer Squad

Boys Must Prepare For Initial Game, Scheduled For Friday

Labor Day is a laboring day for the Big Spring high school football team. Because the rest of the city banks in the mellowing sun and lazier years for Friday and football season is no reason that Bristow and his crew can take the day off. They need every minute of available practice between today and Friday.

After today there will be only two additional practice sessions, Thursday, the day before the initial game for the Steers, can only be capitalized for extremely light exercises calculated to loosen up the muscles of the griders.

Reports coming from Lamesa place the Tornados, the first rivals of Bristow's thundering herd, in much the same category with Steers. They have five men back that could have the term "experienced" applied to them. The balance are light and about the same color as the cotton leaves of Dawson county. However, that alone does not warrant a let-up by Bristow. He could ill afford to let up if his first game were with a Camp Fire Girl's team.

Lamesa may have a veridant crop of material, but Coaches McCollum, Gregg and Bryant have instilled a "fight" wallop into the hearts of the Golden Tornados. Big Spring will not strike a team that will give up on the Steer stadium grounds here Friday.

It is yet early to pick an opening line-up, but it is a safe bet that Messrs. Dennis, Heblson and Flowers will be among those who are on the field in Big Spring uniforms when the kick-off is made. Just who will be the quarterback is speculative, however it is likely that Howard Schwarzenbach will back signals. Two things handicap him. He is a shade small and not fleet on a long stretch.

Starters in the line are not all certain. But Hopper, Coats, Dyer, Roberts and Orr appear to be among those who will first wallow on the grassy surface of the recent sodded high school playing field. The rest of the forward wall is a mystery. All the speculations as to the beginning arrangement of Bristow's team may go for naught. He might open the season with a full team of shock troops on the field today at 3:30 p. m. the Steers will rehearse. If Coach Bristow is fortunate in his quest upon the Country Club links for the beautiful cup offered to the winner of the invitational golf meet, then he will not be with the lads. He will be getting off his distant drives and digging up divots with a maul, while George Brown, line coach, assumes complete control of the squad.

Scrimmage will be part of the dish for the Steers today. Actual hostilities are due to start near 4:30 p. m. on the practice field at 19th and Golld.

Band To Rehearse At 8 This Evening

The Big Spring Municipal band will hold a rehearsal this evening at 8 o'clock at the Douglas hotel. Director Harman announced.

Addition of four experienced musicians had added much interest among band members. The new members are John Grief, bass; O. Grief, baritone; Morine Grief, cornet; and Hazel Williams, cornet. They have recently moved here as members of the Salvation Army force.

Louisiana Governor Says Anything Except 'Holiday' Impractical

Newspapers of Texas again were haranged Monday by Governor Huey P. Long, of Louisiana, chairman of the recent south-wide cotton conference in New Orleans, with a statement, transmitted from the Canal City by telegraph, urging Texas to consider no other cotton production control plan except a complete "holiday" from planting cotton next season.

Governor Long declares that any other type of legislation would be "no law at all" and "unconstitutional on the face of it."

His statement follows: "I make this appeal to the legislature and to the people of the state of Texas in regard to the cotton legislation: "Unless the legislature passes a law entirely forbidding the planting of cotton in 1932, then it will do the cotton situation no good at all. A law that simply prohibits 30 per cent, or 65 per cent, will be the same as no law, because it will not only be unconstitutional on its face, but it is impossible of enforcement. Nobody can swear just what land was planted in cotton in the preceding year. It is so easy to cultivate cotton that it is possible to raise as much on half the land as was raised on the whole acreage in the preceding year."

"It has become recognized by everyone who is interested in this movement in all the other states, with the single exception of Texas, that the only thing that can be done is to pass a law positively prohibiting the planting of cotton altogether. That kind of a law will raise the price of cotton instantly, as soon as that law is passed the cotton price will go up from 15 to 30 cents per pound. But a law that proposes to have an acreage reduction will not raise the price of cotton one-tenth of one cent per pound, but on the contrary will be recognized as no law at all, and will result in the market probably falling instead of rising."

Worth $250,000,000 "If Texas will pass a law prohibiting the raising of cotton altogether, it will mean $250,000,000 more to the farmers this year than they will otherwise get for their cotton. They will get more money for the cotton crop of this year than they will get for the crop of this year and next year, and the year after the next. A farmer can sit in the shade of a tree if he is too lazy to do anything else and make more money by planting no cotton next year than he can if he worked 365 days of the year to raise another cotton crop."

"But as a matter of fact there will be plenty for the farmer to do otherwise, and this will be the opportunity for farmers to be placed upon an independent, self-sustaining basis for the year to come. And thereafter what cotton they do plant can be produced cheaply by reason of having eliminated the boll weevil pest. It would be a blessing to the South if we learned that we didn't have to plant cotton."

"The world has too much cotton on hand to stand any cotton at all next year. We carried over nine million bales from last year. We raised 15,580,000 bales this year, giving us a total of 24,580,000 bales of which we can use only 11,600,000 bales this year. This means that if we plant any cotton for next year, we will have more on hand at the end of next year than the world will need."

Constitutional Route The only means by which this legislation would be held to be constitutional is for the worthy cause of stamping out the pest, root rot, and particularly eliminating the boll weevil. Except for that, the legislation could not be constitutional. If the law allows one half the amount of cotton to be planted

DALLAS, Sept. 7. (INS)—Oil men interested in the East Texas field predicted today that the proration order under which daily production of 225 barrels per well is being allowed will not remain in force more than 15 days. Within that time, they think, Governor Ross Sterling will either order another complete shut down or the allowable production will be revised downward.

With production under the present order already in excess of 400,000 barrels per day, prospects were that it would grow rapidly as new wells were brought in. With greater production, prices were expected to tumble. Besides, a great deal of natural waste may result from the per well basis for production, operators said.

It is anticipated by most oil men, therefore, that either proration orders must be revised to base the allowable on an acreage unit, rather than a well unit, or another complete shutdown will follow as a matter of course.

Brief Life Predicted For Order Opening East Texas Oil Fields; Revision Downward Is Expected

DALLAS, Sept. 7. (INS)—Oil men interested in the East Texas field predicted today that the proration order under which daily production of 225 barrels per well is being allowed will not remain in force more than 15 days. Within that time, they think, Governor Ross Sterling will either order another complete shut down or the allowable production will be revised downward.

Little Crude To Storage In Permian Basin

DAILY average production at distribution in the Permian Basin were almost equal during the week ending August 26 with the result that a daily average of only 706 barrels went to storage, compared with 8,042 barrels during the preceding week, according to Lea County, New Mexico's daily average production figures on Lea County were not obtained.

Daily average production in nine West Texas counties increased 4,699 barrels, while two counties showed a decline of 328 barrels and daily average production in two counties, Irion and Scurry, was the same. This brought about a gain of 2,371 barrels, 2,381 production, a daily average of 204,519 barrels compared with 201,129 barrels by 2,879 barrels during the preceding week. The two new wells were added in Ward County.

Daily average distribution increased 16,707 barrels to 25,941 barrels. The gain was due largely to an increase in daily average pipeline runs of 10,129 barrels to 15,202 barrels. Daily average tank shipments amounted to 1,381 barrels, compared to none the week before. Daily average runs to refineries within the district dropped 5,000 barrels to 26,120 barrels.

Bristow And Robbins; Nix And C. Quail

Post Man Burns Up Course; Kid Player Gets Hot; Hole-In-One Made

Charles Quails, Post City postmaster and holder of the West Texas golf championship, and Gordon "Obie" Bristow were to tangle this afternoon in the final match of the Country Club invitational tournament. Bristow won the right to challenge the veteran Quail by slapping a stinging 4 and 3 defeat on Robbins. Quails settled his match in a most sensational manner as he sunk a 15 yard approach shot for an eagle 3 with C. E. Nix, Sweetwater, lying next to the cup ready for a birdie 4.

Quails, West Texas champion, entered the semi-final round by defeating Rose, Lamesa's crack tournament warrior, 4 and 2 Sunday afternoon. He already had eliminated L. E. Vaughn of Lamesa.

To get Rose out Quails shot sub-par golf. He was one under par for 16 holes, after having shot four under par on the first nine in his initial match. Vaughn was one over par on the front nine in the morning match.

Quails-Rose
The Quails-Rose match ended with the scintillating tee shot by the Postmaster. With but one hole needed to win he put his drive on the 273-yard hole smack on the green. Rose was in the rough. Quails ended it with a birdie 2.

Obie Bristow, one of the longest drivers in the southwest, was three down at the twelfth. His driver had not been doing him right. He launched a rally on the twelfth, slanking a long uphill putt to take the hole. He followed with a birdie 2 on the 90-yard "blin shot" fourteenth and continued his rampage for a 2 and 3 victory. This, one of the toughest young linksmen in this section gave him plenty of worry. Bristow's tee shot on the long seventeenth went far out of the fairway. But two men following the pair stepped off 347 yards between the tee and the ball.

Evening was looking up to the Bristow-Robbins match as a "dinger." Robbins, with less tournament experience than his adversary, was expected, however, to display some great golf. He is one of the most polished players in West Texas.

Robbins "Hot"
An idea of his prowess may be gained from his first round match with Harry Lee. Harry was one down at the turn. Robbins uncocked the firework's beginning with the tenth. His tee shot was on the green. He slammed through to take the match 6 to 5. He was three under par on the back nine to the end of the match.

One of the toughest scraps of the tournament was staged between Steve Ford, jr. Big Spring's "kid" golfer, and Frank Day of Midland. Little Steve came to the eighteenth hole out with a 40-foot shot, one of those things. The match continued through the 21st, where Day nosed out.

Hole-In-One
John Northington, whose 65 won medalist honors in the qualifying round after going down 5 and 4 to a 2 and 3 victory. This, came back in his consolation match Sunday afternoon with Granville of Borger to win 6 and 5.

But merely winning the match was not the big thrill for John. He ended the duel with a hole-in-one on the 14th.

F. H. Liberty, after qualifying in the fourth flight with 106, opened match play Sunday morning by shooting an 81, putting Lloyd Stammer out 10 and 9. In the afternoon he socked W. Bedichek down 6 and 5, with a 68 on the 15 holes he played.

Monroe Johnson forced Dr. E. O. Ellington to stroke the back nine green, to win 2 up.

Ellington and Clyde West were playing the lower bracket semi-final this morning for the right to enter the final with Liberty, Stammer and Bedichek were to decide who would meet Johnson in the consolation final of the "dub" flight.

In the first flight, W. E. Rutledge, Lamesa, who barely missed the first flight, swept through two easy matches into the semifinals. He beat R. T. Piner of Big Spring, 6-5, in the morning and handed Fred Stephens, also of Big Spring, a defeat by the same score in the afternoon. He meets J. Satterwhite of Texas in the semifinals, while R. Shuffler, Odessa, meets T. P. Vaughn of Odessa for the finalists' berth.

M. P. King of Stanton meets C. D. Baxley in one of the semi-final matches of the second flight. W. T. Henderson, Odessa, and E. Griffith were in the other berth. In the third flight, W. B. Currie plays W. O. Thompson, and W. H. Hardy plays F. Day of Midland in the semifinals.

Championship Flight
Obie Bristow, defeated G. C. Southworth, Sweetwater, 3 and 2. E. C. Nix, Lamesa, downed R. Parker, Lamesa, 5 and 4. G. B. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

BUY 113,000 ACRES
SAN ANGELO, Texas, Sept. 7 (AP)—Heirs of the late W. T. Waggoner, Texas oil man, have bought 113,000 acres of the Bell ranch in San Miguel county, New Mexico. The price announced was one-half million dollars, or $4.35 an acre, the highest price paid in recent years for grazing land in New Mexico.

Cattle Business Comes To Life In August; $2,330,000 Received By Stock Men, Angelo Surney Shows

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Sept. 7. (AP)—Usually a dull month for dollars, August found an estimated $2,330,000 flowing into the hands of agriculturists over that broad section of West Texas of which San Angelo is the trade territory, leaders in various lines of the ranch and farm business calculate.

The cattle industry came to life during the month to lead the field in receipts. In the McCulloch, Mason, San Saba and Llano counties and from Andrews county to the Big Bend and back to the territory surrounding Abilene cattle trades were fairly active.

It is estimated by San Angelo cattlemen that around 60,000 head of cattle either were bought or shipped to market during the month. Calves brought 66 1/2 cents a pound and weighed 350 to 400 pounds, going to the feed lots of the city belt. An average conservatively low price of $25 a head places the value of cattle shipments at $1,500,000. Their value is perhaps nearer $2,000,000.

The hundred and fifty thousand head of sheep which went to the markets or were bought locally brought another $525,000, and feeder buyers are today making extensive inquiry for feeder purchases of lambs to be fed in the Panhandle or in the northern states. Ranchmen estimate the average price of sheep at $3.50 to $5 with the top paid for high class breeding stock.

Some scattered sales of wool at around 20 cents a pound have seen the movement of about 70,000 lbs. during August, boosting the total ranch receipts about $14,000. In addition, about 5,000 mutton and other goats went to market at an average of $2 a head for another $10,000.

Early sales of mohair brought in about $6,500 from the movement of around 30,000 pounds of the clip at an average price of 15 cents for green and 25 cents for kid hair. These mohair prices are early speculative purchases and are not considered the market.

Early sales of grain, which is extremely plentiful, have seen corn maize moving at $5 to $5 a ton, additional oats and wheat bought for feeding and a great deal of bundled grain bought.

In any direction from San Angelo and one sees ranchman after ranchman and farmer after farmer who is to feed livestock this year.

Watermelons, other garden produce, together with poultry, butter, eggs and milk have brought in an additional $25,000 to swell the purse of West Texas.

Cosden Routs Mexican Nine

Three Hurlers Slapped For Grand Total Of Twenty Runs

Visciously driving three hurlers from the mound and touching another at will, Cosden Refinery completely wrecked the Mexican Tigers here Sunday. Martin, going the round for the Cosden team, held the Tigers to a half dozen safeties while the big bats of his teammates cleared out a 20-5 win.

Cosden jumped into the lead at the beginning of the conflict and added to it at scattered intervals. They connected with the slants of Nevada Payne entirely too often and he had to be removed in favor of Lopez, who solved the situation by yielding a double with two on base. He allowed a single, scoring another run before retiring the Oiler.

It was late in the game before the Tigers ever crossed the plate for a score. They managed to eke out a 5-0 victory.

Chief of the Mountain View Temple No. 47, the name of the local temple.

over a five run total before angering the hard hitting Oiler, who in turn sent a shower of baseballs to all corners of the park. Before the onslaught could be checked, Cosden had piled up an even score of tallies.

Tigers were connecting with everything that Martin threw up, but someone was always under the square hit balls. Very few of the balls the Tigers slugged out went for hits. They went, instead, straight into the gloves of waiting Cosden players. It was quite the opposite with Cosden at bat. Oiler bats always found the holes in the infield and pecked away at them. Errors by Tigers accounted for additional impetus for the Cosden attack.

Cealburn is scheduled to play the Tigers on the T&P grounds between the shops and the campus this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Cosden is negotiating for games with Midland here during the middle and latter part of the week.

"I appeal to every lawmaker of the state of Texas, and to the people and to every cotton farmer, that they do not step out of line with the other states Louisiana has passed a law to prohibit cotton planting altogether in 1932. Arkansas is ready to pass the same law. South Carolina is ready to pass the same law. Georgia will probably pass the same law. And I am told by the newly elected Governor of Mississippi that we will have no trouble with the newly elected legislature of Mississippi in passing the law if the other states come along.

Hack Wilson All Washed Up

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Hack Wilson Sunday was suspended by President William L. Veeck of the Cubs for the remainder of the National league season. The suspension was imposed at Manager Rogers Hornsby's request, and is without pay. "Infraction of training rules," was given as the reason.

Pat Malone, right-handed pitching star, also was disciplined by President Veeck for "disorderly conduct and roistering. Malone was given a heavy fine but was not suspended. The disciplinary actions were said to have been the result of incidents which occurred while the Cubs were in Cincinnati last week.

Veeck's action indicated Wilson has worn Cub regimentals for the last time. Owner William Wrigley, Jr., last week said he wanted Wilson sold or traded, adding that it was a "personal wish" and that Hornsby and Veeck would decide what to do with the pudgy outfielder, who set a new National league record of 58 home runs last season.

Indications Wilson was "all done" as far as Hornsby was concerned, was given at Cincinnati when Veeck, taken at Churt, England, where he is recovering from his recent illness. With him is Master David Czevy-Evans.

Mrs. W. D. McDonald, Mrs. J. E. Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Eubank motored to Midland today to attend the races.

New Treatment Developed For Bites of Snakes

Discovery of the suction method of treatment of snake bites by Dr. Dudley Jackson, of San Antonio, and its subsequent development by Dr. Jackson and Col. M. L. Crimmins is of great interest to those who spend most of their lives in the open.

Dr. Jackson's success along this line stimulated research which revolutionized the existing treatment with the result that we now have a method that is relatively simple and its subsequent development by the local druggists we have been able to secure this valuable information concerning the treatment of snake bites.

The Jackson treatment, described below has been thoroughly tested, rechecked, approved and recommended by the U. S. Public Health Service and is now found in all first aid magazines and Scout publications on the subject.

1. Instantly apply a light tourniquet about two inches above the wound. This tourniquet should be tight enough to stop the flow of blood into the part but rather only tight enough to stop the circulation of the venom through the lymphatic circulation system, which lies close to the skin. As the swelling moves up the tourniquet should be moved slightly, so as to always keep ahead of the swelling.

2. Quickly join the two fang marks by cross incisions 1-4 inch deep and 1-2 inch long with a sharp lance or knife point. Other incisions of this size should be made around the swelling which develops. Care should be used not to cut into a vein - if that happens it should be controlled at once.

3. Suction should be immediately applied, preferably with a suction bulb. But with the lips if necessary. This suction should be continued for a half hour and repeated for fifteen to twenty minutes during each following hour.

4. The patient must be kept quiet, as movement stimulates circulation and favors the spread of the poison.

5. Send for a doctor at once. If possible to move the patient easily to a doctor or hospital do so but do not interrupt the first aid treatment.

6. Wet dressings which will keep the wound open and draining should be applied between the suction periods.

Contrary to a general opinion that prevails, only about one out of every three rattlesnake bites are fatal. After sucking an object it takes the snake about two weeks to build up enough poison to deliver a full load when it strikes again.

The poison of a snake is not fatal, unless transmitted through the blood stream but through the lymphatic system, and as a general rule it takes seven to ten days to absorb enough poison to kill.

In spite of the fact that it may be an awful blow to some people

CRAWFORD CLEANERS WIN OFF SANITARY BARBERS

Scrapping it out to the finish the Crawford Cleaners finally managed to win from the Sanitary Barbers after the Barbers had taken the first two of the three game series and held to a 33 pin lead. The Cleaners marked up a total of 39 pins in the final encounter to nose the Shavers out by 6 scant pins.

F. Merrick, recently on the war path, made it high in both single matches. He gained 215 pins in one game and totaled 573 for the three games. The Main Street team goes to Pecos Monday for an invitational tournament.

Coming! THE HAPPY KITCHEN Less Work! More Fun!
Sept. 29-Oct. 2

LABOR is the Basis of All Prosperity and on this particular day each year we pause to do honor to the laboring man and his contribution to human life. His work is a noble, constructive one without which all other forms of endeavor would be valueless.

whiskey is contra indicated in snake bite and is probably one of the worst things that you could use.

Fear probably does more harm than the bite at the time a person is bitten and the few common sense things mentioned above if followed will in the majority of cases render the bite harmless.

The snake serum is to be found in all pharmacies and if you contemplate a trip to the country it would be well to take a snake bite kit with you.

more appropriate rather than in decreasing, and abolishing them. We have had the "cart before the horse." We "howl" about taxes and forget about expenditures. Let us get the horse before the cart. Let us get interested in the operations and organization of government, in the services of the government and in the appropriations being made. When expenditures come down, then taxes will come down. Let us quit fighting taxes for awhile and start fighting expenditures. It may be that after all Jefferson's idea of government is our cure when he said, "that government is best which governs the least."
